THE KORO

- Having unanimously won the car glass company for producing in European History class a 75-cent row one weekend, we find ourselves unable to "pick the houses" in the coming match... a coincidence as the only seven we can seem to think of November 19, 1936. 8:8.

The Sig Alpha have been having fun... Pudge BILL LA BOURNE was put to task to measure the first man... he is "hungover" down to POLLOCK and COLE, with MICKEY McCRAVY a close second... incidentally, Cole won by a nose... one nose, however, does one.

From JOHMAN comes this dirry to the tune of "Remember Me".

Do you remember one November afternoon?

We sat down there and listened to a funeral tune. We lost a critical battle just one game too soon.

Remember...

Do you recall a gridiron small out in the back? And then the Aztecs walked a little smug like in the hill.

And if I'm not mistaken, kids, we were all formed to at least a certain amount of vulgarity, but I do not find this to be true...
