Katz Portrays "Limey"

Easily remembered and well-known by the Barbareños is Cecil Katz, who played Mrs. Leadbetter in "Merely Mary Ann," produced in 1935 at Santa Barbara High school. Cecil portrays well the "Limey" character.

France Warns Britain

From Paris headquarters has spread the report that all agreements which France has made with Britain to act collectively against Italy to prevent further aggression in Africa would be void in the event that Britain is intending to or attempts to handle the situation alone. France is worried considerably over what may arise in case she is forced to enter collective action against Italy. She fears that

Raymond Moley

NOTED EDUCATOR SPEAKS BEFORE STATE STUDENTS

Raymond Moley, editor of "Today," prominent Columbia university professor and former member of the Roosevelt administration's "Brain Trust," spoke before the students of Santa Barbara State college last Tuesday morning in the auditorium on the topic, "Politics Goes to School."

In his brief talk, Mr. Moley commented on the growth of the Gaucho campus. "I am immensely impressed by the progress of Santa Barbara State college; it doesn't appear the same as when I first knew it," he said.

Further in his speech, Moley touched on the present administration and defended the "Brain Trust" of which he was a member four years ago in Washington.

"Educators are of a distinct and privileged class and carry an immense responsibility," he continued touching a new vein. The essential lesson that he had learned, he concluded, from his education is a sense of humility in the presence of the vast amount of knowledge that is yet to be learned. We know comparatively little.

With Ida Pagliotti as chairman of beach activities and Bob Kindred as co-chairman of campus plans, the day will officially begin at 1:30 p.m. with an assembly for the visitors in the auditorium. President Clarence L. Phelps and student prexy Garlyn Basham will welcome the guests. Following the welcome, Norman Thompson, soloist, will open the program. A violin solo by Brad Tozier, vocal selections by Louis Trigueiro and two numbers by the Women's Glee club will complete the entertainment. At 2:15, the guests will be conducted on a tour of the campus, through the quad, home economics building, chemistry and physiology laboratories, art and industrial education departments, printing and newspaper shops, integrated activity exhibits and the Lincoln Library. Transportation has been arranged for those needing a ride to the beach, to which the guests immediately after will go on the tour.

Games at Beach

Starting at two p.m., a free game period will take place at West Beach during which time baseball, volleyball and badminton will be played. Following these games, a swimming meet will begin, featuring a long distance swim from the breakwater to the beach. Shorter swims will also take place, under the direction of Norman Coy, swimming manager. At 2:30, the traditional tug-of-war will be held between the sophomore and freshman classes. Women will also compete in a similar event, a feminine tug. The next event scheduled will be the faculty sack race, to be followed by relays from 4:30-5:30 and will take place alternately, men's and women's. A free barbecue will be served from 5:30 until 7:30 on Leadbetter hill to all students. A bonfire rally will close Estudiantina festivities. As a climax for the day, the traditional Block "S" dance will be held the same evening at Rockwood.

Committee Chairmen

Committee heads for the day are Frank Hayman, men's sports; Dot Taylor, women's sports; Mary Bell, food; Yale Lorden, finance; Petie McKinney, publicity; Buppy Moore, bonfire entertainment; Allen Neil, assembly program; and Danny D'Alfonso, bonfire.

Organizations in charge of the supper are Sigma Alpha Kappa, Alpha Theta Chi, Gamma Delta Chi, Beta Sigma Chi and the freshman class.

The junior class, College "Y," Alpha Phi Omega and Tau Gamma Sigma will act as guides for the campus tour, with Ellen Roe acting as hostess in the home economics building.

Libby Discusses War Prevention at Meet

"Can the United States keep out of war" is the title of a talk which will be given by Dr. E. H. Libby from Washington, D.C., executive secretary of the National Council for the Prevention of War, when he speaks Friday evening, April 17, in the Clerbois studios at 22 East Mitchellorena street, at 8:00 p.m.

Dr. Libby is being brought to Santa Barbara by the local chapter of the Women's International League for Peace. The meeting is open to the public and State college students are invited to attend.

Estudiantina Reminds One of Gala Festivities Spanish Background of Tradition and Custom Cloak Name

By "BOB" MOORE

"Estudiantina," not only does this word remind us of a time set aside for the enjoyment of festivities, the making of new friends and a day for play, but it also takes us back to the days when schools and universities were first coming into existence in Spain.

It recalls many traditions and customs which were in use among the students at that time and although many of them may seem comical to us at the present, when we compare our customs with theirs we do not find much difference between them.

Transportation Poor

Before the days of good roads or modern means of transportation were introduced into Spain, students desiring to go to college had to either walk or ride on mules to arrive at their destination. If they were fortunate enough to be born of wealthy parents they would have their own mule to ride and if they were born poor they either had to walk or hail a ride from some passing farmer who was driving his cart to market.

While on their way they would spend their nights sleeping in any hayloft they could find, and helping themselves to chickens, fruits and whatever other edibles they found on the way. This is not much different from our own students today who either hitch-hike their way to school or drive up in an old model T ford, when one thinks about it.

The journey itself lasted a month or more and was made gay with the excitement produced by passing through the different cities, listening to the soft music of guitars and such experiences as the novel, "Gil Blas," contains.

Wealthy students were generally accompanied by a student of lesser means who acted as a servant and whose duties consisted of washing dishes, cooking the meals and mending his master's clothes. He also served his master in this capacity at the university. In return for his services he received his lodging, food, and his master's cast off clothing. He also received the same opportunity for education as his master since he would attend class with him and often his master desiring to rest from the cares of the world (a cut in our language) would send him to take his place in the class.

Wooden Spoon

The emblem of these traveling students was a large wooden spoon which they wore in their hat. This signified that the student obtained his food wherever he could find it and in general he was welcome wherever he happened to stop.

Seniors Gather in Ebbets Hall for April Meet

Quartet Entertains as Pond, Abraham and Committee Heads Report

Members of the senior class met for their monthly dinner on Tuesday night at 6:30 p. m. in Ebbets Hall for the purpose of receiving final instructions for graduation and for applications for teaching positions and to hear reports of class committee chairmen on the events for the next two months. Entertainment for the meeting was furnished by the State college male quartet, directed by Clifford Leedy, and composed of Ted Lee, Bud Lambourne, Bill Crow, and Bill Poole.

Allen Neil, head of the Junior-Senior prom group announced that the date of that event was definitely set as May 8, and would be held at the Montecito Country club. Only juniors and seniors and their guests will be allowed to attend. "Truth conquers" was accepted as the class motto upon its presentation by Bud Lambourne, chairman of the motto group.

A resolution was passed to be read to the student body council to the effect that the senior class was unanimously in favor of the allotment of student body funds for assembly use. Other business of the gathering included the donation of funds to support the Estudiantina, and discussion of the last Senior meeting for the second week in May. Seniors were also urged to order announcements as soon as possible, as samples are now on display in the students' store and campus bulletin boards.

Speakers on the program included Miss Elsie M. Pond, head of the junior high department who gave numerous pointers to the class on the art of applying for positions, and Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, registrar and sponsor, who emphasized the need for neat appearance, for proper technique in an interview, and completion of all necessary information in the registrar's office.

Cantor Judges Disqualify Boy Winner of 'World Peace' Essay

Lloyd Lewis Will Not Receive Scholarship Award; Plagiarized Material From Writing of Dr. Frank Kingdon

Lloyd Lewis, eighteen year old high school student of Plattsburg, Missouri, and announced winner of the country wide Eddie Cantor essay contest on, "How Can America Stay Out of War," has been disqualified for plagiarism according to a statement from the judges of the contest.

In this case there will be one less nation to come to her assistance in time of German aggression. Premier Albert Sarraut has declared that France may be forced to drop from the League of Nations in the event that her "faith in collective security" is broken.

Knox Leads Over Borah

In the Republican presidential preferment vote in the state of Illinois, Col. Frank Knox, Chicago publisher piled up an early lead of about 77,000 votes in the first contest with Senator William E. Borah the opposing aspirant for presidential nomination.

From the Democratic primaries for presidential preference in the same state President Roosevelt's votes went past the million mark with more than a third of the precincts still to report.

Misfortune Strikes Archaeologists

While opening the tomb of a son of Pharaoh, who lived more than 5,700 years ago, archaeologists working about the great pyramids in Egypt ran into what may be possibilities of the carrying out of a threatened curse. Professor Sellem Hassan, while working with his chief assistant, suddenly found him stabbed. Immediately following such a hot wind arose that it was necessary to suspend all work. Professor Hassan working in this region has just made his second important discovery within a month.

Lloyd readily admitted to copying some of his material from an article written by Dr. Frank Kingdon on the same subject and when asked about the material said, "I took the best material I could find, but I didn't think it was wrong. I wanted the $5,000 and I wanted to go to college."

In view of this fact, the judges will select a new winner from among thirteen other essays which reached the finals. They base their decision on the quality of "the most constructive, sincere and interesting letter, regardless of fancy writing and technical knowledge."

Through a trust fund created by Cantor, the winner will receive an adequate allowance for tuition and complete maintenance during the four year course of study at any college or university in the country. The fund will be administered by a large bank in New York city. The actor deposited $5,000 for this specific purpose immediately following his first announcement of the competition during his radio program Sunday, January 5.

The title was suggested by Newton D. Baker, former Secretary of War. Following the original statement of his plans, Cantor received telegrams of approval from Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, General John Pershing and Booth Tarkington.

Records Expose State College History

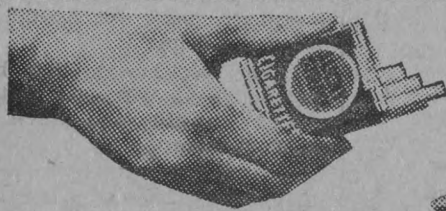

Looking around the campus, we now offered the students. see college history in the making! Improvements, modern facilities and excellent advantages present themselves.

The institution, founded in 1909 by legislative enactment, first held session in the Blake Memorial building. The first college edifices were completed and occupied in 1913. To the original manual arts and home economics courses were gradually added art, physical education and music. Then followed the addition of a general profession department, and in 1921, the name State Teachers College was adopted, and fields of study were opened leading to the B.A. degree. New courses, such as landscape gardening and integrated activities are

Novel ideas advanced to make State more livable and enjoyable show themselves in the new Gaucho club; the new roadway with an increase in parking facilities; re-furnishing of the Men's club; and beautification of the campus and quad gardens.

Pine Hall, the most recent improvement in buildings, has been added to the campus.

The election of a Homecoming Queen for the first time this year, the establishment of date bureau, and Estudiantina, holding open house for visiting high school seniors from surrounding vicinities, prove that State is really on the uptrend, and putting the college "on the map."

Dead Heads

Student interest in Associated Students' business was displayed in all its fervor two weeks ago, when the Amendments to the Constitution were put at the disposal of the students. Some 700 copies of the amendments were printed and placed in the El Gaucho circulation box, a total of some 680 more than were needed, apparently. Perhaps it is lack of interest, or it is possible, though not very probable, that they were not conspicuous enough in their position, but regardless, the fact that only something less than 10 per cent of the student body were interested enough in the affairs of the school to take the time to read the most important amendments ever to be presented to the student body, with the possible exception of the new Constitution of last year. If this is an indication of the actual interest of the students at large in the business of the student body, perhaps we had best scrap the whole thing and not try to carry on the intricate business of a student organization.

Those students who have put hours of study and work into organizing and writing these amendments are indeed discouraged at this apparent disinterest of the student body. Their difficult research and compilation of statistics are done as an extra-curricular activity; time which would undoubtedly be better placed in study and work of other types, if the only regard for their endeavors which they receive is indifference.

Let us, ALL, study these amendments, prepared by fellow students, and now seeking admission to a student government. Their value, on inspection, is immediately evident. If you don't agree, prepare your criticism, and present it in the student body meeting which will be held just before the voting on these additions to the Constitution.

Estudiantina

The day which we proposed some months ago has arrived, not through an effort of ours, but through the compounded interest of two faculty members and several interested students. These students and faculty have solicited the aid of the many campus organizations, including sororities and fraternities, to help in the building of a machine, which, if all details progress as planned, will present Santa Barbara State college's Estudiantina.

Bob Kindred, co-chairman, with the supervision and guidance of Raymond McKelvey, social science instructor, have laid a good foundation for the instigation of the senior visiting day on the Gaucho campus. Ida Pagliotti, co-chairman, with the cooperation of Miss Helen Sweet, science instructor, have done an unparalleled piece of work in carrying on the Dia De Playa spirit which was founded last year. Their plans for tomorrow make the success of the day a foregone conclusion.

Those who have organized and assisted in instigating the Estudiantina are to be highly commended and the appreciation that the student body feels unfathomable, and the good which will be derived from the activity of the day will be long lasting in its quality.

Pep Talk for Visiting Seniors Tells Unique Merits of State

Bolero

By BULL and ARROW

Just as we've always said, the best things in life are free (such as ESTUDIANTINA'S barbecue supper), or virtue is its own reward, or vice, worsa.

Spike those rumors! ALICE HILLGREN is really engaged to the TIGER KERRIGAN... a ring 'N' everything. WARREN ROSE and VERDELLA HEBERT took out a marriage license over the holidays...

Keep your eyes on the faculty sack race tomorrow... watch also the famous tug-o-war between FROSH and SOPHS... watch beef and brawn in the Dizzie-Izzie (Is he? I dunno, is he? But the point is, is he dizzy?) If he isn't, he probably soon will be...
TED HANLEY sends DIZ DENMAN flowers so that RONNIE FARR "Won't eat 'em, like he cud if they wuz chocluts" (the Easter gift arrived to the tune of "Farr, Farr away," sung by Ted on the piccolo).

Lost: One sailboat, and if you see TULLY WARREN rowing up the hill, leave him alone, he's all right, but syncopated sailboats don't agree with him, especially when they capsize in the middle of San Diego Bay...

Reading articles advertising "Man's Heart Skips Beat—due to Gas"... and all the time we thought that in the spring, it was due to Love...

KATY LARUE and ELLEN ROE dancing at Balboa's "Rendezvous" over the holidays... DOT WEBER and JIM BENTON homeward bounding or Heaven bounding (early mass) at six of the wee small Sunday morning... IDA PAGLIOTTI 'Studiantina head, looking stunning in white sharkskin and navy blue...

Fun frolic, and fast music... Estudiantina, barbecue supper and traditional Block "S" dance... Agreed? Okay, see everyone there...

Virtue is its own reward
Life is what you make it,
If you pass a diamond by—
Someone else will take it.
—SWIPED

Is ANN SEYMOUR really getting "Boulder?" or is it just the Colorado atmosphere?

"Spoonermism" is not what you think... it's the ability to get things mixed up, as in "it's kistomary to cuss the bride"... or why should a woman wear a "little-finger ring when she can wrap a man around it?"

School Offers Four Syllable Baccalaureate for Fifty a Year

High school seniors just can't go wrong in planning to attend S. B. State college. Isn't that right, fellow students? Would you consider leaving? Some smart guy answers: "Not after getting held up for 25 bucks in fees." All right. Where else would you go for that price? That'll hold him a while.

And look what you get for that fifty bucks a year! You can choose your course to get a four syllable baccalaureate degree, which means you are a bachelor of arts. You can do that in case you don't want to teach, or you can take one or two years and transfer your credit for advanced specialized work in a university.

After Credential

If you want a teaching credential, this is just the place. The college has received the highest rating in the American Association of Teachers' colleges this year and for several years back. And besides that, graduates are really getting jobs—103 graduates were placed in the school year '34-'35. One more fact in this paragraph might be overwhelming, but the enrollment is now more than 850, and this has been one of the few colleges to increase the figure during the depression.

—And Fun

If you're looking for fun and extra-curricular activities with your education, women comprise 54 percent of the total enroll—No, no, this was going to be about activities and stuff. So—there are eight honorary frats, including Journalism, Scouting, Home Economics, Art, Women's P. E., and Industrial Education. Also seven social sororities and three social fraternities. Other activities include full programs of dramatics and debate, intramural and intercollegiate athletics and journalistic work on a swell paper. And by all means, the colossal musical event, the nationally noted Annual All-College Symphony, under the direction of Henry Eichheim.

If this isn't enough, then bring your dough up with you next fall and stay awhile, and you'll find out a lot more.

Somewhere in this wide world there are perfect husbands and perfect wives, but they are not married.

Cool Calculations

By JACK DAVID

Maybe I'm wrong, but it seems to me that the Los Angeles Sports writers shied away from the onslaughts which the Gaucho nine administered to Oxy and the Whittier Poets during their recent trip to the Southland.

When the Occidental Tigers, 1935 conference champions, were thoroughly whipped in an unmerciful affair which the Gaucho heavy sluggers annexed 15-3, Bill Henry of the Times and a loyal Bengal alumnus, failed to comment on the game. It MIGHT have been interesting to a lot of people. Especially since it is the first time that a Santa Barbara State baseball team has ever beaten Oxy.

It's surprising the number of State collegians who play on the Montecito course since Fred Allred and Yale Lorden took over the golf class at the beginning of the semester. While making a round, not long ago, with two of the Gaucho "Swing" artists, the writer turned in a blistering 110 . . . and while it was no threat to the sub-par scores, it must have brought satisfaction to the gardener . . . for just next to the fifth hole the turf was recipient of four of the scribe's vicious hooks—need any plain or fancy plowing done? Also lost five other balls . . . was late to dinner and missed out on Gulliver.

Sport Reflections: San Francisco has an Olympic decathlon prospect in Runar Stone . . . in a recent meet, he entered nine events . . . took five firsts, a second and missed a third in the shot-put by a small matter of four inches . . . Bob Rezzonico, Gaucho backstop, established some kind of a record in the Whittier ball game last Saturday—he poked out a pair of three base hits in the first inning off the Poet chucker . . . That's to say nothing of what the rest of the horsehidiers did in that first inning . . . scored ELEVEN runs and knocked three pitchers out of the box.

State College Relay Stars

Gaucha relay team will again endeavor to get those five points against San Jose this Saturday. From left to right: Dudley Shean, Joe Nightingale, Bill Crow and Larry Bowlus. The team is credited with a mark of 3.27 for the mile. The team has defeated Loyola, Chapman, and Whittier relay teams in competition this year.

Spartans Invade Gaucho's Stronghold for Trackfest

J. V.s Wind Up Hoop Play in Top Place of City Open Loop

Winding up a successful season in the Men's City Open League, the State college junior varsity came out on top of the standing to be crowned, unofficially, "Champions." As the Gaucho team is entered as an institution they can in no way become the official champions. The Gaucho fellows who have participated in most of the games include some outstanding athletes of the past and perhaps some stars of the future. Bobby Dunham, former luminary, was one of the leading scorers of the league. The mighty Benton Brothers were two of the most outstanding players of the loop, and they will be invaluable assets to the Gaucho Varsity next year.

Northerners Present Well Balanced Team; Sprinter Runs 9.9 and 21.7

Engaging in the stiffest dual meet of the present track season, El Gaucho takes on the Spartans of San Jose at 10:30, Saturday morning around the Phelps field oval.

Captain Carl Cammack of the Northerners will be the man to watch in the hurdle races, and he will be out to break up the monopoly of the Hilltoppers in the timber topping events. Cammack is primarily a low stick man, and lost only one race in that event in 1935. Jim Stockdale is another speed burner from the North. Last week, the former San Luis Obispo high school flash, won the 100 and 220 against the Olympic club in the fast times of 9.9s and 21.7s. Watson of the Spartans nosed out his team mate in the broad jump with a leap of 22 ft. 3½ in., while Fosberg was pushing the iron pellet 43 ft. 9 in. This shows the Spartans to be strong in the events that the Gauchos are weak, with the exception of the 100 where Yeager may come through if he is feeling right.

Al Belprez will not be in the furlong due to an injured muscle, but instead he will run in the quarter and in the relay, Don Harky, soph sprinter, and Joe Nightingale will match strides in Al's place in the 220. Nick Carter seems to have found the relay combination that he has been looking for with Shean, Bowlus, Crow and Belprez.

State Baseball Nine Beats Poets and Bengals in Vacation Battles

Hardermen Lose to Compton and Santa Monica Junior Colleges, but Win From Conference Foes

By AL BINE

Resting in first place the victorious Gaucho baseball nine returned home early this week from their conference conquests in the southland during the Easter vacation. Defeating the Oxy Tigers and the Whittier Poets in two conference battles the local nine now rates first place with only San Diego State in their way.

Estudiantina Plans Games

Relays Include a Syncopated Inflated Saxophone Two-Jump Foot Race

By "PETE"

When you are asked to participate in a weird relay at Estudiantina, don't hesitate, because the event will probably turn out to be a mere potato race. Seriously speaking, this scribe will endeavor to point out the inside information for a few of these syncopated inflated saxophone relays or Two-Jumps, You Win.

The race which will astound most of the bruisers competing, is the Deadman's Relay, which consists of a team of fellows laid end to end face in the sand. At the sound of the gong, the first participant jumps to his feet, turns around, and by placing his hands under the chin of the person next in line, and exerting all his strength, pulls the said person to his feet. The point is for each fellow to stay stiff, as a board.

Another sticker is this Dizzy-Izzie. With the bell, the first person in the relay line makes a wild dash to a post some fifty yards away, squats down, grabs his knees, and hops around the post five times, and returns to touch off the second victim.

The Jump-Stick race involves a six foot stick which is grasped firmly by the first man, who runs to a certain point, touches the stick to the ground, and then rushes back and hands the opposite end of the pole to the second. He, in turn, holds the stick about two feet off the ground, and runs toward the back of the line, forcing each person to jump the stick. He touches the stick to a point at the back of the line, runs up to the front and the process starts again.

Of interest to the women will be the Winter Heavy relay, consisting of buttoning one's frame into a pair of red flannels and unbuttoning again. Then there are obstacle races, sack races, and many others.

Traveling through the past week, we find the local team can defeat any college team of their calibre, but when it comes to junior colleges it is a different thing, to wit: in favor of Compton J. C. 9-8, Santa Monica J. C. 3-2, but in our own league the first game of the week with Chapman college with Mert Miller chucking the Hilltoppers came out on top for the second successive time when they defeated Knowles, the colored ace of the Chapman pitching staff by the tune of 7-2 victory with the tussle taking place on the Vermont avenue diamond.

Lose to Jaysees

Losing a close game to the Compton Jaysees on Tuesday was the Harder men's second downfall to junior college laddies, as in a local appearance three weeks back they dropped a 9-4 game. Bortolazzo pitched good ball, firing in the closing minutes of the ninth inning to lose by a 9-8 score. Losing a heartbreaker to the Santa Monica team on Thursday by the slim margin of one run was the Gaucho's second and last loss of the trip.

Taking on the Oxy Tigers at Patterson Field, Friday afternoon, showed the Harder horsehidiers in championship form when they took a conference battle with a deluge of 15 runs to the Tigers 3. Jimmie Van Meter although not credited with the win, as a pitcher usually is, was indirectly responsible for the victory when he was bumped into by "Hersh" Lyons, Oxy's chucker, injuring him.

Voorhees Comes Thru

The Gaucho boys were in the lead before the accident and would have come out ahead regardless; behind the steady pitching of Mert Miller, who turned in his second win of the week. "Skeeter" Voorhees, Gaucho erstwhile Frank Merriwell, was the come through "kid," when he rapped out a home run with the bases loaded. Rezzonico, Erhard, Miller and Luse accounted for a total of nine doubles during the fray.

Friday's conference win over the Whittier Poets established some sort of a batting record of Gaucho baseball teams, when the powerful hitters batted out a total of 22 base hits and scored 18 runs as to the Poets 10 runs.

Staters Meet San Diego in Crucial Game

Gauchos All in Good Shape and Ready for the "Team to Beat"

Crossing bats with the powerful San Diego Aztecs in Brookside park at 2 p.m., the Gauchos of Santa Barbara State meet the strongest team they have played to date.

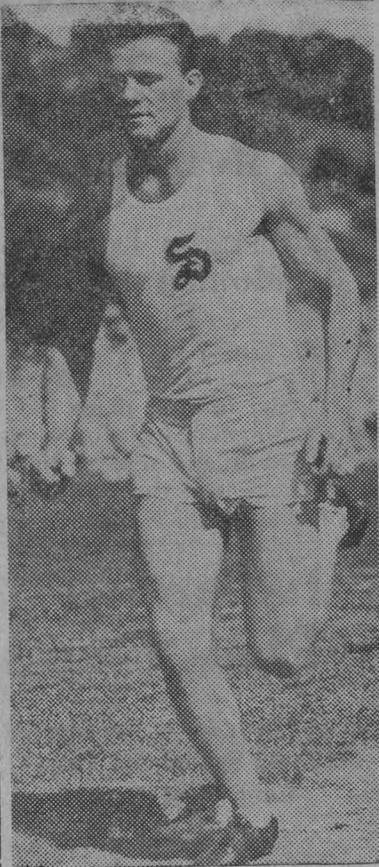

The southerners started the horsehide season as dark horses of the conference, and by their startling 14 to 3 victory over last year's conference champs, Occidental, have established themselves as the team to beat. Defensively the Aztecs' stars are Bill Larson in centerfield and Glen Garboni at shortstop. There are no lettermen, as this is the first San Diego baseball team since 1931.

Offensively the border city lads are paced by Smyth, Garboni and Higashi, who are batting .400, .410, .413 respectively. Al Churchman is the only pitcher, and if the Gauchos can reach his slants the locals should have little trouble in coming out on the long end of the score.

The Hilltoppers are leading the league now as a result of victories over Occidental and Whittier during the Easter vacation. The Gauchos toured the Southland last week and in five games emerged victorious in three. The locals trimmed Cal-Christian 9 to 2, Occidental 15 to 3 and Whittier 18 to 10; and dropped a return game to Compton J. C. 9 to 8 and to Santa Monica J. C. 3 to 2.

Rezzonico went on a hitting spree and boosted his batting average for

Virgil Hooper

Virgil Hooper, best miler to ever represent the Gaucho institution, will again attempt to keep his undefeated record in the mile clear this Saturday when he will compete against San Jose State. Hooper was former California prep champion at this distance and is credited with a mark of 4.24.2.

the season up to .396 and his conference average to .600. Bortolazzo, first string pitcher, dropped his first game of the season to Compton last Tuesday, but he has been able to handle all of the conference teams.

SORORITY MAKES FINAL PLANS FOR SPRING FORMAL

Final plans for the Delta Zeta Delta formal, to be held at the Montecito Country club, were completed at the meeting held at the home of Louise Holden, 1703 Chapala street, at seven-thirty, Monday night.

The sorority plans to have the formal on May second and to have Fred Lambourne's orchestra furnish the dance music. A breakfast, which is an annual event, will be held the following morning, May 3, at the Biltmore hotel.

Prospective candidates for the student body offices, vice-president and secretary, were discussed, and Elinor Stuart was chosen to represent the sorority as a candidate for May Queen. Before closing the meeting, teams were chosen to participate in the Estudiantina.

All the actives were present at the meeting and several alumnae returned, which included Nancy Davens, Peachy Stuart, Elizabeth Peacock and Mrs. John Snetsinger.

W.A.A. Delegates Go to Western Conclave

Nancy Clapp, newly elected president of W.A.A., and Shirley Warner, present prexy, are official delegates to the Athletic Federation of College Women convention being held at the University of Minnesota April 20. This is a convention that is held every three years as a national meet in the chosen state and during the intervening years as sectional gatherings. Santa Barbara State college served as hostess for the sectional conclave two years ago.

The last national convention was held in Austin, Texas, with Cathryn

Paul Manning

Manning, president of the Southern California Collegiate Press Association, will hold the gavel at the spring convention of scribes at Occidental tomorrow. Manning was editor of The Occidental last year.

Kitley as official delegate from State college.

The delegates have an interesting trip planned, leaving here Saturday morning at 6:20 and traveling on the bus through Los Angeles via the Kansas City route and returning via Denver.

FRAT HOLDS SUPPER

The kindergarten-primary fraternity had a box supper in the Gaucho club, Wednesday evening, April 15. The supper was held in connection with a business meeting. All members of the organization, including Miss Edith Leonard, were present.

Block 'S' Dance Climaxes Play Day's Program

Annual Social Event Honors Beef and Brawn at Rockwood Hop

The beef and brawn of the college will be the guests of honor at the traditional Block "S" sport dance, to be held at the Rockwood clubhouse of the Santa Barbara Women's club tomorrow evening. Dancing will start at 9:00 p.m. and continue until midnight with Lambourne's orchestra furnishing music for the affair. All varsity and frosh lettermen are urged to wear their numeral sweaters to the dance, climaxing the Estudiantina day.

Ruth Carter, head of the student social committee, composed of Wilma Kiesner, Evelyn Braman, Ann Seymour, Lawrence Leslie, and Harry Sloan, announced yesterday afternoon that the dance would be open only to members of the student body and their guests.
