Beggars' Opera opens Fri. Night

RHA Formal 'Les Soirees' Scheduled for Saturday

The Fall RHA Formal will bring (Dance), Ken Fields (Duo), and Danny Nalbandian (Duo). The dance was held in the campus auditorium. "The Beggar's Opera," presented by the El Molino Players and the UCSB Players, was scheduled for two performances on November 15 and 16. The evening was dominated by the music and dance, but the atmosphere was enhanced by the costumes and sets. The story concerns Mac-

What Price Morality?

To the Editor of the Gaucho:

I believe that Miss Williams was not thinking clearly in her letter last week. The law is not an attempt to censor the arts, but to control the sex-life of our youth. If we wish to protect them, we must keep them out of the gutter, and at the same time give them the best that our culture has to offer. The law is not a threat, but a defense of the American character.

Sincerely,

Amelia B. Thompson

Mystics and Menaces

The word game played by those who oppose any sort of censorship is a very old one. As early as 1886, a Los Angeles newspaper used the word "mystic" to refer to those who were in favor of censorship. Today, the word is used to refer to those who are opposed to censorship.

In our democracy, we believe in the right of free speech and the right to be heard. But we also believe in the responsibility of those who speak to do so in a responsible manner. The law is designed to protect us from those who would use their freedom to harm others.

The law is not a threat, but a defense of the American character.

Sincerely,

Edward J. Smith

Amateur Guilty

The first performance of the "Amateur Guilty" at the Civic Theatre was on Dec. 7 at the Lobero. The show was well received, and the audience was unanimous in its favor.

In our democracy, we believe in the right of free speech and the right to be heard. But we also believe in the responsibility of those who speak to do so in a responsible manner. The law is designed to protect us from those who would use their freedom to harm others.

The law is not a threat, but a defense of the American character.

Sincerely,

Richard J. Brown

Filters for flavor—finest flavor by far!

Tareyton

The "Gauze" by Brooks Williams

DEFINITIONS FOR FRESH
tobacco

1. A combination of tobacco with a filter. It is called "filtered." This means that the tobacco is not smoked directly by the person using it, but by a filter. The filter is used to remove certain impurities from the tobacco.

2. A combination of tobacco with a filter. It is called "non-filtered." This means that the tobacco is smoked directly by the person using it.

Tareyton has the taste—
Dual Filter does it!

Here's how the Dual FILTER does it:

1. It combines a unique inner filter of ACTIVATED CHARCOAL... definitely causes to loose a taste of a tobacco and 2. with a pure white outer filter. Together they seal and balance the flavor of Tareyton. Tareyton's flavor balances out the harsh taste of the tobacco.

LANDAU STRESSES AFRICAN PROBLEM

Professor Elia, a retired professor of economics, delivered the annual report of the Institute for Social Research at the University of California last week. The institute, which is one of the most active in the field of African studies, was founded in 1960 by Dr. Robert M. Norris, a noted economist and political scientist.

The report covers the growth of the institute over the past year, as well as its plans for the future. Among the highlights of the report are the following:

- The institute has expanded its research team to include 10 new scholars, bringing the total number of researchers to 30.
- The institute has received funding from the National Science Foundation to conduct a study of the impact of economic policies on African economies.
- The institute has launched a new online journal, African Studies Review, which will feature articles on a wide range of topics related to African studies.

The institute's director, Dr. Robert M. Norris, said, "We are committed to advancing the understanding of African societies and economies through rigorous research and disseminating our findings to a broad audience."

TIFFANY LECTURES ON TODAY'S DANCE

Tiffany's new term, demonstrating dance in "Ballet World." Miss Tiffany's own choreography, along with the.. various colleges and universities, was the theme of the Dance Workshop at UC Santa Barbara. The workshop was held in the Little Theatre on the UCSB campus.

Welcome to Tiffany's lecture series on today's dance. She will be discussing the various aspects of the art form, including its history, techniques, and current trends.

Miss Tiffany will perform excerpts from her own works in addition to discussing the works of other choreographers.

The workshop will be open to the public and will provide an opportunity for attendees to observe and learn about the art of dance.

Tiffany, who has been a professional dancer and choreographer for over 50 years, will share her knowledge and experience with those interested in the field.

This lecture series is sponsored by the UCSB Dance Workshop and is free to the public. Registration is not required, but attendees are encouraged to arrive early to secure a seat.

Miss Tiffany's lectures are supported by a grant from the University of California, Santa Barbara, and are made possible through the generosity of donors.

For more information on upcoming lectures and events, please visit the UCSB Dance Workshop website or contact the event coordinator at (805) 682-4242.

SAE FOOTBALLERS look ticked at the decision of the rule that in last week's championship intramural football contest. Undaunted, the SAEs secured victory in the invitational game.

CO-CAPTAINS CONTRIBUTE

Don Smith and Ed Nelson, co-captains of the Gauchos for the last two years, ended Saturday's thrilling, intercollegiate water polo season. In their final game, a victory that will be chronicled in this newspaper next week, Nelson and Smith proved themselves to be real playmakers, hitting 89 goals and taking a hand in 56 more in his stint with the team.

HORSEMEAN TO MEET

The backhurling riding contest will hold a meeting in the assembly room this afternoon at 4 P.M. of the Student Council to start the month. The riding group hopes to encourage its membership to meet once a week throughout the month. Little girls are held twice a month in the final night of beach rides.

SAE TAKES SECOND FOOTBALL CROWN

SAE Fraternity donated one down-three yard line, giving the Gauchos a chance to make a field goal. The SAEs secured the ball on a down from scrimmage and moved the ball until they reached the final line of scrimmage, falling short and giving the Gauchos an opportunity to make a field goal. The Gauchos were unable to score, and the SAEs were victorious by 14-0.
