TOURING PAIR TO PORTRAY CHARACTERS FROM EIGHT SHAKESPEAREAN PLAYS IN CAMPUS PERFORMANCE NEXT WEEK

A dramatic concert, in which 18 of Shakespeare's most popular characters are portrayed, will be presented by Richard Gray and Mayo Loiseaux, in two performances in the UCSB Little Theatre on June 29 and 30.

The widely toured Shakespearean two-some will draw their characterizations from eight Shakespearean plays, both tragedies and comedies. Included are excerpts from "Macbeth," "Othello," "Henry the V," "Hamlet," "The Merchant of Venice," "Romeo and Juliet," "Richard the III" and "Much Ado About Nothing."

Called "Caviare to the General," this concert is performed on an almost bare stage with interesting lighting effects. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. and admission is free to the public.

MAKE FISHING TRIP RESERVATIONS TODAY

Reservations are being taken through noon today for the fishing and sight-seeing boat trip Saturday, June 24.

The boat will leave at 7 a.m. from Norm's Landing at the end of Stearn's Wharf in Santa Barbara but participants are advised to arrive there early.

Sack lunches may be brought or lunch may be purchased in the galley. Poles may be rented at the pier for $2 and fishing licenses for $1. Warm clothes are advised.

MORGENTHAU TO LECTURE ON FOREIGN POLICY IN UNIVERSITY LECTURE SERIES KICKOFF

"The Unfinished Business of American Foreign Policy" will be the subject of the first University Lecture at 3 p.m. Tuesday in the Classroom Lecture Hall.

Professor Hans Morgenthau, director of the Center for the Study of American Foreign Policy and professor of political science at the University of Chicago, will be the speaker.

The internationally famous political scientist is teaching a course this summer in "Problems of International Relations." He is the author of ten books and over 140 articles in his field of study.

The lecture is open to the public without charge.

BEACH BARBECUE MONDAY PROMISES FUN!

Volleyball, swimming, or a stroll on the beach will be highlights of the beach barbecue starting at 4:30 p.m. Monday at the University beach.

Non-campus residents are charged $1 and should make reservations by tomorrow at the Graduate Manager's Office. There is no charge for campus residents.

All recreational activities are planned for special summer session people on campus as well as regular summer session students.

"SUMMER WHIRL" FACULTY-STUDENT DANCE IS FIRST BIG SOCIAL EVENT OF SUMMER

"Summer Whirl" is the theme for the faculty-student dance from 8:30 to 11 p.m., Saturday, July 1, in the Las Casitas "X" Room.

School wear is the attire for the first big social event of the summer season, which is date or non-date.

"LITTLE FUGITIVE" TO BE SHOWN IN SAN MARCOS AUDITORIUM MONDAY

"The Little Fugitive," a story of a small boy's adventures at Coney Island, will be the featured movie in the Family Film Series at 2 p.m. Monday, sponsored by the University Extension.

Also to be shown Monday at San Marcos High School Auditorium are "The Song of the Prairie," a puppet satire on a Hollywood musical-western, and Norman McLaren's "Fiddle Dee Dee."

CHANCELLOR GOULD ON RADIO PROGRAM

Chancellor Gould represents the University in a discussion program, "Higher Education Today," to be heard on Santa Barbara's FM station KRCW Saturday at 8:05 p.m.

The other participants are Joseph Cosand, president of Santa Barbara City College, and David Hubbard, Professor of Bible at Westmont College. This is one of a series of one-hour programs entitled "Forum" moderated by Thomas McManus of the station staff.

TWO CONCERTS, OPERA PLANNED FOR SUMMER
SESSION BY UCSB MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Three outstanding musical presentations have been planned for the Summer Session by UCSB's Music Department and Committee on Arts and Lectures.

Paganini Quartet, world-famous quartet in-residence at UCSB, will give a concert at noon, July 24 in the Campus Auditorium. Admission will be $1.25.

Carl Zytowski, Associate Professor of Music, will conduct the UCSB Little Orchestra Concert, July 15 and Mozart's opera, "Impresario," on July 26. Both will be held at 8:30 p.m. in the Music Bowl located in the patio of the Music Building and are free of charge.

NOTICE TO SWIMMERS

Public swimmers are requested not to use the University pool from 1 to 1:45 p.m. daily as there are two classes scheduled to use the pool at this time.
