Sandy Setting for Annual Beachcomber

The traditional Beachcombers ball will be held tonight from 9 until 12 o'clock in the Veterans' Memorial hall at the West Beach, according to Dick Vanderhoof, president of the Beta Sigma Chi fraternity, which is sponsoring the sandy affair. Lino Martino and his orchestra will lend musical talents.

It will be strictly a costume event with the beachcomber theme, bathing suits being acceptable, and will be $1.50 per couple. "Necessary" liquid refreshments will be available in quantity at the dance. "Success of this event, as in the past, has been estimated at the amount of damages which have to be paid at the conclusion of the affair," stated Mr. Vanderhoof.

"Shellback" tickets may be obtained from any member of the fraternity and are being sold in the cafeteria today.

Ed Roeth is decorations chairman and Buck Levine is heading the committee on finance while Bruce Whitaker, Bob Bowman, Dick Fox, Art Westmont, John Daniels, Sam Cathcart, and Royal Cathcart are assisting in preparations.

GRADUATING SENIORS . . . NOTE

Final date for ordering caps and gowns for Commencement Exercises is today at noon. If you have not ordered your cap and gown, do so immediately at the college book store. Give your head size, chest measurement and height. Commencement will be held at 9:30, Sunday morning, June 22.

Pre-Engineer Tests Set For Saturday Morning

Pre-engineering examinations for entrance to the engineering schools on the Berkeley and Los Angeles campuses for the fall semester will be given Saturday morning, May 17, at 8:30 a.m. They will be held in room 100 North Hall.

Examination fees of five dollars is payable before examination time. Payment may be in cash or money order.

Separate examinations will be given for lower division (Freshmen-Sophomore) and upper division (Junior-Senior). Interested students for either examination must report to the office of the Registrar before noon tomorrow.

AWS Fashion Show Feature Attraction At Benefit Bridge

Featuring a summer revue of fashions modeled by college co-eds, a benefit bridge party will be held Saturday afternoon in the beautiful gardens of Mrs. W. B. Trueman, 2151 Mission Ridge Rd., according to Sharon Smith AWS president. The event, which will begin at 1 p.m., is being sponsored by the AWS and the Alumni Association of Santa Barbara College.

All types of summer wearing apparel from bathing suits to formals will be worn by models chosen by Mr. Lou Rose from the many Gaucho women who tried out last week. Models will be Bilye Lemmer, Marion Heikla, Audrey Braun, Esther Corona, Billy Kneeland, Gerry Gray, Patsy Hewlett, Claylain Wilson, Margaret Monahan, Patti Parslow, Kay Updegraff, Marilyn Melvin, Dottie Wilson, Nancy DeBenedict, Eileen Dismuck, and Barbara Balthus.

DOOR PRIZES

Several door prizes are being offered, said Mrs. Ester Porter, alumni secretary, and alumni committee head for the affair. These will be a dress, a hat, and a Rose-Marie bathing suit.

Following the show, tea will be served by the alumni and women students. Tickets are being sold in the quad and at the cafeteria, for $1.20 including tax.

WEEKS OF PLANNING

Under the direction of Miss Smith, AWS board members have been hard at work for weeks planning the presentation of this fashion show and garden party. Members of the various committees from the campus include Sally Locke and Gerry Gray, in charge of contacting organizations personally; Jean Wright, posters; Gertrude Gally, publicity; Laura Goetke, letters; Donna Hill, post cards; Audrey Braun, tickets. Other members helping in various capacities have been June Hellweggen, Trudy Doerr, Patty Bates, and Lynn Edgerton.

This is the one big event for all women during the year, and all Gaucho co-eds are urged to attend this affair, which has been organized for you, Miss Smith said.

Yachters Schedule Sunday Cruise

Active members of the Gaucho Yacht Club will meet at the harbor breakwater at 1:00 p.m. Sunday for an afternoon of sailing to be followed by a picnic, bonfire, games, and community singing on Leadbetter beach in the late afternoon, according to Terry Dearborn, adviser of the club.

Musical Extravaganza Completes Run Tonight

Modestly termed "the best Revue since '32," the 1947 ROADRUNNER REVUE opened a two-night run yesterday in the Riviera auditorium under the direction of Stan Becker and Merlin Quo. Becker wrote the show and acts as co-director. A newcomer to the campus, he attended Loyola University in Louisiana, where he gained experience in the production of plays and musicals. Quo, a veteran of four ROADRUNNER REVUES, is known on campus for his Gaucho column and for his photographic activities. He acts as producer and co-director.

Completely slapstick in nature, the Revue features student-written music and script, emceed by Joe Costantino (of the "Inspector General" Bobchinsky-Dobchinsky team).

Tickets for the remaining performance are still on sale, handled by Social Committee Chairman Willie Wigger. Prices are 50c for students, 80c for the general public, and $1.00 for reserved seats.

PROGRAM OF SHOW

The 1947 ROADRUNNER REVUE program is "launched by Bandleader Fredlund's 'Overture,' followed by a 'Hello' from Master of Ceremonies Joe Costantino. The show slapsticks itself immediately into a 'Boogie Ballet' featuring Mary Frances Lee and Vernon Long, followed by Walter Arndt in 'To Be or Not to Be.'

Patty Maher sings "Clair de Lune;" Jean Ausman sings "Willow eep for Me," and Jack Profant, Jody Trueblood, and Bob Schottland present "What Will the Neighbors Think?"

ORIGINAL MUSIC

Herb Fredlund and Cal Estes then present an interlude of original music.

Ed Morris, Marcia McAuley and Merlin Quo next appear in "Phone Please;" Patty Parslow gives in imitation; the Tau Gams present "By the Sea;" and Morris, McAuley, and Quo are back in "Bedroom."

"Latin Quarter" by Bernie Rummack and Mary Frances Lee is followed by Ed Morris and Stan Becker in "Opera," which in turn is followed by the San Pisquire Quartet.

The ROADRUNNER REVUE then turns to a skit by Fred Wade, Bob Wheeler, and Bob Eskew, followed by "Songs by Jack Profant."

Jody Trueblood and Bob Schottland present "Romeo and Juliet" . . . the house rocks to the "Finale" . . . and the curtain falls on the 1947 production of Santa Barbara College's ROADRUNNER REVUE.

Artist Series Plays Next Week at Mesa

Works of such noted playwrights as Eugene O'Neill, Paul Green, Howard Reed and others will be presented as part of the current Artist Series on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, May 20 and 21, according to Mr. Upton Palmer of the speech department. Altogether, six student-directed plays will all student casts will be produced, five each evening, at the Mesa campus auditorium. Admission will be by student body cards. Curtain time is 8:30.

Tentatively, the program for Tuesday evening includes the following:

BEFORE BREAKFAST, a one-act drama by Eugene O'Neill, under the student direction of Noni Williams.

STRONGER, by Strendberg, with Maggie Wheeler as student director.

BOX and COX, a farce by J. M. Morton, directed by Milton Commons.

UNTO SUCH GLORY, by the Pulitzer prize winner of 1927, Paul Green, directed by Steve Smith.

REVEALING MOMENTS, by Firkins, with Paul Kliss directing.

Wednesday evening TOWN HALL, by Howard Reed, will be produced under the direction of Don Iverson in place of BOV and COX.

Mr. Palmer is the faculty advisor for these productions.

RE-ELECTION

Election Committee Chairman Del Beisel has announced that there will be a re-election this afternoon for all "run-off" candidates. Evidence has been found to the effect that the ballots on the last run-off election were "stuffed" for both of the vice-presidential candidates. It is this fact which necessitates the re-election this afternoon.

It is to be understood, however, that both of the candidates are free of any blame; neither was aware of the ballot stuffing until so informed by the election committee.

Intramural Speech Contests Scheduled by Department

Scheduled for the latter part of this month are the Annual Intra-Mural Speech Contests, sponsored by the speech department. According to Ross Everman, chairman of the affair, all regular students of Santa Barbara College are entitled to participate in any or all of the contests, except that any previous winner will not be eligible to enter the same event, although he may enter any contest in which he has never won an award.

The after dinner speaking contest tryouts will be held next Wednesday, May 21, in Oak hall at 3:00 p.m. The speeches, which are to be entertaining, will be limited to five minutes. Each contestant must deposit in the speech department one card stating the topic of his speech, and giving his name. All contestants will participate in the first round, with high ranking speakers entering the semi-finals. Judges will select the winners to participate in finals which will be held at a dinner, the date of which is to be announced later.

EXTEMP TALKS

Students interested in extemporaneous speeches must submit three topics on which they are prepared to speak to the speech department three days prior to the first round. Two days before the speech, the instructor will select one of the topics submitted by the entrant. These speeches will be limited to five minutes. Preliminary rounds of the extempore contest will be held in the section meetings of all speech 11 classes, each section selecting by ballot two representatives to enter the semi-finals. The first round will be held May 22 in Ridge hall 101 at 3:00 p.m.

Judges will select speakers from the semi-finals to enter the finals, which will be May 27 in the auditorium at 8:00 p.m. Several rules have been set down for the extempore contest; any students interested in further details are requested to see the bulletin board in the speech department.

ORATORY CONTEST

Originality, sincerity, audience motivation, thought and directness of delivery will be the qualities judged in the oratory contest. The subject of the talk must be original with the speaker and shall deal with problems of special interest to him. No oration may take more than ten minutes for delivery.

The first round, in which all will participate, will be held Tuesday, May 20, in Ridge hall 101 at 3:00 p.m. Speakers for the first round may read their orations if they desire, but for the semi-finals or finals, speeches must be memorized. The semi-finals will be

POETRY READING

Students interested in poetry reading will be prepared to read at sight a selection chosen by the judges. All contestants will read the same selection, after having been given two minutes to familiarize themselves with the poem. held May 22 in Oak hall 102 at 3:00 p.m.

One or more selections will be permitted to be read also, with no participant being allowed longer than five minutes to read his choice. The first round will be May 20 in Oak hall 101 at 3:00 p.m.

Everman stressed that all student body members and their guests are invited to attend the finals, which will be in the campus auditorium Tuesday, May 27, at 8:00 p.m.

Dear Editor,

Can you publish this, or is it against the four freedoms?

If you chance to meet, on campus, a raggedly-gear'd young man, do not give him a handout. He is not a tramp (in the strictest sense of the word). Neither is he so athirst for knowledge that he has no time to shave. Most probably he may be also seen at one of the local establishments, where one stands with one foot slightly elevated. He will be occupied in making sweeping gestures with his right hand. This motion is accompanied by a smacking of the lips an da glance at the mirror. Obviously he is not too poor to buy razor blades.

On the contrary, this person will turn out to be in attendance at this institution of higher learning. Upon questioning, you will learn that this young student is participating in a contest.

"Oh, fine!" you exclaim "are you writing a play, giving a speech, composing a chorale, or perhaps engaged in scientific research?"

"Who, me? Nuts!" he explains further. "I'm gonna raise me the biggest and funniest beard on campus."

At this point you may feel weak and want to sit down and contemplate the pathetic state of education. Here, surrounded by the best of what man has created, invented, thought, and discovered since he deserted his arboreal home, "students" are inspired to what—They are inspired to compete with one another in proving which of them is the least removed from his monkey ancestors!

Joe College.

Editor's Note—You're complaining! What about the gals!

Red Cross Course To Begin Monday

The special Red Cross instructor's courses in first aid and in life saving and water safety will begin this monday, May 19, and will continue daily for two weeks. Candidates for the water safety course should meet at the Santa Barbara Municipal swimming pool at West Beach at 3:30 p.m. with a suit and towel. Those accepted for the first aid course should report to the Red Cross Chapter House, 1408 Chapala, at 7:30 p.m.

Further details may be obtained from Coach Terry Dearborn of the physical education department in charge of the swimming program.

Cal Bears Meet Hilltoppers For Diamond Fracas Monday

Pitcher Bob Elliott who is expected to start Monday's game.

Laguna park will be the scene of a baseball battle royal Monday night at 8:00 p.m. when the flashy Golden Bears from the University of California attempt to muffle the big bats of the giant-killing Gauchos of Santa Barbara College.

The Bears, top dog in the CIBA with only one loss in eleven starts, will be playing to win from the moment the umpire calls "Play Ball" until the third out is made in the ninth inning, as the Gaucho horsehidiers have earned a reputation on the coast as a team to be feared. Twice this season the Hilltoppers have knocked off CIBA teams (USC and UCLA) and Coach Spud Harder and company will really be gunning for a third victory over the big boys. It's not impossible. The San Diego Aztecs clubbed the Bears 13-2, but had a much harder time disposing of Santa Barbara. A two-run difference was the best they could do in any of the four games they have had with the Gauchos.

California has plenty of reasons to be where they are today in the league standings. Five men are batting the ball for a better than .300 average. Top man is Jensen with .400, followed by McClain with .393. The team average is .281, which is a high average in any league. Naturally the Bears have a fine pitching staff, but if Gaucho batsmen find their eye it might take more than a fine pitching staff to stop them.

GAUCHOS AT TOP STRENGTH

The Gauchos should be at full strength for the game unless someone is injured at Fresno this weekend. The Hilltoppers play their last league games today and tomorrow against the cellar-dwelling Fresno Bulldogs. Little depends on the outcome of the games other than the fact that it will decide whether the Gauchos will end up with more wins than losses or vice versa in the 2C2A. The last time the teams met they split; Santa Barbara won 8-6 and lost 10-2.

Call For Yell Leaders

Yell leader tryouts will be held Monday, May 19, at 3:00 p.m. in the college auditorium. All men students interested are urged to be present.

Song leaders will have tryouts the following week, Monday, May 26, in the auditorium.

Remember the contest . . . free cigarettes for those that predict the score of the tilt; Errorless Outland predicts we'll beat big brother bear by a tremendous score of 8-50. Meanwhile, in Washington, the alleged I. E. senator says that the Cincinnati Reds will steal the National League pennant! The Un-American committee is investigating. The senator is also under investigation for wearing a red and white tee shirt. The senator is under suspicion for the extra-curricular activities in inciting a Santa Barbara secession from the California campus. And now that Mr. Raack has contributed his murderous mess, Mr. Outland will reply to the same. The reds may win the pennant, but the RED Sox will win the World Series.

Tom Lyle, fearless editor of El Gaucho, predicts a 6-5 victory for the Gaucho nine. Dick Raack, loafer and extrovert, picks Cal 8-5. Jerry Terres, the mad terror and Helen's husband, thinks that Cal will win 8-2 . . . so there it is . . . get in your prediction for the game and win free cigs.

The Rubdown

By Nick Lafkas

Next Monday nights the big one when the Santa Barbara horsehidiers will wind up the baseball season and also face the leaders in the C.I.B.A. "Bretherin Bear" who will travel from Berkeley to dust off a few tilts down south before meeting the Gauchos here Monday.

So far as titles go the Gauchos will not be battling Cal for league laurels for as all of you know, Cal is not in our league. Furthermore, we have lost chances for a high standing position when we fell heir to the wrath of the San Diego Aztecs two weeks ago when the "Redskins" took both ends of a doubleheader 5-4 and 4-2.

But even though we are on the basement level in our own conference it does not follow that we cannot make a good showing against the Bears. In fact, it might turn out to be darn surprising if I may risk such a generalized prediction. If you will recall we seem to hit our peak in non-league games. This at least has been demonstrated with such teams as U.S.C. and U.C.L.A.

I don't intend to attempt a sillogism here and say, "Since we beat these two, and since they were non-league games as the one this Monday, we must therefore conclude that we will win against the "Bears". Nothing of the sort. I merely pass this info along for what it is worth and at the same time hope that the Gauchos will be up to their performance level to give the fans and the Cal contingent a good run for their money. At any rate let's see a tremendous crowd at Laguna this Monday and lets also give the local boys a good hand for their trying efforts this season.

Can Marriage and Sports Combine Properly?—Well, if you follow the example of trackman John Cooper I'd say that they can and what's more they are more than compatible as Cooper's story will testify. John caught holy matrimony on Saturday morning, 11:15 on May 3, and at 2 p.m. the same afternoon, reported to the Occidental campus for track participation in pole vaulting events. How did he make out? Fine. John cleared the bar at 13 feet to tie with Oxy's top man. Make up your own moral.

Another Moral—This one is keep your hotel room door bolted. If you are inquisitive as to why, ask Gaucho sportsmen who spent some time in Fresno last week while participating in sports events. They all had their wallets taken. Later they found these wallets in linen closets and various store rooms less a total of 300 bucks. The other Gauchos who did lock their doors reported no losses.

This Is Late Publicity—but it seems we are prone to forget the minor sports occasionally while being engrossed in the more well-attended events here in Santa Barbara. Let me say here then, that Coach Terry Dearborn's mermen deserve special credit for their achievement in taking top honor title at the annual Poly Royal where the Gaucho aquarians nosed out both Cal Poly and the Santa Maria Athletic Club two weeks ago.

Special mention should be meted to swimmer Jack Jardine who led the Gaucho team to final victory by winning his event in the finals by a breath-taking three inches and additional mention should be given to second high men Don Humphreys and Stanford Bingham.

Gaucho Netters Cop 2C2A Runner-Up

Entering the CCAA Championship at Fresno last weekend with a record of nine wins to two losses for this season, Coach Terry Dearborn's varsity tennis sextet proved its merit by leading Fresno, San Diego and San Jose State colleges, and California Polytechnic to place second only to the highly-touted College of Pacific team, one of the strongest collegiate outfits in the country this year.

COP SHINES

The two-day playoffs for the conference championships saw the Stocktonites sweep three of the four tournaments to win the team championship as well as the doubles and singles titles. Eldon Ford of Santa Barbara defeated Gordon Dalleck of COP in the finals to win the number two singles tournament, but Art Larsen of COP won the number one title by defeating Ken McCarthy of Fresno, who downed Santa Barbaran Bob Wright, freshman captain, in the semi-finals.

Wright had earlier defeated Marshall Miller of Cal Poly. The conference first doubles titles was won by Druliner and Pfister of COP while Gauchos Wright and Alan Cobbe lost in the semi-finals of this contest. The second doubles tournament found Gauchos George Manset and Bob Slover defeating teams from Cal Poly and San Jose to reach the finals where they were finally downed by Collins and Covez of COP.

Carter May Enter Seven Thinclads in West Coast Relays

One of the outstanding track and field carnivals of the nation will be held on May 17 when the West Coast Relays, which will be held in Fresno, play host to more than 1200 leading track and field athletes.

Known as the "Carnival of Champions", the Relays have made rapid progress since their inauguration back in 1927 and now rank among the greatest track and field events of the nation.

No less than eighteen world records, along with two American records and six world junior college records, have been established at these Relays; and with virtually every university and college on the West Coast sending men to compete, many more records are in the making.

Into this array of track stars, Coach Nick Carter will send possibly seven men to represent Santa Barbara College. The mile relay team composed of Al Deline, Stan Moore, Dick Kampmann, and Wally Cole, are definitely set to make the trip. This relay team has been a constant point getter in past events and has just recently broken the school record for the mile with the time of 3:23.4. Both Deline and Moore have chalked up a good time for the 440 at 50.9, while Kampmann has been pressing Wally Cole in the 880. The anchor position will be held by Cole, holder of the school record in the 880 yard run at 1:56.4.

In the pole vault event, Carter expects to enter John Cooper and possibly Bill Locke. Both have improved greatly in recent competition and can clear 13 feet.

Another possible entry for the Gauchos is Ed Grabast in the shot put.
