Many Letters Sent Out In Observance Air Mail Week

That Carpinteria residents have joined wholeheartedly in the observance of air mail week is evidenced by the fact that between 85 and 100 air mail letters have been leaving Carpinteria by each train since Sunday, the opening day of air-mail week, and approximately 200 letters were dispatched yesterday by car direct to the Goleta airport in connection with the special one-day direct feeder service.

Considerable demand has developed for the Carpinteria cachet which is one of the few showing an actual reproduction of a photograph and the post office has received requests for these cachets from many parts of the Country.

Collectors of covers who forwarded air-mail letters to Carpinteria to be cacheted and returned by the special feeder-service offered yesterday will really have an unusual item to add to their collections, since it was necessary to have these letters run through a job press, because the background of the cachet is printed and not applied with a rubber stamp as in most cases.

Persons who wish covers commemorating the observance of air mail week are urged to mail their letters at once, since Saturday will be the closing day. The local post office is accepting self-addressed envelopes which are being sent to Los Angeles via air-mail where they are back-stamped and returned to Carpinteria by air mail via Santa Barbara.

Mrs. Frank L. Smith motored to Berkeley during the past week for her son, Lawrence, who completed his first year at the university. They visited relatives in Fresno enroute home.

A half-hour concert presented by the high school orchestra under the direction of Frank Greenough at 6:30 last evening was the main feature of the Lion's Club program at their weekly dinner. The concert was given in the patio of the Memorial building preceding the dinner at 7:00 p. m.

The program for the club for next Thursday is in charge of John B. Hudson who is arranging for a program commemorating Memorial Day which falls on the following Monday.

Miss Candace Grove entertained at dinner Sunday for Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Shorkley, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jarvis, Miss Maude and Miss Minnie Merrihew.

TICKET MONEY FOR CARNIVAL SHOULD BE TURNED IN NOW

The carnival committee of the Legion, Lion's Club and Chamber of Commerce met Wednesday evening to discuss the progress of plans for the carnival to be held at Cerca del Mar on June 3 and 4.

In order that the committee may know just how much money is available, all persons who have advance tickets on the carnival are asked to turn in money collected to the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce at once.

MONTECITO ROAD APPROVED FOR WPA PROJECT

A telegram received yesterday morning by the Chronicle from Congressman A. J. Elliott which read as follows, "WPA project to improve Coyote Road, including clearing, grading, oiling, construct gutters, retaining walls, culverts, has been designated eligible by President. Allotment thirty-three thousand sixty-five dollars," created something of a mystery for a short time since no one had ever heard of Coyote Road. Several county officials were contacted but were also at a loss as far as knowledge of the road was concerned.

The mystery was finally solved by Chas. S. Tomlinson, County Assessor, after he had made several telephone calls. At present there is no such road, the project being a road proposed by Supervisor Sam Stanwood to connect Sycamore Canyon Road with Mountain Drive. The new road will diverge from Sycamore Canyon Road at a point about halfway between Parma Road and Becker Pass road, closely following the city limits of Santa Barbara to Mountain Drive and will pass through or near property owned by the Bothin Real Estate Company, A. Brevedello, County National Bank, Piccioni tract, Orris tract and Mesquita tract.

FIRE DEPT. QUELLS TWO SMALL FIRES

The Carpinteria Fire Department was called out to answer two alarms during the past week. The first alarm was received Saturday night shortly after 11:00 p. m. as the result of a brush fire on the Fish property near the beach. Brush burning had been in progress during the day, and a light breeze fanned smoldering embers into a brisk blaze. No damage resulted.

The second fire occurred Sunday afternoon when an electric motor shorted out and caught fire in the Charles Verner Grocery Store. The only damage resulting was to the motor.

S. B. YOUNG PEOPLE TO PLAY BADMINTON HERE

A group of Santa Barbara Young people have engaged Cerca del Mar for this evening between the hours of 7 and 9 for a series of badminton games. Carpinteria residents who wish to know more about this game are cordially invited to drop in during the evening by G. W. Hitchcock, who conducts a tennis and sports shop in Santa Barbara, and who has made arrangements for the evening.

Miss Jean Warren Bailard will motor to Los Angeles tomorrow where she will attend a luncheon and visit friends, going on to Claremont to spend the week-end with Pomona college friends.

LOCAL GIRL WINS ESSAY CONTEST

Miss Madelon Southworth has been notified that her essay submitted in a contest sponsored by the National Association of Life Underwriters had won first place in state and district contests and had been forwarded to the national contest where one from each state will compete for a first prize of $250 and a number of lesser cash prizes.

The essay was on the subject "Insurance, the Steeping Stone to Security." Second place in the state contest was won by a student from Sequoia high school at Redwood City and third by Placer high school at Auburn.

Madelon is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Southworth and is a sophomore in high school.

Plans have been completed by the poppy committee of the American Legion Auxiliary under the chairmanship of Mrs. Richard Kistler for the observance of Poppy Day on Saturday, May 28th. Members of her committee will be stationed at various public places and will offer the little red paper poppies, made by disabled veterans, for sale to the public.

Every resident in the valley is urged to buy and wear the red flower which is a memorial to the world-war dead and which is a replica of the poppy which bloomed on the war torn fields of France and Belgium.

Not only does the sale of these flowers honor the dead but their sale raises funds to aid the living dead, those men who are prevented from earning a living through disability incurred during the war and hundreds of whom are still confined to hospital beds. The poppies are made in California by disabled veterans who receive a portion of the money collected, thus enabling them to be partially self-supporting. The balance of the money goes into the rehabilitation and welfare fund of the Legion and Auxiliary and which is used to aid other disabled veterans and their families.

Santa Barbara can now claim facilities for fly casting at the Bird Refuge that are not excelled anywhere on the Coast.

Miss Jacque Bailard spent the past week-end with a group of Pomona friends at Catalina.

Miss Jacqueline Thomas, who has been attending U. C. has arrived to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil T. Thomas.

The Directors of the citrus department of the Santa Barbara County Farm Bureau have announced that the annual trip outside of Santa Barbara County has been scheduled for next Tuesday, May 24. The tour will be through the Ventura county lemon districts. Co-operating with the directors in making arrangements is the Agricultural Extension Service of Ventura and Santa Barbara counties.

The tour will leave the Ventura County Court House on Poli street at 10:00 a. m. under the personal direction of Mr. Vincent F. Blanchard, Farm Advisor of Ventura county, and Mr. Roy Southwick, Assistant Farm Advisor.

The program for the day will include discussions and observations of the following subjects:

OFF THE JOB—ONTO RELIEF!

A fervent "Amen" is generally being heard, following Attorney General Webb's ruling that persons voluntarily leaving their work in trade disputes are not entitled to unemployment benefits. The opinion, far reaching in significance, holds:

"If an individual is an active participant in a trade dispute or if he leaves work voluntarily or at the request of some organization which is a party to the dispute, he is not entitled to benefits for unemployment during actual progress of the dispute."

Today, with literally millions of men and women eagerly searching for jobs, it is asking a lot to expect the public to support in idleness those who walk out on gainful occupations; the logic of Webb's opinion must appeal to all thoughtful persons.

We even venture to hope that this common sense attitude may go farther, eventually applying to a system which now takes money from the pockets of harassed taxpayers for the maintenance and support of those who are well able to support themselves! California has had first hand knowledge of the way the system works. Pickets at a Nevada City mine, for example, demanded—and received—support for themselves and their families during the weeks when they not only refused to work but endeavored in every way to keep others off the job.

The incongruous picture was heightened when subsequently, at a relief camp at Sacramento, the same men, their number augmented by some 200 sympathizers, demanded state support—and got it. Like conditions have been common in many other communities of the state and nation.

Obviously, such a program is unfair and unjust. Workers who wish to quit work have no right to sponge on the rest of the community. Taxpaying citizens are having difficulty enough supporting those who can't GET work.

THE RIGHT TO LIFE

Once more the right to life has triumphed!

Through the dramatic story of little Helaine Colan has run that theme—the right to life, a right which has triumphed over the fear of eternal blindness.

It is easy to understand the parents' first decision. The baby, so young as to be almost before life, faced death or a life of darkness. For the parents, the thought of those long years of sightlessness must have seemed more painful than the thought of immediate death.

But one can also understand the decision of the jury. Those jurymen who voted for life at any cost were moved by the oldest of human forces—the right to life. Physicians and rabbis, they had dedicated their lives to that right. They could

The Churches

Carpinteria has a number of Churches, whose pastors and members will be glad to welcome you to their services.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY
Christian Science Society, Carpinteria, a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., holds service every Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m., Sunday School at 9:45 o'clock. Mid-week meetings every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

A reading room is maintained in the church building, open Tuesday afternoons (except holidays) from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

"Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God." This passage from the Psalms is the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "Soul and Body" on Sunday in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Lesson-Sermon includes these verses from Matthew: "And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. . . . And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the self-same hour."

Among the passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, reach only one decision—to do all in their power to save the young life in their hands.

And so little Helaine goes on to face the battle of life, a battle now complicated by her handicap. But who can tell? Perhaps from that tiny child may come great poetry, a noble humanitarian effort, or even a new discovery that will add to the total of human knowledge.

The right to life, a force that has carried man through the centuries, again has triumphed, triumphed as it must always if man is to continue his domination of the earth.

THE MAN IN THE MIDDLE

Ever notice the man in the middle? He's the new "grin and take it" man of the American scene!

Consider taxes! The little fellow pays some and the big fellows pays a lot, but it's the man in the middle that gets the biggest part of the bill. He owns a house, he buys a car, he starts a business—and on each he gives his cut in taxes, a cut that is larger proportionately than that of any other group.

And what does he get in return? Of all the billions spent by local, state, and federal governments, the man in the middle gets the least. True he does share in the protection, education, and control activities of the government. But when it comes to the billions for relief and assistance, it's the big fellow and the little fellow that get the lion's share. The man in the middle takes care of himself.

And the story goes on! The little fellow gets free medical attention. The man in the middle has to pay—$10 for an x-ray, $100 for an operation. The little fellow gets other free services. The man in the middle has to pay his bills, bills that have to come out of that weekly pay check.

Ever notice the man in the middle? You ought to, he's the backbone of American life, and there's a mighty good chance he looks a lot like you.

are the words: "Christian Science raises the standard of liberty and cries: 'Follow me! Escape from the bondage of sickness, sin, and death!' Jesus marked out the way."

METHODIST CHURCH

Melvin J. Addington, Pastor
Morning Service: Miss Edna Loh, Dean of Bethel Bible School, Shanghi, China; Evening Service: Miss Edna Loh.

Sunday morning and evening we are privileged to here the message of one who has gone through the earlier part of the war in China, and came out from the interior on the last international train, and that not without difficulty. This program is being sponsored by the Junior League of the Methodist church. Miss Edna Loh has been a woman evangelist in the Chinese work as well as the dean of the Bethel Bible School in Shanghi, China.

Dr. J. A. B. Fry will conduct quarterly conference immediately following the evening meeting. All reports should be written and ready to be given at the meeting.

THE CARPINTERIA COMMUNITY CHURCH

Rev. Deane F. Babbitt, Pastor.

God is a Spirit. His activity is more like that of a good man than like that of an electric current. God is above this world in the sense that he is over it, behind it, prior to it, more than it. Just as the star systems are not yet finished, so humanity is not yet finished. God is the active Partner of every laborer for goodness, truth, or beauty. Recognizing the fact that the stream of creation cannot rise above its source, Rev. Deane F. Babbitt will preach at the eleven o'clock Worship Hour upon the theme, "GOD WHO IS ABLE!" Special music will include "Nocturne Poetique" by Gutmann, "By Singing Waters," Lieurance, anthem by the choir, and violin solo, "Berceuse," Goddard, by Miss Margaret Russell.

Following Miss Helen Nalty's presentation of "What to Consider in Choosing My Life Work" at the Youth Fellowship meeting, 6:30 p. m., adjournment will lead to the Methodist Church. Miss Edna Loh, recently returned from the interior of China, will speak to the combined Youth Groups of the Carpinteria Valley concerning conditions in the orient.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

Topflight economists—particularly those who also are husbands—long have admitted that women hold the nation's purse strings, buying four-fifths of the jewelry, nine-tenths of the foodstuffs, 95 per cent of all home furnishings; and owning most of the life insurance and real property in the country.

But subtly, the picture has changed, right before the startled eyes of both economists and women. Feminine dictatorship over where the money goes is threatened. Women's control over their own financial affairs is challenged. Even their carefully planned household and personal budgets are being deeply cut into.

By whom? The tax collector! Women in the past have spent two-thirds of the money expended by American families. Now they're being outstripped by the public tax spenders, who collect from California citizens nearly three-quarters of a billion dollars annually! They levy 99 separate taxes in California, totaling an amount equal to $114 from every man, woman and child in the state!

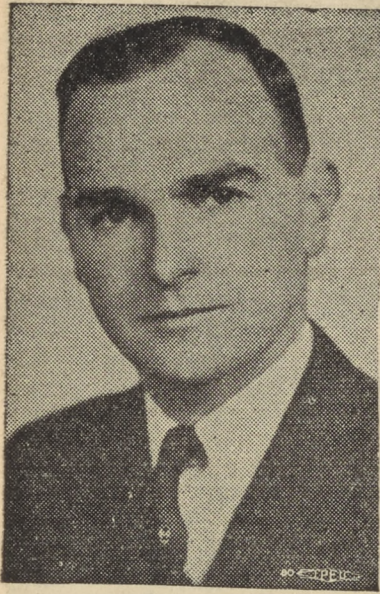

"California's public tax bill," comments Miss Josephine Patton, San Francisco clubwoman and former secretary of the California Tax Commission, "is beginning to approximate those of some of the most heavily tithed countries of Europe. Soon we shall have to decide whether we prefer to turn our paychecks over to government for the tax budget—or spend them ourselves. Government cost is mounting, not receding; public debt is growing, not diminishing."

That is a true analysis. California's public debt has reached the staggering total of more than a billion dollars, independent of national indebtedness.

Meeting interest and redemption charges on debts already contracted costs California taxpayers more than 75 millions a year!

And it looks much as if those debt burdens will mount still higher, unless taxpayers are watchful. For this is election year—the season when hair-brain schemes ripen and bloom and flourish just in time for the ballot. Proponents of the familiar old "Single Tax," already seven times defeated at the polls, are making final efforts to qualify their measure for the November election. There is little likelihood they will succeed. Thumbsdown should be the verdict also on the so-called Garrison Bond Act, which would open the door to new and costly governmental ventures, establish innumerable new boards and commissions for their regulation, and finally, make the floating of additional bond issues just 16 per cent easier! Borrowing on our future income, women leaders argue, is a necessary enough financial arrangement, but when we pledge the income, too, of our children—and of our children's children—the borrowing mania has gone too far and should be curtailed.

It's unsound business practice—as well as downright bad parental judgment—say the women, to mortgage with such reckless abandon the earnings of youth for generations ahead!

James Rolph III

JAMES ROLPH III ENTERS RACE FOR LT. GOVERNOR

In announcing his candidacy for Lieutenant-Governor this week James Rolph III issued the following statement:

As one who has, all his life, been a close student of public affairs, I am presenting myself to my fellow citizens of California as a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor of this great State. I am filing on both the Republican and Democratic tickets because I have many friends in both parties and, after all, we are all Californians.

A native of California, I have been blessed with a heritage and life-long training in good government, in human understanding of the real needs of our people, and in administration for the best interests of all those who go to make up our splendid Commonwealth. I believe, with many others who have urged my candidacy, that government should have a reasonable admixture of qualified youth.

In all modesty I may say I have been successful as a business man, with offices for more than ten years past in both Los Angeles and San Francisco, I know the problems of agriculture because I am a practical farmer, making my home on a ranch and voting in the country schoolhouse nearby. I am an active member of the California Cattlemen's Association, the California Horse Breeders' Association and of other farm organizations, as well as of many civic and sportsmen's groups.

I have visited every one of the fifty-eight counties of California, most of them several times. I believe this qualifies me, to some extent at least, to know first-hand the real needs of the various sections. Educated in the public schools and a graduate of the University of California, I am interested in the future welfare of our educational system.

Friendly as I am to all candidates, I pledge myself to work, for the best interests of California, with whomever is chosen by the people to occupy the high office of Governor.

MOTION PICTURE DRAMA "MAYERLING" TO BE AT LOBERO

Departing briefly from legitimate stage production, Arthur J. Beckhard will present the film "Mayerling" at the Lobero commencing Sunday evening, May 29 and continuing throughout the following week. The film features Charles Boyer and Danielle Darrieux and has been heralded as a dramatic triumph by internationally prominent critics.

Presenting the love affair of Crown Prince Rudolph of Austria and a beautiful commoner, Marie Vetsera, the film offers an inspiring version of the baffling romance which ended sensationally at a royal hunting lodge named Mayerling nearly fifty years ago.

Charles Boyer plays the Crown Prince who sacrificed his throne for the woman he loved. "The most romantic of men, the unhappiest of Princes" is history's description of the Crown Prince and Boyer is superb in the part. Danielle Darrieux plays Marie whose devotion turned Rudolph from a life of debauchery and stifled emotions.

Anatole Litvak makes a masterpiece of direction in this film which will be shown at the Lobero commencing Sunday evening May 29 and continuing throughout the week. Matinee performances will also be given on Decoration Day and Saturday June 4.

vacation in Honolulu when she finishes her role in "Give Me a Sailor." Ditto Shirley Ross and her mother if Shirley can get some time off when she completes "Prison Farm." Olmpe (O-lamp) Bradna, now on a personal appearance tour in the East in connection with her latest picture, "Stolen Heaven," calls her father in Hollywood every evening. Mr. Bradna has been ill for several months and the young starlet's greatest concern seems to be for his complete recovery.

Bing Crosby rides a bicycle to and from the "Sing You Sinners" set, where he is working with Fred MacMurray and Ellen Drew. Frances Dee will move into town from her ranch house when she starts her role opposite Ronald Colman in "If I were King." Louise Campbell, back in Hollywood from a Chicago vacation to start work in "Men With Wings," has leased a home in Hollywood.

BROADWAY PLAY PREMIERE TO BE STAGED AT LOBERO

Broadway stage producers, exhausted from trying to lure their theatrical fugitives back to the nation's main rialto, are using new tricks. This is again demonstrated by the practice of the New York producing firm of Hilbert and Ames, who invaded the film capital to recruit a cast of important names to support Alan Dinehart in its new play venture, "Thanks for My Wife," coming to the Lobero theater for a three-day world premiere engagement beginning Thursday night May 30.

For the chance to face Manhattan audience in this production headed for Broadway several screen personalities have taken a vacation from Hollywood. Conspicuous of these are Regis Toomey, whose last stage appearance on the Coast was in the star role of "Sailor, Beware"; Kay Linaker and Mozell Britton, favorite Gotham stage actresses who have attained feature prominence in pictures, and James Spottswood, veteran comedian of the eastern play circuits.

The invasion of the New York producers who have crossed the country to set up headquarters for the purpose of launching some of their attractions on the Pacific coast has become increasingly popular in the past year, inspired considerably by the successful introduction of several productions during the last season, the new management explained.

"Thanks for My Wife," from the pen of Joseph Carole, besides serving as a starring vehicle for Mr. Dinehart's Broadway homecoming, affords him the directorial assignment, the rank he held on many of his New York theatrical associations.

PARK ROUTES NOW OPEN

It is now possible to drive from Fresno to either General Grant National Park or Sequoia National Park, with both routes in fair to good condition, reports the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club. Repair work is under way on the route to Sequoia National Park for about five miles but this does not seriously affect motor traffic.

The Generals Highway, connecting the Parks, is closed and is not expected to be open for another two weeks, to a month, depending upon snow removal operations.

PAUL SHOUP TO RETIRE FROM S. P. SERVICE

Paul Shoup, vice chairman of Southern Pacific, will retire from the company's service June 1, at his own request, it was announced this week.

In making known Mr. Shoup's decision to end a railroad career of 47 years with Southern Pacific, Hale Holden, chairman, said:

"The board of directors of the Southern Pacific Company, acceding to the request of Mr. Paul Shoup that he be permitted to retire from the company's service and as a member of the board and its executive committee on June 1, next, has arranged for such retirement.

"Mr. Shoup's service with the company and its subsidiaries has extended over a period approximating 47 years, during which he has served in various capacities carrying major responsibilities which he has executed with distinction and complete fidelity. Recognition has been given in connection with his retirement of this long and faithful service. My own good wishes and those of all members of the board go with it."

Paul Shoup started in the business world by delivering papers in San Bernardino, California. Later he acted as local correspondent for a Los Angeles newspaper and after graduation from high school, at the age of 17, obtained a clerical job in the mechanical department of the Santa Fe at San Bernardino.

A few months later, in 1892, he launched his career with Southern Pacific as a ticket clerk in the railroad's San Bernardino office. Possessing great eagerness to learn, he studied freight tariffs, stenography and telegraphy, and it was not long before he was advanced to the position of assistant station agent.

Shoup showed such aptitude for railroad traffic work that he was given a job in the office of the assistant general passenger agent at the company's headquarters in San Francisco. Here he took charge of detail work in connection with promoting the company's Sunset Route from San Francisco to New Orleans.

During this time he cultivated a natural ability to write. Much of his writing found ready publication, and at one time he considered seriously abandoning his railroad work to devote himself to literary pursuits.

In 1901 Shoup was given his first official position as district freight and passenger agent at San Jose, California. Then followed steady advancement in the traffic department. He was at Portland, Oregon, for some time and was recalled to San Francisco to assist in the rehabilitation work following the earthquake and fire of 1906.

Next, in 1910, he was placed in charge of the railroad's municipal and interurban electric lines in several California cities, and two years later became president of the Pacific Electric Railway, Southern Pacific subsidiary, operating a net work of electric lines in southern California.

When the world war came and the government took over the operation of the nations railroads, Shoup was made vice president in charge of the property interests of Southern Pacific and its affiliated and proprietary concerns. In 1920 he was named vice president and assistant to the president, and in 1925 was appointed executive vice president. He was made president of Southern Pacific in 1929 and left that post to become vice chairman, with headquarters in New York, in 1932.

Along with railroad work, Shoup has long been active in development projects. He is a director of numerous enterprises and is a trustee of Leland Stanford Junior University.

CAULIFLOWER STUDY COMPLETED BY FARM ADVISOR'S OFFICE

At the request of the Vegetable Growers' Committee of the Santa Barbara County Farm Bureau, an economic study has been made by Mr. John B. Schneider, Extension Specialist in Marketing, Mr. George B. Alcorn, also Extension Specialist in Marketing, cooperating with Mr. E. F. Smyth, Assistant Farm Advisor of Santa Barbara County. The information as indicated in the Table of Contents of the Report, is as follows:

1. ACREAGE— (a) United States—California—Santa Barbara County. (b) California by Seasons. (c) California by Districts.
2. YIELD—
3. PRODUCTION—
4. SHIPMENTS— (a) States by Years. (b) States by Seasons. (c) California Districts by Years. (d) California Districts by Seasons.
5. DISTRIBUTION and COMPETITION— (a) From Producing Districts in California. (b) Eastern Markets.
6. PRICE ANALYSIS—

This comprehensive report is available to anyone interested in the production of cauliflower. Vegetable growers are quite interested in it, because of the fact that for the last ten years California cauliflower acreage has averaged somewhat greater than 50 per cent of the entire national acreage. Santa Barbara County is particularly interested in the cauliflower situation, because of the fact that the County is the largest cauliflower district in the United States. During the last five years, over 18 per cent of the national acreage has been produced in Santa Barbara County. Copies of this report are available from Mr. E. F. Smyth, Assistant Farm Advisor, Room 15, Federal Bldg. Santa Barbara.

The 400-foot Tower of the Sun on Treasure Island will ring with the celestial music of 44 great carillon bells during the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

CITRUS COST STUDY MADE AVAILABLE

The Sixth Annual Citrus Cost of Production Study being conducted by the Agricultural Extension Service, cooperating with the Citrus Department of the Santa Barbara County Farm Bureau, is now available for distribution by the Farm Advisor's Office, Room 15, Federal Building, Santa Barbara. This is one of the most comprehensive studies ever made in Santa Barbara County. Twenty-five groves, representing 544 acres are represented in the Study. Questions concerning irrigation and fertilization, capital investment in land, trees and equipment, have been studied in this report.

HUNTINGTON LAKE ROAD OPEN

Through the road from Fresno to Huntington Lake is open to Cascade, near the Western end of the Lake, motorists are advised not to attempt to drive to the Lake for another week or ten days as portions of the highway are still icy and slippery due to melting snow, according to the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club. The road is in good condition as far as Big Creek, and no snow will be encountered to that point.

DONKEY BEATING BRINGS PROTESTS

The donkey team which passed through Carpinteria yesterday driven by the old man who shot and killed a dentist near San Jose several years ago when he refused to pay for taking a picture of the outfit, was the cause of considerable excitement for a short time Wednesday afternoon.

A. J. Hoppel, a former congressman from Southern California was passing through Carpinteria on his way home from the Spanish war convention when he noticed the old man just west of Carpinteria beating one of the donkeys which had fallen under the heavy load it was carrying. Several people had stopped and protested but he refused to take any notice.

Hoppel then stopped at the Chamber of Commerce office and informed the secretary, Wm. H. James of the affair. James, with the assistance of Mrs. Isabel Field got in touch with the Humane Society and the sheriff's office who investigated the affair and after some argument succeeded in convincing the old man that he should relieve the beast of its burden.

Smoke is banished with the new broilers

Only GAS ranges provide this cleanliness

So many foods taste better broiled. Toast, for example, emerges a crisp, golden brown. (And with gas, you have a choice of two desirable textures. Opening or closing the door does the trick.) But whatever the food, from toast to steaks, there will be no smoke. Not with the new broilers! ★ The gas flame completely destroys spattering particles, and as you know, smokeless broiling absolutely requires flame heat. In addition, on the new gas ranges a fine grill separates melted fat from the broiling food. ★ In other ways, too, gas brings greater cleanliness. Burner heads are easily washable. And there are fewer boilovers, because gas provides precise heat adjustment. For further information, visit any gas range dealer's or a showroom of your gas company. Ask about the easy payment plan.

SENIOR STUDENTS VISIT S. B. STATE COLLEGE FRIDAY

Carpinteria was well represented by many school students last Friday when Santa Barbara State college presented its annual Estudiantina for the purpose of acquainting the future college students of Southern and Central California with the work of the local institution.
 The college entertained the visitors throughout the day with many exhibits of the science, home economics, fine arts, architecture, industrial education, journalism, and handicraft to display the type of study attempted in the various academic departments.
 Ceremonies began with registration at 11 a. m. in the College quadrangle, followed at 2 p. m. with an assembly of welcome at which time President Clarence Phelps, Danny D'Alfonso, student body president; Douglas Duckham, president-elect; Douglas Oldershaw, Associated Men students' president; and DeWitt Trewhitt, chairman of the day delivered short addresses to the assembled group and introduced outstanding individuals from the schools.

 A beach picnic for the visitors was given by the College during the afternoon and many beach games were also played at this time. Concluding the activities for the day, a special performance of the 7th Annual Roadrunner Revue was given at 5:30 p. m. The show this year was a two-act musical extravaganza, and from all reports of witnesses was highly entertaining.
 Reports from the group and from the Estudiantina committee indicated that this was one of the most successful programs of this sort in several years.

CONVENTION OF NURSES SET FOR S. B. NEXT WEEK

Goals of Nursing will be the theme of 1,000 women representing the State's 25,000 registered nurses, as the California State Nurses' Association holds its annual convention May 23-27 in Santa Barbara. Also participating in the convention will be the California State Organization for Public Health Nursing, California League of Nursing Education, and the Western Conference of the Catholic Hospital Association.
 Matters not only of vital interest to the nursing profession, but also to public health, will be discussed during the week, according to Mrs. Gertrude R. Folenendorf, president of the Nurses' Association.
 "For instance," said Mrs. Folenendorf, "venereal diseases constitute a now almost universally recognized menace. Accordingly, Rachel K. Miller, of Santa Barbara County Health Department, will tell the nurse's part in combatting them in her talk "Case Finding and Holding in Venereal Diseases."
 "On the other hand, there will be talks dealing more specifically with the more personal problems encountered by the nurse in pursuing her profession. Dr. Paul Perigord, of the University of California at Los Angeles, will speak on "The Triumphant Power of Ideals," and Gordon S. Watkins, dean of Letters and Science at the same university, will give his views on "The New Individualism" as applied to nursing.
 Others scheduled to speak during the week are Helen Bean, U. S. Public Health Service; H. Irene Sawyer and Margaret Neagle, Santa Barbara County Schools; Ruth Taylor, U. S. Department of Labor, Children's Bureau; Pauline Gartzmann, Pasadena City Schools; Mary E. G. Bliss, American Nurses' Association, New York; Marjorie E. Hart, San Francisco; Lillian Liodas, Los Angeles; Amanda Larsen, Santa Barbara; and Dora Cornelisen, from the American Journal of Nursing.

 Throughout the week, according to the schedule, balloting will be held to elect new officers for the various organizations represented at the convention.
