Home Hoop Season Opens at Armory Tonight, Tomorrow

Santa Barbara's home casaba season opens tonight when the Fibber and Molly five, outstanding California AAU squad, descend on the National Guard Armory to exchange buckets with Gauchos. Tomorrow night, the Wilton men face a team of Gaucho alumni in an annual classic fracas.

Willie's boys will be in for a rough evening as the Wistful Vista aggregation boasts a well-balanced roster headed by Carl Kraushar, 6-foot 6-inch center of UCLA's championship team last year, and Les O'Gara, thrice All-American AAU guard and former Bittner and 20th Century Fox player.

Other Fibber and Molly regulars are Bill Donovan and Johnny Arndt, from Loyola, Chuck Gibbons and Jim Hamilton, from Pepperdine's CCAA champs, Danny Roberts, Washington University star a few years back, and John Von Eschen, from San Jose State.

Art Molner acts as coach for this high scoring group. Molner is another AAU All-American and recent 20th Century Fox standout. The F&M record to date is six wins in seven starts.

Foreign Students Trip To Tour California Between Semesters

A Foreign Student Tour of California, offered to all foreign students now studying on campuses in the state of California, will be held this year during the 10 days between January 26 and February 4, according to Martin Rosen, chairman at UCLA.

The tour will give students an opportunity for a "close-up, broad perspective" view of the major communities throughout the state and will begin and end in Los Angeles.

Reasonable Cost

Cost for the tour will not exceed $30 to each student for the entire 10-day period. Included in the amount are bus and insurance expenses for 1500 miles. The low cost is made possible because both food and lodging are being donated by host communities.

Students wishing to secure application forms and additional information may contact local authorities or write to Martin Rosen, chairman of the tour, at room 222, Kerchoff Hall, UCLA, Los Angeles 24, California.

Places to be visited on the tour are metropolitan areas, the Citrus Belt, the Central Valley, the Bay Area, the state capital at Sacramento, and scenic and historical landmarks.

Items of Interest

Special attention will be given to industry, public works, agriculture, state and municipal governmental machinery, and family life.

In each community visited by the tour, local committees of college students for the most part will be in complete charge of the tour and will act as official hosts for their town.

HOLIDAY FORMAL AT EXCLUSIVE CASINO

Excuse Classes for Christmas Assembly

Classes will be excused for the annual all-college Christmas Assembly at 11 am Tuesday, December 12, in the Riviera Auditorium, according to Margaret Mueller and Eileen Berkman, co-chairman for the affair.

The program will include readings by two members of the Speech Department and selections by treble ensemble, A Cappella Choir, and the Modern Madrigal Singers. Appropriate slides will be flashed on the screen during vocal selections.

The assembly will be concluded with community singing of Christmas Carols. Joan Carr and Phyllis Alden are in charge of program arrangements.

Advisors

Faculty advisors for the assembly include Mrs. Helen Barnette, music; Dr. Theodore Hatten and Mr. Leo Malamuth, speech; and Mr. Jacob Hanson, art.

Members of Spurs, honorary sophomore women's organization, will usher and serve free cookies and candy after the program. Refreshments will be provided by AWS, traditional sponsor of the Christmas Assembly. Blue Key will be in charge of decorations.

Other campus Christmas activities include the drive for canned food for needy families sponsored by Stray Greeks, Five Footers, AWS and the IA Club; decoration of the cafeteria, quad, and administration building foyer by honorary service organizations; and dressing of dolls for needy children by Independent Women's Council.

'Coral Christmas' Ball Tonight Offered by Social Committee

"Coral Christmas," the annual Christmas Formal, will be presented tonight from 9-1 at the exclusive Coral Casino across from the Biltmore Hotel.

Only 500 tickets have been made available by the Social Committee. There will be no tickets sold at the door tonight; they must be purchased on campus.

Although all the facilities of the Casino will be open to the students, the swimming pool will not be in use.

In order to obtain service at the bar, proper identification must be presented to the policemen at the entrance.

No corsages will be allowed. The Social Committee hopes that all concerned will comply with this ruling and remember that the behavior of the students at this dance will determine whether the Casino will be open to the college for more dances.

Music will be provided by Charles Copeland's orchestra with added entertainment by well-known college singers.

The establishment will provide the decorations which include a huge Christmas tree in the lounge and wreaths and flowers throughout the Casino.

Fraternity and sorority dances have been held at the Casino, but this will be the first all-college affair to be held there. A good time is in store for all, and the committee expects a good turnout.

KAPPA SIGMA PLANS ANNUAL MARDI GRAS

In the traditional New Orleans Mardi Gras spirit, the Kappa Sigma fraternity will hold the annual Mardi Gras Dance on January 5 at the Cabrillo Pavilion. Following the Pepperdine basketball game with Santa Barbara, all are urged to trek to the Pavilion in the spirit of the celebration.

Dancing will be to the rhythm of Ted Vesely and his Dixieland Combo, recently starring at the Hollywood Cavern. All tickets are being sold by members and pledges of the Kappa Sigma fraternity for $1.80 a couple.

Any type of costume is permissible, but the motif of the Mardi Gras in New Orleans should be followed as much as possible. So, while you are home for Christmas vacation, dig up your pirate, Chinese, French, or what-have-you costume, and be prepared to come to the Mardi Gras Dance for an evening of mystery and frivolity.

EDITOR APPLICATIONS

Applications for the editorship of El Gaucho for the Spring, 1951, semester should be turned in to Chuck Missman, Press Control Board Chairman, in the student body office. Letters of application should include qualifications and experience for the position.

Veterans Must Tell Reynolds if Returning

Veterans must inform the Veterans Affairs Office whether or not they intend to return for the spring semester, according to Lyle G. Reynolds, Campus Coordinator of Veterans Affairs.

A prepared form for this purpose may be procured at the Registrar's Office, the Veterans Affairs, or the Industrial Arts Department. The forms should state the intention of the student and should be signed and returned to the V.A. Office before the Christmas recess.

Graduates who expect to continue their education here or elsewhere must have a supplemental letter of eligibility.

TUTORIAL PROGRAM TO BE INAUGURATED BY LIBERAL ARTS FACULTY NEXT YEAR

Dr. George Hand, Dean of Liberal Arts, announced today the broadening of the liberal arts offerings at Santa Barbara College by the addition of a Tutorial Program to be inaugurated in September, 1951. To assist in promoting familiarity with one aspect of the program, selected faculty members will undertake a series of panel discussions.

The first of these will be conducted by Dr. Mortimer Andron, Assistant Professor of Economics, and Dr. Kenneth Simpson, Assistant Professor of Physics, on the recently published book, "Loyalty, Security, and Science," by Professor Gellhorn of the Columbia University Law School. It will be held in Ridge Hall 101 on Wednesday evening, December 13, at 7:30 p.m., and will be open to faculty and students.

Colloquium Nature

The panel discussion will assist interested students to understand the nature of the sophomore colloquium, which will be one of the distinctive features of the new program. In normal conditions the colloquium will involve the participation of two instructors and a group of approximately 20 students in searching discussion of materials which have been read by all.

In the junior and senior years, the student enrolled in the program will be assigned two tutors with whom he will meet weekly for individual instruction and guidance.

Traditional Method

The Santa Barbara Tutorial Program is based upon the traditional method of education of the English universities and the tutorial work done at many American liberal arts institutions such as Wesleyan University and the Uni-

SORORITIES TO RUSH REGISTRATION WEEK

Spring Panhellenic rushing will be held during Registration Week according to a notice sent out by the Panhellenic Council.

All women who have a C average scholastically for the fall semester and an over-all average of C are eligible to rush the eight sororities.

A registration fee must be paid to the office of the Dean of Women before January 5. The registration fee and blank may be obtained from the Dean's office starting December 11.

Eligibility will be checked and women will be notified if they may participate in the rush events.

Treble Ensemble to Sing for Teachers

The Treble Ensemble, under the direction of Helen Barnett, associate professor of music, will offer a varied program of Christmas numbers for members of the Santa Barbara City Teachers' Club tonight at the Mar Monte Hotel.

versity of Buffalo. This method aims to provide a selected group of students with a broadly liberal education, through the disciplines of critical reading, discussion and writing. The program is also distinguished from the traditional curriculum by its greater emphasis upon direct acquaintance with the basic writings of our cultural heritage.

Quality Students

Students for the program will be selected on the basis of the quality of work done in the freshman year and by means of interviews conducted by the Tutorial Committee, which has been at work on the program for the past two years. Students who have spent their freshman year at other institutions will also be eligible for admission.

Christmas Candy Sale By Phrateres Monday

Cookies, candy, and popcorn balls will be sold by Phrateres at their annual Christmas Sale in the booth on the Men's Gym Lawn Monday, December 11, from 10 am to 2 pm.

Proceeds from the sale will be donated to charity, according to Connie Apostolos, general chairman.

ROTC SEES 'PREVIEW'

A "preview of coming attractions" was given members of the ROTC battalion last week when they journeyed to Camp Cooke to witness a demonstration of infantry fire-power and training.

Before the demonstration the 158 man unit was given an idea of what goes on in a camp which is preparing for active duty, and all got a good picture of some of the weapons that the man in the front lines has to back him up.

Arriving at Camp Cooke at 10:30 am, the units formed into groups which toured around the camp viewing the various activities.

BAR Demonstration

A classroom demonstration on the assembly operation of the BAR, Browning Automatic Rifle, came first on the tour. This was followed by a bayonet drill put on by new recruits in the unit. Cadets were impressed with the enthusiasm and snap of the new men.

Campus Men Invited To All-Men Smoker In Caf Thursday

All campus males are invited to the All-Men Smoker to be held in the Cafeteria Thursday, December 14, at 7:30 pm, under the sponsorship of Blue Key, Senior Men's Honorary.

Fred Goerner will emcee the stag variety show, which will include numbers by the Men's Glee Club, a Spanish dance, movies, surprise contests, and general horseplay. A door prize will also be given.

The planning committee for the smoker includes Norman Kettenring, Duke Smith, and Dick Church.

Honorary Repairs Toys For Kiddies' Christmas

For the past three weeks, Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, has been repairing Christmas toys for needy children.

Each Monday night, the group meets on the Mesa campus. So far in their Christmas Cheer projects the men have repaired over 150 toys.

Recently Alpha Phi Omega constructed a ping-pong table for the Industrial Arts Club.

SUMMER SESSION DATES ANNOUNCED

Summer session this year will be eight weeks, June 18 to August 10, according to Dr. J. Harold Williams, Provost.

A full schedule of class offerings is now being drawn up and it is planned that a number of distinguished faculty members will be on the staff, in addition to regular faculty members.

Program details are now being drafted by the various departments and a catalog and bulletin will soon be published, listing all major phases of the Summer Session.

BASKETBALL TICKETS

Tickets for this weekend's basketball games are now available in the Graduate Manager's office. Ticket prices are students 25c; faculty and student wives, 50c; general admission $1.00. There will be no reserved seats. Games this year will start at 8 pm sharp to enable students to attend social functions afterwards. There will be fewer preliminary games than in the past.

Has the Color Gone Out of Color Day?

Student interest in that great day of campus days, Color Day, seems lately to have dropped considerably. Although all lettermen and members of men's and women's honoraries wear their sweaters and uniforms regularly every Wednesday, the custom of singing before class seems to be defunct.

Color Day has been a tradition on this campus for years, but the singing idea was inaugurated only last year by Bob Hartzell, then Associated Students President. The success of Hartzell's idea was due to the fact that he and members of the Rally Committee personally led songs before the larger classes. The new custom was given wide support by students, who felt that the singing brought them closer to their classmates.

At the beginning of this year Frank Goodall, the new president, made an honest effort to carry on the Color Day custom by asking the women's honoraries to lead songs before their various classes; the general reception given to any efforts to start a song was one of disinterest. Another hampering factor is that some of the faculty are opposed to the idea. Maybe they want to keep everything on a cold, impersonal basis, or maybe they just like to start lecturing before the hour begins.

Incoming freshmen are usually quite impressed with the traditional songs before class on Wednesdays, especially if they have come from a high school noted for its "rah rah" spirit.

If all frosh and upper classmen are educated to the idea at the beginning of every year, if special student representatives can be appointed to lead songs, and if more of the faculty can be induced to sanction the idea, maybe we can put the Color back in Color Day.

An Academic Essay . . . ON PLUNGING NECKLINES

"Nightgown with Plunging Neckline Urged as Aid in Cutting Divorces" states the headline of an interestingly illustrated story reposing innocently (?) on the bulletin board of the Gaucho office.

The story states that if more women wore low-cut nightgowns to bed, the divorce rate wouldn't be so high, according to Margie Richardson, a New York model who specializes in posing in bedroom attire.

"That advice goes for single girls as well as married ones," Margie explains. "If a girl gets in the habit of looking attractive when she goes to bed even before she's married, she'll keep it up after the wedding day. That would save a lot of marriages."

Margie recommends a long, slinky nightgown with plunging neckline as the best sleeping garment. "Pajamas are nice," she says, "but the tops always crawl up around my neck." Wow!

Margie, although she's single, has some ideas on what the well-dressed man should wear at night in bed.

"I think men, too, should look

HOWDY AGAIN

With the word "kulture" in the back of minds, we have provided ourselves with the necessary equipment for this purely high-class column — Emily Post, Artist Guide and a rather beaten up book by Duncan Heinz.

BIRTH CERTIFICATES

Tonight Graham, party-time, Mehaffey will lead a merry crew of Gauchos to the elite Coral Casino. In formal attire with ID's clutched in their hands, they will invade that sophisticated atmosphere and all but turn the place upside down with the proverbial Xmas cheer. Should really be a ball. So come on, let's go.

O, MISTRESS WHOSE?

Just in case you haven't polished up your dancing shoes, there's a screaming howl at the Alhambra, the play "O Mistress Mine." Or perhaps you go in for that old Vodvil business. If so why not hit the First Annual Jr. Chamber of Commerce "Minstrels" at the Lobero tonight or tomorrow night.

SPINNING PLATTER

"Boogie Woogie Santa Claus." Everything else has been done to good ole Santa Nick, so we suppose he won't mind being beat eight to the bar. Patti Page is the singer with Jack Rael's orchestra.

KINDA INTIMATE

Ah, atmosphere, that's what we like! The exclusive beer-joint known as "The Mite" can offer you an atmosphere that is rather hard to classify, but harder to beat. Just wander down the street from the Spigot and if you hear a tinny piano and clinking glasses, you're there!

PERSONALITY

With an excuse for every occasion and a retort for every remark, our personality-girl of the week is Beverly Purdum. Trotting around campus with "business" in mind, she can be seen at any campus gathering-spot with bridge cards in one hand and a cigarette in the other. (Boy, serve the writer a saucer of milk.)

Musicians Go Caroling

Members of the Music Department will go Christmas caroling Sunday evening, December 10, at 7:30 pm.

Following the caroling the group will return to the Music Hall, where refreshments will be served and gifts exchanged. A short program will also be presented by members of the department.

DR. HALTERMAN NEW SCEA PRESIDENT

Dr. J. Frederick Halterman, professor of economics, has been named president of the Southern California Economics Association for 1951. He succeeds Dr. Armen A. Alchian of the University of California at Los Angeles.

Cadets Journey to Camp Cooke

 Many of the men thought that RO was a full time proposition and they didn't realize that you went to college as well.
 Many comments of an envious nature were heard. One private was heard to remark, "What a deal! I'm going to get out of this Army and get into that draft exempt bracket with you guys."

 Following chow, the unit moved to the firing area for the highlight of the trip. Units of the division fired all of the weapons found in the Infantry Division.

Starting out with the basic weapons of the rifle squad, the M1 rifle, BAR, and rifle grenades, the demonstration progressed through the light and heavy machine guns.

The recoilless weapons, such as the bazooka, 57 and 75mm recoilless rifles, which are now being used with great effect in Korea, can fire a shell large enough to stop a tank and yet all except the 75mm can be fired from the shoulder.

Such weapons as the anti-aircraft artillery, flamethrowers, tanks and heavy artillery were also demonstrated with a grand finale of a "minute of Hell" culminating the program and the day, when all of the weapons were fired at once.

WHITE ELEPHANT CHRISTMAS PARTY

White Elephant Christmas Party, the Women's Physical Education annual party, will be held Sunday, December 10, from 5-9 pm, at the Officers' Club in Goleta. Presents, entertainment, food, and good times will be featured. All are urged to come and bring a white elephant gift.

SAE MEETS DELTS IN INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL ROUND

Sigma Alpha Epsilon "A" will meet Delta Tau Delta "A" next week in the semi-finals of the intramural basketball tournament.

This should prove to be an interesting and high scoring game between the "A" squads of both fraternities. The SAE's downed Kappa Sigma 53-50 in a close, hard fought game to earn their spot in the playoffs.

Delta Tau Delta gained the playoffs with a 53-34 win over a determined Delta Sigma Phi team.

Another semi-final game will be played when the Deltas' "B" squad tangles with Sigma Phi Epsilon "B" team. Both teams are looking forward to winning the "B" division championship.

In the club division, the Supporters, a strong team, will meet the winner of the Filthy Five - Dogger House game. A close race between these three teams for championship honors features the club division.

The basketball schedule will be posted on the men's physical education bulletin board in front of the Men's Gym. Team members are reminded to check it for date and time of their team's games.

AMS STEAK FRY CALLED 'SUCCESS'

Overseered by AMS President Frank Dominguez, the annual men's Steak Fry at Tucker's Grove Sunday was pronounced a success by all stags concerned.

Thick but small, the steaks were tasty and numerous enough to allow for additional helpings for some apparently bottomless chowhounds. Also on the menu were salad, beans, bread and brew.

Between helpings the Delts collected the volleyball trophy by defeating the SAEs for first place among the eight competing organizations who entered teams.

Equestrian sports were represented by the 24 entrants in the horse shoe pitching tournament. First place and the trophy went to top flinger George Nelmark, independent, who out-ringed second place Knute Clark, Delta Tau Delta, and third place Joe Ferguson, Sigma Tau Gamma.

Gauchos Vie With Powerful Alumni Stars

McCUTCHEON, SNYDER, OTHER GREATS TO PLAY

Returning to the scene of their athletic honors, more than 22 former Gaucho basketball stars will band together to meet Coach Willie Wilton's Varsity in the annual Alumni Game, 8:00, December 9, in the National Guard Armory.

Contributing to one of the most interesting games of the season, the alumni ranks will include many of those who boosted Wilton's well-known record as mentor, but who are now hoping to add another smirch to that record by duplicating last year's defeat of the Varsity, 45-39.

Alum Coach

Coaching the alums will be one of Wilton's star pupils, Tommy Guerrero, a forward who earned three varsity letters and All-America mention in his senior year, '41. Under his tutelage the Alumni squad will draw from much first class player material of the recent past who are still in their capable prime.

Leading the way for the Alumni will be Harvey "Rube" Hubler, '49, All-Conference forward for two years, who established a scoring record surpassed only last year by Bob McCutcheon, who is also returning along with teammate Gene Snyder.

Other All-Conference men who will return are Paddy Cuadillo, '40; Larry Brewster, '40; Quentin Sims, '47; Lowell Stewart, '41; and Bob Sherman, '47.

Remainder of the squad will include Alton Ballard, '42; Robert Stockton, '41; Billy Levielle, '43; Charles Jones, '48; Charles Hofar, '36; Don MacKenzie, '42; Dick Palmer, '38; Frank Kirkland, '49; and Ted Johan, '37.

The Wiltonites, fresh from the Redlands Tournament, where they won two out of their three games to take the consolation title, are still an unknown quantity. However, the gritty two-point wins over Chapman (53-51) and Pomona (45-43), are indicative of the brand of ball that winning Wilton teams play.

The only sure starters for the Gauchos at present will be forward Otey Scruggs, and guards Allan Jacobs and Jack Moore. However, Tom Moss, center, and Lloyd Heavin at forward both showed up well at Redlands and will most likely round out the Varsity lineup.

NAME WILLIE WILTON TO NAIB COMMITTEE

Head Basketball Coach Willie Wilton was informed of his selection to serve on the District 3 Committee of the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball.

The NAIB, through its committees, each year sets the policies regarding playoffs and representation to the national tournament.

Pigskin Prognostications

- OR, A QUICK TRIP TO THE BOWLS

By Boedecker

Breaking briefly from basketball, your pathetic pigskin predictor once more turns his attention to that grand old game of picking a winner. This time he will be victimized by forthcoming upsets in the various "bowl" games.

Chief among all the post-season frays is the Rose oval in Pasadena. This year California, the Notre Dame of the west, will tangle with the Big Ten champ, Michigan.

Bears Sail Through
 The Bears have sailed through a tough slate to enter the New Year's final with a nine-win and one-tie record. On the other hand, the Wolverines ducked into their championship on the final day of the regular season. The Big Nine representative posted a 5-3-1 record, losing to Michigan State, Illinois and Army, and being tied by Minnesota.

Off the form charts, California rates a large edge, but looking at past Rose Bowl results and considering how the recent season has been played, it develops into a close contest. This corner will play conservative and string along with the PCC undefeated champs. The third time must be the charm.

Other sections of the country also boast bowl games, and this year two, in particular, will settle much discussion as to who, or what, are the best teams in the nation.

Down Texas way the Longhorns of Texas, defeated by one point by Oklahoma, faces Tennessee, one TD victor over Kentucky. The southwest is rising ever higher in the grid pic, and should gain additional honor as Texas rolls over the Vols.

Sugar Bowl

Even of more importance is the Sugar Bowl featuring Oklahoma, tops in many grid polls, against Kentucky, rated in the top five nationally. Oklahomans have been lossless for two seasons now and should edge the Kentuckians to start 1951 with a win.

In a final run-down, it might be a safe bet to say that Miami will prove to have too much color and class for Clemson in the Orange Bowl.

Panhellenic Presents SORORITIES' PLEDGES

On Saturday, December 2, the Pan Hellenic Council presented the pledges of the eight campus sororities at the annual Presents Dance held in the Recreation Center.

Peggy Ward, president of Panhellenic Council, introduced the president of each sorority, who, in turn, presented the pledges of her organization.

The QuiziCAL Reporter

What suggestions do you have for improvement in the El Gaucho?

Pat McCarty: Bring back some more gossip columns.

Jim Mulick: Reserve editorial rights for the editorial page, and at the same time edit the front page material in a manner that will appeal to the All-College level with organization activities delegated to the inside pages.

Connie Harder: I think that the recent improvements you have made in the paper are "great" but

HOME EC CLUB GIVES PARTY FOR CHILDREN

Today the Home Economics Club is giving a Christmas party for the third grade class of Lincoln Elementary School. The party will be held at 3 pm at the YMCA.

All Home Economics majors and faculty are invited to come to the party. Everyone is requested to bring an inexpensive gift that would be suitable for a third grade child. Presents should be wrapped and placed in the box in the Home Economics Club Room.

there's always room for more improvement. Big school functions (social and otherwise) should have bigger heads with pictures.

Jack Green: The best thing to do would be to go out of circulation; circulating the paper without print on it would allow students the opportunity of having additional scratch paper for doodling. Otherwise the paper is "great."

Phil Jacks: I think that there should be more features with a little humor in them. We get plenty of bad news in the regular paper, so laughs in the school paper would rate very highly with the students. Again student functions are too often slighted, and then everyone gripes when the functions are poorly attended.

Dorothy Dow: Less ads—more space devoted to news. After all, is it a money making project? I thought it was a means of circulating news to the student body.

Dick Gorrie: More about students and less about the faculty talks (field trips). Also a better sports page would be an asset to the paper.

Dick Schaeffer: Less advertising and more about the school functions.
