The Bystander Observes

By KENTON CAMP

"A fool there was—shouldered arms to kill Went forth to the slaughter—even against his will."
"Another fool there was—arose behind the wire
Thus there were two fools less—after each other's fire."
"And Democracy was saved." (?)

WAR—WAR—WAR

Spain continues to be the danger to European and world peace. Russia has dispatched men, food supplies and munitions to the aid of the loyalist louse. A fleet of German submarines were sighted passing through the Straits of Gibraltar sailing under orders to halt the advance of the Russian vessels. An American war correspondent has discovered the truth of the charges against Italy. He was held captive for three days by the rebels because he had learned too much for his own good. Slowly but surely, Europe is nearing the boiling point.

LABOR STRIKE THREATS

Coast shipping is already feeling the results of the longshoremen's threat to strike. Up and down the whole Pacific coast, the strike threat has thrown all ports into confusion. Picket lines have been drawn and the would-be strikers are awaiting the signal to walk out. The Atlantic seaboard unions have also threatened to strike in sympathy if a settlement is not reached in the near future.

HELPS REPORTS TALKS AT MEET OF EDUCATORS

Several speeches of importance were given at the annual State Superintendents convention held this year at Del Monte, October 26, 27 and 28, according to President Clarence L. Phelps.

John Sexson, Pasadena superintendent of schools, and president of the California Teacher's Association, spoke on "Current Problems in Education." State Superintendent Vierling Kersey outlined the adult and special education program of the state.

Former State Senator Daniel C. Murphy of San Francisco, and present sheriff of San Francisco county, who is also member of the State Board of Education, gave a critical treatment of education from a layman's point of view. Governor Frank F. Merriam attended the convention on the last day and discussed State finances with the group.

"Many other addresses of great interest were given," stated President Phelps, "and the panel discussions were also of great value. The purpose of these conventions is to pool available information and to interchange the experiences and ideas of various individuals which concern education."

N.Y.A. Checks Are in Controller's Office

Monthly checks for the N.Y.A. services are now to be had in the student controller's office in pay for work from September 14 to October 10. Ninety-eight students have received a total of $1,300. Of these students 53 are women and 45 are men, 3,212 hours have been put in with an average of 33 hours per student.

The checks are two and one-half weeks late. As this tardiness is in central offices it is expected that the checks will arrive late each month. Also it has been declared that when the checks do arrive a notice will be placed on the bulletin board in the administration building.

KDB Puts Nevada-State Game on Air

All the stay-at-homes and "broke" Freshmen will have an opportunity to hear a play by play description of the Reno game at 9:30 over radio station K. D. B. Saturday night.

Through the efforts of Roy E. Gammill, local merchant, Western Union, Station K. D. B., and Don Follett, these arrangements have been made. A College program will also be given.

The score of the game will be announced over the local station as soon as it comes in, approximately at five o'clock.

Frosh Change Bonfire Date

Greenies Apply Torch at 6:30 on November 12; Staters Stage Rally

Changing the date on recommendation of the rally committee, the Freshman class has announced November 12 as the day of the annual Frosh bonfire.

With wood piled at a spot 200 yards east of Stearn's wharf, the torch will be applied at 6:30 p.m. The bonfire will be the scene of a pep rally before the Occidental-Santa Barbara game set for November 13.

David Jones, president of the class of '40, will act as chairman of all activity for the event. Freshmen class members are urged to sign immediately for work. Al Merrill, Dave Wright and Hugh Shields will aid Jones.

Lyndell Brundige, Frosh secretary, will act as chairman of the food committee.

With the aid of downtown merchants, wood is being donated to the class, and will be stored secretly for another week.

Nine New Members Take Initiation of College 'Y' Tuesday

Nine men were initiated into the College "Y" at a meeting held last Tuesday night at the Y.M.C.A. Those who joined this semester are Al Anderson, Harry Sloan, Arthur Glover, Jr., Ronald Crary, Al Merrill, David Wright, Al Belprez, Harris Bakesman and Ted Joham.

Next Tuesday morning the group will be addressed by Mr. R. L. Easton, recently appointed traveling secretary of the Y.M.C.A. for the Pacific Coast area.

A morning initiation ceremony will be held within a short time for those who were unable to attend last Tuesday. "If anyone is interested in joining, he should see me immediately," stated Bob Kindred, president of the organization.

Refreshments were served at the meeting under the direction of Ted Rohlfsen, social chairman.

Frick Resigns Ticket Sales Managership

Council Accepts Resignation of Don Follett, Senior Class Councilman

LINDQUIST GETS POST Group Appropriates Money To Send Students on Reno Trip

Accepting the resignation of Allan Frick, State ticket sales manager, President Denning McArthur announced the temporary appointment of Tommy Lindquist to the position, at the regular meeting of the student legislative council held in Pine hall last Tuesday night.

The resignation of Don Follett, senior class representative, submitted to the group several weeks ago, was finally accepted.

Dorothy Hornor and Dick Wichman were appointed as year members of the Gaucho club committee. Ann Seymour, A. W. S. prexy, and Bob Kindred, Tau Omega, were members of the committee which was organized last year to improve and maintain the club room.

Upon a recommendation of the finance committee, $85 was appropriated to complete the total amount necessary to send the college band to Reno. $132 was collected at the Whittier game and from the band budget, $135 will be added.

From Dick Waterman, welfare committee chairman, came the recommendation that all organization benefits be temporarily referred to the committee for a decision. The group has been discussing formation of a policy to be set on all campus organizations regarding the benefit performances given during the school year, but no decision has been reached as yet.

Five members of the rally committee, including Harry Sloan and Jack Kitchen, yell leaders, Renata Maccianti and Barbara Sharp, song leaders; and Wilma Kiesner, committee chairman, will be sent to Reno this week-end, upon the appropriation of $25 by the student council.

HELEN MURPHY TALKS TO DEPT.

Miss Helen Murphy, Vice-Principal and Girl's advisor for the Santa Barbara Junior High school, will be the guest speaker at the junior high department meeting Tuesday morning. Miss Murphy has had a varied and interesting experience in the field of social welfare, and has dealt with many secondary teachers' problems in working among underprivileged groups.

The advisor, who has never before lectured to State college groups, is a member of the Child Welfare committee of the County Council of Social Agencies and of the Girl Scout Council of Santa Barbara.

"The junior high department is fortunate in obtaining Miss Murphy as a speaker, and welcomes visitors to the Tuesday lecture second hour in Room 82, Pine hall," stated Miss Elsie A. Pond, departmental berth.

Gaucha Backers Depart On Reno Bound Special

150 Students Plan for Trip with Hardermen; Rally, Parade Scheduled to Send Off Nevada Bound Special

"Off to Reno" is the cry of the campus as a load of 150 loyal Gaucho backers will be sent off by an equal group at the Southern Pacific depot this afternoon at 1:30. The send-off will be in a rally preceeding the train departure.

The rally will begin with a parade leaving the campus at 12:30. Police escort will be supplied for the parade. At the depot, a portable microphone will be used to have Coach Harder and members of the football squad speak to the crowd. There will also be a series of yells and songs with Yell-King Harry Sloan in charge. Officials of the parade have placed a quantity of crepe in the student body office to be used in

Auditorium Is Scene of Rally

Harris Brakesman Heads Sale of Tickets; Students Plan Program

The annual Homecoming rally will be held in the State college auditorium, Friday, November 6, at 8:30 o'clock at the conclusion of the parade through Santa Barbara's business district.

Tickets for the rally will be 25 cents. Harris Brakesman is in charge of the selling. He will be aided by the rally committee, Fred Allred's office, the student co-op and class representatives.

Skits and vaudeville acts will be put on by the active students on the campus, alumni of State and the faculty members. The band will also contribute to the entertainment.

The parade preceeding the rally will begin at 7:30 o'clock, according to Wilma Kiesner, rally committee chairman. Miss Elizabeth Sehon, "Pop" Wells, and Mr. Walter Cheever, faculty members, will judge the various floats which will be entered by different organizations. Cups will be awarded to the three prize-winning floats.

decorating the cars for the parade. No classes will be dismissed.

Immediately after 1:30, the train will leave Santa Barbara. Arrangements for dancing have been made with a small fee for the privilege.

Cowbells and white chrysanthemums centered with green will be sold by Delta Sigma Epsilon; confetti will be used in decoration on the train; and a huge Gaucho emblem is being planned. The train has been planned in the following order: engine, baggage and club car, team in one car and a half, band, diner, pullmans, baggage and observation.

Arriving in Reno at 8:00 a.m. Saturday, the band will march to the U. of Nevada campus and the travellers will be met by cars to transport the fans. At 11:00 p.m., the band will take part in Nevada's Admission Day parade. Following the game a dinner will be held at 6:30 at the Hotel Golden where the Harder charges will station themselves during the stay. The train will be used as a hotel for the evening. Students not stopping on the train are to supply supervisors with their address. The train will leave Reno at 10:00 a.m. and will arrive in Santa Barbara at 7 a.m. Monday morning.

Students are requested to conduct themselves properly on this trip so that they will be allowed trips of this nature in the future. Football players are responsible to Coach Harder, bandmen are responsible to Ed Cole or Mr. McAllister and all other students are responsible to Miss Sweet.

Drama Heads View Final Tryouts for State Production

Final try-outs for "The Circle," by Somerset Maughn, the initial offering of the Players club, were held Tuesday night in the auditorium. Judges were Dean William Ashworth and his assistant, Paul Jones, and Mrs. June Marie Davis. Selections for the cast have not yet been announced.

First try-outs for the two one-act plays, "Winsome Winnie," by Stephen Leacock, and "Safety Pins First," by Babbit Hughes, were held at four o'clock Wednesday afternoon under the direction of Mr. Jones.

The first of these latter plays is an old fashioned melodrama, while the second is the story of a sweet young librarian who wishes to travel before yielding to the advances of her ardent lover.

Gem Expert Speaks Before Department

M. Bachenheimer, owner of El Paseo gem shop, will speak to the unclassified department in a second hour meeting to be held in the auditorium Tuesday morning.

Bachenheimer will talk on "The Interesting Details and Experiences of My Profession." Arnold Rose, vice president and Waldo Phelps, department prexy, will preside.

Halloween Horrors Haunt State Students Practical Jokes, Pranks Feature Reno Trip and Home Fun

"Merry Wives of Reno!" State College guys and gals are going to run into more than divorceville when they launch forth in Nevada territory over the week-end.

Not only is October 31 the day when ghosts and witches are rumored to prowl through the streets, but the State of Nevada celebrates Admission Day at the same time. Students making the trip by train will congratulate themselves, as even Hallowe'en pranksters will not aim their rotten eggs and squashy tomatoes at a parked pullman.

But practical jokes and pranks will not be limited to the outside world. On the Reno special, ghosts in pullman sheets will undoubtedly parade the aisles of the sleeping Gauchos, while many a feminine co-ed will spend half the night groaning because of grains of rice which she was not able to remove from her supposedly comfortable berth.

Back in the old home town, sirens will howl aimlessly on the disappearance of signs, and the flying of rotten vegetables and dilapidated foot gear, while various homes and stores will display the usual soap-tinted windows.

Whether on the Nevada bound limited or racing around in antiquated vehicles, the spirit of Hallowe'en will be evident in the actions of Santa Barbara Staters.

Freshman Spirit

With the advent of every new Freshman class, comes the old, old problem of indiscriminate painting here and there on the campus. Every fall, this same breach of sportsmanship has to be contended with. In the past, however, the destructive paint dabbling has been limited to the campus and school property.

This year school authorities have been faced with a rather serious new problem. The over enthusiastic freshmen have taken it upon themselves to decorate a few landmarks leading up to the campus on property not belonging to the state.

Naturally it must be taken into consideration that the freshmen, inspired by the handiwork of their predecessors, are aiming to do bigger and better things, in order to perpetuate their memory in posterity. The basic ideas and motives, while not fundamentally wrong, are anything but original. Last year at this time, the year before, and even in the fall of '33, rocks, stones, benches and trees have been decorated and mutilated by the trade-mark of the freshmen class—the inevitable green paint.

By their continuance of ideas fostered in previous years, the Frosh of '40 have displayed their complete lack of originality. It seems a pity that such artistic talent and youthful energy could not be utilized in a more satisfying manner to further the well-being of the school as a whole.—I.M.

Long Shots

By LONGIE

Ho, hum! And so another column. Saw Barney Swanson and Lois Schepple downtown shopping for sweaters the other afternoon. Well, Well! Where's Sandy, Lois? . . . I guess I made a mistake last Tuesday when I said that Jack Smith and Tiny Garman weren't going together any more. By the looks of things now they're still going as strong as ever.

Busby got a trifle mad t'other day when he read in the paper that a fellow from U.S.C. went up to see his "Tulare milkmaid" . . . I'd like to get hold of the note Buppy "Carlos Jaun'ts Moore" wrote to Madge Bunch, so I could print it for the benefit of all you people.

I hear that there is some dissension over the appropriation to send the rally committee head to Reno in preference over some other standing committee heads.

Heard that a sign was printed in the middle of Mission Canyon which stated, "Armae, meet me here at 5 o'clock." Guess who; Jimmie Monson has left the local co-eds flat for the girl, namely Margaret Foster, his ol' gal.

A good idea is that of sending a carload of hogs to Reno . . . It would be cheaper . . . and they do more "rooting" than the kids, anyway.

What? At last we can print an editor's name . . . Bill Hoyt, last year's ed has been seen roundin a bout with Eleanor Benham . . . Yes, girls, Ruth Buck, an off-campus gal, is the reason for Tommy Lindquist's invulnerable attitude. "There's something in that, too," said the burglar when he put his hand in the spittoon.

Book Chatter

By ARTHUR H. BATCHELDER

Last Sunday evening, just about when I decided to turn off in despair the un-Godly Jack Benny program, I happened to flick the dial past KECA and there was my old friend, Joseph H. Jackson—book-reviewer. To those of you who share my opinion concerning Jack Benny may I heartily recommend this exhilarating program. If you remember Mr. Jackson gave us that glorious book, reviewed not long ago in this column, "Mexican Interlude."

He had as guest on the program that fine author, Dr. David Seabury, writer of "Unmasking Our Mind", and other books which delve, delightfully, into psychology. Today this column gives to you my impressions regarding Mr. Seabury's talk on his newest and most interesting book "How to Worry Successfully". He told the following story:

Train Conductor: "Where's that there dog a goin'?"

Baggage Clerk: "He don't know, I don't know, nobody knows, cause he's chewed up his tag."

Dr. Seabury tied this story up cleverly by saying that when people ask him where America is going, he answers by saying that he doesn't know, no one knows—"we have chewed up our tag". This is a most significant statement—it deserves our thought and analysis. Some of his statements which I feel are worth giving to you are:

"Put your life in order and keep it in order no matter what

Here's another keyhole peek. We wonder you aren't getting tired of it. Anyway, it's about Kay Kyser. He's leader of the Elgin Football Revue orchestra . . . it started when he was a student at the University of North Carolina . . . organized a dance band for school . . . then played at different colleges . . . six of original band members are in present band . . . likes to be on the go . . . insists on facial expressions in his singers . . . originated song introducing by singing titles . . . always wears glasses.

Wolves Claim Strong Squad

Team Averages 190 Pounds; Ten Lettermen Make First String

When the Santa Barbara State Gauchos take the field against the University of Nevada Wolves tomorrow at Reno, the following minor details will be staring them square in the face and yelling as loud as they can, "are you ready, boys?"

First, the squad averages 190 pounds, the line averaging 193 and the backfield 187.

Second, the complete forward wall of seven lettermen with two to spare will oppose the Gauchos. The backfield will have lettermen at every position with the exception of the fullback post.

Frank "Bud" Showalter, tackle, Co-captain of the team. Member of Nevada's outstanding freshman squad of 1933, playing tackle, which post he has held down through two years of varsity competition on the first string. Nominated for stardom by sports scribes, coaches, and officials from coast to coast by being placed on All-American check list for 1936 on basis of previous performance, promise in training, and general all-around ability. Big and aggressive. Heaviest man on squad, weighing 215, but by no means the slowest, 6 feet tall and 24 years old. Home town is Los Angeles.

John "Bomber" Ohrt, quarter. Co-captain of the team. Most experienced of the crop of quarterbacks. He blocks well and is elusive in the broken field. Transferred from Sacramento J. C. and earned a position on the varsity during the initial practice last year. Depends on deception and shiftness rather than sheer speed in the open field. Claims Sacramento, California, as his home. Five feet 10 inches, 23 years old, 180 pounds.

William J. "Bill" Cashill, center, Senior letterman and student body president. Moved to center spot from old place at guard where he earned two letters. Has plenty of fire and drive. Is making good at his new post because he is called upon to play defensive guard at times under Nevada system. Brother of Tom Cashill, Wolf all-conference center for 1932, 1933 and 1934. This Reno, Nevada player is 6 feet tall, weighs 190 pounds, and is 21 years old, from Manual Arts high school, Los Angeles.

Harry "Sphinx" Bradley, guard. Veteran tackle for past two seasons is being tried at guard this year with good success. One of largest men on the squad and can block with the best of them. He hails from Fallon, Nevada, is 6 feet 2 inches tall, 200 pounds, and 23 years old.

Hollis "Tex" McKinnon, end. Has played first string at the flank post for 2 years and is showing some very good blocking and tackling this season. A good pass receiver. His height and strength give him an advantage on defense. From Mina, Nevada. McKinnon is a senior, 24 years old. The tallest man on the squad, soaring to 6 feet 4 inches. Weighs 195.

John "Ham" Robb, full. Started most of the games as tailback and fullback in 1934, and returns to the team after a layoff of a year. A good all-around man both on offense and defense.

Paul Walker, tackle. After a lay-off of one year he is getting the feel of things and is showing as fine a spirit as a coach could desire. Large and speedy. Is 23 years old and resides in Sparks, Nevada. Weighs 190 and is 6 feet tall.

Sam "Stocky" Basta, end. Rangy and heavy enough to play end on any man's team. Considered a sensational pass receiver by Coach "Doug" Dashiell. A good blocker and a fair defensive man. His broken field running is of the best and he is showing fine competitive spirit. Is registered from Ely, Nevada, weighing 170 pounds. Is 6 feet 2 inches tall and 21 years old. A junior student.

William "Bill" Grubbs, half. Husky veteran from last year's eleven, lettering at fullback. Rolled up more yardage from running plays than any other Wolf back in 1935. Playing a new position at half this season. Has speed to burn, drives like a tractor and is one of the hardest ball carriers to be brought down. A left handed passer and a good defensive man also. Gives his home town as Reno, Nevada. Weighs 190, stands 5 feet 11, and is just 20 years old.

Louis Nash, guard. A junior student from Las Vegas, Nevada, lettered his first year on the varsity as guard and is one of the outstanding candidates for the post on this year's eleven. Is big and strong and is picking up speed surprisingly. A powerful man on defense. 21 years old, 6 feet tall, 190 pounds.

Gauchos Ready for Nevadans

State Rated Underdogs for First Time This Season; Aim for Upset

The undefeated Galloping Gauchos will be making their debut in "big time" football when they face the Wolves of the University of Nevada at Reno, Saturday afternoon.

Nevada is the strongest team the Gauchos will face this season. Last Saturday, the Wolfpack defeated a member of the Pacific Coast conference, the University of Idaho, by a 7-6 score. Idaho was highly favored and the result was a major upset.

Being the underdogs for the first time this season, and aiming at an upset, the Gauchos will start the game with the following lineup; Mulock, at left end; Twaddell whose sterling playing in the Whittier game has won him a starting berth, at left tackle; "Dynamite" Doug Oldershaw, with his injured shoulder in shape, at left guard; Donk Hart's injured hand has recovered to the extent that he will start at center; Hayman, and his nose guard will be at right guard; Busby at right tackle; and another masked player at right end. Al Young, broke his "bugle" in practice but will be in there playing ball.

The starting backfield will be: Pollock, whose injured leg has responded to treatment, at quarter; "Scooter" Morelli, at left half; "Flash" Yeager at right half; and Freddy Monson, who played a bang-up game last week, at the fullback position.

Beta Sigs Honor '36 Gridmen at Banquet

The entire varsity football squad and its coaching staff were guests of honor at a banquet given Wednesday night by Beta Sigma Chi at the fraternity house on Cheltenham road.

Extemporaneous speeches by Coaches "Spud" Harder and Wilton Wilton featured the meeting. Judge Ernest E. Wagner was a guest of the fraternity. Harrington "Pop" Wells entertained the group with several piano selections.

Beta Sigs Bill Hoyt, Al Scott, Harvey Hoffman, Lansing Stewart, Bob Dorn, Meredith Thomas, Yale Lorden, Leonard Dorn, and Roland Carter, frat prexy, served the dinner.

Delta Zeta Delta Sorority Plans Homecoming for Alumnae

Gathering for a dessert meeting at the home of Zelva Pierce in Mission Canyon, last Monday evening, Delta Zeta Delta, social sorority, discussed plans for the Homecoming events, with Elisabeth Leonard presiding.

The business of constructing the Delta Zeta Delta float to be entered in the Homecoming parade Friday evening, November 6, was put in the hands of a committee headed by Margaret Eastwood. The float entered in the parade last year won second prize.

The sorority will continue their annual custom of selling corsages at the alumni dinner in Ebbets hall on Saturday, November 7, and at the game, with Ann Covelle chairman of the corsage committee. The final event will be a breakfast at El Cortijo Sunday morning, honoring returning alumnae members.

Mrs. John T. Porter issued tickets for the annual Bridge Tea and Winter Fashion show to be given Saturday, November 14, from 2:30 to 5 in the afternoon at El Paseo. It will feature clothes from the Jack Rose Smart Shop, shoes from Michel Levy, and coiffures by Marcel et Pierre. Open to the public, tickets are now on sale.
