ZELO

RESTAURANT & NIGHTCLUB

You need action, excitement and good eats after a stressful week of academic rigors. You could wander all over town for this, but one place delivers it all — Zelo.

With the most popular dance floor on State Street and the best in California cuisine, only Zelo can provide you with all the action and fine eats you desire from a downtown Santa Barbara excursion.

Known as the "Hidden Jewel of Santa Barbara," Zelo glitters indeed, living up to its rep with groovy theme nights almost every day of the week. If you need some good grub to get your groove on, Zelo can provide the gourmet — while some clubs are content to serve up greasy appetizers at best, only Zelo has a classy restaurant section where delicious delights are devoured. From pasta to seafood to fine meats — Zelo's food is rivaled only by their drinks.

With a full bar and its talented 'tenders, Zelo has the concoctions that will get you loose and ready for the dance floor. Make sure to try one of their cold Jägermeister shots, or ask for an old favorite — the drink will lead to the fun.

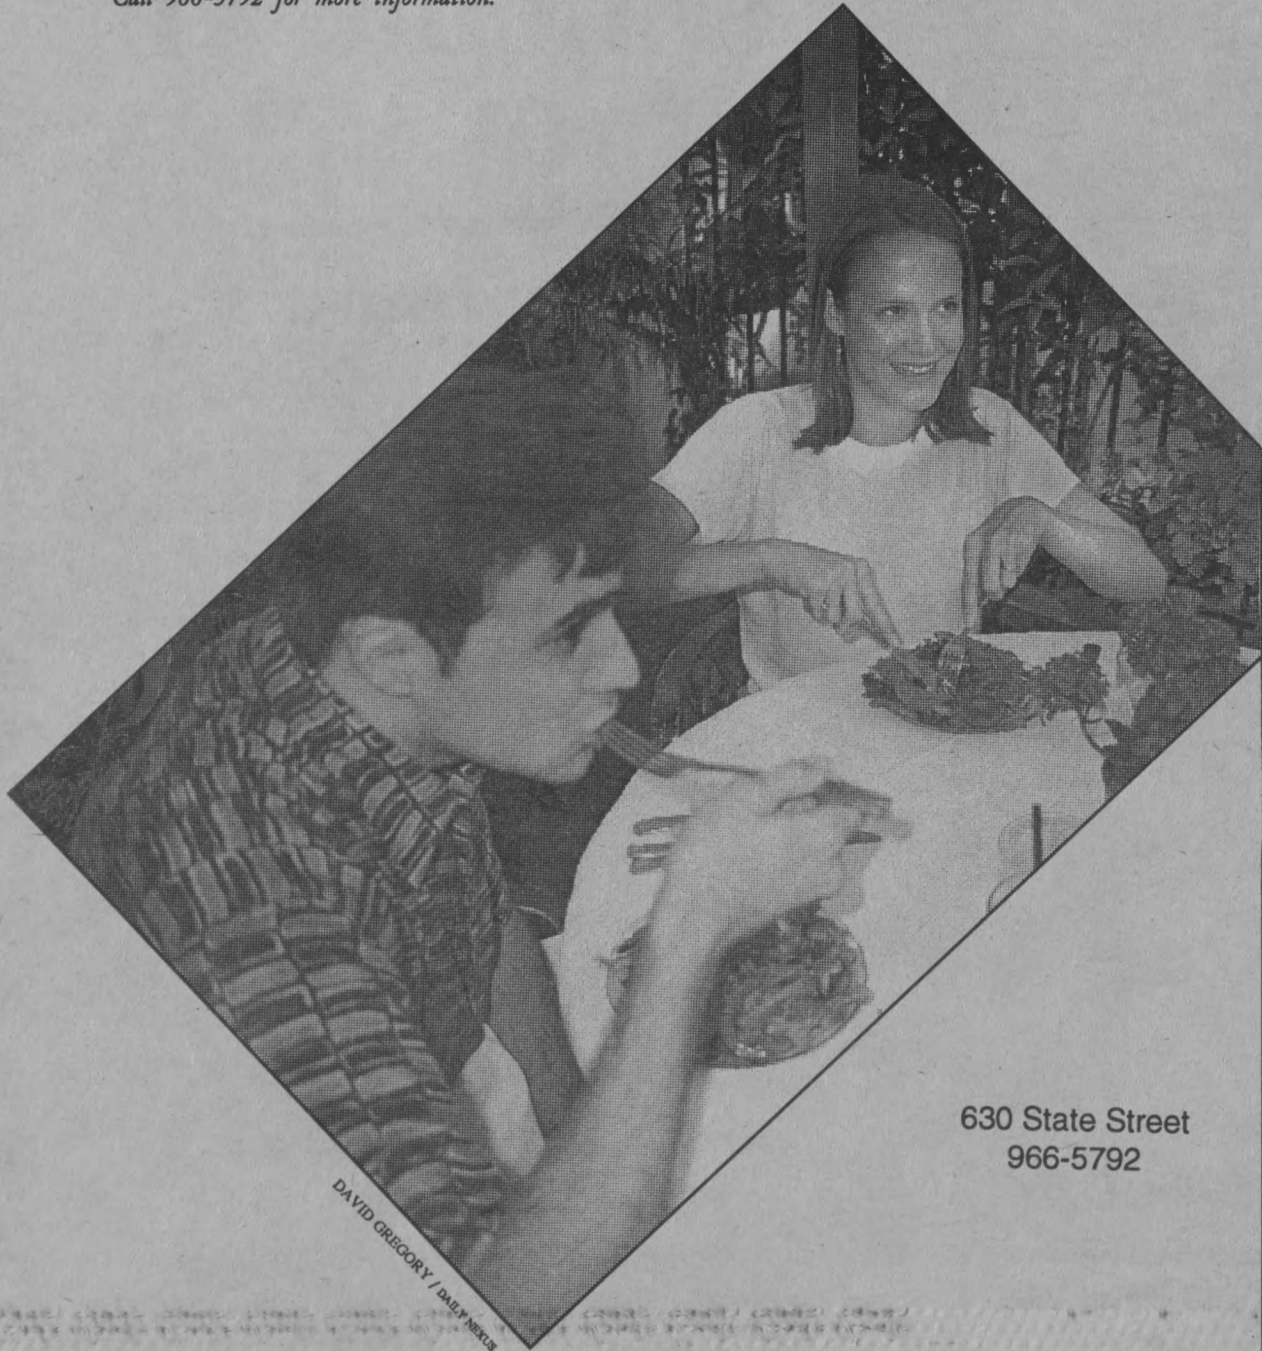

And fun you'll have, on one of Zelo's outrageous theme nights. Almost every night has a different theme, and each theme has one goal — for you to get down. On Thursday nights, always a favorite for downtown shenanigans, Zelo features $1 drinks all night long. Friday night is the famous Klub KHTY, as you hear every time you listen to Santa Barbara's trendiest radio station, and you can listen to all the best Top 40 hits while gyrating in one of Zelo's crazy go-go cages. Catch Saturday Night Fever, or go to Sunday's College Night, offering an opportunity to escape academia for just a little bit longer. What's more, Zelo is available for private parties and functions!

And what makes Zelo truly great is that it's 18 and over for dancing on most nights, so don't let your youthful exuberance hold you back when you want to get it on. Never again do you need to endure a boring night wandering all over State Street. Head to Zelo — everything you're looking for is there.

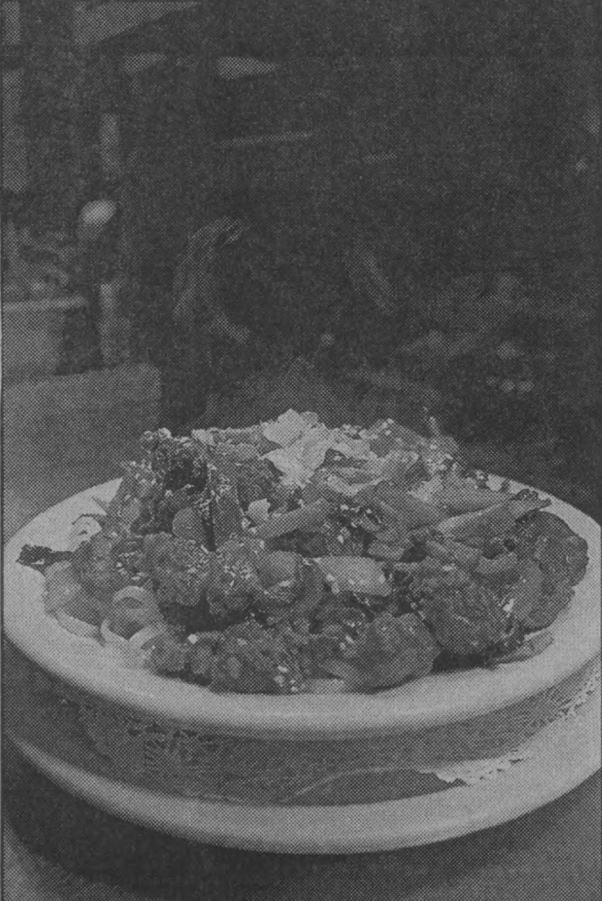

Zelo is located at 630 State St. in downtown Santa Barbara. Call 966-5792 for more information.

740 State Street
965-6599

You are what you eat, the old saying goes, and as waste hazards and environmental pollution encroaches upon us, you would be wise to watch your daily diet. Common fast food just isn't desirable as a basis for nutrition.

But you don't have to suffer for getting food quickly. At Fresh Choice, a well-stocked salad buffet and a smiling host greet you. All of your options are within arms' reach, and the bar is so long, there could never be a line long enough to match it.

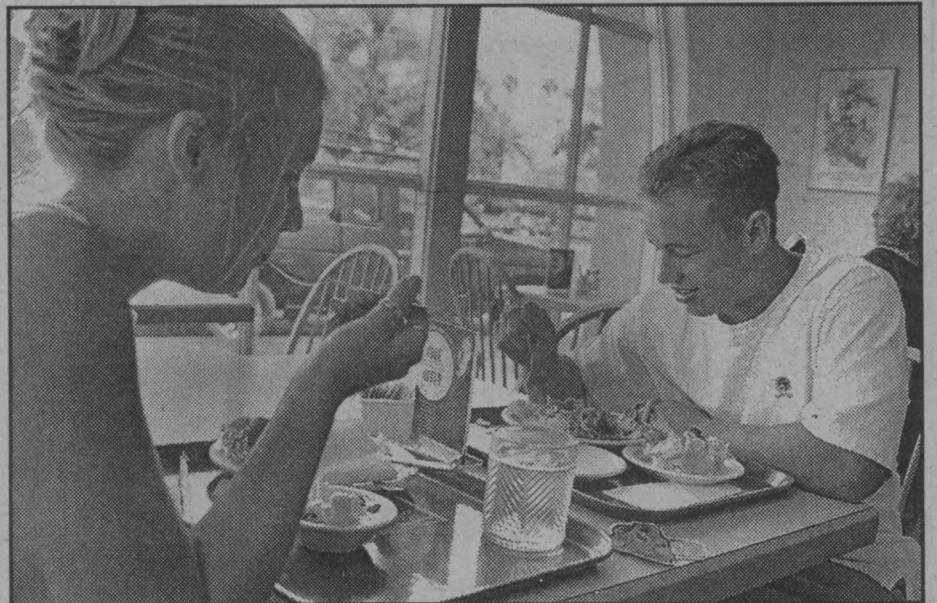

At the end of the salad bar, the cashier waits. It is but a short delay; beyond lies even more appetizing entree platters, cauldrons of hot soups, breads, and dessert nooks. Indeed, Fresh Choice is so consumer-friendly, they maintain a self-service soft drink dispenser (read "free refills," a rarity in Southern California).

Don't be fooled by the buffet appearance; the staff is fully functional and always willing to give assistance. This was handy, especially when I had too many dishes for my two arms to carry back to my table. Even with help, I still managed many trips back with more.

And what's more, I felt good about myself. My health is most important to me, and as I perused the readily available nutrition chart to the foods Fresh Choice serves, my enthusiasm for the eatery grew. It was also pleasing to note that the foods prepared were indeed fresh, as the name suggests.

You might notice, also, that while few of the menu items contain meat or animal products, both vegetarians and omnivores can enjoy the fare, notably anchored by the fresh soups and chowder, along with the delicious assortment of various breads. Tossing your favorite salads together also allows for higher satisfaction.

Amazingly, all of this comes for a completely affordable price. In fact, the food is so good, you eat more than you think the restaurant can afford to allow you to eat. Being a college student, I'm glad that the convenient location on State Street allows me to be there regularly.
