Local Beach Escapes Damage Sandyland Houses Wrecked

The Carpinteria beach and beach homes located near Linden Avenue escaped damage during the three day period of high tides and ground swells which destroyed thousands of dollars worth of property in the Sandyland area last week. The destructive tides abated Saturday, permitting workmen to begin the task of moving several cottages that had been badly undermined further back on the beach.

In addition to the damaging or destroying of many beach cottages in Sandyland, Sandyland Dunes, Sandyland Cove, Serena, Miramar and in the Edgecliff Beach club section, the tides swept away acres of sand and in some cases left valuable lots nothing but a rocky waste. Included among homes damaged beyond hope of salvage were those of H. K. Elston, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Girard Van B. Hale. Suffering serious damage were the quarter million dollar Isham "Castle" damaged to the extent of $50,000; the George Owen Knapp home which was seriously undermined and the Edward Sykes Cottage which was entirely undermined but stood firm on cement pilings.

A sand bag barricade erected to protect the William Yule place proved effective and the George Kaime home escaped serious damage as did the Grant B. Schley cottage. A recently erected bulkhead guarded the C. K. G. Billings home. A crew of house movers managed to drag the H. A. White cottage to a safe position as it was on the verge of toppling into the heavy sea.

Property owners are now engaged in re-inforcing foundations of structures on the beach and some of them are preparing to move houses to a safer position in anticipation of the February high tides which would cause further damage should they be accompanied by the heavy seas of last week.

LION'S CLUB TO INITIATE NEW MEMBER TONIGHT

A sound motion picture entitled "Creating Your Market" made available through the American Fruit and Produce Association will be presented at the Lion's Club meeting in the Veterans' Memorial building this evening. Henry D. Greene, a representative of the Association, will be the speaker of the evening. C. E. Neuman is program chairman in charge of arrangements.

William D. Udall will be initiated into the organization this evening and will assume the title of "Baby Lion" vacated by Jack Wullbrandt, most recent member of the organization. Burchill Upson will be in charge of the initiation.

BOY SCOUTS TO ENTER FIRST AID CONTEST

Members of Troop 1, Carpinteria, met Wednesday night for a night of planning and organization in regard to several future activities to be engaged in by the members.

It was agreed and plans were made for at least 15 boys of the Troop to take part in the Mission Council First Aid contest to be held in Santa Barbara during the latter part of January. Charles Babcock and Monte Ramey will be in charge of the organization of this project.

A Father-and-Son banquet has been planned for Anniversary Week. The dinner will take place in the Community church, financed and prepared by the boys themselves. A speaker from Santa Barbara office will be on hand for the event. Verne Jordan, assistant scoutmaster will be in charge of this event.

Last Saturday a group of 20 boys under the direction of Scoutmaster Kent took to the wooded lands in search of snow and fun. The boys left at 6 a. m. Saturday and returned the same day.

A monthly feature of the Troop, "A Court-martial" was held Wednesday in which the older boys of the senior patrol sat as a body in judgment of the actions of each member of the Troop. As a body they have been successful in bringing to light and straightening out many problems and faults of individual members. This group was organized in an effort to make the Troop as a whole outstanding and to ensure proper activities on the part of its members. The boys of this tribunal have the power of levying punishment and banishment from the Troop of members whom they do not feel add to the proper spirit of Scouting or do not fulfill the qualifications of the Scout Oath and Law.

Mrs. Phil Dane and Mrs. R. J. Ogan motored to Santa Maria Tuesday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Norval Dice, the occasion being the first birthday of their daughter Marilyn.

DEER DROWNS IN HEAVY SURF

The high tides and heavy breakers were responsible for the death of a young buck last Sunday morning. The deer had apparently been chased by dogs down to the lands flooded by the high tides and after swimming across to the sand dunes was in an exhausted condition. It was startled from its hiding place in the dunes by Ray Cook of the Chronicle staff as he was walking along the beach and attempted to run into the ocean. Buffeted about by the large breakers it was flung back on the beach in a stunned condition. Cook and one of the students from the Santa Barbara Boys schools attempted to revive the animal but it died shortly after being taken from the surf. Authorities were notified and the carcass turned over to the state game warden.

RUSSEL CUP MEET SET FOR APRIL 1

With the announcement that the Russell Cup meet has been scheduled for April 1st this year, track practice is scheduled to start at the Carpinteria high school in the near future with several of the boys already training for the events in which they expect to participate.

Another major sports event of interest to the high school students is the annual tennis tournament at Ojai which has been scheduled for April 27, 28 and 29th. Teams to represent the high school are to be selected and start training within the next few weeks.

The directors of the Carpinteria Valley Chamber of Commerce met last Wednesday evening in the Justice Court room and elected officers for the year and heard a report of the year's activities given by the secretary, W. H. James.

The following officers were re-elected: president, David Safwenberg; vice-president, Marc Latham; treasurer, E. D. Solari and W. H. James was re-appointed as secretary for the year.

A survey of the year indicated that the Chamber of Commerce had one of the most successful years in the history of the organization and sponsored several community events including the community carnival with the Legion and Lion's club, a display of fireworks on the Fourth of July and an outdoor Christmas tree contest.

Included in publicity work was the installation of the large Neon sign on the Safeway building, a series of programs over KFWB, advertising in the News-Press Jubilee edition which was sent to all parts of the United States and the mailing of many pieces of literature covering the Carpinteria Valley. Some 300 requests for information were received as the result of the radio programs and over eight hundred requests were received through the All Year Club and the Santa Barbara Chamber of Commerce. Over 1,500 descriptive folders were mailed in answers to these requests and a number were sent to hotels and service clubs upon request.

High School Players To Present "Three Live Ghosts"

Rehearsals are in full swing for "Three Live Ghosts," a comedy in three acts which is to be presented by the dramatics group of the Carpinteria High School on Friday, Jan. 20th, at 8:15 p. m. in the High School Auditorium. The Junior class headed by Rodney Starkley is sponsoring the event and seats are now on sale at 40c and 50c and may be secured at Tennyson's Drug store. A limited number of general admission tickets will be available at the door on the evening of the play.

The play is being directed by Prof. James Love, with Patsy Hales as assistant director; Stage manager, Clarence Gorham; costumes, Patty Demaree. John Love of the Art Department of U.C.L.A. is to assist in constructing the set for the play. Preceding the play the high school Orchestra under the direction of Fred Greenough will play an overture.

The play, having its locale in a poor London lodging house is of the World War period of 1917 and was first produced in New York at the Greenwich Village Theatre Sept. 29, 1920. It does not deal with the war as such. According to Arthur Hornblow, New York dramatic critic of "The Theatre" for December, 1920:

"By the middle of the intermediate act, interest begins to jump and from there on to the final curtain there is continuous surprise and comic revelation. "Three Musketeers" return to London from the Great War. One has been reported dead and his step-mother has collected the insurance. No. 2 is an American who is "wanted" at home. No. 3, known as Spooey, has come back a mental wreck due to shell-shock. Further, he has developed into a confirmed kleptomaniac. All three had been German prisoners. Their inability to establish their respective identities makes them practically 'dead ones.'

"With these premises it is easy to guess some of the situations, humorous and dramatic, that arise.

Edison Co. to Spend Over $400,000 on Improvements

Expenditures of approximately $482,933 will be made by the Southern California Edison Company in this division of its service territory for this year, according to E. B. Cummings, manager for the company here. This local budget is for improvements to the service system, operating expenses and payrolls and is in addition to the taxes the company will pay locally. Mr. Cummings attended the recent annual meeting of Edison Company officers, department heads, and division and district managers in Los Angeles, at which the company's plans for 1939 business development were announced.

Harry J. Bauer, president of the company, W. C. Mullendore, executive vice-president, and Fred B. Lewis, vice-president and general manager, addressed the meeting.

A total expenditure of approximately $26,000,000 will be made by the Edison Company during 1939 in its Southern and Central California territory. This amount is exclusive of bond interest and other payments for the use of capital to be made by the company during the year. The expenditures will be for new construction, to improve and widen the extent of electrical service facilities, operation and maintenance of Edison properties, payrolls and taxes. Approximately $8,000,000 of the total will be paid in taxes during 1939.

In addition to the $482,933 allocated for expenditures in the Santa Barbara division, this portion of the Edison Company system will be directly benefitted by the general system-wide activities and betterments to be made during 1939.

Reports of officers and department heads at the annual meeting on the business of the Edison Company during the past year, reflect the steady growth of the communities of which the company is a part. During 1938 the company added approximately 24,000 new meters to its system, bringing the total of active meters to 536,000.

BADGE OF COURTESY

The State Department of Motor Vehicles is issuing the customary reminders that the deadline for renewal of automobile registration is midnight, February 4—with penalties for delinquents.

Car owners must hurry and "get there" before that midnight deadline. But it's to be hoped the rush for license plates will be the last hurrying in connection with our motoring for 1939. For, in this Exposition year, our normally heavy traffic will be greatly increased by additional millions of motoring tourists. It is essential that every driver exercise the utmost caution, counteracting the hazards of crowded highways by driving safely and sanely, at all times observing safety courtesies as well as safety laws.

Our new plates bear the proud legend: "California World's Fair '39." We can prevent hundreds of tragic accidents, and set a good example to our visitors, if each California driver will so conduct himself that his plate distinguishes him not only as a citizen of the host State but also as a motorist who may be depended upon to respect the rules of the road and the rights of others. Let's regard our new plates, and teach others to recognize them, as badges of courtesy.

HEALTH FOR THE MASSES

Much in the news are numerous proposals designed to provide adequate medical and hospital care for all citizens. In California two tentative plans have made the headlines lately. One would bring all doctors, dentists, hospitals and allied services under control of a state commission which would fix fees and supervise administration. The other, of a voluntary and semi-private nature, would constitute an organization of citizens contributing a fixed sum monthly in return for services of health agencies taking part, also voluntarily, in the plan.

As it is, free health care is available to the poor in publicly supported institutions, while the wealthy can pay for the service. The class most burdened by the high cost of sickness—the great middle class of citizens has remained unrelieved. Whatever the plan, if any is adopted, it should relieve those who are not eligible for free treatment, yet who, under present conditions, cannot afford to pay the costs of prolonged illnesses and operations.

A practical, workable plan that would be fair to the medical profession, that would give a much deserved break to honest, independent, tax-paying citizens who work for wages or operate small businesses—should certainly be accorded careful consideration.

The Churches

Carpinteria has a number of Churches, whose pastors and members will be glad to welcome you to their services.

THE CARPINTERIA COMMUNITY CHURCH

Rev. Deane F. Babbitt, Pastor.

"A Sunday Program Functioning Throughout the Week."

9:45 a. m. Church school classes for students of all ages.

11:00 a. m. Morning worship for all.

6:30 p. m. Youth Fellowship of Christian Endeavor.

The Church believes in the possibility of Christianizing our social order. The great faith of the Christian is that which leads to the conviction that we can build the spirit of Jesus in this world. At her Altar the Church offers to a hungry humanity "The Christ." The world over, the Church includes those of every race drawn together into "God's great family." "The Mother of Humanity" is the theme of the Pastor's sermon at the Sunday morning eleven o'clock worship.

The annual congregational meeting will be held in the Church parlors Wednesday evening, beginning with a "Covered Dish Dinner" at 6:30 o'clock. Reports will be heard from all organizations connected with the Church, Trustees and Governors will be elected for the ensuing year, and various forms of entertainment will provide an interesting evening for all Church families. Come! You will find a welcome among Christian friends.

Why Worship? Youth Fellowship at 6:30 Sunday evening considers, "Gaining Strength Through Worship," the discussion led by Webster Beckstead. We are "Workers Together with God."

METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. J. A. Woodson, Pastor

10 a. m. Church school, Rev. C. P. Moore, general superintendent. The church school when properly functioning is clearly fourfold:

(1) To co-operate with the home from the first years of the child's life in its Christian nature and bring it on safely to the age of responsibility.

(2) To win the individual to Christ and the Christian life. The Christian life as does the natural life begins with birth, by being born of the spirit.

(3) To develop strong intelligent spiritual character. Growth is essential to the babe in Christ.

(4) To win as many as possible to membership in the church and train them for efficient Christian service.

Parents, we solicit your cooperation in making this a church school fulfilling the four points as mentioned above.

11:00 Morning worship, subject: "Influence" or "Individual Responsibility." Say! did you know some people are so busy, or at least they think they are, that they have no time to go to church? Well now listen to this, someone has said: "The person who has so much business that he cannot spend some time with God, has more business than God intended him to have." I think he is about right, what do you think?

6:30 Meeting of the two leagues. The older youths last Sunday evening discussed "What Christ Means to Our Community." Next Sunday evening under the leadership of Lester Koehler the subject will be, "Helping Others to Become Christian." A spiritual movement known as "The Methodist Youth Crusade" approved by the General Conference will call to its aid all the agencies of our church during the

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

By LEONE BAXTER

"Sleep-snacks" in daytime as preparation for a strenuous evening of entertainment or being entertained is becoming less a fad and more the downright sensible thing to do. During the holiday festivities just past, dames and damsels, their hours crammed with family dinners, egg nog parties, dances, teas and shopping, found the best way to ready themselves for the gayety was by napping before or after lunch, just before dressing for the evening, or whenever else they might crowd in the required golden, restorative quarter-hour.

Nap, say the experts, right after your heaviest spot of work, whether it's muscular or mental, and before, not after fatigue actually sets in. So, if you'd face your friends or business associates bright of visage and charmingly fresh—take a nap first.

And if snoozing in the daytime strikes you as unrobust for a woman of 1939—remember that hemmen Benito Mussolini and George Raft are two of the best known devotees of the popular custom.

Signal fires are kindling for one legislative fray which will attract the personal attention of every home-maker in the state, for the registered nurses again are declaring war against their natural en-coming quadrennium. It purposes to reach every important religious problem of youth, both personal and social. Come and learn more about it.

7:30 p. m. Evening massage, subject: "The Urge of the Soul" John 14:31. Come and let us worship together. You will find the same welcome and friendliness here that you enjoyed in the old home church.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY

Christian Science Society, Carpinteria, a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., holds service every Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m., Sunday School at 9:45 o'clock. Mid-week meetings every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

A reading room is maintained in the church building, open Tuesday afternoons (except holidays) from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock.

"Life" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist. This verse from Proverbs constitutes the Golden Text, "In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death."

Among the Bible citations in the Lesson-Sermon are these verses from John: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. . . In him was life; and the life was the light of men. . . And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou has sent." Verses from John's first epistle are also included: "And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life."

Passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, state: "We all must learn that Life is God." "Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting I AM, the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase."

ADVICE GIVEN TO VISITORS PLANNING DEATH VALLEY TRIPS

Northern California motorists planning trips to Death Valley National Monument are advised to drive via U. S. 99 to Bakersfield, U. S. 466 or State route 178 to Junction with U. S. 6, thence by way of Trona or Lone Pine, according to the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club. Motorists planning the trip via Reno, Nevada, should drive by U. S. 395 or State (Nevada) No. 3 and 5. From Las Vegas, entrance may be made by either Beatty or Death Valley Junction over all paved roads.

Most Death Valley roads are open and in good condition, with the exception of Salt Pools road and the West side of South Loop, both of which are temporarily closed.

Accommodations are available at the popular Furnace Creek Inn and the Furnace Creek Auto Camp. The Inn, overlooking the heart of colorful Death Valley, is operated on the American plan and Camp consists of cabins, restaurant and store. The Amargosa Hotel at Death Valley, is conveniently located near major scenic attractions of the area. Accommodations are also available at Stovepipe Well Hotel and Death Valley View Hotel.

All modern camping facilities are available in Death Valley with public camp grounds at Texas Spring, near Furnace Creek, where water, tables and rest rooms are available without charge, being maintained by the National Park Service. Firewood, however, must be purchased, or obtained before entering the monument, for it is prohibited to cut or in any way disturb trees or other plant life in National Parks and Monuments. Trailer campsites are available at Furnace Creek Auto Camp, with electric outlets, toilet and bath facilities for nominal charge.

Visitors are warned to camp in designated areas only and are reminded that any information desired may be had from the rangers.

Informal talks on Death Valley are made by the Park Naturalist five evenings a week at 8:00 p. m., at Furnace Creek Auto Camp and on Thursday and Sunday evenings, talks by the Naturalist are to be heard at the Furnace Creek Inn at 8:30 p. m.

A bill sponsored by the California State Nurses Association, according to Mrs. M. H. Alberts of Los Angeles, speaking for the practical nurses, would "restrict the field to registered nurses, make it impossible for practical nurses to engage in the profession, and penalize millions of homes where services of the high-priced registered nurses are financially out of reach."

The registered nurses retort that "the practical nursing profession isn't a profession anyhow," and that "only trained and qualified nurses able to pass the stringent examinations necessary for registry, should be entrusted with care of the sick."

Accordingly, the "practical" group has countered with a bill asking for creation of a state board to license and examine themselves!

The battle will be watched with more than usual interest, not alone because it's one that affects practically every home in the land, but because this time, before the doors of the state legislature are fairly open both the registered and the practical nurses have come out fighting.

Hollywood Beauty Secrets

By Max Factor, Jr.

Filmdom's Foremost Make-up Authority

Beauty for Brunettes

In undertaking an article on the proper make-up practices for brunettes, I am immediately stepping into a field which is very regularly conducive to arguments.

The reason for this is that many feminine appearances which really should fall under the brunette classification of natural hair and complexion coloring are quite often wrongly considered by their possessors to be blonde or brunette—rather than their true brunette status.

The brunette is one whose natural complexion and coiffure tints actually should be placed in a range definitely in between the blonde and the brunette degrees of coloring—and statistics prove that forty-eight percent of the world's women come under this brunette classification.

In fact, my father, the late Max Factor, coined the word "brunette" several years ago to properly describe this great percentage of women who could neither be classified as blonde nor brunette.

Naturally the dividing lines which separate this in-between classification from the blonde and brunette types on either side of it are often extremely thin ones.

For example, Luise Rainer and Merle Oberon are quite generally regarded as being brunettes—whereas my own classification specifies both of these personages as dark brunettes. And, I must admit, the distinction here is an extremely fine one.

Margaret Sullivan

Going to the other extreme of the brunette color range, my classification shows Margaret Sullivan and Ann Sheridan as being very light brunettes—but with both of them admittedly bordering very closely on the dark blonde color range.

It is very important that these women who are brunettes should discern this hair-and-complexion coloring fact, in order that it may serve to guide them in determining the correct color harmony in make-up for their types.

I have observed, for instance, many medium brunettes who have mistakenly classified themselves either as light brunettes or dark-blonds, with consequent errors in their selection of make-up shades, and final flaws in their made-up appearance.

Luise Rainer

Too determine the correct color harmony in make-up for the various types of brunettes, let us first consider that which is a proper complement to the beauty of those who, like Miss Rainer and Miss Oberon are definitely on the darkside of the brunette scale.

Here, for brown hair and eyes, and olive skins, the color harmony ensemble calls for olive powder, carmine rouge, carmine lip-stick, brown eyeshadow pencil and eyelash make-up, with ivory tint make-up foundation, and natural make-up blender.

Ann Sheridan

For the Margaret Sullivan-Ann Sheridan type of light brunette, with light brown hair, fair skin, and bluish or grayish eyes, the color harmony demands are for rachel powder, blondeen rouge, vermilion lipstick, gray eyeshadow, (brown shadow for those with hazel eyes), black eyebrow pencil and eyelash make-up, blush make-up foundation and rachel make-up blender.

For the middle degree of brunette natural coloring—Ruby Keeler and Irene Rich, with their medium brown hair, brown eyes, and medium skin, occur to me as illustrative of this classification—the correct color harmony formula is: brunette powder, carmine rouge and carmine lipstick, brown eyeshadow, black eye-lash make-up and eyebrow pencil, rachel make-up blender and blush make-up foundation.

Smartness

A correct self-classification under the proper brunette type, with a consequent selection of make-up materials in the color harmony ensemble suitable for this type, will result in a feminine appearance which is a great deal smarter and more glamorous than one which has been erroneously classified in the blonde or brunette range of complexion colorings—and mistakenly made-up accordingly.

CULBERT L. OLSON TAKES OFFICE AS NEW GOVERNOR

Governor Culbert L. Olson took his oath of office at 4 p. m. Monday, January 2, while four cannons in the court yard of the State Capitol boomed forth with the seventeen gun Governor's salute.

Ex-Governor Frank F. Merriam, in giving his farewell address to the joint session of the Senate and Assembly, spoke briefly of his administration, and in closing said, "In all sincerity and with every desire on my part to be helpful, I wish my successor as Governor good health, good fortune, and success. And thus, rather than good bye, I say good luck—and God bless you."

Hon. Emmett Sewell, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, administered the oath of office to Governor Olson, and then the Governor began his inaugural address.

Following Governor Olson's address, Lieutenant Governor Ellis E. Patterson was sworn into office and delivered his inaugural speech.

In the opening session of the Assembly Mr. John H. O'Donnell, of Yolo County, placed in nomination for speaker the Hon. Paul Peek, of Long Beach. The nomination was seconded by Henry P. Meehan, Alameda County; Cecil R. King, Los Angeles, and Earl Desmond had been candidates for the Speakership but withdrew in favor of Peek, and actively aided in his support. The Republican members placed Ray Williamson of San Francisco in nomination. The vote was Peek 43; Williamson 34, with a united Democratic vote for Peek.

Hon. Hugh P. Donnelly, of Woodland, was nominated as Democratic Speaker pro tempore, and was duly elected on roll call. He was opposed by Gardiner Johnson, Republican, of Berkeley.

Jack Carl Greenberg, of Los Angeles, Chief Minute Clerk of the last session of the Assembly, was elected by the united Democratic delegation as Chief Clerk. David V. Oliver, of Merced, was elected Minute clerk by acclamation. Oliver is a Democrat. David V. Gill, president of the Young Democrats, was also unanimously elected Sergeant of Arms. The Reverend Raymond J. Bailey, of Sacramento, was unanimously elected Chaplain.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Hatfield opened the Senate. After the newly elected Senators were sworn in, Hon. Jerrold L. Seawall, Republican, was elected President pro tempore. Following the selection of the Chief Clerk and Sergeant at Arms, Senator Swing of San Bernardino, (Rep.) offered a resolution that the rules of the last session of the Senate be adopted. This motion was carried 30 to 4, with Senators Foley, Garrison, Hollister and Shelley voting against it. The adoption of the resolution gave to the Senate all power to select committees, and deprived Lieutenant Governor Patterson from the right of naming his committees.

General Patrick J. H. Farrell was named Adjutant General by Governor Olson. General Farrell was appointed Captain in the California National Guard during the Spanish-American War, 40 years ago, by the only other Democratic Governor of California, James A. Budd.

CROP VALUE DROPS $12,000,000 FROM FIGURES OF 1937

SACRAMENTO — A decline of approximately $12,000,000 in the value of commercial vegetable and melon crops produced in California in 1938 was due largely to lower average unit prices on most crops, the federal-state crop reporting service at the State Department of Agriculture announced today over the signature of Carl M. Schiller, truck crop statistician.

For 1938 a total of $77,604,000 was placed on the vegetable and melon crops harvested in California. In 1937 the same crops had a value of $89,580,000.

Among the state's truck crops, lettuce was the most valuable, Schiller's report showed, its value in 1938 being estimated at $19,158,000. Tomatoes were second in importance commercially, returning to growers $9,827,000. Cantaloupes ranked in third place in money values with $7,423,000. The celery crop was estimated to be worth $6,223,000 and the asparagus crop was rated at $5,863,000.

Total acreage of vegetables and melons harvested in 1938 was 496,780 compared with 553,070 acres harvested in 1937. Acreage decreases were largely confined to plantings of spring peas and canning tomatoes. Asparagus acreage showed a large increase in 1938.

Schiller's annual report presented figures on nearly 50 commercial vegetable and melon crops produced in California. Minor vegetables, such as anise, beets, brocolli, Brussels sprouts, endive, pumpkins, radishes, rhubarb, squash, sweet corn, turnips were grouped together, total acreage of which was estimated at 29,000 representing an average of four and a half tons to the acre at average income of $15 per ton for a total income from minor vegetables of $1,950,000.

Automotive engineers from all parts of the world will visit Treasure Island in June, 1939, during the Golden Gate International Exposition.

LOS ANGELES—Fourteen University of California Extension Division classes dealing with Education and planned to assist southern California teachers are included in the new January schedule of classes just published by the University of California Extension Division.

Arthur Gould, assistant superintendent of Los Angeles city schools will instruct a course in Secondary education. Dr. Forrest A. Anderson will instruct a class in Introduction to Child Behavior problems.

Dr. John L. C. Goffin, head of Health Education in Los Angeles City Schools, will give a course in School Health Education in February. the choir is named; "Sienny," a gay Russian folk song often sung at village weddings; and "Malania," a comical soldier's song, will be offered by the Cossacks as a representation of their national culture.

The national dance of the Cossacks, "Kozateok," and "Losginca," a dance of the Caucasian Cossacks, will be performed by the twenty-five "horsemen of the Steppes." Because the Caucasian Cossacks were often attacked by various brigand bands, they always carried daggers. In "Lesginca" the dagger, which is the Cossack's faithful friend in battle, is used as an integral part of the dance.

During their recent tour in New Zealand the Choir was impressed by the beautiful folk songs of the native Maoris and they included the "The Maori's Farewell Song, 'Hay-Re-Ra'" in their repertoire.

Richard Greene and Nancy Kelly in "Submarine Patrol" at the California Theatre starting Saturday also on the same program "The Cowboy and the Lady."

On Saturday morning, January 21, a course in Social problems in Education will open with Dr. Ernest Oertel as instructor. This is a special course in propaganda analysis for teachers of Social Studies. George C. Mann, chief of the Adult and Continuation School in the State Department of Education, will instruct an Extension Division course in Counseling for Adults. Sleepy and Orth Again On M.A.C. Card Tonight

Much as the Duke-USC game, the evening was saved by a last minute thriller at the M.A.C. club last week. After a dull and uninteresting hour, the fans of the Mission Athletic Club were treated to a battle that brought down the house.

Sleepy and Pappy, those two inimitable hillbillies from Arkansas met Tarzan Orth and Monte La-Due in a team match. The bushy boys took the first fall from the city slickers by using the boys for head-on crashes. During the second fall things got going a little too rough for Orth and Sleepy so they removed themselves to the outside of the ring and continued their feud. Fighting like demons, they were both counted out and forced out of the contest. Due to a lack of time the match was declared a draw, much to the disgust of the fans.

Tonight will again be a thriller due to the appearance of Sleepy and Orth in an attempt to finish their feud started last week. The return grudge match is billed for the main event spot. Sleepy and Orth will be allowed to go it alone in a two-out-of-three falls, one hour time limit bout.

Jackie Nichols, who impressed the fans with his victory over the flashy Cecil McGill is being rewarded for his efforts with a spot in the semi-windup position tangling with Bobby Wagner. This will be a 45-minute time limit affair.

Two newcomers will flash in the preliminaries. Marshall Carter and Eddy Rogers will be in the open with Pete Belcastro meeting Paul Murdock in the second fall.

EXTENSION SERVICE GIVES PREVIEW OF 1939 FARM PICTURE

BERKELEY — The interests of farm welfare, the farm home and the state University were brought into a close-functioning triple-alliance on the Berkeley campus of the University, through the annual conference of the Agricultural Extension Service of the College of Agriculture.

Things to come in agriculture and things that have occurred in the past year in the line of technical development, opportunity for increased income and related factors, were discussed and analyzed alongside the domestic and social fundamentals of farm life. Action programs for virtually every outstanding phase of California's agricultural economy were outlined by able speakers.

The ambitions of the University and its agricultural extension service as home makers were touched on in an opening session talk by Dr. Agnes Fay Morgan, professor of home economics. Mrs. T. H. Sims, chairman of the farm home department of the California Farm Bureau Federation, outlined the home making services of her organization. Dr. H. R. Wellman gave a talk on controlled marketing, while the status of the Farm Bureau Federation was outlined by Ray B. Wiser, president of that organization. The conference heard the latest developments in the field of soil and plant nutrition, the animal sciences, dairy cattle, poultry, field and truck crops, deciduous fruits and vines, citrus and other subtropicals, the teaching of agricultural economics and the work of 4-H groups of young farmers. As a background the place of the land grant colleges in the agricultural picture were outlined in papers by Dr. J. M. Gaus, social service research Council, Washington, D. C., Dr. R. E. Buchanan, director, experiment station, Iowa State College, and M. S. Eisenhower, director of information, office of land use coordination, United States Department of Agriculture.

This gain of 24,000 meters is equivalent to a city of approximately 75,000 population.

Reviews of company operations also showed that during 1938, Edison's 450,000 domestic consumers used an average of approximately 950 kilowatt hours of electrical service. This compares with 910 kilowatt hours for 1937, 807 kilowatt hours for 1936 and 560 kilowatt hours ten years ago. The national average in 1937 was 805 kilowatt hours.

Plans for the energetic continuation of the company's present business development program were outlined at the annual meeting. There is, it was pointed out at the meeting, a much more general expectation of better business now than at the beginning of 1938. The company's domestic sales department and industrial sales department have a program calling for greater production than was recorded in 1938 and it is anticipated by the company that the efforts of these departments will benefit business generally.

INCREASED CONTROL SCHEDULE IN EFFECT INTO YOSEMITE PARK

Increased numbers of winter sport fans to Yosemite have necessitated an increased control schedule on the All Year highway from Merced. According to the touring bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California the following schedule is now in effect beyond Briceburg:

Inbound travel leaves Briceburg at 8:15 a. m., 10 a. m., 11 a. m., 3 p. m., and 4:30 p. m., daily. Saturday has two additional controls at 1 p. m. and 2 p. m. and Sundays and holidays one additional control at 1 p. m. An additional control is in effect on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays at 6 p. m. In addition to the foregoing, travel may leave Briceburg and El Portal, only, at 1 a. m. on Sundays and holidays.

Outgoing travel leaves Indian Flat, 19 miles west of Yosemite lodge at 7:45 a. m., 9:30 a. m., 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m., 4 p. m., and 5:30 p. m., daily. On Saturdays, Sundays and holidays there is an additional control at 7 p. m. and on Sundays and holidays one at 12:30 p. m.

Southern California traffic can save 16 miles by leaving U. S. Highway 99 at Minturn and taking the paved cut-off via LeGrand to the All Year Highway.

REVERTS TO WICKEDNESS

Not since she played the role of Poppaea in "The Sign of the Cross" has Claudette Colbert been as "wicked" on the screen as she is in Paramount's "Zaza," in which she appears as a music hall entertainer who tries to win Herbert Marshall away from his wife.

FARMERS MUST FILE 1939 A A A DATA BY JANUARY 15TH

California farmers have until January 15 to file worksheets in county agricultural conservation offices for participation in the 1939 Agricultural Conservation Program, according to David J. Davidson, chairman of the California State Agricultural Conservation committee.

A final date on which ranchers may request range examinations for the 1939 range conservation program has not been definitely established as yet, Davidson stated today at State Committee headquarters in Berkeley.

Farmers who have already filed worksheets under the 1938 program do not need to file new worksheets for the coming year's program, it was pointed out. However, it will be of great assistance to county conservation association offices if such farmers would report any changes in the use of their land, the size of farms, and leasing arrangements which should be included on their worksheets for 1939 operations.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY

They are all there and acted in the true spirit of the farce, the result is a series of scenes that promote laughter or thrill the senses."

So far as possible, the play has been double cast to provide both play insurance and to draw forth the best work from the largest number of players.

The cast follows:

Peggy Woofers — Nadine Cook, Nina Ann Miller.

Jimmie Gubbins—Dwight Babcock.

Bolton, of the American Detective Agcy.—Rodney Starkey.

William Foster, alias "William Jones"—Bill Jorgensen, Gordon Milne.

Spoofy—Lynn Cadwell
Rose Gordon — Beverly Humphrys, Beth Matthews.

Briggs, of Scotland Yard—John Calhoun, Don Royer.

Lady Leicester—Marilyn Shepard, Madelon Sotuhworth.

may be obtained in county agricultural conservation headquarters, as well as assistance in filling out the forms.

PAST GLORIES

Antonio Moreno, Polly Moran, Raymond Hatton and Bryant Washburn, all stars of silent days, and George Melford, once a top director, all worked together in a scene of Paramount's "Ambush," featuring Gladys Swarthout and Lloyd Nolan. All were doing bit parts but ten years ago their salaries would have made a cost of that scene prohibitive except for the biggest "super special."

VOGUE FOR BROKEN LEGS

Gladys Swarthout wears a streamlined plaster cast on her right leg in Paramount's "Ambush." Designed for shapeliness, the cast is equipped with a zipper to facilitate slipping it on and off.

FOR ART'S SAKE

To insure realism when the script called for him to complain of his feet hurting, Charles Laughton filled his shoes with rocks during the filming of "The Beachcomber," first product of the new Laughton-Erich Pommer film company, Mayflower Pictures, Inc. The picture will be released in this country shortly by Paramount.

After counting
our hot-water needs-

...we bought a 1939 automatic gas water heater!

IT ISN'T likely that you've ever counted the number of times hot water is required by your family in a day. But it's a known fact that the average family turns on the 'hot' faucet a hundred times or more.

That's why a modern automatic gas water heater is almost as necessary as water itself. It gives you all the hot water you need, any time, without attention.

And it saves money. By heating water faster, it cuts down the period during which fuel is used. It eliminates the expense and discomfort of over heating, too, because the temperature is thermostatically controlled. In addition, it brings you the rock-bottom economy of natural gas.
