German Proposals Unacceptable
Because Germany declines to make any definite statement regarding fortifications on the Rhine, France is not willing to accept any of Herr Hitler's proposals for negotiations. Following the unsuccessful efforts of Herr Von Ribbentrop at the London conference of the Locarno powers, France, Belgium and England are making plans for mutual assistance in case of attack by Germany.

Townsend Investigation Continues
When the Townsend Old Age Pension investigating committee called for an auditing of the books to give a financial view into the plan, a member of an accounting firm in New York working on the books announced that the books were muddled and confused and, "not readily susceptible to audit" up to July 1, 1935. Yesterday the committee learned from testimony produced that in March, 1935, with the circulation of about 100,000 the receipts from the Townsend national weekly were between $500 and $600 a week.

Negotiations in Ethiopia
With an attempt to settle the clash of interest between the Italians and Ethiopians without recourse to the League of Nations, reports come of first contacts made between emissaries of the warring countries. Reliable sources stated that Marshal Pietro Badoglio of the Italian forces had informed Alessandro Lessona, under-secretary of the colonies that contacts had been made but meanwhile both sides were struggling to gain the upper hand in military positions. From the battle fronts of both sides

Candidates for the May Queen election will be introduced at the meeting. Students selected by the physical education classes to compete for the title, are Ann Gibson, Elinor Stewart, Pat Ireland, Blanche Hillman and Miriam Turton. All sororities will choose one woman to represent their group and to compete with those chosen by the gym divisions. The results of the election, which will also take place in the meeting, will not be revealed until the time of coronation.

Flunk Notes Craze Scholars Blood Pressures Rise as Pledges Worry

By NAT HALES

Cheers, tears, and ballyhoo. Who? No! Did she get a cinch in Sweet's physiology? Am I happy. That old cat was always cutting up in Tuesday labs. All of which is why forty-nine students and Wilhelmina Menken rush to and from the mail boxes all day long. The forty-niners to rant and rave; Wilhelmina to pant and slave, or something less energetic.

Blood pressures rise as "Let me see!"—"Gee, I hope I don't get any!" "Where are the L's" and similar shouts reign over a mad mob of scholars, wedging about their boxes in high glee or utter despair. "Bet-cha four bits I get more than you do, Wall—" Pledges tearing their hair in a heated rage, now that there'll be hell to pay. Oh, yes. Who started this anyway, now our dear professors who so love peace

PAGLIOTTI HEADS DAY

Phelps, Basham Welcome All Visitors at Assembly Opening Meet

Graduating seniors from 18 high schools in surrounding districts will be feted by the Associated Students at a play-day, Estudiantina, to be held on the campus and beach Friday afternoon, April 17.

High schools participating are Santa Barbara, Carpinteria, Ventura, Oxnard, Santa Paula, Fillmore, Bakersfield, Santa Maria, Ojai, Taft, Maricopa, Lompoc, Antelope Valley, Santa Ynez, Paso Robles, Arroyo Grande, Atascadero and the Santa Barbara Catholic Girl's school.

Announcement of the program for the campus activities was announced by Bob Kindred, who, with Ida Pagliotti, will act as co-chairman for the day. All guests will meet in the auditorium at 1:30 p.m. Short speeches of welcome by President Clarence L. Phelps and student prexy, Garlyn Basham, will officially open the gathering. The program as announced by Allan Neil, chairman, will consist of selections by the men's quartet, solos by Brad Tozier, violin, and vocal presentations by a "mystery crooner". The women's glee club, under the direction of Mrs. Helen M. Barnett, will close the entertainment with a few numbers.

Following the assembly, visiting students will be conducted on a tour of the campus, and will visit and view special demonstrations of the art, home economics, industrial education, and other departments. Each department will supply guides for its personal showing. Campus organizations acting as guides are the junior class, College Y, Alpha Shurer Moe acted as head of the pledges, which include Dorothy Hornor, Irene Minikin, Jack David, Hal Dee Julian, and Nat Hales, in making arrangements for the event. Coffee and sandwiches were served between the regular picture and a feature preview.

HANSON SPEAKS ON RE-ELECTION AS CITY MAYOR

By BILL HUNT

"After a great deal of trouble lasting since January 1, 1935, the people expressed their wishes and removed four councilmen and retained their mayor," stated Mayor E. O. Hanson yesterday in an interview by a Gaucho reporter on the recall election.

"All Hanson has tried to do," went on the mayor, "is to give the people the things they want. Whether Hanson wanted them or not, if he felt that the people wanted them, he tried to give them to them." Illustrating his statement, Hanson said, "At the meeting today I inaugurated a movement to remove the ten percent penalty on water bills, and one to close all grocery and fruit stores on Sunday. I also inaugurated a move for a police sub-station, a post office and fire station on the west side of town."

When questioned as to the reason for the strong public sentiment aroused for the recall in spite of the mayor's efforts to do as the people wished, Hanson attributed the move to the forces of publisher T. M. Storke who opposed Hanson's election and has been constantly demanding his removal. "It has been a campaign of hate," said the tired but victorious mayor.

Senior Staff Plans Banquet

Goldsmith Heads Important Committee for Senior Dinner in June

Announcement of the senior banquet committee, the most important group officiating for the June festivities, was made at the senior class meeting held Tuesday morning, March 31, during the second hour.

This committee is in charge of all arrangements for menu, place, seating of guests, invitation and selection of the speaker, tickets and theme for the event.

Lyman Goldsmith, senior class prexy, will, in keeping with tradition, chair the staff, with Miss Jean Kreuger, Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, Dean Lois Bennink, Mrs. Ruth Doolittle, Mrs. Helen M. Barnett and Dean William Ashworth acting as faculty sponsors and advisors. Those students on the committee are Dorothy Powell, home economics; Mary Monden, art; Shirley Warner, women's physical education; Jack David, men's physical education; Ruth Hilty, kindergarten-primary; Paul Woods, junior high; Robert Habecker, industrial education; Rea McPeak, history; Elizabeth Hartwell, English; and Gwen Davis, elementary.

Tickets for the senior supper, scheduled for Tuesday, April 14, at 6:30 p.m. in Ebbets hall, will be on sale at the student store, registrar's office, the Gaucho club counter and the president's office. The price of tickets is 50 cents.

FRAT MEETS TO ELECT OFFICERS

Electing Clyde Campbell as new president, Pi Sigma Chi, national industrial education fraternity, met last Wednesday night, April 1, in the A.W.S. clubroom at 7:00 o'clock.

Other officers elected were Lyman Goldsmith, vice-president; Durant Moseley, secretary; and Leo Pauly, treasurer.

Plans were made for a panel discussion, set tentatively for April 24, with guest speakers invited from Los Angeles.

Bill Brandt Describes Travels Ramelli's Class Hears Interesting Story

"Seventy-four day trip—only eight days in port—the work isn't hard—the experience is educational—, but when you are served a bottle of beer when you ordered cherries and cream, it's time to come home."

Such ran an interesting oral description of the trip to Montevideo, Uruguay, taken by Billy Brandt, State student, who reviewed the voyage before Miss Eda Ramelli's Spanish class.

Their charted course lay through the Straits of Magellan, between small and obscure islands, through high mountain guards on the Pacific side and level lowlands on the Atlantic side, to San Francisco-like Montevideo, across the Plata river from Buenos Aires. The beautiful city is slowly "going modern," but still boasts of antique furniture,

Appointment of the executives and committees was also announced with Garlyn Basham heading the staff as general manager of the show. Supervising director is Harry Moore, with Jack Kitchen assisting. Dave Pollock is managing the stage, and Shirley Warner is in charge of props. Harry Shumway will have charge of make-up, and costumes will be handled by Barbara Sharp and Cecile Dillehunt.

Tryouts After Vacation
Tryouts for acts will be held in the week of April 13-17 and director Moore urges everyone to apply as ample opportunities will be given applicants to obtain a place in the show. Places are open for individual acts, singers, dancers, chorus girls, models, variety acts and comics, states Moore. Any organization with an idea for an act is urged by the staff to get in touch with the committee for aid in shaping it up.

Bud Lambourne's 10 piece orchestra will furnish music for this year's Roadrunner Revue, and a number of featured acts have already been slated for presentation. Four Masters of ceremonies who will keep up the pace of the production are "Goldy" Goldsmith, "Buppy" Moore, Garlyn Basham and Dick Waterman.

Renata Maccianti will be featured.

Sophs Make Plans to Organize Teams for New Play Day

Voting to support Estudiantina, the sophomore class met on Tuesday morning, March 31, in room 80 appointing Gene Campbell, Fred Lambourne, Jack Josephs and Mary Agnes Phillips to complete arrangements for class participation in the play day events.

A resume of the program and an explanation of the purpose of Estudiantina was given by Miss Helen Sweet, sophomore sponsor. Norman Coy was named as head of the class swimming team. Other business included a financial report of the success of the Hay Hoedown, the appropriation of funds for a page in La Cumbre, announcements of the student body and class elections in May and suggestion of a class picnic at the Outing club cabin in Paradise camp following the Spring vacation.

Brandt's ship, M. S. Fosna, Norwegian oil tanker, docked at the novel piers, boasted by the South Americans, which consist of a large flat cement platform carefully disguised with top layers of sand.

Included in his account of delightful experiences, were Mr. Brandt's stories of mistaking buttermilk for a good old U.S. malted milk, and receiving a classy invitation to the Montevideo Rowing club to witness a swank fireworks display.

To show for his travels, the student has several bone animals, carved wooden cows, a bottle of cherry brandy and the crowning feature, a bottle of PASTEURIZED beer. Past-your-eyed past all bounds of realization.

Cleanliness Essential

When a store or club depends on the financial and moral support of the public at large, there is every effort on the part of the owners or persons responsible to keep the object under discussion clean and appealing to the human senses.

In view of this, and because such an organization in an educational institution should be kept above reproach naturally, we wish to call to the attention of the Gaucho club committee or the responsible parties of the Cafeteria staff and to the students that use the club rooms of the deplorable state to which they have allowed the place to degenerate.

Whether the responsibility lies in the student Gaucho committee, headed by Robert Kindred, or the Cafeteria staff to clean, even sweep, the floors of the Gaucho club, or clear the tables of the dirty dishes of crumbled paper napkins, we do know that the cooperation of the card enthusiasts and "fag hags" that play bridge and smoke from class to class would help a great deal. Their assistance in controlling their cigaret ashes alone would be a point from which to start.

If the Gaucho club continues on its present level it will soon be little better than the local beer gardens that, in an effort for cleanliness, spread saw-dust on the floor. We do not wish intentionally to over-emphasize the mere request on our part to sweep the floors, but our feeling reached a peak of disgust at the revolting appearance of the club room when we recently stopped in for a cup of coffee.

As the club has been instrumental in assisting the cafeteria in climbing out of the red through its popularity, it seems likely that with the proposed fountain and the added advantages of cleanliness and neatness the Gaucho club can still attain a higher degree of value.

On an other tangent, but in the same place, if the Gaucho club committee finds it too difficult to transfer the ancient student body trophies from the student office to the cases provided for them in the club room, then let us propose another idea which found birth in an open discussion on the campus. Use the cases for displays of student body functions, or a window display for the "Co-op," or allow the fraternities and sororities on the campus to display their trophies and paddles.

Estudiantina Edition

El Gaucho wishes to announce that on the week following Easter vacation, there will be but one issue of the student publication because of the obvious difficulty that is to be encountered following the seven day vacation. El Gaucho will appear on Friday, April 17, as a special edition for the "Estudiantina." May we wish each and every one a happy, restful Easter vacation.

Our Sympathy

Many members of the faculty and local citizens of Santa Barbara wish to express their sympathies to the family of Miss Nell A. Miller, former head of the Home Economics department, who died recently following a long illness. Miss Miller served as head of the Home Economics department for nine years in Santa Barbara State college, and worked with presidents Ednah Rich Morse, Frank H. Ball and C. L. Phelps.

One of the most consistent names in broadcasting is that of Paul Whiteman. His program now being sponsored on the NBC network, is presented each Sunday for 45 minutes. Besides the Whiteman troupe, guest stars of a high calibre share honors. Harry Richman and Morton Downey have already appeared on the program and other popular stars will occupy the choice guest spots.

Easter Bunnies Go on Strike; or Lay Eggs Here Please

While Staters are away enjoying themselves next week, there are a few little individuals who will spend the week being as busy as little bees, and I don't mean the new furry ones some crack-brain back east has invented. These poor little guys are the Easter Bunnies. Just think, and then shed a few tears, about the terrific time they are going to have laying enough eggs to supply such voracious appetites Johanna Twaddle and Sophie Phossil.

What would you think if you were a poor worked to death bunny? Here would be thousands of brats running hither and thither looking for gaily colored easter eggs while the supply would be greatly diminished. And all good economists know that when supply does not fill demand the price goes up, and that is exactly what happens. The bunnies strike for higher wages. Their demands include new cabbage leaves twice daily, fresh lettuce hourly and cokes served whenever desired. (What do they think this is anyway, the bloated plutocrats.)

Nevertheless the council of organized Bunnies has decreed that no more eggs will be laid this year unless their demands are satisfied. They have also refused to put all their eggs in one basket, which leaves us with the unpleasant task of having to run around to look for eggs, which is bad for our avitaminosis diabetes mellitus, or sprained ankle to you.

But we can be sure that the bunnies will come through, at least keep on hoping. But, if on Easter morning you wake up and what do you find, no eggs around and a little bunny thumbing his nose at you through the window, don't raise your voice (you raise her, you brought her here)—just "go lay an egg."

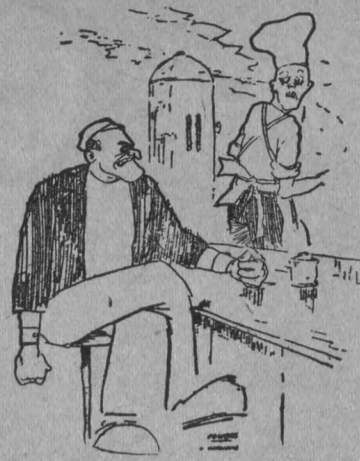

HAPPY EASTER BUNNIES

Easter vacation is here we see And oh how glad will Staters be The school and campus will be forlorn Us stay-at-homes will weep and mourn So have your fun and a gala time, And we'll see you in a week—more or less. —Sniped.

Book Chatter

By ARTHUR BATCHELDER

Hi there! Do you know Dizzy? Not Dizzy Dean, but the Dizzy which George Arliss brought to fame.

There's always a tremendous fascination, especially to us He-Men of 1936, to a book with a background of the days of social dandyism, of curls and rings, and astonishing waistcoats, to a book sparkling with the freshness of youth, to a book conveying the individualized portrait of a genius. And fascination as well as freshness certainly may be found in this finely wrought social comedy.

Just the same, I feel that in this biography, "Young Mr. Disraeli," of the first thirty-four years of Benjamin Disraeli's life there is no new information to change our picture of this ambitious and romantic author, wit, orator and political leader of Nineteenth Century England.

Miss Thane has taken the materials preserved by Monypenny and Buckle in their six volume "life," and these materials, becoming distilled in the mind of the author, are polished by literary style; and being presented in pleasing format, surely make interesting reading.

Such unforgettable pictures are presented as—Old Isaac writing in his study, the devoted Sarah encouraging her moody brother, the audacious Dizzy, in his twenties confessing to Lord Melbourne "I want to be Prime Minister," his maiden speech in the House of Commons, and the classic interview, which closes this book.

In completing this non-novelized biography my first after-thought was that the author has created a Disraeli with a vitality of his own, differentiated from the Disraelis I know best—Those of Maurois and shall we say, of George Arliss—and is done by a greater emotional sympathy of his biographer; and certainly there is no finer or more necessary attribute in a biographer than emotional sympathy.

Close Contest Looms For Cartermen

Spikemen Meet Two Foes This Week in South

Team Has Strength in the Distance Runs and in the Hurdles

Definitely knocked out of the race for the conference dual meet championship, Los Gauchos move South tomorrow to fight with Redlands and La Verne at Redlands, for the second spot.

The Gauchos are favored to take La Verne without any trouble, but the situation against the Bulldogs presents an entirely different set-up. Everything running true to form, the locals should take the Southerners by virtue of power presented in the middle distances.

Redlands Strong in Sprints

Redlands appears to be strongest in the sprints and field events, with Case, conference 100 and 220 champ, Oliver, a 50.6 second quarter-miler and Johnson, the same boy who beat the Gauchos last year by nosing out Bud Ewing on his last throw in the javelin.

The Gauchos will rely on Gray, Rumbaugh and Captain Bill Crow in the high hurdles to start the hilltoppers off with a lead in points. Last week at Occidental, Crow ran the highs in about 15.7s, and tomorrow should find him in the lead of a Stater parade among the timber toppers. In the lows Howie Yeager is about ready to repeat his performance registered in the Chapman and Loyola meet, but he will be pushed to the limit by Case of Redlands in the 100.

The quarter-mile will be the feature race of the day with Bowlus out to beat Oliver of Redlands, and Shean running as a dark horse capable of beating both of them unless they step.

Santa Barbara's leather lungers should experience little difficulty in the 880, mile and two-mile. MacDonald, Ian Crow, Hooper, Rygh and Dorn are in great shape, and unless something happens before starting time, they will all be placing high in their favorite events.

FROSH BASEBALL MEN BATTLE IN SAN LUIS TODAY

San Luis Obispo is the scene today of baseball war-fare which features the Pea-Greener nine of Gauchoville versus the two institutions of knowledge Cal-Poly and San Luis Obispo high school.

Today the local fellows do battle with the high school club of San Luis Obispo. This ball team has played two close contests with Cal-Poly and have shown lots of promise that they will attempt to put the "Indian Sign" on the Pea-Greeners.

"Ace" Gardenhire and Miles Heber will do the chucking, while Lane Mickey will handle their slants from behind the bat. Coach "Bud" Cummings will put a team on the field which will include Heber, Busby, Lee, and Young who work in the infield, while Jack Smith, Monson and Hersey roam around in the outfield. Erbes and Ashurst were also taken along.

Wednesday afternoon the Gauchos dropped a free hitting contest to the Ventura Junior college, by an 18-10 score.

Tau Omegas Win Interfraternity Title

Keeping their slate clean, the Tau Omegas defeated Beta Sigma Chi Wednesday afternoon at basketball in the gym by a score of 45 to 35. The victors completed the interfraternity basketball season undefeated with four victories.

Those that saw action Wednesday were Tau Omegas Johnston, Shean, Morris, Moore, Leister and Christiansen; Beta Sigma Chi: Thomas, Rezzonico, Kitchen, Lebeck, Hayman, Westbury and David.

Hiltopper batters have been hitting the "Rock" with consistency and the batting average of six men are in .300 per cent class. Erhard, Rezzonico, Luse, VanMeter, Muray and Miller are the men within the selected circle. "Shires" Erhard leads the list with a .379 percent. The "13" men who will be accompanied by Coach Harder and Senior Manager Joseph, on the trip South, besides the men above are Evans, Lebeck, Bortolazzo, Fisher, Voorhies and Hathaway.

Two sophomores are leading the point scoring on Nick Carter's team at present. Howard Yeager has collected 44 and 4-5 points to hold the top spot and Hooper by running the mile and two mile each Saturday is second to Yeager with 44 and 1-2 points.

Last Saturday at Oxy many of the men made better times than they have all year. MacDonald ran the half in 2.03 seconds, and figures to keep improving now that he has dropped running the two-mile. Hooper will be running the two-mile for the last time tomorrow and will henceforth concentrate on the mile, his best event. Johnny Rygh ran the mile in 4.49.2 for his best time of the year.

Bowlus was clocked in 50.6 seconds for the quarter Saturday, while Shean, showing steady improvement all year, was close on his heels and was clocked in 51 flat.

The relay ran 3.29 for their best time. Belprez who ran the first lap last Saturday pulled a muscle and Nightengale will probably be running in his place tomorrow.

The highest score registered at bowling by a college student is that of Fred Lambourne. He really knocked the ol' pins down with a vengeance to ring a 209 score. This beats his brother Bud's score of 192 who had the best previous score.

Staters Go on Barnstorming Tour Over Southern California During Easter Vacation

By "AL" BINE

The Gaucha baseballers will ride into the Southland Monday morning on the crest of a wave when they hit Los Angeles in an attempt to take into camp five of the leading college baseball teams.

In a warm-up game of great importance to take place Saturday afternoon at Pershing park, the locals will battle the University of Redlands in a conference game in an effort to make it two straight over the Bulldogs. The "Staters" won the first game at Redlands two weeks ago in an eleven inning struggle, coming out ahead by a 5-2 score. Miller and Rezzonico will be the Hilltoppers battery.

Gaucha's Untried Swimmers Meet Northern Jaycee Aquatic Team

Travelling to Santa Maria junior college this afternoon the Gaucha fellows who are representing the Biltmore swimming club will participate in a meet there. The fellows have yet to enter any competition but in their time-trials they have made very good records.

Coach "Norm" Coy will take with him a formidable outfit with a fair representation in each event. Tommie Mills, Huntington Park's contribution to the team, will enter the 200 yard free-style event, and the 100 yard breast stroke and also will swim the anchor-lap on the relay team.

Chester Cash and Dave Pollock will swim both the 100 yard free-style and in the relay. Jim Dupuis will enter the 200 yard free-style. Ralph Woods will swim in the individual medley and the 100 yard back-stroke. Lorne Olson and Jack Knight are the spring-board artists of the team and will be entered in the diving contests. Norm Coy, erstwhile coach, manager and life-saver will also compete in some of the events. He will swim in the individual medley, 100 yard breast-stroke and is the initial lap on the relay team. Competing against the team will be Herman Smith, local high school flash, who is a very outstanding swimmer and will be a threat in the 40 yard free-style race, and in a couple of other races.

WARNER TAKES TRIP

Shirley Warner was chosen to accompany Nancye Clapp to the convention of the Athletic Federation of College Women in Minnesota.

Starting their barnstorming schedule Monday afternoon the Gauchos will take on the Chapman college nine at the Chapman diamond. Knowles, colored chucker will probably be on the mound, and inasmuch as the local hitters went on a rampage against him in his appearance at Pershing Park last week, he will be out to make a reversal of the 10-4 loss.

Meet Compton Tuesday

Compton Junior college will be the scene of the Gauchos' appearance on Tuesday when Staters will endeavor to avenge their only defeat of the present season. Midkiff or Paxman will do the chucking for the Jaysees while Julio Bortolazzo will be on the mound for "Spud" Harder's nine.

Santa Monica Junior college will act as hosts to the Staters on Wednesday afternoon when the Beach team will be out to take the measure of the "Touring Hilltoppers." "Shires" Erhard will be on the mound as Harder's hope against the comparatively weak sister of the sojourn.

Team Rests Thursday

Thursday will be a day of rest to the local boys, but Friday they will meet with last year's conference champion, the Terrible Tigers of Oxy. The battle will take place on Patterson field. This conference game will no doubt develop into a pitcher's battle between the Tiger "Hersh" Lyons and the Gauchos' mighty mite, "Murt" Miller.

The victor of this game stands a good chance of becoming the conference champion, and the local boys with fire in their eyes are out to avenge their last year's defeat and will have a fight of two-fold nature.

Friday the Gauchos will wind up their travels in another conference battle with the Whittier Poets. The Quakers will put a strong team on the field, with a host of outstanding batters to oppose Bortolazzo, "State's" chucker supreme.

Ashworth Arranges Daylight Trials For 'Outward Bound'

Climax of First Act Provides Thrill as Mystery Ship Carries Dead Crew

A program of daylight rehearsals is being arranged by the director, Dean William Ashworth, to suit the programs of the individuals in the cast of "Outward Bound." Large posters, as well as a goodly amount of window cards are being made, in blue and white for the advertisement in the windows of downtown merchants.

The climax of the first act of this extraordinary play provides the sort of a thrill that comes only once in a theatrical season. A strange company of shipmates, mystified by a vaguely oppressive feeling of unreality and uncertainty, suddenly discovers that every last one of them is dead. Their ship, unmanned and without lights, is gliding noiselessly across the River, Styx, and when one of the characters in terror asks the sole attendant whether they are bound for heaven or hell, the answer is "Both—It's the same place, you see!"

"Outward Bound," first published in 1924 and now in its 13th printing, is a significant event in the history of the modern theatre. Its universal dramatic appeal and its beautifully depicted, though controversial, philosophy make it a play of great importance for every lover of the theatre.

Dr. William Ellison, head of the social science department, has been extended the honor of an invitation to join a select group of fifty college professors in a complimentary course in international relations at the University of Michigan during the summer. The course will be given under the leadership of three national authorities on the subject, and the "students" are selected from the entire United States.

Because of previous arrangements to teach at State during the summer session, Dr. Ellison has refused the invitation. However, Dr. Frederic Ganzert, who was a member of the faculty last year, has accepted.

Princetonites Start Furor With New Veterans

Veterans of Future Wars Found Sixty Campus Chapters

New York—Repercussions of a quiet remark dropped in a Princeton bull-session swept the country last week as the latest of the bonus-seeking organizations, the Veterans of Future Wars, established chapters on more than sixty campuses and embarked on a program variously hailed as delightful, valuable and "unpatriotic."

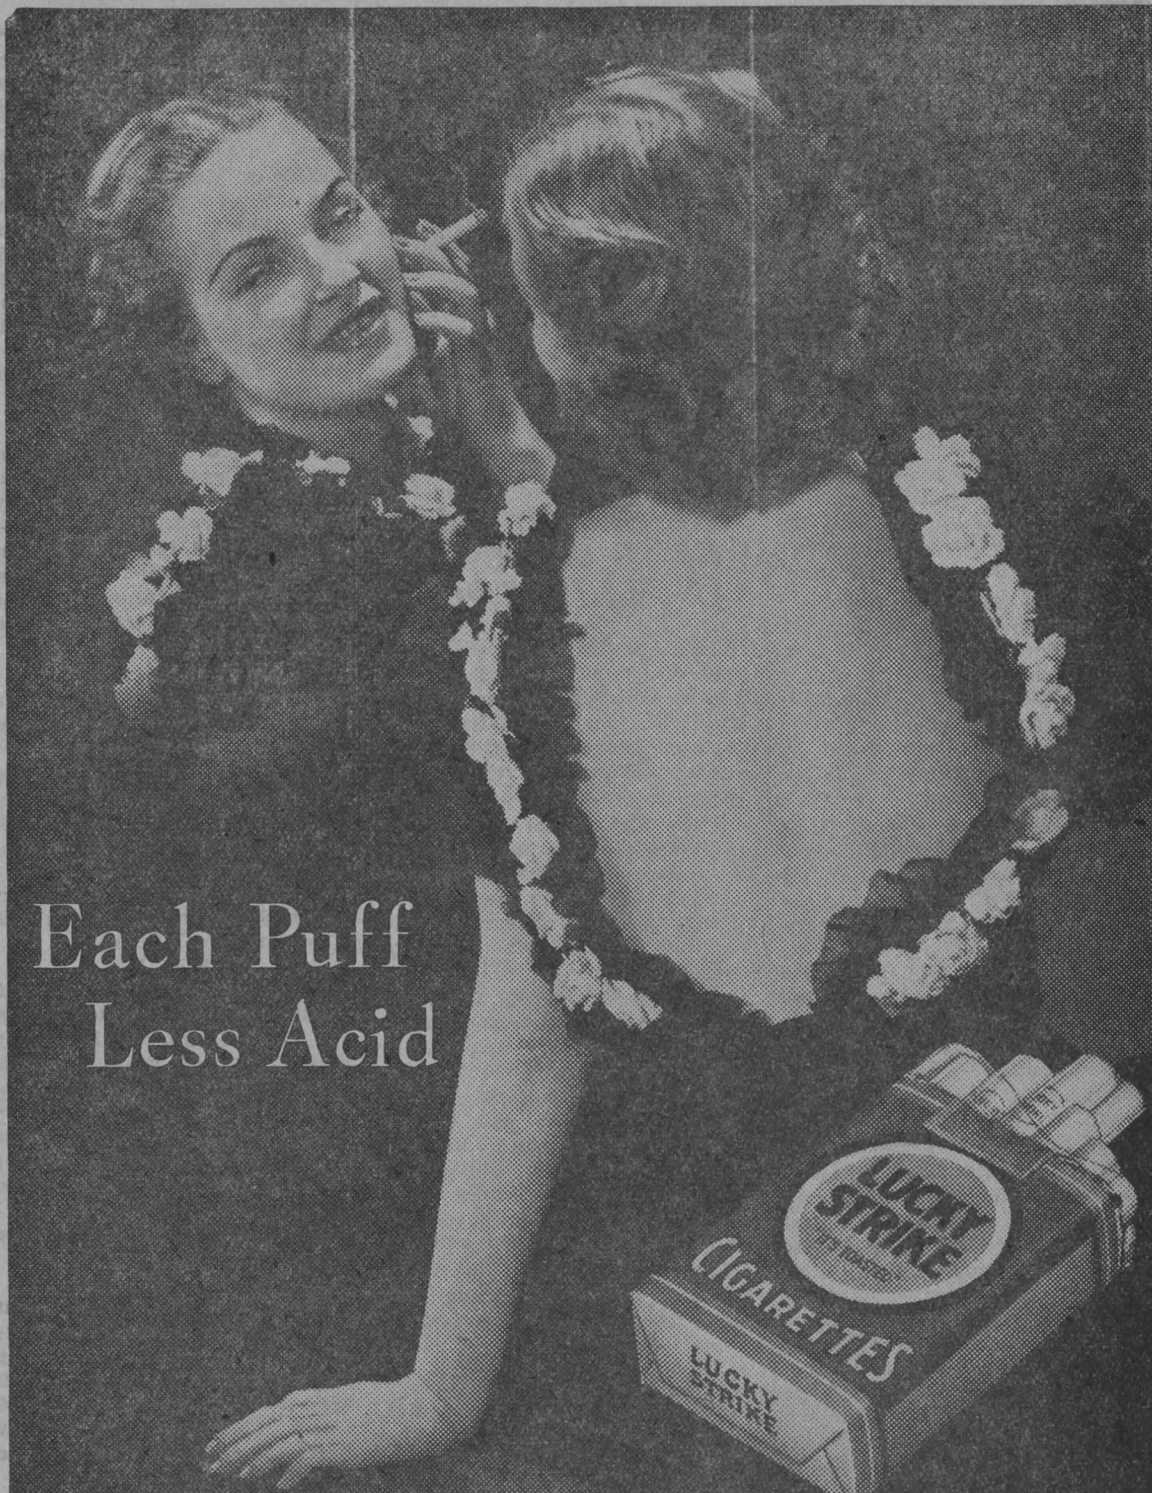

"Because it is customary to pay bonuses before they are due," said the manifesto announcing the birth of the organization, "the Veterans of Future Wars demand immediate payment plus three per cent interest compounded annually from June 1, 1965, backward to June 1, 1935." Payment now, the manifesto emphasized, would "lift the country out of the depression" and enable beneficiaries to enjoy the money before they lost their lives.

Hardly had the future veterans elected officers when the first chapter of an auxiliary society, the Association of Gold Star Mothers of Veterans of Future Wars was formed at Vassar. Indignant outbursts followed, and the name was changed to the "Ladies Auxiliary of Future Veterans." Loudest in denunciation, of course, were the other veterans' groups.

"Had the students confined their insulting remarks to the veterans, we would have laughed it off," said Joe E. Murray, former national chaplain of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, "but they have brought in the name of a group of women we hold sacred!" No satire or disrespect was intended, replied Louis J. Gorin Jr., national commander. Gorin was unperturbed by American Legion threats of vigorous complaint to Princeton authorities, kept three secretaries busy
