YOUR DAILY HOROSCOPE
BY LINDA C. BLACK

Check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

Aries (March 21-April 19)—Today is a 7—Someone you love has a problem, and you can help. Talk your friend into going out tonight, for dancing, tennis or even shooting baskets. Physical exercise will help him or her lighten up about the problems of the day. Get your pal totally exhausted. It will do the person wonders.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)—Today is a 6—Other people sometimes get down on you for being secretive and uncommunicative. Now it's just the other way around. You're the one who's telling all the secrets, and it's your friend who's trying to keep them hidden. Effective communication is your key to success, so go ahead and practice it.

Gemini (May 21-June 21)—Today is a 7—Just because an older person is quiet, doesn't mean that he or she agrees with you. He or she might just be trying to be nice. The subtleties may be lost on you, however. You're in the mood to rip and tear. Well, you'd better not do it without looking twice, or you could get into more trouble than you care to deal with.

Cancer (June 22-July 22)—Today is a 6—You're working hard to make sure everything goes well for an older person in your life. This could be one of your parents, your boss or a teacher. Well, what goes around comes around. The other person is becoming more interested in making you happy, too. That wasn't your motive, but it could very well be the result.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22)—Today is a 7—You continue to look marvelous and produce amazing results. People find you attractive and want to listen to you. This makes it difficult to remember that there are areas of your personality that could still use a little work. Let someone who's not very good at using words explain a new idea.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)—Today is a 6—Push boldly today to get what you want. The person who has what you need will be impressed by your assertiveness. You may have the feeling that you're acting out of pressure, but that's OK. Sometimes it takes a little pressure to get us rolling.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)—Today is a 7—Some people have trouble taking no for an answer, and you have trouble giving it. Today, that could get you overbooked and overworked. You're going to have to set priorities, and taking care of business should be number one. It's only Tuesday, after all. Don't worry. You'll have plenty of time to play later.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21)—Today is a 6—A friend can help in your relationship with an authority figure. Neither of you like this person much, but your friend is much closer than you are to understanding what's going on. He or she has an inside track, so to speak. Between the two of you, you'll be able to decide on the right tactic to use.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)—Today is an 8—You may resent the time you have to spend away from home. The bad news is that there's a bit of travel required today. The good news is that it should be successful, and you'll be reunited tonight with the people you love best. The reunion will be even sweeter because of the separation. Plan something special.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)—Today is a 6—The emphasis is on home, real estate and family. A tough decision is required. Your experience leads you one way, but your worries lead you elsewhere. You're just going to have to make up your mind and take action. Talk to a friend with connections and ask for a favor. He or she probably owes you one anyway.

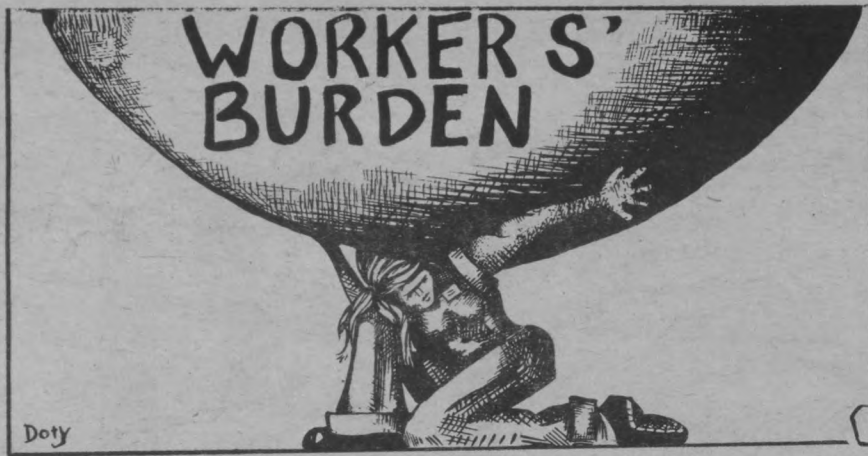

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)—Today is a 7—You're being challenged to see if you can handle a situation you've gotten yourself into. A decision has to be made that involves your money. Don't worry about it too much. You're pretty lucky in that regard. Review the options carefully, of course. That's always been one of the secrets to your success.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20)—Today is a 6—You've got to please a demanding taskmaster today. This person is not necessarily looking for perfection, as much as compliance with his or her idea. So, instead of creating a reflection of your imagination, you need to reflect somebody else's. This is a difficult task, but for you it is possible.

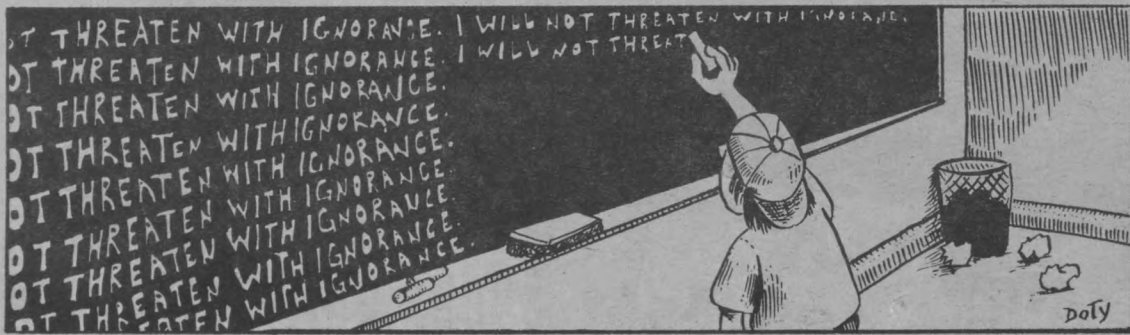

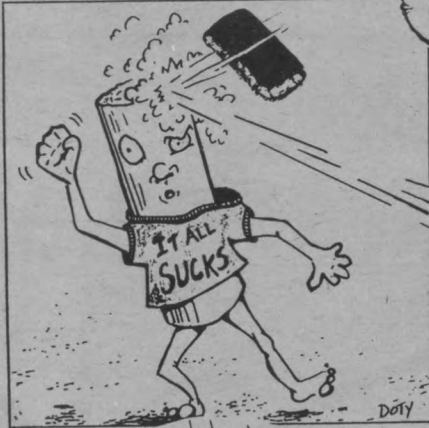

Today's Birthday (March 10) You're feeling driven to succeed and that's OK. Just remember who's doing the driving and you'll be fine. A bold move in April brings more money into your account. Show you've learned from previous experience by leaving some of it there. An opportunity in August requires your full attention, as well as most of your time and some of your money. It's a safe investment and will come back to you tenfold. A partner's advice is crucial to your success in September. It will help you polish what you're doing. You'll know you've been effective when you start hearing compliments through the grapevine. Allow your mind to expand in December and you'll profit even further. Obtain the certification you've been seeking in February. Remember, no matter how tough it gets, you're lucky, naturally.

Sierra Club Endorses Lois Capps!

Los Padres Chapter Praises Capps' Positions on Environmental Issues

Recognizing the serious environmental threats facing the Central Coast region, both the Santa Lucia and Los Padres Chapters of the Sierra Club have endorsed Lois Capps in the special congressional election for the 22nd District. On Tuesday, March 10, voters will choose between Capps, wife of the late Rep. Walter Capps, and Tom Bordonaro, a conservative State Assemblyman from Paso Robles.

Bordonaro Pressured UCSB to Enter into Offshore Oil Deal

Although Tom Bordonaro claims to oppose offshore oil drilling, he used his position as a State Assemblyman to pressure the University of California at Santa Barbara to enter into a deal with Mobil Oil to lease university land for slant drilling into state waters. "It's not money to shake your fist at," said Bordonaro, "when you are in financial difficulty, you need to be creative."

After UCSB officials rejected the Mobil "Clearview" proposal, Bordonaro, who was on the Assembly's Higher Education Committee at the time, urged them to reconsider. "When they come to us moaning and groaning about needing more funds, I'm going to say 'You remember Clearview?'" Critics claimed that Bordonaro was using his position on the committee to pressure the university despite environmental and public safety concerns, and that he threatened to cut the university's budget if Mobil did not get their deal.

"...We need a representative in Congress who is against offshore oil all of the time, not just when it is politically expedient."

Selma Rubin
Los Padres Chapter Political Chair

One has to wonder how Bordonaro can now claim to oppose offshore oil development. "Does he oppose it only as long as there is no money in it, or does he oppose it only at election time?", said Selma Rubin, Political Chair for the Los Padres Chapter, "With the Minerals Management Service once again breathing down the necks of Central Coast Residents, we need a representative in Congress who is against offshore oil all of the time, not just when it's politically expedient."

"I'm proud of my stand on UCSB's premature rejection of the Clearview Project...", Bordonaro wrote in a 1995 Telegram-Tribune editorial. "Apparently not so proud as to include it in his campaign literature," said Rubin, "Maybe he'd rather you didn't know."

"Bordonaro voted 'NO' on the environment more than 4 out of 5 times"

Rick Skillin
Los Padres Chapter Chairman

The Sierra Club is also launching an independent campaign to educate voters about Bordonaro's abysmal environmental voting record. "We have researched Tom Bordonaro's voting record, and we have found that he is no friend of the environment," said Rick Skillin, Chairman of the Los Padres Chapter. "Bordonaro claims to oppose offshore oil drilling, but he supported Mobil Oil's Clearview Project to drill for oil in state waters off the Santa Barbara coast."

The California League of Conservation Voters, a non-partisan organization that tracks key environmental legislation and scores state lawmakers on their votes, gave Bordonaro a 12% rating in 1995, 8% in 1996, and a 35% in 1997. "Bordonaro voted 'NO' on the environment more than 4 out of 5 times", said Skillin. Bordonaro also voted against stronger drinking water standards, voted to weaken the California Clean Air Act, and opposed legislation that would have expanded civil and criminal penalties to cover oil spills in rivers and streams. "Mr. Bordonaro claims to be 'in the mainstream'," said Skillin. "But, from his voting record in the Assembly, it is clear that he does not represent a mainstream viewpoint on the environment."

By contrast, Lois Capps, like her late husband, Walter, has taken a strong stance on the environment and has vowed to block attempts to weaken environmental standards or to open up our coast to offshore oil drilling. Walter Capps received a rating of 100% by the League of Conservation Voters in 1997, and Lois has promised to carry on his work in congress.

The Sierra Club hopes to reach moderate Republicans who might question Bordonaro's anti-environment record, as well as UCSB students who may not have been planning to vote in the special election. "Students need to realize that environmental awareness doesn't stop at the recycling bin," said Skillin. "The best thing you can do to save the environment for your future is to VOTE!"
