ROADRUNNERS vs. LA VERNE SATURDAY

BIGGEST GAME OF YEAR ON HOME FIELD

Contest Promises Many Exciting Moments

Tomorrow afternoon at Pershing Park the Roadrunners meet La Verne in a crucial game, in an effort to break La Verne's unbroken string of athletic victories over this institution. In the fall of 1922, La Verne conquered the Green and White twice, the first game ending 25-0, and the second 14-0. Last year there was but one contest, this resulting in an exciting 26-12 victory for La Verne. This year, spirit is running high between the two teams. One interesting factor entering into the spirit of the teams this year is the fact that there are three former La Verne men on the Roadrunners' varsity squad—Garber, Gillett and Brownsberger. These men are all anxious to show their allegiance to the Green and White by achieving a victory, while La Verne will come here with the intention of putting these three out of the game as soon as possible.

PRESIDENT PHELPS LEAVES FOR BERKELEY

President Phelps leaves tonight for Berkeley in order to be there for a meeting Saturday morning with representatives from the State Board of Education of Sacramento, from the State University and State Teachers Colleges. President Phelps is one of the two representatives for the State Teachers Colleges. After this meeting President Phelps leaves for Fresno, where he attends an alumni meeting of the Valley Association.

MISS GLATIN ELECTED A. W. S. VICE-PRESIDENT

Marguerite Glatin was elected vice-president of the A. W. S. at the meeting of that organization held last Tuesday. The election was made necessary through the resignation of Carrie Smith, former vice-president.

It was voted to send three official delegates, the president and two others, to the convention of women students which will be held in Fresno. Clara Ziegeler and Etta Burnett were chosen to represent the A. W. S.

COLLEGE STUDENTS MARRIED QUIETLY

Carol De Motte and Carroll Dawley were married Saturday morning at the Methodist Church. The quiet and simple wedding was solemnized by Rev. Samuel Hughes.

The bride is a member of the Freshman class, while Carroll Dawley is a Junior.

FRANCIS O'REILLY RECEIVES INJURIES IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Francis O'Reilly was injured last Friday morning when the car which he was driving tipped over near the Old Mission, pinning O'Reilly and two students, who were with him, Garber and Linder, in the wreckage. The latter two escaped uninjured, but O'Reilly had his leg and foot cut and mashed. He was rushed to the Cottage Hospital where his wound was found not to be serious, but one demanding close attention for some time.

O'Reilly is a member of the Health Benefit Association, which organization is taking care of the financial end of his injuries. He seemed very well pleased at the promptness with which he was visited by the chairman of the organization, who assured him of the backing of that body.

The prompt action taken by the Association is arousing a great deal of enthusiasm among the students, an ever increasing number in the Student Body signifying their intention to join the society. O'Reilly, as the first beneficiary, has become an ardent booster for the Association.

ALUMNI REUNION HELD AT FRESNO

Tomorrow night the Alumni Association of Santa Barbara State Teachers College will hold its annual reunion at the California Hotel in Fresno. The banquet will begin promptly at 6:30. After this, Hallowe'en jokes, poems and stories will take the place of "after-dinner speeches."

Mrs. Barnett will sing at the reunion. Other faculty members planning to attend the meeting are: Dean Pyle, Mrs. Miller, Miss Ebbets, Miss Severy, Miss Clark, President Phelps and Mr. Hayward.

A. W. S. SENDS DELEGATES TO FRESNO CONFERENCE

Nearly fifteen delegates from the A. W. S. will attend the Inter-Collegiate Women's Conference to be held in Fresno, November 14th and 15th. "Social Standards" is the main topic for discussion at the conference, and women's campus problems will be considered at the round-table discussions. Stunts will be given by the various colleges after the supper Friday evening. Santa Barbara delegates are planning several stunts which they hope will make a name for themselves. Santa Barbara girls are also planning to wear distinctive dresses.

Etta Burnett, Clara Ziegeler and Bernice Gange, who is president of the A. W. S., are being sent as official delegates to the conference. About ten other student representatives are planning to make the trip.

The conference includes the following colleges: San Diego, Pomona, Fresno, U. S. C., La Verne, Southern Branch, Occidental and Santa Barbara.

A boosters' rally for the La Verne game will be held in the quadrangle this noon. According to rumors, "Babe Ruth" and "Bob Meusel" will be in the court at 12:20. Come and see them.

LIBRARY WILL RECEIVE STUDENT MAGAZINES

Two magazines dealing with student affairs, The Student Challenge and The Intercollegian, have been secured for the library through the courtesy of one of the students who has subscribed for them for students' use. The Student Challenge is a monthly magazine of student opinion concerning the relation of college courses to students' life work. The Intercollegian, which is also a monthly magazine, deals with the great world issues from the students' view-point.

The New Student, the only weekly intercollegiate newspaper, will be placed in the library at the students' disposal since The New Student is now on The Eagle's exchange list.

LITERARY FORUM WILL MEET MONDAY NIGHT

Captain M. J. Phillips, short story writer, will address the Literary Forum which will meet Monday evening at 7:30 in the Trustee's Room at the Public Library. Mr. Phillips, whose subject for the evening will be the short story, is the author of "Platinum Handcuffs," a story which received high commendation while running in the Saturday Evening Post a short time ago.

During the business meeting of the evening, officers will be elected.

PARADE PRECEDES TOMORROW'S GAME

An automobile parade which is being held for the purpose of advertising the La Verne game, will form at the campus at 4:15 this afternoon. By parading through the town with gay white and green streamers flying and by making a great deal of noise it is hoped that more enthusiasm for the game will be aroused among the townspeople. Any student having a car is urged to participate in the procession and share in the fun.

OUTING CLUB PLANS FIRST HIKE OF YEAR

The Outing Club will take its first trip of the year to Inspiration Point next Friday afternoon. The hikers will leave the school at 4:30 and hike over the Mountain Drive to the Inspiration Point trail. It is planned to return about 10:30, by moonlight.

The members of the Club are asked to sign up for the trip on the list posted on the students' bulletin board by the English room. Each hiker is asked to take along a lunch and a canteen of water.

VETERANS' BUREAU OFFICER VISITS COLLEGE THURSDAY

Mr. Guy Booker of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau was at College on Thursday in conference with the students who are receiving their training here under the auspices of the Bureau. Mr. Booker is taking the place of Mr. Orville Blalock, former training officer.

Wednesday afternoon Dean Ashworth addressed the Woman's Club on the power of the audience to determine the type of drama to be given on the stage. After his talk, Mr. Ashworth read "The Conquering Hero," by Allan Monkhouse.

MANY STUDENTS TO VOTE IN ELECTION

Presidential Candidates' Platforms Outlined

In order that all students and faculty members who are entitled to vote in the coming presidential election may compare the platforms of the different candidates, the following brief non-partisan account of the stand which the candidates have taken on various questions is offered.

The information printed here is taken from a tabloid survey of the political parties and their candidates prepared by The World Tomorrow and reproduced by The New Student. Extreme care was exercised in the preparation of the report to make it as impartial and accurate as is humanly possible. Only the three major parties can be taken up here because of lack of space.

Progressive Party

Candidate: Robert M. La Follette, Senator.

Policy: Favors public ownership of railroads, with safeguards (not specific) against bureaucratic control, and public ownership of super water power, including Muscle Shoals. Declares for rights of workers to and farmers to organize and bargain collectively, and to conduct co-operative enterprises without hindrances; against use of injunctions in labor disputes; favors enactment of the bill for increase of postal workers' salaries vetoed by the President, and the liberalizing of the Civil Service Retirement Law. Demands use of Federal power to crush not foster private monopoly. Pledges house-cleaning in Departments of Justice and Interior and other executive departments; pledges recovery of naval oil reserves and all other laws relating to public domain wrongfully transferred to private interests; vigorous prosecution of all public officials guilty of dishonesty and all corporate interests participating in such transactions. Complete revision of Water Power Act, General Leasing Act and all other laws relating to public domain; favors super water power system to supply at actual cost light and power to general public and nitrate to farmers; strict public control and permanent conservation of nation's resources of coal, ores, oil timber lands.

H. E. WOMEN ELECT VICE-PRESIDENT THURSDAY

At the regular monthly meeting of the Home Economics Club yesterday, Mabel Dewlaney was elected vice-president, to take the place of Thelma Walters, who resigned from this office. Miss Dillinger, president of the organization, urged all the girls to attend the Home Economics party to be given November 7th. Miss Ebbets also made a number of announcements.

VOTING A RIGHT OR A DUTY?

In less than a week the national presidential election will take place. In spite of constant reiteration there will be many registered voters who will fail to avail themselves of their right of franchise. It is this indifference toward matters of political import that makes government by minorities a fact in American life. The ideal of a government "of the people, by the people, and for the people" will never be realized until American citizens awaken to their responsibilities.

One thing which is perhaps worse than not voting at all is to vote in ignorance. There should not be one vote cast without adequate reason. Voting because of party affiliation or family sentiment with no knowledge of the character or platform of the candidate is certainly not good citizenship. It is hoped that every student and faculty voter will familiarize himself with all sides of the political campaign before Tuesday and will then go to the polls and cast his vote as his conscience and good sense dictate.

A MATTER OF PRIDE

The students of this institution pay less, perhaps, for their education here, than do the students of any college in California. The fees of this institution make a college education possible to almost everyone. Many students are aware of the advantages that are to be obtained here and are deeply appreciative of the low personal costs. But there is an element that fails to realize and appreciate that it is getting much for nothing, that it should do all in its power to keep down the expenses of the College and be as careful as possible of the properties of the institution.

Recently there has been a tendency on the part of a few thoughtless people to mark up the school with initials, insignia, etc. The new oak chairs in the English room are being marked up with defacing fraternity and sorority insignia. If the persons who are responsible for this feel that they are helping their organizations along by carving their insignia in furniture, they are sadly mistaken.

The chairs were obtained only after a great deal of trouble and expense. Now they are only a few weeks old, but they begin to look as though they had "been thru the war." Let's all make ourselves a committee of one to put a stop to this needless destruction. We all need to show a little institutional pride and keep the property of this College looking as it should. Let's not mark up the benches, carve up the chairs, or throw papers all over the grounds. That's nothing but "grammar school stuff!"

VASSAR COLLEGE WOMAN ESTABLISHES BANK

A bank has been opened recently at Vassar College to give the women students practice in keeping check books and writing out monthly balances.

The bank is situated in the old dining room of the former Wagner Inn, which is said to be a landmark beloved by Vassar alumnae. The bank is attractively arranged, being decorated in gray. Bracket lamps, white candlesticks and thick carpets add to its artistic appearance.

Although it is not officially connected with the college, the bank will handle the funds of the college organizations and the private accounts of the students. Miss Olive Lapham, a Vassar alumnae, is directing the new enterprise.

PRESIDENT PHELPS ATTENDS COMMITTEE MEETING IN NORTH

President Phelps left last Friday evening for Berkeley where he attended a meeting regarding the complete revision of the State Elementary Curriculum. President Phelps is a member of the committee that is collecting data for the revision of the curriculum.

FRATS AND SORORITIES

We have advanced as a College to a point where things collegiate are inevitable, for better or for worse. For the four years that this institution has existed as a College, there have been many developments and improvements. First came athletic teams, then came the institution of the several clubs and societies of the campus; then came the formation of several projects that have since become traditions. College Night, the Frosh-Soph scrap; honor societies; and now come fraternities and sororities. It is to be noted that all these developments have been of an improving nature; it is to be hoped that the newly formed frats and sororities will maintain this same high standard.

But hopes are not always justified, for it seems that several of the fraternities and sororities have shown marked tendencies of 'cliquiness.' It has been charged that these same organizations have entered actively into the politics of the campus, in an attempt to place their members in a majority of the positions of influence. The evil effect of this clique tendency will soon appear in all our activities; the class organizations will be weakened by the cliques of the societies that have not been properly discreet in their practices; athletic teams will be divided and become less efficient; the campus will suffer generally from the mal-practices of the few.

Frats and sororities are inevitable; it should be the concern of all the members of the various societies to make these societies of the right sort. They should above all else refrain from making themselves a factor in the campus politics. It is charged that these same societies have already chosen the Student Body president for next year, as well as several of the other lesser officials. If this be true, every self-respecting student on the campus should combine and defeat the unworthy purpose of these societies. If they do not, then this campus and its activities will have fallen into the hands of a few contriving people, proved unworthy to hold office by their very scheming to achieve high office.

(Signed) TED ELLSWORTH.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

One Knight I thot I'd Roe up the Platt to a Pool near an Eddy and try my Luck at Teal. I got Fuller on Ginn than was Wright so I Dunne tipped over and had a Long Bath in the Brook, and got Le Fevre. I was on the Fritz in a Hick's Berg all Summer, and didn't seem to Dewell. I could Doolittle but play cards with the Young Shafer who was my nurse. When I got the Diehl I managed to Garner a Hord. They fed me on Lemon Peel. I sharpened my Gillett on the Whetstone Dailey. I didn't Dane to stay Long, but Le Fevre didn't leave.

While I was sick, the Cook and the Shoemaker and the Miller and the Smith and the Coleman gave me a Parrett to keep me company. The Parrett was very Learned and Means to be my Friend.

When I was well I walked all over the Hills and Woods, thru the Lanes and Bowers.

Miss Lollie Anderson, former faculty member, visited with Mrs. Miller and Miss Mary Anderson this week-end. Miss Anderson, who taught music here this summer, is now teaching in the Santa Monica High School.

PERSONALS

Margaret Burke, Ella Wagner and Marian McCandless went to Santa Maria last Sunday.

Betty Eddy, a member of the Freshman class, is absent from school, due to a slight attack of flu.

Nadine Jepsen and Evelyn Blauvelt attended the De Molay dance in Hollywood last week-end.

At the invitation of the Commodore, seven members of the faculty visited aboard the Pennsylvania last Monday. After being personally conducted over the ship, the faculty members were served tea. Those who visited the ship were: Dean Pyle, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Price, Miss Schauer, Miss Crumby and Miss Mary Anderson.

Grant Youngs, who is absent from College with an attack of malaria, is much better and was seen at the game last Saturday.

The College registered surprise Tuesday afternoon when it found itself trizzled upon by the elements.

The machine and sheet-metal drawing class visited the Pennsylvania on Monday afternoon. Class members were shown the intricate machinery which worked the ship. Much interest was shown in the guns.

Mr. Ashworth read "Merton of the Movies," by Harry Wilson, at a dinner party at El Mirasol last Tuesday evening.

A number of students attended the Harvest Festival given under the auspices of the Community Arts at the De la Guerra Mansion last week-end. The exhibit included huge specimens of farm products, flowers, grown by school children, and Indian and Spanish relics.

H. E. PARTY SET FOR NEXT FRIDAY

The Home Economics Department is to give their first party of this year Friday evening, November 7th, at 8 o'clock. Alice Dillinger, president, and Etta Burnett, with Mabel Dewlaney, have planned an evening which will be entertaining to every one, as there will be cards and Mah Jong, besides a special program and refreshments. Bertha Fuller will give a whistling solo, and a vocal solo will be given by Jessica Lemmon.

This will afford an exceptional opportunity for the girls in the Home Economics Department to become acquainted with one another, and every one is urged to come.

GENERAL PROFESSIONALS PLAN DANCE

At its regular meeting held yesterday, the General Professional Department voted to give its annual dance at the Arlington Grill. Lucile Dexter, social chairman, and her committee are to determine the date of the dance and are to make tentative plans concerning the type of party which will be given.

Mrs. Barnett was absent from school Thursday and today because of illness. Her classes did not meet.

MASK PARTY-DANCE ENJOYED BY STUDENTS

The masquerade party-dance given in the gymnasium last Saturday night proved to be a jolly affair, according to those who participated in the fun. Many attractive costumes were worn by those who attended the dance. A prize for the cleverest costume was awarded to Marjorie Granger, who represented "Felix." Helen Culp received first prize for the most original costume. Honorable mention was given Scotty McGee and Mildred Dailey.

As a special feature of the evening, Marjorie Sawyer gave a solo dance.

To add to the mirth of the evening, fortunes were told by Miss Severy. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing and playing cards.

Helen Lindquist is planning to go to Bakersfield this week-end.

Teacher: "Heat expands and cold contracts. Give me an example."

Student: "In summer the days are long, while in the winter they are short."—Ex.

HOPES REVIVED IN SANTA MARIA GAME

The Roadrunners renewed interest in the football season last Saturday when they crushed the Santa Maria Junior College outfit in a fast game, coming out on the long end of an easy 34-0 score. The Green and White went into the game without the services of many of the regulars—Annin, Hollingsworth, Hawkins, F. O'Reilly, Keim and Gillett warming the bench.

From the kick-off, it was all Santa Barbara's game, the Roadrunners' backs tearing thru the line for long gains at will. A few minutes after the whistle, Morehead tore thru right tackle for a touchdown, which Foss failed to convert. Fritz made the second touchdown a few minutes later. Foss this time converting. The half ended when Baranov fumbled on the one-yard line, Santa Maria recovering and preventing another score. Score 13-0.

The second half was shortened to permit the Hi School-Santa Maria game to start, but the fellows ran over three more touchdowns in the few minutes that the half lasted. Fritz, Baranov and Morehead each accounting for one. Foss converted all three with perfect drop kicks, and the game ended with the tally 34-0 in favor of the Roadrunners.

For the first time this season a large crowd of College rooters turned out.

MEN'S BASKETBALL SEASON OPENS

Prospects Are Bright For Excellent Team

If current prophecies are not all apple-sauce, this year's basketball team will be a world-beater. The status of last year's team is well known about the county. That team was considered the best the College could ever produce when it won every game it played and made six points every time its opponents made one.

Among the lettermen remaining from last year's team are "Andy," center; Keim, forward, and Linder, guard. With these men as a nucleus for the team, Casey is hoping to build up a squad that will advertise the College to the State.

Last year's team found small school teams too easy; so Edmund O'Reilly is trying to arrange contests with some of the larger colleges of the South. The schedule is not as yet definite, but we are certain of playing "Kal Kris," Cal-Poly, Loyola and Santa Maria J. C., as well as other old antagonists. Games with Pomona, Redlands and Occidental may be arranged.

all wearing their Green and White caps. The interest that this game has revived should mean a large crowd for the game with La Verne on the 1st.

To date the Roadrunners have scored 109 points to their opponents 69 points in the games of the season, including the three practice games and the four regular games.

BIGGEST GAME OF SEASON

The Roadrunners will enter the game minus the services of several of the veterans. Youngs and F. O'Reilly will still be on the bench. Hawkins may be back into the game if his foot is sufficiently healed to permit, and Keim and Captain Vince will also be back in the game.

Some interesting dope on the game may be obtained by a comparison of the La Verne-Loyola contest, and the Loyola-Roadrunner game. La Verne beat Loyola 15-0 in a game in which all the breaks favored the former, while Loyola beat the Roadrunners 17-0 at a time when the majority of the Green and White warriors were in a crippled condition. In addition the slippery grass turf of Loyola was a handicap to the locals. Now comes La Verne to Santa Barbara. The Roadrunners are always dangerous on their own field, and in addition will be in the best of shape for the fray with one or two exceptions. The lack of punch that was so noticeable in the Loyola game seems to have been remedied, if the game Saturday against Santa Maria can be reckoned as a factor, so it looks as though the Roadrunners are both ready and willing to do battle with the Southerners.

The following men will probably take part in the game: Annin, Gillett, Foss, Keim, Linder, Brownsberger, Brooks, Baranov, Garber, Vince, Hollingsworth, Anderson, Morehead, Ed. O'Reilly, Hawkins and several men to be chosen from the other men out for the sport.

Phil Martin, ex '24, is distinguishing himself as a member of the football squad of the University of Washington. Phil has been shifted to end, where his exceptional speed makes him a dangerous man.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME SCHEDULED FOR TUESDAY

The first women's basketball game to be played in the series of three to decide the championship between the upper and lower classmen, will be played next Tuesday at 4:15, according to the present schedule. The second game in the series will be played off some day during the latter part of the week, while the third game is scheduled for the following week. Both teams promise a lively scrap for the honors, since members of last year's winning Freshman team are trying to uphold their reputation by grabbing the championship from the upper classmen. The Freshmen of this year's squad are equally anxious to wrest the championship for the upper classmen.

Two members of last year's Freshman team, Eleanor Warren and Barbara Dewlaney, are in line for College letters if they succeed in making the upper class team this year. Both made the all-star team of last year, which entitles them to 100 points toward the necessary 150 for a letter. They will be the first women to win College letters under the point system now in operation.

WITH OTHER COLLEGES

The Senior Class of the Long Beach High School has chosen "The Little Minister" by Sir James Barrie as their Senior dramatic production.

CONVENTION SCHEDULED FOR WESTERN STUDENTS

A Western America Student Convention to include all students west of the Rockies and from Mexico and British Columbia, will take place at Asilomar on Monterey Bay during the Christmas vacation, according to an announcement in the The New Student.

The convention will open in the afternoon of December 27, and will disband after breakfast on January 3rd. Investigating commissions have been appointed to study the various questions to be brought before the convention in order that accurate facts may be placed before the students for their discussion.
