DEADLINE 4 P.M. FOR 'EL GAUCHO' EDITOR APPLICATIONS; PCB PLANS THOROUGH GRILLING OF APPLICANTS

The deadline for applications for the position of editor of this publication, El Gaucho, will be this afternoon at 4 p.m. As of Friday afternoon, five students have submitted their applications for the position. They are:

- Don Ball, '59
- Judy Dilley, '60
- Louis Robinson, '60
- Pete Vorzimer, '58
- Ray Ward, '58

Thursday evening at 7 o'clock the Press Control Board is planning on interviewing the applicants already mentioned, as well as any other students who happen to submit their applications before today's deadline.

At this meeting the Board plans to fire at the applicants numerous questions pertaining to the functioning of this college publication, how it can be improved if necessary, and many other questions pertaining to the position being sought by the applicant.

The position, which currently pays $214 per year and gives the editor a voting seat on Legislative Council, automatically makes the editor a member of California Club.

Aquarama Scheduled

With a theme of "This Is New York," the moods of Manhattan will unfold in the sparkling water pageant presented by the UCSBC Third Annual Aquarama. For three evenings, May 2, 3 and 4, beginning at 8:15, the campus pool will be filled with students of the Women's Physical Education Department, sponsors of the show.

This presentation will offer a large variety of rhythmic, synchronized swimming acts, centered around the theme of New York, and includes a cast of 67 swimmers.

ORIENTATION PROGRAM

Chairmen and presidents of clubs and organizations are reminded to return forms for the A.S. orientation program today. A reminder, also, of the general meeting of the A.S. Orientation Committee in the Huddle, May 8, at noon.

ADLER TO READ CHAUCER TALES AT ENGLISH DEPARTMENT PRESENTATION

"The Canterbury Tales," by Geoffrey Chaucer, will be read in the auditorium of the New Classroom Building tomorrow evening at 7:30. The stories will be presented in the modern English translation by Nevill Coghill. Admission is free.

A complete reading of Chaucer's tales would require about eight hours, so that only a small number of stories and connecting pieces have been selected for this performance. The passages chosen represent the various types of stories contained in the complete work, and include specifically: the prologue, the stories of the Reeve, the Wife of Bath, the Pardoner, the Second Nun, and

Modern Chorale Concert Set For Noon Today in Aud.

The Modern Chorale, a unique group of trained solo voices in Madrigal tradition, will present a "pops concert" today at noon in the auditorium, under the direction of Dr. Van A. Christy, professor of music. The public is invited to this free event.

The popular organization has appeared often in this area the past year. The program this noon features particularly loved compositions from sources as widely separated as folk music and Broadway musical comedy. Contemporary, romantic, folk and other schools are represented.

Dr. Christy has arranged a Modern Chorale adaptation of "Stranger in Paradise" from the Broadway musical, "Kismet." Soloists will be Roland Bergthold, baritone, and Sue Swift, soprano. Another highlight will be the Flower Duet from "Madame Butterfly" by Puccini. Singing the solo roles will be Katherine Minnick, soprano, and Betty Allen, mezzo soprano.

Four Appalachian folk songs are included. "The Gallows Tree," a somewhat plaintive song based on a traditional ballad from the Kentucky mountains, is arranged by Tom Scott like a miniature opera with the various characters sung by Katherine Minnick, Carole Ozanian, alto, John Goeschl, bass, and Dennis Lees, tenor. The dramatic ballad tells of a girl sentenced to be hanged, who seeks help, and of her surprising rescue.

Accompanists for the program will be Patricia Smith and Ruth Winslow.

Chaucer burlesque of himself, the Tale of Sir Topaz.

Chaucer wrote his poems with the knowledge that they would be read aloud in court and in the larger manor halls. He was probably the reader himself for some of the Canterbury Tales, and the poems lend themselves to an oral presentation before an audience. They contain the elements of wit, character and insight that mark good literary works of popular appeal.

Taking part in this performance are Jack Adler as Chaucer, Bob Rogers as the host, Dave Iman as the Reeve, Kenneth Champion as the Pardoner, Sue MacLellan as the Wife of Bath and Joyce Lyon as the Nun.

60 Percent of Students Vote For Greek-Dominated Council

Last Thursday and Friday students of Santa Barbara College went to the polls to elect Jerry Combs, '58, as Student Body President for the school year 1957-1958. In an election that was decided by 200 votes, the student body showed its approval of Jerry Combs as its top student-governing officer for the coming year.

In a statement to El Gaucho, Combs expressed the following: "I only wish to say that I will do all in my power to make next year's Legislative Council one which will consider the welfare of Santa Barbara College as a whole the primary factor in every decision. The college should and will be placed above any other affiliation I might have. This I solemnly swear to the Student Body."

Joanne Taylor, '58, KAT
A.S. Secretary, 1957-58

Although Cy Epstein, '58, was defeated, the fact that he was defeated by only 200 votes speaks well for the stiff competition he handed Combs in the elections. Many predicted a landslide vote against the independent Epstein prior to the elections. However, as the results show, the election was quite close indeed.

Cy Epstein wished to express the following: "I feel I've presented an honest and educated platform. I'd like to thank those who voted for me, and good luck to Jerry."

An interesting fact about the resultant elections is that next year's voting members of Legislative Council are almost entirely Greek-affiliated. This might say something for the Greek popularity and interest in student body government here.

Faculty Members Get Fellowships

Summer research fellowships for four Santa Barbara College faculty members have been announced by Dr. Elmer R. Noble, acting provost.

University summer fellowships intended for a limited number of junior members of the faculty have been awarded to Dr. Joseph R. Connell, instructor in zoology, and Dr. Homer D. Swander, assistant professor of English.

Two fellowships awarded each summer by the Haynes Foundation were given to Dr. Harold J. Plous, assistant professor of economics, and Dr. Robert Billigmeier, assistant professor of sociology.

The Haynes Foundation fellowship is awarded to an instructor or assistant professor who is completing a manuscript of significant research within the social sciences.

Dr. Connell's project is an attempt to complete an accurate experimental study of natural intertidal barnacle populations which he began in Scotland. Knowledge of population changes is fundamental for many fields, including epidemiology, medical entomology and parasitology, but difficult to obtain.

Dr. Swander is completing a book, "The Design of Cymbeline," an attempt to investigate the relationship between the designs of Shakespeare's plays and his use or modification of conventional form, subject matter, ideas and values.

Dr. Plous' research, now being carried on in Great Britain, is an inquiry into the use and efficacy of monetary policy as an inflation control in the post-war economy of the United Kingdom. His headquarters is at the London School of Economics.

Dr. Billigmeier's work is directed towards an analysis of the relationships between the Spanish-speaking inhabitants of Santa Barbara and other elements in the population during the period from 1845-1870, in which a flow of migration markedly altered population makeup and culture.

BAND SHOW REVEALS PROMINENT TALENT HERE AS SHOW CLAIMED HIT

"Highly successful" is the only term to be applied to the first annual Gaucho Band Show held last Thursday night in the Campus Auditorium.

Before an enthusiastic audience of about 250 students, faculty and townspeople, Santa Barbara student talent presented two hours of musical entertainment of all types—all of it good.

The first half of the show was devoted to the men's and women's glee clubs under the direction of Mr. Carl Zytowski, and the two organizations presented over a dozen Broadway show tunes and folk ballads. For many of the students in the audience, this was the first opportunity to hear the glee clubs, but after the fine performance of the groups it can be said with certainty that the students would like to hear the glee clubs once again.

The second part of the show was devoted to music by the popular Gaucho Band, under the direction of Han Brendle and Bob Raleigh, and by several student soloists.

Hit of the evening was Galen Denning, who put down his trombone to give his impressions of present day rock-and-roll singers. His antics had the audience laughing all the way.

Pete Danner's classical guitar solos were another high point of the show. Danner also displayed a quiet humor to go along with his professional playing.

Mary Stewart danced two numbers, and the Commore brothers, Don and Dave, showed that they were no strangers to the boards in their dance presentation.

Bert Swift displayed a fine baritone voice in singing a pair of popular songs, and this young man will undoubtedly be heard from in future campus productions.

The Gaucho Band, the finest dance band to be organized at Santa Barbara College in many years, drew loud and enthusiastic applause from the listeners but, unfortunately, a lack of time prevented the musicians from playing more numbers.

The entire production was under the co-direction of Brendle and Raleigh, and they are to be complimented for bringing to the campus a show of this high calibre. Those students who were not in attendance missed an excellent show.

VETS: SIGN VOUCHERS

Wednesday, May 1, is the date for Korea (P.L. 550), State veterans and veterans' dependents to sign vouchers, so be sure to remember in order to insure getting a check. A representative of the Dean of Men's Office will be on the Mesa Campus Wednesday afternoon to serve Industrial Arts veterans.

All unsigned editorials reflect the opinion of El Gaucho. Signed editorials and letters to the editor represent the viewpoint of the author. El Gaucho makes every effort to publish letters from its readers provided they are brief and in good taste.

A Heavy Responsibility Ahead . . .
 "The President of the Associated Students should be impartial; he should represent the interests of all the student body."

These are the words of the losing candidate for the office of President of the Associated Students. Without remarking on the efficacy of these remarks, we would like to note that they are in striking opposition to both the statements and comments of his opponent, the President-elect of the Associated Students.

More voters cast their ballots for Jerry Combs, '58, who on several important issues this year has taken strong, outspoken stands; more people voted for Combs than for Cy Epstein, '58, who has remained conspicuously quiet on most important issues this year.

Why? We can see only two answers. Either the student body (and we realize here that we actually mean only about one-third of the student body) preferred a candidate who was outspoken, and who on most issues took the same side as they; or the student body ignored issues completely and voted for the candidate with which they were more familiar, for various reasons other than his forthrightness.

We have a high opinion of the student body, and thus cannot accept the second hypothesis, which suggests that the candidate who can sing well, is "cute" and otherwise highly popular in a strictly social sense will always win this office.

A third explanation has been offered us, which we cannot accept fully. This states that Combs was elected by virtue of almost all fraternity and sorority members voting a straight "Greek" ticket, and that not enough independents voted the independent ticket.

We reject this belief on the grounds that many of the ballots we watched being counted on Friday were "split," with persons voting for Combs and Perry, or Epstein and Cottle. The fact that this explanation has been offered, however, is highly interesting and will undoubtedly be pursued in greater detail in future editions of El Gaucho.

So, we believe, Combs was elected on the basis that people knew where he stood, and liked the stands he had taken.

Certainly it is no secret that most of Combs' viewpoints have been in direct opposition to those of El Gaucho. We are not embarrassed to make this admission, for, as we have stated in the past, we like a good fight. We believe, too, that next year's El Gaucho will continue to state what it feels, no matter who opposes those viewpoints, and that the student body will continue to appreciate the fact that the newspaper is not a tool of Legislative Council.

On this note we would like to address a few words to next year's Legislative Council. We can assure all of these individuals, some of whom are veterans of politics, that next year's El Gaucho will not hesitate to apply the hot fire of public criticism when it is deserved by Council.

Next year is probably one of the most important facing Santa Barbara College, so far as student government is concerned. For the first time in many years the student body is very much alive to the problems and workings of their government. And, for the first time, various groups are beginning to construct organizations that will insure the protection of their rights.

It is not inconceivable to visualize the formation of political parties on this campus. We could conceive that, if properly organized, they would be a great boon to the campus.

With many important changes about to occur, the student officers who make the decisions will have a great burden of responsibility to assume. We hope that they will accept the challenge, and will make decisions. As with last year's Council, we have faith in their ability.

But we do hope that next year's El Gaucho will not feel as we have this year, that Legislative Council has refused its responsibilities. If it does, we are afraid, Santa Barbara College will not finally make the advances that have awaited it for years, advances that could have been made this year.

Thus, we are advising next year's Council to look at this year's for the necessary background on pitfalls to avoid.

Redlands Upsets Gaucho Trackmen; New Mile Record

Redlands University scored a 69-61 triumph over UCSBC Saturday at the Goleta track, thus handing the Gauchos their first small-college loss. Santa Barbara Athletic Club, paced by Sam Adams, finished third in the five-way meet with 22 points, followed by Westmont with 6 and Whittier with 4.

Santa Barbara won eight first places in the thrilling meet as 300-plus spectators rose from their seats as Redlands overtook the Gauchos in the final two events.

Sets New Mile Record
 Bill Collins broke the SBC mile record as he churned the four-lapper in 4:17.5. Collins scored a double victory when he eased to a 9:53.5 two-mile win. The smooth-running Gaucho ran an amazing 56.6 last lap.

The Gauchos obviously missed four of their top runners, Larry Smith, Ed Scott, Johnny Morris and John Godfrey, who were competing in the Drake Relays.

Larry Olivas and Johnny Osborne took up the slack as the two sprinters scored clutch victories. Olivas pulled a real upset as he won the 100 in 10.3.

Baseman Wins 220
 Donning a thinclad uniform this weekend was Johnny Osborne, leading Gaucho diamond slugger. Ozzie, without benefit of much workout, won the 220 in 22.3.

Raul Yanez set the pace as the Gauchos finished 1-2-3 in the 880. The sharp freshman star was clocked in 1:58 flat while Ned Wilson took second with an under-two-minute time and Mulin clocked two minutes flat, both hitting all-time bests.

Santa Barbara once again displayed strength in the jumping events as Duke Ellington won the broad jump with a 23-foot leap and Don Hoopingartner took the high jump at 6 ft. 1 in. and Gates Foss tied for first in the pole vault with a 13-foot leap.

Adams Outstanding
 The outstanding performer of the meet was Sam Adams of the Santa Barbara Athletic Club. Iron Man Adams scored 17 points as he won the javelin, shot put, discus, tied for third in the high jump and took a fourth in the high hurdles, and only a bad spill in the lows prevented him from adding to his total. Adams, together with Ed Austin, both representing the SBAC, amassed 22 points for a two-man third place in the meet for SBAC.

The local trackmen are expected to be at full strength for the conference meet at San Luis Obispo next Saturday.

Injury Forces Team From Drake Relays

The Santa Barbara relay team competing in the Drake Relays at Des Moines, Ia., was forced to drop out of the finals when Larry Smith pulled up in the half-mile relay with a torn muscle.

The day before, the foursome of Ed Scott, Johnny Morris, John Godfrey and Larry Smith had qualified in both the half-mile and mile relays.

After an excellent start, Smith had begun his third lap when he suffered a pulled muscle. The team was forced to drop out of the mile relay which was to follow later in the afternoon.

It was a tremendous blow to the team, considered the best in the school's history and of which all four of the runners are seniors competing in their last season.

OSBORNE, WALSKI SET GAUCHO HITTING PACE

A two-way battle for batting honors is developing on the Gaucho baseball team, much to the delight of Coach Rene Rochelle.

Bearers of this delight for the mentor of the diamondmen are Pete Walski and Johnny Osborne. After 16 skirmishes between the locals and their opponents, a mere seven digits separate the two for the honors.

Walski sports a .333 average, with 20 safeties in 60 trips to the plate. This includes five circuit clouts, three triples and one double, plus 11 single thumps.

Osborne, with 14 games and 18 hits in 53 trips to the platter, holds a .340 average, or slightly more than a hit for every third trip. The diminutive centerfielder has two round-trippers, one three-bagger and one double, plus 14 singles.

Adding additional power to the Gaucho nine is catcher Neil Wright. In 15 games Wright has collected 15 hits in 48 attempts, with three of them going for extra bases.

Walski, guardian of the hot corner, is way out in front in the runs-batted-in department with a total of 26. Osborne garners the runner-up spot with eight, and first basebal-pitcher Ron Heusser has accounted for seven.

Pat Mills, UCSBC shortstop, and Osborne have both turned on the speed along the base paths for five stolen bases apiece.

In over-all strength, the Gauchos have 131 hits in 508 times at bat for a .257 average.

GaUCHO Nine Tips L.A., 8-6

The Gaucho basemen pounded out an 8-6 victory over the L.A. State Diablos on the victors' home diamond, thus sweeping the three-game series with them.

Santa Barbara smashed out a total of 11 hits, with Pete Walski, Ron Heusser and Roger Keller garnering two hits apiece.

The Rochellemen got off to a fast start by scoring three runs on five hits in the first inning, the big blow being a run-scoring triple by Pete Walski. L.A. State picked up one run in the second off Gaucho starter and winner Bob Pope on back-to-back doubles. The Gauchos came back in the third with one more run to put the home team ahead, 4 to 1. Santa Barbara scored what proved to be the winning runs in the fourth inning when they scored three runs on one hit, two walks and an error. The Gauchos got their final tally in the seventh when Roger Keller singled home Don Evans. Thus the score stood 8 to 1 going into the ninth.

Bob Pope, up until the ninth, pitched two-hit ball and hadn't allowed a hit since the third. In the ninth, however, Pope tired and the Diablos got to him for two runs on three hits. Jim Hezlep was brought in to put down the L.A. State uprising. The Staters got three more runs on two hits off Hezlep, but L.A. fell short on their effort to overcome the Gauchos and the game ended, 8 to 6.

Coach Rochelle shifted his defensive alignment for this game, which found Pat Mills moving to third and sending Pete Walski to left and Roger Keller to right. Osborne was moved to second and Team Captain Ed Coulter moved to shortstop. Vaughn Wipf started in centerfield.

Dave Iman, Gaucho outfielder, sat this game out because of a badly sprained ankle. It is hoped Iman will be ready for the Gauchos' next game at Long Beach State this Friday. Santa Barbara now stands at seven wins and three losses in league play.

'Gauchos' To Help Crippled Children

A drive for crippled children will be held from May 6 to 10. Every $100 collected in this drive means that one child who has been crippled with polio, meningitic or cerebral palsy will get a two-week vacation, all expenses paid, to a summer camp in Santa Cruz, Arrowhead or in the San Bernardino Mountains.

This drive is put on solely by this college. The money that is collected will be turned over to the Santa Barbara Society for Crippled Children. The funds will then be used to finance the summer camp trips. All the crippled children benefited by this drive will be drawn from the Santa Barbara area.

Representatives from the Charities Committee will distribute handy containers for all donations May 6 and 7. During this same period sponsors will visit the various living groups on and off campus to make personal appeals for donations.

RHA NEWS

Friday night will find Gauchos students assembled at the Coral Casino for one of the spring semester's most eagerly awaited social events, the RHA Spring Formal.

The Richard Blalock orchestra, which has been rated as the top performing group at the Coral Casino, has been engaged for the evening, and their fine music will be supplemented by campus entertainers. The Cairn twins, Judy and Linda, will give dancers their violin rendition of "Begin the Beguine" and "Hot Canary." In addition, these many-talented girls will sing some campus favorites. Also providing vocal entertainment will be Janie Hefrin, which should be good news to those who attended the Christmas Formal, where she last performed for the Gauchos.

The formal, the theme of which is "Spring Nocturne," will be held from 9 to 11 in the Coral Casino, which opens onto the ocean and features dancing under the stars.

The dress for the evening will be formals for the women and light or dark suits for the men. One RHA membership card will be required for each couple's admission.

Audio-Visual Ed. Course Now Offered

A concentrated professional schedule for teachers who wish to fulfill the State of California requirement for a course in audio-visual education has been arranged for each Saturday beginning April 27 and ending June 15 through University of California Extension.

The meetings are being held on the campus in Bldg. 109, Rm. 110, each Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12 and 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

The instructor is Dr. Edwin J. Swineford, assistant professor of education at UCSBC and formerly extension director for the University of Virginia. The textbook is "Audio-Visual Procedures in Teachers" by Sands and may be purchased at the bookstore or at the class meeting.

The class has been set up for teachers who must have had the course prior to the June 30 expiration date for credentials, according to Miss Muriel Kinman, Extension representative. Further enrollment information may be obtained by contacting the Santa Barbara Extension office, 129 E. Carrillo St., or by calling Woodland 2-9118.

COFFEE TIME

One of the great new American traditions is the glorious institution of the coffee break. The UCSBC version of this pastime has been established recently as the student-faculty coffee hour, 3:30 Wednesday afternoons at the Gauchos Annex. Take a break, invite your profs and friends to join you for coffee and conversation.

Monaghan Finishes All-College Lectures

The final lecture in the Santa Barbara College spring All-College Lecture series today will feature Jay Monaghan, Wyles consultant, whose subject will be "The Unending Interest in the Civil War."

The lecture, free to the public, will be held in the lecture hall of the New Classroom Building at 4 p.m.

According to Monaghan, books on the Civil War first became popular several years ago, but authors have increasingly turned to this vivid historical period for a variety of books.

Monaghan, whose life-long study of the period has resulted in 10 books, will detail the complexity of emotional forces which have turned the nation's attention repeatedly to the period, plus the individualism of the colorful characters, the manners and mores of society with special emphasis on the changes in status of women, and the slang of Civil War soldiers.

Monaghan's most recent book was "The Man Who Elected Lincoln." He is presently writing a biography of Gen. George Armstrong Custer, giving particular attention to his Civil War years. He has also contributed to numerous historical journals. He holds the A.B. degree from Swarthmore College, M.A. from University of Pennsylvania and Litt.D. from Monmouth College.

Around Town

Variety is the spice of entertainment . . . and the town is spicy this week.

Tonight the San Francisco Ballet is at the Granada and "Anastasia" opens at the Lobero, both at 8:30 p.m. Tomorrow at the new lecture hall will be a reading of Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales," something not often heard, starting at 7:30 p.m. At noon today is the Modern Choral in the auditorium.

Following in the next few weeks are the Contemporary Music Festival and "Bicycle Thief," both at the university, the former lasting from next Sunday until Tuesday and the latter on Wednesday evening, May 8. Also coming are "Henry V," the famous Laurence Olivier movie, and the stage play, "Fallen Angels," with Hermione Gingold and Mary McCarty. Prepare yourselves.

Aggeler Seen on TV

Dr. William F. Aggeler, associate professor of French at Santa Barbara College, appeared recently on the French class now in progress on television station KQED, San Francisco, for which he co-authored the text.

Mme. Yvonne Bardet of the Convent of the Sacred Heart, San Francisco, and Dr. Aggeler's collaborator, introduced Dr. Aggeler to the audience of "Learning French is Fun," a weekly program of conversations, games and songs in French now scheduled each Thursday for children. Dr. Aggeler told the audience that closer relationships between people occur when representatives speak the same language, that good will is engendered perhaps as effectively as by any other means by the American abroad who speaks a foreign tongue.

Dr. Aggeler's work on the beginning French textbook has resulted in his being appointed a member of the Research Council textbook committee of the Modern Language Assn. of Southern California.

AWS INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS MAY 8; Outstanding Senior Women Honored

The outstanding event on the spring calendar for UCSBC women is scheduled for May 8 when the Associated Women Students installation banquet is to be held at the Miramar Convention Hall beginning at 6 p.m. One of the highlights of the evening will be the installation of Judy Dean of San Diego as president of A.W.S. She will succeed Annabelle Rea of Santa Barbara.

The 10 outstanding senior women of 1956-57 will be announced during the evening. These women will be given certificates to commemorate the occasion. The Retail Merchants Assn. of Santa Barbara and the Santa Barbara Chamber of Commerce have provided sterling silver hostess sets for each of these honored seniors.

The women's honorary societies will announce their new members at the banquet. These girls are selected for membership on the basis of scholarship, leadership and service. Bobbie Breeding, of National City, president of Spurs, a sophomore women's honorary, is in charge of "tapping" for Spurs. The "tapping" of the new members for the junior women's honorary, Chimes, will be supervised by Miss Elaine Greening of Goleta. Mrs. Cynthia Thomas, of Arcadia, president of Crown and Scepter, the senior women's honorary, will introduce the new members of Crown and Scepter.

The keynote speaker for the banquet will be Dr. Robert Kelley, history instructor at UCSBC. Among the many guests invited to the banquet are housemothers, head residents and faculty women. Invited to sit at the head table are Mrs. Helen Keener, Dean of Women; Miss Ellen Bowers, Assistant Dean of Women; Mr. Clyde Keener, Industrial Arts Department; Mrs. Robert Kelley, wife of the speaker; Miss Pearl Chase, Santa Barbara's 1956 Woman of the Year; Mrs. Elmer Noble, wife of the UCSBC Acting Provost; Mrs. Clarence Phelps, former Dean of Women and wife of the former president of Santa Barbara College, and Claire Drew Forbes Walker and Mrs. E. W. McAdoo.

The AWS installation banquet is traditionally one of the highlights of the campus activities. Tickets for the event are available at the UCSBC Graduate Manager's Office.

It is the policy of the University to regulate smoking on campus by students, faculty, staff and outside groups. Implementation of this policy has been delegated to each local campus administration.

The following statement, published recently in the University Bulletin, concerning smoking regulations at Berkeley, is applicable to this campus and is called to the attention of the faculty:

"Smoking regulations were adopted in order to avoid offending non-smokers who may suffer real distress in the presence of smoking in classrooms, and to minimize the damage to University property and the increased cost of maintenance resulting from careless smoking habits on campus.

"All classrooms and certain other areas of the campus have been designated as no-smoking areas and signs have been posted to that effect. Smoking is generally allowed in hallways and other appropriate areas, and (with permission of the instructor) in seminars. Smoking is also permitted for small, informal groups. Receptacles provided for cigarette and ash disposal in these areas should be fully utilized."

The co-operation of faculty members is again solicited in enforcing these smoking regulations.
