

Rent Strike Set for Tues; Over $30,000 in Pledges

By Nancy Brucker

Preparation for the Isla Vista rent strike to begin Tuesday is already well under way. Tenants' Union volunteers collected over $30,000 in pledges, as they went door to door through Isla Vista this weekend gathering support for the upcoming strike.

The decision to conduct a rent strike came out of a meeting held earlier in the week to discuss means of protesting increased rents in Isla Vista. April 15 is the date on which most households normally pay rent.

The Tenants' Union held a rally Friday to discuss the strike. However, leaflets distributed the previous day had neglected to indicate the location of the rally, and consequently turnout was somewhat less than expected.

Rent checks should be made payable to the rental company or landlord, but can be turned over to the Tenants' Union to be held in a special safe deposit box, or retained by the tenant.

After five days, another meeting will be held to assess support and determine whether the strike should continue.

PLEDGES AND PICKETS

Volunteers were solicited to go door to door in Isla Vista over the weekend to distribute the TU newsletter and get people to sign pledges supporting the strike.

About half of Isla Vista was canvassed Saturday. Tenants were asked to sign pledges supporting the strike and to list the amount of rent they would withhold. Despite the fact that almost two-thirds of residents were not at home, the Tenants' Union was able to collect pledges totalling $30,000. The response has been termed "overwhelming."

Tables will be set up on campus this week for tenants not yet contacted to sign the pledges. Door-to-door canvassing will also continue.

Picket lines will go up around IPM and Rentals, Etc. beginning Monday and continuing throughout the strike.

A renters' boycott of any single management company is deemed unfeasible at the present time, since the vacancy factor in I.V. is less than one per cent. A rent strike, involving the withholding of funds, is considered the most effective method for improving rent conditions at this time. For those who may be evicted as a result, the TU stated, "We'll help with moving."

Battle Brewing Over Council Vote to Limit City Population

By Tom Flagg

Forces opposed to recent changes in the Santa Barbara general plan are closing ranks in preparation for a fight against the 85,000 limit set on Santa Barbara's population by the City Council last Tuesday.

According to Ralph Northart, a Santa Barbara civil engineer, a group of Santa Barbara businessmen met during the week prior to last Tuesday's City Council meeting to solidify their stand against the proposed downzoning ordinance voted on at the Tuesday meeting. The downzoning passed in a 4-3 roll call vote.

The businessmen's group, Northart said, is comprised of representatives from some of Santa Barbara's most powerful business interests. They include the Northside Businessmen's Association, Eastside Businessmen's Association, Santa Barbara Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Realtors.

Northart said that several businessmen not associated with those local groups were also among the 52 people who attended the anti-downzoning meeting.

The group of citizens opposed to the change in the general plan did not have an organizational name as of their last meeting, Northart said, but they will "probably be getting together next week" to choose a name, and to discuss their course of action for fighting the new downzoning ordinance.

Northart guessed the name would be something on the order of "Citizens' Committee Against a Change of the General Plan."

LENGTHY STUDY

The 85,000 population limit was set for the city of Santa Barbara as a result of recommendations made to the City Council by the Planning Commission, a citizens' task force, and city planners. These groups have been studying the city's population capacity for nearly two years.

According to Joanne Miller, a member of the Planning (Cont. on p.3 col.1)

Candidates Fined For Code Violations

By Rick Ziv

With the spring 1975 A.S. elections slated for tomorrow and Wednesday, candidates will have their last chance to appear in a forum today at noon in Storke

Plaza. Meanwhile, several controversies have arisen over the election, including one candidate's attempt to place an injunction on the elections and several candidate's complaints of stolen campaign material.

Candidate for A.S. External President Walt Wilson has written a letter to the A.S. Judicial Board in hopes that they will put an injunction on the election due to the failure of the Elections Committee to properly publicize

I.V. Resident Arrested for Assault

Kidnapping also Alleged; Captured at Casa Royale

By Nancy Brucker

Over a dozen Sheriff's deputies surrounded the Casa Royale apartments Friday afternoon in their pursuit and eventual arrest of one of the residents on charges of assault with a deadly weapon and childstealing.

The resident, David Navarro, had returned home the previous evening to find his two sons, ages six and eight, missing. Navarro's estranged wife had earlier taken the couple's two children as they played outside the apartment of Vicki Tanner, also a resident of Casa Royale, who baby-sat the children while Navarro was at work.

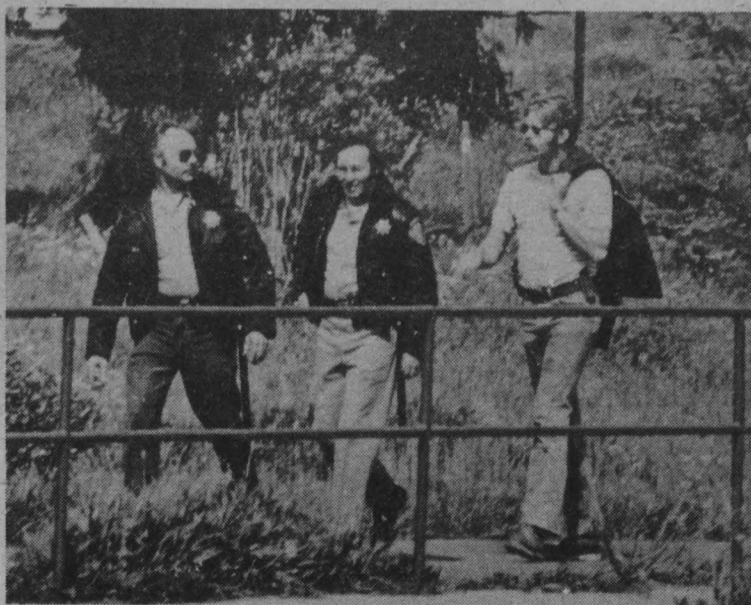

The following morning (Friday), Navarro went to the home of his estranged wife, armed with a .22 caliber rifle. He threatened his wife and demanded the two boys.

GRANDMOTHER WOUNDED

Sometime during the proceedings, the boys' grandmother, who was also present, went into an adjoining bedroom to get a gun. Somehow, the gun discharged, wounding her in the leg.

According to the Sheriff's Department, Navarro then beat his wife and fled with the eight-year old son. Navarro also threatened to kill himself and the boy if approached by police officers.

Navarro then returned to Casa Royale, but not to his own apartment. He went instead to the apartment of the baby-sitter, Vicki Tanner.

After a few minutes, Navarro sent Tanner up to his own apartment. As she entered, Tanner states she was immediately "grabbed" and questioned by two police officers who had been waiting inside.

Lecturer Derides Bicentennial Celebration As 'Meaningless'

By John La Puma

A smiling middle-aged man, stuffed into an old dark grey suit and button down collar shirt, somehow resembling a hefty Harry Truman, stepped onto the stage. His modishly long white hair was slicked back so just one tuft stuck out, directly behind his right ear. Strong, clear, honest eyes looked through old wire rim glasses.

Dr. Page Smith, eminent historian and founder of UCSC's Cowell College, lectured on "The Suppressed Revolution" with keen articulative felicity. Over 500 people listened to him denounce the "Bicentennial" celebration as "a vast hum of meaningless activity" and "the most excruciating disarray in our brief history", finally terming the mass production of artificial pewter plates and other "Revolutionary kitsch" as "the biggest ripoff in American history."

In biting, disappointed terms, Smith pointed out that Americans have drawn away from the genuine spirit of the Revolution. He maintained that many people are resorting to the "depraved magic" of symbols instead of recognizing the wisdom of the thoughts and deeds of the Founding Fathers.

Smith also had trenchant criticism for those academic historians who have "withdrawn from the realm of public awareness the democratic principles of the Revolution, and reduced them to a squabble among scholars."

Most importantly, revolution in general is and the American Revolution in specific was "a spontaneous act, one way out of proportion to the superficial provocation." Smith emphasized that the essence of revolution lies in the surging undercurrents of the masses' discontent, one in which there are overwhelming outbreaks in the street, where radical writers and proper authorities alike gaze in stupefaction at the heretofore unseen riotous elements.

A presentation of the History department, Page Smith's lecture was acerbic yet playful. In what was at times mildly stereotypic language, Smith rallied about the inadequacy of our government and the irresponsibility of our people toward honest patriotism. The professor spoke with solid eloquence and clarity but in a less than excited tone, so a few drooping heads could be glimpsed at the end of the 70-minute talk. Additionally, Smith did not go into many specifics of the ferment of the American Revolution; nearly half his time was devoted to condemnation of American apathy toward democratic principles so brilliantly illustrated by the "Founding Fathers."

Gratuitously, if Page Smith has anything to say about it, America will not sleep through its "Bicentennial" next year.

Arrest...

Tanner was eventually sent back down to her own apartment in the company of two plainclothes officers, in an attempt to draw Navarro outside, and away from the young son.

ESCAPE AND CAPTURE

Instead, Tanner managed to tip Navarro off, and while she got the officers back outside on a ruse, Navarro fled out a back window with the boy.

Officers then entered the apartment, and according to Tanner, "tore the place apart for over an hour."

Realizing that Navarro was no longer in the apartment, officers carried the search outside and Navarro was eventually captured in a field across the street from the apartment building.

The boy was returned to his mother, while Navarro is being held on charges of assault with a deadly weapon and childstealing.

Tanner also faces charges as an accessory, and has been advised by the Sheriff's Department to "put her affairs in order" pending a warrant for her arrest.

Additionally, Tanner faces the loss of her own son. One of the officers present, who is also with the Juvenile Department, intimated to Tanner that her situation may constitute an "unfit environment" for the child, and stated that an investigation may ensue.

asked their reactions to the Tenants' Union Model Contract, both expressed sympathy with the TU, but remained skeptical of the contract.

Objections were raised particularly to the no cleaning/damage/security deposit clause. Said one landlord, "In that case, will the Tenants' Union assume responsibility for any damage?"

A Tenants' Union member replied that what was needed was "trust."

The Tenants' Union states that they have been contacted by about twelve landlords so far, and are currently negotiating.

Bradbury To Lecture

Award-winning writer Ray Bradbury will give a free public lecture on "How Not to Burn a Book, or 1984 Will Not Arrive" in observance of National Library Week Wednesday (April 16) at 4 p.m. in UCSB's Campbell Hall.

His talk will follow the presentation of awards to UCSB winners of the 12th annual Edwin Corle Memorial Undergraduate and Graduate Book Collection Contest.

On the basis of his novel "Fahrenheit 451," Bradbury was awarded the gold medal of the Commonwealth Club of California in 1954. His hundreds of short stories, many of which are science fiction, have been translated into a dozen languages, including Japanese and Russian.

He holds the Benjamin Franklin Award and the National Institute of Arts and Letters Award for his short stories. He also has written for radio, motion picture and television.

Population...

Commission, the factors considered by the commission in arriving at the 85,000 figure included water, traffic, air quality, sewage processing, schools, streets and taxes.

Miller stated that the commission gave equal weight to considerations of the business interests and the health, education and welfare of private citizens. She feels that the commission's recommendation "benefits the interests of the entire community."

Councilmember Bud Schatz, who voted in favor of the downzoning, said that he doesn't "look at it as 'stop growth' but as a responsible approach to finite resources."

Schatz said that he is not against change in the community, but that he would like to slow down the change.

Schatz noted that Santa Barbara's population is 10,000 people away from the limit, adding that the council has shown wisdom in planning now rather than having to "react in a time of crisis."

REVISION POSSIBLE

Asked how flexible the 85,000 figure is, Schatz stated, "It's as flexible as one vote on the council." He said that, although the council approved the 85,000 limit, future councils may well revise that figure.

Councilmember Bud Eyman, who voted against the downzoning, does not feel that the decision to limit the city's population was a responsible move by those councilmembers who passed the new ordinance.

He said that city residents did not have enough time to consider the Planning Commission report, and that the decision was "railroaded" through the council on Tuesday.

Eyman added that a "good economic study" has not been done concerning the impact of downzoning.

Speaking as a citizen against the population limit, Northart claimed that several sections of the 14th Amendment of the Constitution indicate that "no person shall be deprived of his rights under color of law." He added that the new ordinance would cut the value of undeveloped property within the city in half by depriving property owners of their right to develop that land.

He said that possible courses of action for the citizens' committee against the population limit were "recall, referendum, and a suit in Federal court."

A roll call vote on the population limit came after five hours of public debate. Voting in favor of the proposal were Councilmembers Sheila Lodge, Lawrence Schatz, Leo Martinez, and Nyle Utterback. Gus Chavalas, Bud Eyman, and Mayor David Shiffman cast "no" votes.

Elections....

be $2.50 or even $1. In describing the elections committee policy for policing illegal signs and posters, Swartz stated, "Mostly we rely on the other candidates or just interested persons in informing us as to possible violations. After we learn of a violation, we go the site and decide if indeed there is a violation. If there is, we contact the candidate involved and either have him remove the poster or we remove it."

Candidate for Internal President Howard Robinson and candidate for External President Neil Moran were each fined $5 on Wednesday for having a poster hanging on the Isa Vista side of the Pardall bike path. "We did not think that bike way passages were against the Elections Committee's rules," stated Moran. Both Robinson and Moran agreed that it was an illegal act for the Elections

Committee to take down their sign. "The only thing that should be done," argued Robinson, "is that a violation is determined and a fine levied on the candidate."

FOUL PLAY

On Thursday of last week the Election Committee was informed that another poster of Robinson and Moran's was hanging in violation over the bike path near student health. This time both Moran and Robinson deny having any knowledge of how the poster got there and have suggested that there may be some foul play involved. "We really feel this was a case of someone trying to get us fined again," said Robinson. "We have counted our posters and still believe that one poster is still outstanding."

According to the election committee by-laws, any candidate who draws more than $15 in fines during the election campaign is automatically disqualified.

Candidate for off campus rep Joyce Gould was also fined for having her poster placed on the Pardall Overpass. Along with Robinson, Moran, and Gould, Jody Graham, candidate for executive vice president was fined for having a poster outside the San Rafael dorms as were rep at large contenders Jeff Setness, John Vian, and Beth Amestoy.

The Elections Committee held a meeting on Friday and decided to table the Moran-Robinson case until it is investigated further. Several other candidates were fined with the results to be given at the Leg council meeting on Wednesday.

EDITORIAL:*Endorsements for the A.S. Election*INTERNAL PRESIDENT

We urge a vote for Howard Robinson as the next A.S. internal president. Robinson's performance this year as administrative vice president has clearly shown him to be an asset to Leg. Council. As demonstrated in his hard work to establish the A.S. Bike Shop, we believe he will continue to carry out a program of advocating student services over special interests.

EXTERNAL PRESIDENT

The Nexus endorses Neil Moran, Robinson's running mate, for the office of external president. As continuing observers of student politics, we know that a working knowledge of state functions and committees is crucial. Moran has the necessary experience, for he served as an intern in Sacramento, doing research on various committees and pieces of legislation. We believe he possesses the energy and diplomatic skills needed for negotiating with the Regents.

ADMINISTRATIVE VICE PRESIDENT

The holder of this post must have a thorough knowledge of the workings of campus committees and organizations. Of the two candidates, Tom Hicks far and away has the necessary background.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Jody Graham receives our strong endorsement for office. She is articulate, dynamic, and highly intelligent. Her past experience on several A.S. committees show enthusiasm, innovative thinking, and devotion to hard work.

REPRESENTATIVE-AT-LARGE

Four positions are open for rep-at-large, but we found only three of the candidates to be qualified: Ranjan Sanyal, Tracey St. Johns, and John Vian. Sanyal impressed the Nexus with his independence. We also admire his idealism and believe he can work smoothly with others to achieve realistic goals. St. Johns displayed intelligent reasoning through some very difficult questions during candidate interviews. As a freshman, we believe she has great potential in A.S. politics in the next few years. Vian showed commendable knowledge of the fine points of A.S. government.

RHA REPRESENTATIVES

No endorsement.

OFF-CAMPUS REPRESENTATIVES

We endorse Paul Pooley, Wendy Watanabe, Scott Brummitt, Jeff Channing, Blake Philips, and Bruce Coleman. Of the six, Pooley has the most comprehensive grasp of the issues. Watanabe, the organizer of a fundraising marathon dance for multiple sclerosis, will also be an excellent addition to Leg Council. Brummitt, Channing, and Coleman all exhibit a high degree of reason and native intelligence.

CALPIRG INITIATIVE

We urge a yes vote. The organizers have set up a good refund plan which appears to be foolproof. If students do not wish to support Calpirg, they'll get their money back. In any case, it is definitely in the community interest to give Calpirg a chance through this initiative.

RHA AMENDMENT

We recommend a yes vote on this measure. It simply ensures that dorm reps will actually live in the dorms during their term of office.

ALTERNATIVE NEWSPAPER

Having looked into this issue thoroughly, we find that the alternative newspaper initiative is not what it seems to be. It is promulgated by various members of special-interest groups which already receive thousands of dollars from A.S. If passed, it will remove well over $10,000 from the funding of other student body projects. The questionable nature of the initiative shows up in the fact that it calls for the alternative newspaper to be under the purview of the Communications Board, a highly-politicized body, rather than the Press Council. Vote no on this initiative.

UNIT REQUIREMENTS

We recommend a yes vote. The University considers anyone carrying six units to be a full-time student, and A.S. should not impose more stringent requirements than the University. Also, the demands of several executive positions make it impossible to maintain a full class load.

VOLLEYBALL-WATER POLO INITIATIVE

A no vote is strongly recommended on this proposal. Though its intent—to keep UCSB's top-ranked volleyball team at the head of its competition—is a good one, the initiative itself is poorly designed. It unfairly provides for additional funding to an already-funded sport at the expense of other UCSB sports.

Commentary*Remembrances of a Candidate

Ed. Note: The following article represents the views of the author and does not necessarily reflect those of the Nexus Editorial Board.

By Mike Scanlon

This commentary is about Murvin Glass, candidate for External President, and has been neither easy nor enjoyable to write.

I began my political experiences here at UCSB three years ago when I campaigned for the United Students Coalition's presidential candidate Robert Norris. I did so because I supported, and still support, the social goals and causes the Coalition was created to promote. Over the years, however, I have watched these causes betrayed by persons using the ideals of freedom and equality to promote self-interest, cronyism, and racism.

Chief among these, in my mind, is Murv Glass. He has made it his practice to call upon the good faith and trust of others to further his own short-term goals. For those who would not go along with his methods, Glass has attempted first to intimidate, and failing this, has attempted to humiliate and abuse them through the use of invective and rhetoric. As a result, a truly worthy cause is losing the support of many of the students naturally oriented toward it.

Glass operates on a continually shifting double standard of values. I worked on the Nexus with Glass and his favorite tactic when writing for the paper was to attack an administrator, make some vague but horrible accusation, then claim that the person was guilty until proven innocent.

He once wrote an article saying that Financial Aids had "deliberately destroyed" some records. When Vice Chancellor for Business Affairs A. Dale Tomlinson immediately produced the records and suggested Glass might have written an inaccurate article, Glass doubled back and claimed that while the charge might not have been true, he had reported the accusation correctly.

His double standard also applies to the press. This January, it was reported that the Black Students Union had been suspended from using University cars after a series of irregularities over their use. As President of the BSU, Glass had no comment except to say, "I only have to answer to Vice Chancellor Tomlinson and Vice Chancellor Smith."

Glass's dismissal of any need to explain these actions to UCSB students may have damaged his reputation, but more importantly damaged the reputation of the BSU which depends to some degree upon student opinion for its funding support.

I could go on with more examples, but I think this last one will explain why I am writing this. The position of External President is one of great importance. This person represents the students of Santa Barbara to the statewide committees, the California Legislature, and the Board of Regents, among others. Would Glass jettison the interests of the students of Santa Barbara as quickly as he sacrificed the reputation of the BSU? I believe he would, and as a student, I care about that.

While I may be a bit naive, I like to think that at its best, this university represents a willingness to be tolerant toward others no matter how different they might be from you. Glass exhibits only intolerance toward views (Cont. on p. 24, col. 4)

Rebuttal*In Defense of Murvin Glass

By Leighton Morse

Following some intense investigation into the matter of Mike Scanlon's charges against Murv Glass, I feel a necessity to address the charges, illuminate Scanlon's motivations to attack Glass, and show the readership how Scanlon's demeanor and conduct have been during his tenure at UCSB.

With respect to the charge that

Glass had incorrectly reported that Financial Aids records had been deliberately destroyed, Glass was reporting confidential information from individuals within the Financial Aids office that was ultimately proven to be correct (see Nexus article of Oct. 7, 1974, pages 1 and 8).

Regarding the second charge, Glass' affiliation with the BSU, and subsequent presidency, took place long long after (three months) the alleged irregularities in vehicle use in August of last year. During the period of time of the alleged irregularities, Glass was a staff writer with the Santa Barbara News and Review! Scanlon's quote of Glass was originally made in response to a completely different situation. It can be clearly seen by the incident in question (see Nexus, Jan. 14, 1975, page 8) that the quote was slyly manipulated by Scanlon in a vindictive fashion, attempting to discredit Glass.

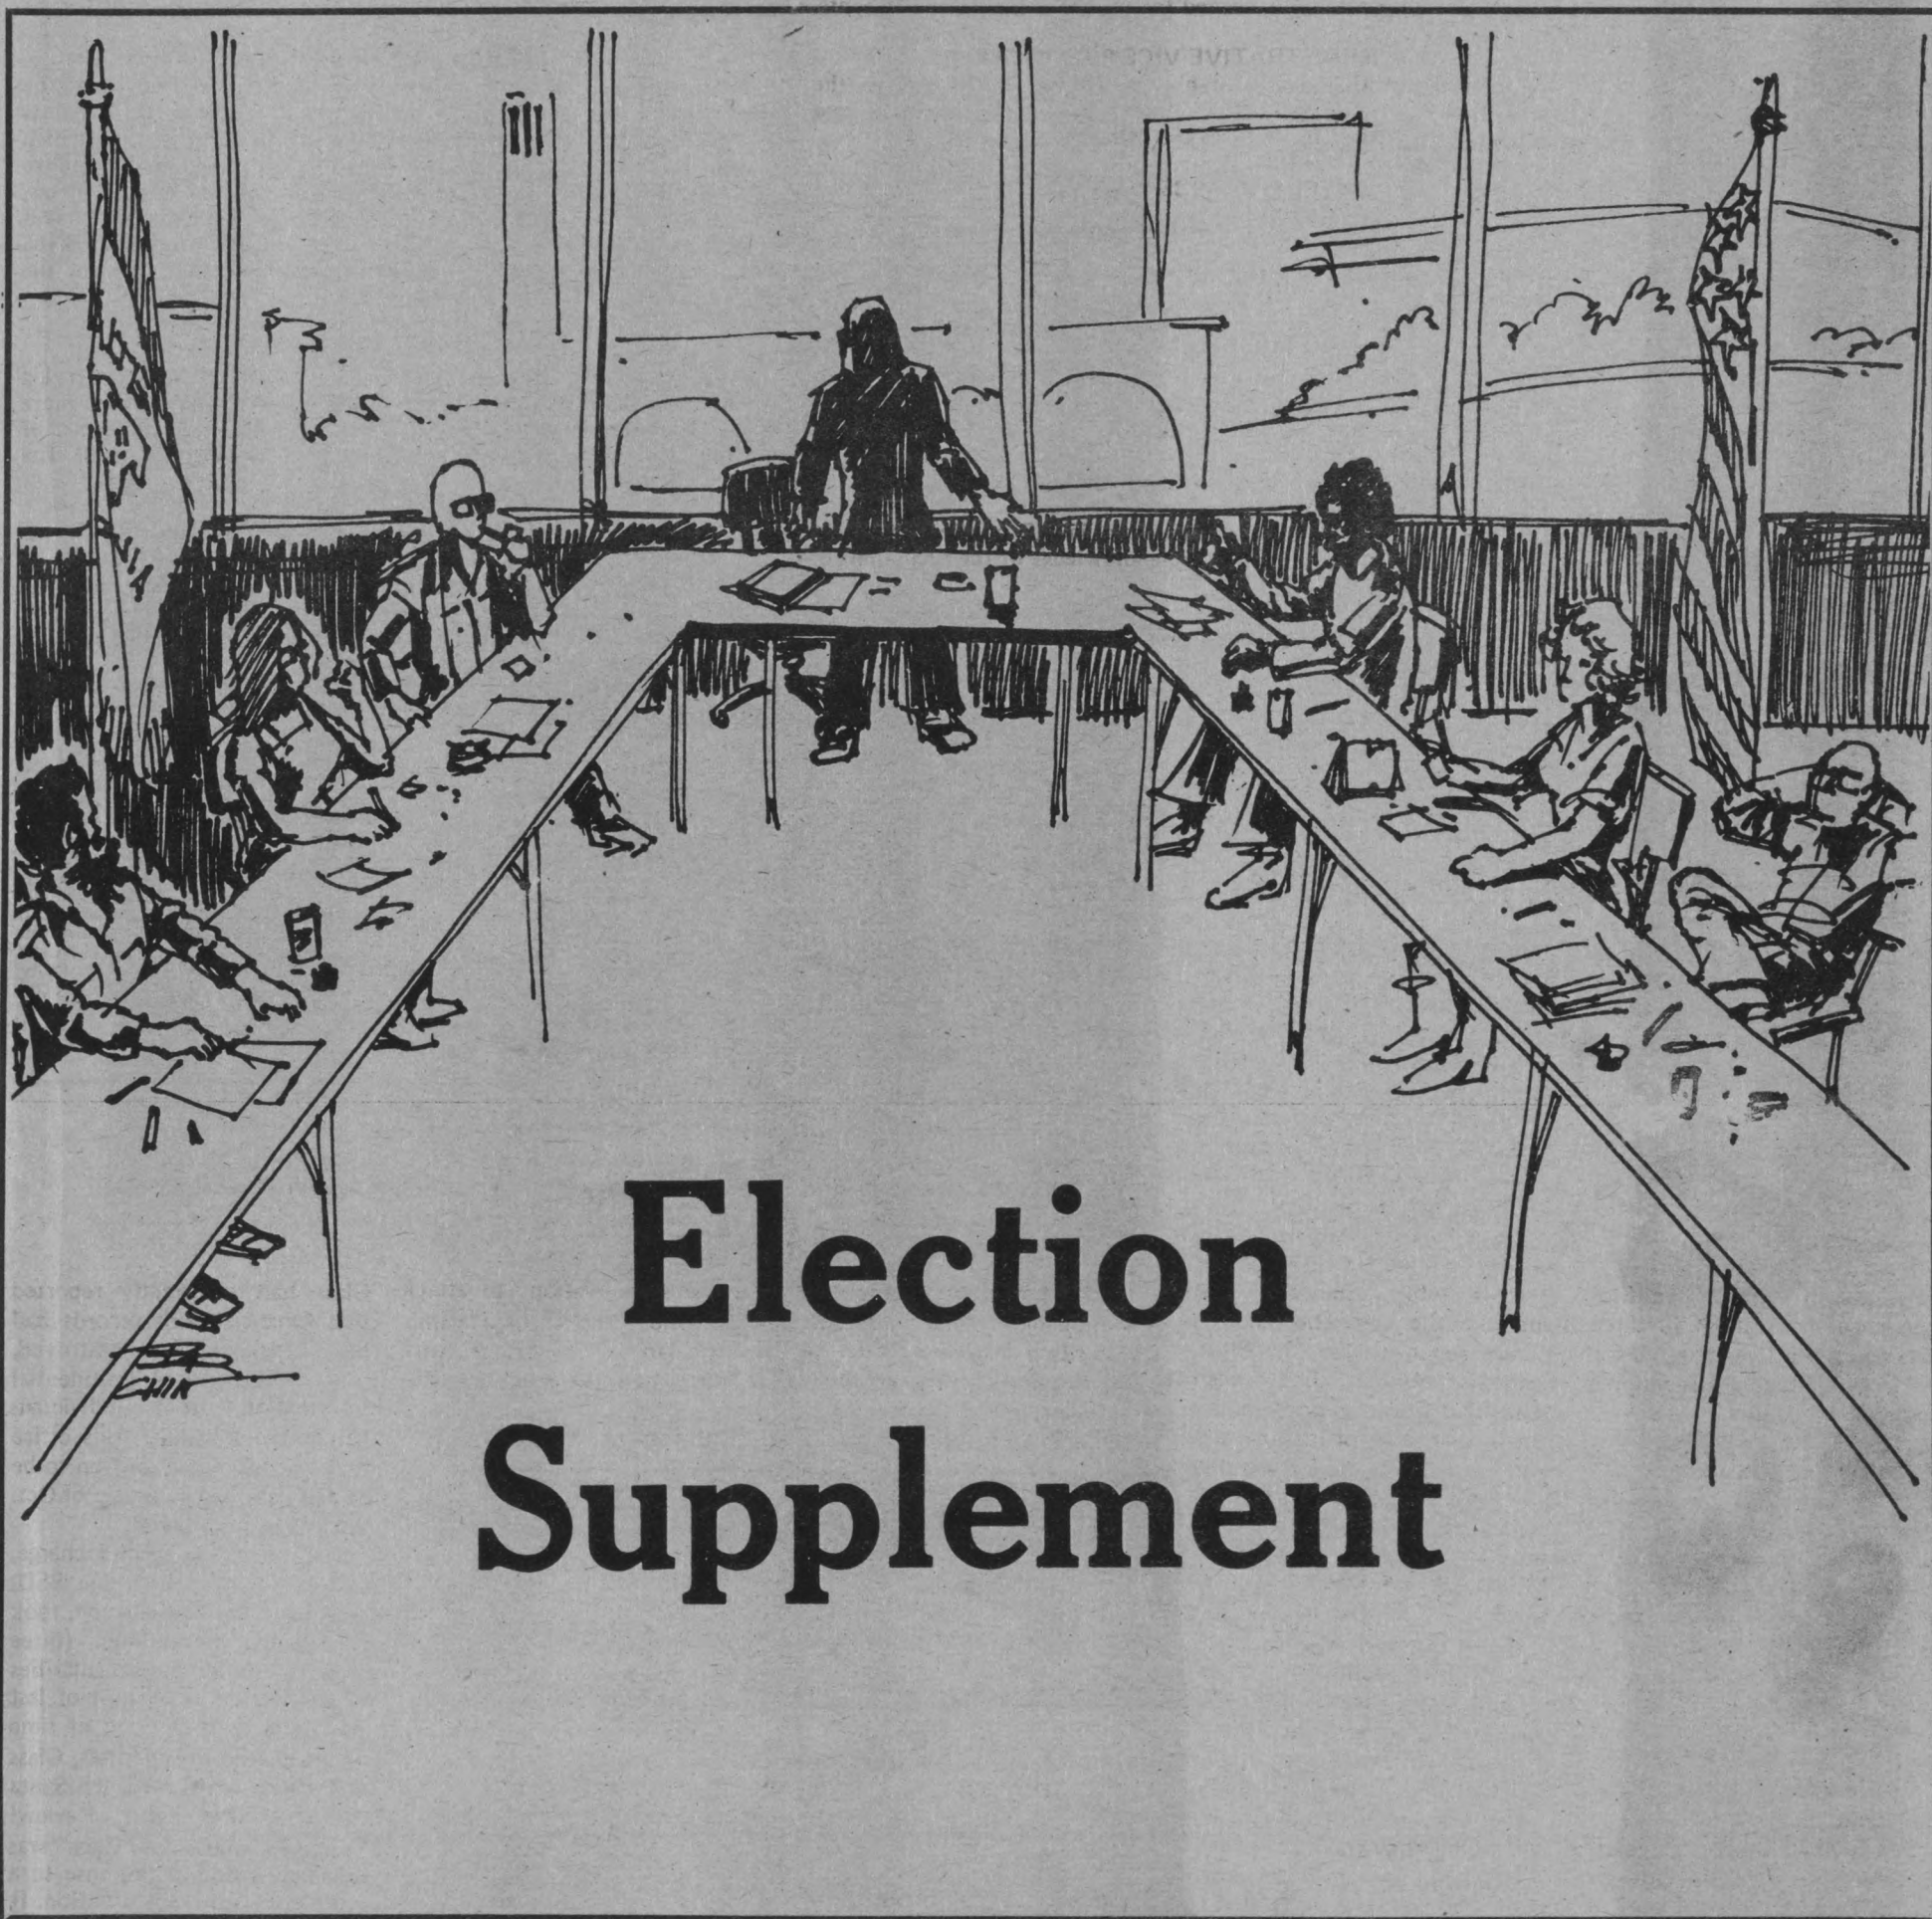

Scanlon's motivations to attempt to get even with Glass are too numerable to mention, but at this time at least one example is in order. During a Press Council meeting of October 24 of last year, before a crowd of some 50 onlookers, Glass, in a bizarre series of questions directed at Scanlon, regarding an anonymous letter to the Nexus

Alternative Newspaper

Be It Resolved that $.30 (thirty cents) per undergraduate student per quarter of existing Associated Student fees shall be allocated for the operation of an alternative newspaper. It will be published at least once a week.

This media will come under Communications Board jurisdiction and bylaws. Funding for the alternative newspaper shall be separated from that already allocated to the Communications Board.

For

A sense of perspective is vital for the needs of any community. UCSB and Isla Vista are vortexes of widely diverging activities and attitudes. Two newspapers would serve to increase investigatory coverage of the panorama of activities occurring in the respective areas. Additionally, the resulting dynamic tension between the two papers would encourage the creation of a real forum on the various issues.

The proposed initiative provides that the paper be funded at a rate of 30 cents per undergraduate per quarter of existing A.S. fees. The paper shall be published at least once a week and shall come under the supervision of the Communications Board. The Nexus is presently under the Press Council. Sessions to write the by-laws shall be open to all students. The newspaper collective proposes the election of a six-member Board of Directors who shall appoint the editors. Editors shall be subject to recall by the students.

Over 1100 students signed this initiative within approximately four days. We think this represents an impressive statement concerning the present state of news coverage. The goal of the paper shall be to aid in heightening student awareness and mobilization. The hope is to focus on those issues that bring us together and those that drive us apart.

Against

All might agree that another newspaper could provide additional information as well as a perspective presently unknown; we can surely say that it would be interesting and possibly beneficial to read diverse opinions. However, we must determine if the cost would prove detrimental to our other no less worthy concerns before we vote to establish yet another newspaper.

Presently we have three papers: their combined cost exceeds $25,000.00 per year. An alternative newspaper would mean a locked in cost of 30 cents per undergraduate, per quarter—an apparently trifling amount, but one which would, in fact, add up to about $10,000.00 per year. Perhaps we should consider which of our groups, projects, or combinations of programs would have to suffer severe cut-backs in order that one more newspaper exist. Maybe the intramurals program would suffer the cut in funding, or possibly Concerts, or the Black Students' Union or the Isla Vista Medical Clinic: I don't know which, but the money would have to come from somewhere.

Another question quickly suggests itself when we see that those who favor this additional expense wish the A.S. Communications Board, rather than the Press Council, to oversee the operation of this fourth paper. When the Chancellor established the Press Council, he delegated to it authority to supervise all aspects of "the campus student press." Any attempt to circumvent these instructions will, I believe, prove unsuccessful and only result in time lost and money wasted.

If some few people really want to write for a newspaper, I suggest that they try the Nexus or the Payback or Si Se Puede, or any one of the many newsletters which we already fund. Having an alternative newspaper might sound like a good idea, but we do not have unlimited money, and we do have more than enough opportunity for anyone who really wants to write. I urge you to consider carefully this question before you vote. Slogans and high-sounding principles can often ring hollow when the reality of budget cut-backs is facing your favorite A.S. funded project.

NCAA Volleyball-Water Polo

WHEREAS, Intercollegiate volleyball and water polo at UCSB have conferred national honors upon this University but currently face a financial crisis that threatens the elimination of these teams from national competition;

WHEREAS, volleyball and water polo provide an economical and convenient form of entertainment and participation for thousands of UCSB students;

BE IT RESOLVED, that thirty cents (30 cents) per undergraduate student per quarter in addition to present funding be allocated to the intercollegiate volleyball and water polo teams out of existing Associated Student fees and that this SHALL NOT BE INCREASE; that 65% of this sum shall be allocated to the intercollegiate volleyball team and 35% shall be allocated to the intercollegiate water polo team;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that these allocations shall be administered by the respective team coaches; that the current total budgets of the intercollegiate volleyball and water polo teams shall—with the inclusion of the initiative-by-law allocations—be protected from future decreases (or cuts) under and according to the provisions and authority of Article V, Section 4, of the ASUCSB Legal Code;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that this initiative-by-law of the ASUCSB Legal Code takes effect immediately upon ratification and shall appear on the ballot as the "NCAA VOLLEYBALL-WATER POLO INITIATIVE."

For

Volleyball and water polo are currently facing a financial crisis that threatens the elimination of these teams from national competition. Concerned students have come up with a solution to remedy this dilemma: THE NCAA VOLLEYBALL-WATER POLO INITIATIVE.

FACT: The intercollegiate volleyball team cannot sustain national championship competition on current funding. Water polo faces a similar dilemma.

FACT: The Volleyball-Water Polo Initiative will NOT increase your Associated Students fees.

FACT: The Initiative will not take away funds from other groups. Initiative allocations are based upon projected increases in enrollment and upon increases in the retention rate.

FACT: The Initiative is a temporary measure to forestall the elimination of volleyball and water polo from national competition. It will revert to normal by-law status in September 1975.

This Initiative represents student involvement and participation in A.S. government. Get out and vote YES April 15 or 16 in the A.S. General Election.

Jeff Setness

Against

1. Our first priority for any new funding in the Athletic Department is in the area of women's athletics.

2. The initiative does not clearly state how the funding is to be used. Is it for grants, recruiting, extended trips? Just how is this money to be used?

3. The initiative calls for the funding to be administered by the respective coaches. This is unacceptable because the coaches do not have the administrative personnel to check academic or athletic eligibility, nor to determine if the amount of aid is in conformity with the policies of the Financial Aids Office. Who will be issuing the contracts for the scheduling, arranging transportation and lodging?

4. The men's volleyball team is the only team on campus which can generate funds through special events and then use these funds for scholarships. As examples, funds realized from the Japanese and Brazilian exhibitions were turned over completely to the volleyball team for scholarships.

5. The initiative indicates that no cuts can be made in prior funding for either of these teams. I do not feel that this is within the students' prerogative. They can lock in A.S. fees but can they legally do this with reg fees?

6. The initiative sets a few sports far and above all the other sports on this campus, and I do not feel that we want to have "sacred cows" on this campus.

Athletics & Leisure Services

CalPirg

As students at the University of California, Santa Barbara we are requesting that the University act as the collector of a refundable student fee of one dollar ($1.00) per quarter for support of a student organization known as the California Public Interest Research Group (CalPIRG).

We stand resolved that the California Public Interest Research Group (CalPIRG) be established:

- The purpose of CalPIRG shall be to research, articulate, and pursue through the media, the institutions of government, the courts, and other legal means the concerns of students on issues of general public interest.
- These areas will include environmental preservation, consumer protection, and the role of corporation and government agencies in the lives of the average citizen.
- CalPIRG shall be financed by an increase in student fees of one dollar per student per quarter.
- Any student who does not wish to participate shall be entitled to a full refund during the third week of each quarter from an established public office on campus.

We hereby petition the Chancellor of U.C.S.B. and the Board of Regents of the University of California to authorize the formation of CalPIRG.

CalPIRG would create a student-funded, student-controlled organization with professionals who will work with students on a wide variety of public interest matters, including environmental quality, consumer protection, and governmental accountability.

Students from many academic disciplines will be able to apply theories, methods, and techniques learned in the classrooms to practical, real-life situations.

Students also play the major role in the presentation of CalPIRG findings before various public bodies. Students appear before news media, legislative bodies, and administrative agencies. Through this type of activity, students gain a valuable understanding of the existing channels for effecting social change.

CalPIRG is a non-partisan, non-profit corporation under the laws of California. The controlling body is a student-selected board of directors made up of representatives from participating California colleges and universities.

All policy decisions are made by the board of directors, and the board determines project priorities, financial allocations, and staffing. The board's directions are carried out by a staff made up of full-time professionals, students working under the work/study program, students receiving independent study credit, and volunteers from the student body, faculty, and community at large.

As the students have requested, and as the proposed contract provides, the University shall collect a fee of one dollar per quarter from all students at U.C.S.B. at the time of registration. The additional administrative costs incurred by the University for collecting the fee shall be paid by CalPIRG. In the three weeks following the beginning of the quarter it will be the responsibility of CalPIRG to inform the students of the purposes and intent of CalPIRG, and of the structure allowing for student control. Since a certified audit of CalPIRG shall be made yearly, and the books and proceedings of the corporation shall be open to the public, students can make an informed decision as to whether or not they want to support the organization. At the end of the three-week period all students who do not want to contribute to CalPIRG shall be entitled to a full cash refund. Notice of refund locations will be publicized in the campus newspaper, over the campus radio station, and by at least fifty posters.

Refunds shall be made at prominent, easily accessible locations on the campus during a three-day period, and for an additional seven school days at the CalPIRG office.

It is also provided that CalPIRG shall collect fees only so long as it is receiving the support of a majority of the student body.

Beth Amestoy

I feel the responsibility of the A.S. Leg Council is to reflect the interests of the students. The better the communication between the students and the Leg. Council, the more operative and expedient our government will be. It is imperative that students on this campus have control over the monies to be allotted.

I am in complete support of sustained funding for the intramurals program. The program involves more than 6,000 students, so we cannot afford to cutback on any of the funds being allocated. Another major area of concern is the costs of ticket prices for the A.S. concerts. We must reinvest the concert profits in order to lower the rising prices.

Volleyball and waterpolo are two of the major sports on campus. If we want to continue their national level of competition it is necessary that we increase their funding. Therefore, I support and endorse the Volleyball-Polo Initiative. I would like also to see funds directed to a pavilion on campus that would provide accommodations for walk in sports and recreational activities, such as concerts.

These are just some of the issues I support, now I would like to know and am prepared to listen to the needs and priorities of the students. I feel, in order to have an effective government, the student interests must be represented. Consequently, I will concentrate my efforts for the bettering of student and government relations. Vote Beth Amestoy - Rep-At-Large.

Jeff Setness

As your Leg Council representative I want to lend a sensitive yet critical ear to all student interests. I will support the projects and interests which represent the majority of students in a favorable manner.

The quest for academic and cultural excellence should not be ignored by student government. Good teaching often goes unrewarded in an academic community that places a high priority on research. I will emphasize the use of student evaluations in faculty tenure decisions. I propose that a fine arts commission be established to promote opportunities for student participation in the performing arts.

A survey conducted by the Dean of Students has shown that students feel present recreational and intramural programs are inadequate. As co-sponsor of the Volleyball-Waterpolo Initiative I am very conscious of the need for student input into athletic and recreational affairs. I am in support of programs which will enhance the quality of women's intercollegiate athletics.

I propose that profits from AS Concerts be re-invested to lower ticket prices. The present spectrum of

Jesse R. Ornelas

As a student, running for Representative at Large, I will work towards improving legislative council's accountability to the students. I will work at ensuring that students money are used for student purposes, as well as increasing the communication between legislative council and the student body.

As a member of Finance Board I have become increasingly concerned with the way students fees have been spent. I believe that students fees should be spent where they can best serve the student. I see no reason for student monies to accumulate in the capital reserve account, while students are being forced to pay 20 per cent-40 per cent more for their textbooks, notebooks and the food at the UCen cafeteria.

Isla Vista is another place where students get ripped-off. Rental companies force 12 months of rent out of University students in 9 months, while they reap the profits and leave the residents with poorly maintained apartment buildings. I have been working and will continue to work towards a contract which will give students a fair deal for their money, not just a receipt.

As a member of Leg Council I will work towards alleviating the gross misrepresentation of women on this campus. Forty-nine per cent of the undergraduates at UCSB are women, yet there are only 20 per cent women faculty and no woman vice-chancellor. I will work towards setting up a committee to investigate the hiring of more women to faculty and administrative positions. I will also continue to support women's activities on this campus and in Isla Vista. Your vote as well as support will help me achieve these goals.

Marc Wutschke

The Young Socialist Candidates for Internal President Tony Tafoya and Off Campus Rep Stephanie Brand have, in their articles, related the crucial issues students should unite behind. Most important is the defense of minority programs and E.O.P., currently under attack by the Administration.

How do the Young Socialist candidates propose to support the struggles around these issues? By using all available resources of the A.S. offices to organize and sponsor rallies and teachins, particularly in defense of the minority programs; to generate publicity on the vital issues, such as the lawsuit the Chicanos have filed against the University for failing to uphold its 1969 agreements; and to mobilize students to action against Administration attacks on the educational standard of students, particularly the attacks on the E.O.P. and minority programs.

Every victory won by working people and oppressed nationalities in this country has been won by their own action. That is, through an organized political fight for their rights. So it is also with students. The gains won on this campus, particularly those of the minorities, were not given to them by A.S. government. They were fought for and won in struggle against the Administration.

A.S. government itself is not the repository of student interests and power. Real power lies only with the students themselves, and in our ability to unite and mobilize in defense of our programs and concerns. Therein lies the real task for A.S. government: to help organize and lead students in a fight for our rights.

The Young Socialist candidates will take up that task; write-in Tony Tafoya for Int. Pres. and vote Stephanie Brand for Off-Campus Rep, and Marc Wutschke for Rep-At-Large.

Reps At-Large

entertainment should be expanded to include jazz concerts and other events. I will strive to guarantee a high quality of entertainment at reasonable costs.

I am in support of programs which make university resources available to students free of charge. I propose that we establish a surfboard repair shop and continue to maintain the existing AS Bike Repair Shop.

As your representative I will strive to articulate the interests of the entire student body.

Regina Jackson

A.S. government should be democratically organized and prepared to act concretely to meet students needs. The representatives in Leg. Council must be open and responsive to student input both inside and outside of Leg. Council meetings. Furthermore, Leg. Council members must work to increase the control students have over funds and policies of the University. One example of lack of student control is the U.C. investments in the apartheid regimes of South Africa and Rhodesia. Another is the lack of student input into the Reg. Fees of $100/qtr./student.

Entering students are the least knowledgeable about A.S. Government and we need their input along with the whole Student Body. If students were united, working together, instead of allowing ourselves to be diverted from dealing with our real concerns, we could gain a greater voice in the allocation of Reg. Fees and in general would have much greater influence in the University. We could begin to change the outmoded tenure system that gives the Administration the power to terminate professors regardless of the feelings and opinions of the students. We could also ensure the Affirmative Action was truly enforced. There are many things we can do!

As a student representative in Leg. Council, I plan to work for the realization of greater student unity and participation in the University. I will work for greater control over student money, support for E.O.P. and Financial Aids, a Student's Alternative Newspaper, the on-campus and I.V. Women's Center, for Tenant's rights, and for more reasonable prices in the Bookstore. I have had experience in community and students groups, such as the Lompoc Prison Project, Pan Hellenic Council, Delta Sigma Theta, and B.S.U. Tutoring Project; I believe that this experience will help me in the job of REPRESENTATIVE-AT-LARGE. Thank-you for taking the time to read this.

A.S. Election Supplement

John Vian

Don't be fooled. Any candidate who puts forth a campaign under the auspices of a "coalition" or national group is not going to put students first.

I feel I represent an alternative to these special interests — an alternative aimed directly at using UCSB student resources to help UCSB students. It only makes sense.

Some of the ideas I think come under the "alternatives" I speak of: Intramurals — IM's is experiencing a 56 per cent increase in participation over last year; the program does deserve more funding. A.S. Concerts — here is another program which affects many students on a service type basis. Because last year Concerts had a 19,000 dollar surplus at the end of the year, I propose we reuse those funds by lowering ticket prices. UCen Activities — free movies and dances used to be regular happenings at the UCen. We need to return to these basic student services before "treating" the friends of A.S. politicians with special favors.

I believe my experience with student service programs is substantial. This year I have been editor of "Dorm Doings" the R.H.A. newsletter; served on the Nexus staff as a sports writer — this has helped me understand both intercollegiate and intramural sports; attended many sessions of Leg Council as an interested student; kept up a 3.38 overall GPA.

My endorsements: Nikki McGhan, Student Director UCSB Intramural Dept.; Jeff Hesselmeyer, Director of Officials UCSB IM Dept.; Alan Farwell, Off-Campus Rep.; Jim Motroni Off-Campus Rep.

Ranjan Sanyal

I am seeking office this year as an independent. I really want to emphasize the term "INDEPENDENT" because I believe that it's an important distinction to bear in mind when you are making your final selections on who you want to represent you on this year's Leg Council. As an independent I will be able to make the decisions which will determine how your money is spent without the burden of repaying old political debts. In other words I won't be accountable to special interests, I will only be accountable to YOU...the student body at large!!!

In the space remaining I will attempt to outline some of the programs I support:

I.V. INCORPORATION—I feel that this year's Leg Council should take a more active role in the attempt to make I.V. an independent city.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS—This is an activity which all students can participate in. I feel that a substantial amount of student monies should be put in this program.

* Minority Programs—I believe that these programs have a right to exist. My major concern will be to see that they receive just enough money to guarantee the existence of their WORTHWHILE projects.

DEAD WEEK—If elected, I will try to bring about a "true" dead week here. I feel that students should have one week free of classes before finals to give us all a chance to prepare for our exams.

The pledge I give to you is, "I will remain an independent overseer of the activities of the Leg Council for the upcoming academic year. Vote for independence, vote for equity, vote for RANJAN SANJAL as your Rep at Large."

Eugene Espitia

In A.S. Leg Council this coming year there will be a need for council members who will be sensitive to the needs of students here at UCSB, as well as the community of Isla Vista. As a candidate for the position of Rep-At-Large, I feel I could serve the needs of both. Currently I am a junior, majoring in Political Science, with an emphasis in Public Service. In this election, some of the issues which should be raised and which will have to be dealt with are as follows.

First is the lower cost of books and supplies in the book-store. Currently, the cost of these items put an extremely heavy burden on financially limited students. I also support the newly opened Women's Center. Efforts should be made to develop new programs and expand existing ones to best serve the needs of women.

Another issue is that of increased administrative sensitivity. A policy must be initiated whereby the university would become sensitive to the needs of students. Efficiency should be emphasized in the administration of financial aid packets, open registration, and administrative processes and procedures.

Finally, and more importantly, is the issue of lower rents and improved housing conditions. This situation is well understood by students living in Isla Vista. In order for tenants to have more say in the rental processes and procedures which affect them, I support the I.V. Tenant's Union Housing Contract. In this election, I ask only for the support and vote of students who truthfully desire healthy and constructive change.

Reps At-Large

Tracey St. Johns

Leg. Council needs more diverse and active representation. My name is Tracey St. Johns; I am running for the position of rep-at-large and I hope to bring a new perspective to student government.

I feel Leg. Council is a very worthwhile organization, but often students are unaware of its functions and decision-making capabilities. My hope is to involve more STUDENTS in Leg. Council affairs and actively seek out their voice.

I will sponsor I.V. COMMUNITY PROJECTS and allocate funding for more STUDENT SERVICES. If elected, I would continue support of the INTRAMURAL PROGRAM and vote in favor of the WATERPOLO/VOLLEYBALL initiative.

I feel Leg. Council should take a more active stand on community issues, and I would support the new RENT CONTROL BILL, the EXXON REFERENDUM, and I.V. INCORPORATION. I also believe the state should pay for SUBJECT A FEES and students should receive full academic credit.

A.S. Government can be an effective tool in helping students and fulfilling student needs. I will listen to all ideas and proposals which are offered and try to act upon as many as possible.

The Young Socialist candidates believe A.S. government should not be used as a battle ground, pitting student interests against each other in a scramble for the small percentage of student fees controlled by A.S. Instead, A.S. government should organize and mobilize united student efforts against the racist and undemocratic policies of the Administration and Regents.

Young Socialist candidates would stand for the immediate unconditional withdrawal of all U.S. aid and personnel from Southeast Asia. Young Socialist candidates would take the lead in organizing a national student response to any further commitment of U.S. troops or material to the dictatorial Thieu regime.

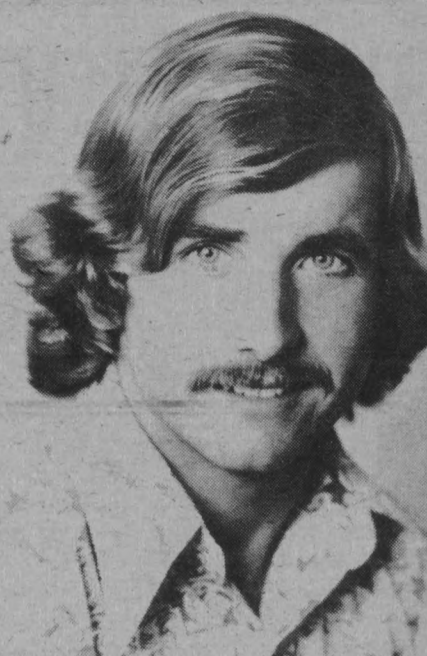

Currently UC Regents are investing in companies that produce war materials to aid U.S. war aims abroad. UC resources are invested in racist S. Africa, Rhodesia and the Chilean dictatorship. If elected we would sponsor and organize statewide UC actions to halt these investments.

Young Socialist candidates support the immediate establishment of a free, 24 hour University financed day care center on campus. Women have been denied for years the chance for equality in education and jobs. To counteract this, we support preferential hiring for women. Furthermore, the Young Socialist candidates call for a fully funded Women's Studies Department, which would include a degree major, under the direct control of campus women.

If you support our ideas, vote Young Socialist at UCSB: myself, Tony Tafoya, Internal President (write-in); and Marc Wutschke, Rep. at Large.

Scott Brummitt

I chose to run for A.S. off-campus rep because I feel the interests of the majority of students on this campus are not adequately represented. As an example of this, I point to last year's Budget Sessions where a very vocal and often abusive group of students — representing various partisan interests — through their intimidation and actual threatening of the representatives came to receive much larger allocations than they deserved.

I believe that there is more than enough money for most of the special interests to receive adequate funding. But let's not forget that there are projects such as concerts, recreation and intramurals whose funding should reflect their much higher percentage of participation.

Too often in the past those of us who were not vocal enough lost out in the funding sessions even though, numerically speaking, there were many more of us. Let's put a stop to this!

I would like to represent those of you who perhaps don't have the time to attend a Leg Council meeting when you have a gripe and don't feel the need to come and shout out your needs at budget sessions.

If you have taken the time to read this article, I hope you'll also take the time to come out and vote this Tuesday and Wednesday. Elect me and I'll support the things which you through your participation support.

Leonard Agoado

AS Government is for shit. It acts not as an active student organization, but as an isolated administrative bureaucracy. Its concern lies not with the betterment of the individual student in Isla Vista, but with the funding and control of little known programs with little direct effect on our day to day lives. Students no longer identify AS Government as their organization, but as another form of the overall university administration. In a Nexus poll, most students could not identify two student leaders. In the last AS election less than 600 students bothered to vote. Why is it that 12,000 students do not consider AS Government important enough to support in spite of its handling of $500,000 yearly in student funds? Simply, AS Government has failed to act on behalf of these students through its failure to represent them. I propose the following: AS strive to assert its independence from the university administration in both identity and mechanics.

AS open its methods of determining policy to include a wider range of student input. AS initiate and support individuals and programs that directly benefit students, such as the on campus bike shop, and the IV Tenants' Union. AS achieve greater control over university decisions that affect us as students — we are the university. AS increase support for Student Lobby projects to make our voice heard in Sacramento, not just the administration's.

Student government belongs to the students — this is the reason for my candidacy. — I have sought no endorsements or outside funding — I am running on no slates. My candidacy is one of an individual, and I will represent you as such. Vote for Leonard Agoado, Off-Campus representative.

Experience: Daily Nexus Sports Writer; Athletics & Leisure Services Committee Member; Student Supervisor, Intramurals.

Endorsements: Jim Motroni, A.S. Off-Campus Rep; Jim Fox, A.S. Concerts Co-Chairman; Brooke Smith, A.S. Concerts Asst. Chairwoman; Eileen Omaye, A.S. Finance Board Co-Chairwoman; Neil Moran, A.S. External President Candidate; Leslie Jackson, A & LS S Committee Chairwoman; Nikki McGhan, Student Director, Intramurals.

Leg Council, as the voice of the students, is faced with the task of representing student views in all levels of University decision making. They must be responsible, open, and intelligent; willing to listen and speak for student concerns. Decisions must be made after hearing discussion from all concerned; not according to personalities or individual interests.

I offer myself as capable of performing the necessary tasks. My experience and endorsements support that capability. I am seeking to build upon the basis I have built in A.S. I am willing to listen, and to learn.

Responsibility and knowledge of the issues will guide all my decisions. I support all projects that directly effect students. A.S. Concerts should not operate according to deficit spending.

Martha Menchaca

With the high cost of living coupled and amplified by academic pressures, we as students on this campus encounter the need for many services and information resources which will enable us to ameliorate these problems. Consequently, if I am elected as A.S. campus rep., I will direct my energies and services through the A.S. Leg. Council toward alleviating the basics of student problems. I am very confident of my ability to perform well, having been active and acquired extensive experience in both my community and previous schools.

Of those problems faced exclusively by women, I will work actively toward meeting these dire needs. If I am elected to office, I will press for the establishment of a federally funded and UCSB funded day care center in Isla Vista. This service is very necessary due to the many families unable to financially afford child-care services. This obstacle prevents many mothers from achieving higher education and becoming financially self sufficient individuals. Secondly, the high cost of birth control services and counseling for UCSB women must be lowered. This fee prevents many women from acquiring necessary contraceptives, causing unwanted pregnancies.

In this area, we need to see an extension of services by the Health Care center in providing necessary, perhaps monthly, seminars concerning rape.

I will also direct my efforts toward securing the allocation of A.S. monies to women's organizations in planning activities for Women's week.

I avidly support the Tenants Union as a necessary vehicle in lessening the high costs of rents. Concomitantly, I will support the food co-op in Isla Vista by informing students of the benefits of participating in such an organization.

Joyce Gould

As students, we suffer from outrageous rents in return for substandard housing. The books we purchase are over priced, and while tuition has stabilized for the time being, the quality of our education has continually declined. This situation becomes more grave for women and minorities who are victimized by discrimination in job and educational opportunities. These conditions are reflected by the agonizingly slow process of getting the administration and faculty to implement Affirmative Action, and recognize the need for greater support of ethnic and women's studies programs which are being sought more than ever.

In view of our plight as students, it is time we act collectively to gain more control over the decisions effecting us.

Roy Tucker

I guess I should first tell you why I'm running. I figure that if I'm paying $16.25 a quarter to something I'd like to know what they're doing with it. I think that this money should be returned to the students in activities that are fun and enjoyable. One of these activities that has not occurred in a while is an A.S. sponsored street party. I feel this would be one event which would bring people together and they would all have a good time.

I also feel that the A.S. funds should be used for other purposes that are of a more serious nature and to each of these proposals I will listen to with an open mind and not make a judgement on until all the facts have been heard; for I'm running independently with no interest group supporting me and therefore have no obligations to anyone except the people off-campus. However, at the present time I feel that there are too many activities or groups that are being supported by A.S. funds that are not fun oriented—College is a place to be serious but if you are not enjoying it at the same time why go?

I also feel that the A.S. Council should work together and not fight. For if the Council fights nothing will get done and only the students will suffer.

I also urge all of you to seriously consider the rent strike. If enough people get it together we can do something about the control of the rental companies over us. But we must be together as we were in 69-70. The only question is can we get it together again?

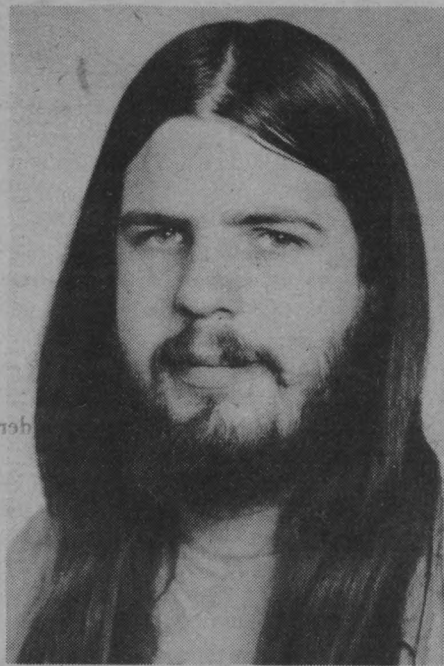

So, as all campaign speeches end, if you would like to know what happens to your $16.25 vote for me or vote for someone. But VOTE.

Off-Campus Reps

Student government, not as it exists now, but as it exists potentially, under proper direction, can become a viable instrument for obtaining such power. My intention in running for off-campus rep is to help realize this vast potential for making Leg Council a vehicle for positive change and power to the students.

MY MAJOR POSITIONS:

- ****Support for both on and off campus women's centers, creation of a women's studies program, AS lecture series on women.
- ****Placement of reg fees under student control.
- ****Establishment of an alternative newspaper funded partially by AS to provide access to a broader spectrum of viewpoints, more coverage of IV, women's and minority affairs.
- ****Support of Tenants' Union for upgrading quality of IV housing, and lowering of rents.
- ****Continued support for intramurals.
- ****Expansion of financial aids.
- ****Support for growth of ethnic studies.

Louis Quindlen

Students must look at the real situation that exists in present student body politics. The infighting that has gone on the last three years has not produced a winning side or a losing side. All students have lost. We have lost the unity that is necessary to protect our rights as human beings.

While students have been fighting, the Administration has been laughing. The Administration is laughing because all of the rights and knowledge students gained a few years ago are being taken away. One example is the firing of the two Vice-Chancellors of Minority Affairs. Another example is the Chancellor's control of the Nexus through Press Council. As students become more divided the Chancellor will assume more and more power.

We do have major issues on this campus that concern us all. High rents is one of them; UC investment policies, financial aid, EOP, and student and faculty control of tenure are others. Leg Council cannot solve these problems. Only students organized and unified on these issues can solve these problems.

The Students For Collective Action, of which I am a member, sees this problem as our major task. Instead of making decisions for students we feel that Leg Council should be raising issues and trying to organize students around those issues. To do this many changes will have to be made in A.S. government. The major changes will allow more participation in the decision making process for the entire student body.

Once students become unified and act collectively on our common problems, I feel we can work together on our individual problems.

If you feel that students can take control of their lives I urge you to vote for me and the rest of the Students for Collective Action.

Wendy Watanabe

As a student at UCSB, you pay $48.75 a year to the Associated Students. This adds up to about $500,000 which is then allocated by your elected representative to a variety of A.S. funded organizations. I want to see that money go where it will benefit all of the students and not just a few. Since you pay those fees, I think that the money should be used for improvements in student services on campus and in the immediately surrounding student community. A.S. Leg Council has become too remote and unresponsive to the needs of their student constituents. I want to change that.

I am for continued support of the Intramural program. With approximately 6,000 students participating in IM sponsored activities, I think that it's funding should reflect the needs of those students.

An even larger number of students attend A.S. Concerts. The additional income that they provide should be channeled back into the concerts program to lower student ticket prices and to help improve the quality of future shows.

Volleyball and Waterpolo are also very popular on this campus. I support the Volleyball-Waterpolo Initiative because it will provide the much needed funding to keep these two teams at the level of excellence that they have reached.

The problems of I.V. apartment living has become a very important issue. I would work for a much stronger Tenant's Union. To improve it's effectiveness, I propose retaining some type of legal aid which could be made available to tenants in I.V.

I just want to emphasize that I want to work for you.

RHA Amendment

BE IT RESOLVED that all RHA-AS reps must live on campus during their candidacy and term of office,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the following clause "or have previously lived in the UCSB residence halls" be deleted from the A.S. Constitution, Article V, Sec. 5, a,

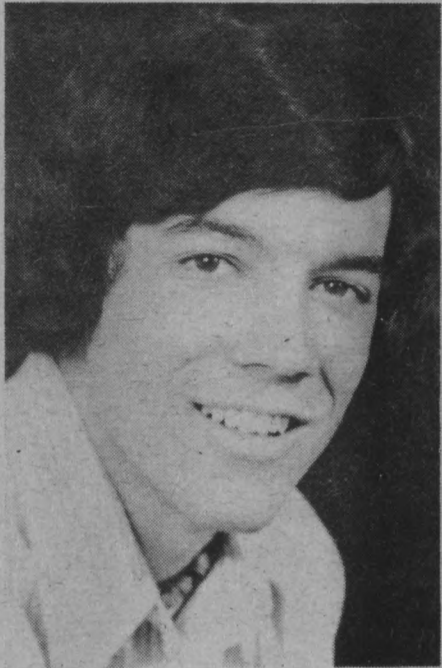

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this amendment shall apply to candidates of the 1975 Spring A.S. General Election.

Unit Requirement Amendment

Article III, Section I:

delete "in at least twelve (12) units of work in the quarter prior to candidacy, in the quarter prior to the term of office, and in each quarter during his term of office."

add: "in the quarter prior to election, in the quarter of election, and in each quarter during term of office."

Bruce Channing

I am running for Off Campus Representative to Leg. Council. My primary goal is to see that A.S. Fees are properly budgeted toward projects which benefit students and the student community as a whole. We are paying 48 dollars a year in A.S. fees, which means there will be approximately 180,000 dollars which council members will be deciding how to allocate. In the past I have seen sizeable amounts of our funds go to projects which have had very little, if any, benefit to the student on this campus. My efforts will be concentrated on stopping this from occurring again. A.S. Concerts and Intramurals are two areas of student life in which there is enormous student participation. Therefore I feel efforts should be made to lower student ticket prices and increase the funding for the intra-mural program. More projects like the A.S. Bike Shop are needed and should be implemented.

I am not a politician seeking power, I am a student who wants people to get what they are paying for. Vote for Bruce Channing and I promise you will get your money's worth...and more!

The following people have endorsed me as a qualified candidate for this position:

Allen Farwell, Off Campus Rep. 74-75
Neil Moran, candidate for External President
Steve Smith, RHA Representative 74-75
Jim Fox, A.S. Concerts Co-Chairman

Bob Coleman

Is student government worth $48 each year to you? To me it isn't and this is the reason why I am running for Leg Council. I would strive to make Leg Council more representative of the entire student body and to work for projects that will benefit UCSB as a whole.

Concerning special interest groups I advocate a re-distribution of AS reg fees. This past year AS has funded the following groups: Gay Student Union—$1380; Asian American Alliance—$3000; BSU—$10,600; El Congreso—$16,000. I feel that these allocations are not in the interest of the majority of the students at UCSB. Completely eliminating funding for these groups is not my objective, rather I would cut their funding and equalize it with other interest groups. I feel that Leg Council should direct itself toward projects that represent the majority of the students. Such projects include AS Concerts, AS Bikeshop, Intramurals, and addressing the problem of rents in Isla Vista. I also believe that $48 is too high of a price for student government. I would work to reduce reg fees but realistically I couldn't unless I have the support of Council. But, as a member of Leg Council I could probe for ways to achieve this goal.

UCSB does have the nation's number one volleyball team. Volleyball has replaced football on this campus and the Volleyball team has given UCSB a well-deserved sense of pride. I support the Volleyball-Polo initiative as a means to continue their outstanding success.

I am not a member of a slate of candidates and feel that my independent judgement is more important than voting in a bloc. My cumulative GPA is 3.24.

John L. McDonald

The focus of student concerns and issues have been blurred by an unresponsive Leg. Council. Issues such as Housing, Financial Aids, and the cost of books have been ignored or given token attention.

I.V. tenants are housed in possibly the highest density conditions west of Washington, D.C. I.V. tenants will also face a 15-35% increase in rent this fall.

I think that these are legitimate student concerns. As Off Campus Representative, my number one priority will be to serve as an ADVOCATE of STUDENT NEEDS. Some of the projects and issues that I will work for and support are:

1. The Tenant's Union rental contract.
2. Lower cost of books and items sold in the UCen.
3. 24 hour University financed Day Care Center.
4. A student alternative newspaper and end to Administration control of student media via the Press Council.

Jovita Valdez

I am running for the office of Off Campus Rep. because I feel I can represent the Isla Vista Community in a manner that would be truly representative of the desires and needs of the Isla Vista populace as they related to A.S. Leg Council. I feel I am well qualified for this position because of my sincere desire to represent Isla Vista.

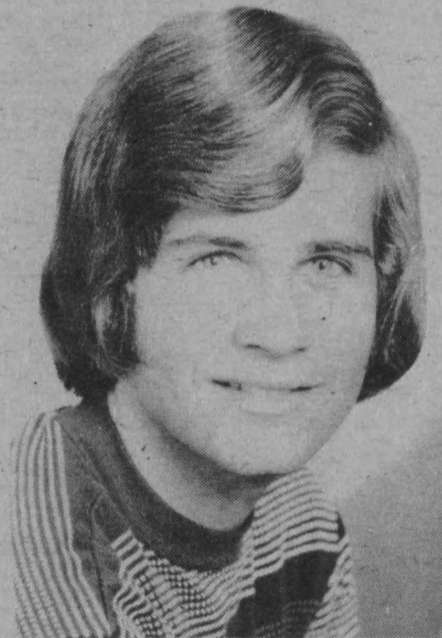

Some of the immediate issues which need to be dealt with are as follows. First, the support of the Tenants Union Rental Contract. Thus, providing greater tenant voice in relation to rent schedules as they affect students and non-students living in Isla Vista.

There is considerable need to lower prices in Isla Vista stores. Presently, Isla Vista stores contain food items that are much higher in price than in the Goleta area. Thus, students without transportation are forced to shop in Isla Vista stores.

I support the I.V. Fud Co-op and feel that its low cost food stuffs should be made available as an alternative store to high costs in Isla Vista.

There is a great need to establish a Day Care Center that would be open to all students and such a Day Care Center would create more work-study jobs for students.

The University should honor the United Farm workers' lettuce, grape and Gallo boycott. This full pledged support by the University would result in helping the farmworkers' struggle in their plight for determining the Union of their own choice. I am presently involved with the Isla Vista Friends of the Farmworkers.

Blake Phillips

WASTED MONEY The most important part of Leg. Council is to allocate your A.S. Fees. In the past small groups have manipulated a large part of fees for their special interests. I want the money to be put into groups, organizations, and interests which suit majority and student oriented activities.

Concerts: Concert profits are currently being used for deficit spending. I think the profits should be put back into the program to lower ticket prices.
Intramurals: I'ms involve over half the school and need continued funding. The facilities are overcrowded and I advocated an Events Facility with the 3.3 mill. in Reg. fees which would serve as a sports and recreation center as well as a concert hall for 5-7,000 people.

Volleyball-Water Polo Initiative: This is not a fee increase and will not take money from other organizations but from increased enrollment. Funding is desperately needed for the continuation of these sports. I would like to initiate and support programs that are of mutual benefit to all students such as an effective student organized housing union, a REAL Dead Week, Beer on campus, and extended library hours. I support the Student Lobby, Calpirg, and more UCen activities. If you want your money spent in your best interests, vote Phillips for Off-Campus Rep. Cum. G.P.A.—3.69

A.S. Government could be more efficient in representing students if a closer communication is established. Being unaffiliated with any specific interest group I am open to all suggestions on improving the responsiveness of A.S. Government to student concerns. The possibility that the allocation of $180,000 by A.S. Government will unproportionately reflect your needs and interests makes student input crucial. To ensure that every student is financially represented it is vital that Leg. Council is well informed on students needs.

Acquiring a stronger student voice through student evaluations concerning tenure and curriculum, an investigation of increase textbook refunds, and positive actions for tenants rights and grievances, are areas in which a concentrated effort could benefit everyone.

I hope I will have the opportunity to hear your ideas, and present them to the Leg Council. Please vote.

Residence Hall Representatives

Dennis Schurmeier

It can be done! A.S. Legislative Council can serve all the students — not just a few loud-spoken ones! But to do this you must vote. The larger the turnout the better. You, the students, must show that you care. So VOTE!!

I think that you have a right as my constituents to know where I stand on the major issues.

- The Volleyball-Water Polo Initiative is a measure aimed at dispelling inequities in the athletic budget. In order for the volleyball and water polo teams to maintain their national level competition, they need this increased funding. Both sports are free to all students and are popular forms of entertainment on campus.

- A.S. Concerts should not be required to finance other organizations at the cost of higher ticket prices. Profits should be reinvested back into concerts to lower ticket prices for students and bring bigger name groups.

- Intramurals must maintain its current level of funding. IMs provide services for nearly 6,000 students.

- I favor a pavilion, including swimming pool, handball courts, etc., to be paid for out of our $3.3 million in Registration Fee reserves.

As for what I will strive for in the dorms:

- extended swimming pool hours at San Rafael pool.

- more volleyball courts for the dorms.

- an expansion of the photographic facilities to dorm students.

Jim Spangler

A.S. government should work for students. Leg Council is a group of representatives supposedly working for the best interests of the students of this campus.

However, it often seems that rather than working towards the needs of this campus and the student community, the members of Leg Council work only for their own interests.

I do have some ideas that I would like to see implemented within the next year. But of even greater importance I would like to be able to hear suggestions from other students and work with them in an effort to see their ideas put into action. A.S. government can work but to work at its best there must be a high level of participation.

Throughout the next year, I would like to see an increasing amount of educational and recreational projects for dorm residents as well as for the overall student community.

— I would like to see an expansion of the program which allows dorm students to take classes within their residence hall.

— I support the Calpirg Initiative and the Volleyball-Water Polo Initiative.

Dana King

Having been here for two years, I've had a chance to critically view our A.S. Legislative Council. One factor in my decision to run was the realization that over $500,000 in student funds are allocated by this body. The pressure politicking that goes with this allocation is a sad circus, and must stop. You see pleas for change in every candidate and election. I hope that when we meet, you'll see my sincerity, and lend support. Dealing with the issues, I'm interested in a better understanding between R.H.A. and Leg Council. These bodies refuse to take each other seriously, which only hurts us. In addition, there must be improvement in dorm facilities (increased San Rafael pool hours, etc.) I support the volleyball-water polo initiative. I support Intramural and Concert programs. This year many people tried to get their fingers into the organizational pie of our Concert's program; without such hassels a fine year could have been even better. I'd like to see a decrease in deficit spending from concerts, decreasing ticket prices. There should be more student input into the placement of $3.5 million in reg fees for a student oriented facility. I personally support an activities pavillion for intramurals, concerts, athletics, etc.

In student government we have a problem of apathy. In my opinion, this stems from heavy ego trips; the attempt to raise Leg Council above the students. Lets come off it, those who want student government as a political spotlight are misrepresenting us.

Lets use such energy for student issues at hand: Curriculum (Subject A) and campus (similar to the successful Bike Shop project) improvements...whatever increases student satisfaction in UCSB. Granted that with $500,000 on the line, politics is for real. But the separation of students and student government must end. We're supposed to be one and the same! If you have any questions or input on the various issues before us, please contact me. Vote Tues. or Wed. with your mealtag at any commons.

Administrative Vice President

Tom Hicks

The office of Administrative Vice-President is somewhat different in design and structure than the other offices on A.S. Legislative Council. It is the Administrative Vice-President's job to co-ordinate the various A.S. Boards and Committees. The Administrative Vice-President also serves as a member on four vital A.S. Committees: Finance Board, Reg. Fee Committee, Athletics and Leisure Services, and the Organizations Co-ordinating Board.

A job such as this requires the person in office to have experience in the internal affairs of Legislative Council. It is vital for the person in office to understand the functions of the various Boards and Committees, and to be able to unify their diverse functions into a cohesive, effective source of input into Legislative Council.

I feel that I am the only candidate with enough experience on Legislative Council to deal effectively with such a vital position. The office requires knowledge, experience, and a great deal of time. I can offer all of these requisites to the office, and I will be a unifying force to the diverse Committee elements present in A.S. Government.

EXPERIENCE:

Served the past year as a Rep-at-Large on

Keith Stanley

I see Leg Council as a co-ordinating body which helps direct activities in a positive direction. Leg Council should, as elected representatives, take direction from the students. One way to help get direction would be through the Isla Vista styled town meeting. In addition, major issues affecting us all should be brought before the student body in the form of initiatives, and referendums.

The housing issue is a pressing problem facing students. The tenant/landlord laws are heavily weighted in the landlord's favor, and rental prices are not congruent with the condition of apartments or the services given. Among the possible solutions, A.S. could make a stronger request to the student Lobby to support new legislation which would equalize the tenant/landlord laws. Continued support of the Isla Vista Tenants Union is necessary to continue their programs of tenants forums, negotiations of the model contract, and individual counseling of tenants problems. In addition, A.S. and the Tenants Union could do a feasibility study on the creation of a housing management co-op.

With a strong Reg fee committee many A.S. funded groups could be redefined as student services and thus receive funds through Reg fees. This could free money that could be used for lowering A.S. fees, and funding worthy projects.

There is also a need for a second student newspaper. Human limitations prevent many issues from being covered. With a new newspaper, there would be increased coverage of issues. Therefore, I support the alternative newspaper.

Commitment is an ongoing, day-to-day job, and can continually work for the betterment of all. Thank you for your time. Remember to vote.

Legislative Council. Initiated the A.S. Tenant's Forum to better relationships between tenants and landlords.

Served on the Arts and Lectures Main Committee

Served on the A.S. Committee to re-write the Eligibility By-Laws

As the next Administrative Vice-President, I advocate continued support for I.V. projects, such as the Open Door Clinic and the Human Relations Center. I will continue to work with the A.S. Tenant's Forum in the areas of housing and landlord-tenant relations, as these areas effect all students. I also advocate closer ties between A.S. Legislative Council and RHA Co-ordinating Board to increase input to Council from students living in the dorms.

ENDORSEMENTS:

HOWARD ROBINSON, A.S. Administrative Vice-President

JIM FOX A.S. Concerts co-Chairperson

ABBY HAMAN Former A.S. Rep-at-Large

JIM MOTRONI, A.S. Off-Campus Rep.

JACK FULLER Director, U.C. Student Lobby Annex

Cindy Ducey

Communication is the key to the coordination of student groups and individuals. This means one-to-one communication between individuals on Leg Council and students at large. I see Council's responsibility as coordinating student energy into positive directions. Leg Council could begin to actively represent more campus interests.

Housing, and the lack of it, is an increasing problem for students. With a 1% vacancy factor, rental increases of 5-10% this year, and landlord's profits at 20-50%, students are restricted in their choice of residence. The Tenants Union needs financial support to implement programs successfully. Studies of co-operative management companies should also begin. Collective management would require little capital investment, which students lack, and a limited amount of expertise, so it could be student run.

Women's athletics currently receives only a small portion of the total intercollegiate budget. I support expansion of women's athletics, and the establishment of a women's athletics scholarship fund.

Students need a finals center on campus where they can go to unwind, talk with friends, and get something to eat during their study break. I will work to start such a center.

Many students need better child-care facilities. The UCSB child-care center has a 50 person waiting list, and costs more than $100/month. One of my priorities will be to investigate a Federally funded child-care center.

A.S. can be the means to creative, innovative campus groups and interests. Let's use it to that end. Thank you for your time. Remember to vote.

Howard Robinson

Experience: A.S. Off-Campus Rep./Administrative Vice President, A.S. Bikeshop founder, I.V. Fud Co-Op co-founder, active membership and participation in many crucial A.S. and University committees.

Endorsements: Jack Fuller - Student Lobby Director; Kathy Tuttle - A.S. External President; Chris Attwood - former I.V. Planning Director; Jim Fox - A.S. Concerts co-chair; Mike Faber - Campus Coordinator for Gary Hart; Jim Motroni - Off-campus Rep.

Platform:

Housing - Study the feasibility of holding all cleaning deposits in a third-party trust account, publishing a comprehensive I.V. housing guide, establishing a student owned rental management company.

Student Services/Isla Vista Projects - Recycle A.S. fees into services like the A.S. Bikeshop from which all students directly benefit.

Academic Affairs - A stronger student influence in academic decision-making through our Academic Affairs Board.

Philosophy - A.S. government cannot be concerned with only "sandbox" issues. While allocating the annual budget is important, the real business of student government must be to continually seek areas of cooperation and agreement among students and serve as a united student advocate.

I urge your support of Neil Moran for External President & Jody Graham for Executive V.P.

Executive Vice President

Dan Weidman

On I.V. affairs, I want to stress that I am for incorporation of Isla Vista as a city.

Also, I would like to see the reestablishment of the I.V. Communication Affairs Board to work in conjunction with I.V.C.C. C.A.B. could be a strong coordinate force for the purpose of voicing student opinion at local and state level government.

Since many students live in I.V., it's of the utmost importance that A.S. take interest in the student's living conditions. A.S. should give stronger support to the I.V. Tenants Union; that is, its proposals to curb increasing rents and improve living conditions.

I support the creation of an alternative newspaper that would present a different view-point from that of the Nexus, and, in general, a student newspaper that would have a little more spark to it.

In the area of work-study jobs, I will direct effort towards expanding the job

Jody Graham

A far-reaching "haze" seems forever to hang over the status of student government - is it a "real" entity or are we all just participating in a giant simulation? To me the answer is clear. With the Associated Students' government responsible for nearly one-half million dollars each year, with the A.S. government making committee appointments to bodies which advise on the expenditure of millions of additional dollars, and with the UC Student Lobby rated as 12th in effectiveness in Sacramento influence, student government in this University, on this campus, is unequivocally "real. It is, therefore, vitally important that quality student leaders are elected to accept these formidable tasks.

Presently, the A.S. constitution provides a division of political jurisdiction between the executive offices: the Internal President and Administrative V.P. are to emphasize on-campus affairs, while the External President and Executive V.P. are to develop expertise in community and state-wide affairs. As Executive V.P. I intend to perform these designated duties.

As Executive V.P. I will serve as an active liaison between the major agencies of I.V. and A.S. as well as seek membership on as many pertinent Regental committees as permitted. It is time I.V. and A.S. cease treating each other with distrust and scorn and begin to constructively interact; it is time UCSB spoke audibly in the decision-making bodies which control our academic lives at this University.

Vote Jody Graham - Executive Vice President.

Tony Tafoya

The Young Socialist candidates feel that the crucial issue is the assault on E.O.P. and minority programs by the Administration.

These attacks have included the elimination of the two Assistants to the Chancellor, thereby removing completely any minority representation in the Administration; the "misplacement" of $116,000 of E.O.P. money; the default of the Administration on its 1969 Affirmative Action commitments; and the placing of control of minority programs in the hands of non-minority Administrators who have consistently ignored the needs of minority programs and departments.

At UCSB this assault is being carried out by the Administration in a campaign to drive down educational standards and services for all students, their first objective in this campaign is to cut back and eliminate E.O.P. and other minority programs.

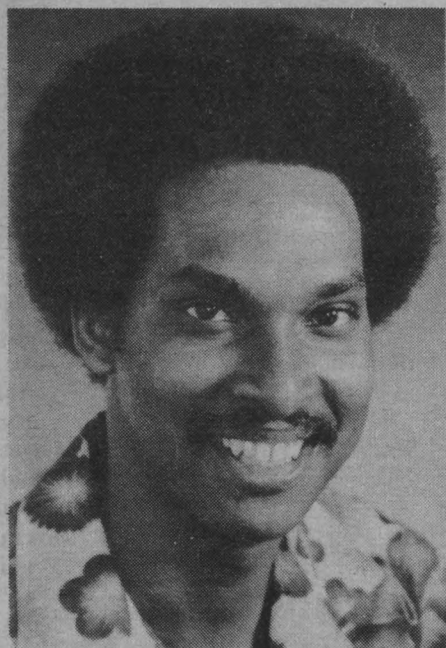

The primary goal of A.S. Government should be to use its resources to mobilize student support in defense of E.O.P. and minority programs. For a student government that would be most effective in defending these programs, vote Young Socialist; Write-in Tony Tafoya for Internal President, Marc Wutschke for Rep-At-Large, Stephanie Brand for Off-Campus Rep.

opportunity pool, and reducing the job waiting list.

With respect to the Health Center, I do not feel that students need pay a $20 Counseling Conception Clinic services fee; and obviously, the Health Center cannot cover the cost. While the religious sentiments of some students is the cause of no Reg. Fees being made available to the C.C.C., surely, there must be an alternative to the present reality of many women students becoming pregnant unwantedly. I also feel that the $20 fee has somewhat contributed to the situation.

I've received endorsements from: Mikie Chavez, A.S. Internal Pres.; Paul Flores, El Congreso Chairperson; Murv Glass, BSU Pres.; and Louis Quindlen, I.V.T.U.

External President

Murv Glass

The decade of the '60's bears significance from the awareness, understanding, and active participation of concerned students. During the past year, student government at UCSB has reflected little, if any, of the understanding and consciousness which once allowed students to unite and work together. Because of this, student input and power into decisions that affect our daily lives on this campus has dwindled to an all-time low.

As a candidate for External President, my first priority would be to unify all elements on this campus. With this done, we could then begin to work together to initiate the kinds of programs that are of mutual benefit to ALL students. With these ideals in mind, I would then propose the following projects as objectives to work on:

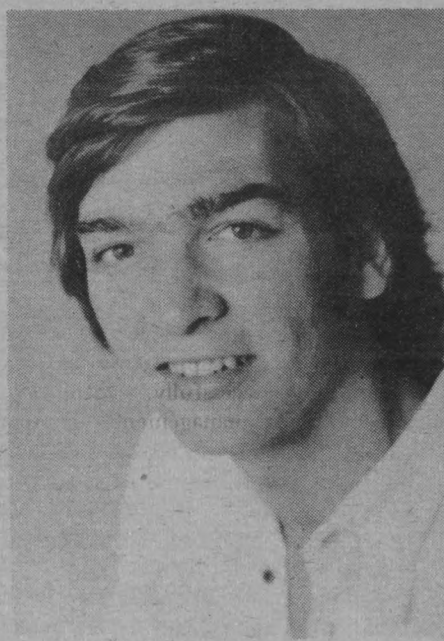

- Establish a permanent organization to deal with sky-rocketing rent prices projected for next year.
- Work very closely with the UC-wide Student Lobby to have the 6 per cent

Walt Wilson

It is time that the Associated Student Body Government began concerning itself with issues and events that effect all students. "Slates" composed of small interest groups are disregarding issues of common concern to all students. The continuous battle for funds between these "slates" jeopardizes the functioning of our student government.

A.S. government should be concerning itself with: 1. conducting fair elections. Twice during the past year Special Elections ended in debacle. The November election precipitated A.S. Judicial to censure Legislative Council for negligence. An investigation into the February election revealed that ballot boxes had been stuffed. 2. providing concerts for the students. Concerts should not occur during "quarter breaks," and students should have first priority when tickets are sold. 3. budgeting funds equitably. Budget sessions should be a continuous process in which Finance Board not only allocates funds, but investigates the effectiveness of allocated funds. A.S. Monies should be allocated on the merits of specific projects and services, and not on tradition or coercive demands. 4. Representing issues which concern all students.

Neil Moran

Simple solutions to complex problems: these, all too often, are the politicians stock in trade. And unfortunately, it is too often the distinguishing characteristic of A.S. candidates. Clearly, the problems besetting this campus and the University system are of such magnitude that finding solutions will require a minimum of rhetoric and a maximum of diligence in order to unite conflicting groups. This is why I am impelled to seek the External Presidency.

Next year will afford students an unprecedented opportunity to secure gains both within the University, with the seating of a student Regent, and from the liberally democratic State Legislature led by a progressive Governor. The duties of the External President center on negotiations with the Board of Regents, the Legislature and the Student Body Presidents Council. Having served simultaneously on Leg Council and in Sacramento with the UC Student Lobby, I believe I am uniquely qualified among all candidates to perform these duties.

The coming year confronts us with such issues as strengthening the Student Lobby, neutralizing the Regents' opposition to I.V. incorporation, and expanding student services. These goals will not be attained by heated diatribe. It is time for rationality and productive cooperation. You deserve nothing less.

A sophisticated understanding of University and Legislative politics is required of an active and effective External President. My experience gives me that understanding and I am prepared to be an enthusiastic student advocate.

Executive Candidates

Joseph M. Billings

I am running for A.S. External President because we as students have thrown down our arms while the problems of a modern society loom large. Student interests and awareness are diminishing in an era in which they are most vitally needed. The next external president of this campus must be committed to unifying all cultural and political elements of UCSB into a responsible, and revitalized student power center.

The 1970's call for a new type of student activism. The answers are no longer found in the toss of a Molotov cocktail. Nor can they be found if we were to burn every Bank of America in the country to the ground. We can thrust new solutions forward only by infiltrating the political system and thus turn it about to meet the needs of a new era.

The scope of student government must be widened to accommodate those needs so that it will indeed become an organization deserving of the time and energy of a serious student body. I urge students to support the following program in hope that a more responsible student government and a more concerned student body will be realized. The program calls for: 1. a serious internal reorganization of the A.S. Leg. Council, 2. vigorous investigations of student housing and tenants' problems, 3. full support of the volleyball and water polo initiative, 4. aggressive investigations of university investments in racist South Africa, and essentially asserts the need for creative and realistic proposals.

Leadership must assume the responsibility of acting as our collective bargaining agent in local affairs, such as the Exxon Initiative, the Isla Vista Incorporation, and increasing rents.

The hypocrisy, deceit, fraud, and corruption which permeates our Associated Student Body Government is a disgrace to our University. The consequence of such an environment is student apathy. In the wake of this apathy, we the students, are losing to the University the ability to govern ourselves, to the landlords our money, and to ourselves self-respect. Student leadership and government have become myopic and have lost perspective of the needs of the student. I am a "non-slate", independent candidate seeking election, reform in A.S. government, and equitable access to government to all students.

Many of the Associated Students' problems are caused by flawed, vague and contradictory provisions of the A.S. Constitution. The need for a new document to clear up our structural mess is obvious. Our present, unworkable constitution was enacted in 1966 and it is time to recognize that, as times change, our student government must, too. Some special interests may wish to exploit the inadequacy of the 1966 constitution and urge you to vote against the new document. But the rest of us need to address ourselves to the future; student government could be guided for as much as a decade by the new constitution. It is necessary that, for once, we put individual petty concerns behind us and try to do something constructive.

After a full quarter's work on a new model, with the help of many diverse elements of the student spectrum, a vastly improved version is now presented to the voters for ratification.

Many of its revisions concern the Legislative Council. The most obvious and welcome change is a return to a single presidency.

The present dual presidency has been a two-year exercise in frustration. It has proven unworkable. The reform now suggested is a simple return to a single president, able to delegate strong powers and duties to two vice presidents so that they may assume more of the work load.

Another reform suggested is reducing the size of Leg Council from an unwieldy 17 members to a more operable figure of 12. A smaller, more cohesive council will maintain crucial representation and speed up the work of the student body.

Another of the welcome changes, to any observer of Leg Council, is the provision that "no voting or attendance by proxy will be permitted." This will prevent anyone not elected by the students from sitting on Leg Council and casting votes on student matters.

Last spring, less than half of the Leg Council members and one pizza maker approved more than $500,000 in budget allocations for this year.

This must never happen again.

The need is clear, and the necessary reforms are before you. All they need is your support.

Article III – Officers

Section 1. Eligibility: Only regularly enrolled undergraduate students shall be eligible to hold an elective or appointive office. The candidate shall have maintained a minimum grade point average of two point zero (2.0) in the quarter prior to election, in the quarter of election, and in each quarter during the term of office. This average shall be based upon work completed at the University of California, Santa Barbara. Additional eligibility requirements and procedural regulations shall be established in the By-Laws.

Section 2. Term of Office: The term of office for all elected officers shall be one year, from the time of their installation until the installation of the next Council.

Section 3. Elective Officers: The elective officers of this organization shall be the President, the Vice-President for Internal Affairs, the Vice-President for External Affairs, and the voting Representatives. No person shall hold more than one elective office in the organization simultaneously.

Article IV – Executive Department

Section 1. Executive Authority: The Executive Authority shall be vested in the President and the two Vice-Presidents.

Section 2. Executive Eligibility: To be eligible to run for executive office, a person must have completed at least sixty (60) units of academic credit by the end of the quarter immediately prior to the election. Transfer units accepted by this University shall apply towards this requirement.

Section 3. Executive Officers:

a. The President of the Associated Students shall:

- (1) Be elected by the student body at large.
- (2) Act as the chairperson of Legislative Council, and have the power to vote only to make or break a tie.
- (3) Nominate all Associated Student board, commission and committee chairpersons and all undergraduate members of other boards, commissions and committees as requested by the appropriate University officials.
- (4) Appoint three (3) Legislative Council Representatives to each of the three Administrative Subcommittees.
- (5) Be responsible for contact and representation in University-wide, Regental, local, state and federal matters.
- (6) Be an ex-officio member of all Associated Students', and appropriate Academic and Chancellor's boards, commissions, and committees.
- (7) Serve on the Campus Events/Student Services subcommittee.
- (8) Have the power to require in writing the opinion or report of any Associated Student representative, as pertains to the goals, purposes, and results of the representative's board, commission, or committee.

b. The Vice-President for Internal Affairs shall:

- (1) Be elected by the student body at large.
- (2) Be a full voting member of the Legislative Council, and preside over meetings in the absence of the President.
- (3) Advise and inform the President on all campus concerns.
- (4) Coordinate all Administrative Boards.
- (5) At the request of the President, serve as the Representative of the Associated Students, to all boards, commissions, and committees.
- (6) In the event that the office of the President becomes vacant, serve as President until a new President is duly elected.
- (7) Serve on the Internal/Administrative Affairs Subcommittee.

c. The Vice-President for External Affairs shall:

- (1) Be elected by the student body at large.
- (2) Be a full voting member of the Legislative Council, and act as the Chairperson if both the President and the Vice-President for Internal Affairs are absent.
- (3) Inform and advise the President on all local, county, and statewide affairs.
- (4) Act as the representative of the Associated Students on all external matters as designated and authorized by the President.
- (5) Serve as liaison in all Isla Vista affairs.
- (6) In the event that the offices of both President and Vice-President for Internal Affairs become vacant, serve as President until a new President or Vice-President for Internal Affairs is duly elected.
- (7) Serve on the Community/External Affairs subcommittee.

d. The Executive Cabinet shall assist and advise the Associated Students' President in carrying out his/her executive functions. Its functions and composition shall be determined by the President.

Article V – Legislative

Section 1. Legislative Authority: The Legislative Council shall be the supreme policy-making body of the Associated Students.

Section 2. Membership:

a. The voting members of the Legislative Council shall be the nine (9) elected representatives, the President, the Vice-President for Internal Affairs, and the Vice-President for External Affairs.

b. The presiding officer may vote only to make or break a tie.

I would, first of all, like to applaud the idea of removing the rewriting of the AS Constitution from politics by placing it in an academic atmosphere. Unfortunately, the removal did not guarantee a better thoughtout or well-written document. Although there are a few sections of the new Constitution which are better written than the current one (i.e., Preamble, single presidency, and the administrative subcommittees), there are several which are less well-written and damage the document seriously, (i.e., the section on censure and subsequent recall, the apportionment of voting representatives (cut from 13 to 9), and the Judicial section – ARTICLE VI).

I disagree with the section on censure and recall because a recall election should not be in the hands of the peers of the representatives but should always remain in the hands of his/her electorate. At a time when enrollment is up, the number of representatives should not be cut. Also, the responsibility of each representative has been increased and supports the need for more representatives. The Judicial Section particularly deserves my criticism since it is a crucial area. It is not clear whether or not all Judicial appointments must be approved by a 2/3 vote of the Legislative Council or only the chairperson. Currently, all members must receive such approval. Section 3,d of ARTICLE VI requires "prompt hearings upon receipt of request for decisions." Currently, the Judicial first meets to decide whether or not there is a case to be heard. This new clause would require hearings each time such a request was made, regardless of whether or not a case really existed.

Although these items may seem like minor mechanical points, I feel that they point out areas which need further discussion and rewriting. This draft was only finished a week ago and I feel that more consideration needs to be given the ramifications of such an important document. I urge you to vote no on this issue.

Article IX - Initiative, Referendum, and Recall

Section 1. Initiative:

- a. The Associated Students shall have the power to initiate legislation by means of a petition signed by five per cent (5%) of its members. An election shall be held within three (3) school weeks after the petition has been presented to the Elections Committee Chairman.
- b. Regular election procedure shall be followed. A majority vote with at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the Associated Students voting shall be necessary for adoption.
- c. Legislation adopted in the above manner shall not be changed in any way for at least one quarter.

Section 2. Referendum:

- a. Any legislation passed by the Legislative Council, except emergency or financial measures, may be subjected to a referendum vote of the Associated Students. Upon presentation to the Elections Committee Chairman of a petition signed by five per cent (5%) of the Associated Students, the Legislative Council shall repeal such legislation or submit same to a vote of the Associated Students within three (3) school weeks.

b. Regular election procedure shall be followed. A two-third (2/3) majority vote with at least twenty-five per cent (25%) of the Associated Students voting shall be necessary for repeal.

c. Legislation repealed in the above manner shall not be adopted again for at least one quarter.

Section 3. Recall:

a. Officers of the Associated Students shall be subject to recall by presentation to the Elections Committee Chairman of a petition signed by ten per cent (10%) of the Associated Students eligible to vote for the specified officer. Within three (3) school weeks a recall election shall be held.

b. Regular election procedure shall be followed. An elected officer shall be immediately recalled upon a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote with at least twenty-five per cent (25%) of his constituency voting.

c. If a recall election should fail, the specified officer shall not be subject to recall again for at least one quarter.

d. Class officers shall be subject to recall in the same manner by the class which elects them.

Article X - Amendments

Section 1. Amendments to this constitution may be proposed in either of the following manners:

- a. Upon consent of a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the voting members of the Legislative Council.
- b. By a petition signed by fifteen per cent (15%) of the Associated Students, presented to the chairman of the Elections Committee at least one (1) week before formal presentation to the Legislative Council.

Section 2. An election shall be held within three (3) school weeks after either (a) or (b) of Section 1 has been fulfilled. The Legislative Council shall arrange for proper publicity which shall include a full text published in the Nexus and broadcast on KCSB-FM at least one week before the election. Full texts shall also be available at the polls.

Section 3. Regular election procedures shall be followed. A two-thirds (2/3) majority of the votes cast shall be necessary for adoption.

Article XI - By-Laws

Section 1. The by-laws of the Associated Students shall be established by a three-fourths (3/4) majority of the voting members of the Legislative Council.

Section 2. Amendment to the By-Laws shall be presented one (1) week prior to consideration by the Legislative Council.

Article XII - Enabling Clause

Section 1. Upon ratification, this Constitution shall go into effect on May 15, 1966.

Section 2. The following provisions shall go into effect for the purpose of election of officers for the 1966-67 academic year:

- a. Article III, Section 3
- b. Article V, Section 5
- c. Article VIII, Section 2 and 4

Section 3. The following provision should go into effect for the fiscal year 1971-72:

- a. Article V, Section 4, paragraph h.

Section 4. The following provision shall go into effect for the fiscal year 1971-72:

- a. Amendment to Article II, Membership
- b. The increase of $.75 per quarter in fees shall be reviewed every three (3) years.

Section 5. The following provision shall go into effect for the fiscal year 1972-73:

- a. Amendment to Article V, Section 4, paragraph i.

Section 6. The following provision shall go into effect Winter quarter, 1974:

- a. Amendment to Article V, Section 4, paragraph j.

Arts Commentary

Academy Award Anachronistic

By Anthony Roche

As the pundits produce their assessments of this, the 47th occasion on which the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences has chosen to honor its practitioners with awards, the general reaction seems to be one of mounting ennui. The Oscars, some claim, don't have the aura of romantic appeal they used to, nor is the event itself as compelling. Many of the films and filmmakers nominated this year did not lend themselves to the hoopla traditionally associated with the event.

In the past, the Oscar ceremony has rarely risen above the level of a vulgar spectacle in which the most traditionally oriented and expensive productions were touted and we lesser mortals occasioned to peek at the luminaries as they climbed down from the screen to walk by us, if not amongst us. It was in this context that the ceremony surrounding the Oscars evolved, which does a lot to explain the Barnum and Bailey atmosphere and the odd, yet perversely appropriate combination of paternal, aging reactionaries and giggling young starlets to announce the awards. The circus-like nature of the proceedings was still too much in evidence this year, particularly with such inappropriate figures as Bob Hope and Frank Sinatra running the proceedings.

The picture Hollywood presents on such an occasion suggests a pathetically aging Godfather, fearful of losing his grip on an empire built by exploitation masquerading as respectability, treating newcomers to the field as rebellious children to be chided for their waywardness. They are, no doubt, "persuaded" to conform.

It has taken the Academy long enough to recognize how any credibility it once had is being whittled away by its obstinate ignorance of any movie which wasn't pure "entertainment." For four of this year's five "Best Picture" nominations the inclusion of movies that probed intelligently into societal hypocrisy and corruption seemingly argued, that Hollywood was finally willing to mature a little. The Oscar ceremony qualified this impression considerably, not least when it was inadvertently revealed that, as a response to Bert Schneider's references to Vietnam, Hope and Sinatra had concocted a chastisement which purported to speak with the full weight of the Academy. This event indicates the severe identity crisis the Academy is undergoing in trying to accommodate the new breed of filmmakers to its traditional patterns. It also suggests that the sooner the old guards are ousted, the better.

At least Francis Ford Coppola and his fellow-workers' courage in producing a sequel which transcended the original and spoke eloquently about contemporary American mores was rewarded. But several of the other categories gave grounds for complaint, and will continue to do so as long as it is felt necessary to reduce nominations to single choices. Ever since the "Best Actor" award went to Cliff Robertson in 1969, its particular credibility has been deflated and, while Art Carney was by no means negligible in "Harry and Tonto", his receipt of the award necessarily entailed the third occasion on which the

Spikers Sweep...

Trojans leading 14-12, serving for the game, and probably the match. UCSB got the serve and won two points on excellent rallies. Jon Roberts then boomed a spike and SC's Carlos Fonseca double hit, giving the Gauchos the game 16-14.

From there, the Gauchos machine was rolling again, and the Trojans fell 15-6.

After the game, Mee was pleased. "We came out all over them in the first game. I've never seen them play better than in that game. No one could have beaten us then."

Mee continued, "We're pointing for the NCAA finals now. We're going to have a team meeting and decide how important an undefeated season is to the players. How hard we go from here is up to them."

If their play against San Diego was any indication, an undefeated season did not seem to mean that much. The Gauchos were pushed for 3 hours, finally winning 5-15, 15-11, 15-11, 9-15 and 15-9.

"We showed a lack of aggressiveness and a lack of pride," said Mee. "When we got down to the fifth game where it meant winning or losing the match, we started playing good volleyball."

Mee was not worried that this might indicate further trouble.

"It was a good learning experience for us," he said. "Each guy had to find out what he had to do to turn himself on. I'm not upset. It turned out well."

UCSB is now 9-0 in SCIVA play, and 38-1 overall. They hold a three game lead over USC, UCLA and Pepperdine, who will battle it out for the right to get into the playoffs.

The Gauchos, Mee said, will take things easy in practice this week. "We worked very hard in practice this past week keying for USC. Now we'll let up, which should bring us back mentally."

This weekend was the first without All-American Gerald Gregory. Understated Mee, "You don't go out and replace a Gerald Gregory. You just create a new lineup."

GaUCHO Nine Drops Finale

By Peter Gort

In the past, when a GaUCHO baseball team came out of a three game weekend series with two wins, you couldn't find a player whose face was not adorned with a smile. But this 1975 GaUCHO nine is of a different sort, and although they took two of three over the weekend from former PCAA rival LA State, not a single player was pleased. They wanted all three.

This is the attitude of a winner; an attitude notably lacking last year; and an attitude that might very well lead this 1975 club to the NCAA playoffs.

On Friday, taking advantage of just one of numerous Diabolo misques, UCSB sped to an early 4-0 lead. The Gauchos increased that lead to 8-3 by the eighth inning, allowing ace righthander Brian Kingman to toy with the LA club.

Kingman, although not as sharp as in his previous two appearances, struck out 14 Diabolo batters.

The Gauchos had quite a bit more success with their turns at the plate, hammering out 9 hits to set the tone for the series. In the three games, UCSB's batsmen were never fooled, continually smashing the ball all over the diamond.

Following their 8-5 win Friday, UCSB came out swinging again on Saturday, quickly getting back the two runs LA State scored against Brian Moulton in the first inning. Moulton, despite not really having anything on the ball, held the Diabolos in check the rest of the way, before being excused in the sixth with two out.

Joe Wikel came on in relief to strike out five while allowing only one hit. Wikel's effort was the top GaUCHO pitching performance of the weekend, seemingly meriting him a shot at a starting assignment.

Top hitters in the Gauchos' 8-2 victory were Bob Edson with a solo home run, Chad Corcoran who was two for two, and Tom Conklin two for three.

In the finale, the Gauchos dropped a 7-3 decision as starting pitcher Carlos Moreno just did not have it, allowing five Diabolo runs in 3 1/3 innings. Jim Moore came on in relief, turning in a creditable job as he allowed just three hits in 3 2/3 innings.

At the plate, UCSB continued their assault on the Horsehide, but only came up with five hits as line drives and sharply hit grounders were repeatedly gobbled up by the Diabolo defense.

Will Biggs, Tom Conklin, and Bill Lackey each delivered two base hits for the Gauchos in the fourth, to combine with Edson's base on balls, to net UCSB their three tallies. Lackey hit another shot in the seventh, but as was the case this entire game, it was hauled down on the warning track by the Diabolo left fielder.

Defense of Glass...

editor (then Scanlon) tripped up the former editor and exposed him lying to the Press Council and the audience (see Nexus, Oct. 25, 1974, p. 11 and Oct. 2 1974, p. 2) Evidence to this fact shows that Scanlon, who originally denied having knowledge of the identity of the anonymous author of the letter, did in fact know the identity and conspired to print it under a fictitious name.

Scanlon's remark regarding "shifting double standards" rings a hollow note of hypocrisy. The former opinion editor likes to refer to his support of the United Student Coalition candidates in years gone by. In the ranks of the coalition, Scanlon became known as a Judas Iscariot. Trusting Scanlon, members of the A.S. Leg Council appointed him to a position on the Chancellor's select committee to review the Nexus. Scanlon quickly sided with former Nexus editor and reactionary Dave Carlson. The fruits of their labors were manifested in the student body losing control of the Nexus, and Scanlon's subsequent appointment to the key Nexus opinion editorship by Carlson.

Scanlon's close political association with other noted politicians from the right was quick to develop during his tenure at the Nexus.

During this past year, the Nexus office has become the graveyard for conservative political dead wood. Among such notables are: Nexus news editor Abby Haight, who lost a heated campaign last year for the Internal Pres. post; Martin "the plumber" Chorich, former A.S. rep and self-admitted rifler of opponent's desk drawer's during last year's campaign; staff writer "Fast Eddie" Mackie; staff writer and photographer Neil Moran, former Leg Council rep. who abandoned his post without a resignation to fly to Sacramento and hob-knob with political big wigs (Moran was also the recipient of Scanlon's one dollar campaign contribution); finally James Minow, Nexus editor in chief who owes his total existence to the aforementioned reactionary puppeteers who control the situation.

Scanlon's charge that Glass "exhibits only intolerance toward views contrary to own..." is a curious statement. The former opinion editor and his colleagues at the Nexus have strangely encouraged the student body not endorse the beginning of a second newspaper on this campus. The question automatically becomes, who is really intolerant to views contrary to their own?

Glass has stated that the charges against him warrant a public forum. We agree. Murv feels that he should answer to the student body directly, and not through the Nexus. Is Scanlon willing to do the same thing?

Murv has contacted Scanlon and requested that he be present at the candidates forum today at high noon in Storke Plaza to publicly disclose the long-awaited truth.

Ed. Note: The Nexus offered Glass equal space in the same issue to respond to Scanlon's article, but he chose not to author the reply himself. In responding on behalf of Glass, Leighton Morse made certain inaccurate statements which require clarification. He implies that the Nexus article of Oct. 7, 1974, proves that records were destroyed. The article does not. He also claims that Nexus articles of Oct. 25 and 28, 1974, prove that Scanlon was lying. The first article was a commentary by a Leg Council member and proves no such thing. The story of Oct. 28 makes no mention of Scanlon lying. The allegation is Morse's own conclusion.

contrary to his own. Anyone who opposes him is automatically a racist and has lost all claim to the basic human dignities. They become fair game for his cruel psychological barrages while he attempts to rob them of their humanity. I can think of no better definition of racism.

I would also like to point out, since I assume the charge will be made, that I am not doing this for the benefit of any particular Glass opponent. Of his three opponents, I do not know two of them, and while I consider the third a friend and have even contributed one dollar to his campaign, I am not involved in any other way in this election.

I have written this commentary because I felt the students of this campus should know something of one of the candidates they are being asked to support. I have also provided a copy of this article to Glass so that he could prepare a reply to run with this if he so desired. Of course, he again may not feel it necessary to explain his actions to students.

It would have been far easier

Missed the Point?

Editor, Daily Nexus:

The attempt at satire by Mark Forster in Friday's Nexus missed the point. While it may seem legitimate to criticize Legislative Council for allowing proxies, it should be noted that none have been allowed since before last summer. That is the result of responsible voting by a majority of council members, not because of any written guidelines. It is good and necessary that the press act as a governmental watchdog and report to the student body any misconduct by Legislative Council. However, when unjustified assertions are printed both parties are ill served.
