Auto Hits, Injures Campus Policeman

Campus police officer Martin Stenson was rushed to the hospital last Thursday evening after being hit by a car as he was crossing the street in front of Manzanita Hall. First medical diagnosis showed a fractured leg and Stenson was reported in severe pain over the weekend.

The officer is in Cottage Hospital where he is undergoing further observation.

Stenson was crossing the street to check on a parked vehicle when he was struck by a Hillman going east on the road.

The accident occurred at approximately 9:05 p.m. The campus policeman was taken to Cottage Hospital in an ambulance. The driver of the Hillman, who was coming from the Little Theatre, was not cited. Police Captain Floyd Bernard said the accident still was being investigated.

'Rose Tattoo' Opens UCSB Drama Season in October

by Kathy Williams

Tennessee Williams' "The Rose Tattoo" opens the 1959-60 season of student productions at UCSB Oct. 8 in the Little Theatre after a successful summer run in conjunction with the Santa Barbara Community Players.

Scheduled Oct. 8, 9, 10, 15 and 16 the comedy features Christine Laird and John Crawford returning in their summer roles as Seraphina and Alvaro. All proceeds will go towards establishing scholarships in the Speech department.

According to the director Dr. Stanley Glenn of the Speech department the play is being redone because of the favorable reception and criticism given it this summer and so that it may be seen by students and the regular Santa Barbara audience.

"The fall production will differ in so much as it will be more representative of the campus, several roles having been re-cast with students," Dr. Glenn stated.

Among the new faces is Terry Phillips as the sailor, who has announced for KEY-T Santa Barbara, and Julie Felix as the daughter Rosa, remembered for her portrayal of Juliet in last year's "Romeo and Juliet."

'Hegel's Dramatic Vision' Is Fall's First All-College Talk

by Susan Rubin

Berkeley's Professor Emeritus Jacob N. Loewenberg, speaking on "Hegel's Dramatic Vision," initiates the fall All-College Lecture series this afternoon at 4 in the classroom building auditorium.

Prof. Loewenberg says he will "avoid technicalities in expounding the teaching of a man who is admittedly one of the most obscure although most influential writers in the history of philosophy."

According to Dr. Harry Girvetz, chairman of UCSB's department of philosophy, "Professor Loewenberg has a reputation of being one of the most brilliant lecturers on the Berkeley campus. Although Hegel's philosophy is extremely complex, Professor Loewenberg has a genius for making Hegel understandable to intelligible laymen."

Cal Chairman

Former chairman of the department of philosophy at Cal, Professor Loewenberg also taught at Harvard and Wellesley in the East. He joined Berkeley's campus in 1915 and in 1925 rose to a full professorship.

He has held emeritus status since 1952. He received his degrees from Harvard University and also spent some time studying at the University of Berlin and the University of Paris.

Loewenberg has written numerous articles, essays and books on several aspects relating to philosophy and metaphysics. Prominent among them is Dialogues from Delphi, published by the University of California Press in 1949.

Philosophic Writer

He has also collaborated with other philosophers on Berkeley's campus in compiling Knowledge and Security and Selected Writings in Philosophy.

Sponsored by the UCSB Committee on Art and Lectures, Dr. Homer D. Swander, chairman, the series consists of nine lectures, each delivered by a resident or guest authority on a variety of topics.

The following Tuesday, Oct. 6, Professor Donald A. Piatt, from the department of philosophy at UCLA, speaks on "Implications and Significance of Dewey's Philosophy." All of the lectures are open to the public at no charge.

Expenses to 'Aida' Paid by Cal Club

The California Club will help pay the expenses of those students going to see "Aida" in Berkeley, Oct. 11, it was announced by Kitty Joyce, president of the club.

Students wishing to share in this subsidy should contact Miss Joyce before 4 p.m. Friday. Housing arrangements also are available. Miss Joyce can be reached by phoning 2-6536.

There will be a Cal Club buffet at 5 p.m. after the opera for all those desiring to attend.

All the tickets allotted to UCSB have been reserved already, but some of them may be returned. Anyone wanting to go should keep in contact with the Graduate Business Manager's office.

Students must show their student-body card at the gate of the Hearst Greek Theater where the opera is being held in order to get in. A ticket is not enough.

'Sheep' First Film of Campus Pic Series

The first presentation of the new all-campus movie series, "The Sheep Has Five Legs," is set for tomorrow in the classroom building auditorium at 7 and 9 p.m. There is no admission charge for this or any of the regularly scheduled films.

The picture's star, Fernandel, has been called the French equivalent to Alec Guinness by drama critics. The story concerns an old French vintner and his quintuplet sons, all played by Fernandel.

A short feature, "The Sex Life of a Polyp," a sophisticated comedy narrated by Robert Benchley, also will be shown.

Miss Mary Stojkovich, chairman of the assembly committee, announced the tentative list of films which will appear in the future: "Miss Julie," "La Strada," "Olympia," "Mr. Hulot's Holiday," "Marcelle Marceau Pantomime" and "Romeo and Juliet Ballet."

Robinson Heads Fulbright Grants

Students interested in applying for a Fulbright Scholarship should get in contact with Dr. Robert E. Robinson, chairman of the Fulbright committee on this campus. The office of Honors and Scholarships is not handling Fulbrights as was previously stated in El Gaucho.

Only students with four years of college study in the language of the country to which they wish to go should apply, announced Dr. Robinson. This is one of the requirements for the scholarship.

Anacapa Residents To Get Parking Lot

To alleviate the crowded parking conditions which have resulted from the opening of Anacapa Hall, the science building parking lot has been transferred to "B" parking. Until this time it has been reserved for off-campus cars.

The "C" areas of this lot will be changed to "B" areas as soon as building and grounds department has time to change the signs. The "A" part of the lot will remain the same.

'C' Cars Must Move

Off-campus students who formerly used this lot have been requested by Police Captain Floyd Bernard to use the main parking lot behind the library and classroom building.

The captain also requested residents of Anacapa to stop parking around that residence hall. "The area is being landscaped," he said, "and various trees and shrubbery are being planted in Season tickets for UCSB Little Theatre productions are now available to students, according to Dr. Theodore Hatlen, professor of drama.

The 1959-60 drama season will include four major productions — Tennessee Williams' "The Rose Tattoo," the George Kaufman-Mark Connelly "The Beggar on Horseback," Herman Wouk's "Caine Mutiny Court Martial" and Ben Jonson's "Volpone." "The Rose Tattoo" opens Oct. 8.

Saving for Holder

Cost for a student season ticket is $2, a saving of $1 for the year, and the cost of the non-student's season ticket is $3. Regular single admission for each play is $1.25.

Season-ticket holders will also receive special invitations to experimental productions on campus, advance notice of each of the four plays to be presented, and first opportunity to reserve seats in advance.

Mailing Information

Season tickets can be acquired by sending a check to: Speech Department, UCSB, Goleta, Calif., and should be made out to "Regents of the University of California."

Because the first production, "The Rose Tattoo," has performance dates which are close together, those desiring season tickets should specify which evening they prefer to attend the play.

For further information concerning tickets call 7-5611, extension 2248.

Danforth Foundation Offers Grads Cash

Chancellor Samuel Gould has named Dr. Walter J. Mead as the Liaison Officer to nominate to the Danforth Foundation two or three candidates for the Foundation's 1960 fellowships. These appointments are fundamentally "a relationship of encouragement" throughout the years of graduate study, carrying a promise of financial aid within prescribed conditions as there may be need.

The Danforth Foundation helps support college senior men and recent graduates who are preparing themselves for a career of college teaching, and plan to enter graduate school in September, 1960, for their first year of graduate study.

The maximum annual grant for single Fellows is $1,500 plus tuition and fees charged to all graduate students; for married Fellows, $2,000 plus tuition and fees charged to all graduate students with an additional stipend of $500 for each child. Students with or without financial need are invited to apply.

The qualifications of the candidates as listed in the announcement from the Foundation are: men of outstanding academic ability, personality congenial to the classroom, and integrity and character, including serious inquiry within the Christian tradition.

All applications, including the recommendations, must be completed by Jan. 31, 1960. Any student wishing further information should get in touch with Dr. Mead.

Frosh Prexy

Thus far five students have signed up for the office of Freshman Class president: Bob Berson, Jerry Baldock, Mike Fels, Steve Campbell and Kent Campbell.

Nancy Durland, Terri Debevoise, Sally Spear and Charlotte Fairbairn are running for the office of women's rep-at-large.

Vying for the position of Senior Class secretary-treasurer are Carol Dotson and Carolyn Lane. The office was vacated by Donna Weyand due to scholastic reasons.

Frosh Veep

Eight aspiring politicians are seeking the office of Freshman Class vice president: Tom Woolsey, Will Irwin, Matt Wallace, Jon Bland, Kuon Mattison, Dennis Thompson, Stephen Smith and Helen Majjae.

Seeking the position of Freshman secretary-treasurer are Linda Fox, Bonnie Tidd, Barbara Averine, Evelyn Zinn, Carol Richards, Wendi Hammond and Bob Carty.

Val Hallor and Kay Hubbell contend for the position of AWS first vice president.

No Signups

There are no signups for the office of Freshman AWS rep.

"A constitution test will be given to all applicants Friday at 3 p.m. This test must be passed in order to run for office," according to Leslie Higginbotham, co-chairman of elections.

A test will also be given covering the AS by-laws and Roberts Rules of Order. The test will be administered in Bldg. 431, Room 110. Copies of the constitution are available in the Graduate Business Manager's office.

Jazz Festival Gives Low Rates to UCSB

The annual Monterey County Jazz Festival, Oct. 2, 3 and 4, offers special rates to all student-body card holders. The festival, starting Friday evening, will run for three days and feature top jazz performers from all over the United States.

Sarah Vaughan will be the featured singer on the Sunday night program.

Tickets for the festival can be obtained by writing "Box Jazz," Monterey, Calif.

Tryouts for Coming S.B. Drama Tonight

Reading tryouts for "The Beggar on Horseback," the second major dramatic production of the department of speech and drama, will be held tonight from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the Little Theater. Professor Theodore Hatlen is the director.

Additional tryouts will be held tomorrow from 3 to 5 p.m. at the same place. Dr. Hatlen emphasized that all students are welcome to try out for parts regardless of previous experience or their major fields of study.

Musical Style

"The Beggar on Horseback" is an expressionistic comedy which will be played in a musical-comedy style. There are parts in this satiric comedy for about 20 men and 20 women, ranging from bit parts to leading roles.

"This particular play offers the newcomer an unusual opportunity to break in, since there is a wide variety of characters," Hatlen said.

The director is especially anxious to recruit students who have some interest in dance since there are a number of scenes requiring group movement.

Opens in November

"Beggars on Horseback" will be presented in the Little Theater in November. Rehearsals will begin immediately and will probably take three afternoons and two evenings a week.

Anyone interested in securing copies of the scripts in advance, for reading, may secure them from the speech office in Bldg. 417 or at the Little Theater.

"In addition to performers, students interested in serving on crew should attend either of the tryouts and sign up at that time," Hatlen added.

Frosh Queen

Candidates for the Freshman Queen Contest will be announced on Oct. 2, the Sophomore Class announced. There will be 30 girls in the running, eight of whom will represent the university's sororities and 22 will run as representatives of the living groups. As has been done in the past, the winner will be named at the Frosh Tribunal, which is scheduled for Oct. 10. Two runners-up, to hold the title of princesses, will be named at that time also.

Football Starts Intramurals

by Bill Halderman

Tough and rugged sporting males will soon clash head-on in the intense fiery spirit that is fast becoming Gaucho tradition. The occasion—what promises to be the most thrilling carnage since the "fight-'em-in-the-street Barcelona bulls"—this 1959 edition of intramural flag football.

Each year since the program was started, competition has been increasingly sharper. This year promises to be no exception, with closed-door formation planning already going on.

Meeting Tomorrow

Essential formalities will be handled at 4 p.m. tomorrow when faculty intramural co-ordinator Stan Williamson meets with all organization athletic managers. Every interested organization—fraternities, residence halls and athletic clubs—is urged to appoint a manager to act as contact man between the organization and the intramural department.

Each team is required to deposit, with the secretary in Men's Physical Education Department, a list bearing the names of the players and the manager. Rules will be discussed and rule books distributed at the meeting.

First Games Set

Head-clashing begins the second week in October, following a week of practice sessions. El Gaucho will provide on-the-spot coverage of key games, as well as up-to-the-minute reports on the trophy race. Coaches and newsmen are expecting widespread use of the T-formation, but are hoping for some single-wing and an occasional "lonesome end."

Cordobes Sharp As Gauchos Last

Roland Cordobes led the UCSB harriers Saturday at Mt. San Antonio Junior College in the annual AAU run. A new course of 3.7 miles was unveiled, much to the dismay of the runners who expected a 2.7-mile course.

Cordobes was the Gauchos' top finisher, as a field of 86 started. He was the 38th finisher in the time of 23:09 as he beat many good Long Beach State and San Diego State runners.

Sophomore Dick Ryon surprised many observers as he placed 56th and was not far behind Cordobes. Following Ryon were Bob Oldham and the freshman standout, Barrett Miller. Other "hill-'n'-dalers" placing included Jim McIlwain, Dick Aced and Dennis Kavanaugh.

The big surprise of the day was L.B. State's seemingly easy second-place finish behind the national AAU champion Southern California Striders.

The Gauchos were eighth in team standings, as Los Angeles State barely edged the local runners. However, the Cordobes-led harriers were in much better shape than last season when only two managed to finish the shorter grind.

SU Committee

The Student Union Committee will meet tomorrow at noon in the AS conference room. All members of the committee are requested to be present.

Fresno State Next for Gaucho Gridders; Northern City Site of Saturday's Game

The Gauchos will face the new multiple offense of Fresno State Saturday night in the Raisin City's Ratcliffe Stadium. The Bulldogs are tutored by Cecil Coleman, in his first year at the helm of the northern school.

Coleman, who came from Arizona State, brought with him the new offense which involves several varieties of the T-formation with strong emphasis on passing.

The passing arm of Bob Van Galder, a transfer from Stanford, will be called on to make the Fresno attack go. Van Galder is the son of the former Bulldog coach, Clark Van Galder.

Saturday's contest will be the second conference tilt for the Gaucho gridders and their first away from home. In their initial game of the season they surpassed Long Beach State, 27-19.

Fresno State opened its season last week with a win over BYU.

Do You Think for Yourself?

(SHARPEN YOUR WITS ON THIS!*)

If you saw a girl in a bathing suit on a ski slope, would you say, (A) "What—no skis?" or (B) "Cold?" or (C) "The pool closed three months ago," or (D) "Stay right here—I'll get the guard!"

A  B  C  D

Do you think the statement "It's always darkest before the dawn" is (A) an astronomical truism? (B) a good reason for getting home early? (C) a piece of hopeful philosophy? (D) an argument for night watchmen?

A  B  C  D

Do you think that a man who can pole-vault 16 feet, but doesn't like to, should (A) go out and do it anyway? (B) keep the whole thing to himself? (C) do a bit of self-analysis on why he doesn't like to go high? (D) have the bar set lower?

A  B  C  D

When you choose a filter cigarette, do you (A) ask all your friends, and take their word for what's best? (B) take the one that makes the loudest claim? (C) investigate the facts, then use your own judgment? (D) go for the filter that gives you taste plus filtering?

A  B  C  D

It's a wise smoker who depends on his own judgment, not opinions of others, in his choice of cigarettes. That is why men and women who think for themselves usually smoke VICEROY. They know only VICEROY has a thinking man's filter—the filter with more research behind it than any other . . . the filter that changed America's smoking habits. And only VICEROY has a smoking man's taste.

*If you have checked (D) in three out of four questions, you're pretty sharp . . . but if you picked (C)—man, you think for yourself!

St. Clair-Tunncliffe Passing Combination Dazzles Poets Before 8,000 Onlookers

by Tom Morgan, Sports Writer

UCSB's footballing Gauchos sit high atop their undefeated pedestal today.

Coach Ed Cody's gridders rang up their second straight victory of the young season Saturday night when they up-ended Gary Campbell and the Whittier Poets, 20-15, before a crowd of better than 8,000 La Playa Stadium on-lookers.

Man of the Hour

Fred Tunncliffe, a sophomore transfer from Los Angeles Valley JC, hauled in a couple of touchdown passes from Jim St. Clair, and then just to make sure that his two scores would weather the storm of the highly touted Poet offense, intercepted one of Campbell's heaves in the waning minutes of play to put the collar on a desperation Whittier drive.

UCSB's Jim St. Clair zeroed in on seven of his 12 passes for 178 yards and two touchdowns. He also scored once himself.

Poets Gain More

On the ground, Whittier out-classed the Gauchos 216-101. But it was the golden passing arm of Campbell which the Gauchos knew they had to stop in order to win, and a strong defensive forward wall, led by Ray Schaack and John Stoney, and an alert set of downfield defenders, did just that.

With Boyett and Tunncliffe chiming in with St. Clair, the Gauchos galloped off to a 14-0

Tunncliffe Praised After Poet Battle

by Jerry Tune

As teammates rushed to shake the hand of game star Fred Tunncliffe in the dressing room after last Saturday night's game with Whittier, Coach Ed Cody was quick to remind them of next week's game against Fresno State. "We've got a tough one next week, and I want you guys out there early Monday."

"You goofed out there," Cody told Tunncliffe concerning the latter's unsuccessful attempt to intercept a high pass, "but you made up for it."

Tunncliffe said when he intercepted the ball, "I felt good but I was tired and couldn't run." Concerning his two touchdown catches, the speedy half-back went on, "Jim's (St. Clair) passes were really in there."

When St. Clair was asked how he felt about throwing to a guy like Tunncliffe, he replied, "He's an All-American (Tunncliffe earned All-American JC honors while at L.A. Valley). I just throw the ball."

Cody said his line in the Whittier game was "great," and we were without Townsend, Hildebrandt and Knecht. They'll all be ready next week." Cody added, "Whittier has great personnel. If we had their personnel we would go undefeated, I guarantee it."

lead in the second period, then watched the Poets whittle the margin to 14-8 at the half and finally vault on top 15-14 before Santa Barbara rallied with a fourth-period drive.

Gauchos Score First

Following a scoreless first quarter, a pair of completions by St. Clair to Boyett and Tunncliffe produced the initial score of the game. Frank Brisslinger added the extra point for a 7-0 Gaucho lead.

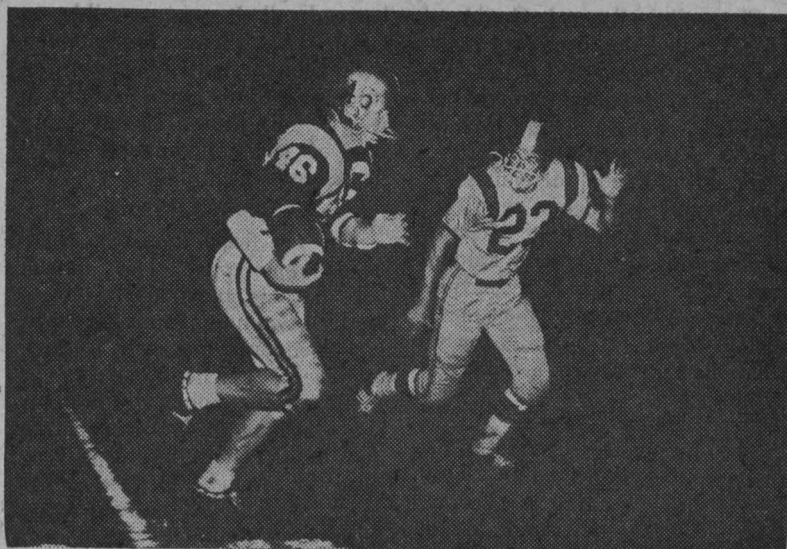

Stoney set up the second Santa Barbara score five minutes later when he recovered a Poet fumble on the Whittier 21. St. Clair again found Tunncliffe with a pass, this time in the end zone, as the latter made a diving catch.

Brisslinger split the uprights once again, vaulting the Gaucho lead to 14-0.

Whittier Bounces Back

Whittier immediately shifted into high gear, and thanks to a pass-interference penalty which produced a first down on the Santa Barbara one-yard line, scored with 10 seconds remaining in the half.

score in the third period and booted the extra point to give Whittier its first and only lead of the contest, 15-14.

But the Gauchos got off the deck for their game-winning touchdown in the fourth quarter when a 19-yard run by Boyett and a 23-yard pass from St. Clair to Tunncliffe moved the ball to the Poet 17, where St. Clair sneaked over six plays later.

'Off-Year' Elections . . .

UCSB is in the midst of its "off-year" election time. Yesterday members of RHA went to the polls to fill vacancies in that organization's offices. Next week the freshmen will elect their officers, and the student body at large will place members on Legislative Council and choose a new vice president.

Turnout at an "off-year" election is usually poor, but if the size of the ballot is any indication, this won't be the case here next week. The electorate will have a wide selection of candidates to choose from.

New Record Possible

Last spring's election turnout set a record. There is no reason why it can't be topped next week. We have more eligible voters this year. While the AS offices are not as numerous as in a spring election, they are as important.

The vice presidency and two council posts are up for grabs. These offices should not be taken lightly. A student should know who he is voting for. Knowing doesn't mean a speaking acquaintance, but how qualified is the candidate running.

Voter - Candidate Duties

It's every student's obligation to vote for the best candidate. It is every candidate's job to try to convince the electorate he is the best person for the job.

A student who doesn't vigorously campaign for office usually will not give his utmost to the position if elected. The student body must make the candidate earn each vote he receives.

Commons Courtesy . . .

The lines at lunch time in Ortega Commons are enough to take a student's appetite away. Between noon and 12:30 they sometimes stretch outside the door. It often takes upward of a half hour just to make it from the end of the line to the stack of trays.

Students with only the hour between 12 and 1 face the alternative of indigestion from fast eating or being late for afternoon class.

Go Early or Late

Until the new commons is finished this condition can only be abated by co-operation among the students themselves. A little consideration will go a long way.

Students who have either the 11 a.m. hour free or the 1 p.m. hour free should go to lunch before 11:45 or after 12:30, leaving the most crowded time for students who must eat then.

Management Helpless

This is a small thing to do. It is not really too inconvenient to eat a little earlier or later than usual, and the service done to fellow students is considerable.

It would be very difficult for those in charge of Ortega to enforce a plan such as this. They have enough to do just feeding half again as many people as the place is designed for. We must enforce it ourselves.

Complaining will do no good. Only by mature consideration of others can we stem the tide of noon-hour heartburn.

Indian Graduates Can't Find Work; Reds Not Popular, 'Project India' Travelers Say

by Dorothy Bradbury

While American students clamor at the doors of our colleges and universities for higher education and ultimately higher-paying jobs, 9 out of 10 college grads in India can't find work in their agricultural economy because of taboos against working below one's intellectual station.

This is one of many interesting observations made by Larry Popkin, Covell Brown and Jim Davis, three of four UCSB students who went to India last summer under the auspices of "Project India," at an International Relations Club meeting last Thursday in the Huddle. Rosemarie McDermott, the fourth traveler, was unable to attend. The unavailability of jobs and the serious food shortages were cited by Brown as contributing factors to the growth of communism in India. Popkin added that Indian students are not really in favor of the Communist Party, but are definitely hostile to the Congress Party now in control.

Decided lack of interest on the part of the American public disturbed the group, who felt everyone should be aware of the danger of communism's attractive propaganda. However, they mentioned an incident of resistance by student strikes against a Communist attempt to control schools in Kerala.

Although as Americans they were looked up to and found little antagonism, the four students were repeatedly asked about our aid to Pakistan, the U.S.'s refusal to recognize Red China and racial segregation in the United States.

"Project India" is privately financed and selection of student ambassadors is done by the UCLA Counseling Service and former delegates. Before leaving on their 10-week trip, the students received a two-day briefing from the State Department.

Struggle to Succeed Causes Mental Trouble, Says Gould

Chancellor Samuel Gould of UCSB called the struggle to succeed in academic work the biggest cause of mental problems in students before the Mental Health Assn. yesterday.

Gould outlined four causes for the mental problems requiring professional help that affect 8 per cent of the Gaucho student body in a speech before the Santa Barbara chapter of the Mental Health Assn., a public-information and research-financing group.

Four Causes

The four causes of mental disturbance, as described to Gould by UCSB psychiatrist Vernon Persell, are the struggle to achieve success in academic work, lack of identity, failure to make a successful compromise between dependence and independence, and poor sexual orientation.

Gould adds a fifth cause: the unique pressures of modern technological society. "It must be anything but reassuring, for example," he says, "to young and impressionable minds when they become cognizant of the world's present mad dash toward self-annihilation."

Millions for Defense

"Their confidence in us is somewhat shaken when they watch us spend about half of every tax dollar on military defense. . . . Their wonder increases and does subtle things to their sense of values when, in the face of such tremendous outlays for defense, they see us spend less than 3 per cent of the national gross product for education, and do it grudgingly and in too many cases for the wrong things.

"Such a factor in modern life is not conducive to mental health among students."

Problems also arise when the student starts to see man as a textbook problem, Gould says. "Almost overnight the student's concept of man begins to shift from his early acceptance of him as a creature of God to a conglomerate mass shaped by biology, physics, chemistry and psychology through an impersonal force or forces having nothing to do with the spirit."

Advertising Sex

Sexuality in advertising must share the blame, Gould adds. "At an age when the boy and girl are already struggling with this new and strange emotion, to have its least aesthetic aspects flaunted and emphasized is hardly a way to lessen the mental and emotional turmoil within them."

Offering aids, Gould advises, "If each faculty member (yes, even his wife, too) took as his responsibility some 10 or 12 students, studied their backgrounds, learned all it was possible to learn about them, corresponded with their parents, brought the students into his home periodically . . . we should be attacking one of the fundamental weaknesses existing today.

Closer Liaison

"In the second place, there needs to be much closer liaison with parents, particularly during the first two undergraduate years. . . . Frequently the clues to mental health problems are to be found in the home situation or the relationship between parent and child; sometimes this relationship can be improved as the result of contacts between counselors and parents.

"Third, a different and more complete set of recommendations is desirable from the secondary school authorities. All too often the records of the student say nothing about any emotional problems he may already have exhibited before coming to college.

Mental Therapy

"Fourth, we should look more closely into the possibilities of group therapy for many of the cases of mental-health difficulty. . . .

"Fifth and last, we should work unceasingly to remove the stigma that still haunts this area of education, a stigma that comes from outworn concepts and ancient prejudices. Students and parents both, particularly the latter, need orientation to new attitudes regarding mental health."
