UCSB Spikers Clean House, Sweep Wolfpack and Aggies

BY MARVIN GAPULTOS
Staff Writer

The floors of the Thunderdome are spotless after a weekend of sweeps as the #9 UCSB women's volleyball team defeated Nevada in three games on Friday night and Utah State in three games on Saturday night.

The Gauchos (18-3 overall, 8-2 in the Big West Conference) jumped off to another quick start, defeating Nevada (13-7, 6-3) 15-2 in both games one and two on Friday. In game three the Wolfpack seemed to regroup and put up more of a fight, yet still fell to Santa Barbara 15-13 in the final game.

"We struggled with a few of our techniques," senior middle blocker Michelle Christ said of game three. "We got kind of sloppy and just let them back into the game."

Sophomore middle blocker Jutta Weissenborn led the way for Santa Barbara with 23 kills and 10 digs, and made only one error on 30 swings for a .733 hitting percentage. Senior outside hitter Roberta Gehlke pitched in with 10 kills and 14 digs. Sophomore setter Brooke Rundle also had 14 digs, and 65 assists as well. Christ chipped in with 13 kills as the Gauchos out-hit the Wolfpack 426 to .212 for the match.

On Saturday, Santa Barbara faced

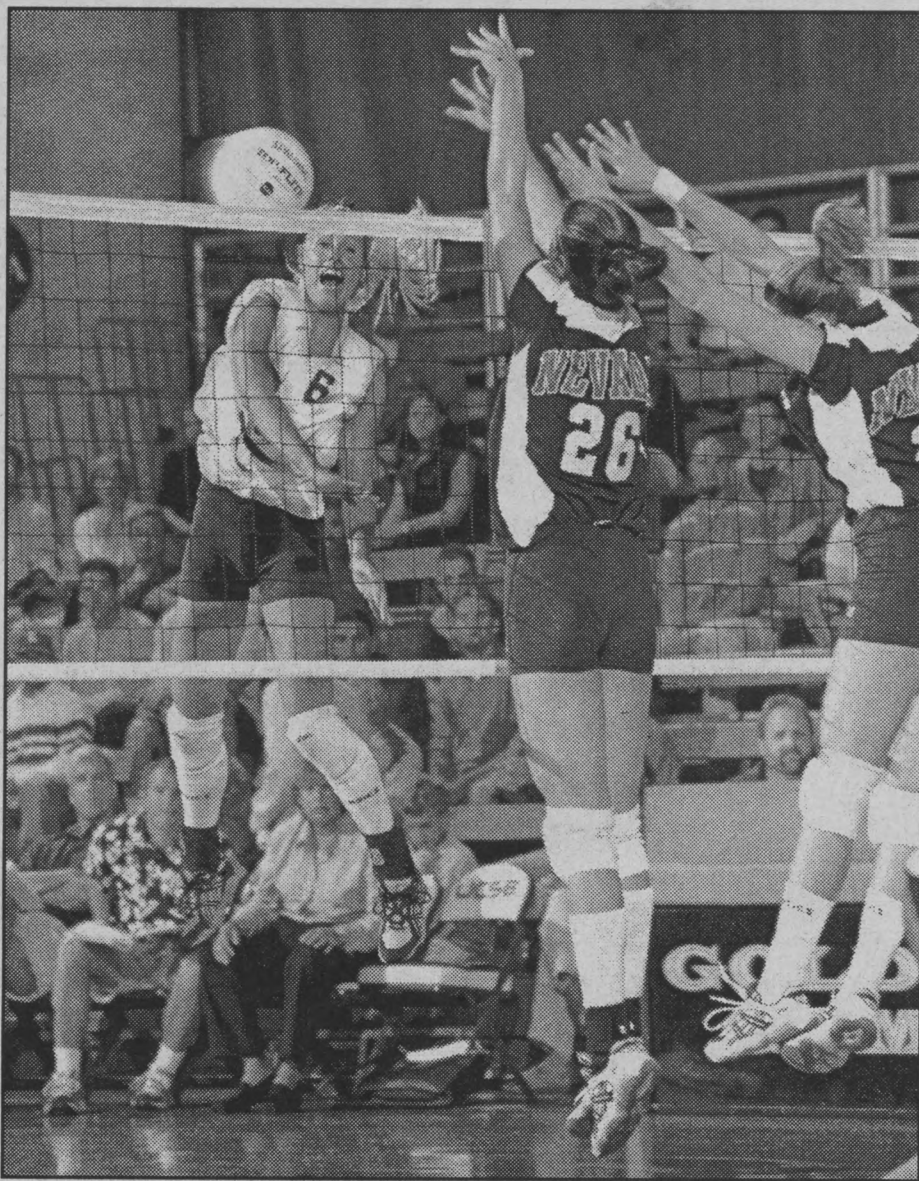

Utah State and had results similar to the victory the previous night, sweeping the Aggies in three games. However, Santa Barbara's firepower dropped compared to the Nevada match, as it hit at only a .240 clip against the Aggies.

"Honestly, we didn't play our best," UCSB Head Coach Kathy Gregory said. "Our middles didn't get into the game until later on and then we made too many offensive errors."

In game one, Santa Barbara easily disposed of Utah in just over ten minutes in a 15-5 bloodletting, but was challenged by a recharged Aggie team in game two. Utah stayed within striking distance throughout the second frame, getting as close as 13-11, but just could not catch Santa Barbara, losing 11-15. In the final game, the Gauchos were ahead 11-5 before Utah called a timeout. However, the Aggies could not fight their way back into the game as they did in game two, and the Gauchos went on to a 15-5 win.

Santa Barbara was led by Gehlke, who posted 12 kills on the night. Senior outside hitter Charlene Conley and Christ had eight kills each.

"This was a good match," Conley said. "Now we're looking forward to this week's match with Cal Poly, since we haven't beaten them. So now we are going to prepare for a good match against them."

Gauchos Shut Out New Mexico and UNLV in Highlight-Filled Weekend

BY BROOKE ROBERTS
Staff Writer

The UCSB men's soccer team put on a soccer clinic this past weekend at Harder Stadium, shutting out both New Mexico and UNLV while treating Gaucho fans to a weekend full of futbol highlights.

On Friday evening, the Gauchos (11-5-0 overall, 4-2-0 in Mountain Pacific Sports Federation) battled New Mexico and handed the Lobos a 4-0 defeat, thanks in large part to a former Lobo. Junior forward Sean Herry, who spent his freshman and sophomore years with New Mexico, burned his former team with three goals for his first career hat trick. This was also Santa Barbara's first hat trick since 1996. Freshman forward Justin Waldrop chipped in for the Gauchos as well, adding a goal. Also, junior forward Lucas Dalglish recorded one assist. Senior goalkeeper Stewart Sanders posted three saves for his sixth shutout of the season.

Leading scorer of the season, sophomore forward Jaime Ambriz, commented on Friday's action against New Mexico.

"Friday was a tough game," Ambriz said. "At the beginning of the game, it looked like it could have gone either way. It was a really physical game. It was a big advantage playing at home. It's always good to have people out there cheering for us."

On Sunday afternoon, the Gauchos faced UNLV and ran the Rebels for a 3-0 victory. Ambriz put the Gauchos on the board first as he dribbled into the goal box and put the ball into the back of the net during the 23rd minute of action. In the second half of play, sophomore forward Joe Hubay-Dies shot one straight past the Rebel goalie in the 69th minute with an assist by freshman midfielder Brandon Meeks. UCSB was not finished, however, as Waldrop scored off an assist by sophomore midfielder Zak Matteoli in the 79th minute. The Rebels remained scoreless throughout the game, thanks again to an incredible performance by Sanders in front of the Gaucho goal. Sanders notched a season-best nine saves for his 14th career shutout as the Rebels peppered him with 18 shots on goal.

"We played very well on Friday, but we didn't play as well today," UCSB Head Coach Tim Vom Steeg said of the Gauchos' Sunday shutout. "Sunday games are very hard. Playing at 2 p.m. on a Sunday after having a game on Friday is tough."

Hubay-Dies noted that Santa Barbara's energy level was not at 100 percent.

"We were tired today," he said. "We came out sort of sluggish. I think that we did work hard today, even though we were tired. It will be nice to have next weekend off."

UCSB has a long while to recover from this past weekend, as it next faces Cal State Northridge at home on Nov. 4 for its last MPSF match of the season, and its last game of the season on the ThunderPitch.

Center Out With Stress Fracture

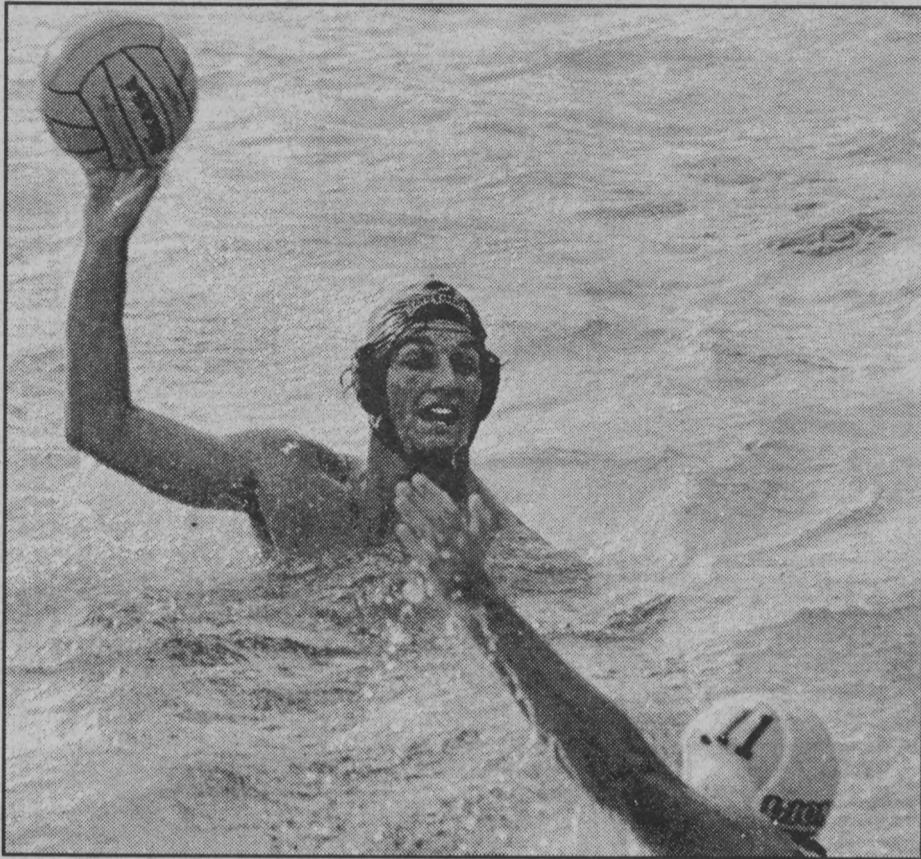

The UCSB women's basketball team encountered a setback this week when Gaucho center Nicole Greathouse injured her left foot. The 6'2" junior will be sidelined for four to six weeks with a stress fracture of the fifth metatarsal.

Despite losing a key component to his lineup, UCSB Head Coach Mark French was happy that the injury was detected before it became worse, and remains optimistic for his team.

"Obviously we are upset about losing Nicole for these upcoming weeks," he said. "But we are glad that we caught the problem early and we expect to have her back at full strength in six weeks. We are confident that our team will be able to compensate for the loss of such a valuable player."

However, the loss of Greathouse will be felt. The Ventura native averaged 7.5 points and 7.2 rebounds last season as she started in 29 of UCSB's 30 games.
