

JONES APPOINTED CAMP DIRECTOR

by JEFF KREND
Staff Writer

Gary Jones was announced successor to senior John Stansbury as Director of Frosh Camp at the annual Frosh Camp Evaluation Dinner, held Sunday at Bray's 101 Restaurant. He was chosen by camp counselors, faculty members and staff.

Jones, a business economics major, sees the Frosh Camp program as a combined effort by staff and counselors which, aided by a faculty lecture series, gives new students an accurate "university concept."

Stansbury, commenting on the purpose of Frosh Camp, said, "The Camp tries to get students to identify with the university, to participate in extra-curricular activities, and to develop the right attitude toward university life."

Assistant Camp Directors Mel Le Vine and Jo Rankin reported that post-camp sessions with the students are still being held to further evaluate the effectiveness of this year's camp. Le Vine complimented the counselors and assistant staff members for their efforts.

SYSTEM EFFECTIVE

Bob Wilson and Jane Beckord, Housing and Meals Chairmen, explained that the draw-a-number system used in the dining commons allowed campers to meet each other. Wilson made suggestions for streamlining operations for next year's camp, including one to insure that weekend stayovers after Camp would have a room to stay in.

Jones, who previously worked with Susie Hoover to develop Frosh Camp's information lectures, stated, "New students should be told that the University is becoming more academic in nature. Frosh Camp's discussion material should stress this and help students get settled as well."

Jeff Foster, who was also nominated for Frosh Camp Director, worked with Emmy Murar on the Frosh Camp Brochure. They also supervised the registration of more than 900 campers and provided transportation for those without cars.

TALENTS USED

Commenting on the success of the Hootenanny and Frosh Camp band, assemblies chairman Stan Orrock said that more camper talent will be used in the future. He said that the assemblies at camp will continue as they have in the past, with emphasis on the scholarly format.

Suggestions were made for general improvement of presentations and to eliminate repetitious material. Orrock's responsibilities were shared by Laura Frady.

Jim Hartmeyer and Jeanne Bruce, recreation directors, had to substitute tours for beach fun because of rain and an exceptionally high tide. Games and a dance were arranged so more people could meet each other.

Hartmeyer defended the "regimentation" of Frosh Camp by pointing out the necessity for some supervision, for arriving for discussions in a group rather than singly, and for the safety of the campers.

Faculty co-ordinator, Pat Stansbury, suggested that some of the difficulty in recruiting faculty members for Frosh Camp could be eliminated if faculty were asked to attend the Camp only a few hours instead of for whole days. She pointed out that it was the faculty which did most to give the Camp an academic atmosphere.

Deans Jane Cosgrove and Lyle Reynolds added their unanimous approval of the Frosh Camp program in general and this year's Frosh Camp in particular. Said Dean Reynolds, "This year's Frosh Camp was, without equivocation, the best yet. The program is appreciated by parents as well as students."

Additional students needed to guide at University Day

Student guides are needed for University Day this Saturday. According to Emmy Murar, who is co-chairing the student participation for the event with Dave Gibson, only 80 students have signed up.

With nearly 2,000 prospective college students expected, "we need double that amount," Miss Murar states. Freshmen are especially welcomed, as this is their first opportunity to present their school.

Guides may choose their hours and spend as much time as they choose. Interested students will meet Thursday at 4 p.m. in the Campus Auditorium.

University Day begins at 9:30 a.m. Saturday with registration, coffee and donuts at Storke Plaza.

Student volunteers will guide tours to the residence halls and campus buildings. In addition, guides will orient the tourist as to programs and activities.

After a lunch in the dining commons, visitors will attend an auditorium program featuring a welcome from Chancellor Cheadle. The color film "Campus by the Sea" will be shown continuously from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in South Hall Lecture Room.

Begun in 1953 as "Campus Day" and changed in 1960 to "University Day," the event is designed to acquaint high school and junior college students with the Santa Barbara campus, its programs, activities and facilities.

Tickets for the varsity football game at La Playa Stadium that afternoon will be available at a reduced price to visiting students.

Mock UN meets tomorrow

Students interested in the Model United Nations should attend a general meeting tomorrow at 4 p.m. in SH 1166.

Slides from last year's MUN session will be shown, and past delegates will discuss their com-

REV. MARTIN E. SLAUGHT will deliver lecture tomorrow in SH 1004 at 4 p.m.

Religion in space age topic of Slaught's talk tomorrow

"The Relevance of Religion in the Age of Space" is the title of a talk to be delivered by Rev. Martin E. Slaught tomorrow afternoon at 4 p.m. in South Hall 1004.

Frosh, junior class elect officers today

Polls open this morning at 8 for the election of Freshman and Junior Class officers. The polls close at 4 p.m., and the results of the election will be announced around 7 p.m.

Candidates for the office of Freshman Class President are Doug Hayes, Jay Jeffcoat, Larry Rosenfeld and Michael Iversen. Stan Crowe and David Thomas seek the office of Freshman Class Vice-President.

Freshman Class Secretary-Treasurer hopefuls are Penny Coale, Gail Kreusel, and Mimi Loomis. Ann Grogan, Karen Hood, and Georgia Young are running for Junior Class Secretary-Treasurer.

Election polls are located in front of the library and in the Student Union.

Father Slaught is the second of three speakers presenting the views of the Protestant, Roman Catholic, and Jewish faiths on the relevance of religion in today's living.

Rabbi Beerman of Leo Baeck Temple in Los Angeles will complete the "Religion in America" Series Oct. 31.

The "Religion in America" Series is being sponsored by the University Religious Conference in the hope of "stirring up interest in the area of religion in our society," according to Director Roger Saunders. A reception at 2:30 p.m. will precede Rev. Slaught's address at the URC building, 6518 El Greco Road in Isla Vista, to which all interested students and faculty are invited.

Born in Los Angeles, Rev. Slaught was educated in the public elementary and high schools of La Canada and Pasadena, at the former preparatory seminary then known as Los Angeles College, and at St. John's Major Seminary in Camarillo, California.

He was ordained a priest in 1951, and for five years served as assistant pastor at St. Charles Church in North Hollywood.

AS 'Outdoor Stomp' to be held Friday

The Associated Student Body Social Committee, under the direction of Sue Bogardas, is sponsoring an "Outdoor Stomp" Friday, Oct. 18 in the Student Union Patio.

The Emperors, an excellent local group, will play for the dance, which will last from 3-5 p.m.

Everyone is invited to attend, and there will be no admission cost for those with A.S. cards.

This is the first of the Friday afternoon dances, and if it proves to be a success, the social committee will be planning more of them for the future.

Persell will guest

Mr. Vernon Persell, manager of UCSB's Counseling Center, will be the guest at tonight's "Fireside Chat", from 7 to 9 in Santa Cruz formal lounge.

Students interested in hearing typical college problems and related topics discussed by an expert are welcome to attend and participate.

Students judge peers

by JEFF KREND

When infractions of school rules occur, the offender more often than not finds himself before the AS Judicial Committee.

Under the new Constitution, the old Standards Committee has been replaced by the Judicial Committee, currently headed by Bob Rosenberg. Other members include Dennis Allen and Leslie Meyers, representing RHA, Nick Javaras from the IFC, and Gail Van Der Hoof from the Panhellenic Council.

Dean Reynolds is a non-voting member of the Committee and serves as adviser. Members must be nominated by the AS president and approved by the Committee Chairman. Each serves on the Committee for one year.

Cases involving both individuals and groups come before the Committee, which can warn, censure, suspend, dismiss, or expel an offender. A student may appeal the Committee's decision to the Deans, to the Chancellor, or to the President of the University.

According to Rosenberg, the most frequent offenses are misconduct, drinking, plagiarism, food fights and fist fights. He notes that most infractions generally occur during Homecoming.

Rosenberg adds that the policy of the Committee is to rehabilitate the student if he is guilty, and to clear him if he is not.

Although student justice is sometimes more severe than administrator justice, the faculty reviews the committee's decisions and can intercede if necessary.

mittee activities at the session. MUN is patterned after the United Nations in New York. There are seven committees in addition to the general assembly and the international court of justice.

Nearly 100 colleges attended last year's MUN session, each sending ten delegates. Participants drafted resolutions in committee, presenting them before the general assembly.

UCSB will represent Pakistan at the MUN session in Spokane, Washington next April. Ken McRoberts, delegation chairman, states that the final selection of representatives will not be made until around Christmas.

For further information about the MUN or the general meeting to be held tomorrow, students may call Ken McRoberts at 72607.

Chairmen to meet

Homecoming chairmen of all living groups will meet tomorrow at 3 p.m. in North Hall 2127 to answer questions concerning the Homecoming parade and to discuss float regulations, Bob Taylor, Special Events chairman, has announced.

Juniors screen film tomorrow night

"The Greatest Show on Earth" will be shown in Campbell Hall tomorrow night at 7:30.

Cartoons will also be shown at the event, which is sponsored by the junior class to raise money for scholarships to be used by present juniors in their senior year. Admission is 50 cents.

Stars of the movie are Charlton Heston, Cornel Wilde and Betty Hutton.

ORGANIZATIONS

GRASS-It's okay to walk, but don't stomp

by ERIC VAN DE VERG
"Grass is growing! Don't stomp on me!" These slogans are a sample of things to come. G.R.A.S.S., the Goleta Research Association for the Salvation of Seedlings, is growing. During the last two weeks it has organized and enlisted over one hundred new members.

GRASS is an organization of students concerned about chewed up and bare areas of grass where students walk and ride bicycles. The bare spot that caused the original concern is the path between the De La Guerra Annex and Anacapa Hall.

Heading the organization are two fields, Roger Del Moral and Jeff Boal and meadow David Kasai.

Kasai stresses that while it is all right to walk on the grass, it is wrong to stomp on it. He adds that it is also wrong to walk on the bare patches where the grass is trying to rehabilitate. Since every new member gives the organization more bargaining power, GRASS is eager to accept new members. Students can contact GRASS officials in Rm. 1333, Anacapa.

Colonel's Coeds. Fisher majors in zoology and plays varsity baseball.

The senior couple plan to be married in June of 1964.

USC polo champs dunk UCSB, Cal Poly

USC's defending national champions beat the UCSB Gauchos at the campus pool on Saturday, 22-5.

The Gauchos had trouble keeping their poise in the face of the Trojan onslaught, and lost several scoring opportunities which would have made the score closer.

Scoring for UCSB were Will Winn-2, Mike Schiesel-1, Lew Boyle-1, and Dan Emerich-1. Roy Saari led the Trojans with five goals.

The Gauchos will work harder on "think drills" and poise drills, with the latter especially stressed.

It appears that the team will also need to be better prepared for the All-Cal weekend to be held at UCLA. The team is looking ahead to this event on November 2.

Getting special praise were Winn, John Bankherd in the SC game and Craig Tempe, Don Roth, and Schiesel in both games. The Gauchos beat Cal Poly 5-4 on Friday.

The Trojans beat Cal Poly 20-8 earlier in the day on Saturday.

Line scores:

UCSB	2 0 1 2 - 5
Cal Poly	1 1 2 0 - 4
UCSB	0 2 2 1 - 5
USC	9 3 4 6 - 22

Intramurals mark midpoint with ties

With the midway point in the intramural football season just past, all five leagues have teams tied for first place.

In the fraternity league there is a three way tie for first between Delta Tau Delta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

There is a three way tie in the independent league too; GBAC, the Roustabouts, and the Untouchables all have perfect three win, no loss records.

Three San Miguel teams are in a first place deadlock in that league. The Mendicino-Merced Animals, Mariposa-Napa, and Sierra-Solano, are all 2-0.

Yuma, Apache and Maricopa halls in the Anacapa league are tied for first.

49'ers will be next Gaucho adversary

Trying to get back to their winning ways, UCSB's football team is preparing for next Saturday's game with Long Beach State.

Sacramento State ended coach Jack Curtice's three game winning streak last weekend with a 19-0 shutout at Sacramento.

A very hard charging and opportunistic Hornet defense nullified

Gaucha scoring opportunities all afternoon.

Santa Barbara was held to just 42 net yards rushing. Curice's quarterbacks were able to complete 17 or 30 passes for 158 yards, but they were not able to sustain a consistent attack.

Part of UCSB's failure to score can be traced to four interceptions in the second half, but due credit should be paid to a fine Sacramento defensive unit.

INTERCEPTION

One of the interceptions was a 102 yard return by Othel Pearson. It was the longest return with an intercepted pass in the nation this year.

Quarterback Jay Stromgren scored the Hornet's other two touchdowns, both on one yard quarterback sneaks.

Fullback Jim Orear led the Gaucho's feeble ground attack with 20 yards in seven carries.

Dennis Lynch played a fine game for UCSB at offensive end, and Jason Franci turned in another outstanding all around effort.

Most of UCSB's passes were of the short variety. Gaucho quarterback Chris Dawson completed ten of fifteen passes for 91 yards. Steve Moreno hit on five of seven for 37 yards, and sophomore Bob Heys completed two of eight for 30 yards. Both Dawson and Heys threw two interceptions.

Sacramento beat Long Beach State 4-0 two weeks ago.

Frosh defense checks Palmdale, 7-6

UCSB's Frosh took a thrilling game from the Antelope Valley Junior College Mauraders at Palmdale, 7-6.

Defense stood out during the game with the Gauchos gaining 40 yards on the ground and 118 yards passing. The Mauraders finished with 93 yards rushing and 64 yards through the air.

Gaucha's Jim Habib scored UCSB's only touchdown on a three yard plunge with 6:54 minutes left in the game.

Ric About set up the score with a 36 yard punt return to the Mauraders' three yard line. John Scholl booted the point after touchdown.

Wayne Ekimoto scored for the Mauraders, with 5:44 minutes left in the first half. His attempt at the extra-point was wide to the right.

The Gauchos were penalized nine times. Two of these were important in the Mauraders' drive to the Gaucho three yard line with eight seconds left in the game. With two seconds left the ball was centered; the hike went wide and Ekimoto's field goal attempt failed as the game ended.

Frosh Football coach Dave Gorrie was pleased with the way his team stayed in the game and came through with the victory.

Hughes sets course record

Ray Hughes of the Los Angeles Track Club set a campus course record of 17:47 minutes in the AAU cross country run Open Division last Saturday on the UCSB course.

Four other LATC men followed Hughes across the finish line giving them the meet victory.

Westmont finished second, while the Gauchos placed third in the team standings.

The highest Gaucho finisher was Jack Roach who had a time of 18:47 min.

Others finishing for UCSB were Jim Allen, 12th in 19:00; Reo Nathan, 18th in 23:00; Jon Brower, 25th and Bob Russell 26th in 23:30; John Young, 37th in 26:50; and Art Grix, 38th in 27:11.

In the novice two mile run, also on campus, Steve Haynes of UCSB took top honors. UCSB copped the team first place in this division.

Other Gaucho finishers in the event were Gary Destatte, third, Will Davis, fourth; Dave Crouch, fifth; and Larry Greer, ninth.
