Westerners, emphasized particularly the more important aspects of Soviet-American relations. Among the principal speakers were John R. Dunn, former major general commanding the U.S. Military Mission to Moscow, and Dr. Harold J. Fisher, chairman of the Hoover Library at Stanford. Following keynote addresses, the conference was divided into working sections of 15 delegates. Bob West was a member of the section studying European Economic Recovery, or the Marshall Plan, as it is better known.

On the third and final day of the conference, there was a general assembly for hearing and discussing the findings of the various working sections. The recommendations they discussed, among other things, were presented to the constituent student units of the National Interfraternity Council for ratification. Date of the SBC election is set for Tuesday, Dec. 16, by which time the Tate-Amer­rican series.

During the week a number of the Westerners have been tabulating material to be presented to the American delegation of the University of California, to the U.S. Congress at Washington, Inc., and to the students from the Western Colleges. The students will be based on the recommendations they discussed, among other things, the need for an expanded budget. The election was scheduled at the last minute. It was obvious that the amendment had to be voted on the spot, and that it would be incorporated in the 1947 catalog. It was voted on by the roll, and the roll was found to be positive. The local group did not expect the amendment to pass this year, but it did. It was voted on the spot.

The presentation of the findings of the study of the Marshall Plan will be on April 23, 24 and 25.

Friendship Drive Brings in $100

Two on-campus drives to collect funds for the benefit of the Golden Gaucho Association. The society has netted $100,000. This is considerably short of the $500 goal.

The money will be sent either to the chairman of the drive, or to the Executive Secretary of the Golden Gaucho Association.

VETERANS' CORNER

VETERANS! If you haven't received your subsistence allowance this month, contact Mr. James Taylor, representative of the Los Angeles Veterans Office, who will be at the office of the campus coordinator on Wednesday, December 9th.

Dr. C. W. Woodhouse, coordinator of affairs for Santa Barbara College, urges all veterans having difficulties of any type to refer to their subsistence allowance to contact Mr. Taylor on this date, as his sole purpose of visiting the campus is to help veterans on this matter. Students who have previously visited in claims but still have not been heard from the Administration are urged to contact Mr. Taylor.

Exhibit to Mark 400th Anniversary of Don Quixote's Author

The 400th anniversary of the birth of Cervantes, great Spanish literary work will be commemorated at Santa Barbara College next week by the display of a large collection of books, stamps, and clippings belonging to Senor Andres Ramon, professor of Spanish. The exhibit will be on display in the Art Department foyer through Friday.

The handbook will sell, win or lose, the long-awaited handbook from UCSBC is not alone in thus honoring the college of Don Quixote. Harvard, Columbia, and many other schools across the country are holding similar exhibits. One may stand out from the others, however, due to the clever arrangement of material which Senor Ramon has planned.

Some books which are scattered new editions of Cervantes' work rather than ancient ones, because he feels that they, in themselves, best illustrate the importance which Cervantes still holds in world literature.

Photography

The present program features Alex Callow's photostudio (7), a group that delights in loads of heavy discount and trumpet flights of fancy.

Frankie Sinatra is the gent who makes M.C.'s the show and besides singing songs entirely out of his reach "Fools" (bottom) for instance, he also tosses in little ad spots. Since he lacks Der Bimbo's touch, they just don't click. Once in a while Frankie will sing a song like "You Do," then he's tops! The new "Hit Parade" is a "Miss Parade" compared to the top-notch show of yesterday.

READIN' MATTAT

Bill Mandlik, whose wartime cartooning turned a not-too-comfortable spotlight upon the brakes hat and big gun, plan's a guy, does an about-face, and points his well-aimed brush at the post-war world. A civilian now, Mandlik is in his famous characters, Willie and Joe, out of the army and into the finished post-war world. In his latest book, "Back Home," he attacks politicians, communists, labor unions, the American Legion, and everything else the least controversial. Willie and Joe, new civilians, meet real-estate tycoons, news-casters, and even the KKK. If you have a gripe against anything, large or small, odds are you find it in "Back Home."

Phratesses to Assist In Toy Collection At 'Doll House'

A "doll or toy for every girl and boy on Christmas morning" is the aim of Xmas, Inc., which will maintain a "Doll House" at State and Figueroa streets, beginning next Monday, for the collection of gifts.

Members of Phratesses will serve as hostesses at the Doll House. Xmas, Inc., was begun in 1944 by Gordon Hinsenbaum, a member of the staff at Station KIST. The group has reached nationwide scope, and last year collected 125,000 gifts for needy children.

Only new dolls and toys can be accepted, Mr. Hinsenbaum emphasized, because many gifts go to hospitalized children and old or used articles may carry germs. The presents collected and wrapped in Christmas wrappings and a card is enclosed reading "A gift from the Doll House and the radio audience."

DELTA ZETAS GIVE ANNUAL FASHION SHOW AT EL PASO

A "Holiday Revue of Fashions" was presented last night at El Paso by Delta Zeta Delta, with active and alumni members of the sorority modeling the latest clothing and fashions of Dick Rose. The fashion show-dinner dance is an annual event, according to President Ar- dim Adler.

Models paraded down a raised runway through the inner patio, while soft music played. Favors were fashioned by Jack Rose, and Victor donated flowers.

Active sorority women modeling were Bonnie Stratton, Sally Her- bert, Betty Lee Lander, Gaylone Wilson, Barbara Murphy, Barbara Cook, Marcia McIver, Nelda Darrow, Billie Kuerzen, and Miss Adler.

In charge of the affair was the ever-ery Miller, with publicity arrangements handled by Billie Kuykendall, Jeramie Davi- dent, and the pledge class. Mrs. At- bert Raeumson, president of the alum chapter in town, arranged seating.

GAUCHO PUGILISTS OPEN SCHEDULE

The Gauchos Varsity Boxing team, coached by "Doc" Keliher, opens its schedule with Cal Poly December 10 in the Santa Barbara Armory. The tentative schedule includes a trip to Pocatello, Idaho, where the Gauchos meet Idaho State College February 2, a bout with UCLA February 21 at Los Angeles, and a match with University of California here February 28.

All-Americans

Almost everyone of the year everybody and his uncle comes up with the All-Americans. By the time this paper hits the stands there probably will have been at least two All-Americans hit published, very few of them agreeing on all positions. How is this for a squad? Cleary of USC and Poole of Mississippi at ends; Frenes of USC and Center of Notre Dame at tackles; Fischer of Notre Dame at guards; Scott of Navy at center; and leads in Jack of Notre Dame, Walker of SMU, Chaplin of Michigan, and Lakey of Texas.

GV Ends Season in Loss to El Camino

The valiant but outmanned Gaucho JV squad fell before the onslaught of the El Camino JC War­riors atigliedwood Thanksgiving Day after a Turkey Day crowd of some 1000 fans. Fully half the usual rooters were Gaucho followers. The El Camino boys, also playing their first season, scored eight, but not easily, as they ran up a 40-0 decision. Warrior scoring came in all games, with several of the tallies set up by a passing attack the Blue and Gray weren't supposed to have.

Hit by Injuries

The JV's were hit hard by in­juries, but unlike the varsity game, this one was marked by friendship and cooperation. Time and again the El Caminites cheered for a downed Gaucho, while the men on the field helped up several fallen JV's.

Gene Conradi played a terrific game at fullback, and is slated to move up to the varsity next year. Allan MacAdam, "Knobby" Godfrey, and Ken Kolleg were sharp, while Padilla, playing but his fourth game of football, drew the eye of El Caminites coach Andy Schindler. Senior Del Holloway left the Gaacho gridiron with a bang, threatening to break loose at any moment.

This game closed the JV's sea­son with but one tie from six games, but as this was the first JV team in Gaacho history, the record wasn't too bad. The JV's, like the flute of the late Brooklyn, must "wait till next year."

INTRAMURAL GRID PLAYOFF NEARS

With two races almost settled, and one in a deadlock, the three divisions of the intramural league are pointing toward the title play­off, at the present time scheduled for Thursday, December 11. The tentative schedule:

The way things are going now, we're not too far in the future when teams will include a bowl game on their schedules. It might even seem something like this:

Running Back Colour—January 1, annual bowl game with opponent to be named before start of season.

"No", said the centipede, crossing her legs, "a hundred times no."
