Officials Make Plans for New Campus

Governor Merriam Shows Enthusiasm Over College Project; Promises Support of Building Program

Cooperation was assured by state officials to bring about the creation of a $1,700,000 State college on the Mesa site. Last week, William Herron, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, headed a delegation of Santa Barbara architects which went to Sacramento to confer with Governor Frank Merriam and other state officials.

Governor Merriam was enthusiastic about the whole college plan and promised to support a program under which buildings will be planned by Santa Barbara architects.

Earl Lee Kelly, state director of public works, promised to support the program but could not promise the commission to Santa Barbara architects until the time for drawing plans arrived. He made it known that no additions would be made to the basic force in the state architect's office, to draw the Santa Barbara plans.

Arlin E. Stockberger, state director of finance, has shown the support of his department which has sponsored the PWA application upon which $1,700,000 federal funds have been tentatively allotted to the Santa Barbara project, while the state has allotted funds for the construction of a road to the Mesa college site.

The present college has been appraised at $500,000 and must be sold on a bid. The state has a right to refuse any and all bids. The city school department would be able to use the buildings as they stand.

Demand for a polytechnic high school has been growing in the city. The present State college would make a wonderful polytechnic school because it features arts and crafts and is planned and equipped specially for the teaching of polytechnic subjects.

Bradley Talks at Conference

"Family Relationships," "Child Development" and "Recent Developments in the Field of Nutrition" were the topics discussed by Miss Alice V. Bradley at the home economics section of the Teacher's Conference at San Luis Obispo on November 26, 27, and 28.

"Foundations for an ideal home are (1) a livable house, (2) wise use of time, (3) well spent leisure, (4) proper child development, (5) wise use of money, (6) health and (7) happy human relationships," said Miss Bradley in her address on November 27.

Observe Health Ruler
"All children should have the right of being well-born," continued Miss Bradley, "Parents should preserve the health, both physical and mental, of their offspring by furnishing opportunities for play and education and by giving them a chance to be happy and enjoy life. Children should be able to develop naturally."

Mr. Paul Hilton and his wife were present at the Teacher's Conference at San Luis Obispo. Mr. Hilton has the position of coordinator of the San Luis Obispo public schools. Other alumni present at the conference were Oscar Trautz, Helen Campbell and Howard McCribbon.

BRONSON GIVES PEACE LECTURE

Dr. Oliver Hart Bronson, minister at El Montecito Presbyterian church will lecture at Margaret Baylor Inn next Friday evening, at 8:15 o'clock. His subject will be "Preparedness for Peace" and the talk will consist mainly of a review of Dr. J. H. Brested's new book, "The Dawn of Consciousness."

All college students interested are invited to attend. Mrs. Catherine Rumball, who is in charge of peace work here, is sponsoring the lecture.

Women to Don Kid's Clothes for Frolic

"Borrow your kid sister's clothes, don them, and come and frolic with us at the A.W.S. Christmas party a week from today in Ebbets hall at five o'clock," states Julia Lynch, first vice-president of the Associated Women Students.

Plans for a really kiddish frolic are being made. At present those in charge hope to transform Ebbets hall into a large and homey living room by using the club room furniture. Hopes are held for a large Christmas tree and small inexpensive gifts are to be exchanged.

Senior Breakfast Set for Tuesday

Martin Verhoeven invites all faculty members and seniors to attend the annual senior breakfast which is to be given at Ebbets hall next Tuesday at 7 A. M.

"I'm planning on having all seniors attending this breakfast," Verhoeven says. The price of admission will be 25 cents.

Students Give Bid to Outing at San Marcos

Planning an "open-house," the Outing club invites the faculty and students to their cabin above Paradise Camp, Sunday, December 9.

Everyone should leave around 9:30 A.M. and should bring their own lunch. The club will furnish coffee and chocolate. Games, hiking, and other outdoor activities will furnish the entertainment for the afternoon.

Willis McCullough states, "This will be a wonderful opportunity for all students and faculty to see what the Outing club has and of what it consists."

Signs along the route will direct the guests to the cabin.

H. E. Students Sell Novelties

Candy, cookies, pies and cakes are among the tasty foods that will be sold at the home economics club annual Christmas sale on December 11, 12, 13 and 14. These foods are all made by home economics students and are guaranteed to be good.

Articles suitable for Christmas gifts are on sale, too. Towels, toys, luncheon sets, pillows, dolls and other small articles will make clever and inexpensive gifts that will eliminate some of your downtown Christmas shopping. Home economics students have expended a great deal of time to make this sale a success so let's cooperate with them by telling our friends about the home economics club Christmas sale.

Those on the Christmas sale committee are Jean McNally, Lois Martin, Bernie Baker, Josephine Newstetter, Dorothy Powell, Frances Hemenway, Lorraine Bashor, Mary Bell, Ruth Kowalewsky, Eunice Smallwood and Louise Lewis.

Frye Speaks at Meet of College Founders

Miss Winifred Frye spoke on founders of our college under the name of Home Economics and Industrial Education Training School, at the departmental meeting of the home economics department on Tuesday morning.

Alberta Greene gave a summary of the life of Edna Rich Morse, a founder of this college. A fashion show was given by the senior class members showing different types of woolen dresses.

Members of the home economics department decided to contribute $5 to the Red Cross and to create a Christmas fund for needy families.

The Theory 'If You Fool Them Once You Can Fool Them Twice' Is True in This Case Too

To Be Taken on a Snipe Hunt and Then on a Hoax Quail Hunt Should Be Enough

I am standing around the day taking a gander at some of our raspberry tarts when some Joe ambles up to me and gives me the high sign to come over for some chin music. Having nothing else to do I decide to give him a minute, and see what's on the board.

"Well," he says to me, "How would you like to go quail hunting?"

"Oh, boy, right there I decide that I ought to give the guy the once over twice and see if he is on de up and up because the last time I had taken my chopper out for a snipe hunt I had waited around for about three hours out in the sticks holding a big gunny sack and a light waiting for snipe. I am told afterwards that the snipe had gone by so fast that I couldn't see them for dust but I think that maybe I had been given the birdies. So, aft-

El Gaucho Receives 1st Place

Paper Wins Award of Alphagam for Third Time

Meet in Redlands San Francisco and San Diego Get Next Places

Winning for the third consecutive year "El Gaucho" again took honors by winning the first place for general make-up at the Alpha Phi Gamma convention, held at Redlands university, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 29, 30 and December 1.

Santa Barbara Receives Awards

Last year at the annual convention which was held in Santa Barbara, there was a different system of awards. Editorials, news stories, sport stories, columns, and other kinds of news writing were given individual awards. This year there was only one first place given. The awards were made upon the issues of this semester and were judged upon make-up, features, news style, and arrangement of advertising.

Second place went to San Francisco State and third place went to San Diego State.

Awards taken last year by Santa Barbara were first places for editorials, news stories and general make up and second place for sport stories.

Alpha Phi Gamma is the national co-educational journalistic fraternity. It holds a national convention every year. Next convention will be held at Fresno, California. The conference this year was the bi-annual of the Western section. This was the first conference for the Beta Phi Gamma, national co-educational journalistic fraternity for junior colleges which was organized last year.

The conclave was attended by over one hundred delegates from chapters this side of the Rocky mountains.

The delegates from Santa Barbara Pi chapter were Ralph Porter and Clarke George.

FIVE STUDENTS RECEIVE PLEDGE TO FRATERNITY

Five students, Ida Pagliotti, Rea McPeak, Elizabeth Hartwell, Eloise McCollum and Wilbur Gilliland were pledged to Kappa Delta Pi, National Honor Society in Education, at a meeting held last Tuesday night.

Kappa Delta Pi holds the honor of being the first honorary scholastic organization of its kind on the Santa Barbara State college campus.

Dr. Brown Will Talk Here After Return

Dr. Rexwald Brown, of Santa Barbara, who is a member of the President's advisory committee on Economic Security will speak to the sociology, political science and economics classes at State college when he returns from Washington, D. C. Dr. Brown will return to Santa Barbara in two weeks.

President Calls Special Assembly

A special assembly will be held Friday morning during the second hour, and all students are requested to attend, stated President Phelps.

Captain Rutherford of the California Highway Patrol will deliver a short address on "Safety" in schools.

As a feature of the program, George Stimson, the "singing cop" will render a number of vocal arrangements.

English Majors Plan Trip to South Library

English students will journey to San Marino near Pasadena Friday for a trip through the famous Huntington Library. They will leave in cars from the campus at 9:00 o'clock, and expect to return about 8:00 o'clock that evening.

The English department, only recently organized, is sponsoring the excursion. Mrs. Margaret Bennett, Miss Della Haverland, Dean William Ashworth, and Dr. William Maxwell, faculty members, will go with the students.

Kendall Made Alumni Prexy

Ralph Kendall, a graduate of 1923, was elected president and May Luther, a graduate of 1925, secretary-treasurer, of the Sacramento Alumni association of Santa Barbara State college at their annual meeting on November 26 at Willson's cafe.

Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham spoke at the banquet on the developments and activities of the college. President Clarence L. Phelps sent a message to the alumni.

Those present were Edmond O'rielly, Laurence Francis, Emily Koehan, Fannie Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Beddal, Ralph Kendall, Ernest Poek, Earl Rooney, Laura E. Tode, Mabel Finch, Maybelle Miller, Jeanne Forbes, Anne Cowan, Mary Ruth Stewart, May Luther and Claire Moorill.

Ellison Gives Talk for Philathea Club

Dr. William H. Ellison gave a historical address on "The Russians in California" before the Philathea club of the Methodist church last Tuesday night.

Dr. Ellison traced the approach of the Russians in California, how they established their settlement at Rossford and the controversial land question at Santa Barbara.

MARY CROSWELL RECEIVES COPY OF ART DESIGNS

Mrs. Mary E. T. Crosswell has received a copy of several designs and models in book form from the R. H. Macy and Co. of New York. These designs have been done by principal sky-scraper architects in New York. They were shown in "Forward House," a demonstration of new trends, house planning, architecture and decoration, and furnishing.

More data will be forwarded if Mrs. Crosswell desires.

Barnett Gives First of Series of Talks

"What My Profession Means to Me" is the title of a speech to be given by Mrs. Helen M. Barnett, head of the music department on Friday afternoon, December 7 at the Unitarian church. The girls glee club will support her by singing a group of three numbers.

This talk is to be one of a series to be given by professional people of this city.

Selections to be sung by the glee club includes "Lo, How a Rose 'Er Blooming" by Praetorius, "On the Plains" by Weelks, and "Annie Laurie" arranged by Dudley Buck.

ARTISTS HOLD DINNER

The Art department will hold a semi-formal dinner dance, December seventh at six-thirty at the Margaret Baylor Inn. Tickets will be eighty-five cents.

Banquet and Dance Slated for Saturday

Women's Athletic Association Honor Football Men With Annual Banquet; Formal Held at Rockwood

Final major social events to precede the Christmas holidays will include the second annual football banquet in Ebbets hall, and the student body Christmas formal at Rockwood on Saturday evening. The Women's Athletic Association is sponsoring the banquet which will honor the football men, and the social committee is arranging the dance.

The banquet is to begin at six o'clock and is scheduled as informal, but formals are in order for those planning to attend the dance. Bob Lewis, president of the University club, will preside as toastmaster for the evening. The guests of honor will be, Mr. and Mrs. Spud Harder, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Davis, Mr. C. C. Heron, Clarence Rogers, chairman of recreational facilities committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The program for the evening is being arranged by Fred Alfred. During the banquet, an award is to be given to the most outstanding football man of the year.

The football guests will include, Willis McCullough, Mert Miller, Elmer Lee, Barney Dupes, Bob Way, Bill Poole, Herman Gumpertz, Wayne Bartholomew, Leonard Fisher, Joe Nightengale, Skeeter Voorhees, Harold Sanderson, Joe Robinson, Doc Kelliher, Shirley Keith, Larry Bowls, Peter Hathaway, Ralph Stokel, Robert Rezzonico, "Turkey" Clemens, Bud Ewing, Tom Mahoney, Hi Stanley, Leonard Dorn, Harold Hart, and Jim Moss.

The student body is invited to attend the banquet. Tickets may be secured from any W. A. A. member, the price being sixty cents a person.

In an atmosphere of Christmas trees and holly, the annual Christmas formal will begin at 9 o'clock. Fred Lambourne and his orchestra have been secured to play for the dance, and punch will be served throughout the evening.

The social committee has arranged for a special entertainment during the intermission. Dorothy Weber, social committee chairman, says that the entertainment that has been planned promises to be of great interest to both individuals and the student body as a whole.

The sponsors for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Byron Abraham, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacobs, and Dean Lois Bennink.

Due to the increased attendance of past Christmas formals the invitation list will be closed at noon Friday. Students bringing outside guests are urged to be sure and sign up in Dean Bennink's office as soon as possible.

College Doctor Reveals Talent

Heroes are made, not born. This statement pertains to Dr. Edward L. Markthaler, who was undoubtedly 20 years ahead of his time in the field of football. He is known as the first man in football to master the art of throwing glat passes with bullet-like speed and precision. Other forward passers got rid of the pikskin by shot-putting it and hoping that it might land somewhere within reach of an eligible receiver.

Just before the World war, Dr. Markthaler started his football career as a halfback at Battin High school. After graduating from that institution he went to Wesleyan university where he played on the varsity backfield. This is where he became famous for his accurate passing. He would wrap the long fingers of his left hand around the ball and dropping back would usually send it into the hands of an eligible receiver.

BOOK OUTLINES SAAR SITUATION

A clear analysis of the complex Saar situation is offered to the International Relations club students by a book received from the Carnegie Indowment titled "The Saar Struggle" and written by Michael T. Florinsky.

An equally complex situation which the International Relations club is facing is that of liquidating a $34 deficit incurred by the dinner given for the convention delegates last fall. Several solutions to the problem have been speculated upon, the most plausible being a movie to be given at the college. Mr. Russ has offered the club his full support and cooperation to the plan.

ARTISTS HOLD DINNER

The Art department will hold a semi-formal dinner dance, December seventh at six-thirty at the Margaret Baylor Inn. Tickets will be eighty-five cents.

'The Royal Family'

"Half hour, Miss Cavendish! Grease paint, rouge, mascara. Fifteen minutes, Miss Cavendish! My costume, more rouge. Where's the rabbit's foot? How's the house tonight? The curtain's up! Props! Cue! Enter!"

After six weeks of untiring and faithful rehearsing under the direction of Dean Ashworth, the curtain will rise on Tuesday evening on the first night's performance of "The Royal Family."

Every effort has been made by the director and Bill Ogle, manager of dramatics and debate, to bring forth a finished performance, careful consideration of all students trying out for roles in this play has, in the opinion of Dean Ashworth, brought together a smoothly-running, cooperative cast.

The trend of the play is comedy and there are several original complications with choice phraseology. Many of the lines will be found doubly entertaining by the observant. The hectic life of a family of actors and actresses is amusingly revealed in this three-act farce.

The majority of the students in the cast have had previous experience in dramatic productions. Several have had junior college or community group experience.

This first performance presented by the Player's club was a tremendous undertaking. "The Royal Family" was produced several years ago as a movie with Frederic March, Ethel Barrymore, and Mary Brian in the roles of Tony, Fanny, and Gwen Cavendish.

"The Royal Family" with an able cast of 15 students is slated to be a hit, a wow, and a honey in the words of those few who have seen rehearsals. The entire cast is to go on the air for a short period at 9:30 o'clock next Monday evening following their dress rehearsal. Listen in and then persuade yourself not to come.

Art—Music—Drama

The fact that Santa Barbara has been getting a heavy dose of "the latest" (like fashions) in modern art is being revealed at the Faulkner Gallery this week in an exhibition of paintings by the Santa Barbara artist, highly esteemed among his fellow workers, Colin Campbell N. A.

The work of this artist shows us that conservatism itself is not so far behind the times as we might be led to believe. Radicals can sweep the stage, make explosive discoveries, and create sensations but the conservatives quietly hold their own in the struggle for recognition. The number of people visiting the gallery this week has been large and enthusiastic.

Cooper's work captures the interest of the spectator because he seemingly tries to avoid the different and employs the sincere and unaffected means. He takes an ordinary subject, conceives it in the usual manner, and paints it for enjoyment. "Cool shadows," "hot sunlight," receding Gothic arches are among his chief delights. His pictures not only emanate a deep appreciation of the beautiful but they carry a suave touch of humanity appealing to the observer. Everyone can understand, appreciate, and enjoy his conceptions.

The critic might attempt to place him in a school; he might be called an illustrator, an impressionist, or an imitator of nature; but in the end he is more himself as an individual than anything else. His art speaks for its self. Explanations of it are a bore.

William Thornton who has been playing in San Francisco, Los Angeles, and other coast cities will appear at the Lobero theater Saturday giving a matinee performance of Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew" and an evening presentation of "Hamlet." The cast is made up of young college graduates who have been making an extensive tour of California.

Collegiate News

The Institute of Student Aid, a non profit, cooperative organization has listed in its master files 50,000 different scholarship funds that are available to qualifying students in all parts of the country. These scholarship funds include regular scholarships, loan funds and also give opportunities for student employment.

The regulations regarding the awarding of these range from religious and fraternal affiliations to scholastic ability, however the major part of them are given for scholastic attainments and character.

This Collegiate World

Dean Carl Ackerman, of the Columbia university school of journalism, probably is just a bit disappointed in Sigma Delta Chi, the national journalistic fraternity.

The Dean spoke at a meeting of the group during its recent convention at DePauw university (Greencastle, Ind.) He talked on the tendency of Americans to forsake the serious things and to turn to amusements such as the radio, movies, and sports. He finished, to great applause.

Kenneth Hogate, of the Wall Street Journal, toastmaster, then arose and announced, "I'm sorry, fellow members, but I am afraid we will have to cut the meeting short now, in order to get to the football field in time for the Hanover game."

Then, realizing the pointedness of his remark, he colored. A titter arose, fell, rose higher to a general giggle, then zoomed off-key to an awkward death as the Dean stared straight ahead.

"It seems quite possible," writes Deane W. Malott, of the Harvard university business school, "that a new demand is coming from within banking for trained and alert young men to fill its positions of ultimate responsibility."

But—If the young men are alert, they will want to hear from James P. Warburg, of the Bank of Manhattan.

"Banking," said Mr. Warburg to a group of college students, "as a business career, is dead."

Even O. O. (Odds) McIntyre, Broadway columnist, has yielded to the sentiment against the radical eastern college professors the "bum's rush."

New York state hasn't given them the bum's rush yet, but they have passed a special law requiring all teachers in the state schools to take an oath of allegiance to the Constitution. No doubt that raises a problem for the political science teachers, many of whom honestly feel, and say so, that the Constitution is cracking up.

The University of California (Los Angeles) communist episode which resulted in indignant protests all over the nation, got Dr. Lee Paul Sieg, of the University of Washington, in a hot spot. He was quoted as saying he had ordered all communist organizations off the Seattle campus. He denied making the statement, with: "The only things I have ordered around here have been my meals!"

That brings up the story of the professor of international law who sat for an hour waiting for his meal in a restaurant. Finally his waitress passed, and catching her by the arm, he said: "Change my order to an ultimatum."

There can't be so much to the insistent remark that college students are a bunch of slightly pink pacifists. As evidence, we point to the football slogans of Nebraska and Minnesota universities, respectively: "Pulverize the Panthers." "Mangle Michigan."

Michigan students protested against the last one. "Wouldn't 'Maltreat Michigan' have been sufficient?" they inquired.

To the business men who regard all professors as "visionaries" the statements of a prominent magazine writer won't be welcome. "The professors are in Washington to stay — for a good many years, anyway," he writes. However, he adds, people should lose the notion they are dictating policies. Policies arise because of effective political pressure and you don't find much pressure behind class-room bred, professional ideas, he concludes.

Chances are that writer never had to argue over an exam mark with a professor.

Among the delightful words of wisdom from the lips of collegiate authorities, none recently was lovelier than a statement by a middle-west college official, commenting on a new system for controlling fraternal finance in his college. We quote:

"Adherence to the plan is not to be compulsory; it is strictly optional with the fraternities; however only those fraternities which subscribe to it will be given the administration's recommendation."

Freshmen Problems

By DIZZY and DOLLY
With new horses for the artillery and unphilatelic memories of Thanksgiving, we're in the greenest of conditions.

All of the out-of-town freshman rushed home to paternal arms, while we Santa Barbarans frosh welcomed university pals.

Ian Crow was in a pink haze over the return of Ann Seymour, his heartthrob from U.S.C.

Petie McKinney was perfectly stunning last Saturday afternoon in a red wool tunic. Our fashionable eye was pleased! Wish we'd a-seen ya, Petie!

Helen Longawa was "down-at-the-mouth" as were others because dear Susiebella, the Packard, has an ache as a result of a wreck. Now the Anacapa House boys walk to school!

Fred Lambourne, Bill Forsythe, Roy Strang, and Bill Lanford were having a "heck-of-a-swell-time" at Stanley Cox's home last Thursday night.

One momentous, if dubious, problem is the production "The Royal Family" in which several of our talented frosh are rendering superb performances.

Judy Drennen has the femme lead and is doing very well by herself. She had several parts in high school productions, and is, therefore, capable of handling Julie Cavendish.

We bid farewell with a toast, as the frosh boys say—"Here's to the girls. First in our hearts, and first in our pockets!"

ering of county-wide civic, fraternal, religious and educational leaders such as modern Santa Barbara has seldom seen at the banquet tables of El Paseo. Paul G. Sweetser, president of the Santa Barbara County Historical society presided at the banquet. John Collier, U. S. commissioner of Indian affairs, who came on from Washington to deliver a message of National importance, was guest of honor. Grace S. Stoermer, state chairman of the Junipero Serra sesquicentennial observance; Louisa Ward Watkins, president of the Friday Morning club and Marion Parks, of the Historical society were representatives of Los Angeles.

The orator of the evening was Joseph A. Knowland, who told how the rest of California appreciates the thoroughness with which Santa Barbara is guarding its historical heritage. As Name Day was also the 148th birthday anniversary of the Old Mission, Franciscan fathers were honor guests. Fr. Louis Schoen, of St. Anthony's college offered an invocation to the "Birthday of the Queen of Missions."

From 5 to 8 P. M. on Thursdays, KFI offers three hours of clean, wholesome, and diversified entertainment. Five o'clock brings Rudy Vallee and his orchestra, presenting each week several guest artists. At 6, the well-known Showboat Hour is presented. Finally, at 7, Paul Whiteman, the king of jazz conducts a program. These three programs round out one of the most popular periods of entertainment of the week.

The Voice of Experience, the man who straightens out your most personal difficulties is on the air from Mondays to Fridays at 9 A.M., and on Sunday evening, between 9 and 10 P.M. These programs are heard over KDB. The Voice of Experience has been reported to have received as many as 6,500 letters a day.

On Mondays at 6:30 P.M., KFI presents Donald Novis, who by the way is reported having matrimonial difficulties, Joe Cook, and Frances Langford in a variety program. Don Voorhees' orchestra furnishes the rhythm.

Stalled off again. Our chances of having a Frosh-Don game has been gradually stalled off till now any prospects whatsoever are clear out of sight. After the mess up of the proposed game over financial disagreements last week, it was obvious that money matters were not the true cause of the calling off of the game. It costs more to bring Whittier High that the State college asked. Down town papers say, "The reason for the failure remains a mystery." But if you stop and figure it out, it's as plain as the nose on my face.

Some of you lads and lasses who like basketball and loaf afternoons should drop around the gym 3:30 or 4 o'clock and take in part of the second round of the Intramural basketball series. Each of the games is a crucial one and result in some fancy flipping, featherbrain fouls, foolish feverish fights, fancy fouls, futile feuds, and finally faltering forward from fatigue. It's cheaper than a show and twice as much fun.

Casaba tossers start work in earnest this week as all the hoop flying football men are expected to report. All in all the squad is pretty good sized and some good prospective men. Conference teams are going to be plenty tough as San Diego last year's champs have the same fellows back and boasted of the best

Freshmen Win New Records

Completing the most successful season in Frosh history, coach Cummings' men set a record of five wins out of seven for future frosh teams to shoot at.

Reaching their peak after wins over Oxnard high, Los Prietos C. C. camp and the Gaucho varsity the yearlings hit their stride in the Cummoek game played in Gilmore stadium before a crowd of 9,000 people. Coach Cummings' men upset all the dope sheets by a surprise 13 to 0 victory after a hard close-fought game.

Twice during the season the Gaucho babes took it on the chin. Traveling to Taft they dropped a hair-raising thriller 32 to 14. This game was one of the best of the season from a spectator's viewpoint as the offensive play of both teams clicked to perfection. At any point of the game either team was likely to break loose and turn out a scoring play.

Slow Game
Black Foxe spelled the second defeat for the yearlings 18 to 0 in a slow uninteresting affair played Armistice day in Ventura. This game probably saw the Frosh at their worst and was a disappointing contest all the way through.

The discovery of Howard Yeager, halfback, a dashing star of the open field and a fine defensive player marked another high light of the season. Yeager was high scorer for the team with 60 points to his credit. He also holds the record for the longest run on the Pacific coast this year with a 103 yard runback of a kickoff against Cummoek.

Likely prospects for next year's varsity are Barney Swanson, full; Dave Pollock, quarter; Bob Morelli, half; Clemens, half; Jim Monson, quarter; Simeral, tackle; Glidden, tackle; Gruewell, tackle; Trotter, guard; Hayman, guard; Coy, guard; Older Shaw, guard; Ziegler and Joseph, centers; Mullock, end; Gorman, end; Oakes, end, and Willis, end.

JOHNNY VARNER VICTORIOUS IN FIRST CONTEST

Johnny Varner, fighting in the flyweight division, knocked out his first opponent in 30 seconds in the Southern California Golden Gloves Amateur Boxing tournament Monday night in Hollywood. This victory placed the battling flyweight in the second round of the tournament which was scheduled for last night.

Jim Monson, Elmer Coy, Lester Clemens and Roy Ziegler are the other Gaucho representatives entered in the matches. All of the latter drew byes in the first round and fought their first battle last night. Monson, Coy and Clemens fight in the middleweight division, while Ziegler will represent the campus light-heavyweights.

Harold Hart, boxing instructor for the Gauchos and his brother, Don also made the trip, and will act as trainer and second respectively.

Harold won the Golden Gloves championship in the middleweight division for 1933.

Students Active in City Playgrounds

Ralph Stockel, honor captain of the 1934 Gaucho football squad, has recently been appointed by Chris Christiansen, city recreation director, to organize a new league for grammar schools. "Stocks" new job necessitates that he travel from school to school organizing, coaching, instructing and officiating.

Another student and former athlete, Walter Barnett, is also working under the S.E.R.A. at the new Peabody school playground. "Barney" has been extremely successful so far this season as his football team has gathered four victories and suffered one defeat. The one defeat however has been atoned for as in the second encounter the Peabody team won.

Together the two men plan the new grammar school league to be as successful as the City Open league for the business men which was organized by their immediate superior, Chris Christiansen.

College Asks Only One Eighth of the Expected Receipts

Attempts at Extending the State Frosh's Pigskin Season Results Only in Stone Walls and Blind Alleys

Possible Grudge Game Schutte's Athletic Club Team Also Fails in Game

You can't blame anyone for trying and there surely was a gallant attempt made to get another football game for our frosh. But the odds were just against the continuation of the football season.

According to Coach Spud Harder the only reason that the frosh and the high school did not meet on the gridiron this year was because Coach Schutte of the Dons could not offer the college a large enough guarantee. The college wanted $200 or about one eighth of the expected gate receipts, but the high school could not meet these terms, so the matter was dropped.

This situation occurred about three weeks ago when the idea of such a game was still fresh. Schutte and Harder had agreed to have the game if the college athletic council and officials would permit it. Coach Harder obtained the necessary permission and the game was all set until the question of a guarantee came up.

After the Santa Barbara Cathedral fracas during which the State frosh in the stands did not act in accordance with the local high school ideals, the idea of a grudge battle was brought up and discussed. Because Santa Barbara high then had a game scheduled for Thanksgiving day, and not wishing to extend football season beyond this point, President Phelps and the athletic council decided it best not to have the game this year. A regularly scheduled game may be arranged for next year, however.

There was an attempt also to secure a contest with the Santa Barbara Athletic club for the Turkey day tilt. The club, however, would play only a Sunday game, and because a state institution cannot enter athletic competition on that day this game did not materialize either.

JIMMIE LEBECK HAS BACKGROUND IN BASKETBALL

In an attempt to acquaint State students with the members of the Gaucho basketball varsity, this article has been printed.

One of this year's outstanding candidates for a forward position on the Gaucho quintet will be Jimmy Lebeck. He is 20 years, weighs 150 pounds, is five feet nine inches tall and is prominent member of the L.J.C. (Long Jaw Club). Two other team mates of Jimmy who belong to the same organization are "Murt" Miller and "Rezy" Rezzonico. These three fellows have played together throughout their collegiate career, all three members of the championship Frosh team of two years ago.

Lebeck has had considerable experience in athletics during his life. He played football and basketball in the Santa Barbara high school lightweight teams.

On entering Santa Barbara State, he continued his activities in sports and played football, baseball and basketball during his first freshman year. In his sophomore year a severe hip injury stopped his pigskin career and on recovering he spent the remainder of the football season getting in shape for the basketball season, which was last year. It turned out to be his most successful year, earning a letter in basketball and another in baseball. This is Jimmy's junior year, and he expects to go great guns and play his head off for the alma mater. The reason Lebeck is so pessimistic is because he was born that way—Fairview, Montana.

Staters Meet V. J.C. Five

With a full team of lettermen ready to start action, Coach Hal Davis' casaba-tossers officially opened the 1934-1935 basketball season against the Los Prietos C.C.C. five last night in the Flying A gymnasium at 7:30 P. M.

Football now over, the squad will swell considerably according to Coach Davis. Mert Miller, Elmer Lee, Robert Rezzonico, and Shirley Keith, four of the returning lettermen, turned out last Monday. Charles Hoffar and Jimmy Lebeck, the other two lettermen, have been out for practice over two weeks.

Friday night the Gauchos take on the Ventura Junior college quintet at the Flying A. The Jaysees always have good basketball teams and the game promises to be a good one.

Following is a roster of the squad that has turned out so far:

- Merlin Miller, guard, one year varsity.
- Elmer Lee, guard, one year varsity.
- James Lebeck, forward, one year varsity.
- Robert Rezzonico, forward, one year varsity.
- Charlie Hoffar, forward, two years varsity.
- Shirley Keith, guard, two years varsity.
- Jack Nolan, guard, one year frosh.
- Howard Van Winkle, guard, one year frosh.
- Bob Johnson, center, one year frosh.
- Leonard Dorn, center, one year frosh.
- Barney Swanson, center, one year frosh.
- Bud Sweager, forward, one year frosh.

Did you ever compare pre-season dope buckets with final summaries. For instance, an excellent example is our Gaucha varsity. Early dope called us "the possible conference champs," "best team in years," yet we rank little better than previous years in the final check up. Potentially we were Southern California champs, but it wasn't till the last game that we found ourselves. Now

Sorority Gives Program at CCC Camp on Dec. 5

Installing a new method of social service, members of Delta Sigma Epsilon, national social sorority, entertained the San Marcos C.C.C. camp last night with a program. Following the program the girls were given a reception in the quarters of Captain Jerry Bennett, husband of the sponsorees of the organization. The program was preceded by a pot luck supper held at the Trout club cabin of Sheila Davidson, president.

Guest entertainers who accompanied the group were Eleanor Mellinger, pianist, and Janine Rupertus, dancer. Members of the group who entertained were Lowell Washburn, pianist; Evelyn Sims, who gave two readings, and Chloe Vincent, who gave several Hawaiian dances and interpreted them. Members of the casts of two skits the girls gave included Arlene Klett, Wilda Simone, La Rue Steelsmith, Marjorie Balentine, Evelyn Maitland, Geraldine Slayton, Elizabeth Hartwell, and Louise Albaugh.

watch the basketball dope. Every team is a possible runner-up; and before the league games start, some team will be tagged it. If they hit their stride early and hold it, Oke-doke; but if they don't—

This, that, and the other thing: Harry Killian is probably one of the best confessed checker board players on the campus. Whittier, Southern California champs got knocked over when they met San Jose State last week. The first three leading scorers in the conference are all at Whittier. Here, figure this out, Pomona defeated Caltech 26-0, Oxy lost to Caltech and then the Tigers trounced Pomona 19-0.

"Sit in the sun and close your eyes, see Jim Johnson and Tillie Brown strolling arm in arm around the quad, imagine a story about them, and write your column." That's what Dr. Ellison says we do to write a column. This, of course, is in contrast with historical writing, in which specific fact is necessary. Now, Dr. Ellison, you have discovered our method practically, but how often do you find the content concerned with gossip or airing of quad romances? That's right! NEVER!

"Women go out seeking their fate," says one on this campus, who somehow manages to creep into our column more frequently than any other—yes, again—Dr. Ellison. No, we protest, dear DEAR teacher, with all that's feminine in us, the world beats a path to our door!!!

Active members of the Gnome club entertained pledges at a Skiaki supper in Club Chico at the Fox Arlington theater on Monday evening.

The girls sat in traditional Chinese fashion on the floor to eat their chop suey, rice cakes, and fruit, and drink their tea. Chopsticks were used instead of forks.

The film which the 33 girls saw was "We Live Again" with Frederic March and Anna Sten. A preview was also shown.

They ought to know—

MANY men of the South have been "in tobacco" for years—growing tobacco and curing it—buying it and selling it—until they know tobacco from A to Izzard.

Now folks who have been in tobacco all their lives, folks who grow it, know there is no substitute for mild ripe tobacco.

And down in the South where they grow tobacco and where they ought to know something about it—in most places Chesterfield is the largest-selling cigarette.
