

TENOR CARL ZYTOWSKI TO SING FOR RECITAL

by Bruce Batchelder, Asst. News Editor

An unusual series of instrumental accompaniments will provide a rich background for the tenor voice of Carl Zytowski at the second Faculty Recital, to be given tomorrow in the University auditorium. The public is invited without charge to the program which begins at 8:30 p.m.

In the recital of vocal chamber music, Zytowski, assistant professor of music on the UCSB campus, will be accompanied in the concert on the piano and harpsichord by Dr. John Gillespie, chairman of the music department, and assisted by violinist Stefan Krayk and oboist Clayton Wilson, both associate professors of music. Students to perform with him will be Cleora Leist, flute; Sue Swift and Gay Denbrook, cello.

The University Student String Quartet also will appear with Zytowski. This talented student group consists of Donald McInnes and Christopher Govers, violin; Jann Batchelor, viola, and Miss Swift on the cello.

CARL ZYTOWSKI

Bach and Beethoven

The first half of the program will feature the works of Bach and Beethoven. The Bach Cantata 189, "Meine sele ruhmst un preist," with its series of arias and recitatives, will open the program. Scottish and Irish folksongs by Beethoven will include such numbers as "Faithful Johnie," "Bonny Laddy, Highland Laddy," "The Lovely Lass of Inverness," "Morning a Cruel Turmoiler Is," "The Pulse of an Irishman," and others.

Maurice Ravel's Chansons Madecasses will open the second half of the program, followed by a performance of Samuel Barber's "Dover Beach."

Debut Performance

A first performance of a work which was written especially for Zytowski by Dr. Roger Chapman, UCSB assistant professor of music, entitled "To His Coy Mistress," will close the program.

Zytowski has been extremely active in musical circles in Santa Barbara since his coming here seven years ago, not only as a concert performer but as an opera director, arranger and translator. Under his direction many successful chamber operas have been performed at the University, as well as his direction of and performance in the outstanding Music Academy of the West summer opera productions. His next venture is the world premiere of Vernon Duke's new opera, "Mistress Into Maid," to be presented on the campus Dec. 12 and 13.

POLL SHOWS STUDENTS INFORMED ON TODAY'S CALIFORNIA ELECTIONS

UCSB students are "up" on today's state election. At least an impartial survey taken by El Gaucho Friday seems to indicate that for the most part students are aware of the leading candidates for state office. The 255 students who took part in the poll were best informed on the controversial Proposition 13, which has received tremendous publicity over the past few months. Eighty-two per cent of those asked knew that the issue involved the "right to work" or had "something to do with compulsory unionism."

Among the candidates, 80 per cent of the students knew "Pat" Brown is the Democratic candidate for Governor. In comparison, 72 per cent of the 255 questioned knew that William Knowland is the Republican candidate.

Apparently one sincere student is living in the wrong state. She thought Averill Harriman and Nelson Rockefeller (who are presently campaigning for Governor of New York) were the candidates for Governor in California.

The complete results of the survey are listed below:

Question	Right	Wrong	Pct.
When is election day?	169	86	66%
Democrat for Governor?	203	52	80%
Republican for Governor?	185	70	72%
Democrat for Senator? (Engle)	128	127	50%
Republican for Senator? (Knight)	145	110	53%
What is Prop. 13? (Right to Work)	208	47	82%

BUSY ALL-CAL WEEKEND NEARS

Bus Transportation Planned For $12.50 Needs Takers

by Phyllis Fisher, Gaucho Reporter

Today is the last day for interested students to sign up for a chartered bus to the three fun-packed days of All-Cal. The cost is $12.50 per person for the bus leaving Thursday evening if enough students sign up in the AS office.

"We urge that all students needing transportation and housing make reservations immediately," stated Art Herman, UCSB chairman for All-Cal. A special chair-car train will take students to Berkeley for the round-trip fare of $20.47. The train leaves Santa Barbara Thursday, Nov. 6, at 11:34 p.m. and arrives in San Francisco Friday at 8:30 a.m.

and new friends.

A doughnut-and-coffee reception for all students will be the kickoff for All-Cal Friday morning at 11 in the Stephen Union. Following this get-together will be the All-University Meeting in Dwinelle Plaza, featuring speakers from the eight branches of the University.

All-Cal Rally and Dance is planned for Friday evening. UCSB will participate in the rally, featuring S.B. song and cheer leaders and the Gaucho band, which will present a skit. Following the pep rally will be the All-Cal dance to be held in the Hearst Women's Gym lasting until midnight. Price of admission is 75c per person.

Football is the key word for the agenda Saturday. Beginning at 10:45, UCSB will play Davis in the pre-game which will be followed by the UCLA-vs.-Berkeley game at 2 p.m. UCSB will have its own rooting section on the UCLA side and will participate in the half-time activities. Tickets for the game can be bought at Berkeley for $3.50 for students and $7 for non-UC students.

Following the game all individual living groups will sponsor open house for all students, and parties will last until the late hours of Saturday night.

FROST READINGS RENDERED WED.

With poems by Robert Frost, the Speech Department will begin its annual series of oral readings. The performance will be held in the Classroom Auditorium tomorrow at 4 p.m. Admission is free.

The work of Frost is noted for its conversational style, and for this reason it is enjoyed widely. Frost has won four Pulitzer Prizes, and his books have sold over a quarter of a million copies.

Mickey Wheeler will read "New Hampshire," for which Frost won the Pulitzer Prize in 1924; Ruth Harrison will read "The Pasture," "The Impulse" and "The Road Not Taken." Nancy Evans will present "Christmas Trees" and "Paul's Wife." Carol Ann Buchan will offer "Maples" and "The Black Cottage" and Kay Armour "Departmental" and "Hall Fabula Doctet."

The purpose of these oral readings is to provide an opportunity for students to perform in a dramatic way while not having to take part in plays.

STUDENT SURVEY ELECTION TODAY

"Brown or Knowland?"

UCSB students have the opportunity of making their choices of candidates in the California state election by taking part in the Gaucho survey election being held on campus today from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

A ballot, with most of the important offices and issues, is found in today's Gaucho. All students need do is mark their choices, tear out the ballot and drop it in one of the following polling sites on campus: 1) in front of the Library, 2) the Gaucho office, 3) the Dining Commons. The results of this moot election will be printed in Friday's paper.

5 Student English Advisors Selected

Five students have been honored by the English department by being appointed to the student advisory council, announced Dr. Hugh Kenner, department head. The group is appointed as a result of nominations of upper-division English majors by the students and faculty of the department.

The group includes Judy Owen, Georgia Pearce, Richard Hendrickson, Richard Rex and Walt Wager. They will act as a governing committee for the English Mayors' Forum which holds meetings on literary topics. They will also advise the department on any matters which come up where student opinion would be helpful.

SOCIAL JOB OPEN

Applications will be received from today until Tuesday, Nov. 11, for the position of AS Social Committee chairman, a non-voting member of Legislative Council.

Applications for the position can be picked up in the AS office, across the patio from the Student Union building.

The job, made vacant by Janice Lord's recent resignation, involves organization of the Les Brown Barbary Coast Dance and other Gaucho social events.

Gifted Student Topic Of Today's Lecture

"The Secondary Education of the Gifted Student—A Proposal" will be the topic of a talk by Dr. John A. R. Wilson, associate professor of education at UCSB, today at 4 p.m. in the Classroom Auditorium.

In this talk Dr. Wilson will express his concern over statistics which show that 41 per cent of American youths who rate in the top 1 per cent for tested ability do not enter college or, if they enter, do not remain to graduate. The talk will also deal with uncovering the present "obstacles to learning" in our secondary schools and in planning a special course of study and intensified program of activities for the "gifted student."

Dr. Wilson, who earned his B.A. and M.A. degrees at the University of British Columbia and his Ed.D. at Oregon State College, came to Santa Barbara in 1951 after teaching for 17 years in the Canadian school system. He is a member of the board of directors of the California Association of Student Teachers and secretary of the planning committee for the California Committee of Teacher Education. He has published articles in several educational research magazines, including Teaching Tools, Journal of Education Research and Occupations.

Cal Club All-UC Honorary Organization Members Are Selected by UC President

by Linda Garver, Gaucho Reporter

The most exclusive, and perhaps the most outstanding club on campus is the California Club, an honorary organization with branches on each of the University campuses. The members are selected by the President of the University.

Cal Club is sometimes referred to as the "President's Club" since it is actually a tool of the President to unite the campuses. It was founded by ex-President Robert Gordon Sproul and was one of his favorite projects during his many years as head of the University.

Nomination for membership is made on the basis of a student's participation in school affairs, leadership, and the belief that the student will spread his enthusiasm for the State Wide University to his fellow students now, and whenever he has the opportunity as an alumnus.

Upon nomination, the student and his qualifications are considered by the University President who ultimately chooses the members. The nominees are generally selected from the Sophomore and Junior classes; however a Senior student who shows good leadership qualities and potential as a member may also be nominated.

The main purpose of the club is to act as mediator between the students and the University administration. It often discusses problems even before the ordinary student knows such a problem exists.

The club is instrumental in furthering relations among the campuses.

During All-Cal Weekend the club members participate in a series of special activities including a Cal Club breakfast during which new members are presented their Cal Club keys. One evening during the weekend the members will be honored at a dinner and party. A convention will be held at the Riverside campus in the Spring.

Southern chapters of Cal Club include chapters of Riverside, UCLA, and UCSB; Northern: Davis, Berkeley, San Francisco, and Hastings Law School.

Undergraduate members of the Santa Barbara club are Chairman Carolyn Jones, Bob Kieding, Stan McGinley, Judy Dean, Judy Owen, Art Herman, Bruce Loeb, Neila Loeb, George Hart, Bobbie Hart, Neil Kleinman, Ray Ward, Ron Largent, Janet Allen, Peggy Wood, Don Cottle, Don McLean, Ted Zundel, Judy Ford, Duke Ellington, Bill Harris, Dennis Naiman, Kitty Joyce, Maureen Mahoney, Roslyn Rubidoux and Sheila Higbee.

Advisors are Dr. Robert Kelley and Dr. Stephan Goodspeed.

dear susie,

how are things in your neck of the woods? now that the air has cleared a bit after homecoming, it's a frantic attempt by all to catch up on their studies.

wow, what a weekend that was. much fun was had by all.

i might take time out to extend congratulations to some of the winners of homecoming events; first off congratulations to elaine noble; she made a very lovely and gracious homecoming queen. next congrats are due to Sigma Phi Epsilon for their fine ggr skit, netting them a sweepstakes award, and of course hats off to the i.a. club for their ingenious float.

next on everyone's agenda is all-cal weekend and with that stupendous weekend comes many questions as to what to wear. here are a few suggestions from the lou rose annex.

for the game the annex has a lovely collection of solid and plaid pleated skirts and matching or coordinating sweaters. skirts 15.95 to 17.95; sweaters 11.95 to 14.95.

for that saturday night trip over to the city we have a black silk crepe that is sure to fit the bill. it is a fitted sheath with low draped back, price only 29.95.

in the dressy sport department mohair is still the thing, this time it's a two-piece mohair knit ensemble at a mere 19.95.

oh suz', did you get your november copy of mademoiselle? compliments of lou rose of course. as you know, we are the mademoiselle store in santa barbara (and proud to be so). the merchandise shown on the tabbed pages is available at the annex.

well, that's all for now. have fun at all-cal and don't forget our fashion suggestions. i remain your l.r. annex rep.

Gauchos Prepare for All-Cal Game With Aggies Saturday

by Tom Morgan, Sports Writer

University of California at Santa Barbara pigskin boss Ed Cody, still smarting from a surprising 6-6 stalemate with Occidental over the weekend, turned his Gaucho gridders out to pasture this week to begin preparations for the season's final two outings.

The CCAA pace setters from Goleta have just a single practice game and a week of well-deserved rest before they tangle with Cal Poly's conference powerhouse in a title showdown Nov. 21.

Meanwhile, Cody will get his final chance to oil the Gaucho grid machine under battle conditions Saturday morning when the Santa Barbara crew invades Berkeley for its annual All-Cal skirmish against Davis's Aggies.

The two University of California "brothers" will lift the lid on an action-filled day of football festivities at 11 a.m., with UCLA and California stepping into the spotlight for a PCC match in the second half of a double feature in Berkeley's Strawberry Canyon.

Tigers Trouble

Perhaps the Gauchos were looking ahead to their all-important war with Cal Poly when they ran head-on into the fired-up band of Occidental Tigers. If ever there was a thorn in the side of Cody and his Gauchos, one need look no further than the Oxy campus to find it. For the second time in as many years the Tigers have risen with a mediocre record to stun favored Santa Barbara.

Saturday's setback drops the Gaucho seasonal mark to 4-2-1.

For 57 minutes it appeared as though the host Tigers were headed towards one of the season's biggest surprises, until the field generalship of quarterback Jim St. Clair saved the Gauchos from disaster.

Gauchos Score

Trailing 6-0, Santa Barbara stopped a Tiger drive deep in Gaucho territory and was off and running for paydirt. Frank Scott moved the pigskin 30 yards, and then St. Clair ripped his way for 17 important yards, swivel-hipping past several would-be tacklers on a clutch play to set up the Santa Barbara score from eight yards out.

Seconds later St. Clair cocked his reliable throwing arm and triggered a touchdown aerial to end Gary Knecht, who was waiting on his knees in the end zone for the reception.

Frank Brisslinger's pressure-packed extra-point attempt sailed low, and was partially blocked by the aggressive Tiger line to put out the possible Gaucho victory fire with just three minutes remaining.

Fumble Costly

Occidental lit the scoreboard with just seconds remaining in the first half when quarterback Gary Bailey found end Dwaine Deets all alone in the Gaucho end zone for a 25-yard scoring play.

Santa Barbara muffed a touch-down opportunity midway in the second round when a sustained drive found the Gauchos knocking vigorously at the Tiger door from the one-yard stripe. But "fumbilitis" plagued the invaders when, on the following play, Jack Lyon bobbled the pigskin into the hands of Oxy's Pete Tunney.

The Tigers were definitely an inspired team for Saturday's non-conference clash, and Cody had nothing but respect for the fast-rising SCIAC members, labeling the previously unheralded Eagle Rock gridders as "the best team we have faced all year."

Intramurals

Meet Today; Hoop Play Starts Nov. 11

Following hot on the heels of the intramural football schedule, Stan Williamson, intramural coordinator, reports that intramural basketball will open its season on Tuesday, Nov. 11. The intramural program will consist of three leagues: Fraternities, Residence Halls and Independents. The independent teams may be composed of anyone attending the university but no one can participate for two teams.

A manager's meeting will be held today in Bldg. 420, Room 110, to iron out final details. The intramural staff would greatly appreciate the managers having rosters today, but it is not necessary.

Intramural basketball games are played at night from 7 to 10, with games beginning at 7, 8 and 9, respectively. Most games will be on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, with some contests occurring on Mondays.

Beverly Hanson, the nation's top professional woman golfer of 1958, and Joyce Ziske, another outstanding golf pro, will visit the Gauchos' "turf" Thursday to conduct a special golf clinic at 11 a.m.

Sponsored by UCSB's Physical Education Department, through the courtesy of the McGregor Golf Co., the clinic will be held for all interested students on campus, with golf demonstrations and techniques keynote objectives of the clinic.

Following the 11 a.m. session on the Gauchos' athletic field, another clinic will be held at 2 p.m. on the Santa Barbara Golf Course with a nine-hole exhibition scheduled for the afternoon.

Miss Hanson, from Indio, Calif., was named the winner of the Glenna Collett Vare Trophy early last week for having the lowest tournament scoring average during 1958. She finished with a naverage of 74.92 strokes for 34 tournament rounds. She was also the leading money winner for 1958, giving her a sweep of the two top phases of women's golf.

Robbins' Nest

By J. R. Robbins, Sports Editor

A Crisis Arises . . .

Saturday, Coach Ed Cody's pigskin squad takes to the road to meet the Cal Aggies in a final prepping for the Cal Poly game Nov. 21, following a bye in the schedule.

The team has yet to shake the proverbial jinx that has accompanied them in their previous road trips and will have to do it perhaps without the services of Duke Ellington. Duke is leading the conference in pass receiving and has scored four TDs via the airplanes in the process.

Every tally he's scored on a pass has been a much-needed score, when the team was behind, or on equal terms with the opponent, and, oddly enough, in each game when he's scored on a pass, the Gauchos have won—against L.A. State, San Diego, Fresno and San Francisco.

His ankle injury midway in the deadlocked game with Occidental might add him to the growing injured list of backfield men, which includes Ken Steele, Ned Permenter and John Crawford.

Jim St. Clair, resting at the top of the loop in passing, will miss a fine receiver if Ellington isn't able to play in the Aggie game.

Over the weekend, San Francisco downed the Aggies 27-14, a team that UCSB beat 20-14 in its Homecoming game. By comparative scores, the Gauchos would assume the role of favorite over the Aggies if it were not for the mediocre road record. Both losses and the one tie have been the result of play on opponents' fields. Perhaps the Gauchos just like familiar settings.

The race for the conference title is narrowed to three teams now—UCSB, Cal Poly and Fresno. All three sport one loss in conference play. Fresno lost to the Gauchos, 25-22, while the Bulldogs upset Cal Poly, 14-0. The Gauchos' loss came by way of Long Beach, 12-7.

So not much promise lies in UCSB's chances, for the finale with Cal Poly doesn't offer much in the way of hope.

In weekend action, while the Gauchos battled for a tie with Oxy, Cal Poly ran roughshod over Pacific of Oregon, 48-0, and Fresno left the San Diego Aztecs without warpaint in their 22-20 win.

This weekend will be the test and UCSB's final tuneup for Cal Poly. Can the team break the psychological barrier?

Eight Teams Compete for Pigskin Title

by Tom Morgan

The pre-season form sheets "bit the dust" in last week's Gaucha intramural gridiron wars.

The title picture in both the fraternity and independent circuits became a crowded scene, with an impressive field of eight teams threatening to walk off with top honors as their respective league schedules head into the home stretch.

boost from the fast-surging Sig Eps, sat all alone atop the frat standings this week with their unmarred 2-0 record, while Toyon bunched the top spot in the independent competition in a four-team stalemate by virtue of an upset victory over the previously unconquered Beachcombers.

Beachcombers Upset

The inspired Toyon crew, with Jim Michaels leading the parade, grabbed a 6-0 half-time lead and then slowly pulled away as the Beachcombers, who had allowed only two points in three previous outings, went reeling to their initial setback.

Sequoia turned on its offensive machine and, behind the triggering arm of Bill Shortell, galloped past Juniper, 52-18, and then humbled Palm to move into a first-place deadlock with Cypress, Toyon and the Beachcombers.

Cypress Impressive

Cypress continued its impressive showing by adding the fourth notch to its victory stick, a convincing, free-scoring, 40-28 triumph over Juniper.

The Sig Eps toppled Lambda Chi from the ranks of the unbeaten with a thrilling 22-20 win

Irish Revolution Is Setting Of 'Juno and the Paycock'

by Janice Asper, Drama Editor

Ireland, the land of contrasts, has spawned many an independent rebel. Her sons have been traditionally ever ready to pick up a cudgel for what they considered to be a worthy cause. Patriotism is not a sometime thing with the Irish, as evidenced by the time of the "troubles" from 1916 to 1922 when the Irish Free State came into being as a British dominion, with Northern Ireland remaining under British control. The extreme Irish nationalists continued their guerilla tactics against the Civic Guards or Irish police loyal to the new Irish government of the Free State.

Sean O'Casey, called by many authorities the greatest living playwright in the English language, uses this conflict of divided loyalties for the dramatic framework of the comic-tragedy of "Juno and the Paycock."

O'Casey is a master of interweaving contrasting moods and developing characterization which is both recognizably universal while being, at the same time, uniquely individual. There is true representation of the details of Irish tenement life interspersed with the swirl of political strife. Moments of solid humor give way to a growing awareness of potential tragedy.

O'Casey knows his setting and his subject matter thoroughly. He was born in the slums of Dublin in 1894, and while his formal schooling lasted only two years, he taught himself to read and write, stealing books he needed when he hadn't the money to pay for them. At 14 he was working 10 hours a day in an ironmongery.

At 19 he was a fighter in the Dublin transportation strike of 1913. He joined the Irish independent movement and was an organizer of the Irish Citizens Army. In the beginning of his literary career he was known for his writings on labor and politics. Fame as a dramatist came to O'Casey when he was nearly 40 years old.

The Abbey Theater, after rejecting three plays, produced "Shadow of a Gunman." Since that time O'Casey's reputation as a dramatist has grown with each succeeding play. Most well known to the American public are "Juno," "The Plough and the Stars," "Red Roses for Me" and "The Star Turns Red."

The UCSB production of "Juno and the Paycock," directed by Dr. Theodore Hatlen, with Dr. Stanley Glenn as the "Paycock," will open at the Little Theater Nov. 13 with performances on Nov. 14, 15, 20, 21 and 22.

GLEE CLUB COUNCIL

Appointment of the Glee Club council has been announced by assistant professor of music Carl Zytowski. The four students, Bob Siegler, John Hestenes, Tim Moore and Don Sawyer, composing the council, were chosen last week and approved by the Glee Club. Their duties are to carry on the business affairs of the Glee Club, such as appearances and finances, and to decide the policy of its work.

Three other members of the club were chosen for directive offices. Bob Randolph was appointed Glee Club manager, John Pleasant as student director and Bruce Batchelder as publicity manager.

Blue flannel blazers for the club membership have arrived from a Los Angeles tailor to be used in the club's future appearances. The jackets sport brass buttons in the barbershop style and University seals over the breast pocket. They were ordered from an exclusive New York firm especially for their purpose with the club, and transferred to Los Angeles for finishing.

Zytowski also released a tentative plan for the Glee Club's fall tour. The 40 members will visit schools in the San Joaquin Valley which have requested their appearance over the 28th and 30th of January, by chartered bus, and return before the beginning of the spring semester.

S.B. Prof. Lectures Prince on 'Fish'

Dr. John E. Cushing, professor of bacteriology at UCSB, who is on a one-year sabbatical leave in Japan, recently gave a private lecture on "fish" to Crown Prince Akihito.

Prof. Cushing has been awarded a Guggenheim grant to do academic research in his area at Tokyo University. He is working with Dr. Yasuo Suyehiro of the Department of Fisheries at that University, who is also private tutor to the Japanese crown prince.

A specialist in bacteriology, Dr. Cushing is co-author of a textbook, Principles of Immunology, published by McGraw-Hill and used by graduate and advanced undergraduate students all over the United States. He has also written numerous articles in this field of research, including a leaflet, Observations on Serology of Tuna, published by the United States Department of the Interior, Fish and Wild-life Service.

PROPOSITION 10

Proposition 10, if passed, would permit courts in eminent-domain proceedings to take immediate possession of property to be used for airport purposes by public agency or for school purposes by school district after 90 days' notice to the owner and after a money deposit has been put up to insure just compensation to the owner.

This proposition is designed to speed up the process of obtaining land by condemnation for schools and airports. It would end the delays which often occur when some individuals who do not want to be deprived of their property appeal the condemnation action in higher courts.

It would end the delays . . . that is the argument for the proposition. Paradoxically, it is also the argument against the proposition. For in ending the delays caused by persons appealing to higher courts, the proposition is also, in effect, depriving him of property without due process of law, which includes the right of appeal. The individual concerned has just ninety days to take action; but the backlog of cases in the courts is such that ninety days is not enough time to appeal a case.

Certainly there is a need for speedier processes of obtaining land for schools; however, infringement upon the rights of the individual is not the correct process.

El Gaucho strongly suggests vote "No" on Proposition 10 today.

PROPOSITION 13

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction is elected by California voters. Proposition 13, if approved, will call for the Superintendent to be appointed by the State Board of Education and approved by the State Senate.

The main argument against this proposition is that the job would become a political plumb, with the superintendent feeling responsible to a certain group.

Those for the proposition do not believe that the governor and board would stoop to make the job a political plumb. The position demands too much and concerns too many Californians for it to become a political spoil. A stronger man, more fitted for the job, would be obtained by appointment than by election.

El Gaucho believes that Californians would benefit by having their State Superintendent of Public Instruction appointed. A suggested "Yes" on Proposition 13.

PROPOSITIONS 7 AND 9 . . .

Proposition 7 will grant emergency powers to the Legislature to continue state and local government in event of enemy-caused disaster. The proposition provides for filling offices of legislators or the governor in case of death or injury of one-fifth of the legislators or the governor, convening legislative sessions, calling elections to fill vacant offices and selecting temporary locations for state and county seats. This will provide for continuity of civil government in the event of disaster. There is no argument listed against this amendment in the election pamphlet and no known opposition elsewhere. El Gaucho goes along with the crowd and suggests YES on Proposition 7.

The California Legislature at present meets every odd-numbered year for 120 calendar days. The members introduce their bills during the first 30 days, take a recess for 30 days so they and their constituents can study the bills (not counted in the 120 calendar days), then return to the capital to discuss and vote on the measures.

Proposition 9 would change this present setup. Bills could be introduced up to the 90th day of session and that limitation waved by a three-fourths vote. Weekends would not be counted as part of the general session, increasing the time of meeting. There would be no 30-day recess for study and consultation with constituents. This would allow introduction of bills the amount of which would be entirely out of proportion to the time left to legislate. The three-fourths vote would cause even more last-minute log-jamming than at present. Dropping of the weekends would add to the per diem costs. We recommend vote NO on Proposition 9.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK . . .

With the semester passing before our eyes so quickly, and now that we still have time to read the newspaper before the onslaught of overdue assignments, I would like to take this opportunity to discuss one of the more immediate occurrences presently publicized around campus which should interest the student community.

For the benefit of the new students, although presumably no one is new anymore, I will strongly encourage every member of the Associated Students to avail themselves of the eventful weekend soon arriving on Nov. 7 and 8, known to most of us as the All-Cal Weekend, although designated officially as the All-University Weekend.

Greatest University

Curiously enough, one of the most repeated benefits of UCSB is the fact that we are a part of the University of California system, the greatest university in the world. Being a part of the University of California is curious only in one respect, and that is that there is only one opportunity for the whole student population of this great university to meet in mass fellowship—that opportunity is the All-University Weekend.

Common Bond

It is difficult for one to enumerate the purposes for an institution like the All-Cal Weekend, but if one were singled out, in my estimation, it would be the creation and strengthening of a common bond of unity between the students of what is a state-wide university.

It is therefore appropriate for me to encourage every member of the Associated Students, if compatible with your pocketbook and your studies, to plan a trip to Berkeley this weekend. Certainly it would be well for you to demonstrate your personal interest in generating a sense of unity throughout the population of which you are a citizen, that of the University of California.
