INVESTIGATE YOUR REGISTRATION

Yesterday the United States celebrated its one hundred and fifty-fifth year of independence. The chief is small. Evidently from this evidence of public independence was the right to a democratic form of government. This form of government gave the people the right to elect the officials they judged to hold the reins of government and to make laws for the best interest of the country.

How many persons stopped to consider this yesterday or any day for that matter? You hear a great deal about the street finding fault with this law or that official. Ask him if he voted at the last election. The chances are he didn't if he should be so realistic that an innocent fellow citizen, active in public affairs, could rest the county under the condition that officials and laws do not want the very reason for the 4th of July. The country did not become a democracy for nothing.

We wonder if they ask the broadcasting companies what they are planning for the future, but that it should permeate every child and that it should be served at noon. The winning side will be served at noon. The loosing side during the contest over who is to give the kids a show how they apply in real life.

You should see some of the points to be developed, and to think the majority of the people are too interested in their own affairs to bother with government matters.

It is not only the privilege of the citizens of this country to have a good democratic primary election once in a while. If this country is to continue on under its present form of government and not fall into some extreme such as countries in Europe are now experiencing, people must take to their registration the franchise more seriously than they have in the past.

Investigate now before it is too late and find out how your registration stands. Following are general rules which cover registration in this state.

If you have moved to another precinct since you regis- tered two years ago or if you failed to vote at the last primary or general election you must register again if you are to vote at the coming election.

The second Tuesday of the month is the day for the 1932 elections and others who register before July 19, will be named on the great register, prepared from the old registration.

If you are willing to change party affiliation you must also register again.

Absent voters or voters who are confined by illness as a result of the holidays should apply to the clerk for an absent voter's ballot, between August 28 and 29.

Recently the Alameda Times compiled an editorial about the large number of useless publicity releases received from various departments of the government in Washington. The editorial ends by stating that there are numbers of government officials who are still impressed with the idea that newspapers will print anything. WILL TRELOR HOME

OLD TIME RESIDENT

PASSES; INTERVIEW HERE

Persis Fowler, former Carpenter, passed away Saturday morning at 5:00 a.m. in Los Angeles. Death came as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident a week ago Saturday on the Ridge Route to Los Angeles. He is survived by his son, Mrs. Fred Trelor, Espero, Arizona.

It will be remembered by many of Carpinteria that Fred bought a store here in 1005 State Street and was one of the earliest members of the Methodist church, thirty-five years ago. They have been residents of seasoning, California for the past many years.
