Red. Lots of red. Red lamps, red Christmas lights, red chandeliers. If the Wildcat Lounge in downtown Santa Barbara has a theme, it's a red-colored one.

With dark, deeply cushioned booths adorned with candles burning inside red glass globes, you might be reminded of your favorite childhood pizzeria, but one glance to your left will remind you that you're an adult in a bar: Liquor. Lots of liquor.

With a well-stocked bar, decor that doesn't try too hard, and bartenders just as beautiful as they are friendly, the Wildcat Lounge is everything a lounge should be. The subdued (red) lighting, medieval chandeliers and decades-old cigarette machine give this place an authentic atmosphere that is hard to find downtown anymore. This bar is where people who like bars go to drink.

The aged jukebox compliments everything else, with selections ranging from Frank Sinatra to James Brown to Social Distortion and PJ's "Ten."

The Wildcat Lounge offers one of the best happy hours in town, with $2.50 wells every day from 4-8 p.m. Add free pool to this, and you could be spending some very happy hours indeed. In addition to the Pale Ale and Foster's on tap, and they don't skimp on the drafts, either.

If you're the shot-taking type, Wildcat has a special one made with raspberry Stolichnya and other stuff they won't say. When you get there, ask Emily or one of the other bartenders for The Shot — they'll know what you mean.

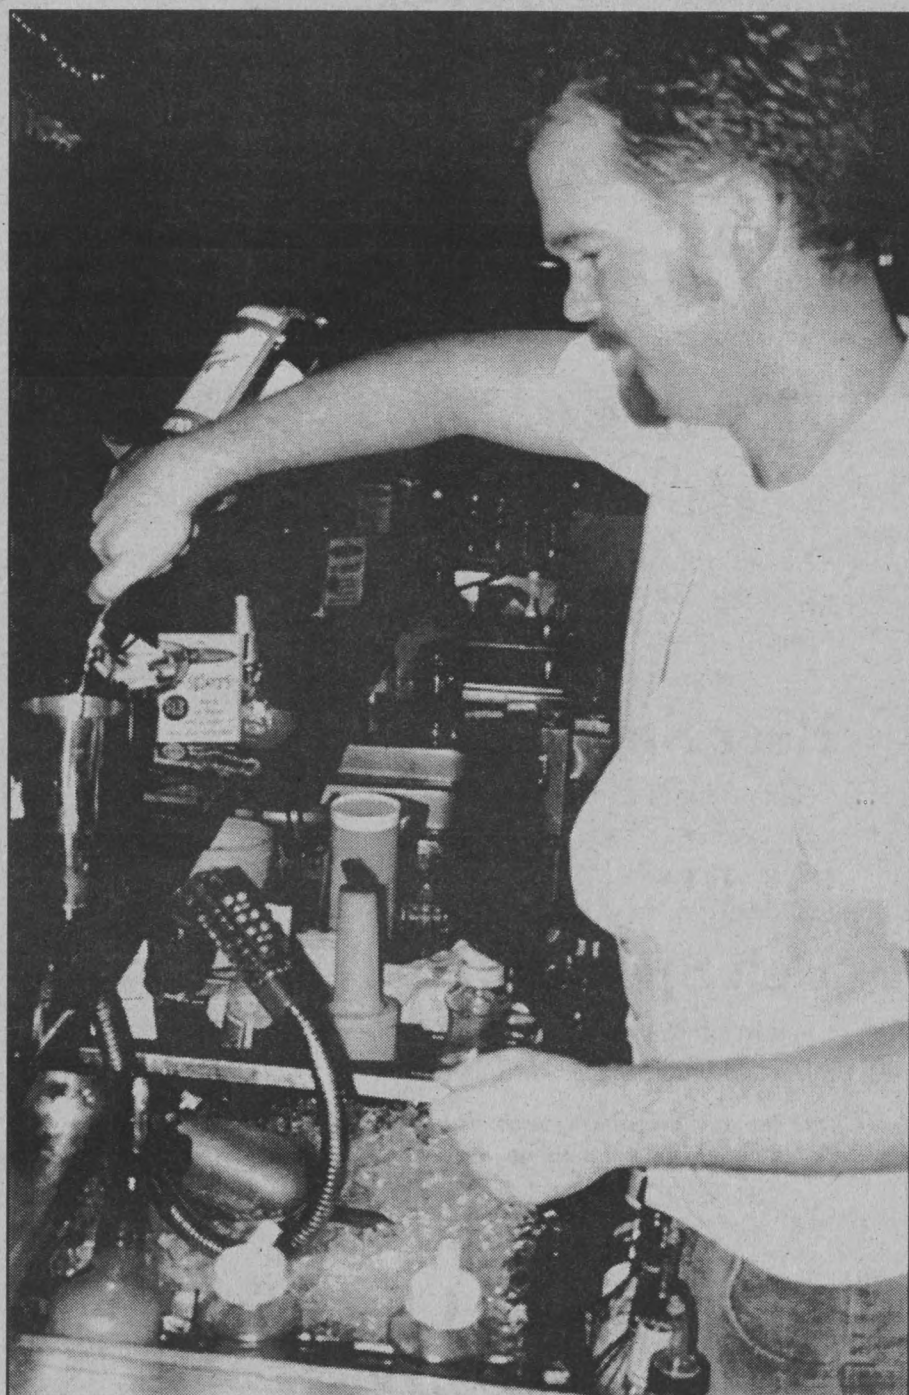

"The bartenders know their liquor and know their drinks..."

happy hour deals, Wildcat has nightly drink specials all night long. The Wildcat Lounge also packs the house Wednesday nights with live bands and no cover charge.

OK, blah, blah, blah ... What about the drinks? Rest assured, Wildcat makes 'em big and makes 'em strong. The bartenders know their liquor and know their drinks, and are definitely not shy when a bottle's in hand. Wildcat has Sierra Nevada

Basically, this place is it. Whether you're looking to sit down at the bar and drown your sorrows with booze and beautiful company or go out late at night and get bombed to the gills, Wildcat Lounge is where you want to be.

Wildcat Lounge is located at 15 W. Ortega St. in downtown Santa Barbara, right off State Street. For more information, call 962-7970.

Where do you go for service with a smile and the best Eastern cuisine in Goleta? Where else but

Friendly Cafe

DAVID GREGORY / DAILY NEXUS

Come, my friends, and enter the eatery of the Eastern Earth — enjoy the appetizing edibles of Friendly Cafe!

That's right, UCSB students — the finest in Thai and Vietnamese cuisine is no longer an expensive plane ticket away. After just a brief trek to historic Old Town Goleta, you too can dine on the best Eastern food in the tri-county area, and at the best prices anywhere. Friendly Cafe is much, much more than the inviting restaurant that its name implies — it is a mecca of gourmet delights!

With a minimum order, they'll deliver for free, but if you choose to walk through the door of Friendly Cafe, you will be transported to a wonderful haven of lunch and dinner delectables. Sit at a convenient table, recline in a comfy booth, or head to the lounge area for the ultimate in relaxed dining. There are seating options aplenty for your convenience and comfort!

But before getting too relaxed, you'll want to step up to the bar to partake in one of Friendly Cafe's tasty drinks. Sip a tall cold one while admiring the pleasant atmosphere and ambience of Friendly Cafe, and while you're lounging, you'll want to review the menu — you've got some tough choices ahead of you!

There's many reasons why Friendly Cafe is internationally known, the least of which being its many specials. The famous Lunch Special, always just $3.99 for a bevy of sizzling delicacies, is a Goleta favorite, and you'll want to try all of the 10 mouth watering prices to be bottom of the barrel. Friendly Cafe even serves UCSB noodles!

Some of Friendly Cafe's most delectable goodies are their many curry dishes and fresh seafood entrees. The curry selections are lightly seasoned and made to perfection, while the seafood delights are stir-fried and blended with a variety of combinations!

For less than $2 more, you can eat 'til you burst at the all-you-can-eat Thai lunch buffet, including a refreshing beverage. But don't limit yourself to the specials, because the menu is a cornucopia of satisfying meals. From the beef stew to the bun bo hue, you will find the selection to be top notch, and the tasty toppings. Dee-licious!

So make sure to eat at Friendly Cafe soon, or hear about it later. For students craving something different while enjoying an old favorite, Friendly Cafe is the place for you!

Friendly Cafe is located at 5838 Hollister Ave. in Old Town Goleta. Call 681-0412 for more information.
