

PROVOST EXTENDS HEARTY GREETINGS IN SUMMER SESSION WELCOME MESSAGE

To the students and faculty of the 1951 Summer Session, I extend hearty greetings.

A summer in Santa Barbara ought to be a pleasure experience, for this unique community has much to offer, in addition to the College program.

In planning our Summer Session offerings, we have been mindful of the needs of our students, and an effort has been made to provide attractive and useful fare.

As usual, the Summer Session staff is a selected one, including members of our regular faculty and visitors from other institutions.

Please be assured of my best wishes for both academic and recreational success.

VARIED LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS OFFERED

Apartments are available in the Federal Housing Project for married veterans either with or without children, the Housing Office recently announced. The waiting list has been greatly reduced so that many couples will be able to move in for the Summer Session and also in September. Register now if you are interested.

Many listings for summer school students are now available in the Housing Office. These listings are for both men and women and include rooms, room and board, rooms and kitchen privileges, apartments and cooperatives.

SESSION'S TEACHING STAFF INCLUDES MANY DISTINGUISHED VISITORS

The teaching staff at University of California, Santa Barbara College for the Summer Session will include fourteen visiting professors, it has been announced by the Provost's Office.

In the Art Department new additions are Dr. Alfred Neumeier from Mills College and Dr. James A. McCray from the University of California at Berkeley.

Teaching courses in the Biological Science Department are Dr. Elton F. Paddock from Ohio State University and Dr. Willis Pequegnat from Pomona College.

The Education Department has made its choices from far afield with Dr. Aubrey Haan from the University of Hawaii and Dr. Laura Hooper from the University of Pennsylvania.

Two additions to the Industrial Arts staff are Mr. Otis H. Chidester of the Tucson Public Schools and Mr. William B. Steinberg of the San Diego Public Schools.

Mr. Gates Foss, Manager of the Santa Barbara Municipal Pool, will teach in the Men's Physical Education Department.

The Geology staff is increased by Dr. John E. Allen from the New Mexico School of Mines.

In the Psychology Department will be Dr. Margaret E. Robins of the University of Miami and Dr. Llewellyn N. Wiley of the Educational Research Corporation.

Dr. James T. Watkins from Stanford University will be the only member of the Political Science staff.

Teaching Speech courses will be Dr. Sue Earnest of San Diego State.

In future issues El Gauchito will attempt to introduce the visiting professors individually to its readers.

TO OUR NEW FRIENDS
WE SUGGEST-----

For new students who are not familiar with Santa Barbara, El Gauchito offers some suggestions about local restaurants and entertainment spots.

For light snacks and after-date coffee we suggest the Oasis, on upper State Street; Broome's at 109 E. Anapamu; and Pete's on upper State Street. Kerry's, also on upper State Street, is perhaps the favorite Gauchito meeting-place and has the additional advantage of offering re-fills on coffee. Those who prefer drive-ins will find good food at reasonably low prices at the Twinburger, 2731 Hollister Avenue or at any of the three Blue Onion drive-ins.

Kerry's also serves dinners in the coffee-shop and, for more special occasions, in the dining-room. For Italian dinners we suggest Mom's Italian Village at 421 East Gota Street, and Arnoldi's Cafe at 600 Olive Street. The Golden Dragon Steak House serves both Chinese and American food in a Chinese atmosphere. The last three are also good places for evening entertainment, especially Mom's which provides dance music, both canned and live.

East Beach is a popular afternoon resort for students, and for those who prefer to do their swimming in a plunge, the Municipal Pool is located at West Beach. The local pub, the Spigot, is located at 2611 De la Vina Street and offers a refuge from the summer heat both in the afternoon and in the evening.

For informal dates, Santa Barbara provides the ubiquitous bowling alley, at 14 East Figueroa Street and the Roller Rink at 325 Motor Way. Santa Barbara also boasts of the usual number of movie houses. Special attractions, however, are the Goleta drive-in, located in Goleta right next to the airport, and the California Theatre at 20 West Canon Perdido. The California bills older pictures, but good ones, and the price of admission is just about half of that of the other shows. The Lobero Theatre presents drama on the stage rather than on the screen. Some of the productions feature strictly local talent, but the majority feature prominent professional troupes.

The Harbor Restaurant, at the end of Stearne's Wharf, is one of the more plush Santa Barbara dining places, and El Cielito, on middle State Street, also offers good food in a sophisticated atmosphere. The El Cortijo Chuck Wagon, 915 Coast Highway, provides all you can eat for $1.75 per plate.

The Flamingo Room, also on the highway, is a favorite rendezvous for those who like loud music in a small room. The orchestra features jazz, and welcomes the participation of any patrons who can bring along an instrument. Some rather weird effects are produced in the club by the periodical use of fluorescent lighting. Another popular night club is the Pink Cricket, located just across the highway from the El Cortijo.

The El Gauchito has not attempted a full coverage of all Santa Barbara attractions, but has merely listed a few suggestions.

LIBRARY BEGINS NEW FINE SYSTEM;
FINE DELINQUENCY TO GET PENALTY

There will be a change in business office procedures in regard to payment of bills beginning June 18, it has been announced by the Library Department.

Failure to pay library fines within 15 days of the time they are sent will be penalized by an additional one dollar fee, instead of the previous penalty of five cents per day. The date by which the bill must be paid will be stamped clearly on the bill. Bills are paid at the Cashier's Office in Building E, not in the library.

Fine scales range from 25 cents an hour for overdue reserved books to 25cts. for the first three days overdue for most books in the main library. The full fine scale is posted on the circulation desk in the main library.

EXTENSION HOLDS NATURE INSTITUTE

Recreation and study will be combined and held in the mountains, coastal plains and seashore, at the Institute of Nature Study and Conservation to be held in Santa Barbara July 30 thru August 11.

Four morning classes are offered. They are in the fields of seashore life, elementary science methods, native birds, and western trees. Afternoon sessions will include a comprehensive survey of conservation problems.

The Institute is being held by University Extension in cooperation with the Museum of Natural History and the Botanic Garden.

Any interested individual may attend the Institute, but holders of a Bachelor's Degree or a teaching credential may obtain three units of upper division elective credit.
