Exhibit Shows Integration

One of the many interesting displays viewed by the alumni of the Stout institute at their conference here at the college on Saturday, was prepared by the integrated activities class of Mrs. Florence Lyons. The modern theory of education that children learn by doing serves as the basis for the training of the teachers who are taking this course.

The first display was a scene from the South Sea islands, and was designed to be within the scope of the ability of sixth grade students. A large prize of cocconut palms completed the atmosphere created by the grass hut and the figure of a native. During the constructing of the project the children are given all types of manipulative work including coloring, handling paper to make like-like figures, designing and getting correct proportions.

Another display was a very realistic construction of an adobe hut characteristic of Mexico. The hut was built up of shoe boxes covered with paper, and colored in imitation of adobe bricks. Cactus plants constructed of cardboard tubes effectively colored, and a large drawing of mountains in the background completed this scene.

Glimpses into other parts of the globe, Japan, England, Holland and Italy featured the groups of displays.

"We are also emphasizing," stated Mrs. Lyons, "the making of various articles such as candles, soap and paper from the primitive point of view and method, so as to give them a true appreciation of the subjects studied."

JOBS FOR WOMEN

Calls are coming in from townspeople to Dean Lois Bennink for women who desire exchange positions during the summer session.

'Pelican' Sails Twice to Island Harbor on Trip

Santa Barbara State students will forget school, studies and culture for a three day period of relaxation on the annual island trip to Santa Cruz, sponsored by the Outing Club, scheduled for May 11, 12 and 13. There will be two trips each way, one leaving at 12 o'clock Friday evening, just after the Roadrunner Revue for those who like moonlight boat rides, and one trip on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Return trips will be made at 9 p.m. Sunday evening and 7 a.m. Monday. Captain Ira Eaton's "Pelican" has been chartered for the voyages. Those signing up should be sure to designate which boat they desire to take, and then are asked to abide by their decision.

Swimming, hiking, fishing and excursions on the "Pelican" to various points of interest on the island are only a few of the activities planned by Willis "Tiny" McCullough, president of the club, and his committee consisting of Leland Prindle, in charge of food, and Miss Gladys Van Fossen and Fred L. Griffin. Camp will be made at Valdez harbor, and will serve as the starting point for all excursions by boat or on foot.

Regulations

The Santa Cruz Island company, represented by Fred F. Caire, publishes a list of rules which must be observed at all parties which land at the island. These are as follows:

1. Do not carry or use any fire arms.
2. Do not cut down or injure any trees or plants.
3. Do not carry away anything in nature of souvenirs.
4. All visitors must acknowledge the fact that they are on private property.
5. Fires must be built on the shores only, and should be carefully put out when party is leaving.

Andy Andrews, acknowledged all over the county as the best camp cook "in these parts" had been hired for the culinary end of the trip. All food will be provided under the initial cost of the trip, $4.00, but students are requested to bring their own knife, fork, plate, spoon, cup, plate, bedding and flashlight.

Faculty Members

Miss Helen Sweet, Miss Gladys Ban Fossen and probably two or three other faculty members plan to accompany the students on the vacation.

Tickets may be secured from Doug Oldershaw, Bob Soules, Pat McCullough, Dave Pollock and Fred Allred at the controller's office. After buying the ticket, the student should sign his name on the list in the student body office.

Princeton Teachers Make Low Scores

(By Associated Collegiate Press) PRINCETON, N. J. — Princeton's professors may know their own subjects, but when it comes to other fields, they're not very brilliant, the results of a questionnaire given a group of them prove.

The avowed purpose of the exam was to demonstrate "the inability of most modern scholars

SEEK PRESIDENCY OF ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY

Garlyn Basham, Bill Hoyt and Thomas Merrill, candidates for the office of student body president, presented two minute campaign speeches in the Tuesday assembly. Each stressed points in his campaign that he thought would make for better student government.

Employment Office Needs Applications

More registered student applications for employment are needed in order to supply the calls the office has had from people asking for college men and women, according to Ray Dutcher, employment secretary.

"During the past few weeks, we have had numerous calls come into the office requesting us to send some one to fill a position. At the present time we do not have on file the names of all students wishing work and as a result we have been unable to send persons to fill the vacancies," stated Mr. Dutcher. "That this in itself was an unfavorable situation for the college was shown by Mr. Dutcher, when he pointed out the fact that if the college cannot satisfy the townspeople, they will turn elsewhere to look for workers and as a result the college will in all probability not be called on again in the future.

In order to help the student in securing the type of employment which he prefers, and in which he has had the most experience, a new form of application blank has been worked out by Mr. Dutcher.

World Has No Place for Modern Youth

(By Associated Collegiate Press) GREENCASTLE, Ind. — "The present generation is an 'unwanted' generation," Dr. Harry F. Ward, professor of Christian ethics at Union Theological seminary, New York City, told DePauw university students recently.

"This is the first time in the history of the United States that youth is not wanted. For the older men it would have been better if the youth of today had never been born, or if born, had never been trained," Dr. Ward declared. "All students are urged to obtain one of these blanks

Men's Musical Organization Summarizes Year's Activities

Presenting a concert at a garden, tea in Montecito last Saturday afternoon, the Santa Barbara State college band and male chorus culminated one of the most successful years in the history of the school.

Augmented by several new members, the band and male chorus made their first appearance September 21, last year. New uniforms gave the band a snappy appearance which has been commented upon wherever the band has appeared. Through the football season the men performed at each game, receiving much favorable comment.

The first high spot of the season was the appearance of the men in the Tournament of Roses for the third time. Leading the third division, the band was placed third in the entire parade. In a special parade booklet the picture of the band was shown. Only three bands had pictures in this publication.

Leaving the campus on February 8, the band and male chorus started north on their annual goodwill tour. Merced was the farthest point north of the trip, and Fresno the farthest point east. The men were gone seven days, during which time they played before a total number

STUDENTS RUN FOR OFFICES IN GOVERNMENT

Selection of elective officers for next year's student government will take place May 13 at the State college when twelve candidates will run for the seven positions on the student council.

Candidates are Bill Hoyt, Garlyn Basham and Thomas Merrill, president; Lillian Cook and Betty Walker, vice-president; Lita Boeske, Thelma Davis and Betty Roome, secretary; Lyman Goldsmith, treasurer; Harry Moore, jr., manager of dramatics and debate; Roland MacDonald, yell leader; and Eleanor Mellinger, pianist.

Other positions on the student council are filled by appointment. They are editor of El Gaucho, editor of La Cumbre, students activities chairman, manager of men's athletics, manager of women's athletics and manager of band and glee clubs.

Dean Lois M. Bennink, Dean William Ashworth, Miss Hazel Severy and Fred Allred are advisers of the council.

Day Sponsored by Alphigams

Journalism Day, scheduled for May 24, is being sponsored by Alpha Phi Gamma, national honorary journalistic fraternity. This is the first time such a project has been planned on this campus.

Invitations have been extended to all journalism classes of the high schools of this and Ventura counties, and to Ventura Junior college and Santa Maria Junior college. Mrs. Margaret Burke Bennett, of the English department, an adviser of Alpha Phi Gamma, is sponsoring this project.

The program will begin with a luncheon in the college cafeteria. An open discussion of problems of school journalism and a conducted tour of the campus composing and editorial rooms, and a tour of the Daily News will be included in the day's activities.

"It is hoped that 'Journalism Day' will become a tradition and an annual event on our campus, according to Doris Coker, chairman of the affair.

College Y Members Discuss Regulations

At their meeting last Wednesday morning in the faculty dining hall, the State College "Y" held a discussion of the improvement of conditions on the campus.

Among the things that were brought up was a suggestion that the club paint lines on the parking spaces of the grounds, in order to make better use of the school's limited space for that purpose. It was also decided that, if the club could enlist the aid of other organizations, a "big brother" idea might be instituted to aid incoming students in finding their way around the town and school.

Action on these matters was postponed until after further discussion.

Petitions for Club Officers Out This Week

"Petitions for aspiring Men's club officers can be secured from me," stated Bill Poole, vice-president of the organization, in charge of nominations. "They should be turned into me by Friday, May 10, for checking."

No petitions have been turned in yet, with the election scheduled to take place at the regular meeting next Tuesday.

Other rules which candidates must observe are the following: petitions must be checked after taking out and after the securing of signatures; there must be thirty signatures on each petition (or 10 per cent of the membership); elective offices are those of president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer and social chairman; the requirements for eligibility are the same as for student body officers; and campaign managers or the candidates may make a one minute speech at the next regular meeting of the club.

Clarence Rogers Speaks at Meeting

Clarence Rogers, member of the law firm of Heaney, Price and Postel and active in many civic organizations, will speak to the members of the International Relations club on some aspects of international law next Tuesday, May 14, at eight o'clock in the Woman's club room, according to Jack Murray, president of the club.

"We are immensely pleased that Mr. Rogers is going to speak to us and we wish to share our good fortune with as many students as possible, so we are inviting everybody to attend the meeting to be held next Tuesday evening," Murray said.

Writer of Little Orphan Annie Has Colorful Career in Chicago

One of the most interesting and unique features of a newspaper is the daily comic section. In a survey taken by some of the leading newspapers it was found that a much greater percentage of the people read the comic strips than they do the so-called "front page" news.

The average reader rarely ever hears about the author of these strips and as a result takes the funny page as a matter of course.

One of the most popular strips of today is Little Orphan Annie written by Robert Lincoln Gray. Gray started on his career as a not-very-well-known artist who learned the ups and downs of the profession while lettering "balloons" and drawing backgrounds for Robert Sydney Smith's "The Gumps."

The original idea for the script was thought up by Captain Joseph Medill Patterson, but Annie and Sandy were created by Gray himself.

Annie began her adventurous career on August 5, 1924, living in the house of Mr. and Mrs. Silo, until the author sent her to the city to live with her "diamond-sudded, big-business man guardian," Daddy Warbucks. Fearing the public would tire of her new found luxury, Capt. Patterson directed Gray to return Annie to her former surroundings. Gray, thinking he knew more about what the public wanted, delayed in following up Patterson's suggestion. As a punishment Annie was left out of the strip.

Stars of Previous Years Return to Help With Annual Revue

Mills Quartet, Gammill and Williams, Bobby Goux, Elbert Cochran Appear in Cast

"Anacapa Ballet Moderne," a comedy act featuring Miss Donna Hart and Miss Joana Varner, threatens to steal the show at the Roadrunner Revue tomorrow and Friday nights at 8:30 at the Fox Arlington theatre, when State college presents its third annual collegiate follies.

Another act, featuring acrobatic stunts and tumbles, shows Jack Knight, "Buppy" Moore and the stooge Sid De Rosa at their best.

A beautiful effect is created in an Oriental dance by Renata MacHeinai and her chorus of eight women.

Other acts include the Mills Quartet, singers and dancers, Gammill and Williams in a comedy performance, and Betty Nye and Albert Ruiz dancing the "Continental." Bobby Goux singing popular songs and Elbert Cochran in classical compositions also promise to be enjoyable. Both are former State students.

As novelty numbers there are the Jug Quartet, Allan Niel, caricaturist, and Denny McArthur and his Aereoplanes.

The girls' chorus and Marjorie Hoffman, acrobatic dancer, provide clever entertainment. The chorus is composed of Mary Alice Halferty, Miriam Hendry, Frances Morris, Kay Boyton, Helen Grady, Margaret Duncan, Sammy Davis, Myrna Jullien and is led by Margaret Beddome, star of last year's revue.

Other classical numbers are Fred Lambourne's orchestra playing Ferde Grofe's "Metropolis," the men's and women's glee club; and Eleanor Mellinger, harpist; Bob Tenscher, vibraphonist, Bradford Tozier, violinist, playing "Solitude."

The boys' trio, composed of "Bud" Lambourne, Timmy Cornwall and Bobby Goux and the LollyPop chorus are also credited with good performances.

Four blackouts, "Strange Inner Tube," "Monies' Idea of College," "Three o'Clock in the Morning" and "Three Ways to Say Goodnight" are interesting diversions.

For the rest of the show there are production numbers in which three or four acts are combined into one. The most outstanding of these is the Harlem number.

"Much is yet to be accomplished in the way of last minute changes and polishing," said "Gumpy," director, "but these are hints that should point to a swell night's entertainment."

Poly Sci. Class Hears Lecture

"There is a promising field for college students in cooperative activities," states Hjalmer Rutzebeck, journalist, author and founder of several cooperative groups. Mr. Rutzebeck spoke before the fifth period economics, political science and sociology classes on Monday morning in the auditorium.

"We need college students for leadership in this new movement," he added. "Within the next ten years a million people will be engaged as cooperative specialists to teach the principles of cooperation."

Mr. Rutzebeck at present is general manager of the Santa Barbara County Cooperative Industries association, which is located on East Ortega street.

Those college students who are interested in fostering the cooperative movement are urged to inquire about positions at the association.

"I am sure many students will be interested in working here during the summer months in exchange for other services or goods," said Mr. Rutzebeck.

Members of the association receive points for each hour of labor, which can be exchanged for services or goods. Approximately 365 people are included in the cooperative society.

Mr. Rutzebeck, the founder and coordinator of this association, assisted the organization and development of the U.X.A. Cooperative association in Los Angeles which has been markedly successful in relieving unemployment. He was also active as a writer on cooperative subjects. Recently Mr. Rutzebeck edited a weekly paper in Oakland and was active in assisting Harry Hopkins in FERA work.

In 1925 Captain Patterson gave him the chance to write Little Orphan Annie.

Activity on the Riviera Campus

That it never rains without pouring is demonstrated on the Riviera Campus this week. While we frequently go around with a spy-glass, trying to find news items enough to fill up four pages of newspaper, this week so much is happening that we can fill up six. There is the student body election, there is the Roadrunner Revue, there is the island trip.

The election has stirred up a big fuss. All over the campus there are groups discussing campus politics, candidates, campaigns. The largest item of discussion is doubtlessly the sudden question asked in the assembly by one of State's students, Allan Frick.

In the silence that followed Basham's campaign speech, a masculine voice boomed forth with a query about the method his campaign was being financed. The candidate answered the question. Another student, Martin Verhoeven, said the question was out of place.

But was it really? It was unprecedented procedure, of course. Whether it showed tact, or should we say, taste is a moot question. But at least it was entirely within the rights of the student who wanted to know the information.

As was pointed out in the Gauchito office after the assembly, there was no way of telling whether the student asked the question merely and purely for his own information, whether it was a put up job by friends of the candidate in question, or whether it was a put up job by opponents of the candidate in question.

In view of the fact however, that all the presidential candidates have signed a statement saying they had nothing to do with it, it would seem that it was asked without malice afore-thought.

We have been asking, begging, for more student interest and spirit on the campus. And here it is.

Then there is the Revue. The outstanding thing about that is that while the cast and directors have been working like mad for several weeks, students in general seem rather apathetic towards the thing, at least in the matter of buying tickets. The Revue presents one of our best opportunities for making money, which we are all clamoring for. But unless tickets, and a good many of them, are sold, we will lose a golden opportunity.

"Gump" has worked himself into a fine frenzy and with fine results. The cast has lost a total of—how many pounds—at rehearsals. All the rest of us have to do is to enjoy the Roadrunner Revue.

LET'S ENJOY IT!

And after the Revue, there is the island trip. What more need be said?

Art—Music—Drama

'Little Ol' Boy'

"Little Ol' Boy" presented the most sober drama we have witnessed on the Lobero stage since "Gods of the Lightning" (produced in 1928), the Maxwell-Anderson play based on the Socco-Vanzetti miscarriage of justice. This time the pen of social justice was picked up by one who himself had led the life about which he wrote—the reform school. Unfortunately it will not be a popular play nor a reforming play; there was not one line of even bitter humor, not one suggestion of hope, no powerful invective against the brutal regime to stir us up, no actual plea for or hint of possible reform, but only the succession of pitiful pictures wherein, scene after scene, the boys were mistreated brutally and were rebelliously clinging together in their crude and hopeless way. The story was concerned with the group too long to allow the case of Robert Locket to become the real tragedy it most certainly was; and no doubt rightly, for it was for the sake of the group that Mr. Bein wrote. Yet for that group he failed to achieve the powerful, stirring drama he desired. Our net result "In Re Reform Schools" was merely that the situation was no doubt unfortunate.

The production of the play left little to be desired, and proved to be one of the most effective pieces of work seen in several seasons. The acting was excellent; Director Whitney again proved himself a master of group staging; the lighting fixed the mood; the two sets were well designed. As entertainment it was not pleasant, but a welcome change from the succession of inane smart comedies which have infested the Lobero for some months. If Mr. Whitney meets with many objections to this "horrible play" we hope that he will remember that the tragedy gives a degree

Library Technique

An incident occurred at the downtown library the other day which casts a peculiar reflection on our college.

A woman was found to be returning books to the library that had not been checked out. After she had done this several times, the librarian questioned her about the procedure. The woman replied that she was doing it to protect her daughter who took the books out without checking them at the desk. When the girl was questioned, she said, "Oh, all the girls I go around with do that."

And, as it happens, the girls she goes around with are State college girls.

The public librarians are naturally beginning to suspect that college students take books from their own library without checking them out, and to some extent they are right. Students don't think, when they do this, that they are putting themselves in a peculiar position. They usually have perfectly good intentions of bringing the books back. But embarrassing consequences may follow, as in the case cited.

Have you ever looked for a book that was supposed to be on the shelf and that wasn't there? And didn't you say, "Darn the person that took that book—I'll bet he's had it for a month. How am I going to get my psy sci lesson, when there aren't any books in the library?"

Student Body Election

In order to stimulate interest and intelligent selection of candidates for offices in next year's student government, El Gauchito is presenting the campaign speeches of all candidates and a cut of each. Cuts of the three candidates for the position of student body president may be found on the front page; their campaign speeches, on page five. Cuts of other candidates and their campaign speeches may be found on page five. All candidates are listed in alphabetical order. Speeches for presidential candidates were limited to 500 words; for other candidates, to 300.

It is hoped that with these extra facilities for becoming acquainted with the candidates, each student will try to form a definite opinion as to his choice and will be stimulated to express that opinion at the election next Monday.

Much could be said about selection of candidates for voting. But surely as college students, we are capable of assuming a critical attitude on this subject, of judging the worth of each candidate by our own standards and not by those who are constantly trying to influence us, and of using our votes to put good material in the student body council. We should be able to distinguish between that which is ballyhoo and that which is sincere and reputable in the respective campaigns of the candidates.

But most of all, we should realize the importance of expressing our opinions at the poll. Only by the expression of that opinion may many of us take part in the student government; but by that expression we are capable, to a larger extent than many of us realize, of regulating the affairs of our government.

A Lesson in Responsibility

This week we had planned big things for the Gauchito: six pages and 12 cuts. The cuts were promised for Tuesday morning, then Tuesday night, and finally arrived at four o'clock Wednesday morning. Hence publication is a little late to say the least.

Nearly every week something like this happens. Somebody who was supposed to do something doesn't do it. Fortunately before it has always been something that the editor could do at the last minute. But the editor can't make cuts, nor can anybody but the engraver, who was taking a nap.

Our lesson? To do things when they should be done and in the way they should be done.

of pleasant satisfaction to an audience, and that he will not revert to the steady diet of frivolous comedy.

The next Lobero production will be Elmer Rice's "Judgment Day" May 31 to June 1, and we hope to see more State college students opportunely utilizing their privilege of attending these plays at special prices.

'The Scarlet Pimpernel'

"Scarlet Pimpernel" (Howard Oberon) reduces itself to a stellar performance by Leslie Howard in a story of the historical romance type—a perennial and pliable pattern followed by Dumas, Sabatini and others, and in this case by Baroness Orczy (1903) who, finding her tale unpopular when set in the Russian-English background, agreeably switched it to a French-English setting.

Huey Long Refuses to Share-the-Cost

(By Associated Collegiate Press) UNIVERSITY, Ala.—Huey Long may be all for sharing the wealth, but a group of fraternity men at the University of Alabama recently discovered his plan doesn't include sharing the cost of telephone messages concerning the Kingfish's plan for solving America's economic ills.

As the result of a bull-session in their fraternity house, the Alabama students decided to call Senator Long on the telephone to straighten out an argument about the merits and demerits of his ideas. The call was put through but one of Huey's assistants refused to call the Senator to the phone when asked if the Louisiana boss would pay for the call.

Questioned by the assistant as to the reasons for asking Long to pay the toll, the Alabama student retorted, "Why, we thought that if Huey believed in sharing-the-wealth, he wouldn't mind Sharing-the-Cost."

Physiology Cats Given Ceremony

To the mournful sobbing of the funeral cortege, the Physiology Cats were ceremoniously buried last Friday afternoon. The valiant animals who gave their lives for science were laid to rest, with honor, on administration slope, six feet under the sod.

Jimmie Shaug, officiating minister, clad in flowing pink robes and hair ribbons, chanted solemnly the Spanish prayer for the cat souls, with a parting hope that the said soul be quickly transported to cat heaven. With a final prayer of blessing, the bier was lowered to its last resting place.

The burying of the cats is an annual ceremony carried out by members of the class. Thus, once again, the Physiology Cats have been chanted over, prayed for, and, with a final farewell and amen, sent on their last long journey into the unknown.

RADIO NOTES

By KEITH LUPTON

Since daylight saving time came into effect a little over a week ago, all of the coast-to-coasters have been moved up an hour—so tune in accordingly.

Ben Bernie presents a guest artist or two every week. He and Walter Winchell seem to do nothing but throw slams at each other. Tuesday evenings, KFI at 8 p.m.

Pat Patterson representing "Daddy" Rango is on the radio twice daily at 9:30 a.m. and 9 p.m. over XEMO (860 kc.) in Mexico. Listen to him and draw your own conclusions. You'd be surprised how many people believe in him.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

"A UNIQUE ATTITUDE"

Certainly the student body should be familiar with the facts concerning the incident which arose during the campaign speeches in the recent student body meeting. It is a question of whether or not the student who was responsible for this incident and who displayed this unusual interest did so of his own personal curiosity, or whether it was done without forethought due to a peculiar attitude concerning such matters.

Certainly his conduct was not prompted by any external influence or by any of the presidential candidates with an ulterior motive in mind.

We feel that the candidate who was interested enough and fair enough to take money out of his own pocket for the benefit of the student body in order that the students might become better acquainted with his progressive ideas, and in order that they might have a more adequate and concrete basis upon which to base their opinion for voting in this election should be highly complimented.

The sentiment of this student body is genuinely against any radical demonstration of this type and it should be considered in its true light—the manifestation of a thoroughly "unique" and warped attitude.

A STATE COLLEGE TRADITION

Dear Editor:
Representing a definite part of student activities at Santa Barbara State college, the "Roadrunner Revue" is fast becoming a local tradition. The two markedly successful productions given last year and the year before have made the Revue a performance that no one will want to miss.

Collegiate Vaudeville
To townspeople and citizens this production offers a thoroughly collegiate vaudeville performance that represents some of the best talent in Santa Barbara.

To college students the appeal is instantaneous! State's own fun-makers all acting in one show is bound to make an outstanding performance.

Fund for Yearbook
The funds received from the Revue are to be used for La Cumbre, the student annual. Hence, the student support of the revue is important in order to finance La Cumbre.

Many members of the Revue cast have had professional experience in shows of this nature. "Gump" Gumpertz, the director of the show has travelled on several vaudeville circuits.

Men Spend Allowance on Food, Not Dates

(By Associated Collegiate Press) WASHINGTON, D. C.—Just how much does a college student spend on having a good time while at college?

At Catholic university, 35 men students were questioned recently on their expenses for cigarettes, dates, "refreshments" on dates, and dances. Their answers, when averaged, revealed that the average student spends $7.35 weekly on social life.

The two highest weekly averages of the 35 were $20 and $15.70, with the lowest 80 cents and $1.30. In the entire group questioned, there were only seven whose averages were below the $5 mark. Contrary to what might be expected, the majority of the students did not spend the greater part of their allowances on dates, but rather on "refreshments" between meals.

cuts. Harry "Buppy" Moore has had experience on the stage here and also at Ventura Junior college.

The preparations made for the revue has been more extensive than ever before. Rehearsals have been held every day during the last week. Hours of practice, capable direction and unusual talent should make this show better than ever.

The stage sets, and general method of handling the Revue is up to professional standards.

Candidates Refute Malicious Intent

I, a candidate to the office of president of the Associated Students of Santa Barbara State college, maintain that the incident of questioning the backing of the pamphlet for Garyn Basham was done for no other purpose than to satisfy the curiosity of the questioner and for the benefit of students, and that it was done with no malicious intent.

In making plans for social activities for the rest of the school year, it was decided to hold a Mother's Day luncheon for mothers and housemothers of members. Those attending will go to the Montecito Presbyterian church services next Sunday and later to luncheon at El Cortijo. Two mothers, Mrs. Alexander Laing and Mrs. Roy P. Soules, will be initiated at that time into the sorority's Mother Club.

A formal dinner on Saturday evening, May 25, at El Encanto, will be followed by a luncheon at the same place Sunday noon, and a tea at 4 o'clock honoring faculty members, out of town guests and representatives of all Greek letter societies on the campus. A benefit bridge party will be given at the Girl Scout house on San Andres street, and it was announced that the alumnae plan to give a farewell party for seniors, probably on May 31.

Pledges Contribute Articles to Magazine

Having weathered their pledge period in a satisfactory manner, six men will be formally installed into Pi Sigma Chi, national honorary educational fraternity, tonight in the AWS woman's club room. The new members are to be Francis Williams, Ralph Hopwood, Richard Davis, Leo Pauly, Lawrence Goodell and Everett Tranberg. Some of the duties these pledges had the privilege of being inducted into the organization, was to contribute some article of worth to the Industrial Education Alumni Bulletin, which is to be distributed at the annual department banquet, held this year on June and to prepare a talk on some phase of industrial education.

Candidate's Friends Give Music Hall Jig

Friends of Garlyn Basham, candidate for the office of student body president, will sponsor a dance in the music hall from 12 to 1 o'clock next Friday.

Fred Lambourne's orchestra will furnish music for the dancing.

Delta Sigma Hold Annual Formal

Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority members gave their annual spring formal last Saturday evening at La Cumbre country club. Fred Lambourne's orchestra played for the occasion. Following the dance a buffet supper was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Davis on Quinto street.

Actives and their guests present were Chloe Vincent, Elaine Littlefield, Thelma George, Betty McClain, Sheila Davidson, Betty Thomas, Elizabeth Hartwell, Frances Kenney, Margaret Laing, Catherine Caldwell, Evelyn Bramen, Frances Saylor, Dorothy Soules, Natalie Neff, Bill Pugh, Dave Rumbaugh, Gene Campbell, Ed Zurgler, Paul Woods, Howard Gammill, Clyde Moulton, Jack Knight, Elmer Lee, B. Hammersmith, Bob Brown, Norman Martin, Guy Kingsbury and Bob Soules.

Patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. Hal Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Ryon.

Tau Omegas Plan Formal

Setting June 1 as the date for their spring formal, members of Tau Omega fraternity will stage their annual dinner and dance at the Montecito Country Club, according to James Coultas, president of the organization.

At their regular meeting held last Monday night, the fraternity also voted to send to the L. G. Balfour company for the novelties place cards and programs to be used for the affair.

Arrangements for the dance were under the supervision of Don Fisher, chairman of the social committee, assisted by Johnny Ingram, "Buppy" Moore, Dick Lund, Bob Johnson and Larry Goodell.

Committees Plans 2 Star Performances

The "Big Show" will be given Friday and Saturday evenings, May 9 and 10, in the Fox Arlington theatre. There are said to be several elaborate stage settings and lighting systems. In addition to the regular "stuff," and act called the "Anemic Acrobatics" will be presented by three of State's well known stoooges and takerunders, "Buppy" Moore, Jack Knight and Sid De Rosa. This number will probably break up ye Old Roadrunner Revue.

Due to the length of the State college production there will be no motion pictures in the evening; however Manager Louis Christ has secured an outstanding feature to be shown in the afternoons.

Joe Nightengale Owns and Operates Low Powered Radio Station; Talks to Switzerland

By BARNEY JAMESON

"Believe it or not," but the owner, builder and operator of one of the lowest powered radio stations in the world is a student on the Santa Barbara State college campus.

The station which operates on 1 1/4 watts which is about 9 watts lower than the average amateur station, is owned by none other than Joe Nightingale, star Gaucho athlete. The station, which has the call letters W6BCE, was built two years ago in Anaheim. When Joe moved into the Anacapa club he brought his pet along and set it up in Santa Barbara.

According to Joe the set has a very long range for such a small amount of power. Among his list of stations picked up outside of the United States are Columbia, New Zealand, Australia, Hawaii, Japan, China, England, Switzerland, Porto Rico, Cuba and Alaska. The radio enthusiast stated that out of the 11 amateur radio operators in Switzerland only one is an American, and that by some stroke of fate he was able to pick up this one out of the ether and converse with him.

Joe became interested in radio about five years ago and since then has studied his hobby during his spare hours. This training came in very handy during the Long Beach earthquake at which time he was one of the first radio operators to send a message from the scene of the disaster.

Included in Joe's experience is a partnership in the Anaheim Radio shop which he started and operated with his brother. Mr. Nightingale is now a member of the Santa Barbara unit of the Naval reserve, holding a third class rating in the radio operator's division.

Joe has also taken a turn as a writer for the radio magazines. His article titled "The Reiz Microphone" appeared in the Q.S.T., a recent issue of Radio News contained his account of "Lowpower Transmission," while his latest article "Directional Antennas" was printed in a technical magazine called the "R9."

All persons who are interested in seeing the station are invited to call at the Anacapa club.

Those attending were Mrs. Jack Vince, Mrs. Sheridan Hegland, Mrs. Ray Gilbreth, Mrs. Fred Alfred, and Tess Williams, Marian Call, Carolyn Hoefler, Mary Melano, Phyllis Badger, Carolyn Sarver, Kathryn Meyers, Mildred Wright, and Doris Stanley.

At a meeting Monday night, members made plans for events which will be held in the weeks remaining before graduation, including the traditional spring formal, a picnic at Santa Paula to be planned by Marian Call, and the second of a luncheon and lecture series which will be held at El Mirasol.

Faculty Members Picnic

Faculty members spent a day of hiking, swimming, playing deck tennis and knitting last Sunday when they held a picnic at the Outing club cabin in Santa Ynez valley, from 11 to 6 o'clock. Coffee, chocolate and ice cream were served by the committee, the rest of the dinner being brought by each runner.

Alumni Association Holds Barbecue

Featuring a barbecue at Del Paso park, the Sacramento section of the Santa Barbara State College Alumni association will hold its annual spring meet on Saturday, May 11. The business meeting will take place at Stanford junior high school prior to the barbecue, which will be held at noon.

Ralph Kendall, a graduate from the industrial education department of State college, will officiate at the meeting. Maisie Luther who is secretary of the association will be in charge of the program. She will be assisted by Laura Tave and Ann Cowen.

Tom Orr and Volney Hawley will represent the active student body of State college at the meeting.

All former students of Stockton are invited to attend the affair.

OFFICIALS GIVE PRIZES IN CONTEST

Two prizes of $7.50 for first place and $2.50 for second place are being offered to the individual who sells the most tickets to the "Roadrunner Revue," the annual all-collegiate performance taking place at the Fox Theater on May 9-10.

Free tickets will also be given to the sorority or fraternity selling the most tickets.

"We plan to give away free tickets to a few lucky people," states Wilma Kiesner, chairman of the ticket selling. "Tickets will be placed in the windows of downtown stores for certain people whose names have been picked at random from the city directory."

Ticket Offices

Five downtown businesses are selling tickets for the convenience of those living downtown. Tickets may be obtained from Collegiate Hamburger, 109 East Anapamu; Campus Coffee Cup, 33 East Victoria; Honey Waffle Shop; Owl Drug, 1101 State street and the Santa Barbara Music company, 20 East Carrillo.

According to Miss Kiesner many tickets have been sold already although the goal of 3800 tickets being sold has not by any means been attained.

Miss Hazel Severy Comments on Plans

"There is something to appeal to every one in the Roadrunner Revue this year," claims Miss Hazel Severy, faculty sponsor of the production.

"Varied talent and varied productions are included in the show. Everything from the sublime to the ridiculous. Blackouts, transparent screen acts, a moving band, a really interesting project to attempt to produce adequately!"

Bob Way, social chairman of the fraternity, was assisted by Bobby Goux, and "Bun" O'Reilly, president.

Alpha Thets Plan Mother's Day Tea

Final arrangements for the fourth annual Mothers' Day tea, May 12, were made at the meeting of Alpha Theta Chi on Monday evening at the home of Bettie Walker on Moreno Road.

The tea, to be held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Williams in Montecito from 4 to 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon, is a traditional affair of the sorority. Campus sorority presidents and their mothers have also been invited. Sponsors of the sorority, Mrs. Theodore Harder and Mrs. Williams, will preside at the tea table. Delta Zets Plan Annual Tea for Mothers, Faculty

Senior Delta Zeta Deltas were entertained at a bridge party by the alumnae of the sorority on Thursday evening, at the home of Ester J. Ludcke.

To honor the mothers of the sorority members and the members of the faculty, a tea was planned for May 19. This affair is an annual occasion. Two hundred guests have been invited. It will be held at the home of Mrs. Byron Abraham, patroness. Miss Rose Greenwell is in charge.

Homecoming week-end, sponsored by both active and alumnae chapters, is scheduled for June 1 and 2. The groups have planned a series of activities for the weekend, including a tea, the annual spring formal and a breakfast at the Biltmore hotel.

Julia Lynch, Margaret Beddome, Betty Hopkins, Florence Stuart, Georgia Lyons, Katherine Good and Katherine Case were guests at the bridge supper Thursday night.

This goofy column was first run in the Pasadena Junior College Chronicle long about ten years or so ago. Back in those days we had to get a certain amount of copy into the paper every week and I hit upon the column idea to insure getting some of my stuff printed regularly.

All-Sports Dinner Sponsored by W.A.A.

Honoring the men and women of the physical education department, an all-sports banquet, sponsored by the W.A.A., will be given in Ebbers hall Saturday, May 18.

This banquet is held yearly in recognition of the work done by both the men and women in intercollegiate, intramural and class athletics, and is open to all state college students as well as physical education people.

Harrington "Pop" Wells acting as master of ceremonies, assisted by Harry "Buppy" Moore and Herman "Gump" Gumpertz, have arranged the program for the evening and promise "a hot time" for all who attend.

To help defray expenses a charge of 50 cents per person is being made to all persons who attend.

Staging its first intramural swimming meet, State college aquatic stars will gather at the local Biltmore pool this Thursday afternoon at three-thirty to display their prowess for one of newest activities to be put by the intramural committee.

Under the chairmanship of Norman Coy, who is in charge of the affair, the event promises to be one of the most interesting and exciting competitive programs to be staged this year.

Beginning with the 100 yard free style race the program will include the 50 yard back stroke, diving (four compulsory and three optional), 200 yard free style, medley race, and four man relay, and the breast stroke.

Points will be given for the winner in each race and all students who intend to enter are urged to sign up on the bulletin board.

FROSH BASEBALL TEAM BEATEN BY TAFT NINE, 8-2

Trackmen Win Final Meet By Large Margin

Although they turned in one of their best games of the year, Santa Barbara State's frosh baseball nine went down to defeat before the powerful Taft J.C. squad by a count of 8-2, last Saturday morning on Cabrillo field.

The score might have been heavier in favor of the Gauchos had not Bill Crow pulled a muscle in the relay to give the race to the Panthers.

Clean sweeps in the shot, discus, and javelin as well as firsts and seconds in the pole vault and both hurdles bolstered the green and white's total.

Bill "Fox" Crow was next high point winner for Santa Barbara. He won the highs in 15.9s and nabbed a second in the lows, behind Johnny Bowen.

GAUCHOS TAKE DRUBBING FROM TAFT J. C. NINE

Playing a brand of baseball seldom seen in junior college circles, the Taft junior college took the measure of the State Gauchos 7-3 in a practice game last Friday afternoon.

Errors again cost the Gauchos several runs. The infield was decidedly sloppy and there was a large number of bad throws from the outfield. Pitcher Bortolazzo chucked good ball, but the errors allowed too many runs to cross the plate for a Gauchos win.

Do You Know?

"Gump" Gumpertz, who is directing this year's revue, was the director of the first regular Roadrunner Revue, which was given two years ago?

Bakersfield has the second largest representation at this college, with Santa Barbara naturally running first?

"Spud" Harder, our football coach, was mentioned as All-American in '29 when he was playing football for Stanford university?

Bud Lambourne, our prexy, has been in every Roadrunner Revue since he was a freshman, back in '31?

That our student government and constitution is about to undergo a most drastic change?

Three years ago there was no Roadrunner Revue. At that time it was called the Hospitalization Follies?

That this Revue is to be the most outstanding that has ever been presented at this college?

GAUCHOS DEFEAT LA VERNE; PLACE HIGH IN LEAGUE

By virtue of a 3-2 victory over the La Verne Leopards in a closely fought baseball game, the Santa Barbara State college Gauchos ended up in second place in the southern conference. The game, played last Saturday afternoon on Cabrillo field, was the final league encounter for the Gauchos.

Murkin Miller held the visitors to six hits, three of which were decidedly scratchy. The two La Verne runs were allowed to cross the plate on an error in the outfield. In the meantime the Gauchos had scored three runs. In the ninth inning with a one run lead, Miller struck two men out and forced the third out to hit into an easy play.

Don Fisher was the big batsman with a single and a double off Wright, Leopard pitcher. The Gauchos were lucky in getting men on the bases, but decidedly unlucky in scoring as many as they should have.

Keith Plays Final Game; Miller to Pitch

Making their final appearance of 1935 "Spud" Harder's dashing Gauchos varsity baseball nine meets the strong Chapman crew tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock on the Cabrillo diamond.

The game is slated to be close, with neither team having a large edge. Chapman eked out a hard-fought 4 to 3 victory over the Santa Barbara team early in the season, but the Gauchos will put an improved team on the field which might be able to turn the tide.

Tower, left-handed twirler for the southern school, who is expected to carry the pitching duties for his team, is one of the best pitchers that the Gauchos batsmen have faced all year. He is backed up by Williams who is aside from being a strong relief chucker a high class starter in his own right.

The battery for Santa Barbara, "Mert" Miller and "Rezy" Rezzonico, are the only two Gauchos who are sure of starting in their regular playing positions. According to "Spud" Harder the regular lineup will be juggled around a bit to see how the men will act in the positions which they will play next year, and to uncover any hidden abilities which there might be.

Shirley Keith, outfielder, is the only regular who will be lost to the State team by graduation.

Those who are sure to see action some time during the Chapman encounter are, Kahn, Robinson, Fisher, Miller, Rezzonico, Voorhies, Lebeck, Keith, Bortolazzo, Hathaway and Christianson.

CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE OF STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT PRESENT CAMPAIGN SPEECHES

Garlyn C. Basham

Thomas Merrill

According to Martin Verhoeven, campaign manager for Garlyn Basham, the following statement was obtained today.

"There is always a great deal which may be said in an election of this kind. However, the value of lengthy and verbose discussions with the purpose in mind of influencing student opinion is questionable. Rather it seems that a clear and concise representation of one's ideas and self would be of greater value to the individual student and to the student body in helping to guide the voting intelligently and correctly.

"I have been chosen to run for this office of student-body president because of a demonstrated success in this field as well as the allied fields of public speaking, oratory and debate. Certainly, it is necessary to have had a general background and experience along these lines in order to be fully qualified for the highest student office in the college. That is, if the progress and success of the student body are to be considered.

"While attending the Taft Junior college from 1931-1933, it was my pleasure to hold both the offices of student body president and business manager. During this time, I won the Central California Junior college oratorical contest for two consecutive years and was awarded the degree of "highest achievement" in Phi Rho Pi, a National Honorary Forensic Fraternity, for winning second place in the national contest.

"Since transferring to State, I have been extremely interested in student affairs, having been elected junior class president, selected to work on the constitution revision committee, and actively engaged in debating and public speaking as well as student body committees, club and fraternity work.

"I feel very strongly that student participation should be encouraged in our student body and a more adequate representation on the student council be given those classes and departments which heretofore have not been given a voice in our student government. There is undoubtedly a great deal which may be done to improve our student government and make it more satisfactory to the individual, the various departments and the student body as a whole.

"As members of this student body, it is primarily your duty and to your advantage to vote at the coming election, basing your opinion upon your personal estimation of who is best qualified to represent your school and your opinion as student body president."

—Garlyn A. Basham.

"As a candidate for president of your student body, I shall present my qualifications for leadership, and the objectives for which I shall strive. It is necessary for any candidate to present to the voters his objectives so that they may know the goals for which he directs his efforts.

"In considering my objectives, you will notice a very definite trend, which is of most importance to each of you, that of GREATER OPPORTUNITY FOR STUDENT PARTICIPATION IN COLLEGE ACTIVITIES.

"1. Further support to activities such as dramatics, debate team, the band and glee clubs, which furnish for many students an opportunity for individual expression, and also favorably advertise the school.

"2. Co-ordinated intramural program for women as well as for men.

"3. Development of minor sports, with teams entered in inter-collegiate competition.

"4. Revival of class day assembly programs for local collegiate entertainment.

"5. Greater publicity for student body expenditures:

"a. Monthly treasurer's report to be printed in El Gaucho and to be read before the student body meeting.

"b. All bills over $20 must be submitted to the student body vote.

"c. An AUDIT OF ALL FINANCIAL AFFAIRS every three months comparing actual expenditures with budget appropriations.

"In analyzing my qualifications it is significant that my activities have been varied, and that I have served many different organizations; last year as freshman president, this past year as secretary to the men's club, and vice president of the College Y. For the past two years I have managed the men's housing for the All-College Symphony orchestra and in that capacity have contributed in promoting one of this college's greatest advertising assets. In addition to these offices, I have been a member of the band for two years, have entered minor athletics, and have taken part in dramatics. Also, my membership on this year's budget committee, will give me a clear insight into next year's financial set-up. Experience shows that only by actual association with these campus groups can anyone really understand their problems and possibilities.

"In closing, may I state, that my course of study next year allows my taking a minimum of academic work, which will enable me to devote the maximum amount of time in carrying out these objectives and in furthering your interests at Santa Barbara State."

—Thomas Merrill.

Bill Hoyt

For the past three years during which I have been a student at Santa Barbara State college, it has been my utmost desire to serve and represent the associated students in the capacity of student body president. My qualifications and ability to hold office I leave to your analysis of my past collegiate record.

In any effort to obtain a broadened view of the student activities and a background in student government, I have served in many student positions. Those which I have held during this year are: member of the Gaucho editorial staff, member of the social committee, member of the interfraternity council, member of the extra-curriculum activities committee, president of a fraternity, member of the La Cumbre editorial staff and member of the committee on investigation of student government which has been recently formed.

CANDIDATES FOR OTHER OFFICES

Candidates for other student body offices are Lita Boeseke, Thelma Davis and Betty Roome for secretary; Lillian Cook and Bettie Walker for vice-president; Lyman Goldsmith for treasurer; Harry Moore, Jr. for manager of dramatics and debate; Eleanor Mellinger for school pianist; and Roland McDonald for yell leader.

Transfers From Bakersfield

It is an extreme pleasure to be nominated for this office. I certainly consider it a privilege to be a candidate for such a position. Although this is only my second semester here at State, I have been and am very much interested in student body affairs.

I transferred from Bakersfield junior college last fall, having previously attended high school there. My experience with both class and student body offices have made me confident in feeling capable of accepting the nomination.

If I am elected to this office of secretary, I will do all that I can to serve you effectively and efficiently. I believe that with my past experience and present interest I can be successful as secretary of this student body.

—Thelma "Sammy" Davis.

Thanks Nominators; Cites Experience

May I thank those students who were instrumental in nominating me for the office of secretary of the student body.

My past experience includes being secretary of the student body in high school, secretary of the freshman class, secretary of the Junior Auxiliary, and quite a bit of parliamentary law. I have been on the social committee, on the A.W.S. board and a member of Las Espeulas since I have been in college. Hence I am a bit acquainted with college activities.

If I am elected I will do my best to be a good secretary.

—Betty Roome.

Urges Student Cooperation

I think what we need in college and perhaps in the world at large is to forget the spirit of the go-getters and develop more faith in the go-givers.

Our aim should be to help each other all we can and by mutual cooperation strengthen us all.

Cooperation is necessary. Without it a student body is unable to cooperate.

A Go-Giver year 1935-1936!

—Lita Boeseke.

Works on Revision Committee

I feel that on this campus there is a decided lack of interest in student government. Now while everyone cannot hold an office in the student body, everyone can at least become acquainted with the activities of that organization. I do not believe that students should be forced into something they have no desire to do, but if the business of the A.S.B. were carried on in an interesting manner, I feel it would do much to revive enthusiasm in student government.

"Since I have been working with the Constitution Revision committee, I have become vitally interested in the New Deal which you have been hearing about on the campus. While it would take too long to explain the intricacies of the idea here, I need only say that I will give the New Deal my whole hearted support.

"Operate and cooperate" to make 1935-36 the most successful year that State has ever had.

—Lillian Cook.

12 CANDIDATES GIVE CAMPAIGN TALKS AT MEET

Appearing before the Associated Student body yesterday, twelve candidates for student body offices presented their qualifications and platforms in a general campaign speech program.

The aspirants were introduced by Lois Jo McPheeter, chairman of the election board and vice president of the student body, each giving a two-minute campaign speech.

For the positions of yell leader, pianist, treasurer and manager of dramatics and debate only one candidate is running for each. Those are Roland McDonald, Lyman Goldsmith, Eleanor Mellinger, and Harry "Buppy" Moore respectively.

Seeking the position of secretary were Lita Boeseke, Thelma "Sammy" Davis, and Betty Roome all of whom have had previous experience in such a position, according to their campaign statements.

Bettie Walker and Lillian Cook are the two aspirants for vice-president.

Candidates for president were introduced by Allan "Bud" Lambourne, Thomas Merrill spoke first and as part of his publicity a model airplane flew around the assembly and dropped small hand-bills advocating Merrill for president. Bill Hoyt gave a general outline of his ideas and he was followed by Garlyn Basham who had as part of his publicity program the distribution to the students of a leaflet presenting his views in a condensed manner.

At the conclusion of Mr. Basham's speech, a question concerning the printing of his pamphlets was asked in a rather pertinent manner by a student body member. Mr. Basham's reply in which he explained that he paid for the printing out of his own pocket in order to better acquaint the students with his ideas was enthusiastically received by the audience.

Interest in Student Affairs

I sincerely appreciate the nomination for vice president of the student body, and I feel confident in accepting the honor because of previous experience in similar offices. In the one year I have been at Santa Barbara I have thoroughly enjoyed and supported all school activities. Judging from the success of many of them I am convinced that with capable leadership and the cooperation of the entire student-body all future events will be made most interesting and profitable. Whether or not I am elected to this office, I shall do all in my power to make the next school year a successful one.

Thank you, —Bettie Walker.

ident of a fraternity, member of the La Cumbre editorial staff and member of the committee on investigation of student government which has been recently formed.

City Resident

With this background and the fact that I have lived in Santa Barbara for over 13 years, I believe that I can best serve the students in their constant effort to interest in the townspeople in the school. Also with my three years background on this campus I feel that I shall be able to understand the school problems, as they present themselves, quickly and clearly.

Having had the opportunity of being in contact with many activities and functions pertaining to student government, it is only natural that I have observed some of the faults and inconsistencies that our present administration is laboring under.

Constitution Revision

Primarily it is necessary and essentially that the constitution of the associated students be revised and brought up to date in every detail.

This has already been approached and started by several interested students, of which I am one. It is by the reorganization and rewriting of this document that we, the students, will be able to create and stimulate more student interest and activity for our '35-36 student body which can easily be made the best organized in the history of this school.

Many ideas and details have already been dealt with by the constitutional revision committee, but as yet they have not touched the vital spot where the greatest correction is necessary.

It lies in the present executive council.

Council

Our council is composed of seven members, of which five are elected at large. Is this a representative group of the associated students? Five members are ex-officio, four are appointed, and three are faculty members. Where is there representation from the students at large in that?

I believe that the council should be more of a legislative and judiciary body elected from the students at large. Or if not, elected by popular vote. Then a representative group composed of one person from each class and from the major departments such as the education, the home economics, and the industrial education and others that have no connection with the student body finances. These students, composing the student council, would have the final authority in the matters of student body finance. They would decide the allocation of the funds, while the chairman of the standing committees would only present their demands. The essential motive is to create an impersonal body to legislate money matters and avoid and annihilate the present bickering, trading and "dog eat dog" fashion of the budgeting of our student body funds. The present system tends only to pull the student body apart as each organization fights for its bread and butter.

Upper Classmen

The council should be composed of students, preferably upper classmen who know and understand the traditions, background and policies of the college, that are not interested in any special department or committee but rather through the coordination of policies will benefit the school and the students at large. Chairmen of the standing committees which form the ex-officio element and the appointed members which make up the present council will be limited to the privilege of discussion and debate.

Further I should like to propose the formation of a new group, supposedly a welfare council or committee, which will have as its primary purpose the investigation of such matters as concern the welfare of the association. It would be in the hands of this organization to formulate and enforce freshmen traditions, something that is sadly lacking on this campus. Also this group could be the governing body concerning all student body awards.

Candidates Give Campaign Speeches

By observation of the variety and quality of some of the recent athletic awards, it is easily seen that there is a need for such an award control.

Reorganization

There are many such reorganizations which would be a benefit to the student body and the student control. Among them are such outstanding items as the reorganization of the comptrollers office so that Fred Allred could devote more of his time to the student body finances for which he receives the majority of his salary. Mr. Allred at present splits his time between the gymnasium, teaching, management of Anacapa club, cafeteria accounts, intramural sports management and the associated student accounts as well as being the purchasing agent for the whole student body.

Likewise, the redistribution of the duties of the activities committee so that there will be more relationship between the money they receive and the amount of things that they are supposed to do with the paltry sum.

Many aspirants for student offices as well as public offices present platforms for the purpose of gaining votes. Rather than present a platform, I offer these ideas and suggestions as a means of building up our student government.

—Bill Hoyt.

Plans to Produce Modern Plays

Students: For two years I have aspired to win the post of manager of dramatics and debate at Santa Barbara State college. If elected to this office for the years 1935-36 I will make it a special point to produce the best of modern theatre work in the selection of dramatizations, to select only those plays which will be enjoyed by both the actors and actor. I will endeavor to bring about a closer relationship between the townspeople and the college, through the medium of the Lobero theatre and a greater and bigger State college dramatic and debate program.

—Harry Moore, Jr.

Organized Rooting Section

Athletics at S.B.S.C. are well on their way to the top.

We all know that a winning football team would make our college the most talked of school in the conference, but with that team we must have the spirit and pep of a well organized rooting section. I, Roland McDonald, if elected to the office of yell leader, will do all that is in my power to bring out the spirit that I know is in our college students. With every loyal Santa Barbara collegian and co-ed behind our coaches and teams WE CAN'T LOOSE.

—Roland McDonald.

Promises to Uphold Standards

I wish to thank all of you who made my nomination for the office of student body treasurer possible. I feel that with such evidence of support that I can honestly and efficiently fulfill this position to the best of my ability. I shall try to uphold the standards which the present treasurer has set up, and help make the coming year one of the best Santa Barbara State has experienced.

—Lyman Goldsmith.

CAST REHEARSES AT FOX THEATRE BEFORE OPENING

In order that the 1935 Roadrunner Revue will be run off without a flaw and be the most successful yet staged, the committee in charge has worked out an extensive rehearsal schedule, and has arranged two radio programs for advertising purposes. The schedule does not end until the morning of the first performance, May 9, and includes as many as three rehearsals in one day, which means that the cast members will have little or no spare time until the Revue is over. Four of the practices will be held on the Fox Arlington stage itself, so that the performers may become accustomed to it. All other rehearsing will be done in the college auditorium.

One radio program was presented over the local station KDB at 10:10 P.M. on Wednesday, May 1, while the other may be heard over the same station at the same time on Wednesday, May 8. Some of the talent in the '35 Revue is heard over these programs, enabling the public to obtain a sample of what can be seen and heard when the regular shows are presented.

Student President Urges Cooperation

"I dislike using the time-worn superlatives 'biggest' and 'best ever,' but the 1935 Roadrunner Revue cannot be described adequately by any other comparison.

"With the complete stage facilities of the beautiful Fox theater, and the pep and enthusiasm that has been shown on the campus, we are anticipating one of the greatest successes any Revue has had.

"The Revue can only be as successful as we make it. Every member of the cast is working day and night. Every member of the student body can do his bit by trying for that $7.50 ticket sales prize, and telling all his friends about our production.

"Exceptionally fine talent in every line, singing, dancing, music, and comedy skits, all will combine to commemorate the 'Roadrunner Revue of 1935'.

Committee Recommends College Bill

Assembly bill 174, which will change the name of the California State Teachers' colleges and liberalize the courses of instruction, has been passed by the State assembly and recommended by the Senate committee to pass in the Senate.

The Senate universities and state colleges' committee gave its approval to the bill sponsored by Santa Barbara county legislators last Friday. The measure was introduced to the assembly by Assemblyman Alfred W. Robertson, chairman of the state college committee.

"In my opinion this bill will probably pass. The Senate seems to favor it," said President Clarence L. Phelps concerning the bill.

Concerning the new courses which may be added if the bill passes, President Phelps added, "Any new courses that are added to our curriculum will have to be approved by the State Board of Education and because of the tight budget situation I seriously doubt that there will be any new courses offered next year."

Our Senator Edgar Stow is on the Senate universities and state colleges committee which failed to vote approval at an earlier Senate committee hearing.

The bill was opposed by representatives of University of California at the earlier meeting despite the assertions of Assemblyman Robertson, appearing before the Senate committee.

If the measure becomes law, the name of Santa Barbara State Teachers' college will be officially Santa Barbara State college, eliminating the word "teachers."

In addition, courses will eventually be liberalized to provide instruction on a wider variety of subjects.

The vote in favor of the bill on Friday was 5 to 2, with Senators Knowland, and Snyder of Vera Cruz, Island.

Helen Goddy, Grace Roscoe, Clara Ross, La Rue Steelsmith and Dorothy Taylor. The fairies for the event will be Ellen Roe, Alice Hilgreen, Chloe Vincent, Margaret Wood, Margaret Beddome, Catherine Boyton, Jesse Griffin and Marvne Jones. Spanish men and women will be Jane Goslin, Niva Doris Freeman, Phyllis La Source, Jeanette Banks, Eleanor Porter, Doris Crocham, and Violet Barnett, while the women are Frances Kinney, Anne Seymour, Ethel Leona Green, Miriam Turtan, Marjorie Hoffman, Irene Samson, Lorraine Sartwell, Janine Rupertus and Elisse Clifford.

Another important feature on the program will be the revealing of the May Queen, who is selected by votes of the women students. Mem-

'METROPOLIS' FEATURED BY DANCE BAND

At the Roadrunner Revue to be held on the evenings of May 9 and 10 at the Fox Arlington theater, Fred Lambourne's dance band will play as a novelty number Ferde Grofe's jazz-fugue, "Metropolis."

The arrangement to be played by the orchestra is Mr. Grofe's own. In the condensed form it will take approximately five minutes to play.

City Atmosphere
"Metropolis" represents the hustle and bustle of a large city; streams of traffic; crowds of people; each individual intent on pushing and shoving his way through the crowds. This number was written by Ferde Grofe in 1928, who made it definitely typical of modern American music. It contains all the syncopation and movement that depicts American life.

Two pianos will be used for "Metropolis" with Miss Anita Cochran acting as feature soloist, while Stanley Cox will be at the other piano. An orchestra of nineteen will be used for this number, with Bud Lambourne as director.

Rhapsody in Blue
In 1920 Mr. Grofe did his first arranging for Paul Whiteman's orchestra when George Gershwin wrote Rhapsody in Blue. Having been written for piano only, this number was put into symphonic jazz scoring for the entire orchestra by Mr. Grofe, who from that time on did all of Whiteman's arrangements.

Other of Mr. Grofe's famous compositions are "Three Shades of Blue," which will also be featured on this program; "Mississippi Suite" and "Grand Canon Suite."

Members of the women's glee club will also sing several numbers.

Miss Gladys Van Fossen and Mrs. Winifred Hodgins, instructors, are supervising the rehearsals. Lorraine Koehly is general manager of the May Day Fete.

Committee members are: Geraldine Slayton, music chairman and assisted by Margaret Beddome and Edan Brown; Helen Rogers, properties with Nancy Clapp and Senor Whitson, Clara Ross, Doris Martin and Wyllys Anderson helping her. Costume committee is made up of Dorothy Taylor as chairman, and Olive De Motte, Harriet Cooper. Publicity manager is Bertha Richards, assisted by La Rue Steelsmith.
