SANTA BARBARA, CAL., THURSDAY, JULY 26, 1855.

THE GAZETTE.

SWEET WINE INLAND.

THE proposition of establishing a Fur-Trade-station, and, in the neighborhood of the mouth of the Gavilan, on the coast, near the head of San Diego Bay, is said to have been the subject of a letter from Mr. C. S. Barstow, of that place, to Mr. J. A. Smith, of San Francisco.

THE CATTLE TRADE.

A large quantity of cattle is said to have been taken from the land of the Modoc Indians, near the mouth of the Klamath River, in the territory of Oregon, and sent to the large market at Yuma, in Arizona. The cattle were said to be of a superior quality, and to have been driven to that point by the Indians, who, it is stated, were induced to make the movement by the promises of the United States Government, to the effect that their property would be protected in the future.

SANTA BÁRBARA.

JUEVES, 20 DE JULIO, 1855.

La Comision Constitucional Central del Estado, ha decretado el 17 de julio último, que la elección de la ciudad ordenada para el 30 de mayo, no habiendo sido efectuada, se repite para el día 30 de julio próximo.

Sin embargo, algunos cumplen con su deber, y otras son demasiado distantes. En un momento, todo se derrumba, y el agua solo puede explicarse por los grandes terremotos que han ocurrido en los pastos y campos de la región. Se respira el aire, y en los demás lugares hay un silencio general. La ciudad de Santa Bárbara, en la segunda semana de julio, fue devastada por un terremoto que produjo daños inmensos.
