ARMY DANCE TONIGHT

Red Cross Unit Organizes To Aid National Volunteer Group

Organization of a campus Red Cross unit is well under way as Santa Barbara college girls enthusiastically volunteer for work in the student corps, according to Dr. Helen E. Sweet, Dean of Women, and Mrs. John J. Harnish, director of the campus unit. Meeting in the auditorium Wednesday afternoon, the campus women elected officers who will serve on the unit executive committee. These officers, together with Patti Mayer, president of Phrateres; Marjorie McClanahan, president of YWCA; and Mrs. Laura Moffat Jones, president of Pan Hellenic, form policy and insure proper direction of the campus Red Cross program.

Representing the campus as a whole, the board of directors acts in an advisory capacity. Membership of this board includes Ray Puissegur, student body president; Bob Elliott, A.M.S. president; Sharon Smith, A. W. S. president, and three representatives of the student body at large. C. D. Woodhouse, Dean of Men, and Dr. Helen E. Sweet, Dean of Women, will also serve with the board of directors. The executive committee plans to meet twice monthly, while the board of directors will meet once each month.

Volunteers will work in such divisions as sewing, Christmas decorating, panel discussion, flower arrangement, recreation, and canteen service. Students in departments have been asked to assist the corps with work relative to their academic studies.

Membership in these groups is unrestricted. Volunteers were welcomed at the assembly Wednesday, and girls may sign up in Dean Sweet's office at any time. Orientation lectures will be scheduled very soon during which girls will be given detailed instruction.

Pan Hellenic Holds Discussion Forum

Meeting at the home of Dean Helen Sweet at 1834 Loma on Wednesday evening 7:30 p.m., the Pan Hellenic board held their first group discussion of the year.

The annual review of the constitution started off the evening.

Another item of discussion was the subject of those girls who, though they are not sorority members, are living at the present time in sorority houses due to the housing shortage. The girls must be approved by the Pan Hellenic board in order to be allowed to remain in the houses.

Members of the board are as follows: Alpha Theta Chi, Mariana Richardson; Chi Delta Chi, Marjorie Higley; Delta Sigma Epsilon, Laura M. Jones; Delta Zeta Delta, Catherine Nordstrom; Gamma Delta Chi, Barbara Webber; Phi Kappa Gamma, Peggy Upson; Sigma Delta Phi, Marian Frost; Tau Gamma Sigma, Betty Skavdahl. In addition there are representatives, one from each sorority, who are also members of the board.

Russian Speaker And Author Addresses Student Body Monday

Nina N. Selivanova, noted Russian author and lecturer, will address the student body Tuesday during the scheduled assembly hour, on "Russian Women."

Miss Selivanova was born in Petrograd, Russia, and spent her early childhood and school days in Italy. She continued with her education in Switzerland where she completed college. During World War I she acted as a member of the Intelligence Department of the American Expeditionary Forces in Siberia.

She has written several books, some of which are: "Russia's Women", "A Dining and Wining in Old Russia", and her most recent one is "The New Womanhood of Russia."

The faculty and student body officers urge the members of the student body to attend this lecture. "Students should take advantage of this opportunity to hear of the part Russia's women played in World War II and what they are doing in post war Russia," stated Dean Helen Sweet.

NINA SELIVANOVA, who will speak next Tuesday.

'Sophs' Decide Fate of 'Frosh'

Commanding freshmen women to wear hair ribbons in the "middle of the lowly cranium" the sophomore class held its first meeting of the year fourth hour in room 80 on Tuesday, October 2. Under the leadership of former president Naomi Dyer and the new officers elected at Tuesday's meeting, the class discussed plans for the trial of freshmen in Kangaroo court which will be in session in the Quad this noon.

The group issued orders that freshmen wear blue or yellow sandwich boards with their names in letters three inches high today, and handkerchiefs pinned 12 inches above the knee to be used for wiping the shoes of upper classmen. The newcomers were also to be prepared to sing the alma mater at any time during the day. Representatives of the sophomore class attended the meeting of the freshmen to inform them of the ultimatum.

According to Miss Dyer, initiation was delayed this semester in order to give the freshmen a chance to become acquainted and oriented before receiving the wrath of the class above them.

Reports were also given on plans for the freshmen men's initiation tonight and the women's which is to be held by A.W.S. and Las Espuelas on Monday in the cafeteria. Doris Saverud, president of the honorary organization for sophomore women, stated that freshmen women should be sure to wear old clothes and oxfords.

Executive Council Holds First Regular Meeting of Semester

First regular meeting of the Executive Council was held Thursday, September 27, at 5 p.m. in the college auditorium.

Betty Steele, social chairman, informed those present that a social committee meeting had been held and plans were formulated with the Goleta Marines and the Army Redistribution Center, for several dances during the semester. It was announced also that an all college dance has been tentatively scheduled for October 19.

Several "pros" and "cons" were voiced on the subject of changing the college colors from Green and White to the traditional Californian Blue and Gold. A majority vote of the student body will be necessary to make the change valid.

Members were reminded that three consecutive absences from meetings would put them on an inactive status.

It was announced that a general election would be held for class representatives and it will be under the direction of Billye Bowie, vice president of the student body.

Suggestion of an Advertising Club was submitted by Georgia Dicken and the possibility of such an organization on this campus was discussed.

Ray Puissegur, president of the associated students, impressed the fact upon those present that Executive council meetings are open to the entire student body, and it is his wish that persons interested in attending feel free to do so.

Sororities Invited To Dance With Camp Cooke Group

Women from seven sororities on campus and upper class women of Phrateres will be privileged to attend an informal dance given in their honor at the Montecito Country club, this evening from 9 to 12, by enlisted men and officers from Company C, 13th Armored Division, Camp Cooke. One hundred women from Alpha Theta Chi, Tau Gamma Sigma, Sigma Delta Phi, Delta Zeta Delta, Phi Kappa Gamma, Chi Delta Chi, Gamma Delta Chi, and Phrateres will dance to the music of the Camp Cooke band, and enjoy the soft drink bar at the club. All women attending have pledged themselves to the recognition that this is a college-sponsored affair.

According to Dean Helen E. Sweet, if the women live up to their pledge, the college hopes to ask the men back for a return dance, with the college women as hosts. "This is a trial dance," Miss Sweet stressed.

Lieutenant Walter Morrisson is in charge of the dance for Camp Cooke and has been working with the Dean of Women's office and Marge Higley.

Company C has just returned from overseas in Germany after spending many months of battle in that territory.

Transportation will be provided by the Spreitz company and all college women attending are asked to meet at the college at 8:15, in front of the Quad.

Jr. High Department Joins Teachers Group

Voting to become members of the California Student Teacher Association, the members of the Junior High department met Thursday, September 27, in the Associated Women's club room. Santa Barbara chapter of the C.S.T.A., a junior organization of the statewide California Teacher Association, has heretofore been restricted to upper classmen only, and it has been a project of the various teaching departments here on the campus. With the entry of freshmen and sophomores, however, the Junior High department feels it will have the required thirty members for organization of a C.S.T.A. chapter within the department, according to Miss Elsie Pond, department head.

Arrangements were made for a Halloween party, to be held in place of the regular monthly business meeting, October 27. Miss Dorothy Dunn, vice president of the Junior High department, was placed in charge of final details.

Freshman Brawl To Be Held Soon

Amid screams of laughter and mud slinging, the "Freshman Brawl" will be held out on Phelps' Field on Saturday, October 27. All the Gauchos will meet at 2:30 p.m. on the Riviera campus and there transportation will be waiting to drive everyone in a caravan down the hill and over to the field, according to Hartford Archibald, who is handling transportation.

The brawl, which is the first event of the evening, is being planned extensively by the A.M.S. A picnic dinner, under the co-chairmanship of Willie Wigger and Helene Harvey, will be served at 5:30. Several novelty numbers are being planned to entertain while all are eating dinner. After dinner, Bob Schottland and his song leaders will lead everyone in songs and yells. An enormous bonfire on the field, is planned to illustrate and lend spirit to the whole affair.

A general student body election will be held Wednesday, October 17, to vote on class representatives and changing of college colors from Green and White to California Blue and Gold.
A majority vote of student body members is needed to pass on the changing of the colors.

R. G. Sproul Installs Cal Club Members

Members of the newly organized chapter of the California club will be formally installed a week from tonight by Robert Gordon Sproul, president of the University of California, and of the California club.

California club is the only undergraduate organization that coordinates all of the campuses of the University and holds them together as a single unit. At this time there are active chapters at the Berkeley, San Francisco and Los Angeles colleges.

Eighteen students have been chosen for membership in the organization with the president and vice president of the student body and the editor of the college paper being ex-officio members.

Phi Kaps Honor New Faculty

New faculty members were entertained at a dinner given in their honor last Sunday night by women of Phi Kappa Gamma, social sorority.

Miss Bellinger, of the women's physical education department, and Dr. Miller, of the home economics department, were the honored guests at the dinner which was served buffet style, under candlelight, with floral arrangements of purple, white and rose colored asters.

EDITORIAL

During the forthcoming elections for class representatives, an issue of fairly great importance is to be decided. We will choose between changing our school colors to Blue and Gold in harmony with the rest of the sister campuses, or keeping them Green and White. The following is intended to be an impartial discussion of points on both sides, just so you will know exactly what the score is.

In the first place, by keeping the school colors as they are, we will be able to maintain our individuality and personal tradition. Our colors have been Green and White for a long time and have come to mean something. Secondly, all of our athletic equipment is Green and White, and when we have lots of sports again, we will want to use that equipment. It would be quite expensive to replace it.

There is a lot to be said for the opposite point of view though. As a member of the University, we should do all in our power to cooperate with them and truly become a part of their traditions. Individuality isn't everything, although it is important. We do owe a lot of loyalty to Berkeley and changing our colors would be a fine way to show it.

All we can say in conclusion is to let your conscience be your guide. You know what is at stake, and as college students you should be able to make a decision for yourselves.

TO SMOKE OR NOT TO SMOKE STILL REMAINS VITAL PROBLEM

In an age of supposed enlightenment, there are still remnants of Victorian social prejudice present all around us. We refer in particular to the ban against women smoking on our campus. If it is ethics that causes this ruling, we wish to make it quite plain that it certainly doesn't keep women students from smoking elsewhere. All that is accomplished is that we are forced to find time to hie ourselves over to yon Gaucho Room if we are victims of the habit. We are not defending smoking itself. It is here to stay. That much is certain, and the best attitude is to accept it. If one does not approve of smoking, it is perfectly all right. Everyone has their own standards and we admire them for sticking to them. That takes moral fortitude. However, women smoking is so completely taken for granted now, that a rule against it is of no practical value.

We are not advocating smoking all over the campus, particularly. That isn't even necessary. But having some place in a more convenient place than Ye Olde Gaucho Room would be extremely convenient. In last week's editorial we discussed tradition. Tradition is a fine thing, but it should guide rather than bind. Let the Quad remain pure and undefiled. There are other places that are available.

For example, there is all the space in front of the gym. If there was suitable equipment for disposing of the debris, that would be an excellent location. There is something else too. The Gaucho room is a fine institution, but along about noontime, when it is most popular, there is an aura of slightly defunct cigarettes that is not exactly conducive to an appreciation of the finer aspects of college life. In fact, it is downright stuffy.

As someone once said—let there be light—and surely if we are going to smoke, and from all appearances we certainly are, it would be a lot more healthy to do it out under the much vaunted California sun than in an oppressive, crowded, unhealthy little room.

Smoking on campus can't be such a heinous sin. It is quite the acceptable thing on the rest of the University of California campuses, all of which are considered to be very respectable places of higher learning.

Gauchos turned out "en masse" for the Santa Barbara Marines vs. Tulare Cowboys (big-time professionals) game. All spectators were eagerly watching the ball game when two massive male figures quietly left the grandstands, amidst cheering from the audience, and crossed the field. Several long minutes after, numbers 18 and 31 for the Cowboys took their respective positions on the line. B.T.P.s (big time professionals) TOM BURT and GORDIE GRIFFITHS were making their long delayed debut before a Gaucho audience. Being interviewed after the game the boys said "I'm not sure it was worth it." Can you imagine that?

Viewing the aforementioned football game were: BILL JACKSON and fiancée PAT. The couple plan to be married some time next month.

. . . HARTFORD ARCHIBALD and WILLIE WIGGER doing their best to deny a very nice rumor winging its way around campus . . . MARGE MAY with sister Tau Gams shouting lustily for the winning team. . . . BOB ELLIOTT looking mighty embarrassed when his name boomed forth over the loud speaker. PEGGY WELLS cheering heartily with old school yells . . . Cheerleaders BOB SCHOTTLAND, JOAN ANDERSON, and MARION NICKEL looking mighty pert leading yells and songs. Makes one long for a football team of our own to yell for.

After the game the A.W.S.-A.M.S. sponsored a Hello dance. It was quite a dance . . . after you picked the soles of your shoes up off the asphalt. But then, every one had a chance to say hello . . . there was KAY KIMBER and sister ANN squirmed by two sailors from Hueneme. . . . BOB STANSBURY and wife PAULA . . . ED GRABAST at the door looking tough as the bouncer. What jobs they do give the Frosh this year. And Grabast is the one all the sophs are worried about. . .

Night preceding the game another of those famous beach parties was in throe. The evening proceeded quietly with good food and a few sermon-like remarks coming from HARVEY SCHECTER and TOM BURT (my, how that boy does get around) when Student Body Prexy RAY PUISSEGUR arrived on the scene, Just ask the poor man about

A.W.S. Initiation Monday Evening

Under the iron heel of the MIGHTY sophomores, freshmen women will be initiated as full-fledged student body members next Monday night, October 8, from 5 to 8 p.m. Frosh women will meet at five in the A.W.S. room, and be escorted to an unannounced place on campus for games, folk dancing, and dinner. Tickets for dinner are on sale by Las Espuelas members for 35 cents.

"We hope to have a large attendance of both freshmen and upper-class women," stated Dean Helen Sweet, "for we can promise a great deal of fun for all, both initiates and spectators."

In charge of arrangements for the event are Las Espuelas, sophomore women's honor organization, and A.W.S. Miss Jean Bellinger of the physical education department, will lead the folk dances.

Laugh of the evening was on ex-Junior class prexy, SAMMY HIXON. He was all alone, so alone . . . seems he has a terrible time remembering last names. Spent long tedious hours trying to remember that of his date for the evening . . . finally went home and just thought about it.

An apology to members of the student body has been handed me by HARVEY SCHECTER for passing by so many Gauchos in his model A while on his way up Alameda Padre Serra. Seems that by the time Harvey has ELLIOTT and HANK MADWELL in his "automobile" the clever little mechanism just won't make the hill with any more added weight. Harvey sez: "Please stoodents, no more scowls!" That's okay kids, maybe Monsieur Schechter will buy a new car soon.

Sports in Shorts

By FRED BURROUS

Schotland and company were in a fine stew of confusion last football eve when two of our Gaucho stalwarts donned uniforms for the visiting Tulare Cowboy eleven. The college rooting section was organized for the express purpose of noisily supporting our Marine chums but when the gang saw Tommie "near-miss" Burt and Gordie "Well, I was great three years ago" Griffiths dashing bravely onto the field of combat to supplement a badly undermanned visiting team, their true-blue Gauchoitis got the best of 'em and S.B.C. went all out for the hopelessly outclassed Cowboys. Due to the fine work of T. B. and G. G. the Marines were held to a mere 32 point margin!

Speaking of football reminds us that now is the time for ALL of us to start thinking of our team for the coming year. We need players, lots of them. With a little encouragement the high school stars and former service players of our respective home schools could be persuaded to come up here to Santa Barbara for their advanced schooling. This institution has nothing to offer to the professional football bum but it has plenty of advantages for athletes who play because of love for the game and the pride of representing a fine college. We're a closely knit bunch of people here at S.B.C. and it is within our power to really make the fame of the Gauchos shine across the nation.

Basketball prospects for this year are good. The team this year will not be handicapped through lack of floor as the Armory will again be open to the Gauchos as in the pre-war days. Among those answering the first call of the season were Rodriguez, Burt, Coffman, Burrous, and Elliott of last years ill-fated squad; Casier of city league fame, Nason an All-State star from Mississippi, and McGill who made All-City down at Long Beach. There are several others whose basketball histories at this writing are unknown to us.

Plenty of enthusiasm has been shown in the Yacht Club this year. Almost a half-hundred interested guys and gals turned out for the initial meeting of the season in which plans for the club's activities were outlined by newly elected Commodore Wes Gray. Neophytes passed their swimming tests last Saturday and joined the salts in a full weekend of cutting the white-caps. The club still extends open

Men Take Trip To College Cabin

Final arrangements for the A.M.S. overnight trip to the college cabin have been made and cars will leave the Riviera campus about 4 p.m. today. This event is the first in a series of social functions planned for men students. Dr. G. W. Durlinger will accompany the men and act as sponsor.

The first night meeting of the year was held on the Mesa campus last Monday evening, at which time the new A.M.S. constitution was discussed and sports reels were shown.

During the regular 4 hour assembly, September 25, the men held a meeting in room 80 and elected representatives to fill positions that were open.

Those elected to hold office for the Fall '45 semester were Skiv Dahl, vice president; Bob Schotland, secretary; Lowell Williams, treasurer; Jim Minah, historian; and Ed Grabast, sergeant at arms. Ross Everman was appointed as A.M.S. representative to the A.C.B. board and Harvey Schechter was chosen as social chairman.

Coach Terry Dearborn gave the men a short talk on the prospects for sports. Basketball, baseball, and track seem like the activities for the coming year, with intra-mural football and softball as possibilities if enough men request these activities.

arms to all interested in the fine art of sailing.

"Racketeers wanted" is the sign on the gymnasium bulletin board. Not the Dillinger or Capone type but all aspiring Bill Tilden's and Sarah Palfrey's are urged to sign up for the big tennis tournament that gets underway Monday, October 15.

Men's and women's singles and doubles as well as mixed doubles will be played. An entrance fee of twenty-five cents per player per event will be charged to take care of the price of awards for the winners.

Marines Face Albany Navy

The undefeated Santa Barbara Marine gridders will face strong opposition tomorrow night at La Playa Stadium when they tangle with the Albany Navy Beachbusters.

Albany displayed a strong offense while defeating the University of California Ramblers 6 to 0 last Saturday. They scored the only touchdown in the first quarter, and the remainder of the game was played in California territory. The Navy eleven penetrated the Ramblers' defense constantly only to be stopped four times inside the four-yard line.

The Marines chalked up their third victory, defeating the Tulare Cowboys 32 to 0, despite the presence of two college students in the Cowboys lineup. Tom Burt and Gordon Griffiths played for the visitors after some of their players were hurt.

The Marines again displayed a strong defense to stop the opposition. They held the Cowboys to a total of 11 yards gained from scrimmage, and Tulare did not get past the 30-yard line. Meanwhile, the local team gained 226 yards from running plays, with "Fancy" Dan Radakovich and Hank Little, full-back, leading their offense.

Radakovich received a leg injury in the Tulare game and will not play against Albany. Jim Terrell, triple-threat halfback, will return to the Marine lineup, however, which should balance the loss.

Tickets for this game may be purchased in the student body office for sixty cents upon presentation of your student body card.

Elementary Students Give 'Hobo Picnic'

Elementary department members held their annual "Hobo Picnic" last night at Pershing park from 6 to 8 p.m.

Members had a dinner consisting of spaghetti, salad, coffee and dessert, and later played various games for which prizes were won.

CODE OF HONOR FOR SANTA BARBARA COLLEGE

The Associated Students of the University of California Santa Barbara College, being interested in the development of honesty and character among its members, take upon themselves as individuals, to conduct themselves honorably in all college activities. To this end they will neither give nor receive unpermitted aid in any curriculum endeavor. They have further agreed to cooperate among themselves in maintaining honorable action.

Under the Code of Honor, students should cooperate in the following manner:

1. The student must avoid any activity which might be misconstrued as cheating. Books and notes shall be put aside; attention should focus on his own paper. When possible he should take an alternate seat.
2. It is required of all students to sign the following statement in all examinations and papers: "I have neither given or received unpermitted aid in this examination."
3. The responsibility of reporting violations rests upon anyone who may observe a case of cheating. Only when this responsibility is assumed by all, can the Honor System be fully successful.

4. In the event that any infraction of the Honor Code comes to the attention of the Activities Control Board, it shall be the duty of the Board to gather and weigh the evidence and determine an appropriate penalty. Penalties will vary from recommended loss of credit for the material in question, to expulsion.
