Gauchos Play First Game in New Stadium

Collegians Rally in Auditorium Tonight

Pep Session, Dance Fete Hardermen

Pre-Game Hop Takes Place in Colledge Cafeteria

In honor of the Willamette game Saturday, the first to be played in the new stadium, the rally committee is holding a rally consisting of yells, songs and speeches in the auditorium tonight after which there will be dancing in the cafeteria sponsored by the combined rally and social committees.

Speakers of the evening will be Coach Spud Harder, President Clarence Phelps, Dean Charles Jacobs and four team members, George Valos, Marvin Palmer, Jack Smith, and Larry Pickens. Yells will be led by Jack Richards, Bud Burdick and Redman Beatley, and songs will be led by Harriet Ridenour and Gracie Williams.

Small Admission

Admission charge to the dance in the cafeteria, which will immediately follow the rally, will be five cents per person. This small charge is being made to help defray expenses. Dance music will be furnished by Bob Brady who is bringing his entire selection of swing records.

Members of the Gavel and Key honor society will sponsor a drive at the rally to sell pom-poms and rooters' caps which are required for those who wish to sit in the organized seating sections.

Organized Rooting

The pom-poms are being sold for twenty-five cents apiece and the rooters' caps for fifty cents. All students are urged to buy them either at the rally or before the game Saturday and participate in the organized rooting.

Co-sponsors of the rally and dance are Harry Sloan, chairman of the rally committee, Betty Palmaymesa, chairman of the social committee, and Dean Lois Bennink. The Willamette football team which will arrive at 8:55 p.m. will be invited to the dance as guests of the rally and social committees.

KTMS Airs College Show Tonight at 5:30

Jamboree Radio Program Features Speakers, Music

"Gaucho Jamboree" will take to the airways tonight at 5:30 o'clock when KTMS, News-Press station, presents a half-hour show by the State college publicity department in anticipation of the Willamette fray tomorrow afternoon. The program is to have a wide appeal and will not be limited strictly to football, according to Walt Bradbury, local publicity director, who arranged for the show.

Beryl "Tiny" Davidson, drum majorette, will be mistress of ceremonies for the radio show, which will begin with the Alma Mater and an address by Clarence Phelps of the College.

Miss Davidson will carry on interviews with officials from the local institution during the show besides city notables. First to be interviewed will be student body president Douglas Duckham, of S. B., Don Follett, graduate manager of the College will be called on for terse cross-examinations also. Bradbury will tell school.

of the respective merits of the College Glee club and a "swing" section of the Gaucho band will carry the continuity of the show between different interviews and speakers and will open and close the program. Coach Theo "Spud" Harder and Sports Editor Frances Becchio, of the Gaucho staff, will round out the list of campus persons to appear on the show. Elmer Swartzberg, Roy E. Gammill and Frank Coryell, local merchants, will also appear.

It is reported that if this show proves successful from the standpoint of radio value that it may be repeated previous to the forthcoming games during the rest of the season.

S. B. State Cancels Mines Tilt

College Officials Seek Substitution For Texas Game

Negotiations were being made today at State college to schedule another game to take the place of the recently cancelled Texas Mines-Gaucho football encounter originally planned for October 29. Since yesterday Coach Spud Harder and Graduate Manager Don Follett have been contacting several out-of-state schools in the attempt to find a substitute.

Among the schools receiving consideration are Brigham Young university, Colorado School of Mines, and an unnamed college in Arizona. Follett expects to obtain definite word from one of the schools sometime today.

Decision Made Yesterday

The decision to remove Texas Mines from the 1938 Gaucho schedule was made yesterday morning at 10:30 when an agreement could not be reached regarding the playing of two State College Negroes.

Several telephone conversations between Follett and Max Saxon, Mines coach, during the past few days were of no avail in settling the matter. Attempts were made to have the game played in Santa Barbara instead of El Paso, and when this failed, a neutral site was considered. This plan, too, was refused by the Texas college because of a state ruling which forbids Texas gridiron squads from competing against Negro players.

Harder Refuses

Negotiations had been kept open by the Southerners during this period in hopes that Coach Spud Harder would drop the two players in question from the lineup for the one game. The Gaucho mentor however, flatly refused to weaken his team by such a move.

State college entertained the Miners in Santa Barbara last season and the two squads battled to a 13-13 tie on the Peabody stadium turf. This year's game was to have been played in fulfillment of a two-game contract. Last week Greeley State fell before the onslaught of the Miners and their star, Ken Heineman, 33-0. Mel Dennis and Larry Pickens, the two men in question have been mainstays for the Hardermen all season. Pickens, especially, has held the spotlight in most games.

Gamma Deltas Honor Members of Faculty

Gamma Delta Chi sorority, honored State college faculty members at an open house tea Wednesday from 3 to 6 p.m. at 1822 Loma street. Invitations were also extended to all social sororities and fraternities.

The reception was conducted in an informal style, with flowers as the main decoration. Margaret McMath, chairman of this affair was assisted by Jean Leslie and Mildred Peterson.

Lab Fees Office Calls For Payment

Laboratory and library fees may be paid in the financial office all next week, according to an announcement from the financial secretary. Final day upon which fees may be paid is next Friday. The compulsory library fee is $3.

Game Leaders Try Separate Yell Sections

Rally Committee Require Men to Wear Hats, All Women Have Pom-Poms

Separate men's and women's rooting sections will be organized Saturday afternoon at the opening of the new stadium, according to Bud Burdick, head yell leader, only women who have pom-poms and the men with rooters' caps are eligible to sit in the sections. The seats are on the fifty yard line and will be roped off for rooters only.

Women will sit in section F and men in section G. The combined men and women are urged to sit closely together in their individual sections. Women are to fill their section starting from the first row and men will fill their section starting from the third row. The band will occupy the first three rows in the men's section.

Pom-poms will be sold today at noon in the quad, tonight at the rally and Saturday at the game. Rooters' caps can be purchased in Don Follett's office today, at the rally tonight and at the game Saturday. Pom-poms will be 25 cents and rooters' caps will be 50 cents.

Everyone is urged to purchase one to help organize a real rooting section. The Crown and Scepter, headed by Dorothy Roberts, have charge of selling pom-poms while the Gavel and Key, headed by Jack Kitchen, will sell rooters' caps.

The yell leaders and song leaders ask everyone to turn out and help make the finest rooting section State has ever had.

Science Group Hears Reports

Reports on library readings of biological subjects were given at the regular meeting of the Leaf and Scarab last night at 7:30 in Room 52. Preston Hanley, president of the organization, presided.

The club was organized last year for those students interested in the study of biology and having a B average and a certain number of units in a biology course. Dr. Elmer Noble is the sponsor of the group, which meets twice a month, goes on field trips and hears speakers. Purpose of the club is to give those students interested a chance to practice in scientific research work.

The officers other than Hanley are vice-president, Betty Thompson, and secretary-treasurer, Charles Ferrari.

Rehearsals Start Today For Plays

Student Directors Cast Final Roles For Presentations

Work will begin this afternoon on the student produced one-act plays with first rehearsal scheduled for 2 p.m. with Adell Wilson, Rosalind Bradbury, Thomas Kelly and Jimmie Fullerton, directors, in charge. After outlining details of the productions, which will be shown on one bill soon, the different casts will adjourn to rehearsal rooms.

Final casting for two parts in "Blood On My Hands" and one part in "The Stepmother" will take place this afternoon at the same time under the directors Fullerton and Miss Wilson, respectively. People wishing to serve on the staff for the shows are required to attend this meeting for appointments also.

Use Freshmen

As a new phase in the work of the Speech Arts branch of the English department the one-act plays are employing freshmen, primarily, with upper class students of speech directing the presentations. This is an effort to train fresh for work in the regular shows of the Speech Arts branch as experienced players.

Other Parts

"The Stepmother"—Lady Pembury, Esther Walters; The Stranger, Clyde Cadwell; Sir John Pembury, Arthur Suffolk; "Blood On My Hands"—Italian Officer, Robert Perry; Nurse, Margaret Glassford.

The three parts not yet cast are a comedy butler role in "The Stepmother" and the part of a young boy soldier and a hardened war veteran for "Blood On My Hands." These parts are now open to other students beside freshmen, if there are not sufficient yearling men turning out for the trials today.

Senior Class Hears Speaker

With Yale Lorden '37, billed as the principle speaker, the senior class officers today announced that a class breakfast meeting will be held in the college cafeteria October 25, at 7 a.m.

Lorden, a teacher in the Santa Barbara City school system, will speak on his trip to northern Europe this past summer, during which he was a private tutor for a prominent El Paso, Texas, family.

Seniors who have paid class dues will be admitted free.

Grid Squad Breaks Turf Against 'Cats In Tilt Tomorrow

Homecoming Game Against San Jose Marks Official Opening of Adjunct To $2,000,000 Future College Campus

Unofficial opening of Santa Barbara State's new football stadium will be observed tomorrow at 2:15 p.m. when the Gauchos meet the Bearcats from Willamette, Oregon. For the first time in the history of the local institution, a team will be sent into competition on territory owned by the College.

Officially, the stadium will be opened during Homecoming for the game with San Jose State on November 5. By this time, the lights being re-planted from Peabody stadium, the Santa Barbara high school field, are expected to be ready for use. Announcement of the appropriation by the state of California for removal of the lights was made earlier this week.

Name Contest

By Homecoming, the contest for selecting a name for the new stadium will be over and the stadium is expected to be officially titled. Judges in the contest are President Clarence Phelps, Dean Charles L. Jacobs and T. M. Storke, Santa Barbara publishers.

For tomorrow's game, the stadium will seat 5,000 on the concrete stands occupying the north side of the field. When completed for next season's football contests, the arena on the Leadbetter beach site will seat 12,000, the largest gathering place in Santa Barbara.

$2,000,000 Adjunct

Word that the College would receive the new stadium as an adjunct to the proposed $2,000,000 campus was received last May. Work was carried on throughout the summer and the field was completed in time for tomorrow's tilt.

From the specially constructed broadcasting booth in the stadium, Al Williams, KTMS sports announcer will give a play-by-play report of proceedings.

Coffin Plans Correlation

Following the plan of Walter Dexter, state superintendent of public instruction, to correlate the activities of the seven state colleges, J. Hirschel Coffin of Whittier will confer today and tomorrow with President Clarence Phelps and the State college faculty.

Coffin is serving in the capacity of Dexter's agent and visiting the colleges throughout California in an endeavor to secure a better organization of the various teaching departments.

Tomorrow the visitor will be the guest of President Phelps at the Willamette-Gaucho football game in the new stadium.

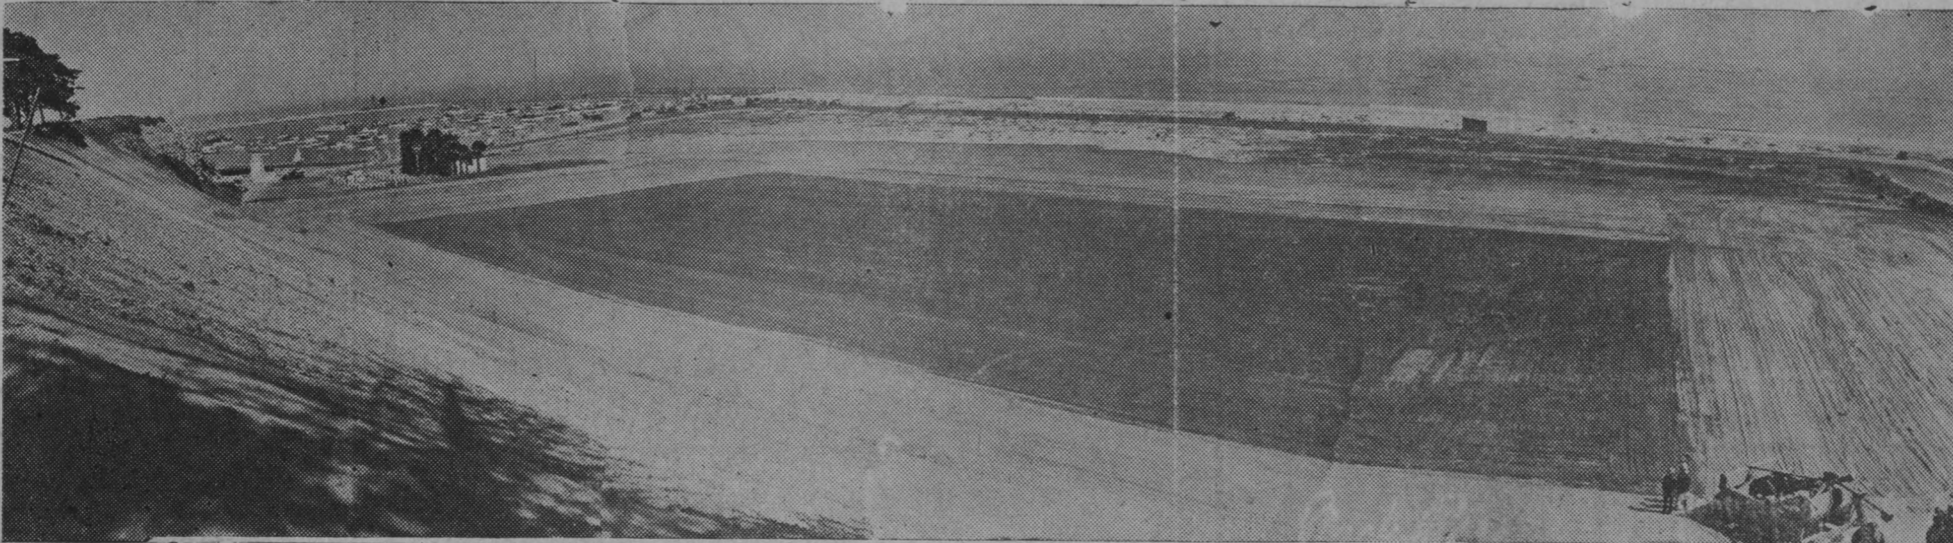

Taylor Seeks Chess Players for Club

Organization of a chess club in the college is being considered by Louie Taylor, Industrial Education instructor. In collaboration with those who can play chess, Taylor is also considering formation of a chess team for off-campus competition.

The back-pedaling policy taken by the Welfare committee in discontinuing the freshman beanie tradition for this semester, appears to be the worst possible solution...

Beanie Ruling Strikes Blow at Basic Tradition

Instead of striking at the cause of the problem and issuing an appeal to pranksters asking them to refrain from such practices...

Granted is the fact that until this semester the enforcement of the tradition has been rather nil. Threats were made but never inflicted.

To trace this latter statement to its source, we find that the proposed destinies of the green caps have been many and varied this semester.

If for no other reason, this step should not have been taken so that the committee could not be accused of inexactness in policy.

The reason for discontinuing the use does not even seem to be a plausible one. Surely not more than ten or twelve percent of all the beanies could have been taken.

To make matters worse, the committee's recommendation that the beanies still be worn looks like an attempt at the arbitration of an action that is definitely known to be in disfavor.

Lewis Causes Unions To Face Showdown

Industrial unionism or craft unionism? The result of the great American labor conflict between the Committee for Industrial Organization and the American Federation of Labor is still in doubt.

This is the time when all labor should be uniting to drive out the last vestiges of the sweat shop, long hours, sub-standard pay, unsanitary and unsafe working conditions, and all the other cardinal sins of this industrial age.

Organized labor stands today at the cross roads. It can, in the next few years become the great champion of human rights and American democracy or it can fall into oblivion and chaos.

The answer may lie with William Green, for Lewis has thrown the decision to him. Industrial unionism is not incompatible with craft unionism; undoubtedly there is room for both in the labor movement.

We'll never be sorry for taking the trip to San Francisco last week. Two things were satisfied in regard to a questioning mind.

Secondly, the Associated Students have proved that as a whole they have grown out of their childish actions. Instead of bragging about the number of hotels that do not want Gauchos as guests...

We have another organization on our campus to be proud of, and that is our band, under the direction of Student Director Johnny Austin and Mr. Robert Barron.

Last Thursday I was present at a meeting of the Southern California group of student body presidents and from this meeting came many good ideas.

How about a regular night once every month for talent shows and all around good times?

A "Jalopy Parade" for homecoming rally. We could even include that famous frosh class of '42 car that was baptized in the quad pool.

A "Pajama Parade" open to all men, subject to censorship of course, for inducing rally spirit. Wouldn't a group of women judges have fun?

Here's an important item discussed, that of jitterbugs. Unfortunately it seems that one student body seems to be the only one where this type of dancing is causing any furor.

According to the other student presidents, it seems that their students feel that the jitterbugs belong to high school. As a matter of fact, many have asked that some type of restriction be placed upon our dancers so that those who like to dance can use the extra space taken up by those who like to throw their partners from here to there.

"Yep, we ought to have more tests—if we had more of them the monotony of the instructor's lectures would be broken because with the tests to give you your grade, you don't have to pay such close attention in class!" We sent a reporter out the other day to find out when and if the furniture for Ridge hall was arriving. The reporter, whose frequent contributions are characterized by a blessed lack of imagination, returned with a woebegone expression. No story.

We are doomed, she stated, to sit forever on the match box constructions now prevalent in Ridge hall. In attempting to take notes, we will all twist and squirm until our anatomies resemble nothing so much as a pretzel gone wrong.

Why? All because of the ingratitude of a few men. We, the taxpayers of California have been considerate enough to support a number of men for the remainder of their natural lives in the quiet and seclusion of San Quentin penitentiary.

In view of these facts, it seems perfectly logical to assume that when an order is put in for chairs to furnish our Ridge hall, the San Quentin lifers would be more than willing to speed up production. But, no such gratitude exists.

By this time, we are almost accustomed to the informality of California schools and to the comparatively slow pace in campus activity. One thing, however, is entirely beyond our comprehension.

Last week John Beal opened in "Soliloquy" at the Lobero theater. An individual on the campus who is conscientious about such things, obtained student rates for anyone on the campus interested and went to the trouble of having cards printed.

Whether it's a lack of interest in the finer things of life, a lack of funds or just a lack of gray matter, it is difficult for us to determine. We are certain that "Soliloquy" will pack 'em in on Broadway.

Understand, we are not highbrow. In fact, at the rally tonight we will be one of the loudest shouters in the audience. If last week's rally for the S.F.U. game was any criterion tonight's affair will surpass any pep session ever held on the campus.

We will also be on the fifty yard line at the game tomorrow to watch the Gauchos manhandle the Willamette Bearcats. After the Don fracas, we look for the Harder contingent to send the Oregonians back with their respective tails between their legs.

Incidentally, with the opening of the new stadium, El Gaucho goes big time in more ways than one. Yell leaders Bud Burdick and song leader Harriet Ridenour have organized separate rooting sections for men and women with all the accompanying pom-poms and white shirts. It should be an interesting experiment.

LAST Opportunity for you and me to get in on the special sale of reserved seat tickets for Speech Arts theater presentations this year seems to be this week. Now, I'm not going to tell you to buy one, that's too obvious, but I will say this, you will see four of the best legitimate theater presentations that you will have an opportunity to see during the year. You will save yourself the trouble of worrying about the 50 cents to pay for each show as it comes. You will save yourself $1. You will be helping an Associated Students activity by supporting the plays. And last you will receive as a bonus one extra ticket for the first show, which may be sold for 50 cents. All members of the Player's club, honorary Thespian group of the College, have these tickets in their possession and you may have one by crossing any of their palms with one silver, paper or compounded dollar.

NEXT Week, the Lobero theater management, through the sponsorship of the American Committee on Maternal Welfare, incorporated, will present a show titled "Birth of A Baby". It will be presented nightly at 7 and 9 o'clock from October 20 and 27 and will be shown at three matinees on Saturday, October 22, Sunday, October 23 and Wednesday, October 26.

MYRA Kinch, who has the most beautiful exotic eyes of any person in theatrical dancing, once upon a time performed for my express benefit on Olvera street restaurant in Los Angeles. I really enjoyed that evening, but I didn't know why until recently, when I saw those Kinch eyes and dance again. Miss Kinch was once with Ted "Is Everybody Happy" Lewis and his band, has traveled with Max Reinhardt, worked for Le Roy Prinz and played for Paramount pictures. Among other achievements, she has built the L.A. Federal theater dance group into one of the best.

PERFECT Is her record and repertoire to be presented at the Lobero theater on Wednesday, October 19, at 8:30 p.m. Her program will consist of three parts: "Our American Holidays," "Dance Satires" and "Let My People Go." The latter has achieved wide popularity and very favorable comment for the impressions given by it when presented. It is something that everyone should try to attend as it is a new type of entertainment that will quickly gain in popularity and admission cost during the course of the next few years.

Emphasizing the fact that the topic under discussion is one that all the faculty members should thoroughly understand, Dr. Halterman said that plans have been made to cover the subject completely.

The subject of the meeting, the Health Insurance Plans, will be handled by a representative from a downtown agency who will discuss the plans of his agency for Health Insurance.

The association meets three or four times a semester, the dates being set at the discretion of the president and all the matters taken up at these meetings are of a business nature.

Other officers of the Faculty association this semester are Dr. Hazel W. Severy, head of the science department, vice-president; Dr. Katherine Kinsel, science instructor, secretary; and Fred L. Griffin, industrial education instructor, treasurer.

Phi Kaps, T. O. Hold Dance

Final plans have been completed by the Phi Kappa Gamma social sorority for a dance in conjunction with Tau Omega fraternity tomorrow night at Rockwood. The affair will last from 9 to 12.

Arrangements were made at the Monday night meeting of the sorority. Plans for homecoming and for work on the clubroom were also discussed.

Men Students Hear Coaches At Session

President Trewhitt Slates Discussion of Plans For Fair, Conference

Second monthly meeting of the Associated Men students will take place Tuesday in Pine hall at 8:50 a.m. Scheduled as featured speakers are head football coach Soud Harder and assistant Willie Wilton.

To be discussed at the meeting, according to DeWitt Trewhitt, Associated Men students president, will be plans for a fair to be run by the A.M.S., and a conference for all men of the College.

Cabinet Idea The fair, to be given on the campus at a date not yet settled upon, will be an innovation. The idea was conceived by the members of the A.M.S. cabinet. No date for the conference has as yet been decided, but both matters will be brought up at the meeting for consideration by the men in attendance.

With the freshman-sophomore brawl out of the way, and the ruling by the welfare committee regarding frosh beanies, the subject of the remaining traditions on the campus will be discussed and methods suggested by which they may be carried out.

Remaining Affairs In line with Trewhitt's fourteen-point program for the Associated Men students, the remaining affairs on the calendar will be brought up. These include smokers, stags, and overnight trips.

Cabinet Members beside Trewhitt include Marvin Palmer, first vice-president; Fred Baer, secretary-treasurer; Bill Sears, social chairman; and Waldo Phelps, second vice-president.

Relations Club Plans Poll

Meeting Tuesday night, at the home of Dr. Harry K. Girvetz, on Mission Ridge road, the International Relations club discussed the United States neutrality act in relation to the Spanish conflict. Also discussed at the meeting were a dinner for the members of the club, and plans for a campus poll.

Arrangements for the campus poll to be held by the club are now under way. Ballots will be composed, and everybody on the campus will be asked to vote. The issues of the poll will be on local and international affairs, and will be decided upon in the near future.

Kelly Takes Art Bureau Headship

Committee Hears Final Auditions at Thursday Meeting

Thomas Kelly, junior student, was appointed to succeed Jerry Ferris as director of the State college artist bureau at the bureau committee meeting yesterday afternoon in the Music Concert hall. Mildred Fabing, senior, will serve as secretary for the group, according to Kelly.

More talent was reviewed before the group at the final auditions held yesterday afternoon and final plans for organizations were made by the committee in charge. As assistants on the committee for the direction of the Bureau's business Gene Flanagan, Bud Burdick, Pat Kelly, Lloyd Borstelmann, Mike Mapa, and Jerry Ferris will serve with the two officers.

Status Cleared After clearing up a question of legality with the United States Labor commissioner's office the new department is firmly set on the campus as an organization and will function completely from now on. Several programs have already been promised by the group for sponsors both on and off the campus.

During the coming week, Kelly will send out notices to students who have been reported as being talented and contact them for the purpose of signing them up for the Artist bureau.

Bureau Files All organizations both on and off the campus are urged to make use of the Bureau's files and services. Requests for dance orchestras must be in at least two weeks in advance of the program and talent shows must be arranged for one week in advance. Societies, however, with more than one-third of the total membership made up of A.S. book holders will find the fee optional.

Files of the group now include the following variety of entertainments: singers, dancers, duos, (both vocal and instrumental) comedy teams, ventriloquists, magicians, swing dancers, tumblers, acrobatic dancers, hill billies, impersonators, dramatic readers, composers, orchestras, instrumental soloists and personality men and women. Resignation of Jerry Ferris from the chairmanship of the group, was necessitated by too much work on an off-campus job that requires more of his time than previously, according to Kelly.

Lobero Books Myra Kinch's Terpsichoreans For One Night Showing Next Wednesday

'Kind Lady' Uses Painting Of Cowherd

Criminal in Play Displays Work of Art as Original For Ulterior Purposes

Major interest for the players in "Kind Lady" production the other night was the presentation of a work of art for use in the action of the play by the State college art department. The painting is used by Don Estey, as Henry Abbott, super criminal, as an original work of his own in forcing his entrance into the home of Mary Harries, the kind lady, played by Jane Ellen Van Wye.

The picture displays cows in a pasture with the cowherd in lovely country setting. The only real trouble is felt even in the attitude of the attending herder, who wears an expression of positive blissful jest and is facing the artist much in the manner of "camera shy" public in news reel mob scenes. The center of the scene is a beautifully picturesque rear view of a cow.

The object of art will appear in the "Kind Lady" show on October 27, 28 and 29 in the Administration auditorium as an object part of the collection of valuables owned by the kind lady and which Abbott and his gang, played by Jean Smith, Harry G. Shumway, Violette Glahn, and Maxine Sudbury. Battling against them to save both Miss Harries and her antiques will be Winifred Nichols, Janine Rupertus, Ethelrose Orloff, Bob Hatcher, Clyde Cadwell, and Herbert Lowenstein, in an off-hand manner.

AMS Sponsors Organization

First meeting of the new non-fraternity organization sponsored by the A.M.S. for all men of the College will take place Tuesday night at 7:30 at the home of Captain Paul A. Jones, dean of men. A program of entertainment will be presented, and refreshments will be served.

According to Waldo Phelps, second vice-president of the A.M.S., who is in charge of arrangements for the formation of the organization, definite plans for construction have been made. At Tuesday's meeting, an election of officers will take place a definite date set for meeting nights and suggestions for a name for the group will be considered.

Myra Kinch, famed danseuse, bring her entire troupe of terpsichoreans to the Lobero theater next Wednesday evening at 8:30 for a one night stand in her Western tour for 1938-1939. Special student rates are being handled through Elizabeth Sehon, women's physical education instructor, and may be secured during the week.

Miss Kinch is noted in Southern California theatrical circles for her work with the Federal Theater project modern dance group in Los Angeles and her dancing on Olvera street in the southern city and with Ted Lewis and his orchestra. Her troupe is made up of many of the State's leading dancers both male and female and features modern and ultra-modern dance numbers.

The program for the night will include three sections of dancing each of which will be divided again into smaller sections. In the first part the aesthetics will display their interpretation of "Our American Holidays" by their physical action. In the second "Dance Satires" will portray take-offs on clubwomen, sarabande, bolero, acrobatic minuet, and dirvish. The third part for which Miss Kinch has been accorded wide-spread acclaim is known as "Let My People Go" and is a story in two sections concerning the history of the Negro race.

The purpose of the group is to begin a folk dance group for the United States which seemingly lacks utterly any form of country folk dance. This will probably be the last opportunity for anyone to see this dance group at the exceedingly low prices set for the showing.

Pennsylvania State college authorities are considering an astronomical study project which calls for the construction of nine observatories on its campus.

Beck's Bets

By FRANCIS BECCHIO

History will be made tomorrow afternoon for Santa Barbara State when its gridiron heroes open the new college stadium at Leadbetter beach—the first official State college stadium. When the whistle blows signaling the start of the Gauchos' battle with Willamette, it will indeed be an important milestone since it will mark the first time a State team has engaged in gridiron warfare on its own turf.

We are confident the 1938 varsity to whom the honor goes of dedicating the new field will start things off in proper fashion by registering an impressive triumph over the invading Bearcats. Good luck, Gauchos, and may you never lose a game on the new gridiron.

WIDE OPEN GAME

One of the most colorful games of the season looms for tomorrow afternoon. Certainly, it will be a wide open battle, with both teams resorting to air maneuvers because of the impotency of the respective ground attacks. Willamette, exponents of the tricky Warner style of play, is expected to mix up intricate reverses with an aerial bombardment. Both teams stack up fairly evenly with Santa Barbara conceding a slight edge because of playing at home.

BEST BET

Bouquets to "Tiny" Beryl Davidson for her contagious enthusiasm. The petite songleader has done more to inject spirit into State's rooters than any one person on the campus. and, in fact, more than the entire rally committee. "Tiny" exemplifies what this columnist has stressed as necessary for the success of the Gaucho football eleven.

She stood out as the outstanding personality at the U.S.F. game and quoting one of the Jesuit fathers who attended the contest, "Miss Davidson certainly accomplished a great deal in creating goodwill for Santa Barbara, and along with the Gaucho band, was the 'talk of the town'." And though State lost the game, the "Gauchos walked off with the artistic honors" as one San Francisco paper put it. This comment was inspired by the band's exhibition and "Tiny's" manifestations of school spirit. Yes, "Tiny" is indeed the best bet of the week for laurels at tomorrow afternoon's game.

FROSH DETERMINED

Undismayed by their setback last week at the hands of the Bakersfield Jaysee Renegades, a determined band of Gauchos will invade Compton tonight to engage the potent Compton Jaysee Tartars in one of the freshmen's "big" games of the year. Coach Danny Mulock's lads have held a series of determined workouts this past week and are primed for tonight's clash, ready to bring home a victory. Go to it Greenies. We're with you 100% and admire your pluck.

Unbeaten Dons Face Pasadena Tonight

The undefeated, untied, and unscored upon team from Santa Barbara High swings into action again this evening at Peabody stadium at 8 o'clock. The Dons' opponent will be Pasadena High school, the same team that held the great Don team of last year to a scoreless tie.

The Pasadena team uses thirteenth graders while Santa Barbara only goes as high as the twelfth grade. The Dons will play without the services of three of their outstanding players this evening, Sylvester, Keiper, and Gullatte being on the injured list. But never-the-less a very close game is in prospect as the Vaqueros have been working hard this week and are pointing for this game to avenge last year's deadlock.

WING BACK BLOCKS

A wing back is a backfield man who plays slightly behind and just beyond the end of the line, in the popular Warner system of offense. Out there on the "wing" this back is in a position to help block opposing tackle as soon as play starts.

Bearcats Arrive for State Clash Tomorrow

Willamette Set for Tilt With Locals

Hilltoppers Will Take to Air, Seeking Win Over Rivals

With two defeats and a victory to their credit the Galloping Gauchos are all set to make it two and two when they encounter the Willamette Bearcats on the turf at the new college stadium tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Willamette university comes to Santa Barbara with a record over the last few years which almost exactly parallels the record of the Gauchos. Saturday's game will be a meeting of football twins and should prove to be the most colorful game played on the local field for some time.

A squad of 30 clear eyed, husky built youths arrive in town this evening with a grim determination to get back on the win trail. They have lost their last two contests and a victory over the Green and White will enable them to return home without their heads hanging. Only one of the first string men was left at home due to injuries. He is Jim McKinney, regular sophomore guard, who suffered one of football's most peculiar accidents in the Portland game which they lost in the closing minutes 12-7.

Fine Physical Shape

The squad is in fine physical fettle and have been withstanding the effects of the Southern California sun, which has long been a bugaboo to the grid aggregations of the Pacific Northwest, remarkably well. After their game with the San Diego Marines last Saturday down in the hot country Santa Barbara will seem like home to the Bearcats.

Coach Keene will probably start the same backfield that played so well against Portland university. Neil Shaffer, plunging fullback and star of the Portland encounter will again get the call at the line bucking spot. At the tailback post or left halfback will be Bunny Bennett, triple threat speedster and signal caller. Justin Weakley, who packs the ball on reverses for numerous gains, will probably be named for the right halfback position. He specializes in blocking. Art Gallon, two-year letterman, will start at the quarterback post.

Take to Air

Their overhead game completely stopped by U.S.F. last week, the Gauchos under headman Spud Harder and Willie Wilton have been working hard to raise it up to the standard set in the last quarter of the Greeley State game when the Gauchos completed two in a row for scores. Peirino Merlo, ace passer, who threw some beautiful tosses in the Frisco game has been oiling up his firing arm and seems to be set for a big day tomorrow. Against the Dons Merlo's pitches were straight to the mark but Tex Magness who replaced Larry Pickens couldn't hang on to them.

The terrific three of the U.S.F. contest, George Valos, Jack Smith and Bill McArthur are in fine shape and should cause the Bearcats no end of worry. The Willamette boys will probably think that they have a five man backfield as Valos plans to play back there most of the game.

Gauchos Hope to re-enact scene tomorrow

Terence Denley and Ray Regolado, Gaucho gridiron stalwarts, hope to re-enact the above play tomorrow afternoon against the Willamette Bearcats. And the Hardermen are determined to give Denley a chance to prove his goal-kicking ability by scoring several touchdowns.

Sticklers Provide Football Oracles With Difficult Task

What sticklers. That was the consensus of opinion of the Students' Football Selection committee members as they met in session to prognosticate this weekend's grid titanic throughout the country.

George Soule, who shattered all scoring records last week with a 30½ point total, was the most pessimistic of the group, while to the amazement of everyone present, Betty Caldwell, newcomer to the group was optimistic. She is the only feminine prognosticator represented and hopes to become the first woman student to remain on the committee but the male contenders figure differently on this score, vowing not to allow any "fem" to usurp their psychic powers.

Nearest Score

The object of the football selection committee is to pick the nearest correct score. The six highest prognosticators at the end of the regular season will be feted to a steak dinner at Elmer's. Points are given as follows: 5 for nearest correct score (10 for picking exact score) 3 for second, 1 for third.

Games tabulated this week are: U.C.L.A. vs. California, Washington State vs. Trojans, Oregon U. vs. Stanford, Whittier vs. Occidental, Texas Christian vs. Texas A and M, Navy vs. Yale, Georgia Tech vs. Duke, Oregon State vs. Washington Pasadena High vs. Dons, Willamette vs. Gauchos.

Gaucho Nine Meets Local Club Sunday

The recently organized Gaucho All Stars go into action Sunday afternoon at Pershing park against the new combined team of Tracy's All-Stars and the Brown Derby. The game will be called at 2:15 o'clock.

Business Manager Dave Jones of the collegians urges as many students to turn out for Sunday's contest as possible. He stated that it will be one of the toughest games on the Gaucho team's winter schedule. The Gauchos boast one victory in their only start of the current campaign.

Probable lineup for the Gauchos will be: Wilson c, Jim or Jack Fitzgerald p, Graham 1b, Markham 2b, Ripsch 3b, Hallen ss, Russell lf, West cf, Goyette or Morgan rf.

Facing the toughest team on their toughest schedule, the Santa Barbara State college Gauchos go into their game against Compton Junior college as underdogs, when the two teams clash tonight in the Tartar stadium.

In order to get into shape for this tough game, the freshman squad has been scrimmaging the heavy Gaucho varsity during the past week. Many times the Gauchos showed flashes of offensive strength, but were outmaneuvered most of the time by a heavier varsity.

Garcia Threat

General "Goosy" Garcia, star triple threat back who calls signals for the Gauchito squad might prove to be the fly in the highly touted Southern eleven's ointment. Last week the General showed his great ability by flinging perfect strikes into the arms of Clayton, and Goyette that carried the frosh eleven deep into Renegade territory twice.

This will be the third game of the season for the Gauchos. They defeated the Ventura J.C. Pirates 7 to 6 in their season opener, and last week lost to the Bakersfield Jaysee Renegade eleven 20 to 0.

Compton boasts one of the best junior college elevens in Southern California. Last week they came from behind to score a spectacular 14 to 10 victory over a strong Modesto Junior college squad.

Starting Lineup

The starting lineup for the Compton game will be: Swank and West fall at ends; Lair and Shay at tackles; Heesey and Engle at guards; and Cliff Wrightson at center. In the backfield Garcia will take his quarterback post, Clayton and Goyette the halfback positions, and Don Rickers at fullback.

Ashby at tackle, and Jones at center, will be out for the game due to injuries. Clarence Lair has an injured foot and Stalke has an injured leg, but both will probably see some action in the game tonight.
