raise money for emblems for the football team. The gate receipts amounted to enough to cover this additional expense. These programs are to be very sold before hand at a dollar per.

GREEN HOUSES PICKED FROM EACH SECTION.

A. W. S. TEA HELD

Greenough's orchestra will furnish the jazz.

The social committee. The town will pertain to football.

The girls go to the home of the hostess picked from each section.

It is the hope of the A.W.S. that the girls in this way will find out more about the jingle was to put the recipients in a little interest in this hike; get up, and three of these backed out 'because only six people signed 'off 'because only six people signed.

CHRISTMAS DANCE TO FOLLOW CONCERT

The Student Body Christmas dance will be held following the Glee club concert on December 14, in the gymnasium. It is expected that a good crowd will attend this double header program, for it is the only thing of its kind offered throughout the year.

Besides the good music furnished by the Glee clubs, a good dance orchestra and all sorts of entertainments are to be provided for this particular evening.

OUTING CLUB PLANS HIKE FOR TUESDAY

Tuesday afternoon the Outing club will hike to the Angeline hotel and then on to Jewish mission. The last hike was called off because only six people signed up, and three of these backed out last minute. It looks as though the Outing club will cease its activities for lack of interest. The spirit is shown, the Outing club will cease its activities, for lack of interest. The spirit is shown, the Outing club will cease its activities, for lack of interest.

Let everybody get behind the club and put over the schedule. Show your interest in this hike; get the hiking habit! Put your name on the list, then so!

A. W. S. TEA HELD SATURDAY P. M.

The A.W.S. are holding a "Get-acquainted" tea this Saturday afternoon.

The hostesses for the afternoon were chosen by Marian Ogden, the chairman of the social committee. The town was divided into sections and a hostess picked from each section. The girls go to the home of the hostess who lives in their section. It is the hope of the A.W.S. that the girls in this way will find out who lives near them and become better acquainted.

The girls are asked to bring something to keep their fingers busy while they visit. More than likely Christmas will profit by this.

The hostesses for the afternoon are: Rae Harrington, Alma Rounigh, E. Barnett, Barbara Higginbotham, Berta Fuller, Florence Foy, Ruth Dittalo, Irene Cameron, Mary Ratiken, Margaret Cronen, Florence Potting, Frances Jones, Clara Zeigler, Gertrude Ramsey.

The names of the hostesses and their guests are posted on the bulletin board in the girls' club room. Any girl whose name is not there should see Dean Westcott.

All the girls who were asked to attend the tea are requested to be present at Frances Jones' at 2921 Bath street, instead.

THE USE OF THE LIBRARY

The college library is an almost invaluable institution; the students could do very little reference work without it, and there is no doubt that it is arranged for their convenience. Our library is a fairly well equipped one for the size of the college. Every department in the college is represented on its shelves; there are books for the Junior College, for Home Economics, for General Professional students, for the Community Mechanics men, for the Art and Music sections. This is all well and good and such as a well ordered library should be.

The rub comes when we think of the manner in which some of the students regard this agency for studying and reference work. It seems that a few, we are glad it is only a few, are taking books and magazines without signing for them. Perhaps they are in a hurry, or perhaps they feel that they must have the book no matter who has signed up for it. This is an entirely undemocratic attitude for any one to take. Those students who have been careful enough to sign in advance for their books should not be disappointed. All incentive for forethought and intensive study is removed when the irresponsible student at the last minute runs in, grabs the book, and keeps it as long as he wants it with no regard for his fellow classmates.

We hope that those students who have been making a practice of this sort of thing will endeavor to change their habits, if not for their own benefit for the benefit of the school as a whole.

THE JUNIOR COLLEGE PROM

The Junior College Prom has come to be an annual event which is looked forward to throughout the entire year. The students at the college here look upon it as the outstanding social affair of the season, while the out of town college students, who are always invited, find it as a place where they will meet again their old friends besides enjoying an unusually hilarious and festive time.

GOSSIP BUZZES

Among those who went home over the Thanksgiving holidays were: Frances Mclain, Pasadena; Bob Howe and Jack DeLand, Ventura; Frances Drew, San Bernardino; Helen Culp, Fillmore; Irene Young, Seattle; Dorothy Lochen, Atascadero; Marie Girard, Los Angeles; Albert Henning and Dorothy Groves, Fillmore.

Marjorie Lowe played for the KPFI radio station on last Tuesday.

Many of the College students and several of the faculty were present at the regular Saturday night dance at the Arlington last Saturday.

Several of the students took advantage of the vacation to take a journey to Los Angeles. Some of them were: Clara Ziegeler, Al Goech, Lydia Miratti, Elise Le Hiat and Martha Girard.

Charles Mannfield did not go to Bakersfield for Thanksgiving; we wonder why.

Iva stewart, Mae Watson and Paul Jones are minus some jewelry since a burglar visited their home a short time ago. So far, the guilty culprit has not been caught.

Marjorie Gates was in San Francisco over the holidays.

Dorothy Edmonson, who has been ill for some time, expects to return after Christmas.

Sonny Schon does not seem to be able to give a good account of his doings over the Thanksgiving vacation. He says he went to San Francisco and Lake Tahoe. He also ate some turkey.

Mr. Guether spent the Thanksgiving holidays in San Francisco. He is said to have had a remarkably good time.

Dorothy Hitchcock and Helen Erickson, former members of the College, who are now attending SBUC, came home for Thanksgiving.

A new typewriter has appeared in the Student Body office. Those who have struggled with the former dilapidated wreck will be glad to have this information.

Emma Blum, a former student here, is now doing office work in Los Angeles. In a card to Dear Westcott she sent her regards to all her friends in the school.

It is said that a certain person in sporting a very good looking engagement ring. The ring appears to have been a short time ago on the third finger of a charming young lady from Fillmore.

Members of the football team are seen to be growing fatter since the end of the football season. Is there something we can do about it? Perhaps we could remove the ice cream machine.

REPORTS OF MEETING

A discussion of how the Junior College affiliations are working out took place. President, Clarke of the State Board of Education, reported on the work of the various Junior College federations, according to President Phelps, that relations between the affiliated colleges are highly satisfactory.

In regard to the local institution the committee expressed itself as desirous to give it as fair a recognition as any institution. President Phelps stated that students from this institution will find it advantageous to secure a transcript of their records and a letter from the president before making identifications with the university. Only those students who are without full standing will have any difficulty in securing rating at the university.

A report of the rating of transfers now at Stanford showed that they ranked higher than the average for the university as a whole. The University of California showed a slightly better rating for the first semester for Junior College transfers.

is promised by the class of '27.
A chorus of fifteen or twenty or more (all under thirty).
The latest and best in current syncopation.

The rest of the program remains a mystery. The Freshmen are withholding further particulars, but promise a number of surprises.

Much has been said of the tired business man and much has been done to alleviate his ennui, but until now, nothing has been done to lighten the grind of the stu-

that this Frolic will be but the-nerve of an idea, and will lead to promising a number of surprises.

STUDENT'S FATHER DIES
The school expresses its sympathy for Mable Ellis, who lost her father a short time ago. Miss Ellis attended school here until she was called home to care for her father.

Miss Edith Barnes was a guest of

FIRST ISSUE OF A.W.S.
BULLETIN RECEIVED

"The A.W.S. Bulletin," a paper published for the intercollegiate women students of Southern Caliifornia at the San Diego College, was received by the women students last week. This was the first issue of a publication which is de-tined to bring the Southern Caliifornia college women in closer relationships through a better knowledge of the working of the respective A.W.S. organizations.

The activities of the local A.W.S.
were prominently featured in the Bulletin. The cordial reception accorded the I. W. A. convention held here last spring, the traditional "Backward Party" given Freshmen, Dean Westcott's tea in honor of the girls, and the organization of a W. A. A. here, were all mentioned as items of interest to the entire association.

"Women's Power" was the subject of an inspiring and enlightening article by Dean Westcott, which appeared in the paper.
