ROADRUNNERS TO PLAY LAST GAME

FRESHMEN PUT ON GREAT DAY FOR ASSEMBLY

Freshman class day, Tuesday, was heralded by the freshman colors along the corridors, with huge 31's sprinkled in appropriate positions.

The brilliant streamers of red and white decorated the rafters and the banisters, as well as the wires strung across the quad. A miniature lighthouse was planted in the pool.

Virginia Weber, social chairman for the Freshman class, and Carolyn Hardison, her assistant, had charge of the program, which was given during the fourth hour.

Louise Lowry sang a solo, "The Sunshine of Your Smile." Doris Rodehaver gave an amusing monologue of an Italian's first experience on the golf links. Six women of the Freshman class gave a group of clogging dances. They were Sarah Brooks, Rosamond Young, Ayaka Asakura, and Helen Hanson.

Bruce Tomlinson, accompanied by Carolyn Hardison, played a cello solo, "To the Evening Star." what men I mean. But speaking

CAST IS SELECTED FOR ONE-ACT PLAY

The cast for "The Valient," the play to be given in the near future by the Forum club has been chosen after many try-outs and hard work on the part of the judges.

The players have had experience, both here and at high school. Bernard Barnes, who takes the part of the warden, had the character of the lover of Mary Magdala in the Lenten play given on the campus last year. Francis Williams had the lead in a one-act play given by the Junior class of last year.

Others in the cast and the part they play are David Watson, who is "Dyke," Richard Romaine, who takes the part of "Father Drey," Isabelle Irwin, who is The Girl, and William Roulston, the attendant.

Richard Romaine was the star of the Senior play given last year by the high school of Santa Barbara. Francis Williams is the jailor in this play, "The Valient."

TAU OMEGA HOLDS OUTING

The Tau Omegas held a very enjoyable outing at El Capitan last Sunday. Hiking, swimming, archery and barn yard golf furnished everyone with an appetite for a steak dinner prepared by the pledges. In the evening the meeting adjourned to Mac's Shack where dancing and other pastimes were enjoyed.

DEFEAT PUTS ROADRUNNERS OUT OF RUN IN CONFERENCE

Slippery fingers were the direct cause of Santa Barbara State's downfall when they lost to California Polytechnic at San Luis Obispo last Saturday by a 33-12 count. Seven fumbles were chalked up against the Roadrunners, Poly recovering two for touchdowns and recovering four others to stop a Santa Barbara parade to the goal line.

Santa Barbara drew first blood after three minutes of play in the first quarter. An exchange of punts gave the Roadrunners the ball on the Mustangs' 30 yard line. End runs by Glover and line bucks by Curtis and Gates Foss put the ball on the 3-yard line. Hickman carried it across on a pretty reverse. The attempted conversion was blocked. A short while later a Poly threat was turned back when Foss fumbled a bad pass from center and Poly recovered on the Santa Barbara 10-yard line. Poly lost 8 yards on the first play and Hickman intercepted a pass to give Santa Barbara the ball on the 5-yard line. Ross punted 40 yards, but Poly returned to the 4-yard line, where three line bucks carried over. The conversion was blocked.

In the second period the Roadrunners carried the ball to the Mustangs' 8-yard line in successive plays only to lose it when Curtis fumbled and Poly recovered. Cal Poly kicked and another Santa Barbara march was halted when Swanson fumbled and a Poly man scooped the ball up and started for the goal line. Vince overtook him on Santa Barbara's 20-yard line and pulled him down. On the next play the Mustangs passed over Swanson's head for a touchdown. The conversion was successful.

Soon after the opening of the third quarter Hickman accounted for the second Roadrunners' score when he received a punt on his own 40-yard line and ran back 60 yards with perfect interference for a touchdown. The conversion was wild. Another Cal Poly threat was driven back in this quarter. Two runs of 20 yards and 25 yards put the ball on the Santa Barbara 3-yard line. A 5-yard penalty was socked on Poly and on the next play Denno broke through and smeared it 8-yards behind the line. A pass was incomplete over the goal line, giving Santa Barbara the ball.

In the fourth quarter the Mustangs counted three times, twice on fumbles by Imes and Foss, and once on an intercepted pass. The Roadrunners filled the air with passes, several being completed for nice gains.

S. B. Student Body Offers Sympathy to Doctor Markthaler

The Student Body of Santa Barbara State college takes this opportunity to tender to Dr. Markthaler its condolences for the death of his wife.

As an expression of sympathy and regret for the passing away of the wife of Dr. Markthaler, all classes were dismissed after one-thirty Monday.

Dr. Markthaler is the college physician, giving a considerable amount of his time to the needs of the students, always ready to serve in any capacity whatever.

JACK SMITH TO MEET 'Y' MEN AT HOLLYWOOD

Efforts to promote a swimming team for Santa Barbara State as well as for other members of the Central Coast Conference are being made by Coach DeGroot, at one time a Stanford swimming star, and Jack Smith, chairman of the Southern California Y.M.C.A. swimming committee. Coach DeGroot is to take up the matter at the annual conference in December with a view to establishing a regular swimming season.

Jack Smith, who instructs the classes in the natatorial sport at the local "Y," with J. C. Lewis, physical director of the "Y," is to present the proposition of establishing a teacher training school for instruction in diving, life-saving, and swimming methods to the Southern California "Y" swimming conference to be held at the Hollywood institution.

VIRGIL GILLUM ATTENDS MEET AT U. C. L. A.

Virgil Gillum, assistant yell leader, who attended the annual Yell Kings convention held last week-end at U. C. L. A., reported a beneficial and interesting time at the southern meet. Harold McCollister, yell leader at U. C. L. A. was host to the representatives of twenty western colleges and universities.

Luncheon was held Friday at the University club, where the associated student body officers of the host university were introduced. During the luncheon the subjects of songs, sportsmanship, yells, card stunts were discussed. Following lunch the visitors were shown about Los Angeles.

The rally for the U. C. L. A.-Pomona grid contest was attended Friday night. At the rally movies were shown of the U. C. L. A.-Roadrunner game held earlier in the season. The yell kings were also guests at the Pomona-U. C. L. A. game in the Coliseum.

ROADRUNNERS MEET STRONG TEAM IN GAME SATURDAY

Saturday afternoon the Roadrunners encounter the San Diego Jaysee in the last game of the scheduled season at Peabody Stadium. The game will be played after the Santa Barbara High School - Harvard Military Academy tussle.

During the past week Coach DeGroot has been drilling his men hard in order to whip the team into shape for the San Diego battle. The southern squad is one of the strongest elevens the Roadrunners have clashed with this season, but even at that the varsity may squeeze out a narrow victory. That is, if it can snap out of a slump that has persisted through two important conference games. The team has been drilling every night thoroughly in preparation for the final tilt.

San Diego has stacked up an imposing record of small scores against its opponents this season, but most of these have been during the early part of its schedules. Its scoring machine has become less effective with each successive game. Early in the season the Aztecs viciously trounced the California Christian College eleven 71-0.

In a later contest, San Diego held the Pomona eleven to a 7-7 tie. Seeing that Pomona and the University of California at Los Angeles fought to a tie last Saturday, and that the U. C. L. A. beat the local varsity 33-0 in an early game reveals the fact that San Diego has plenty of threatening power on its squad.

Last year the Aztecs defeated the Roadrunners 16-0, but the battle was more evenly matched than the figures show. Both of San Diego's touchdowns were on fumbles during the last few minutes of play. The Varsity is hoping and working to the utmost to return last year's Aztec defeat.

San Diego's team this year is lighter and faster and somewhat greener than the squad the Roadrunners met a year ago. However, it has seven letter men on the squad with the reserves being filled in by numeral men and half dozen who have had no college football experience.

The absence of Hickman in next Saturday's game will be a severe loss to the squad. Coach DeGroot has not yet announced the starting line-up but most of the regulars will be back to fill their usual berths.

SAN DIEGO TO BE GUESTS AT FOURTH DANCE

The San Diego football men will be the guests of the college at the third student body dance of the year. It is arranged by the Social committee to be held at the Samarkand, Saturday night.

Doris Smith and Lawrence Ruiz will entertain with a solo dance number. Virginia Weber has charge of the entertainment; Charlotte Bellman, invitations; Henrietta Barnes, decorations; Llewellyn Goodfield, dates; Merton Harlow, transportation; Alfred Boradori, floor manager.

The sponsors of the dance will be Miss Severy, Mr. Selle, Mr. and Mrs. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Ericson, and Dean Ashworth.

The patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. Glover, Mr. and Mrs. Schutte.

The music will be furnished by Reid Hollingsworth's orchestra. The Chaparral Knights will enforce the rules in regard to guest cards. Arrangements for guests must be made with the Social committee.

OUTING CLUB WILL VISIT SAN MARCOS

The Outing club will hold its third outdoor event of the year on Friday when it will visit historic Painted Cave and the National Forest Reserve near San Marcos Pass. Students will leave the campus at 7 in the morning, going directly to the mountain resort. Luncheon will be taken at Foster's Glen, a county park, to the west of Painted Cave. Students will each bring a basket lunch.

President Sheesley stated on Monday that the Outing club's present enrollment is 113, a large increase over last year. The club is the largest organization on the campus besides the Student Body. Announcement was made in Student Body last Tuesday that the construction work on the new stone structure to be erected on the club's site on the Santa Ynez river will be started with a picnic to be held for the men of the college next Saturday and Sunday.

FOUND — AT SAMARKAND

Pearl Crawford has reported that she found an anklet bracelet and also an ornamental pin at the last dance held at the Samarkand. The owner may claim only upon identification, stated Miss Crawford.

LAST GAME OF SEASON TOMORROW

TOMORROW will be played the last regular game of the season. The Roadrunners meet San Diego in one of their most important games, although it is not scheduled in the conference. San Diego is called one of the strongest State Teachers' college teams in California.

According to the sport reports that are given out, San Diego ought to defeat the Roadrunners by four or five touchdowns. Heretofore, however, the Aztecs have been unable to score more than one or two touchdowns over the home team.

This proves conclusively the merit of the team that helps make known the name of Santa Barbara State college. A few mistakes do not tear down the real worth of anything, team or man. Tomorrow, the people in the bleachers will see that the Roadrunners are able to withstand the driving force of a team that is more powerful than they.

It is difficult for the students to have two events featured for a day that follows a holiday for the college. These two affairs are important, yet it is hardly fair to expect the out-of-town students to refuse to go home if they have the opportunity to do so. It will be unfair for criticisms to be expended on them if they do.

Of these two events, the game with San Diego is more important, only a small majority of the students going to the dances held for the college. Support of the team has been droned into the minds of everybody. Many men and women will be in town, finding themselves unable to return to their homes for the Armistice holiday, and the Thanksgiving vacation, also. These men and women are the ones who will be expected to be seen in the bleachers tomorrow, cheering their team to greater strength after their futile struggle of last week.

KEEP THE SPIRIT OF FRIENDLINESS ALIVE

SPONSORS have been named for the social event Saturday. At least two or three of those named will be at the door, ready to welcome the students as they enter.

Sponsors are always obtained for each dance, usually to create a spirit of friendliness among the dancers that is sometimes violated, perhaps unconsciously at times, but again sometimes consciously.

It seems after each dance held this year there has been talk of some disturbance, caused either by uninvited guests or by students themselves. Seen clearly and without prejudice, it is the belief of many that those red identification tags sported by the invited guests are the cause of the whole turbulence. Some regular member of the Student Body glimpses some person whom he does not recognize. The stranger is without a red badge. Instantly the member seethes with the desire to make himself famous by calling attention to the fact that some fellow succeeded in getting upon the floor when he was not specifically invited.

There is a scurrying, and a hurrying, and conspicuous whisperings, and some obstreperous person tries to gain an audience by favoring the suggestion that the strange one be put off the floor.

Suppose this were to happen? Suppose some organization took it as their duty to see that it did happen? What do you suppose would happen to the dances? One-fourth of the women attend these social affairs simply because they are allowed to invite out-of-town men. Do you think the out-of-town man would come, after something of that sort had occurred? Hardly.

NOW ATTEND TO WASTE PAPERS

NOW that the lawns are being improved, how about keeping the lunch papers off the campus? Those incinerators that appear at intervals along the corridor and other prominent spots are not for decorative purposes only. They are for the receiving of papers that are of no more use.

It is just as easy to carry a crumpled paper sack or wrapping for a bar of candy to the proper receptacle as it is to leave it behind. At least the owner would not get branded as being affiliated with that obvious disease of laziness.

Yep!

We, the little ones, cry—

1. THAT THE ROADRUNNER HASN'T BEEN PICKED UP.
2. THAT DICK THE PEST HASN'T BEEN QUARANTINED FOR BEING SUCH.
3. THAT SOME FRESHMEN AREN'T BACK IN HIGH SCHOOL.
4. THAT THE LIGHTHOUSE DOESN'T LIGHTEN US WITH ANYTHING.
5. THAT ARMISTICE DAY DOESN'T COME OFTEN.

REALIZING THE NEED FOR BETTER ASSEMBLIES AND RALLIES, YEP IS INAUGURATING A BABY CONTEST. THE CONTEST IS OPEN TO ALL FRESHMEN AND COLLEGE STUDENTS. THE FOUR GREATEST MEN WILL ACT AS JUDGES. THEIR NAMES WILL BE KEPT SECRET UNTIL THE CLOSE OF THE CONTEST.

Rules of the contest:—

- 1.—No mother may enter two babies or her husband in disguise.
- 2.—Pet cats, dogs, white mice or canary birds are barred from the contest.
- 3.—Babies must be able to swim the length of the pond and imitate a bullfrog.
- 4.—Baby should be able to gurgle a bottle of milk in true collegiate style.
- 5.—Babies must refrain from making disturbing noises or otherwise corrupting the slumber of college students.

The Home Ecceers will supervise and check the babes. The first entry is from Wasco. Mrs. Altissimus Humfeld is the boastful mother of little Altitude Humfeld.

ALTITUDE WAS BORN WITH A SILVER SPOON IN HIS MOUTH, WHICH HE HOLDS IN HIS RIGHT HAND. THE SPOON IS SLIGHTLY TARNISHED BUT SHOULD NOT HAVE NOTICED THAT. ALTITUDE WAS RAISED ON CHIPPED BEEF, COCONUT MILK AND YEAST CAKES. HE WAS SO INTELLIGENT LOOKING AT BIRTH THAT HIS PARENTS BOUGHT A PAIR OF GLASSES FOR HIM WHICH HE WEARS TO THIS DAY.

I take the privilege of introducing for your consideration the first of our four great men. This man, together with three others, will act as judge. He is well qualified for the job, having won the title of the "Spirit of the College Student" in a recent old maid's convention.

This generous soul has donated his silky growth of beard as first prize for the lucky babe.

Watch for further details, entries and judges.

INTELLECTUAL PASTIME
 NEW YORK CITY, Nov. 10 — (By N.S.S.) — All great intellectuals are reputed to find relaxation in pastimes queer and quaint. Some munch peanuts, while others jump over chairs. Williams students find diversion in the popular magazines, according to a survey of The Record. Saturday Evening Post and Cosmopolitan lead, with the other outcasts from the quality group tagging along. Both groups avoided by the collegians, who steer a safe middle course on writing that will wear out neither brains nor morals.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN TO HOLD VESPERS

The Associated Women Students are planning a Thanksgiving service to be held on Monday afternoon, November 21. Lua Thurmond, as vice-president of the A. W. S., expressed the hope that many men and women will attend the candle light service which is held practically every month.

The A. W. S. are also planning on sending a Thanksgiving basket and also one at Christmas. A contribution box will be placed in the corridor next week for either money or food.

GRADING FOR ROAD TO HIGHWAY BEGINS

The Administration building will soon be completed externally, with grading work nearly completed and shrub planting to take place soon. On the north side of the building a long shaded walk is planned with lawn and shrubs on each side.

The road in front of the building will be started soon. The work of grading the S-shaped road leading up from Alameda Padre Serra street will entail considerable labor, and will be done either by contract or day labor.

Other Song Stories Discovered by Eagle

"Oh, I say, Vi, I have a peach of an idea for your story songs collection. D'ye know that song, 'Memories'? I don't know who wrote it."

"'Memories'? There are several songs by that title."

"I don't mean the popular ones — oh, I guess it was popular a long time ago. It goes this way — ta — ta, ta, ta — ta, ta. Get the idea?"

"Oh, sure; I remember now. Quick, tell me."

"Here it is:"

Memories, memories—

The old man was sitting under the bare, gnarled grapevines that covered the small out-of-door house. It seemed at though it might be gay and beautiful and demure in the summer after old Mother Nature had finished be-decking it in the height of fashion.

But now it looked old and lonely. The old man looked old—and lonely, too. His hair was rather unkempt along the edges. It had been meticulously tidy—before.

Dreams of love so true—

A young girl, dressed as grandmother dressed when she know she was going to meet grandfather, onl yhe was not grandfather then, peered expectantly through the doorway of the small out-of-door house. She was rewarded immediately. Her face lighted; she extended her hands, but it was not the old man who took them.

O'er the sea of memory

I'm drifting back to you—

It was a young man, a handsome, sturdy fellow who clasped them in his own, drawing her close so that their joyous meeting might not disturb the inquisitive, grey-cloaked bunch of feathers on the topmost vine.

Childhood days, wildwood days,

Among the bird and bees—

Two small pattering feet sent the lovers scurrying. Two small voices, small but lusty in their cries of welcome to the feathered and furred and gauzy and shelled inhabitants of the woods. It had frosted the night before, and the boy carried in one hand two baskets. The other hand held one of hers, fingers intertwining. A squeal—

A blot, a cloud enveloped the two care-free children. The old man stirred, and wavering, palsied hand dragged across the dim eyes.

You left me alone,

But still you're my own—

A tiny wrinkled figure nestled beside him, her black-lace mitted hand snuggling under the crook of elbow—

In my beautiful memories.

ALPHA THETA CHIS ENTERTAIN AT TEA

Women members of the faculty and all active members of the sororities on the campus were entertained at tea Sunday afternoon by the Alpha Theta Chi sorority. The tea was held at the home of Miss Charlotte Bellman, 1912 State Street.

Mrs. Dudley DeGroot and Mrs. L. Peteler were introduced as patronesses of the hostess sorority.

Autumn was the motif for the decorations. A musical program was arranged for the guests. The hostesses for the afternoon were, Miss Hazel Severy, sponsor of the Alpha Theta Chi sorority; Margaret Gammill, Marjorie Sawyer, Marian Davidson, Lua Thurmond, Charlotte Bellman, Eleanor Hicks, Elinor Gifford, Pearl Crawford, Helen Campbell, Margaret Patrick.

Glee Club Memorizes Songs for Their Trip

Up to date the men's glee club has a total of five songs partially memorized.

The titles and composers of these songs are "Ol' Gray Robe," arranged by Fred H. Hently; "Dreaming," by Harry Rowe Shelly; "Bugle Song," by Dudley Buck; "California Lullaby," by Rudy Seiger; and "Mosquitoes," by Paul Bliss.

The above mentioned are only a few of the sixteen which will make up the program to be given on the annual glee club tour. The program of this year's trip will be much different than last year's, inasmuch as there will be more skits and frivolity in the last part of it.

Football Manager Startles Harvard

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 10 — (By N. S. S.) — If a cyclone had taken its course through the Harvard campus, it could not have caused more consternation, wonderment, and gasping than did the recent resignation of the Harvard football manager. Led to choose between the glory of an "H" in a task that is one of the most cherished in Cambridge, and an "A" in his studies, the student turned to the "A."

Harvard found it hard to believe that a man with his hand on the glory that is granted but to few should renounce this opportunity. Some of the students snickered and muttered something about lack of spirit. But there were others who hailed the act as a much-needed victory for scholarship.

The Harvard Crimson believed the trend is away from over-emphasis on extra-scholastic activities, and hails the resignation as a victory for the cause of learning. It believes that the manager is free from "any stigma of disloyalty" that would have been charged against him had he cast his lot with scholarship a few years ago.

Sigma Alpha Iotans Claim Campus Asset

MOSCOW, Idaho (PIP) Nov. 10—Sigma Alpha Iota can be a real asset on University campuses, according to Miss Hazel Richey of Lincoln, Nebraska, national president of S. A. I. who visited the Idaho chapter this week. It can do much good for the schools and they can do much for it. The object of S. A. I. is to promote good scholarship in music and it is anxious to co-operate with the music department in schools all over the United States. There are now 50 chapters of S. A. I. and this year marks the 25th year of its founding. Some of the famous honorary members of the fraternity are Amelita Galli-Curci, Louise Homer, and Maria Jeritza.

SOPH WOMEN TAKE HOCKEY GAME, 4-0

The first game of the women's hockey season was played off last Tuesday afternoon on the high school field. Only one-half of the game was played, ending in favor of the Sophomores. 4-0.

Freshmen, Junior and Senior women were combined in the team opposing the Sophomore women. Louise Lowry led that team, while Marilyn Jameson captained the Sophomores. Miss Van Fossen refereed the game.

The women playing are, for the Freshmen, Helen Webster, Marjorie Holmes, Ruth Morrell, Miss McCabe, Louise Lowry, Norma Perry, Helen Smith, Dorothy Merritt, Edith Maxwell.

Sophomores: Mildred Mincher, Dora Woods, Mildred Wright, Kathleen Donahue, Laura Durfee, Marilyn Jameson, Lucille Powers, Claire Kibby, Ruth Toll, Elizabeth Nute, Charlotte Likely.

Pick-Ups

By the Roadrunner

Failure to follow the ball accounted for the worst defeat of the season for the Roadrunners last week. Fumbles and such took the game from our players although they repeatedly made first downs on the Cal Poly team. The spirit of our rooters was very commendable and also the spirit of the townspeople who traveled over two hundred miles to see the game. However, tomorrow we meet the San Diego team in what promises to be the honest-to-gosh toughest game of the season. Here is some of the dope. San Diego was beaten by Pomona 18 to 12. Pomona then held the strong U. C. L. A. eleven to a 7-7 tie. U. C. L. A. defeated us 33 to 0. Figure that out for yourself, but comparative scores give the San Diego men a large lead.

Speaking of grammar, this guy Dan the Yep says, "I seen her when she done it." What? Griped if I know; he's just the kind of a guy which would like to exhibit his limited knowledge of English. At that I bet he flunked more comps than he passed.

A new motto for the A. W. S. has been proposed by several boys who have been seen walking about the campus with their pockets empty. The boys propose this:—Nize babys et opp all de profits. The A. W. S. is expected to take off the thin gsome time next month.

Jack Smith, while not wholly disappointed with the turn-out at the Y last Friday night, says that he was under the mistaken impression that there were some swimmers in this school. He also remarks that if a couple of half-dozen swimmers will turn out he will make a team for this school and we may get Harvard or Yale to come out for a meet. Pardon me, I meant U.S.C. and Cal Poly.

It has been reported to me, although I do not believe it, that the open season for necking is now on. Eagle columnists are strictly eliminated, so, as the bear said as he looked at the open gate—that lets me out. However, there is liable to be plenty of competition for the prize, which is a nice bronze plated basketball signifying nothing. Leaders in this week's contest will not be posted due to the fact that the sponsor of the contest has been so busy himself he has not been able to compile team averages for the first week, but watch out for your name next week.

When Walter Smith asked me if Chaparral was not a crooked, sticky bush and I answered, "Yes," little did I suspect that he would follow his question with a brilliant pun quite uncomplimentary to the noble Chaparral Knights. (Censored! See Smith.)

Anxious Mother: "And is my boy really trying?"
Tired Teacher: "Very."

and in back of a gun.

JACK SMITH ENTRY IN SWIMMING RACE

A fair-sized crowd turned out last Friday to witness the swimming and aquatic meet in the Y. M. C. A. plunge. A number of college students were present.

Leland Barnard acted as scorer, while Gaillard Fryer and Bob Wormser acted as judge and timer, respectively.

The special event for college men was called off at the last moment because Joe McFarland was the only swimmer present for the event. Jack Smith took second in the invitational medley race, being defeated by the blond Swedish champion, Chris Holstrum.

Mother: "Johnnie, if you eat any more you'll burst."

Johnnie: "Well, pass the cakes, Mother, and get out of the way."

Miss Severy: "Name some liquid that does not freeze."

Chemistry Shark: "Hot water."

"Where do you bathe?"

"In the spring."

"I said where, not when."

Skull and Bones To Stage Hobo Affair

"Just wear a necktie and see," stated Lyman Curtis, emphatically.

Curtis is president of the Skull and Bones society, and as such announced the hobo party to be held by the men after the basketball series between classes. He made the remark when asked concerning enlightenment upon the affair.

First Student (on a leaf in his note book): "How's your journalism class?"

Second Student (leaning over and writing an answer): "Oh, it's all write."—U. of R. Campus.
