EASTER RELAYS SATURDAY

Goodall, Mills Are Presidential Candidates for April Elections; Other Officers to be Chosen

Names of candidates who will run for class and student body offices have been released by Elections Committee Chairman Shirle Lerner.

Presidential candidates are Rep-at-Large Frank Goodall and former Gauche Editor Don Mills.

AS vice-presidential candidates will be Nancy Chmilowski, Chuck Missman, Doris Spotts, and Elaine Strobel.

Six girls are to vie for the post of Associated Students secretary. They are Jo Glee Bradley, Diane Covey, Allison Nicholson, Grace Pope, Vivian Schmitz, and Renata Spiers.

Bob Christofferson, Dorothy Davis, Jim Downing, Pat Hart, Ted Knudson, Jim Mulick, Elenita Quintero, Larry Schilling, Dan Kutch and Don Smith will run for the three representative-at-large positions. Yell leader candidates are Bill Cunningham and Dick Ozenghar.

Candidates for senior class offices are: president, Ken Bonilla and Bill Norton; vice-president, Betty Braden, Jan Jones, and Peggy Ward; secretary, Phyllis Alden Pat Henon and Freddie Nation.

Junior class candidates will be: president, Don Fredericksen, Ed McCann, and Jim Stanley; vice-president, Robert Allen, Suzanne Smith and Joel Williams; and secretary, Juanita Gebb, Sally Shedd and Martha Bacon.

Al Hunter and Ted Troy are candidates for sophomore class president. Other sophomore candidates are Jess Alexander, Vince DeFiore, Marilyn Ringel, Denise Weber and Margaret Wright for vice-president, and Marlene Boone and Clair Tompkins for secretary.

Elections will be held on April 17 and 18, with run-offs on April 20. Publicity will be exhibited the week preceding the elections.

Council Requests Faculty Member To Speak on Oath

A motion to request the faculty to supply a speaker on the controversial loyalty oath, demanded by the Regents of the University for all employees, was passed by the Legislative Council at their last meeting.

The person selected will speak at a meeting of interested students to be sponsored in the near future by the Associated Students.

BERKELEY PROF SPEAKS MONDAY

Dr. Paul R. Needham, Professor of Zoology at Berkeley, will give a public lecture, "California Trout Conservation Problems", Monday evening, April 10, at 8:15 p.m., in the Mesa Auditorium.

The lecture will be illustrated with color films showing the spawning of the Cutthroat Trout. Dr. Needham, a former director of the California Trout Investigations, U. S. Bureau of Fisheries, is the author of the book, "Trout Streams."

LOBERO CONCERT IN MAY FEATURES STUDENT WORKS

Student composers will have an opportunity to have their works played publicly by outstanding musicians from the faculty and the motion picture studios in Hollywood.

This unusual activity will be presented in a free public concert at Santa Barbara's historic Lobero Theater on May 14, under the auspices of the Committee on Drama, Lectures, and Music, with arrangements being handled by H. Klyne Headley, Associate Professor of Music.

On the concert will be heard works written for piano and ensembles, including string quartets, wood quintets, and A Capella and brass choir.

Headley feels that this type of event is important "if we are to grow in cultural ways and encourage creative talent. Toward this end, Santa Barbara College, through its Music Department, is offering this first concert."

KAPPA SIGS ARE FOSTER PARENTS OF GREEK CHILD

Kappa Sigma fraternity has adopted European war orphan Spyros Tsiflikiotis on a one year contract basis through the Foster Parent Plan for War Children.

The ten year old Greek child whose father was executed by rebels in 1944 lives in stark destitution and misery. He and his mother live in one tiny room and receive month—from farming land which their only income—about $6 a they rent. Needed food, clothing, and medical care are supplied through the Foster Parents' Plan. Parcels and letters are sent from the fraternity to the child to accomplish this.

"We realized the urgent need for such action and hope that the idea will spread among other social organizations in the area," stated Kappa Sigma president Bob Wheeler.

KEEN, STAFFORD AND DENHOLM TO STAR IN 'BEYOND THE HORIZON'

Tentative casting for "Beyond the Horizon", Eugene O'Neill's drama of frustration down on the farm, has been announced by Ted Shank, student director of the production.

The three major roles, those of two brothers and the girl whom they love, have been awarded to Tom Keen, Gordon Stafford and Ellie Denholm.

Other thespians assigned to roles in the May production are Bob Upson, Betty Groebli, Ken Kellogg, Evelyn Stafford, Al Collins and Dick Sickles. Technical direction on the play is being done by student Bob Parr.

"DOC" KELLIHER, busy with the many details of the Easter Relays, works as Meet Director for the event.

DEL PICKARTS, Gauche javelin ace, is expected to hit his stride in the event for the Relays tomorrow night.

Committee Named By Faculty To Oppose the Regents' Loyalty Oaths

A committee to organize the local faculty opposition to the special loyalty oath was named last week by the Santa Barbara faculty in support of the action of their colleagues at Berkeley and Los Angeles.

DYLAN THOMAS, ENGLISH POET, READS FRIDAY

Dylan Thomas, noted English poet, will give readings of his poetry in PH 100 at 4 p.m., April 14, under the auspices of Provost J. Harold Williams and the Committee on Drama, Lecture and Music.

Mr. Thomas, who is by general acclaim one of the most outstanding of younger poets in England today, also has a remarkable voice, having worked for the British Broadcasting Corporation for some years, reading poetry and acting in plays over the air.

Two of Mr. Thomas' poems, "Poem in October" and "In My Craft or Sullen Art" have been recorded on the long-playing record "Pleasure Dome". Time Magazine gives great acclaim to Mr. Thomas for his reading on the record.

An American edition of Mr. Thomas' poetry, "Selected Writings of Dylan Thomas" has been published by New Directions Press.

Dr. Goodspeed is to have charge of funds for the committee, which have already been received from faculty members. A proposal from the contribution of five or ten percent of a month's salary has been discussed to procure further funds.

According to Dr. Weinpahl, the committee stands ready to supply information concerning the loyalty oath issue to any interested persons and to furnish speakers to any group desiring such information.

Further plans for soliciting the aid of all interested person were made at a meeting of the committee Wednesday.

College Hosts 650 Trackmen For Annual Relays at La Playa; La Beach, Thompson to Appear

by Mike Noonan

Santa Barbara College will be host to 674 track and field men tomorrow when the 13th annual Santa Barbara Easter Relays get under way at La Playa Stadium at high noon.

Lowell Thomas, Jr., To Lecture April 16

"Inside Forbidden Tibet!" is the subject of an exciting all-color motion picture lecture which will be presented by Lowell Thomas, Jr., April 16 at 8 p.m. in the Santa Barbara High School Auditorium under the auspices of the Santa Barbara City Teachers' Club.

The famed picture lecture will take the audience on a caravan trek into Central Asia, to the mysterious land of the Dalai Lama. Until 1949, only six Americans had penetrated the mysterious mountain kingdom of Tibet to reach the sacred capital of Lhasa.

Lowell Thomas, Jr., and his father, Lowell Thomas, noted radio commentator, were extended a royal invitation to enter the land of "Lost Horizon" and were the seventh and eight Americans to enter the country. At the end of a grueling journey by pack caravan, the two Americans were received in Potala itself, fabled golden-roofed palace of the Dalai Lama.

A great deal of interest has been shown in this lecture, which was presented to a record audience of two thousand in Cincinnati, Ohio. A limited amount of tickets at $1.00 apiece are now available to faculty and students in the Graduate Manager's Office.

Lowell Thomas, Jr., himself organized the supplies for the expedition, hired the personnel, ran the caravan, and made practically all of the pictorial record. Only 26 years old, Mr. Thomas was a pilot in the recent war, and was with the Air Force at Bikini for the atom bomb tests. This is his tour.

Heading the long list of notable stars will be the great Panamanian sprint champion Lloyd La Beach, who won the open hundred yard dash last year in 9.6 seconds, and Wilbur "Moose" Thompson, former UCLA weightman, who will be out to break his own relay record in the shotput.

An all-time great athlete, Frank Wyckoff, USC sprinter of yesterday, will be on hand to act as head official, a post which he has held several years.

Defending Champs

UCLA, defending Easter Relays champs, are tabbed to repeat their victory of last year in the university division, but unlike the walk-away of '49, this year they will be hard pressed by little Occidental College.

Oxy will rely on a fair amount of depth among its middle distance runners, but a pair of USC stars are expected to anchor the mile, spring and distance medley quartets.

Occidental's "Bullet Bill" Parker turned in a 47.9 clocking over the quarter mile last week and Jack Barnes is a capable performer in every event from the 220 yard dash through the mile.

Top Notch Duels

The highlights of the open events will be two hard fought duels entailing the performances of Gauchos Del Pickarts and Willie Dancer.

Del will renew his javelin duel with Cy Young of UCLA. Young won over Pickarts last weekend with a final heave of 222 feet, beating Pickarts' 218 toss, his best of the season. Pickarts had trouble with his approach and cast off four or five feet behind the takoff line on several occasions.

The other headline duel will be between our own Willie Dancer and Bill Razzato of San Diego State. Both boys have leaped high over the crossbar this season. Razzato took the Texas Relays last week with a 6'8½" jump, and

MAYOR MONTGOMERY PRAISES SPIRIT OF FRATERNITY MEN

More than 110 fraternity men grabbed hoes and rakes and attacked weeds in the Santa Barbara city parkways last Saturday in the first "Clean Up Day" to be held as a climax of Greek Week.

Mayor Norris Montgomery had warm praise for the public spirited gesture on the part of the Interfraternity Council which originated the idea. Jim Ford, chairman of Greek Week stated, "IFC is seriously considering making this an annual affair, since the first effort has been so successful."

The men assembled at 8 am at De la Guerra Plaza and loaded into city trucks which took them to the parkways. At noon, the city put on a fish feed for the boys, then they finished the job of hoeing in the afternoon.

ATTACKING WEEDS in the city parkways are fraternity pledges l. to r. Augie Ramirez, Ted Troy, Jim Beacom, Mike Noonan and Dick Hazeltine. As the final activity of Greek Week, 110 fraternity men donated a day's labor to cleaning up parkways about the city.

Fraternities Earn Good Will . . .

"College Fraternity Men Set Good Civic Example" headlined the editorial page of the Santa Barbara News-Press.

That is exactly what happened last Saturday, when 110 fraternity men took hoes and rakes in hand to give a much needed spring cleanup to the miles of Santa Barbara parkways.

"Cleanup Day" was the climax of Greek Week, the first ever held at Santa Barbara College. The sweat and muscle of a group of fraternity men has earned an inspiring amount of good-will and "college consciousness" on the part of city officials and townspeople.

"Santa Barbara by nature is an ideal community. These young men yesterday proved there is an ideal college community spirit here—on their side at least. They almost certainly would not have given their day of work to the improvement of this city if they had not sensed the right kind of college community spirit among a gib majority of Santa Barbara residents and in Santa Barbara activities."

—Santa Barbara News-Press

The "college community spirit" to which the News-Press refers has received a tremendous boost from the unselfishly volunteered gift of time and work to the city by members of the ten college social fraternities. Special praise should go to the Inter-fraternity Council president George Rodermeal and to Jim Ford, generalissimo of Greek Week activities, who were the guiding lights of the effort.

The gift of clean parkways means much to Santa Barbara which takes such civic pride in its reputation for beauty. "It can mean a great deal in relations between students and the City," stated Mayor Norris Montgomery.

The Cleanup Day also has benefited the participating fraternities who worked shoulder to shoulder on a common project. The spirit of working together can and will grow to include not only fraternities, but the entire student body of the college.

The spark of awareness between college and community will grow during the coming activities of Santa Barbara College Week.

Have you ever come away from the local cinema in a passionate fit of exasperation, feeling that you could've written a better plot with one pen tied behind your back? If so, you may be interested in my course in Scenario Rewriting.

This course involves the injecting into the plot of a movie the subtle twist which Hollywood disregarded. Let us start with the typical fight picture and work our way through the gammut of tried and true plots.

Iron Fists Moran is contending with Ghastly Gus for the middle-weight championship of the world. Muscles got his start as a hasher in a sorority house, from there, he worked his way to the top by good clean fighting and the sheer weight of his iron fists.

Iron Fists' girl-friend, Breathless McGillicuddy, is mixed up with the notorious Thomas J. Piston, head of the Piston Ring. Piston offers our hero "ten grand" to throw the fight in the first round.

Will Iron Fists discard his feeling of fair play, his sporting attitude for mere cash? You're darned right! And after removing the iron from his fists, he and Breathless marry on the ten grand and live happily ever after.

Sam Shovel, detective, is working late in his office one night with Leftie, his beautiful blonde secretary, when tow ruffians break into the office and thoroughly beat up on our hero, Sam. Will this lead Sam into a maze in intrigue, a web of suspense? No, the ruffians were two former buddies of Sam's in the Army to whom he owed a five buck pinochle debt.

Captain Bloodbath, the Most Daring Pirate of the Seven Seas, Captured the Vessel aboard which is the Beautiful Princess Alexis. Captivated by the gentle charms of the Lovely Princess, Captain Bloodbath decides to Go Straight and cease Terrorizing Innocent Sailors.

But, led by the beautiful Princess Alexis, his crew mutinies against him and goes forth into more Daring Adventures, with Captain B. securely Chained in the Hold.

Millicent Modest, buxom and blushing farmer's daughter, is being wooed by John Pureblood, poor but honest cowpoke. But she is also pursued by Handle-bar Hank, infamous cattle rustler and oil man.

Millicent can't stand the yodeling of John Pureblood and runs

BIOLIGISTS VISIT PLANTS, ANIMALS ON FIELD TRIP

"Major in Biology and visit the Vactaionlands of America" should be the slogan for the Biological Science Department.

Following a trip to Point Conception last week, students in the department spent last weekend at Lucerne Valley in the Mojave Desert.

The purpose of the field trip, according to Dr. Donald Wooton, was to study the plants and animals of the desert in their native habitats. Members of the classes in Plant Ecology, Plant Taxonomy, Vertebrate Zoology, and Native Plants and Animals made the trip, collecting plants and desert mammals.

Dr. Mary Erickson was chaperone for the women making the trip. Dr. Maynard Moseley and Dr. Wooton went along and were dubbed "keepers of the flame, bugle blowers at reveille and general flunkies" by the upper division students who made the trip.

Desert Rats

Students who went to the desert were Sonia Carrillo, Jean Dobson, John Douthit, Bertanne Everett, Phil Heathman, Lloyd Hales, Lois Herron, Nora McCabe, Dalton Merkel, Bernard Pang Ching, Henry Pinter, William Rhoads, Robert Santstrom and Kenneth Sorenson.

Also, Fred Struve, William Craig, Betty Gallup, Lester Hair, Morris Ingle, Louise Meyer, Eugene Sheller and Alvar Tahti.

wanted: women (with men)

Within the last generation it has become the rule, rather than the exception,, for a man to seek the help and advice of his wife or girl friend when he buys a new suit. And you need only see a snapshot of a dandy in the dear old days—well, 23 skidoo—to realize that someone, certainly, has revolutionized the looks of man. He looks more like a man than he used to. We have his wife or girl friend to thank.

At the turn of the century, Silverwoods was as masculine as a locker room. Today, by actual count on a typical afternoon at our Santa Barbara store, five out of six men who stopped by to look at suits or topcoats brought their wives with them.

We have a selfish reason for encouraging this: women are keen students of fit, fabric and tailoring, so once your wife sees what goes into a Hart Schaffner & Marx suit, she'll not likely let you get very far from Silverwoods.

Gauchos Threaten
Coach Nick Carter's Gauchos will be a threat in some of the relay events as Carter expects to field some of the combinations which fared well in the Long Beach Relays.

Besides the Gauchos, Oxy, UC LA and San Diego State, other leading schools which will enter the Relays are Pepperdine, and San Jose State.

The high school and junior college divisions will draw top stars from the southlands for the Saturday afternoon tilts and the evening finals.

High School Stars
Interesting to watch will be the high school tracksters from the Los Angeles area. Last year, Jordan High brought up a fine bunch of youngsters who in many cases outshone the collegiate efforts in their fine performances on the track and field.

All arrangements for the Easter Relays are in the capable hands of M. S. "Doc" Kelliher. The Santa Barbara Junior Chamber of Commerce in co-sponsoring the Relays with Santa Barbara College. All trophies and awards will be presented by Relays Queen Claire Maher, a brunette sophomore.

The 1950 Intramural Softball Tournament will get underway next Monday afternoon at Dwight Murphy Field. As in all previous intramural tournaments, competition will be held in two brackets, the Fraternity Division and the Club Division. This will be a round-robin tourney with each team playing each other team in its division. The winners of the two sections will play off for the school championship. Last year the Sigma Phi Epsilon nine defeated the Bunglers 3-1 to cop the College

The games, which will be seven innings in length, will be played on Monday through Thursday afternoon at 4 p.m. If enough teams are able to play at 3 p.m., some games will be scheduled at that time.

Still Time
There is still time to enter team, especially in the Club Division, so if anyone has a team he may enter it by contacting Dick Kaywood, Coordinator of Intramural Athletics. Any men who desire to play and who are not yet on a team should also contact Mr. Kaywood, who will try to assign them to teams needing players.

Mr. Kaywood wishes to emphasize the fact that these intramural tournaments are fine opportunities for those men who are not members of organizations to compete. The Club Division is made up primarily of men who have joined together to form teams, and are not necessarily full-time organizations. For those men who are new to Santa Barbara College, intramural athletic tourneys provide a chance to become better acquainted with the other men on campus.

Dear Gals,
Every wardrobe needs a few frills and flounces, but the most basic and important part of any wardrobe is the everyday, not so elaborate necessities which we all must have to be well dressed.

I am referring to the good old skirts, sweaters, and blouses that we see every day.
However, even these can be charming and eye-catching. They needn't be drab and unexciting. To understand what I mean, stop in at "Wendel's" and see the marvelous variations in styles, colors, sizes and fabrics with these four factors combined in exquisite, practical taste.

You will understand how much pep the roots of your wardrobe can have when you buy right at "Wendel's."

Santa Barbara's top sports attraction takes place tomorrow afternoon when nearly 750 tracksters assemble to take part in the Santa Barbara Easter Relays. Some of the nation's top men come to compete in the event, among them being the Panamanian flash Lloyd LaBeach, and UCLA's Craig Dixon. Baseball Picks
Now that Spring is once again upon us, I will now deviate from school athletics just long enough to climb out on a limb to pick my choices in the major league baseball races. Picking winners in baseball is somewhat like trying to guess when Notre Dame will lose its first football game, but as the old saying goes, "hope springs eternal within the human breast."

Just going to hit the American League this time, men. It's really going to be a dog-fight of the first water this time, men. Most of the teams have taken steps to strengthen themselves for the coming pennant race. I'm afraid that I will have to string along with the World's Champion New York Yankees to repeat as the Junior Loop winner. Joe DiMaggio appears to be ready for his best season, and barring injuries, should have a banner year.

Struck Gold
The Bronx Bombers seem to have struck gold in acquiring Dick Wakefield from Detroit. After a great first year, Wakefield has been much less than sensational, but the change of scenery might turn the trick.

The Yanks have a better than average pitching staff, anchored by the game's greatest relief chucker, Joe Page. Page personally handed the New Yorkers the pennant last year, and his relief work in the World Series still has the Dodgers talking to themselves.

Close behind the Yankees come the Cleveland Indians, who with a few breaks, and some good pitching, could walk away with the whole bag of marbles. Many experts claim that Bob Lemon is the greatest hurler in game today, and if Bob Feller can regain any of his old-time fire, the Indians will be mighty tough to beat.

Sox Mad
The Boston Red Sox are getting used to losing out in the final few days, but if you are to believe what you read, they don't intend to let it happen again. There has never been anything wrong with the Sox's batting, but for the past two seasons the pitching staff has let the team down badly. Spark-plug of the club is still Ted Williams, who again can be counted upon to drive in his share of runs, but he will need plenty of assistance of the Beantowners are again to fly the American League bunting.

Much of the Detroit Tigers' hopes rest upon "Prince" Hal Newhouser. Once the hottest pitcher in the Big Time, Newhouser had a disappointing season last year, and thus far in the Spring exhibition games has seen little action. The Tigers have done much in the way of rebuilding, and must be counted as a major threat.

Don Tully Elected Net Captain; Locals Host to Cal Tech

As the Santa Barbara College tennis team prepares for its match with Cal Tech tomorrow afternoon at the Municipal Courts, Coach Lyle Reynolds announces that Don Tully has been elected captain of the 1950 squad. Tully, who plays in the number three slot, will lead the Gaucho netmen into action against the underdog Tech squad.

Last weekend, the Hilltoppers swamped the Los Angeles State team 7-2, and will be out to make it two in a row tomorrow. Playing in the top singles spot tomorrow will be Dick Lessler, followed by Herbert Lee in the number two position. Rounding out the squad will be Tully, Bill Swain, number four, Cal Cory in the fifth position, and Arnold Funai. Tully and Funai were the only Gaucho winners in the Cal Poly match last Friday.

The next California Collegiate for the local netmen will be against Pepperdine College here, on April 17, but they have two other warm-up matches, other than the Cal Tech tiff, before that date.

UCLA scored first in their half of the third inning. However, Santa Barbara came roaring back to take the lead with two runs in the bottom of the same inning. Cox was the first man up in this frame and hit a fly to center field. Then Gil Rayburn was hit by a pitched ball and took first. Not wishing to miss a scoring chance, Danny Kutch promptly slugged out a double that went clear to the fence and scored Rayburn.

Davis Hits
Davis, the next man up, hit a long single which scored Kutch. On the throw to the plate Davis streaked for third and was called out on one of several close plays which occurred.

The Bruins tied up the ball game in the fifth inning on an error and three consecutive walks. The Gaucho defensive talent saved a possible big inning as Pitcher Johnston and Catcher Bassler got together on a well-executed pitch-out play with leadoff man Moody as the victim. The throw to Wrightson caught him several feet off the bag.

Gauchos Lead
The Gauchos again took the lead in their half of the inning. Rayburn hit a single and went all the way to third on one of the Bruins' two errors. Davis batted him in with a long fly ball to center field.

The Santa Barbara team sewed up the game in the sixth inning with a pair of runs. The runs were scored on a hit and a stolen base by Dailey, a walk drawn by Bassler, and a long single by Cox.

UCLA came back to score in the seventh and eighth innings to bring the score to five to four. An eighth inning rally was cut short when Centerfielder Cox cut off the tying run with a long throw from center. Cox's throw was a perfect strike as it bounced once and then into Bassler's glove to catch the surprised Bruin as he slid into home.

Pitcher Bob Johnston's slants were completely baffling to the Bruins as he scattered five hits very well. Bobby bounced right off the mound on several plays getting several assists.

hopes rest upon "Prince" Hal Newhouser. Once the hottest pitcher in the Big Time, Newhouser had a disappointing season last year, and thus far in the Spring exhibition games has seen little action. The Tigers have done much in the way of rebuilding, and must be counted as a major threat.

Beach Party Weather Now Here to Stay

Beach Party weather is here to stay and members of Delta Tau Delta fraternity took full advantage of it on that beautiful moonlit Friday eve' last weekend at East Beach for a gay night.

Further up the coast on Goleta Beach were the pledges of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Phi Epsilon with their dates where a beach party was held for an evening of singing and fun and spreading good-will between the pledges of the fraternities—a wonderful idea—let's have more of them.

Friday was also the night when the Stray Greeks and many of the Kappa Sigs got together for a party at Le Veys. Featuring the bare-foot polka for the evening were Beckey Beck and Ed Weber while more formal shoe-clad couples included Tom Purtell and Liz Clark, Vic McCarty and Joan Schlegal, Ned Wright, Barbara Bagaman and many others "straying" around.

WHENEVER APRIL SHOWERS . . .

Lambda Chi Alpha is to be congratulated for the April Showers Dance Saturday night. Enjoying the dancing were many couples, some of whom were Cathy Freeman-Walt Chimmel, Joan Ford with Cal man Les West, Bev Purdum and Ted Knudson, Phyllis Alden-Frank Goodall, Patty Marsten and "Duke" Smith, Suzy Smith-Guido DelBello, and Claire Maher with Tom Phillips.

Pre-dance parties were held by Lambda Chi and SAE. A happy birthday was given to the founding of California Eta chapter of SAE at the Miramar where many alums came home to help celebrate, including Junie-Marie and Cal Reynolds, Nancy and Harris Seed, Mr. and Mrs. Ted White, and Wendell Kirk.

EXCHANGE DINNERS

Wednesday evening marked the nights for exchange dinner for members of the Pi Beta Phi sorority and Delta Tau Delta, and Delta Sigma Epsilon with SAE. Exchanging a joint swimming party with Delta Sigma Epsilon Sunday afternoon was Sigma Pi fraternity at the lovely Samarkand Pool. Participating in the afternoon of swimming, badminton and tennis were many of the members including Chuck Missman, Don Buckler, alumn Don Marquart, Doris Spotts, John Aston, Helen Hatch, Iris Moore, Phyllis Kirkemo, Ted Troy, and Helen Weis. 'Tis said it was an afternoon of fun! Though a near drowning catastrophe occurred through the able assistance of Don Brown.

SUNDAY NIGHT DINNERS

The Sunday night dinner problem was successfully solved by members of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity at a tremendous steak fry at East Beach. Afternoon activities included lots of swimming and sailing in that famous sailboat "Fried Eggs," to be followed by the dinner and an evening of fun. Everyone had a wonderful time except possibly "Fried Eggs," who suffered a minor catastrophe in the middle of the ocean blue! The Pi Phi house also opened its doors to members and dates for a spaghetti dinner prepared under the direction of Chef Joy Tewell, after which couples danced on the moonlit porch—oh, these spring evenings—fun was had by all!

'CIRCLE OF CHALK'

Cheers should go to the stage crew of "Circle of Chalk," including Betty Braden, Bob Parr, Cecil Forbes, Frances Plou, La Vonne Bain, Joyce Johnson, Wally Jonason and Katie Murphy, who slaved all day Sunday on the Chinese Pagoda set for the coming production.

"Circle of Chalk" Chinese Translation To Start Run 13th

"The Circle of Chalk" as it will be presented in the Riviera Auditorium on the evenings of April 13 and 14, is the first English translation directly from the original Chinese as produced in the 14th or 15th century.

The setting and general convention is slightly modified from that of the Chinese stage. The stage is surrounded by dark draperies. At the back are the two entrances in the highly decorated back wall which is normally part of the Chinese Theater.

The forward part of the stage, which will be built out over the orchestra pit will be used for all exterior scenes while the interior scenes will be performed on the main stage which will be raised six inches above the extension to make the division clearer. The raised section will be covered by an ornate roof supported on lacquered pillars.

The front curtain will never be used. Divisions in the play will be indicated by raising and lowering the lights.

Costumes, as is usual in Chinese productions, will be very elaborate. The makeup, in keeping with the tone of the entire staging, will be of stylized design and will be of decorative character rather than being used to make American students look like Chinese.

COLLEGE WOMEN IN BUSINESS

A liberal education frequently does not offer the specialized training necessary for business. More and more college women are turning to business school for the training with a ready commercial value.

RECREATION COURSE INSTITUTED

A program of preparation for leadership in recreation has recently been approved for Santa Barbara College, according to an announcement by Terry H. Dearborn, Chairman of the Men's Physical and Health Education Department.

The new 20-unit program, which is open to both men and women, does not require the major in physical education, although the two programs may be advantageously combined, Dearborn said.

Required core of the program includes twelve units in the field of community recreation, youth programs, techniques, field training in recreation and first aid. Eight additional units are then selected from a variety of courses related to outdoor activities, sports social activities and arts and crafts.

The students will "learn by doing" through experience in the Santa Barbara Recreation Department and other community youth organizations.

ELEANOR EBY, new to campus dramatics, takes the lead in "Circle of Chalk," newest Speech Department play, to be seen next week in the Riviera Auditorium.
