Stanford Delegation Will Present Parley Findings for Campus Vote

Santa Barbara College delegates to the Western College Congress on international affairs held at Stanford University last week, are now arranging to present the recommendations of the Congress to the UCSBC student body for ratification. Delegates were Kay Updergraff and Bob West.

The conference, attended by students from forty leading Western colleges, emphasized particularly the more important aspects of Soviet-American relations. Among the principal speakers were John R. Deane, former major general commanding the U. S. Military Mission to Moscow, and Dr. Harold J. Fisher, chairman of the Hoover Library at Stanford.

Following keynote addresses, the conference was divided into working sections of 15 delegates. Bob West was a member of the section investigating Soviet-American differences in the United Nations, and Kay took part in the section studying European Economic Recovery, or the Marshall Plan, as it is better known.

Discuss and Amend
On the third and final day of the Congress, the group met in general assembly for hearing and discussion of the findings of the various study sections. The recommendations they discussed, amended and approved will be presented to the constituent student bodies for consideration and ratification. Date of the SBC election will be announced in a forthcoming issue of El Gaucho.

After election results from all the Western colleges have been tabulated, they will be presented to the American delegation of the United Nations and to the U. S. Congress at Washington by two students from the Western College Congress. Selection of the two students will be based on the response of the various colleges to the vote to be taken.

Gauchos Close Season In 19-0 Bow to Aztecs

On the well-lit turf of Balboa Stadium in San Diego last Saturday evening the Golden Gauchos of Santa Barbara College bowed to San Diego State College, 19 to 0. In spite of the defeat, the game closed the Gaucho's most successful season since 1939.

The boys in blue and gold played one of their finest games of the season, performing perfectly throughout most of the first half; but the depth of reserves of the Aztecs told in the final cantos. However, both scores in the last half were results of the Gauchos old nemesis—fumbles. The entire contest was marked by the best blocking and tackling shown by the Hilltoppers all season.

Dyke Cracks

When a wall is pounded hard and long enough, the dyke is bound to crack. The Gaucho forward wall did crack long enough for a few drips to squeeze through. Tomlinson edged over with eight seconds remaining in the first half. Newlee's conversion was good.

Midway in the third period the Aztecs recovered a Gaucho fumble on the 26, and in ten plays drove over for another tally.

Cassidy, Red and Black end, piled on a Gaucho fumble in the end zone just three plays before the game ended to rack up the last points, and the Staters had their thirteenth (loyal Gauchos say the last) game of the traditional series.

Throughout most of the battle the Gaucho war song, "On to Victory," was drowned out by the more appropriate "Four Blind Mice."

Seek Scripts, Lyrics For Spring Revue

Any student who believes he or she possesses any semblance of talent which may be useful in the technical construction of next semester's "Roadrunner Revue" is urged to begin jotting ideas down on paper immediately. This applies to all scriptwriters, songwriters, and directors.

The major reason for haste is the imminent deadline for scripts—December 16, by which time all material must be submitted to the Assembly Committee. The committee will choose the scripts or parts of scripts to be used in the production; find a director, and, in January, search for entertainers. The Revue will be presented on April 23, 24 and 25.

Friendship Drive Brings in $100

Two on-campus drives to collect funds for the Friendship Train have netted 100 dollars. This is considerably short of the $500 goal.

The money will be sent either to the Friendship Train or "Care," with instructions that the "Care" packages be given to students or student families, campaign officials said.

ANTIQUATED JALOPY TOTTERS TO SAN DIEGO... AND BACK!

One of the miracles of the trip to San Diego for the final game of the season was the trek made by the "Vout Rod," a 1928 heap resembling a car.

The four passengers attempting the dangerous journey left Santa Barbara Friday morning so as to be sure to reach San Diego for the game Saturday night. The "Vout Rod" was reported out of Pasadena headed for San Diego at 9 a.m. Saturday. But due to the fact that the windshield wiper broke off and a spring in the back seat was sprung, the intrepid group did not arrive at La Jolla in time to join the car caravan into Diego. However, they did get in on the last part of the rally staged in the lobby of the Grant Hotel.

The venerable wreck even managed to make it back to Santa Barbara.

KNOCK OFF P. M. CHOW
Evening meals at the Riviera cafeteria were discontinued indefinitely, as of last night, according to an announcement from the Business Office.

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION MET STIFF OPPOSITION

The fight against racial discrimination in fraternities, an issue which stirred the campus a few weeks ago, met stiff opposition at the annual meeting in New York of the National Interfraternity Conference in New York last week.

The chairman of the national group, David A. Embury, strongly defended the right of fraternities to set up membership restrictions on race, creed and color. All fraternities should join forces, he said, to oppose recent attempts to effect elimination of discriminatory clauses in fraternity constitutions.

Embury's report before the national conference was in reply to proposals by several State groups, including the one representing Santa Barbara College, that fraternities recognize a nation-wide trend and remove race discrimination clauses from their constitutions.

Privilege "Axiomatic"

"It is axiomatic," Embury declared, "that in a democracy it is the privilege of every man to form a voluntary group or society for any legitimate purpose, and that that group is the sole judge of its own membership qualifications and restrictions."

George Geib, Jr., president of the Interfraternity Council on this campus, declared that his group drafted a report on the recent student body election, pointing out that it indicated a change. Since the local group did not expect the National Conference to be held until December, however, the report was not posted.

Gauchos Meet Fox 5 In Cage Opener

The Santa Barbara College Basketball team opens their season tonight against the strong 20th Century Fox team at the National Guard Armory. Game time is 8:00, with the Santa Barbara J V team playing a preliminary game at 6:30.

After dropping their opener against Whittier College, the movie-men have garnered five straight victories, and are considered one of the top AAU basketball teams.

Lubin Paces

The Fox team is paced by the "Grand Old Man of Basketball," 6' 6," 246 pound Frank Lubin, six time All-American AAU center. Lubin, 42 years young, has been with the Fox five for ten seasons, and while he is not quite as spry as he once was, he still manages to get around the court. His better than twelve points per game average last year will attest to this. Frank has also found time to be on American, Olympic, Lithuanian, and Canadian championship teams. Lubin attended UCLA.

Any USC fan will remember Jack Lippert, for while a member of the SC cage squad in 1941 he attained All-American honors. This will be Jack's third year with the Fox team.

Prospects

The Santa Barbara squad has prospects of becoming the best in Gaucho history. The starting quintet of Sims, Hubler, Braly, Jones, and Thomas will have to play top-notch ball at all times to keep their positions. Quentin Sims, one of the best guards in Gaucho history, will have his hands full trying to hold down Carl Knowles, Fox set-shot expert.

In eight previous encounters, Santa Barbara has yet to emerge on the long end of the score against

$10 STUDENT BODY FEE VOTED DOWN

By a narrow margin of 28 votes, a proposal to raise Student Body membership dues from $7.50 to $10 was defeated in two-day balloting on both campuses this week.

Final tabulations Wednesday night showed a vote of 593 favoring the increased dues, and 338 against. The majority, though large, was 28 short of the 621 votes needed to constitute a two-thirds majority.

Voting on the issue, an amendment to the Student Body constitution, began on Tuesday and was continued Wednesday when the necessary 75 per cent of students had not cast a ballot.

Off-Set Price Rises

The proposed boost, which would have been effective next September, was designated to offset the greatly increased cost of equipment and services paid for by Associated Students funds. The $7.50 figure was established in 1938.

Election officials said they believed opposition to the measure represented a general protest against inflation, and also blamed the lack of time for adequately acquainting Gaucho students with the need for an expanded budget.

The election was scheduled at the earliest possible date, however, so that, if the amendment had carried, the new dues could be incorporated in the 1948 catalog.

The election committee handling the polls and tabulation of ballots was headed by Al Rasmussen, vice-president of the Student Council. Committee members included George Geib, Dan Julian, Marilyn Melvin, Jan Fitts and Robert Goulet.

All-Student Christmas Formal Due Dec. 12

The annual Christmas Formal, the first open formal dance of the school year, will be held at the Montecito Country Club on Friday, December 12, from nine o'clock till one, according to Lois Vedder, chairman of the Social Committee.

Arrangements have been made to have the Stardusters provide the music, while the Junior Class will help with refreshments. Attire will be semi-formal for the benefit of those who cannot obtain a tux. However, a tux is also acceptable.

The special event of the dance will be a waltz contest to be judged

Handbook Will Go on Sale Next Monday, It Says Here

Handbook sales will begin—at last!—on Monday, December 8, according to Betty Maher, editor. The price per copy has been raised to thirty-five cents due to the increased cost in printing.

The handbook, twice the size of last year's, contains the names, home and local addresses, and telephone numbers of all students and faculty members. Gaucho athletic records, yells, and songs and the names of all student body, sorority, fraternity, and honorary organization officers are included in the 20th Century, and Head Coach Willie Wilton summed up the situation pretty well when he said, "I hate to open against such a smart team."

The game should be a good one, as the Fox team always puts on a good show. With the Gaucho quintet out to notch their first win over the studio five, and the Lubin men trying to make it six straight for the season, plenty of good basketball should result.

'Ah Wilderness!' O'Neill Comedy, Opens Tonight

The B.M.O.C. of 1906, from the dashing, hell-raising collegian to the pseudo-sophisticated intellectual, is spotlighted in "Ah, Wilderness!", which will be presented in the Riviera auditorium tonight and Saturday night at 8:30 p.m. The Eugene O'Neill comedy is the second Speech Department production of the year.

Part of the balanced dramatics program planned by the department, "Ah, Wilderness!" is a distinct contrast to "Joan of Lorraine" which so successfully opened the college drama season. This warm, delightful comedy deals with the situations which arise when young Richard Miller, infatuated with metaphysical speculation, questions his father's melo-wed, homespun philosophy. Richard's first surrender to the allures of adult recreation disillusioned him, and at the final curtain peace again settles on the Miller household.

O'Neill Switch

A gentle story of American home life peopled with recognizable native characters, the play is quite foreign in content and spirit to anything the usually sombre O'Neill had contributed to the theatre.

Directed by Mr. Theodore Hatlen and assistant manager Dan Bellows, the cast includes Walter Beaver, Wesley Tackett, Dean Arnold, Del Jeanne Palmer, John Erickson, Locke Haight, Jean Meadows, Gerry Larson, Audrey Scholl, Paul Kliss, Noni Williams and Fred Wade.

Student tickets, which may be purchased at the Graduate Manager's office or at the door, are 25 cents with student body cards.

DO YOU PLAN TO CHANGE YOUR MAJOR?

Students contemplating a change in their major must petition to do so before December 15, 1947, if they wish to receive an evaluation before the opening of the Spring semester. Miss Walker is available in the Registrar's office for conference relative to questions concerning the change of major.

by the Renee Gunsett Dance studio. A prize will be offered to the winners.

Admission is sixty cents per couple plus student body card.

'Calypso,' New Humor Magazine Replacing 'Las Bolas,' Due Soon

"CALypso," the new campus publication replacing "Las Bolas," last year's humor magazine, promises to be one of the outstanding college humor mags in the country.

Bid for Honors

Bidding for All-American honors, in competition with such nationally known publications as the Harvard "Lampoon" and the Stanford "Chapparal," the magazine will be of professional calibre. It will feature cartoons and spot drawings by such well-known campus artists as Dick Sears, Frank Wilson, James Henry, Al Anderson, and Bob Gumpertz.

The first edition of "CALypso," scheduled to appear four times a year, will be on the stands just before the Christmas holidays at 25 cents a copy.

Exam for Entry at UC Engineering College Due Tomorrow

All students desiring to take the engineering examination for entrance to the Colleges of Engineering at the University of California, should report to North Hall 100 on the Santa Barbara campus on Saturday, December 6. Students wishing to take this test may do so upon payment of the $5.00 fee.

Those who have not made an application to the College of Engineering at the University of California at Los Angeles or at Berkeley should notify the Registrar at Santa Barbara College by Thursday evening, December 4, of their intentions to take this examination.

BUDGET BUSTERS TO GIVE XMAS PARTY

The Budget Buster's annual Christmas party will be held this year at the San Marcos Trout Club on Friday, December 12.

SPRING RE-ADMISSION

Students now enrolled in school who wish to register for the spring semester must sign re-admission blanks at the Office of the Registrar as soon as possible. These blanks must be turned in by January 15, 1948, for the student to be eligible for re-admission to the spring semester.

The forms may be turned in only when the Registrar's office is open, between the hours of 8:00 to 11:45 a.m., and from 1:00 to 4:45 p.m. daily. The office is also open Saturday mornings from 9:00 to 12:00.

AWS 'Hen Party' Postponed

The AWS Hen Party Assembly scheduled for next Tuesday night, December 9, has been postponed. It was announced today. This action has been necessary due to circumstances beyond control, according to the AWS Board. The new date for the assembly is Jan-

VETERANS' CORNER

Veterans! If you haven't received your subsistence allowance yet this month, contact Mr. James Taylor, representative of the Los Angeles Veterans' Office, who will be at the office of the campus coordinator on Wednesday, December 10.

Dr. C. D. Woodhouse, coordinator of veterans' affairs for Santa Barbara College, urges all veterans having difficulties of any type in regards to their subsistence allowance to contact Mr. Taylor on this date, as his sole purpose of visiting the campus is to help veterans on this matter. Students who have previously put in claims but still have not heard from the Veterans' Administration are also urged to contact Mr. Taylor.

Coordinators of Veterans' Affairs of the University of California will meet December 11 at UCLA to solve bottlenecks in the purchase of books and supplies by veteran students, according to Dr. Woodhouse.

Any student veterans who have been purchasing books or supplies outside of the college bookstore are reminded that items purchased must be required by the course taken, and a sales receipt must be obtained from the store in order to get a refund. In any case, sales tax must be paid by the veteran. However, students wishing to be on the safe side should contact the coordinator of veterans affairs before making purchases outside of the college bookstore.

Vets Under Public Law 16
Mr. Kenneth Todd of the local veterans office will be at the campus coordinator's office every Wednesday to solve any problems of veterans attending college under Public Law 16.

PLATTAH CHATTAH

You people who used to listen to the "Hit Parade" and haven't tuned in for some time are in for a rude awakening the next time you catch it. Remember when the program boasted the top singers of the day, the smoothest melodies and the silver strings of Mark Warnow's orchestra? Remember? The present program features Alex Stordahl's orchestra (?), a group that delights in loads of brassy dissonance and trumpet flights of fantasy.

Frankie Sinatra is the gent who M.C.'s the show and besides singing songs entirely out of his reach, "Feudin' and Fightin'" for instance, he also tosses in little ad libs a la Crosby. Since he lacks Der Bingle's touch, they just don't click. Once in a while Frankie Boy will sing a song like "You Do," then he's tops! The new "Hit Parade" is a "Miss Parade" compared to the top-notch show of yesteryear!

READIN' MATTAH

Bill Mauldin, whose wartime cartoons turned a not-too-comfortable spotlight upon the brass hats and big-wigs of the army, now does an about-face, and points his acid-tipped brush at the post-war world. A civilian now, Mauldin takes his famous characters, Willie and Joe, out of the army and into this troubled post-war world.

In his latest book, "Back Home," he attacks politicians, congressmen, communists, labor unions, the American Legion, and anything else the least controversial. Willie and Joe, new civilians, meet real-estate shysters, used-car gangsters, and even the KKK. If you have a gripe against anything, large or small, odds are you find it in "Back Home."

Exhibit to Mark 400th Anniversary of 'Don Quixote' Author

The 400th anniversary of the birth of Cervantes, great Spanish literary genius will be commemorated at Santa Barbara College next week by the display of a large collection of books, stamps and clippings belonging to Senor Andres Ramon, professor of Spanish. The exhibit will be on display in the Art Department foyer through Friday.

UCSBC is not alone in thus honoring the author of Don Quixote. Harvard, Columbia, and many other schools across the country are holding similar exhibits. Ours may stand out from the others, however, due to the clever arrangement of material which Senor Ramon has planned.

Senor Ramon is accenting new editions of Cervantes' work rather than ancient ones, because he feels that they, in themselves, best illustrate the importance which Cervantes still holds in world literature.

Council Notes

In regular meeting last Tuesday night, the Student Council:

Heard Kay Updegraff, delegate to the Western College Congress on international affairs, at Stanford, describe the work of the conference and outline resolutions adopted.

Took a firm and valiant stand against inflation by beating down a proposed boost in the price of the long-awaited handbook from 50 cents, double last year's price. The handbook will sell, win or lose, for 35 cents.

Grudgingly okayed "CALypso" as the new name for the college humor magazine. Chief objections raised were "Well, what does it mean?" and "Smacks too much of Cal, that's whut."

Toyed with No. 1 dream of the future, a Student Union. The S.U. fund now contains $10,000; the question is, should we raise the rest of the money now, when the actual construction of a Student Union—and of the new campus—is scarcely more than a gleam in the local building contractors' eye? Council's tentative plan is to set up a temporary committee to attempt to procure an imaginary design for a Student Union so the people will begin to know that we are starting to commence action.

Phrateres to Assist In Toy Collection At 'Doll House'

"A doll or toy for every girl and boy on Christmas morning" is the aim of Xmas, Inc., which will maintain a "Doll House" at State and Figueroa streets, beginning next Monday, for the collection of gifts.

Members of Phrateres will serve as hostesses at the Doll House. Xmas, Inc., was begun in 1934 by Gordon Hittenmark, member of the staff at Station KIST. The group has reached nationwide scope, and last year collected 150,000 gifts for needy children.

Only new dolls and toys can be accepted, Mr. Hittenmark emphasized, because many gifts go to hospitalized children and old or used articles may carry germs. The presents collected are wrapped in Christmas wrappings and a card is enclosed reading "A gift from the Doll House and the radio audience."

Delta Zets Give Annual Fashion Show at El Paseo

A "Holiday Revue of Fashions" was presented last night at El Paseo by Delta Zeta Delta, with active and alumni members of the sorority modeling the latest clothing from Jack Rose. The fashion show-dinner dance is an annual event, according to President Ardis Adler.

Models promenaded down a raised run-way through the inner patio, while soft music played. Favors were furnished by Jack Rose, and Victor donated flowers.

Active sorority women modeling were Bonnie Stratton, Sally Herbert, Betty Lou Landes, Claylain Wilson, Barbara Murphy, Barbara Crockett, Marcia McAuley, Nelda Darrow, Billie Kneeland, and Miss Adler.

In charge of tickets for the affair was Beverly Miller, with publicity arrangements handled by Billie Kneeland, Junemarie Davidson, and the pledge class. Mrs. Albert Rasmussen, president of the alumni chapter in town, arranged seating.

Gaucha Poetry to Be Published in College Anthology

Poems written by three Santa Barbara College students have been accepted for publication in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry, it was announced this week.

Selected from thousands of poems submitted were "Triumphal," by Albert Wyman Neely; "Vagabond I" by Donald L. Wilson; and "The Party" by Laura Lyman Boutilier. The anthology is a compilation of poetry written by college men and women in every state in the Union.

Gauchos On Parade

By Gloria Dealey

ELIZABETH MAHER . . . better known as "Betty" around the campus . . . is noted for her cute grin and hazel eyes as well as her multifold activities . . . which have included: compiling this year's handbook (due next week) . . . being a member of Delta Zeta Delta . . . Alpha Phi Gamma . . . Key and Scroll . . . keeping the records for Cal Club . . . editing El Gaucha (first as associate, then as assistant editor) . . . and working at I. Magnins.

More than anything else she likes people . . . feels awfully lonely when not around them.

Prefers: Ed Morris . . . "Star Dust" . . . water skiing . . . swimming . . . waltzing . . . vanilla ice cream . . . the day after a big rain, because California is most beautiful then.

Among Betty's ambitions are graduating and getting married . . . The latter will be fulfilled first when she marries the chairman of our Rally Committee, Ed Morris . . . on December twenty-seventh . . . at the Old Mission . . . Preparations for the wedding include buying a house here, which in itself deserves some congratulations.

Dan's Been Busy

Cupid has been quite active lately—latest to announce an engagement was Bob Morris, Sig Alph pledge, to Barbara Jobbins. Delta Zetes received chocolates last week from pledge Ginny Wilson, who says she'll be married to Vernon Keil in March. Phi Kaps had bon bons recently too—Shirley Broad has said "yes" to Roy Campbell. And nothing but surprised were the Chi Delt Monday night when Nora Skells and Carden Young broke the news of their engagement. Margaret Angevine and Victor Muzny are newly betrothed also, and Mary Lea Cornwall is wearing an all-important ring given her by John McLean. Many congrats, all!

Kappa Sig Bill Starr no longer wears his fraternity pin—DZD Claylain Wilson is the proud possessor. Friends of Billye Lemmer's were dumbfounded Monday afternoon to learn that since October 25th, Billye has been Mrs. Chet Walker. You say you didn't think women could keep a secret? . . . Delta Sigs were glad to learn recently that their alum Lynn Edgerton is engaged to Dave Whitley of Santa Barbara. And so love continues to make the world go 'round . . .

Up North

The Top of the Mark saw a gay gang of Gauchos Friday night—among the crowd were Al and Ruthe Rasmussen, Merle Waugh-Jeanne Cassidy, Jim Schilt-Helen Farry, and Don Meyer, Ron Thompson, Stu MacPherson with gals from San Francisco. Dorothy Dash also went up north recently to attend the very exciting Cal-Stanford game. And speaking of Stanford, Kay Updegraff and Bob West report a terrific time had at the Western College Conference held on the Farm last week. You'll hear more about their trip in a couple of weeks, says Kay.

Nani Leilani sponsored a fine barbecue out at Tucker's Grove the other day. Seen were Elaine Strobel-Bugs Battelle, Iris Moore-Stan Dunn, Bunny Brungard-Kenny Bonille, and Annette and Frank Woodill. Old Tawning after the Delta Sig All-Greek pledge party Monday night were Lois Culverwell-Hugh Gadsby, Miriam Jane-way-Bob Lonsdale, Ted Meter, Lois Foote-Ed Hamolby, and Carol Kidd.

Bye now . . . see you around.

With Phil Jacks

Tonight at 8:00, the 1947-48 edition of the Santa Barbara Basketball team will make its debut against the nationally known Twentieth Century Fox team. From all reports, the Gauchos cagemen are in for one of their best seasons, so tonight should bring forth quite a ball game.

Coast Finale

The USC Trojans and the Notre Dame Fighting Irish bring down the curtain on "big-time" regular season play tomorrow afternoon in Los Angeles. At this writing the South Benders are strongly established as 13 point favorites, and at first glance this is not out of line.

The Irish expect to win this one. Everyone else except the Trojans and Notre Dame Coach Frank Leahy expects the Irish to win. We'll also throw this out. It may mean something, but I haven't been able to figure out just what.

The Trojans are fired up for this game, while Notre Dame figures it to be just another ball game. This we'll keep, because it does mean something. Overconfidence has defeated better teams than Notre Dame, and it could again.

I could ramble on like this for some time, but I think that I will just crawl out on my shaky limb and pick the Troy's by a 13-7 score.

All-Americans

About this time of the year everybody and his uncle comes up with the All-American team. By the time this paper comes out, there probably will have been at least ten All-American lists published, very few of them agreeing on all positions.

How is this for a squad? Cleary of USC and Poole of Mississippi at ends; Ferraro of USC and Connor of Notre Dame at tackles; Fischer of Notre Dame and Steffy of Army at guards; Scott of Navy at center; and backs Lujack of Notre Dame, Walker of SMU, Chappius of Michigan, and Layne of Texas.

Bowl Scramble

You can't get tickets to the Rose Bowl? That's all right, Mac, nobody else can either. I'll tell you what you can do, though. Find yourself a big vacant lot, throw a fence around it, call it the Cereal Bowl, and sell tickets. Everyone is doing it these days.

GAUCHO PUGILISTS OPEN SCHEDULE

The Gauchos Varsity Boxing team, coached by "Doc" Keliher, opens its schedule with Cal Poly December 10 in the Santa Barbara Armory. The tentative schedule includes a trip to Pocatello, Idaho, where the Gauchos meet Idaho State College February 2, a bout with UCLA February 21 at Los Angeles, and a match with University of California here February 28.

Members of last year's boxing squad are working out daily in the gym from 3 p.m. on. Returning Gauchos Bill Cormier and Sam Cathcart hold 2C2A championships.

Among those turning out for the team are Roy Steele, Bill French, Jimmy Watt, Frank Walker, Bill Votaw, Carlyle Logan, Harry Kennison, Walter Field, Robert Kretchmer, Jack Moore, Fred Martinez, and Harold Marcum.

- The tentative schedule: December 4—All-Campus boxing tourney. Dec.—Cal Poly (here). Dec. 16 or 18—Open date. Feb. 2—Idaho State College, there. Feb. 10—SFU, UC, Cal Aggies, or Stanford. Feb. 13—San Jose (there). Feb. 16—Cal Poly (there). Feb. 21—UCLA (there). Feb. 24—Open date for home match. Feb. 28—UC (here). March 5 and 6—CCAA Conference bouts at San Jose. Mar. 20—San Jose State (here).

INTRAMURAL GRID PLAYOFF NEARS

With two races almost settled, and one in a deadlock, the three divisions of the intramural league are pointing toward the title playoff, at the present time scheduled for Thursday, December 11. The Santa Barbarians in the Club division, and the Newman Club in the Hoff division, seem to be in, while Sigma Phi Epsilon and Sigma Alpha continue to fight it out for the Fraternity crown.

J V BASKETBALL

All Gauchos interested in Junior Varsity Basketball report to Walt Condley in the men's athletic department office immediately.

The way things are going now, it won't be too far in the future when teams will include a bowl game on their schedules. It might run something like this:

Running Branch Culch—January 1, annual bowl game with opponent to be named before start of season.

"No," said the centipede, crossing her legs, "a hundred times no."

JV Ends Season in Loss to El Camino

The valiant but outmanned Gauchos JV squad fell before the onslaught of the El Camino JC Warriors at Inglewood Thanksgiving Day before a Turkey Day crowd of some 1000 fans. Fully half the rooters were Gauchos followers.

The El Camino boys, also playing their first season, scored often, but not easily, as they ran up a 40 to 0 decision.

Warrior scoring came in all periods, with several of the tallies set up by a passing attack the Blue and Greys weren't supposed to have.

Hit by Injuries

The JV's were hit hard by injuries, but unlike the varsity game, this one was marked by friendliness and cooperation. Time and again the El Caminites cheered for a downed Gauchos, while the men on the field helped up several fallen JV's.

Glen Conradi played a terrific game at fullback, and is slated to move up to the varsity next year. Allan MacAdam, "Knobby" Godfrey, and Ken Kellogg were sharp, while Padilla, playing but his fourth game of football, drew the eye of El Camino coach Amby Schindler. Senior Del Holloway left the Gauchos gridiron with a bang, threatening to break loose at any moment.

This game closed the JV's season with but one tie from six games, but as this was the first JV team in Gauchos history, the record wasn't too bad. The JV's, like Brooklyn, must "wait'll next year."

NOTICE

For the benefit of the 700 Gauchos who were at the game, it was not Santa Barbara College who had the three ineligible Aztecs barred. Fresno State brought this up before their game, and were ignored. However a conference vote, just before this last game, upheld the Fresno objection. This is not what the Balboa PA announcer said.
