

El Gaucho

SANTA BARBARA STATE COLLEGE

VOLUME XIX

SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12, 1940

No. 34

Wind-Up . . .

This rotogravure section, a special edition of El Gaucho, is an innovation this year. Next year's editorial staff plans a quarterly edition, to be completely published by the College Press on the new off-set equipment.

As our last effort of the year, we dedicate this edition to the Class of '40 and present in these pages the outstanding members of the class—scholastic, athletic and political.

Glancing at the pictures on this page, we find BOB SCALAPINO, at upper left. Bob will be back at the College next year as an assistant in the social science department.

At center left is CLIFF ROMER, head man in this class of graduates. An athlete and scholar, Cliff has worked unflinchingly in carrying out the duties of his office. Greatly aided by the administration was this year's graduates and prime among the administrative help was that given by MRS. JANE MILLER ABRAHAM and President CLARENCE L. PHELPS. The serious-looking chap in the center of the page is A.S. vice-president CARLOS BEE.

On the lighter side, Mrs. Laura S. Price's prize elementary graduates, BETTY PALMAYMESA and ALICE BOESEKE, cut up on the tradition-bound senior bench at lower left, while former student body president DOUG DUCKHAM seems perturbed at lower right.

Bob Scalapino

. . . Able President of the Associated Students.

Cliff Romer

. . . Senior Class Head.

Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham and Clarence L. Phelps

. . . Senior Advisor and College President.

Carlos Bee

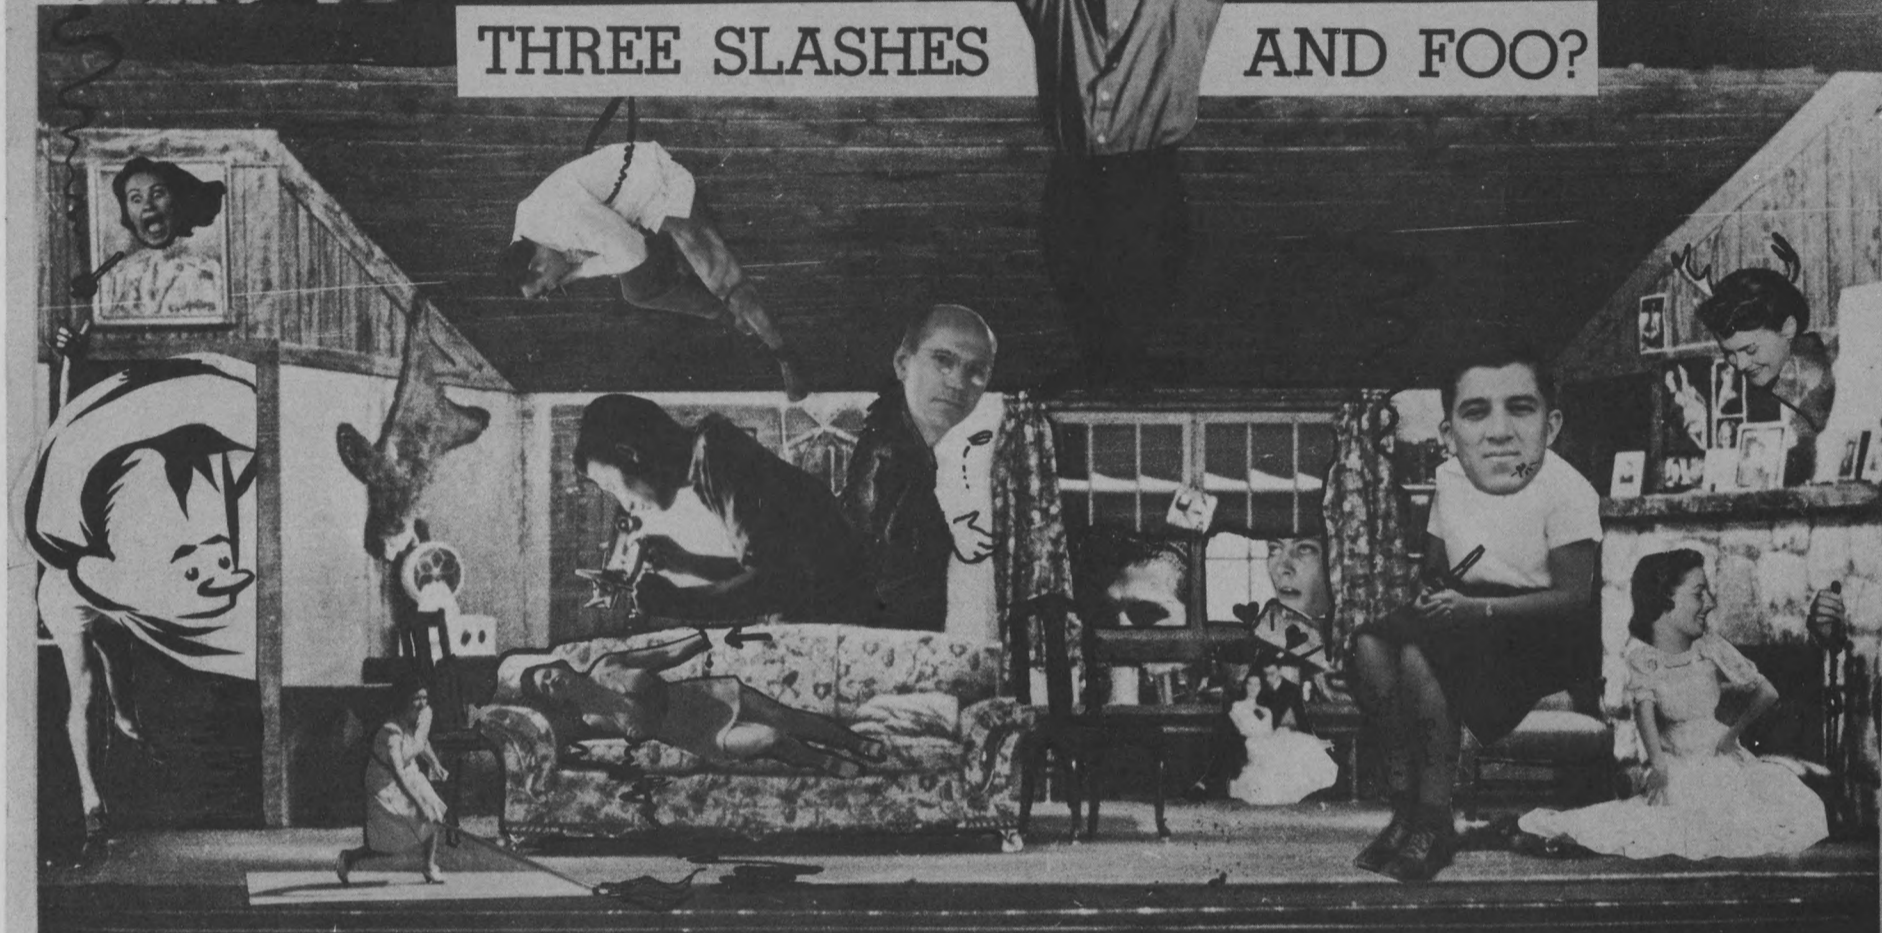

. . . A.S. Vice-President

THREE SLASHES

AND FOO?

Outstanding drama of the year was "Three Slashes and Foo", the Gaucho mystery play pictured above. Beginning from left to right we see Philo Pantsito, sleuth, peeking in at the door. Overhead, Lady Jane is frightened pipeless because she's been framed; the semi-nude figure behind Pantsito, isn't guilty, he just wants a smoke. Billy-on-the-spot Guidinger, hangs from the ceiling guidinger picture; Chamber maid Murray attempts to mop up the evidence . . . The body (wow!) of the late Marge Busby lies coolly and collectedly on the divan—she was shot in her sitting room. (Arrow indicates the missing hand's former locale.) Dick Bancroft Tracy examines the cadaver closely (very closely) with a microscope—what a job! John Porter saw it all. He forgot to get out of his raccoon coat before he hung it up—now engaged in coin flipping to decide whether he should tell or no. Ernie Winchell squints in at the window while Mattson is horrified to the spot. (He's been sick.) Love interest was provided by Dwala Branyon and Bob Dodson—oblivious to it all—ain't love grand?

Georgia Mae Valos sits with a pipeopolus in her hand waiting to be given the third degree in the Sons of Greece. Dottie Ann West wants Philo Pantsito to come up and see her (and Sears) sometime—she knows who done it but she ain't sayin'. The poker near the fireplace may give a clue to where the missing hand is at. (Excuse, Mr. Ashworth.) Glenn Gorham always gets into the best positions—so aloof—isn't she a deer? . . . The question is: "Who blew off—the arm? Send your answers in with four of your best left hands and receive two free tickets to the West Beach . . . The students at top are expressing their appreciation for the fine drama which had its 18th local premier next Wednesday. McArthur is expressing his open mouthed approval—Cohen is yelling for an encore by the body; while "Buzzy" Bolas remembers a shady gag in Act II . . . The Heil Richards photo just slipped in through the new A.S. Censorship and Propaganda department.

Dear Gals
I want to tell you how much I have enjoyed writing those little notes to you each week and showing clothes on the campus for your approval. I have always tried to model the kind of clothes that were designed with an eye toward college activities. I've photographed the three most popular outfits that I wore . . .

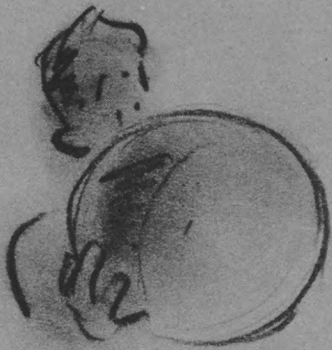

the Kay Sunhill dress (Ray Sunhill dress, remember?) the denim play suit, and the baggy loafer ensemble. I'll have a good time this summer . . . and how about making a date to meet at the Jack Rose "Campus Corner" next fall.
Sincerely
Patsy
Jack Rose
1007 STATE STREET • SANTA BARBARA
Apparel of Distinction for Women and Misses

Outstanding Senior Athletes

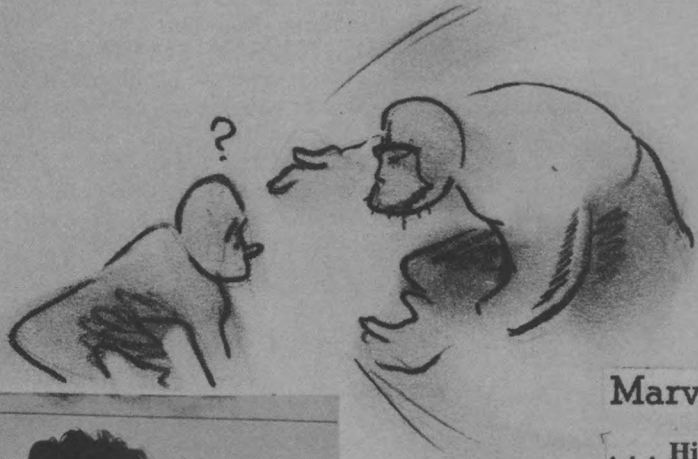

Marvin Palmer

... His teammates call him "Orang-Utang" or "Mang." A stalwart of the line for the past three football seasons and picked for a tackle berth on the all-conference second team, Palmer leaves a big gap to fill.

Bill Russell

... entered as a freshman in 1932, receives his sheepskin in 1940. Bill has been in and out of College many times but has managed to chalk up a record as one of the finest athletes ever to wear Santa Barbara's colors. At various times he has competed successfully in football, varsity baseball and as a climax to his career, was a member of last season's 2C2A basketball champs.

Seen on the Campus

Two Popular Students Showing What Clothes Can Do For the Man

Forrest Gardenhire

... usually balks when referred to by his first handle. "Gardy", as he is familiarly known, has won fame in Gauchos football and baseball toggery. In Santa Barbara's "Year of Champions," Gardy was instrumental in pitching the Gauchos nine to a 2C2A title.

Bill McArthur

... is one of the greatest athletes and finest competitors ever to bear the Green and White banner. Honors accruing to Billy Mac in his four years of competition include awards as the most valuable man for the past two years in track and the same honor for football in '39.

... DON ESTEY looks like "Time Out for Cocktails" in his new sports coat of District Check Shetland in an interesting mixture of browns and greens (It looks like a million and costs only $16.95). The sage green gaberdine slacks are $8.50.

... The tall "lover" type, model DOUG WINTERS is wearing a Killarney Twist sports coat in a tan herringbone pattern that sold for $22.50 — the flannel slacks are in the neutral oatmeal shade and are priced at $10.00.

Roy E. Gammill
1005 STATE STREET
Santa Barbara

Clothier ♦ Haberdasher ♦ Hatter ♦ Importer

Presenting leaders and sponsors of the Class of '40! Pictured at upper left is NORMA PRATT, senior council representative; at lower left, A.S. President BOB SCALAPINO and Finance Chairman FRANK "SCOOP" DOUGLAS; MABEL FORSYTH, class vice-president is pictured at upper right and working down through the center we find HARRY SLOAN, Activities Control Board Chairman; WALDO PHELPS, senior council representative; and class sponsors W. CHARLES REDDING and DR. HARRY K. GIRVETZ.

YES -- IT'S ELMER'S CAFE

ELMER'S
1026 State Street

*Morrie
Bill
Dottie
Charles
"Beanie"
Bob*

El Gaucho

EDITOR Syd Cohen
ART EDITOR Bob Hall
PHOTOGRAPHER Bill Guidinger
BUSINESS MANAGER Jimmie Fullerton
TYPOGRAPHY ADVISOR John T. Porter

OTT'S SPORTS SHOP

721 State Street — Dial 3121

VIRGINIA

BOBBIE

MARGE

Dr. Pepper Is Available Anywhere You Go

"Three Little Maids from School"

... The three little maids from school are coeds Virginia Waite, Betty Palmaymesa and Alice Boeseke, who smile for the camera in the Gaucho Club while drinking the Mikado of soft drinks — Dr. Pepper. The girls indicate the popular slogan "Drink Dr. Pepper" at 10-2 and 4 with their fingers. Beaming Mickey Berman, behind, portrays Dr. Pepper with a smile and a pepper shaker.

Dr. Pepper Bottling Company