57 Summer Graduates

"WHAT A LIFE" OPENS FOR SECOND SUCCESSFUL NIGHT

Curtain rising at 8:30 p.m., "What A Life", humorous Henry Aldrich drama, plays its second night after a successful first night performance. Directed by Dr. Albert O. Mitchell, the play involves the many pranks and difficulties of young Henry and his friends.

Don Cogan, young high school star, plays the part of Henry, and is ably supported by a cast of veteran dramatists.

Admission for student body members is their student cards; service men will be admitted for twenty five cents; outsiders, fifty cents; and children of student body members will be admitted for the five cent government tax on their parents' cards. All tickets will be sold at the box office.

THANKS GIVEN BY SOCIAL CHAIRMAN

I should like to express my sincere appreciation of the excellent work of the members of the social committee during this summer session. Without the consistent and loyal cooperation of Cora Kyte, Jean Pateman, Ruth Langmack, and Lorraine Delbrook, it would not have been possible to carry on a social program.
