

Wanted! 2300 Santa Barbara Students to Vote April 13, 14

April 13 will be a red letter day in the history of Santa Barbara College. Two important propositions are to be voted which will affect every student. Regardless of which side of the fence you are on, the fact remains that everyone holding a student body card is eligible to vote and should utilize that privilege.

College students are mature enough to decide things themselves and to take interest in the government policies of their college. We warn everyone that an apathetic student body is a perfect target for factions interested in gaining control of a student body. Therefore, may we emphasize the fact that every student on this campus should exercise his prerogative to vote.

Saga of a Poor House College

Next year students will feel the effects of the lack of sufficient funds in the Associated Students' budget—if they don't already feel the effects of tightening purse strings, thus barring many worthwhile activities from either complete or partial sponsorship by the college. There are two reasons for adjusting the income of the college to meet changing conditions; the rise in the cost of living has heretofore been met by stretching the budget to its limit of fluctuation; but, like a rubber band, money will stretch only so far, as everyone who

STUDENTS VOTE TOMORROW THREE BIG ISSUES AT STAKE

Twelve Organizations Announce Glamorous 'Queen' Candidates

Following is the list of candidates and the organizations sponsoring them:

Wendy Adams, Phi Kappa Gamma.

Mary Carjola, Lambda Chi Alpha.
Janor Conte, Alpha Theta Chi.
Margaret Latasa, Chi Delta Chi.
Alice Lewis, Omicron Phi.

Professional Photographers

Pictures of the candidates will be taken by leading Santa Barbara photographers and will be placed on campus and downtown by the Publicity Committee. The dance is sponsored jointly by Alpha Phi Omega and Phrateres.

Last Local Fraternity Goes Delta Tau Delta

Sigma Alpha Kappa, the last remaining local fraternity on campus, has received word from Delta Tau Delta, a national, that their petition to become affiliated has been approved. Formal ceremonies installing Sigma Alpha Kappa as Delta Psi chapter of Delta Tau Delta will be held here in May.

Last week-end, Gamma Sigma Pi, a local fraternity, became California Eta chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The official initiation was held Saturday at the Native Sons' Beach Club. Sixty-five active and alumni members were initiated at that time.

The initiation was followed by a banquet at which Delmar Daves was master of ceremonies, and the featured speaker was Dr. John O. Moseley, president of the University of Nevada.

Sunday morning, a special ceremony posthumously initiated Richard Ryder into Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Ryder was a former Gamma Sig and star athlete, who lost his life during the war.

Faculty and administration officers were honored guests at a Sunday reception held at the Mar Monte Hotel.

ROADRUNNER REHEARSALS

The second rehearsal for the forthcoming Roadrunner Revue will be held on Thursday afternoon, April 14, in the Riviera Auditorium from 3:00 to 5:00 pm, it was announced by Phil Jacks Jr., director of the show.

Jacks stated that it is urgent that all connected with the show, including those who have not yet tried out, be at this rehearsal.

Future rehearsals will be announced in El Gauchito. All members of the technical and acting staffs are requested to watch for these announcements.

Why the Student Fee Should Be Raised

By MARK GALLERT, Finance Committee Chairman

The membership fee of the Associated Students has remained at the same figure, $7.80, for five years. Meanwhile, costs have increased greatly on practically every type of expenditure needed for student activities financed by this fee. With the increase in the cost of living, both salaries and products are necessarily priced considerably higher than when the present student-body fee was established. For a time, this increase in cost was masked by a steadily increasing enrollment. Now the turn of the tide has come—the peak of veteran enrollment has passed, and the total enrollment trend is definitely down.

There are many relatively fixed costs in student activities—there are minimum costs involved in any type program such as a drama production or a football game, and these costs for example cannot be cut by a third if the student enrollment declines by a third. For most of the student activities the only way to reduce costs is to reduce the number of events or functions presented.

Therefore, with increased costs and declining enrollment, it will be necessary to drastically curtail student extra-curricular activities unless the student body votes the increase in membership fee on April 13th. The budget for the next fiscal year—1949-1950—is now being drafted, and the curtailments (that will be made necessary on the basis of the present fee) for athletics, drama, music, and social committee's dance schedule are sad to contemplate. However, money will just stretch so far and no further. The finance committee of Student Council feels the student body should clearly realize that it is a choice between voting an increased student body fee or facing very severe reductions in the extra-curricular activities.

Hatlen Directs; Beaver, Graham Star in 'Green Grow the Lilacs'

"Eight hands up
And circle to the west,
Then swing that gal
You love the best."

The Old West is coming to Santa Barbara!

Lynn Riggs' rousing story of Indian Territory at the turn of the century, Green Grow the Lilacs, will be presented in the Riviera Auditorium of Santa Barbara College May 12, 13, and 14 by the Associated Student Body. Theodore Hatlen is the director of this nostalgic but hearty tale.

Leading Roles

The roles of the two young lovers, Laurey and Curley, will be played by Dickey Graham and Walter Beaver. Miss Graham is new to the college stage but has appeared in such productions as Gold In the Hills and Fumed Oak at Fullerton Junior College. Gauchito audiences are familiar with Walter Beaver's outstanding performances in many college productions, including Electra, Hamlet, The Little Foxes, The Male Animal, and The Inspector General.

Homespun Villain

In the homespun role of Aunt Eller will be newcomer Marie Willett, and Jeeter Fry, the villainous "hard hand," will be played by Gill Johnston, whom audiences will remember for his fine performance as Orestes in Electra. Ted Shank, previously seen in Dr.

Propose Revision of Constitution, By-Laws; Student Body Fee Raise, Change in Class Election System

Two days of balloting on three important Student Body issues will begin tomorrow morning in the college Quad Area. The proposals to be voted upon concern the confirmation of the revised constitution and by-laws, increasing the student body fee $2.20, and changing the date for elections of class presidents.

Registrar Tells 1949 Summer Session Facts

Catalogs are now available for the 1949 Summer Session at Santa Barbara College, it was announced today by Dr. Jerry H. Clark, registrar.

For the first time since the beginning of the war, there will be one session of eight weeks instead of two sessions of six weeks each. The session opens on June 20 and closes on August 13.

Commenting on the prospects for attendance this summer, Dr. J. Harold Williams, acting provost, said it is impossible to make any accurate prediction because of the change from two sessions to a single session. He pointed out that UCLA is making a similar change, while Berkeley is retaining the two-session schedule.

Expect 1200

Dr. Clark said that while there was no basis for an exact estimate of attendance, it seemed reasonable to expect an enrollment in the neighborhood of 1200, similar to that of the first session last summer.

He added that persons wishing to attend the Summer Session at Santa Barbara should notify the Registrar on or before June 6.

Of the 88 members of the Summer Session teaching staff, 66 will be from the regular Santa Barbara faculty while 22 will come from other institutions. Among the latter are Dr. Clarence C. Moore, Dean of the Northwest Center, University of Wyoming; Dr. Homer J. Smith, Chairman of the Department of Industrial Education, University of Minnesota; Dr. Albert Hofstadter, associate professor of philosophy, New York University; Dr. Earl C. Hald, associate professor of economics, University of Washington; Dr. William E. Smith, professor of history, Miami University.

24 General Courses

Courses in 24 general subjects will be offered by 14 departments of the college. They include 10 in art, 7 in biological sciences, 1 in botany, 27 in education, 5 in psychology, 8 in English, 2 in French, 2 in German, 2 in Spanish, 10 in home economics, 9 in graphic arts, 17 in industrial arts, 4 in mathematics, 20 in music, 19 in physical education (men), 4 in health education, 9 in physical

Cards Required

All students are reminded by the Election Committee Chairman, Junemarie Davidson, to have their Student Body Cards with them when voting. Any student without his card will not be allowed to vote in this election.

Appearance on the ballot of the three proposals will be as follows:

1. Are you in favor of the revised constitution and by-laws of the Associated Student, Santa Barbara College, University of California, as proposed by the student council and published in El Gauchito? Yes..... No.....

2. Are you in favor of the proposed $2.20 raise of the student body fee? Yes..... No.....

3. Revision of the Present Constitution: Are you in favor of the sophomore, junior and senior class presidents being elected at the annual student body election, with their qualifications governed the same as class representatives? Yes..... No.....

Proposition Three

Proposition number three has been placed on the ballot in case the other revisions to the constitution do not pass. Bob Casier, chairman of the Constitution Revision Committee, expressed the desire that every student will be intelligently informed on the proposals. He urged all students to attend tonight's open meeting of the Student Council which will further discuss the important revisions.

Raising of the student body fee has been extensively publicized about campus. Supporters of this measure have stated that there is a great need for a larger student body fund. Mark Gallert, chairman of the Finance Committee, stated that if the expected slump in next fall's enrollment is realized, major cuts in appropriations to various student groups and publications will be a necessity unless this measure passes. Defeat of this proposal, Gallert predicted, would result in price increases in our publications, athletic events, and a decrease in quantity and quality of all student sponsored events.

Squires

Five men were accepted into membership in Squires, sophomore honorary service organization, last night at a meeting held at the Kappa Sig house. Jim Mulick, Dan Smith, Don Tully, Bob Chapman and Dick Bowen are the new Squires. Plans for revision of the Squire constitution, a banquet, a Squire social, and new projects were discussed. Squires plan to assist at the polls during the constitution and AMS elections. Craig Swenson, Bill Hardison and Jim Mulick are Squires who are candidates for AMS office.

Badminton Club

Irene Weinheimer emerged victorious at the women's singles tournament last Sunday. At the quarters, Bami Everett was playing Irene Weinheimer, and Gwenn Haygood was challenging Dorothy Runde. Dorothy Runde and Irene Weinheimer were victorious at the semi-finals. The final match as played by Irene and Dorothy was very close and took the full three games with Irene winning two games, Dorothy winning one. There were twenty-six entrants in the tournament.

Phi Kappa Gamma

Phi Kappa Gamma will give its first annual "Pansy Ring Tea" for all sorority women Sunday, May 22. The Pansy Ring, as observed on other campuses, is an invitation for all newly engaged or married women to step through a ring of flowers, confirming their new status.

Members of all campus sororities are invited to attend the affair, which will be held at the Phi Kappa Gamma house. Arrangements are being handled by Lou Ann Lison, Marilyn Poore, and Joan Yulo.

Home Ec Club

At their last meeting the Home Ec Club listened to four discussion groups in connection with the "Consumer Speaks" program sponsored by the American Home Economics Association.

College girls' wool skirts was the item on which consumer reaction was compiled. The results were summarized and sent back to the national group with which the local Home Ec Club is affiliated. After the meeting refreshments were served.

SQUARE DANCE

All college men and women are invited to the next Square Dance which will be held this Thursday, April 14, in the Women's Gym. Activities will commence at 7:45. Instruction will be given and beginners are welcome.

These dances are sponsored by the newly organized Square Dance Club. At the last meeting the following officers were elected: Bruce Johnson, president; Charlene Walker, secretary, and Margaret Mueller, publicity chairman.

AIRWICK PAPERS

by Jack Calkins

Deer Mort,
Wal I finally got inrolled in S.B. (that means Santa Barbara in these parts). They have a bunch of cards that you gotta fill out, that why I didn't git in sooner.

I shure do miss you folks in Kaintuck, but I found a good way to git will knowd here in school and so I aint so homesick anymore. Anybody who wants to git his name in the paper an' be knowd by everyone just hasta write to the editor and shout his fool mouth off about somethin'. Th' best two things to yell about are the cafeteria (thats jist like Paw's gin'l store where everybody goes to chaw abit. They sell food there too) or the collige newspaper, the Gauchio.

About every two weeks I write in to the newspaper an' ask 'em why don't they give me bigger pieces of pie for less money an' why don't they put more corn juice in the coffee or why don't they keep the houn'-daws off'n the tables. It don't matter what you chomp yure gums about, just so's ya chomp 'em. But the best sport is to git Bill Muncey (he's some sort of a boss up here) squirmen' in a corner and tell us why he don't sell us food cheaper than the stores in the village do. Its more fun than falin' in the corn juice bar'l.

In between times, when I really want to git myself knowd, I write letters to the editor an' tell what a hawg-wallowin' paper he's got. This gits the editor so goldang mad he writes a big article with my name spread all over it. I write an' tell him what a kid-actin' bunch o' writers he's got or tell him his paper is writin' only for sororities or fraternities (a sorority is a gatherin' of girls who talk about menfolks all the time an' a fraternity is where menfolks git together an' talk about the wimmin and then they both get together over corn drippin's and do most anything), and that he don't never put no interestin' writin' in the paper. It shure is fun to git him riled up.

There's other things up here to yell about like school spirit (that's where yure to hoot 'n' hollar), and the feudin' going on between the head-larnin' department and the autymobile-fixin' and wood-cuttin' department, but I can get my name better knowd ifun I write about them other things.

Wal Mort, ifun I have time between writin' to the editor, I'll write an' tell ya more about my edicatshun.

Your Friend,
Zachary Pew

has used a personal budget will know. Secondly, the peak of enrollment has already been reached and is now on a definite decline; next year will show an enrollment only five-sixths that of this year. The major revenue is received from the student body fee; if that source is curtailed, the only possible result will be a reduction of activities for the students; not only dramatic productions, musical events, and dances, but also athletics and student publications.

As Others See Us

Many in the past have taken an impartial view of our campus and offered constructive criticism for the betterment of our lot. Since theirs was an objective view, untinged by petty axes to grind or quest of political gain, we feel that their opinions are of value in determining the worth of the changes offered by the proposed constitution.

Dick Hill, UCLA Daily Bruin City Editor, had this to say about our campus, after taking a tour of UCSBC last year.

"The Legislative Council, composed of 28 voting members, only four of whom are elected at large, and six non-voting members, all non-students, is largely, under the terms of a student body constitution, a self-perpetuating body. Candidates for elective office must be passed on by an election board appointed by the vice-president. Elected members are the president, vice-president, secretary and head yell-leader. All other members of the Council are representatives of special groups, and are appointed or elected by these groups, subject, always, to the consent of the previous Council.

"Other articles of the constitution are equally antiquated. The pre-audit committee, composed of three faculty members appointed by the Provost, plus the student body president, have absolute control over ASUC finances."

President John Caldwell has offered the opinion that the ASSB Constitution should be revised "to extend student government to every group and every student." He suggested increasing the proportion of student officers elected at large and expressed the view that, at present, student officers are elected or put into office by small, self-perpetuating cliques.

Bob Casier, political science major, is of the opinion that red tape in the schol government, ensuing from the representation in Student Council by a large group of students interested only in the welfare of their own particular department rather than the welfare of the student body as a whole, will be greatly cut down in effecting the acceptance of the proposed constitution and that the council, composed only of students elected at large, would insure representation of the entire student body.

Requirements for Voting

Every student who has a student body card has the privilege of voting and the only stipulation made by the elections committee is that students present their cards at the polls. Remember, Your Vote is Your Voice in the formation of our college government.

WEEDS 'N' STUFF

By Fred Swehla

Are you a male? Are you a female? Do you smoke? Will you? Have you? Do you? Don't you? Why?

Eight hundred Gauchos have answered these questions and to date, only one half have been driven to the salt mines of Siberia. But, the average student asks, what is Gallup doing on our campus? Who pays for this poll, Pravda? And why do they want to know how many of us have nic fits, huh?

I am, and I'm happy to report that the average Joe is showing a little interest in my survey of college Americana, even if he is reverting back to Neanderthal habits and to mores and morals that would shock their Victorian ancestors.

They tell me there are three types of pollster. First, if you stumble over a lone stranger, shunned by all society, methodically perusing a nicotine spattered paper and mumbling "Three hundred do, twelve don't." have mercy and treat him kindly.

There is another type. And have care, for this man has power. "How old are? Are you married? Engaged? . . ."

However, there is a third type of interviewer known as the trapper. He is equipped by a bear trap under each arm and two pints of vodka reserve. His quaint person with grey hair and red moustache will accost a stranger with, "Want sompen in da pot, boy?" He's been scientifically trained by the Kremlin at UCLA in all methods of sophistry and especially in the art of saying no. But not of taking no, so give up, give him an answer. There's no way out unless you want to put "sompem in da pot, boy."

Social Activities, Not Competition Purpose of Recreation Association

To provide a varied recreational program, part of which will be of interest to every student on campus, is the main purpose of the College Recreation Association. Its activities are social and for this reason the C.R.A. is not interested in varsity competition—the enjoyment and pleasure of people who like to get out and play are its objectives. All of its activities are co-recreational, the only exception being the Women's Athletic Association.

The executive board is elected from members of C.R.A. It is possible to be a member in two ways: (1) by being a member of a club sponsored by C.R.A., or (2) by being an officer or committee-member of an organization which is putting on a C.R.A.-sponsored activity, such as the Co-Rec Nights at the YMCA. These people are eligible to vote, and they elect an executive board. At Santa Barbara, the C.R.A. executive board is made up of President, Dorothy Runde; Vice-President, Fletcher Aleong; Corresponding Secretary, Richard Roth; Recording Secretary, Doris Mosaly; Publicity Chairman, Bonnie Sly; Treasurer, Francis Guess; and Miss Patricia Whitaker, advisor.

Following is a brief description of each club included under C.R.A. together with the time and place of meetings and the names of officers for the reader's convenience in contacting the different groups

Women's Athletic Association

For the past several years strenuous competition among select and highly-skilled girls' varsity teams has been passe. After much discussion, observation, study, and debate, those people interested in developing and participating in sports have come to the conclusion that there should be less enmity among girls' athletic teams and more friendliness, cooperation, and sportsmanship. No longer is the individual girl sacrificed for the sake of the team. Santa Barbara has adopted this belief and has put it into practice. The results are more than satisfactory—every girl whether skilled or unskilled in a sport is urged to join the W.A.A. and enjoy the fun of free and easy physical exercise. Every girl who shows a continued interest in a sport is always given a chance to play in the games with other schools. Although the W.A.

A. is under the auspices of the Women's Physical Education Department, it cannot be stressed enough that non-physical education majors are extremely welcome on the athletic field or gymnasium floor.

The officers of the organization for this year are: President, Libby James; Vice-President, Marie Fennell; Secretary-Treasurer, Helen Loomis; Publicity Chairman, Bambi Everett; Intramural Chairman, Lyn Bynum; and Advisor, Miss Jean Hodgkins.

The health, welfare, and enjoyment of the girls is the first concern of the W.A.A., not the winning of the game at all costs. The girls mingle with the opposing team, introduce themselves, and may even join their team if it is necessary to complete the line-up. After the game it is the usual custom of Santa Barbara girls to include a social gathering, serving refreshments to increase the friendliness between the teams while discussing the game.

The above practice may appear very feminine and useless, but as in life itself, women seem to understand the more far-reaching and fore-sighted goals of social relationships. They are the peace-makers and the compromisers. To them it is more important to build friendships, make social contacts, develop cooperation, insure healthy individuals, and further sportsmanship than to bring home the plaque or the gold cup.

Dance Club

The Dance Club is an honorary organization composed of students who are active and who have accomplished a certain degree of skill in Modern Dance. Tryouts are held in the beginning of each semester and include the passing of various techniques as well as the requirement of the completion of a semester of active participation in the Dance Workshop or a semester of Modern Dance Class. The Dance Club has contributed to many assemblies and produces an annual dance concert.

The co-recreational Dance Workshop, which is sponsored by the Dance Club under the auspices of the College Recreation Association, meets every Tuesday and Thursday from 2:00 p.m. till 4:00 p.m. in the Women's Gymnasium. During this time the participants practice many modern dance techniques and create dance patterns.

The All-College Square Dance group is another activity sponsored by the Dance Club and has been organized recently with great success. This group, which meets every other Thursday in the Women's Gymnasium, is soon to become an independent group with its own officers and planning committee. Miss Jean Bellinger is the faculty sponsor and guiding light. The scheduled meetings for the Square Dance Club are as follows: April 14 and 28, and May 26.

Branching from the All-College Dance Group is a folk dance demonstration group consisting of the more experienced dancers. This group has represented the college in several activities in the past semester and attends all dance sessions to act as teachers and leaders. Any one interested in a hoe-down see Miss Bellinger or come to the Women's Gym on the above dates.

Badminton Club

Before starting Sunday evening's homework session, why not drop down to the Community Center on De la Cina between Anacapa and Victoria at 7:30 p.m.? The C.R.A. Badminton Club will offer you a brisk workout on the court. There are no dues or fees of any kind, and the Club has four rackets for student use which have been furnished by the C.R.A. The shuttlecocks, or "birdies" are fifty cents—a special student rate, so bring a friend and come along next Sunday.

The first tournament, women's singles and doubles, was held on March 27; the second, men's singles and doubles, was held April 10; and the final mixed tournament will be held in May.

Marilyn Hunter is chairman of the club and urges all fun-lovin' Gauchos to join the Sunday evening crowd at the Community Center.

Tennis Club

Although the Tennis Club of the C.R.A. cannot guarantee a love match, there are many stinging contests that end with a love-game, so for good fun and exercise, join the C.R.A. racketeers at the Municipal Courts on Wednesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. Helen Weiss is chairman of the club and will welcome any and all Santa Barbara students who are interested in joining their club. Skill is not a prerequisite, but enthusiasm and a wide smile are—and it's for free, Gauchos!

At the present time, there is a tournament progressing on Sundays for those who cannot come out on Wednesdays. The final aim of the tennis tournament is to develop some good mixed-doubles teams to challenge U.C.L.A. and other nearby colleges sometime in the Spring.

Ski Club

Don't let the name Ski Club frighten you; it is not necessary to be able to make like a bird off a thousand foot ski jump to be a member—you do not even need ski equipment! According to Jim Schilt, publicity chairman, on all ski trips, the majority of the people have not been on skis before. It is the intention of the club, not only to foster interest in the club, but also to instruct any member in the art of balancing-on-the-boards. It has been found in the past that persons with a little self-confidence, gained with one day's instruction, pick up the skill much more readily than would seem possible.

The club is planning a five-day trip, April 25 to 30, to Mammoth Mountain during the Spring vacation. With a mountain lodge for headquarters, the twenty-five members anticipate a wonderful time and better tans than the beach bugs left at home.

Meetings are held frequently just before trips, although not regularly at any time. Anyone interested should contact Tom Carter, president, or Jim Schilt, publicity chairman, for details.

A program commemorating the Goethe bi-centennial will be held at 4 p.m., Wednesday, April 13, in the AWS Room. The Foreign Language, English and Music Departments will participate in the program.

Gauchos Nine Blanks Marines; Hueneme, USC This Week

Neil Goedhard, exhibiting a near-perfect mixture of deception and superb control, set the visiting El Toro Marines down with three scattered singles Friday afternoon as he hung up his second victory of the year, a 4-0 shutout.

The slim left-hander was the complete master of the situation. His tantalizing assortment of deliveries kept the leathernecks so completely befuddled that no one of them got past first base. In the speediest game of the year—only an hour and one half—Goedhard faced but 29 batters, fanned three and walked none.

In search of a more smoothly functioning team, Coach Lantagne juggled his lineup in several places and as a result, the Gauchos nine cooperated with what was unquestionably their best baseball of the season. Fielding gems were the order of the day as Hal Abbott, trying his hand at third base, and Danny Kutch on short came up with sparkling plays to rob the Marines of sure hits. Catcher Babe Andamczyk for El Toro was the victim on both occasions, Abbott throwing him out in the fourth on an infield tap and Kutch snagging a smash on the right field side of second base to get him by an eyelash in the 7th.

Kutch Homers

What proved to be the winning run came in the 4th inning when, with one away, Moore dropped William's long smash down the right field foul line and Skeith promptly scored Cy from second with a single. Kutch iced the contest in the 5th by homering into dead center and scoring Bob Talley ahead of him. In the 7th, the Gauchos added insult to injury by stealing four bases and eventually scoring their final counter. Talley was safe on an error, stole second, and Abbott scored him with a line single to left.

The visitors were not without their moments also. John Wierema allowed five hits, but three costly errors were responsible for unearned runs. Kutch's homer, although it was sufficient, was the only earned counter of the game. Clyde Tribbey at third base for El Toro shared fielding honors with Kutch and Abbott and got revenge at the same time. He went far to his left to snare Danny's drive in the third and he scooped Hal's smash out of the dirt in the same inning to rob both of sure hits.

Lantagne's men, playing heads up ball all the way, stole six bases and made no errors in winning their third game in seven starts and seem to have found the winning combination.

The Gauchos meet Port Hueneme in a return match at Oxnard Thursday afternoon, and Bill French will probably be the hurler as his mates attempt to make it two in a row over the Sailors. Then its USC Saturday night under the lights at Laguna Park, game time 8 p.m.

Crown Mural Hoop Champ Tomorrow

It will be the Mighty Midgits versus the Grauchos tonight at seven-thirty to decide who is to play Sigma Alpha Kappa tomorrow. However, if the Sig Alphas are defeated, a play-off game will be necessitated the following night.

The Mighty Midgits, last year's finalists, will be pinning their hopes on the jump shots of Gene Caloudes and the all around good play of the Swift brothers, Jay and Harold.

The Grauchos will depend on the backboard and shooting ability of big Dick Bethel, their high scoring center. At forward, Ralph George has found the range with many of his difficult hook shots, and may steal the show from all the others.

The Sig Alphas boast what is probably the best rounded team in the league. With players such as Jack Aldrich, Bill Kelso, Hal Abbott, Tom Dailey, Vern Wrightson and John Bassler, they will be favored for the title no matter who wins tonight's game.

Preceding the championship game tomorrow night will be a basketball field day which will include a free-throw shooting contest. This will start at 7:00 with the game scheduled to begin at 8:30.

Gauchos Take Cal Tech

Led by Bill Emmons, who carded the low gross score of 74, Santa Barbara's classy golfers swept all seven matches to beat Cal Tech, 19½ to 1½, at the Montecito Country Club Friday afternoon.

Ernie Reid, Bill Kelso and Pete Reid turned in 75's to finish close behind their Gaucha teammate. Ed Revay rang up the best score for the Engineers, a 77. The full results are as follows:

Cindermen Lose CCAA Meet; Set Three Marks

Saturday afternoon at La Playa Stadium the undermanned Gaucha track team was defeated by San Jose State and San Diego State, despite the fact that three Gauchos set new meet records. In the triangular meet San Jose's Spartans led with 76 points followed by San Diego's Aztecs with 50½ and the Gauchos with 36½ points. In the duals it was the Spartans 80½ to the Aztecs 50½; Spartans 88 to the Gauchos 42; Aztecs 75 to the Gauchos 56.

Running in his first college 440 yard race, Gaucha Otey Scruggs raced to a 50.1 second win over CCAA champion Beck of San Diego and several 50 flat men from San Jose. He set a new meet and stadium record and tied the school record set in 1938. Otey was in fifth place until midway through the last turn where he began his winning spurt to first place. Later in the afternoon Otey came from behind on the last turn again, to overtake and beat the Aztec relay anchor man.

Del Pickarts broke his own two week old javelin record of 208 ft. with a hurl of 208 ft. 7 in. This is a new meet, stadium and school record.

High jumper Willie Dancer set a new meet record in defeating Spartan Martin with a jump of 6 ft. 6½ in.

by Phil Jacks

Let's take a look at the sports scene, both local and national: Willie Dancer, Del Pickarts, and Mel Patton appear at this time to be the large point-gainers for Nick Carter's trackmen. If Earl Engman's knee ever rounds into shape, however, he will press these three for high point honors . . . Big Cy Williams is having trouble getting his batting eye set this season. Always a slow starter, Cy is having more than his share of grief in picking up base hits. Chances are that it won't be long before he starts macing that old horeshide . . . Walt Olson, former Santa Barbara Dodger ace who was so impressive during spring training, was shelled from the box in his first start for the Hollywood Stars. Jim Baxes, another former Dodger, is doing a fine job holding down the hot corner for the Stars . . . Bob Wright and Alan Cobbe are in the midst of their best season for Lyle Reynold's netmen . . . Intramural softball gets underway in the near future. Tentative date is about April 12, and all organizations and clubs are urged to file their team rosters with Dick Kaywood at once . . . The Pittsburgh Pirates, the hottest team in the Grapefruit circuit, have a better than average chance to upset the Boston Braves, Brooklyn Dodgers, and St. Louis Cardinals, the National League's one, two, three choices. Looks like the Boston Red Sox in the Junior Circuit . . . Willie Wilton is sitting up late at night trying to figure out just who he is going to get to replace Quentin Sims and Frank Schimandle for next year's cage team. These two men have no worries except the coming softball season. Frank is the leading pitcher in Santa Barbara, while "Old Man" Sims makes like Marty Marion at shortstop . . . Best of luck to Trainer Don Gill who leaves to take up a position at the University of Florida. All of the athletes will miss Don, but not the pipe that "Heels Beals" stuffs with old floor sweepings . . .

Green Grow the Lilacs with a fine cast, lots of music, and an action-filled story, promises to be an evening of excellent entertainment.
