D. Follett Conducts Revision

Students Urged to Make Suggestions for Changes

No Definite Action Next Meeting Called for Thursday Evening

Members of the student body constitution revision committee met last night in the student body office to discuss features of revision suggested by interested students and members of the committee.

Last year a constitution committee worked on revision, but no definite action was taken, hence the present constitution contains many irregularities and many stipulations which are not carried out. The purpose of the present revision is to make definite suggestions for changes which will lead to a more representative government.

Committee

Members of the committee, appointed by President Lambourne in the last student body assembly, are Don Follett, chairman, Garlyn Basham, Dorothy Weber, Ruth Brubaker, Peggy Koepf, Bill Hoyt and Dr. Charles Jacobs, dean of the upper division.

Although no definite action was taken at the meeting, important matters were presented for deliberation, among them definition of the term "associate member" as applied to the faculty in regard to privileges and obligations; method of nomination and election; provision for reelection in case of vacancy; awards to yell leaders provided they fulfill obligations concerning time and effort spent; definite methods of appointing student body controller; and more appointive offices.

General Assembly

When the work of revision has been completed by the committee, the suggested constitution will be printed in El Gaucho, posted and brought up in a general assembly. "It is not only the privilege but the duty of every student who feels that change is necessary to make recommendations to the committee, either in person or in writing. This work should not be the work of the committee, but of the entire student body," said Don Follett.

Dr. Bronson Comments on World Peace

Speaking on "What is Civilization?" Dr. Oliver Hart Bronson, pastor of El Montecito Presbyterian church addressed the International Relations club members and friends at their dinner given in the college cafeteria.

Dr. Bronson pointed out that civilization is held together by a spirit of tenderness and love. He commented upon the surplus given the speaker on Ghandi at the recent World Affairs assembly at El Paseo as indicative that there is an underlying appeal to all human kind in the Ghandi spirit.

Concerning communism Dr. Bronson said, "The biggest fault with communism is that it is not radical enough. At present communists seek to change our government by force. This is much the same system that has always been used for change. A really radical movement is one that uses peaceful methods."

There was a lively discussion by those attending the dinner on present current events.

Faculty members and their guests who were present included Dean William Ashworth, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Fish, Mrs. Grace Minen, Dr. William Ellison, President Clarence L. Phelps, Dr. Frederick W. Ganzert, sponsor of the club, and Captain and Mrs. C. G. Davy of Hope Ranch.

Cast Presents Play at Lobero Luncheon

The cast of the play "Sad About Europe" were guests at the Lobero Players' club luncheon, Tuesday noon at El Paseo, where they presented their play to the members of the club.

Seniors Hold Last Meeting

The last regular meeting of the class of '35 will be held at the Senior Breakfast at 7 a.m. in Ebets hall, Friday, May 2.

Important matters are to be discussed, according to Martin Verhoeven. Final plans for the new methods of applying for a position, presented by Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham are also to be discussed.

Presbyterian Church Hears Male Chorus

Clifford E. Leedy's male chorus, with a variety of novelties, presented their annual program at the Presbyterian church last Sunday, April 28.

To open the program, the glee club sang two numbers, "Adoremus Te" by Palestrina and "King Jesus Is a Listenin'", a negro folk song, which was followed by a violin solo by Bradford Tozier. He played "Negro Spiritual" by Cameron White, and "Romanza Andalusia" by Sarasate.

The college quartet composed of Don Watson, bass; Howard Van Winkle, baritone; Leonard Schofield, second tenor; and Bill Poole, first tenor, sang "Invictus" by Huhn and "O! Grey Robe" by Huntley.

"To the Evening Star" from Tannhauser by Wagner and "Pillgrims Song" by Tchaikowsky were sung by Elbert Cochran, baritone soloist, who was accompanied at the organ by Anita Cochran.

The program continued with Schubert's Serenade played by William Lanford as a trombone solo and two numbers, "Morning Hymn" by Henchel and "Requiem" by Bantock, sung by the Glee club. Stanley Cox acted as accompanist for the program.

With snappy cardinal and gold uniforms, Harold Williams Roberts' Trojan band of seventy five musicians presented a program at the Granada theater on Saturday night, April 27.

The program started with a medley of collegiate songs followed by several popular numbers played by the full band; Dick Winslow, who has had much experience in the moving pictures, played an accordion solo.

A rose group, including "My Wild Irish Rose" and "Roses of Picardy" played by the band was followed by several Fritz Kreisler airs played on the violin by Salvador Crimi, and accompanied by a piano and the band.

Two pieces, "Songs March Medley" and "Medley of University March Songs," and a novelty number, "Grandfather's Clock" which featured the drum section, concluded the band's activity for the day.

Three other soloists included a girl whistler, a trombone soloist and a baritone vocalist who sang "Shortnin' Bread."

Their engagement here was the last one before they return to the Southern California campus.

Noted Author Speaks at Luncheon Meeting

Allan A. Hunter, chairman of the West Coast Fellowship of Reconciliation, spoke before members and guests of the club at a luncheon given in the faculty dining room on Monday noon.

Mr. Hunter is author of the book, "Out of the Far East" and is, at present pastor of the Mount Hollywood church in Hollywood. He was introduced by Dr. Oliver Hart Bronson.

In his talk Mr. Hunter criticized the propaganda concerning Japan printed in Hearst newspapers. He also told of developments of fellowship between Americans and Japanese of American ancestry.

The club made plans for a mass meeting which will probably take place in November to protest against war and to forward peace.

Pledges Read Papers at Alphigam Meeting

Special meeting of Alpha Phi Gamma, will be held at the home of Helen Eichelberger, 515 East Arrellaga, on Wednesday evening, May 2 at 7:30 o'clock.

At that time the pledges will read their pledge papers.

Prexy Alters Date of Club's Yearly Voyage

Donning their best pantaloons and teajackets, approximately seventy State college "Jack-tars" will board Captain Ira Eaton's "Sea Wolf" on May 11 and head to sea for a three day vacation at Santa Cruz Island.

Lasting for three days, May 11, 12, and 13, the island trip is an annual affair at the State college and sponsored by the Outing club it is open to all college students. As the 13th falls on a Monday, President Phelps has granted special permission to all students making the trip that they be excused from classes on that day. The previous starting date which was on Friday, May 10 has been changed to May 11 because of conflict with the Roadrunner Revue.

Program Planned

Under the leadership of Willis "Tiny" McCollough, a full program of thrills and "entertainment plus" is being arranged to occupy the time of the "high falootin' buccaners." One of the special features planned for the three day stay is an excursion into the dark and mysterious caves which are inside of the island. These caves hollowed out by the continual pounding of the waves and other elements of time were according to some legends used by the old time pirates as their secret treasure vaults. The largest cave extends over a thousand feet back into the cliff from the ocean and can be reached only by the use of a small boat due to the many rocks which are located near the entrance.

Short Hike

Short hikes to the many points of interest which are located on the island will be held and the swimming according to "Tiny" "is hunky dory if the sharks don't get you." For those who succumb to the lure of rod and line there is plenty of fish in the water surrounding the island.

The cruise which includes all meals and transportation is being offered to college students for the small sum of four dollars. All students who intend to make the trip are requested to bring their own eating utensils and also their bedding.

Students Give One Act Plays

"A Night's Work" and "The Smell of Powder" are the two plays now being rehearsed by the play production class, and will be presented for classwork soon.

"A Night's Work" is a human interest story of an old scrubwoman who saves a boy from a life of crime, while "The Smell of Powder" is a fast action play with a good deal of shooting. It was written by John Fitzpatrick, author of the play "Love Is a Racket."

"Because of the lack of cooperation on the part of the audience at last group of plays we presented," said Mrs. Harold Davis, director. "The plays will be given only for members of the class and their immediate friends."

Miss Helen Sweet Compares Santa Barbarans to Other Collegians in Matters of Manners

How does student etiquette on the State campus compare with that at other colleges? Is the dress more informal and democratic? What about student attitude toward the faculty? Is student behavior toward patrons of a Rockwood dance what it should be?

These are the questions which Miss Helen Sweet, young and popular science instructor, has consented to answer in the interests of bettering our college at etiquette. Several colleges have claimed the teacher at one time or other so that she has had much opportunity for observing conduct and comparing it with State's brand. She has been at Grinnell in Iowa, Pomona, Scripps, U.S.C., California and the University of Chicago for undergraduate work, in preparation for other degrees, or for teaching.

"I want to say that State's students dress as appropriately as do any other college students in the country," Miss Sweet said. "Our surroundings are informal, a Spanish atmosphere prevails, and the students dress to the occasion. There is no grand rush to out-do the other in clothes. Of course a few do go too far. Some of the cards I've seen here wouldn't be tolerated in a road gang. These few examples of too much informality can

'Gump' Gumpertz

"If revue members keep on turning out the way they have so far I'll be on the train for San Francisco," said "Gump". "Come on and let's get on the band wagon." "Gump" is director of this year's Roadrunner Revue.

Proceeds from Revue Enlarge Annual Fund

"Raise money for La Cumbre" will be the battery of the Roadrunner Revue, which will be held next Thursday and Friday, May 9 and 10 at the Fox Arlington theater.

Buppy Moore, formerly co-director for the affair, has been forced to resign because of outside activities. The directing of the revue is now in the hands of "Gump" Gumpertz and Bud Lambourne. Moore, however, will assist the directing in an advisory capacity.

Fraternities and sororities are reminded to arrange for a booth at the carnival in the theater foyer, preceding the affair.

Margaret Beddome, State tap dancer, is in charge of directing the dancing, and is assisted by Paul Woods. With the Anacapa Club ballet as the main feature for the affair, it is reported that this revue will be the most outstanding that has ever been presented.

Ind. Ed. Department Elect New Officers

Industrial education majors chose Allen Crews to represent them as president of their organization for the coming year at the regular meeting held Tuesday morning. Harris Brakesman was elected vice-president; Zerril Pilgreen, secretary; Wilbur Gilliland, treasurer; and Lorne Olson, social chairman.

Announcement of the spring meeting of the Ventura-Santa Barbara Counties Vocational Education association meeting to be held here on June 8. It will be in the form of a formal dinner at El Paseo before the student body spring hop in the evening. At this time the Pi Sigma Chi award will be given to the winner.

Jane Abraham Returns from Panama Trip

Speaking before the elementary department yesterday morning, Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, registrar, described the trip she and her husband Mr. Byron Abraham took to Panama. They sailed on the "Chiriqui," one of the Great White fleet of the United Fruit company from Wilmington on April 6.

Acapulco was the first stop of the trip. Mrs. Abraham described it as a "lovely old Mexican town in a perfectly beautiful harbor. Coal mining used to be its main industry, but now most all ships use oil. Also, it was here that the people who were to tour part of Mexico in eight days were discharged."

Ship Docks

The ship also stopped at Point Amoyalla in the Canal Zone to discharge a cargo of redwood and cement. From there they went to Balboa and Old Panama. There they visited the Mira Flores lock while several ships were passing through. Old ruins and the Old Stone Arch Bridge, which has stood there for 300 years, were also visited. They stopped at the governor's residence where lovely gardens were admired. "Everywhere the tropical foliage was beautiful," exclaimed Mrs. Abraham.

After ten hours of sight seeing they returned to Point Amoyalla to watch the ship being loaded with 47,500 stems of bananas, each stem averaging 200 bananas.

Later a 100,000 acre banana farm at Manzanilla was visited. It was here that the tourists they had dropped were picked up.

"It was an ideal trip for one in need of complete rest," stated Mrs. Abraham. "It was smooth sailing and no sea sickness. The ship was charmingly equipped with every convenience and comfort of a floating hotel."

"We brought home some things typical of that country, such as Panama hats, bags, silks, and bananas."

Stout Alumni Meet at State

Music, luncheons and dancing are in order in the program for those Stout Alumni from Menomonie, Wisconsin, planning to attend the convention here in Santa Barbara, May 4, 1935, according to Mr. E. E. Ericson, head of the industrial education department, and formerly a student of Stout Institute.

There will be personally conducted tours of the campus by Mr. Ericson starting at 11 P.M., at which time the Industrial Education department and the home economics and arts buildings will be visited.

At 12:30 luncheon will be served in Ebets hall where informal speeches and introductions will be given. Music, directed by Mrs. Helen M. Barnett, will be given as well as dancing by the members of the Girl's Physical Education department under the supervision of Miss Ella Cornwall.

At 2 P.M. there will be a specially conducted tour of the Blakesley Botanical garden, Museum of Natural History (Rose Festival), and the Santa Barbara Court House.

Women Select New Officers

Lois Jo McPheeters will head the A.W.S. next year, as a result of the A.W.S. election held last Wednesday. Lois Jo had no opponent for the office.

Other officers selected by members of the A.W.S. are Ellen Roe, first vice-president; Betty Roulston, second vice-president; Dorothy Clark, secretary; Genevieve Jones, treasurer; and Wilma Kiesner, councillor.

Pageant Cast Rehearses for May Day Fete

Renata Maccianti will play the lead in the drama, "Little Pagan Beggars," to be given for the annual May program on May 15. About 75 women students will take part.

Other leading characters are to be played by Mary Frances McKinney, Anne Forsythe, Nancy Clapp, Frances Jane Miller, Blanche Steward and Wilma Kiesner.

"Little Pagan Beggars" is a drama based on California fairy tales. The characters are picturesque and reminiscent of old Spanish days. The fairy queen will be represented by the May Queen, whose identity will not be revealed until the program takes place.

Leading Role

Ysabel, the leading character, is an orphan Spanish girl living with her three uncles. This part will be taken by Renata Maccianti. Don Romero, the young senator will be portrayed by Mary Frances McKinney; the three uncles, Don Antonio, Don Andreas and Don Romualdo will be represented by Anne Forsythe, Nancy Clapp and Lorraine Koehly; the comandante, Frances Jane Miller; wife of the comandante, Blanche Steward; and the captain of the ship, Wilma Kiesner.

The rest of the cast will take parts in dances. Fairies, pirates, Spaniards, sailors, flowers, girls and peons complete the set-up. In the romantic drama of "Little Pagan Beggars" the fairies are leaves on a dead oak tree who leave their forest abode to play pranks at night.

Lorraine Koehly is in charge of the program arrangements, assisted by several committees. Miss Gladys Van Fosse and Mrs. Winifred Hodgins are coaching all the dances.

The pageant takes place during the afternoon in the quad, beginning at 4 o'clock.

English Major Students Plan New Bulletin

Discussion of plans for next year filled English majors' time at the regular meeting of that department on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Margaret Bennett, sponsor, gave a review of what had been accomplished during the past year, the Huntington Library excursion, the recent literary tea with Gene Ross as speaker and securing outside speakers for department meetings.

The students unanimously agreed to continue the precedents established this year in the giving of teas and sponsoring literary pilgrimages. New activities planned are many in number, the plans being completed for one at present. This will be a bulletin board, placed somewhere on the campus, upon which will be tacked various happenings in the literary world of interest to college students, and reviews of the movies billed for the following week at the theaters in town.

Mrs. Bennett announced the courses which will be open to English majors for the next two semesters. The president, Helen Hearn, was empowered to appoint a committee to nominate officers for the coming year.

Dr. G. M. Day Speaks at Montecito Church

Dr. George M. Day, head of the sociology department at Occidental college, preached Sunday at El Montecito Presbyterian church in place of Dr. Oliver Hart Bronson, who was in conference at San Francisco.

Dr. Day taught for three years in the University of Leningrad in Russia, and now tours the United States talking on Russia. Each year Dr. Day takes a trip through Russia.

Press Council Accepts Bid to Meet Here

Bringing good news to Santa Barbara State, four delegates to the Southern California Press Association returned from the Redlands campus to announce that the next fall convention will be held at Santa Barbara State.

Four students and their faculty adviser left the campus Friday morning, and registered at the University of Redlands at two o'clock. Following the welcome by Cal Wharton, editor of the U. of R. Campus, the delegates met in several round-table discussion groups to discuss the problems confronting editors, publishers, and staff members of college newspapers.

John Smith, national president of Alpha Phi Gamma, spoke before a general assembly of the delegates upon the subject of typography.

At six o'clock the guests were entertained at a banquet in Grossmont Hall. John Long, secretary of the California Newspaper Publishers' Association, spoke to the group on legislation by the legislature at Sacramento, governing advertising.

Phi Delta Pi Meets at Slayton Home

Phi Delta Pi, national physical education fraternity for women, met at the home of Geraldine Slayton, 1811 Loma avenue, on Monday night to discuss plans for a candy booth at the Roadrunner Revue.

Grading System

It may seem like a radical idea at first thought, this suggesting that the faculty get together on the grading system, but after second consideration, we believe that nearly all students will agree with us that there should be some real system, and some correspondence or correlation in that system.

In the first place all of us, now and then, get good grades we do not deserve, which is not so bad. But in the second place we all get bad grades we do not deserve, which is not so good.

Many criticisms are heard among the students. Some teachers have pets and some have pests; in either case grades given are not accurate. Some men teachers favor the coy coeds; some women teachers favor the dancing men. Some teachers are susceptible to apple-polish; others won't even listen to reason. Some teachers let student readers give grades. Some teachers give low grades in an effort to prod the students to greater efforts.

All in all, the criticism boils down to this point: there is no uniformity in the system. This strange discrepancy results, probably, from not giving final examinations, a practice which may or may not be a good one. In some classes there are no definite marks that record work accomplished throughout the semester, hence it is practically impossible to give accurate final grades.

We realize that no grading system will be perfect. We realize that different classes require different methods. We realize that there will always be those who grumble. But there is such a thing as improvement. There is such a thing as adjustment between course procedure and grading. There is such a thing as satisfying the majority.

There are several alternatives to the present haphazard method that might be considered. It might be advantageous to do away with the sliding scale as we now have it, either passing or failing the students. It might be advantageous to go to the other extreme and grade by a rigidly enforced curve (considered by departments and not by classes, as many of ours are too small).

May we suggest that the faculty, either in departmental groups or as a whole, give this matter some thought.

Roadrunner Revue

Another instance of cooperation between townspeople and Staters is shown in the very liberal contract Mr. Louis Christ, manager of the Fox Arlington theatre, has given us for the production of the annual Roadrunner Revue. According to the terms stipulated, we are to have the theater for two nights, Thursday and Friday, May 9 and 10; all tickets will be sold for $4.00; gross proceeds minus advertising costs will be divided evenly.

Figuring on this basis, if we have seven hundred people in the theater each night, we stand to clear nearly $600.00. This amount, applied to La Cumbre's budget, would be a great help, not only to this year's editor but also to the succeeding official.

Keeping these facts in mind, students are urged to redouble their efforts in selling tickets, spreading publicity and generally boosting the third Roadrunner Revue.

Revision Committee

The constitution revision committee, appointed last week by President Allan Lambourne, is already getting under way. Appointment of members, each with a problem to look up before the first meeting, was made last week. Last night they met for the first time.

No definite action was taken. Rather the meeting featured open discussion and serious consideration. Another meeting is scheduled for Thursday evening. Any students having recommendations, suggestions or legitimate protests are urged to present their ideas, either in writing at the meeting or in person to the committee chairman.

When the final report is completed, it will be published in El Gaucho, posted on the bulletin board and then brought up in a student body assembly.

Art—Music—Drama

By C. BRUCE TOMLINSON

In attending "Death Takes a Holiday" we were both fortunately and unfortunately primed; fortunately, because our personal acquaintance with the actors was not so deep as to be a hindering barrier to an acceptance of the play personalities; unfortunately, because we had a vivid memory still with us of a professional performance of a few years ago, and rarely is the professional-amateur contrast favorable to the less experienced group.

Mr. Goldsmith had the most difficult role—that of creating the illusive character of Death. We thought his second act was consistently better than either of the others and wished that the quality of voice and poise shown in the scene with Grazia might have been sustained elsewhere, for there seemed the compelling mystery itself. There were many moments to almost touch this peak, and we wish to congratulate him for a difficult task well done.

Miss Pope had a less difficult illusion to portray, but the curious qualities of Grazia require a delicate restraint which Miss Pope seemed to appreciate. Miss Briscoe performed her role with the proper degree of youthful exuberance; Miss Jones certainly had more admirers than the Baron, who, by the way, was thoroughly enjoyed by the audience; and Mr. Chavez was a satisfying distraught Duke. We lack space to mention the rest, but we will say that the average level of acting was high, and that we heard every word of everyone from the rear rows,—being thereby agreeably surprised and deeply grateful. The set itself was beautifully executed.

Technically, we were sorry about the lights in Act II; and the lighting of Prince Sirki's final exit seemed ineffective; and could not Death have remained fixed in Act I?—motion seems so human. However a few details, the production showed the results of much careful work, and no one concerned has reason for regret.

Henry Eichheim is best known to the campus as conductor of the All-College Symphony. More of the college should realize he is also a composer of some distinction. He is best known for his oriental symphony "Jave-Bali-Angkor" and other far eastern numbers. We had the pleasure a short time ago at the Biltmore of hearing him play his new violin sonata, written atonally in 4-4 time but composed wholly of the oriental rhythms and effects which Mr. Eichheim so perfectly understands and appreciates. It is an interesting work, though unsatisfactory to many ears because our western ears are not accustomed to the intricacies of rhythm common among so many other races on the earth, especially the true Spanish and Hungarian and Asian areas. Frankly, we liked much of it and are eager to hear it again for better acquaintance.

"Wedding Night" (Cooper-Sten) was a film of unobtrusive strength which progressed with dignity and beauty to its tragic denouement. Gary Cooper surprised us a bit with his finesse; Miss Sten filled the vacancy left in us by the Dietrich-Sternberg duo of the middle period. Incidentally, we are looking for a genuine recipe for prune soup.

Nix on the Rough Stuff

Of late colleges have been notable for their lack of the species "collegian," the sobriquet in no sense applying to the student attending the institution but to an offensive individual, misplaced, and distinguished by his utter lack of the characteristics common to the academic. This "rah-rah boy" excelled in attempting to earn a bad name for himself and his institution, and he usually succeeded. His exploits were not confined to any locality; he operated with equal ease and facility in all surroundings but always managing to identify himself with the school unfortunate enough to include him in its enrollment. His activities ran the gamut of bad taste but vandalism found him at his best.—Saint Mary's Collegian.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor, El Gaucho:

During the last week or so there has been much agitation for a "New Deal" in student government. I am writing to you to present one phase of the matter before the students of Santa Barbara State.

In the past the only awards given to students entering inter-collegiate competition have been given to the members of the athletic teams of the school. This is as it should be, but why should not those students other than athletically inclined be eligible for awards in the other departments? The members of the debating team, for instance; a few weeks ago they entered a contest with several other schools. They beat Redlands—a team which went back East and "cleaned up." It took a great deal of hard work and skill to accomplish this. Why should they not receive some award for their work?

The football men play about nine games in a few months' time. They are required to be eligible for one-half year only, and they receive sweaters for their work. This is all well and good—they should receive this recognition for their work. However, the members of the band and male chorus have to be eligible all year in order to take part in the work of the organization, and they receive nothing in the way of awards. Recently the male chorus took part in a glee club contest of southern schools. Surely they are entitled to an award as much as anyone else. The members of the organization spend more time in presenting programs and helping in that way than anyone in the school, yet little recognition is given them.

I should like to offer this plan, suggested to me regarding the situation: Give to the members of the band and glee club a sweater with a cleft running through the letter for three years' work. This would signify that only those men who have belonged to the organization for three years would receive an award. Thus, only a few sweaters would be given each year. The manager and other men of outstanding work will receive a stripe or some emblem to distinguish their ability.

I believe such a plan can be worked out not only for the band and glee club, but for other organizations, such as debate teams, etc., that represent the school.

—A STUDENT.

Important Announcements

Any students interested in helping with the stage sets for the Roadrunner Revue are asked to report immediately to Herman Gumpertz, director.

Sororities, fraternities and other campus organizations should be making plans for their booths in the lobby of the Fox Arlington during the revue, according to "Gump". The organizations will keep the proceeds from their sales.

Please turn in all money for tickets of "Death Takes a Holiday" to Bill Ogle or Garlyn Basham IMMEDIATELY.

All students who have tickets and money out for "Death Takes a Holiday" are requested to turn them in at once. A box has been placed in the student body office for this purpose and they may be turned in at any time.

All students planning to graduate in June or August must take the English Comprehensive examination to be given May 9, from 3 o'clock to 5, in room 52. Arrangements must be made for absence from classes at that time.

TORRID TOPICS or Bolts From a Nut

Jus dirt this week—

Rolly Carter and Mary Lee Townsend are having a huff. Each went to the dance Saturday with a different podnah. They are now choosing up sides and making faces. (I shall accept the best offer for my services as face maker. Guaranteed to make women faint, babies cry, and strong men take to drink.)

Barney Dupes doesn't like parlor. He prefers lawns. Says that there is something about spring and the moon that improves the situation. (True confessions next installment.)

Dolly Hall lowered the boom on Sandy, Saturday night at the swirl. (Hooray for Saturday night.)

Couple Sig Alphas got stuck in the river Sunday while looking for their picnic. They were soaked, but nobody got wet. (you figure it out.)

Jim Coultas is an authority on nail polish. (Facts and figures furnished by Miss Mary Sacridier.)

"Thermometer" Karns and "Flat foot" Freeland took time off from their clew-hunting Friday night in order to go hi-do-ho. The author of this column tried to accompany them but he was beset with a sudden illness and could not attend. After the party they adjourned to Santa Barbara street, where a stop-sign pulling up contest was staged, which was won by Miss "King Kong" Karns.

John Coultas, brother of Jim, gives a certain Delta Zeta itching feet.

Crowd Praises Players' Club for Production

Playing to an appreciative audience, the Player's club presented the phantasy "Death Takes a Holiday," Thursday evening, April 27, at eight o'clock in the State college auditorium.

"Goldy" Goldsmith, in the difficult interpretation of Death, carried out the mysterious role excellently. In spite of the inevitable comparison of his character portrayal with that of Frederic March, by those who saw the motion picture, "Goldy" stepped out of his usual comedy role, and made the audience feel the tragedy of his fantastic situation.

As the exquisitely beautiful Grazia, Peggy Pope added a certain sincere quality of a girl strangely set apart from the commonplace.

In the entertaining role of Baron Cesaria, Don Follett literally "stole" the show" in his interpretation of an old roue with his memories and cynical humor. In spite of the mysterious atmosphere, the Baron's humor added a bright touch to what might possibly have become a monotonous situation.

Connie Briscoe, who has had many parts in Lobero productions, gave her usual good performance as the young and striking Rhoda Fenton. As the anxious lover of Grazia, who could offer her only material happiness, Tommy Merrill was at his best.

Carolyn Hoefler as the duchess, and Winifred Jones as Alda, were extremely well-suited to their roles, and gave convincing performances.

Alfredo Chavez, as the duke, illustrated the contact of the mortal with the supernatural, in an outstanding presentation.

Verlayne Ryder portrayed the princess of San Lucca, while Robert Wilms took the part of Eric Fenton.

Kathryn Bowers played the part of the maid, and John Riggs, the butler. The part of the major was taken by George Herron.

The plot was based upon a visit by Death to the mortal world. Complications arise when Death, disguised as a mortal, Prince Sirki, experiences the emotions of a mortal and falls in love with Grazia.

GUACHO GAB

By BILL HOYT

World records? They're setting them right here in our backyard, down in the Peabody Stadium. Bill Graber's sensational pole vault of 14 feet five and five-eighths inches was by far the biggest event in the big annual open track and field meet. However several other meet records were broken. No one seems to remember them. I don't either. The meet was a big success and a personal triumph for State's track coach, Nick Carter, who was the general manager for the affair. Sponsors seemed to get crossed up in the downtown papers, the way it was sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce under the auspices of the Santa Barbara State college.

Just a few things
Out at the Biltmore next Sunday, Harry "Buppy" Moore, the Tau Omega court flash, will battle it out with Julio "Schnozzolo" Bortolazzo, the Sigma Alpha Kappa racket swisher, for the intramural tennis championship. On the following Thursday afternoon the swimmers of the Gaucho campus are to display their prowess in an intramural aquatic meet at the Biltmore pool. But before that, on Saturday of this week our baseball team plays its final game against La Verne down on the Cabrillo field, and the same afternoon the Gaucho tracksters take on Chapman college for their last competition of the year.

Tough Luck!
Oxy pulled a surprise on the State ball artists by administering a trouncing that was far from being anticipated. Nichols, the Bengal's star pitcher had not been reckoned with; for with his consistent and brainy chucking he blanked the usually hard hitting Gauchos. Nichols was supported by a perfectly functioning team that backed him with very few errors.

GAUCHO TRACKMEN CLOSE SEASON HERE

HARDER MEN PLAY FINAL GAMES

Taft and La Verne Frays Finish Year

In what will probably be their last scheduled baseball games for this season, Coach "Spud" Harder will send his Gaucho nine against the Taft Junior college men this Friday and the following Saturday against the La Verne Leopards. Both games will in all probability be staged at Cabrillo field.

Friday's game with the Junior college men is as yet undecided as official word has not been received by Coach Harder as to whether or not they will definitely come to Santa Barbara. If they do come they will remain here for two days, playing Coach Bud Cummings' Frosh nine the second day.

Saturday's conference encounter with La Verne is expected to be taken easily by the Staters unless they have one of their off days. La Verne at present is holding the cellar position in the conference standing and unless they put on an unexpected rally they will come out on the short end of the score.

A tentative line-up for both games has been selected which includes Fisher, Miller and Bortolazzo for the pitching staff; "Greek" Rezonico behind the plate; Morris, first; Lebeck, second; and Robinson, third; Kahn at short and Keith, Fisher, and Christianson in the outfield.

SWIMMERS MEET IN INTRAMURAL

Competing at the Santa Barbara Biltmore pool, the intramural swimming teams will meet next Thursday, May 9, at 3:30 p.m.

All men interested in this meet are urged to sign up on the bulletin board as soon as possible. Fellows are asked to sign up as it is desired that this, the first swimming meet held at this college, be a successful one.

The events will be as follows: 200-yard free style; 50-yard breast stroke; 50-yard back stroke; 100-yard free style; medley relay; 4-man relay; and competition in diving.

Fraternities, classes, and other organizations are requested to enter men in the competition.

Ikie Kahn, well-known athlete around school, will probably be the most outstanding diver, according to Norman Coy, who is managing the affair.

"There will be novelty diving and swimming," states Coy, "and we are sure that all who attend the meet will be interested. Women students are also invited to attend."

OXY NINE BEATS STATE TO CINCH LEAGUE PENNANT

With the largest part of the Gaucho team in a battling slump, the Oxy Tigers knocked Coach "Spud" Harder's horsehiders out of a possible tie for the Conference first place honors by an 8 to 4 count last Friday afternoon in Eagle Rock.

Herschel Lyons, brawny Occidental right-hander, limited the local boys to five hits, three of which came as the result of bunts. His team mates nicked Murt Miller, State chucker for nine solid hits. These hits plus nine Gaucho errors accounted for the eight runs.

This victory gives Occidental the Southern Conference baseball championship. Santa Barbara and Redlands now tie for second honors although a win over La Verne Friday will give Santa Barbara full honors to second place. La Verne's first victory over the Gauchos was not counted as the pitcher used by the southerners was declared ineligible.

Moore Beaten in Ojai Tournament

"Buppy" Moore, who has been tearing his way through the intramural tennis tournament with the greatest of ease, stepped into a higher grade of competition last week as he entered the annual Ojai tennis tournament, in which many of the foremost stars of the nation compete each year.

"Bup" was Santa Barbara State's only representative in the affair, and it was just his luck to run up against a player of exceptionally high caliber in his match. He was eliminated by Billy Bond, formerly of Santa Barbara, and now of Los Angeles 6-0, 7-5. Although Moore was noticeably affected by the large crowd as he lost the first set, he settled down and made Bond work to take the second.

Bortolazzo, Moore Vie in Net Final

"Buppy" Moore and Julio Bortolazzo will battle it out for the school tennis crown next Sunday afternoon on the Biltmore courts, the weather permitting.

Bortolazzo won his way into the finals by defeating Manley 6-0, 6-0, in the semi-final match last week, while Moore defeated Frick 6-2, 6-2 to earn his chance for the title.

Bortolazzo, last year's school champion, is favored to win the title again although Moore has been improving fast and should give Julio a tight scrap.

President Announces Men's Club Election

Nominations for the Men's club president, vice president, secretary, and social chairman will be open for the next two weeks. Nominating petitions may be obtained from William Poole, and must be signed by 30 men. Nominations may also be made from the floor.

At the executive meeting of the Men's club yesterday, the executive council made out the budget for the coming year.

Change in Time Stops Broadcast

"Because of daylight saving time in the east, the Santa Barbara State college broadcasts have been discontinued," according to President Clarence L. Phelps.

Freshmen Lose Game as Black Foxe Rallies

A fifth inning rally in which Black Foxe pushed over five runs, gave the soldiers a 8 to 4 victory over Coach Cummings' Gaucho babes last Friday afternoon in Los Angeles.

The yearlings were leading 4 to 0 up to the fifth inning, but three walks, one error and one hit turned the tide and gave Black Foxe a one run lead which was increased in the sixth by a home run.

With the exception of this one inning Erhardt, Frosh moundsman pitched good ball allowing but few scattered hits.

The game was called at the end of the seventh inning because of darkness.

This was the second meeting of the year between the two schools. The previous game ended in a 10 to 10 tie after 10 innings.

VARSITY DOWNS SAINTS EASILY

Using almost every man on the squad, Coach "Spud" Harder's horsehiders won their second game of the season from Santa Maria junior college last Saturday morning on Cabrillo field.

Julio Bortolazzo and Hi Stanley alternated at the pitching duties and held the Jaysees well in hand throughout the game.

Don Fisher, Gaucho outfielder collected a triple and two singles in four trips to the plate to share the batting honors for the day. Anderson of Santa Maria also had a record of three hits out of four times at bat, knocking out a triple, a double and a single.

Perry, Jaysee pitcher, hurled well but received poor support from his mates. Errors against the Northern infield were numerous.

The Gauchos broke their two week batting slump by hitting safely 12 times.

Undoubtedly the likeliest romance thus far inspired by Spring's gentle fancy is the one between "Tim" Thomas and "Irish" Duncan. It looks like the real thing to us.

NEW VAULT MARK ESTABLISHED IN S. B. OPEN MEET

With Bill Graber, ex-U.S.C. athlete and 1932 Olympic Games contender, stealing the show by virtue of his world record breaking performance in the pole vault, the fifth annual Santa Barbara open track and field meet was successfully staged in Peabody stadium, Saturday, April 27. Graber hoisted himself to the unprecedented height of 14' 5 5/8" to better his own world mark of 14' 4 3/8". This feat climaxed an afternoon of rare exhibitions in which six other meet records were broken and two were tied.

Cornelius Johnson, Compton JC high jumper, and another member of Uncle Sam's 1932 Olympic squad, sent another meet record toppling to the ground as he grazed the crossbar at 6' 8", when said bar, after a great deal of bouncing and shivering, finally decided to stay on. High point man for the meet and breaker of two records was Mack Robinson, who only last year was running and jumping for Muir Tech High School. Robinson shattered the old mark in the broad jump when he hit the dirt 24' 6 1/2" from the take off board. He toured the 220 yd. dash in the excellent time of 21:4 seconds to account for his other record and then wound up a good day's work by copping the 100 yd. dash in 9:8 seconds.

Estel Johnson of USC lowered the 440 record to 49:2 seconds, and anchored a Trojan mile relay team which set a new mark of 3:19:9. The only other record to fall was the high school medley relay mark, which the Carpentaria squad cut down to 3:42:6. Both hurdle records were equaled. Day, a San Diego State freshman and King, running unattached, finished in a dead heat to tie the former best time of 24:7 seconds in the lows. An ineligible from UCLA named Anderson tied the high barrier mark of 14:9.

Two Santa Barbara State athletes broke into the scoring column. Gene Combell, the strong-armed frosh, finished second only to USC's great Kenny Carpenter in the discus throw, while Roland McDonald pulled down a third in the 2 mile run.

The USC freshmen piled up 33 1-2 points to win the team scoring honors. They were followed by UCLA's varsity, with 23 and Santa Paula High with 11 points, respectively. Unattached men accounted for 84 of the digits.

College Men Study Senior Life Saving

A group of State college men are now taking a course in senior life saving at the Y.M.C.A. every Monday night. It is expected that after a series of ten lessons the students will be eligible for the final test.

Those who are enrolled in the course are Joe Albon, Fred Kilmer, Keith Lupton, Ray Williams, Orville Morrison, Jimmie McSkimming and two boys from Carpinteria.

RELATIONS CLUB MEETS
Ebbets hall was the scene of the International Relations club dinner on Friday evening, April 26. According to Jack Murray, president of the club, the speaker for the occasion has not been selected.

McCullough's Close Track Careers in Chapman Trackfest

Cindermen Win Trackfest at Taft J. C.

Winning 10 first places of a 15 event program, Coach Nick Carter's Freshman track team swept to victory in a three-way meet held in Taft last Friday night.

The Gaucho babes ran up a total of 58 1/2 points and were closely followed by Taft Junior college with 49 1/2 digits while Cal-Poly scored 46 points to place third.

Howard Yeager repeated his performance of a few weeks ago by winning the high jump and placing first in both dashes to take the high scoring honors for the meet.

Dave Rumbaugh and Gene Campbell each won a pair of victories. Dave lead the pack home in both of the hurdle events, while Gene dominated the weight tossers in the shot-put and the discus throw.

Virgil Hooper, former mile champion of California who is now wearing the olive and white colors, pulled on his spikes for the first time this season and galloped in ahead of the field to win the mile. Virgil was expected to be laid up all season by an injury received in the boxing tournament.

The McCullough brothers, Captain "Tiny" and George, will represent Santa Barbara State for the last time this Saturday, May 4, when the Gaucho cinder squad winds up one of its most successful seasons in history against the Chapman college spiketers on Phelps field.

Chapman has a fairly strong squad, and should make the outcome close. They are exceptionally strong in the sprint and quarter mile events, which means that Joe Nightingale and Larry Bowlus, the Gaucho aces in these races, will have a busy afternoon. Captain McCullough should have little trouble in hanging up a first in his pet event, the shot put, while brother George stands an excellent chance to finish his collegiate career coping a first, in the discus throw.

Probably the most interesting event of the day from the spectators' standpoint will be the mile relay. State, with the best group of baton passers the school has ever had, will match spikes with an exceptionally speedy crew from the southern school, and the resulting race should prove as hard on the fans as on the runners themselves. The relay, besides other events, may furnish Santa Barbara with a new school record. Roland McDonald will be out to lower his own 2 mile mark, while Bowlus in the quarter, Crow in the high hurdles, Ewing in the javelin, McCullough in the shot, Holcomb in the pole vault, and possibly Nightingale in the sprints, if they are in form, may batter the present records.

Honoring Miss Charlotte P. Ebbets, retiring head of the home economics department, the women of that unit gave their annual May day breakfast this morning from 7 to 8 o'clock at the roof garden over the cafeteria. Senior women were also honored guests, as is the custom each year at this time. All of the members of the department and many women teachers attended the affair.

A large maypole dominated the scene, and its streamers terminated at each table. A rainbow motif was carried out, the flowers and other decorations being pink, yellow, green and lavender. A corsage was presented to each honor guest. The menu included may basket cocktails of halves of grapefruit with other fruits in the center, fishballs, broiled potatoes, sauce, marmalade, coffee cake and coffee.

Lois Jo McPheeters, social chairman and vice-president of the department, was general chairman. Under her were Mary Bell, in charge of food; Evelyn Brown, serving; Josephine Newstetter, decorations; Ruth Mosely, ticket sales; Ruth Brubaker, invitations; Mildred Gardner and Genevieve Kichter, clean-up.

A short discussion was also held on the arrangements now being made for the fraternity formal to be staged during the latter part of May. Tentative plans call for using the Samarkand grill room for the dinner but it has not definitely been decided upon.

Faculty Picnic at Outing Club

Congregating at the Outing club at Paradise Camp, the faculty is giving a picnic all day Sunday, May 5. All faculty members and their families are invited. There is a large barbecue pit for the guests to prepare their lunch. Hot coffee, hot chocolate and ice cream will be served at 1:30 p.m.

LIGGETT AND MYERS TOBACCO COMPANY

Chesterfield CIGARETTES

A man who visited a Chesterfield factory recently, said: "Now that I have seen Chesterfields made, I understand better than ever why people say Chesterfields are milder and have a better taste."

If you too could visit our factories you could see the clean, airy surroundings; the employees in their spotless uniforms, and the modern cigarette making machinery.

You could notice how carefully each Chesterfield cigarette is inspected and see also how Chesterfields are practically untouched by human hands.

Whenever you happen to be in Richmond, Va., Durham, N. C., or San Francisco, California, we invite you to stop at the Liggett & Myers plants and see how Chesterfields are made.
