Revue, Parade, Dance Highlights Welcome For Returning Alums

Preparations for Gaucho Homecoming November 4, 5, and 6, moved into final stages this week-end with two queen candidates, the secretive Mys Terie and Joy Blankenship, announcing their withdrawal from the Queen contest. Members of the alumni homecoming committee met with ASB representatives Saturday noon to coordinate efforts to welcome returning grads.

Elections for queen will be held Wednesday, November 2, on the Riviera and Mesa campuses, with the royal coronation scheduled during the first official weekend attraction, the Galloping Gaucho Revue. The Revue will be held in the Riviera auditorium at 8:00 p.m. Friday night, and will feature both alumni and student talent.

Gauchos Rally for Waves

Alumni events occupy the foreground Saturday morning with registration on the Riviera campus and tour and reception on the "Goleta acres" at 10:30 a.m. Reunion luncheons are scheduled for 12:30 p.m., with classes of 1912-29 gathering at the Barbara Hotel with those of 1930-39. Recent graduates of 1940-49 will renew acquaintances at the Carrillo Hotel prior to witnessing the Annual Homecoming Parade on State street at 2:30 p.m.

The Parade is due to disband at Micheltorena street near the Sunk-en Gardens where Gauchos join with Pepperdine Waves for a pre-game rally to build up enthusiasm for the Homecoming football classic at La Playa stadium at 8:00 p.m.

Saturday festivities will be leimaxed by post-game dances at the Armory for the Associated Students and at the Miramar Hotel for alumnmi.

Individual campus organizations will honor their respective alums Sunday morning at annual breakfasts and brunches to close weekend activities.

Select Ten Men For ROTC Course

The selection of 10 students at Santa Barbara College for enrollment in the ROTC Advanced Course was announced today by Col. Richard G. McKee, officer in charge of the Reserve Officers Training Corps.

The students are: Adran D. Adams, Arthur D. Hendricks, James A. Kelley, Darwin O. Kusian, Kay L. Marvin, Richard B. Schaefer, William A. Swain, Ferrin D. Talley, William H. Kindel, and Kenneth L. Harris.

The Advanced Course is offered to veterans of more than one year's service and to outstanding students who have completed the Basic Course, or its equivalent, within an authorized quota. Students who complete both courses and attend on ROTC summer camp are eligible upon graduation for a reserve commission as second lieutenant.

While attending regular classes in military science, the advanced course students receive a subsistence allowance of 90 cents a day. This is in addition to the allowances authorized for veterans under the GI Bill.

Teen Age Students Invited to Dances

Teen age college students are invited to attend the teen age dances on every Friday and Saturday evening in the Recreation Center sponsored by the City Recreation Department, according to R. J. Mac-

Coronet Ballet Company Performs on Riviera Stage

Thursday evening, October 27, at 8:30 p.m. the Coronet Ballet Company will present its repertoire of original ballets in the Riviera Auditorium. The performance will be one night only and is sponsored by the Artist Series Board of the Associated Students.

Federal Civil Service Representatives Visit UCSBC Tuesday Morn

Two representatives of federal civil service will visit Santa Barbara College of the University of California on Tuesday (Oct. 25) to furnish information about professional positions with the government, Dr. Jerry H. Clark, Registrar, announced yesterday.

An open session will be held at 10 a.m. on Tuesday in 101 North Hall on the Riviera Campus. This will be followed by individual interviews starting at 11 a.m. Appointments for such interviews should be made at the Registrar's office.

According to an announcement by the U. S. Civil Service Commission, applications will be accepted until Nov. 8, 1949, for Junior Professional Assistant, Junior Management Assistant, and Junior Agricultural Assistant examinations. Positions in Washington, D.C. and throughout the United States will be filled from these exams.

The following positions will be filled from the Junior Professional Assistant exam: Architect, astronomer, bacteriologist, biologist, economist, food and drug inspector, geographer, geophysicist, landscape architect, legal assistant, mathematician, physiologist, psychologist, social science analyst, statistician, and textile technologist. A variety of administrative positions will be filled from the Junior Management Assistant examination.

Applications will be accepted from student who expect to complete their college courses by June 30, 1950. Age limits, waived for persons entitled to veteran preference, are from 18 to 35 years.

Two Gifts Donated To S. B. College

Two gifts totaling $580 have been made to the University of California for use at Santa Barbara College.

They are included in $67,179.56 in gifts and pledges acknowledged by the Regents at their meeting in San Francisco on Friday.

A sum of $500 was given by Mrs. George A. Kosmopoulos of Santa Barbara for grants-in-aid to Santa Barbara College students engaged in speech correction work at Hillside House. The donation marks establishment of the Elias James Walker Kosmopoulos Fund for support of speech correction field workers, in memory of her son who was a victim of cerebral palsy.

The other gift, a sum of $80, was received from C. D. Woodhouse, lecturer in mineralogy at Santa Barbara College, as a contribution to the C. D. Woodhouse Scholarship Fund. From this fund an award is made each year to an upper division student judged most deserving on a basis of scholarship and character.

Donald, member of the board of directors.

Students who can produce proper identification and proof of age eligibility will be given a free membership which will serve to admit them to all the dances.

Lasar Galpern, a choreographer of international prominence with many years of experience, is the founder and director of the company. After a lengthy period of preparation he has succeeded in organizing a group of professional dancers of a considerable talent to place the finest in dance theater within reach of the general public.

The principle aim of the ballets, points out Galpern, is primarily to present a story. Although classic movements are employed in the dancing, graphic stories are told, and a high point of tension is maintained.

The ballets presented will be "The Tragic Interlude" by Alexander Scriabine, "Fantasia and Fugue" by Johann Sebastian Bach, "Commedia d'Amore" by Domenico Scarlatti, "The Prodigal Son" by Cesar Franck, "La Grande Valse" by Maurice Ravel, and "The Gods At Home" by Eric Satie.

Featured soloists in the coming performance will be such artists as Lila Zali, who has studied under Bekefu; Michael Mordkin, and Swoboda, who appeared at a command performance at the White House; and Ivan Kirov, a graduate of the University of California and a star of the movie, "Spectre of the Rose."

Well-known artists in many fields have contributed their talents to the production of these ballets. Compositions by many famous composers have been used for the ballets under the supervision of Samuel Kaylin and the choreography is by Galpern. Imaginative settings and striking costumes were created by Nina Chmelova, Tony Rosenthal, Irina Trivas, Perkins Harnly, Alexandra Exter, and Eric Freeman. Art supervision is by Vivtor Trivas, while Sylvia Marshall and Agnes Niehaus provide the piano accompaniment.

Tickets are on sale in the Graduate Manager's office at 74 cents and $1.00 for students, and $1.20 and $1.80 for reserved seats.

Blue and Gold Hosts Invade Bruin Campus For Gala All-Cal Homecoming Festivities

The second annual All-Cal Week-end officially opens at 11:00 a. m. next Friday in the quad of UCLA when the combined bands and glee clubs representing four great campuses of the University of California sound off with our Alma Mater. "See U-all Down South" has been the by-word of Golden Bear enthusiasts since the initial announcement of this year's All-Cal Week-end slogan by the Cal Club, who are responsible for the coordination of intra-University activities.

Epoch-Making Text--New Book by Hardin

Acclaimed as an "epoch-making text," a new book by Dr. Garrett J. Hardin, assistant professor of biology at Santa Barbara College, is gaining national recognition in the field of high education.

This fact is apparent in a report by the publisher which shows that the book, "Biology—Its Human Implications," has been adopted as a text in more than 100 colleges and universities throughout the country.

Unified Science

To support his contention that this is not just another one of "many textbooks . . . published to join the horde on bookshelves," W. H. Freeman, the publisher, quotes a review by Dr. Edward Castle of Harvard in which the latter states: "If anything resembling a unified science of life is to appear in our collegiate curriculum, this book points the way."

Further corroboration, the publisher asserts, comes in the form of hundreds of cards and letters from teachers indicating the same reaction.

Dr. Hardin, naturally, is gratified at this response, but he modestly shifts the spotlight to what he considers of marked significance—"acceptance of an idea."

Liberal Program

The idea, now being applied as part of the liberal arts program at Santa Barbara College, is that biology as a "science of life" can be taught in such a way as to be of value to those who will not specialize in the field but who need it as part of a balanced liberal education. Presented in this manner, biology leads to a fuller understanding of the part that science plays in the life of today and helps the student to see its relation to his other studies.

CHEERS!

During the half-time activities of the UCLA-Cal game this Saturday afternoon, the combined student body rooting sections of all four California schools will stand and sing "Hail to California." It is hoped that all loyal Gauchos will partake in the supporting and singing of the college theme.

AWS to Fete Foreign Students

The Associated Women Students are sponsoring an informal social evening for all students who have lived in a foreign country. The evening is to be very informal so that students will have adequate time to meet one another and discuss their interests. This is the first time such a gathering has been planned, according to the AWS Board. Refreshments will be served.

Men's Glee Club—on two day concert tour.

UCLA's Homecoming queen will be coronated as a feature of the 11 o'clock convocation in the quad.

At the Bruin and Cal Frosh will mix it up on Spaulding Field. An expected crowd of 100,000 will view eighty-five floats and ten bands in what has been described by UCLA boosters as "one of the most brilliant Homecoming parades in the history of the school."

Immediately after the parade an all-University pre-game rally will be held around the bonfire on Joe E. Brown Field. Yells, fight songs, and the usual "we're way over-rated" speeches by coaches are on the program. UCLA's big "C", largest of the University system, will be lit with the singing of "All Hail, Blue and Gold" and "Hail to California". The rally will conclude with several college selections by the combined Men's Glee Clubs.

The Rally Dance will be held in the Women's Gym, and will feature two different bands. "Designed to fit the taste of the most discriminating dancers, the Firehouse Five will give with a Dixieland beat in the patio, while California inside the Gym sway to the rythms of Chuck Cabot and his orchestra", according to the Daily Bruin.

Santa Barbara Gauchos meet the Cal Aggies in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum at 11:00 Saturday. Immediately preceding the UCLA-Cal game, President Sproul, Dr. Dykstra, provost of UCLA, the presidents of all alumni associations, and the Homecoming queen and her court will parade on floats and in convertibles around the cinder track.

Kick-off time for the UCLA-Cal game is set for 2:30 p.m.

In accordance with an administrative ruling classes will not be excused Friday, but Gauchos who plan to enjoy "the biggest week-end of the year" will have ample time to travel to UCLA for the Homecoming parade, pre-game rally and dance Friday nite," according to Al Hardy, chairman of the Cal Club.

An additional 500 student tickets for the Gaucho-Cal Aggies and Cal-UCLA doubleheader at the Coliseum on Oct. 29 went on sale Monday at the Graduate Manager's Office.

The initial 1500 ticket allotment was completely sold out last Tuesday to students and townspeople. The new section of tickets will be above the sold-out section, between the goal line and 20 yard line. These tickets are for students only and are priced at $1.00.

Editorial From Oxy

The editorial below was run in the October 14, issue of the Occidental College newspaper.

We of Occidental have the reputation of being a bunch of sissies. The events of last Saturday's game at Santa Barbara underlined this in red. The very public infantile, babylike bawling done by the head of the Tiger Claws during halftime brought our stock down to an all time low . . .

In one of the smoothest tricks ever seen, the Gauchos took our Tiger. They took this symbol of our might which we bring to all our games and dare anyone to take. With all the mumbo jumbo attached to the whole ritual any other school that does not want to take the Tiger is off somewhere. We expect an attempt on the Tiger. They why the moralistic crying when the tiger is finally taken . . .

Santa Barbara is to be congratulated for a well planned Tigernapping. And it is hoped that they will excuse the infantile behavior of the chief claw as not representative of the college.

Want Foreign Correspondents

"Too improvement my English language knowledges I wish an young lady at the olds of twenty in letter discout too step." Thus wrote an eager young German youth to the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia, the switchboard joining the thoughts of American and foreign students. Maybe he got such a girl's address; by now he may have thrown away his English dictionary and married her. One thing is certain—there are thousands of students all over the world eager to help insure peace by making friends with students in America.

The World Affairs Council of Philadelphia is an official representative of the United Nations and is backed by "The Voice of America", General MacArthur's headquarters, and Unesco. It provides free service for matching pen pals. They are paired as to age, interests, and occupation. The overseas letter is sent to an American, and thereafter, the new friends write directly to each other. The organization also offers free translation of letters between the correspondents.

Students interested in obtaining a foreign address should write to World Affairs Council of Philadelphia, 1411 Walnut Street, Philadelphia 2, Pa., including their ages and interests.

NOTICE

Pending the action of the Press Control Board on a Student Council recommendation to prohibit the publishing of controversial material in El Gauchito, the editors must necessarily refrain from publishing a letter submitted by Art Petch. However, we herewith acknowledge the letter.

The Watchbird

Many little goodies happened this weekend even though people were complaining ahead of time about how dull it was going to be. To begin with, Friday night the Kappa Sigs threw a small ball. They went to the Santa Barbara High School game and all convened at Mom's afterwards. Seen standing on the tables in "La Taverna Della Rosa" were Chuck Cobley, Pat Welsh, Phil Heathman with Leilani Steele, Royal Cathcart and (customary) "Toni", Bill McCurdy with Barbara Crockett, and Carl "the voice" Hentschke and Jan Clark.

Also yelling their little hearts out at the high school game were delinquents Margaret Melrose and Bob "baby-face" Yergen. Get this: a well-known man about campus, Bud Kennison is beginning to show a little class. Peggy Crooks was the lucky girl this weekend.

Seen at the gala Lambda Chi costume party Friday night were Don Humphreys and Nancy Bothwell, Don Asmus with Tilli Albagli. Juanita Gebb and Bill Neal, also the question mark of the evening, Jay Paxton with Bernice Jelli, while Bell Norton and Liz Clark joined the enthusiasts at the high school game.

The originality prize goes to the Delta Zetas who had the most colorful not referring to Jane Anderson's mask, "soiree" of the week. These sly little misses patiently waited at Le Vay's while a hay wagon picked up their escorts. Satisfying the anticipation on their dates faces, the girls chose their partners at the third dance. Gayly arrayed in halloween apparel were Lucia Edwards, John Pittman, Claire Maher, Bob Christofferson, Lola Doshier, Bill Hamilton, June Morey and Gene Lonon.—Need I go on???

Seems there are still a few fortunate females on campus—Tau Gam Jo Gunderson announced her engagement to Ernie Cheatham. In exchange for one small Delt pin Charlotte Phinney is sporting one large diamond. So you gals, there's still a chance!!

Warning; to all those shady speculators on campus, also to those freshman women who are monopolizing our few remaining males.—"The Watchbird is Watching you!!!

Use to Manage Symphony Event

Henry Use, senior at Santa Barbara College, as selected as Student Manager for the California High School Symphony event presented each spring by the Associated Students, bringing over 100 young musicians to Santa Barbara.

Use, majoring in music, is the drum major for the Gauchito marching band and has been prominent in the college music activities, according to Maurice Faulkner, Chairman of the Music Department who is in charge of the annual high school event.

A resident of Santa Barbara, Use was co-chairman of the activity in 1947. The Symphony Committee commenced work to select a date for the concert and arrange for a conductor.

Hi Gals!

With All-Cal Week-end coming up on the agenda, it's wise to start mentally packing your overnight case.

To start off, on the practical side, warm flannel pajamas are a must.

Then, of course, for the lucky ones leaving in time to catch the U. C. L. A. Homecoming Parade, a sweater and skirt with a pert shorty coat would be perfect.

For the football games, along with pompom and rooster's cap, something casual would do.

If fraternity parties are in view don't forget a date dress that will add a sophisticated touch.

Don't forget that all these items can be found in wide selection at Jack Rose, just waiting for you to stop in to see them.

See you down south and have a wonderful time.

It's the fraternities and clubs of the intramural football league themselves that are donating this week's column by their splendid and often thrilling exhibitions on the girdiron of Cabrillo Field during the weekday afternoons.

Currently pacing the pack in the fraternity division is Delta Tau Delta, just about the nearest thing to a well-oiled mural Notre Dame that I have ever seen on the campus. Using a two-platoon system that has swept them to five staright triumphs, the Deltas are now definite favorites to walk off with the cup. Offensively, Jack Aldridge, John Bassler, Tom Dailey, George Carlson, Vern Wrightson, and Babe Jones are usually the selected combination, whereas on defense, the Deltas most often use John Hackett, Bert Guisness, Bill Locke, Al Lewis, and either Bill Kelso, Dailey or Wrightson.

MIGHTY SPARTANS SWAMPS GAUCHOS

Cartermen to Run Against Cal, USC

Just to show that their defeat of last week by the San Diego Cross Country team in the AAU four-mile run hasn't ruined their spirit, the Gaucho harriers are slated to run against Cal, USC, and UCLA on Saturday, the 29th of this month at approximately 10:00 a.m. on the Westwood course.

In case that this meet falls through due to all of the festivities that will be going on down UCLA way during the All-Cal Weekend, Coach Nick Carter has made arrangements to run against the Cal Tech squad on the same day and the same time except the meet will be held on the Cal Tech course. Cal Tech, by the way, has always had good teams, so the Gauchos can look forward to some real competition!

Whether they run at Westwood or at Cal Tech, Don Crie, Walter Houtz, Galen Pearce, Louis Lively, Robert Leahy, Robert Anderson, Edwin Gates, and James Kundt-singer will be in there trying to put Santa Barbara into the win column.

Keeping Tabs on Our Opponents of the Future — Aggies, Pepperdine, Cal Poly All Win Games

Santa Barbara's next two opponents, Call Aggies and Pepperdine, both came through with wins over the weekend, the Aggies edging Southern Oregon College, 14-13, and Pepperdine squeezing by Portland University, 16-13.

Probably the most surprising occurrence of the weekend saw Whittier's inspired Poets rack up a 54-6 victory over Occidental College. The victory may have been expected but not the score. It was Whittier's eighth straight win in a streak that started shortly after Santa Barbara beat the Poets last year. The loss put an end to Oxy's winning streak of eleven straight games plus a post-season victory over Colorado A & M in the Raisin Bowl last January, and left Whittier in the commanding spot in the race for the SCC championship.

The improving Cal Poly Mustangs showed their best game of the year by besting San Francisco State, 33-0. The Gauchos play the Mustangs in San Luis Obispo on Armistice Day. Enard Johnson, Jay Dee Phillips, Jack Knight, Jim Dowd, and Paul Fischbech scored one T. D. apiece for the victors.

The all-powerful College of Pacific Tigers romped to an easy 62-14 triumph over a good San Diego State eleven at Stockton Saturday. The Tigers scored in every quarter and all nine touchdowns came as a result of rushing. The Gauchos wind up their season playing the Aztecs in the border city, and at that time, all eyes will probably be on Aztec quarterback Leon Prama, who connected for two end zone pass completions for the only Aztec scores in the fourth period. He threw to ends Herman McPhatter and Joe Galindo.

Pomona College whipped Cal Tech, 32-12, and Nevada coasted to an easy 34-12 victory over Fresno State in other weekend games.

Gallant Gauchos Tumble Before San Jose's Steamroller, 55-14

Dick Johnson raced 90 yards again with a kickoff but this was not nearly enough as the San Jose Spartans romped to an easy 55-14 win over Santa Barbara's outclassed Gauchos Friday night in San Jose.

It was midway in the fourth quarter before the Gauchos could cross the Spartan goal line and they were facing the third and fourth string when the event finally occurred. The score was 48-0 when Johnson took a San Jose kickoff on his own 10 on the right side of the right side of the field, faked a handoff, broke across to the left and raced all the way for the first Gaucho T. D. It was almost identical to the play which beat the Fresno State Bulldogs the week before.

Both DTD Mural Teams Remain Undefeated

Delta Tau Delta defeated Kappa Sigma, 1912, last week to remain in a tie for first place with Sigma Tau Gamma. The Delt Bees also won two games and are still unbeaten. Going into the Kappa Sig game, the three squads were tied for first place, but the loss puts KS in third place, one jump above Lambda Chi Alpha.

The game was scoreless during the first half but Babe Jones threw to John Bassler in the end zone shortly after the second period got under way and the Deltas had a 6-0 lead. Kappa Sigma bounced right back to Dick Barr. The Deltas soon broke this deadlock to go out in front, 13-6, on a pass play from Jack Aldridge to Vern Wrightson for six points, and Jones carried a reverse over the goal for the conversion point. The Deltas scored the third time on a pass from Aldridge to John Hackett after Bert Guisness had intercepted a pass and ran 50 yards to put the ball in scoring position. A long Kappa Sig pass from McCarthy to Nick Fasola was completed in the end zone late in the second half, making the final score read 19-12.

The Sig Taus won two easy games this week to remain tied with Delta Tau Delta for first place. In the first game they took the measure of the Delta Sigs, 14-0, and in the second game they bested the Beta Sigs, 25-6.

In another hard-fought game, Kappa Sigma had to come from behind to win, 7-6, over the Beta Sigs. Probably the most important games slated for this week find Sig Tau defending their record against the Lambda Chi this afternoon at 4, and on Thursday, Kappa Sigma facing a tough Sig Ep outfit.

Stolen Ball Trick
Clyde Francisco, Gaucho left end, was responsible for the other took the ball out of the arms of Spartan halfback John Steele and scampered 25 yards for the final score on a stolen ball play. He score. Francisco kicked both points after touchdown.

The powerful Spartans scored almost at will over their weaker rivals, and by the end of the game, had hung up the second worst defeat in history for the Santa Barbarans. Only the 55-7 debacle with Oregon last year kept this one from being the worst. The winners scored twice in every quarter, with the reserves taking over midway in the second period.

Casida Hurt
Don Casida, promising Gaucho right end, will be out of action for a few days as a result of a badly wrenched knee, only important injury sustained by the Gauchos.

The Spartans rolled up 487 rushing and another 116 through the air to amass the astounding total of 603 yards. The first downs were close, the edge going to San Jose, 14-13. The Gauchos threw 30 passes, connecting with an even dozen, to surpass the Spartans in the air with a 127 yard total. The losers also escaped their fumbling complex plaguing them of late, losing the ball only once this way.

Jayvees Crushed by S. L. O.
Santa Barbara's newly organized Junior Varsity football team dropped its opener to the San Luis Obispo Junior College on the Winner's field by the lop-sided score of 46-6 Friday evening.
