Homecoming Proves Successful

Biltmore Dance Climaxes Weekend of Alumni, Student Events

A. O. X. WINS PRIZE

Parade and Rally Greet Capacity Audiences in Friday Activities

• Climaxing a weekend of Homecoming festivities, 500 Santa Barbara State college students, alumni, and guests danced to Fred Greenough's orchestra at the Biltmore Saturday-evening following the Nevada-State game.

In the biggest Homecoming celebration in the school's history, a parade and rally, under the direction of the rally committee scored a huge success to make the student activities complete. Headed by Christine MacDonald, as the mounted Gauchero rider, the parade lineup included the college band, the official cars, seventeen individual floats, and many decorated cars, passed the review stand at the Granada theatre. Jack Kitchen, student yell leader, directed the parade.

A. O. X. Wins

The Alpha Theta Chi float, depicting the offering of a wolf's head to a victorious Gauchero, decorated with plumes, and led by green and white outfitted women, won the Sweepstakes prize, a beautiful 16 inch loving cup given by Ott's Hardware company.

Gamma Sigma Pi fraternity was chosen as second place winner with Phi Kappa Gamma, social sorority, taking third spot, each receiving smaller silver trophies. The Block "S" society entry in the decorated car contest was declared winner by the judges.

Many Attend Rally

Friday night's auditorium rally featured by a pantomime skit, offered Fred Lambourne's band in romantic numbers, the singing of Stan Cox, Theda Call, and Josephine McBride, talks by Willie Wilton, Spud Harder and Howard Yeager, and comedy novelties under the m.c.'ing of Jack Manson, assistant yell leader. Approximately seven hundred State rooters left "standing room only" for late comers.

D'Alfonso Tells of First Assembly of Series

• Danny D'Alfonso, student body president, announced yesterday that the first of a series of assembly programs presented by National School Assembly company, will be given next Tuesday morning in the auditorium. Carlos Lozano, assembly director, and Esther Carter, assistant, were also instrumental in choosing the assembly series.

With money provided from the Progressive Education association refund to the service clubs on the campus for their aid to the P.E.A. convention here, the contract was signed last week by D'Alfonso.

Television Shown

"Television" will be the subject of the first of the series, with a display of latest and most modern equipment to be shown with a demonstration and explanation. Other assemblies contracted for include one on stratosphere balloons with exact reproductions of famous balloons being presented; the Studer brothers, three Swiss yodelers who appear in native costume playing and singing Swiss folk music; Phillip Foxwell, a 21 year old magician of fame; Jack Raymon who lectures on reptiles and brings trained snakes for his program; and Jack Rank, a thespian, who will go through parts of Macbeth, taking all of the character parts.

Follett Announces Regulations

• For the benefit of all students who are planning on attending the San Diego game on Saturday, the following directions are given; Enter the stadium by the Anapamu entrance and the gate to the left facing into the stadium. Students will not be admitted at any other entrance. Keep your student body book in your hands until you are in your seat in order to facilitate the work of the ushers.

Anyone found guilty of lending their books to outsiders will have their books confiscated and a $5.00 fine levied against them which will be collected before grades are issued.

Only student body book holders will be allowed in the student section and any student accompanied by an outsider holding a general admission ticket must sit in the general admission section if he desires to sit with the general admission ticket-holder.

Students are urged to purchase their tickets early in order to minimize the last-minute box-office rush. Remember, student body books are not transferable.

Men Vote New Club Name

Captain Jones Is Chosen as Sponsor; Club Plans Smoker

• Men students meeting yesterday morning in the college cafeteria, voted to change their name from the Men's club to the Associated Men Students, and chose Capt. Paul Jones as their sponsor.

Under the guidance of Doug Oldershaw, organization president, plans for a male smoker in the gymnasium were begun. The event is scheduled to take place immediately after Christmas vacation. Harry Nethery, social chairman, was named to take charge of the smoker.

Taking unprecedented steps the organization decided to appropriate twenty-five dollars to pay for a page in the college yearbook. Pictures of officers or some sponsored event will be used. Also a committee was given the power to donate twenty dollars to a fund for noon dances on campus if other organizations were also contributing a like amount.

GAUCHOS GET XMAS GAME BID

• Possibility that Santa Barbara State's to-date unbeaten football team may oppose a major college team at Peabody stadium Christmas Day became known today as the football committee of the Santa Barbara Scots, sponsors of the annual Christmas charity game, sent out "feelers" to certain first-rank schools in an effort to lure a "big game" eleven here to play the Gauchos.

Although names of schools being contacted are being kept secret, State authorities, it was learned, have expressed a willingness to meet any opponent the Scots' committee may obtain. Much of any invitation's success, it was admitted, depended upon whether or not the powerful Green Wave continues its winning streak for victories over San Diego State and New Mexico Aggies.

Play Aggies

The Christmas game was instituted last year and Santa Barbara won the inaugural contest with a 25-14 victory over New Mexico Aggies. More than 5,000 fans braved intermittent rains and a chilling wind in Peabody stadium to witness the initial game of what the local Scots plan to make an annual affair.

Twenty-Five File Entries in Speaking Contest Says Duckham

• Twenty-five students will compete in the first college extemporaneous speaking contest, December 7 and 8, it was revealed by Doug Duckham, speech bureau manager, as the original deadline for entries closed. However, the list of competitors is expected to be increased with a new deadline date being set for next Tuesday, November 23, Duckham asserted.

Sponsored by the Speakers and Entertainers bureau, the extemporaneous competition will mark the initial major activity of the newly organized group on the campus. The affair has attracted the attention of outstanding civic leaders and the two sets of judges will contain prominent layman speakers, as well as a faculty representative on each set, according to Duckham.

Eight Finalists to Vie

Preliminaries will be held December 7 with the eight finalists vying the 8th. Two prizes have been donated by local merchants, a ten-dollar merchandise order from Ott Hardware company for the male winner and a similar merchandise order from Jack Rose's Smart shop for the female winner.

being contested for, it does not indicate that four male and four female speakers will be selected for the finals.

"The judges will be instructed to select the eight best speakers from the preliminaries," said Duckham.

Ten Topics

Upon signing up with James Lyons or Doug Duckham, contestants are given the rules governing the event. Ten topics, with material on each, are listed on a special reserve shelf in the school library. The student may prepare on each topic as much as he desires but on the day at the time of the contest each entry will select his or her topic by chance. If the first topic selected does not appeal to the contestant a second may be drawn. In the finals only one draw will be made. Time limits for the preliminaries is from five to ten minutes and for the finals, ten to fifteen minutes.

Duckham urges all those interested in competing to please sign up with him or Lyons by next Tuesday, which will be the absolute deadline for entries.

Prop and Strut Club Hear Rust Speak

• Members of the "Prop and Strut" club met Monday night in the Industrial Education building, with William Rust, head of the auto mechanics division of the Industrial Education department giving a history of aviation and showing pictures of aircraft factories.

Following the regular meeting, the club members adjourned to the home of Gay Miller, publicity chairman, for refreshments. Under Cam Sellar, president of the aviation enthusiasts, motion pictures from the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company have been shown at the last three meetings. Films presented included "The U.S.S. Akron", "One Point Landings" and "Building and Trial Flight of the Macon".

Under Mr. E. E. Ericson, director of the department, plans for the establishing of aviation courses were encouraged in a speech given at the last meeting. The club entered a special car in the Homecoming parade carrying a model plane.

CLUB FOR 'LONELY LOVERS'

• The latest in campus organizations is an exclusive little club at Women's college, University of Rochester. Twelve girls are members of the "My Love and I Are Far Apart Club" and pine for boy friends at some distant place—Harvard, Princeton or just "back home."

Women Prepare for Annual Christmas Charity with Tag Sale

• Hearing Mrs. Henry McKean of the Santa Barbara Neighborhood house, as their speaker, members of the associated women students, met yesterday morning in the college auditorium for the regular monthly gathering.

Plan Charity

With Miriam Turton, A.W.S. president, charity plans for Christmas were discussed with Mary Alice Halferty, head of the welfare committee and second vice-president presenting a report of procedure. Money raising plans for the charity purpose will be handled by the sale of tags. Collection of clothes, toys, canned goods and ranch produce will be included in their work. Contributions will be taken from now until Christmas vacation with Dean Lois Bennink's outer office as headquarters.

Hear Program

Modern piano selections were offered by Leona Rasmussen at the meeting, with a short story reading by Genevieve de Ong. Clarice Tobin was presented with classical piano selections, followed by Verdelle Connell in a toe-dancing exhibition.

The annual Christmas assembly program given by A.W.S. will be directed by Miss Elizabeth Sehon, presenting her dance group; by Mrs. Helen Barnett heading the Women's glee club, and by Mr. Barron, band leader, and the college orchestra.

Sixty Cents Stops Head Bumps

By BILL SPARROW

• Twelve years ago someone bumped his head on the too-low branch at the south side of the gym building. "My-my," he exclaimed, "they really ought to do something about that." After six more years had rolled by a survey of the financial standing was made and it was decided that in spite of the dangerous condition of this tree, repair work could not be undertaken at that time.

Several years later, when all the permanent hangers-on had become hunch-backed from stooping in order to pass under this dangerous obstruction, this menace that violated the sanctity and well-being of the students was favored with many a wry glance and smothered curse, as people new to the school grew about an inch in one little spot after attempting, blindly, to pass under its none to gentle caressing bows.

Then came meeting after meeting; survey after survey; investigation after investigation . . . still nothing was done to correct or counteract this misconstrued bit of arborial bother. Then came the last straw . . . when the student body was increased by over one hundred it proved to be the pay-off; the more

Rally Committee Calls Special Assembly on Friday

ANNOUNCE DANCE

Semi-Formal at Rockwood Features Greenough Orchestra

• Under the guidance of Tom Wharton, frosh president, members of the Peagreeners class, are busy this week building the annual "big game" bonfire at the foot of Santa Barbara street on the beach. The huge pile of debris is scheduled to be set off Friday night at the San Diego-Gauchero rally. All contributions are welcome and will be called for by frosh men, if information is turned in to the class.

Assembly Planned

Under the direction of Jack Kitchen and Jack Manson, yell leaders, and the rally committee, a special assembly will be called for the last fifteen minutes of fourth hour on Friday in the auditorium. Dr. Charles Jacobs, Coach Harder and Assistant Coach Wilton will address the assembly. The band will play, and Margie Bush and Harriet Ridenour will lead songs.

Football Dance Set

"El Gauchero Dance" is the name of the semi-formal to be held this Saturday night at Rockwood hall from nine to twelve o'clock.

This will be the last after-game dance of the year and a record crowd is expected. Novel football-styled programs are being printed for the occasion, with ten dances and two tags listed. These tag dances will be free-for-all, both men and women, for stags will not be in order. Frank Greenough and his orchestra have been obtained for the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore "Spud" Harder and Coach Wilton Wilton will be hosts for the evening. The entire Gauchero football team and the visiting team will be guests of honor.

The social committee have been in full charge of this El Gauchero dance and have promised a full three hours of dancing. It is strictly a date affair, and student body books or guest cards will be required for admittance.

MRS. PRICE VISITS TEACHERS

• Mrs. Laura S. Price, head of the elementary department, will leave tomorrow for a southward visit of extension students, now teaching at Del Monte, Huntington Beach, and Sierra Madre schools. Mrs. Price will stay Thursday and Friday, returning Saturday.

HEADLINE OF THE WEEK:

Tender trailing tree tendrils taxes traction and temper of tactful tutors of tabernacle of tuition as twelve years trek terribly by before traces of menace caused by terrific termites in tender tree is thoroughly taken away by trussing with titanic tempered timber.

Congratulations Merited

Following in the wake of such a highly successful Homecoming for State's alumni there is a stream of congratulations and words of appreciation. El Gaucho wishes to add their vote of thanks as well as forward those of others.

The rally committee, ably led by chairman Petie McKinney, includes Jack Kitchen, Harriet Ridenour, Marjorie Bush, Ronald Cray, Frank Ellings, Paul Davis and adviser Dean Lois M. Bennink. They are to be given credit for the best parade and rally program in the school's history. A peak of organized entertainment has been set for future years. Jack Manson was the spark plug who whipped the rally program into shape and then completed his job as a popular master of ceremonies.

Members of the social committee are also to be congratulated on the Homecoming dance at the Biltmore hotel following the game. The reports from the alumni all state that they got more than value received for their time and trouble.

It seems the time to thank Norma Yauney, Nathan McCray, Dick Waterman, Stanley Cox, and Bill Lanford. They are off campus but have played for innumerable entertainments of the college without any compensation. Other students in Fred Lambourne's orchestra who deserve like mention are Bernard Foy, Elmer Neibuhr, Sherman Logan, Ed Cole, and Ronald Cray.

And don't forget to give a nod to your coach and football team who came through with a win when the college was putting on a show for those returning alumni!

Quotable Quotes

● "I expected to find a great vitality and outspokenness in your students. I believed that there would be more horseplay and even a certain amount of vulgarity, but I do not find this to be true . . . "Professor Lavourcade, visiting French instructor at the University of Buffalo, thinks American college students are "spoonfed."

● "In college the student must acquire a measure of idealism for it will serve him later . . . you must learn to think also for others as well as yourself." Judge Sam Street Hughes tells Michigan State College students that they must prepare themselves for civic leadership.

● "Horatio Alger and pulp magazine literature creates in the youthful mind a false idea of success, a belief that it's easy to 'marry the boss's daughter'—hence youth attempts a disastrous shortcut to happiness." Merle Curti and Goodwin Watson, two Columbia University teachers college professors blame adolescents' reading matter for their dissatisfaction with life.

● "Cramming students with facts isn't enough . . . The aim of education is to produce men and women who will have character as well as information and be a genuine asset to the society in which they live." Dr. R. Wayne Gardner, vice president of Northwest Nazarene College believes a higher education should develop a student's character as well as his mind.

When coeds at the University of Washington are through renovating the manners of the masculine contingency on the campus, there won't be a man who will dare to keep a girl talking on the telephone more than five minutes when she should be studying.

The coeds are being subtle about the thing though. "It Is Done", new 1937 edition of the campus etiquette book, is going to be a part of every man's library if coed sales-girls have anything to say about it.

Members wear yellow ribbons around their necks to identify their affiliations. At meetings the girls discuss "heart problems" and find sympathetic listeners when they talk about their boy-friends.

Questionnaire

● What courses do you think should be added to or taken out of the college program?
BOB DENZEL:

I believe the college could get along without Freshman problems. A course in Radio would go over nicely.

ANITA RONEY:

I believe that there should be a psychology course added for Freshman students because those who are not planning on being here any length of time could gain a lot out of this course.

BUCK BAILEY:

It would be a good idea if a Sea Scout class were organized.

Goofs Lead in Intramural Competition

• Needing but one more victory to win undisputed championship, the Goofs, paced by high-scoring Bob Ulrich, wind up State's annual intramural basketball tournament tomorrow afternoon in the gym playing the hapless Sentinels.

Three victories and no losses will be behind the Goofs as they take the court against the Sentinels. If the Sentinels, two-time losers already, upset the favored Goofs, however, a playoff game might be necessary with the Ramblers, who last night beat the Brigadiers to conclude the tournament with three victories and one defeat.

Scorers Tie

Tied with Ulrich for intramural high scoring honors is Dick McLane of the Sentinels, each with 34 points.

Tournament standings and individual high scorers, as announced by Toolie Palmer, intramural manager, are as follows:

Team	Won	Lost
Goofs	3	0
Ramblers	3	1
Brigadiers	2	2

YACHTERS INVITE COLLEGE TEAM

• Believing that many State College students are interested in competitive yachting, the Santa Barbara chapter of the International Flatie Association today tendered an invitation to college men to attend a local fleet meeting at 8:00 o'clock at the home of G. Allen Cram, 1608 Laguna street.

The "flatie" is rapidly becoming one of the most popular racing classes on the Pacific Coast with more than eight chapters extending from Seattle to San Diego. The Santa Barbara fleet was organized during the summer, and by spring local club officials expect to have a half dozen or more of the trim little craft in the local harbor. The flatie is an 18 foot boat similar in design and rig to the larger and more expensive star boat class.

Intercollegiate flatie racing is being engaged in by Stanford, California, and Washington Universities, as well as Long Beach junior college.

Should sufficient interest develop on the Gaucho campus there is an excellent possibility of flatie competitions between Santa Barbara and other colleges and universities, it is pointed out.

W.A.A. Plans Hike for Students

• Sunday, November 21, will be the date of the next W.A.A. hike. The hike will be sponsored by the women, but all men and women of the college who are interested are invited. Guests will meet at the college gym at 1:30 p.m. They will ride to Tunnel Road, then hike to La Cumbre, where they will cook dinner. The group will be shown through the lookout station of the Santa Barbara Forestry department. After a program round a campfire, they will hike back by moonlight to the college. All those intending to go must sign on the gym bulletin board by Friday afternoon and pay 25c to Miss Van Fossen, Pym Lucas, or Jane Ronner by Friday. Sweaters and flashlights are suggested, and a cup, plate, and fork are required. These will be taken up by car with the food. Guests are requested to wear slacks and low shoes.

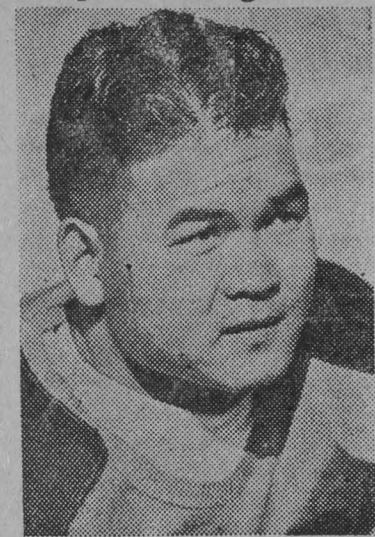

Future hikes being planned by Pym Lucas, hiking manager, will be December 4, 11, and January 8.

Women's P.E. Group Welcomes Alums

• Phi Delta Pi, national women's P. E. fraternity, entertained its alumnae members at a Homecoming luncheon, Saturday, at 12:00 o'clock at La Arcada.

Guests of the fraternity activities were, Kay Boyton, Ida Pagliotti, Birdena Walters, Joyce Newton, Clara Ross, Miss Van Fossen, Mrs. Hodgins, Ethel Clendenen, and Rena Sacconaghi, president.

'Emperor' Higashi

• Hideo "Emperor" Higashi, 164 pound half, is one of San Diego's pony express backfield combination, and is known as the most versatile back in the southern conference, being one of the best Japanese grid-ders in football history.

Bow and Arrow Club Organizes for Tournaments

• The first meeting of a newly formed Archery club, under the leadership of Miss Van Fossen was held yesterday morning. The objective of the club is to further the interest of archery in the college and city of Santa Barbara.

Representatives from the various archery classes gathered to elect officers and to get the first project under way. Those representing the classes were: Dorothy Suiter, Betty Peden, Winona Benson, Barbara Cockrum, and Aline Woodard. From these the following were elected to serve as officers: Miss Benson, chairman; Miss Suiter, secretary; and Miss Peden, equipment manager. Miss Van Fossen is the faculty adviser.

All students of the archery classes automatically become members of the club, however, an invitation is extended to any student desiring membership. Those who join must pay a small fee. Arrangements have been made for members to check out archery tackle for use outside of school hours.

An opening archery tournament is being sponsored that is open to all students and will be held on the campus Saturday, December 4 at 9:30 a.m. The tournament will feature: Columbia Round; Clout and Flight shooting and Balloon shooting. After the tournament a picnic is being planned. Details of this tournament will appear at a later date.

A name is being sought for the club and suggestions may be given to the chairman, Winona Benson or to Miss Van Fossen.

Among the un-Emily Postian things Joe College will have called to his attention is the habit of monopolizing the sorority's only davenport, breaking blind dates and letting frail coeds open heavy campus doors all by themselves.

SPORT SHORTS

By WALDO PHELPS

• There are two very outstanding football games scheduled for this weekend in the Golden State of ours. In Northern California at the bay region California will battle Stanford in the annual "big game" which this year has the added attraction of settling the Pacific coast conference championship and the West's representative in the Rose Bowl on New Year's Day.

The Championship of the Southern Conference will be at stake on the same day at Santa Barbara, when the Gauchos battle the San Diego Aztecs in a game which has the sports writers dizzy. The two teams are certainly the pick of the conference this year is a glance at the scores they both rolled up on league opponents will reveal.

However, the Gauchos will not be at top strength for the encounter. As if the loss of Bobbie Morelli was not enough, Peirino Merlo, second string fullback re-injured his shoulder in the Nevada game and is also out of this week's battle. Merlo had been counted on to relieve Freddy Monson and his loss means that the team's best passer will be missing.

Most serious of all, however, is the fact that Danny Mulock, star left end, will not be at his best in the game. Mulock twisted his knee a week ago and although he will start the game it is problematical how long he will stay in the game. Mulock has been one of the shining lights on the local eleven this year and his loss would weaken the Gauchos no end. Coach Harder has had difficulty in developing suitable reserves for the position, so the injury strikes at the most vulnerable spot as far as reserves are concerned.

Those Aztecs are really in a savage frame of mind since their 10 to 9 defeat at the hands of Redlands. Undeclared, untied, and unscored upon 'til that game they had "one of those days" and the result was an upset. Promptly the sports writers forgot all about their fine record. They refused to see anything good about the way the Aztecs came back and defeated the San Diego Marines.

But they don't fool Santa Barbara football fans at all. Everyone in this school and town knows what the team is up against Saturday and are hoping that the Gaucho varsity is in the proper attitude to give the school its first football conference championship.

W.A.A. Arrange Football Banquet

Women Organize for Basketball Sport Under Hodgins

• Basketball for all women students who are interested has started its annual season under the leadership of Mrs. Hodgins of the P.E. department and Theda Call, basketball manager.

A change in the time of after-school practices has been made because of time conflicts for the gym. Any combination of the following periods may be made, Monday, 9th period, Tuesday, 8th period, Wednesday, 9th period, Thursday, 8th or 9th periods. These have been arranged in order that most of the girls interested will be able to arrange two nights a week for practice. Girls reporting this week are signing up for their most convenient period arrangement.

Everyone is urged to turn out for basketball season, especially freshmen girls, even though they have not had basketball before, there is a place for everyone.

Nevada Stops to Absorb Defeat

Santa Barbara Wins Hard Fought Game Saturday in Peabody Bowl

PLAY INJURES MERLO

Yeager Tackles Well as Frisholtz Scores Two Touchdowns

• The University of Nevada football team stopped off for eight hours in Santa Barbara last Saturday night and absorbed a 20-7 defeat at the hands of State's Gaucho varsity in Peabody stadium. The game was one of the most hard-fought of the season and Santa Barbara displayed a rather in-and-out attack in chalking up a win.

The team played without the services of Danny Mulock who twisted his knee in scrimmage during the past week. Peirino Merlo entered the encounter for the first time in over a month and promptly injured his shoulder again so he will be out for the remainder of the season.

Oldershaw Stars

Captain Doug Oldershaw played his best game of the year against the Wolves. His hard tackling on defense was only overshadowed by his marvelous interference running. Busby, Hart, and Young also played well in the line.

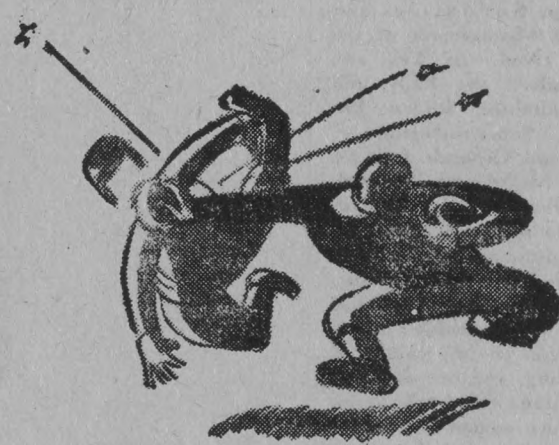

Howard Yeager returned to the lineup and contrary to his usual game, his hard tackling bettered his yardage record. Bill MacArthur showed up well for State by making some long runs in addition to taking the pigskin to a touchdown.

Frisholtz Scores

Clyde Frisholtz scored the other two touchdowns for the Gauchos on end runs. The team as a whole showed that it is pointing for the "big game" this weekend and the play was not as consistent as in other games. Doug Oldershaw converted both of his attempts and had a fine evening on kick-offs. Each one had to be taken on the goal line sixty yards from where Doug kicked off.
