

2C2A CHAMPIONSHIP GAME SATURDAY

By Owen Wayman

Saturday night may well be a momentous one in Santa Barbara College football history, for if the Gauchos can down the San Diego State Aztecs, they will win their first 2C2A conference championship.

So far the Gauchos have a perfect conference record of three wins and no losses and have compiled a very respectable season record of seven wins against two losses. This is quite a jump from last season when only two wins were turned in.

Gauche football is definitely on the upgrade as is evidenced by this season, which will be termed successful by the team only if they down the Aztecs and get the crown.

Title Tilt

In the Aztecs, who have a conference record of two wins and one tie, the Gauchos will be meeting a team which is fired up for an upset and which wants the championship just as badly as the Gauchos. However, the Gauchos have their hearts set on that title and will be out after blood following last week's loss to Whittier, and a real battle should result.

In scoring their three conference wins, the Gauchos downed Fresno State, Cal Poly and Pepperdine. San Diego sports wins over Cal Poly, 12-8 last week, and Pepperdine. Their record was marred by a tie with Fresno.

Gorrie vs. Preston

The Gauchos should be at full strength for the tilt and a battle for supremacy is expected to develop between Gaucho Fullback Dave Gorrie and Halfback Art Preston of San Diego.

Gorrie and Preston were running almost neck and neck for yards gained by rushing in the 2C2A, and are tied, along with Chuck Toy of Fresno, for scoring honors.

According to latest 2C2A statistics, which are not up to last week's games, Dave had carried the ball 38 times for a net yardage of 182 yards, to average 5.3 yards per carry. Preston carried the ball 41 times for a net yardage of 216, and an average of 5.6 yards for each try. Both men have scored three touchdowns.

Last week Dave was the star performer against Whittier, while Preston led the Aztecs to a win over Cal Poly, and both men are being mentioned for post season honors.

Under Coach Bill Schutte, the Aztecs will field a team which is well balanced, with excellent running and a passing attack which is ranked sixth among the nation's small colleges.

Saturday's season finale should be the best game to be seen in many years in La Playa Stadium and all are urged to return home after Thanksgiving to give the Gauchos the boost they deserve, and will need to win this big one.

MADRIGAL SINGERS PERFORM CONCERT ON NOVEMBER 29

The Modern Madrigal Singers, a new type of choral group organized last year on an experimental basis, will join with a string quartet for a concert at 8 pm Wednesday, November 29, in the Riviera Auditorium.

The concert, to be presented free to students, faculty, and public, will be the first formal concert of the fall semester. Many of the selections to be presented will include music appropriate to the coming Christmas season.

Director of the Modern Madrigal Singers is Dr. Van A. Christy, and the string quartet is lead by Stefan Krayk, who recently joined the music department, and will be one of the soloists.

The vocal unit is quite similar to the traditional madrigal system, with singers seated around a table. It resembles the modern radio chorus such as the Robert Shaw Chorale, in vocal technique, and repertoire.

The program:

Now Start We with a Goodly Song	Hasler
Ave Maria	Vittoria
Elegy	Beethoven
String Quartet and Choir
When Allen-a-Dale	De Pearsall
Modern Madrigal Singers
Piano Quartet in G minor (first movement)	Mozart

Academic Standard Of Faculty Rises

The steadily rising academic standard of faculty members of Santa Barbara College of the University of California was indicated with the announcement today by Dr. J. Harold Williams, Provost, that 56.1 per cent now have doctorates.

Last year the number with doctorates was 48.9 per cent.

The percentage of those now having doctorates is based on statistics showing that 101 of the 180 on the faculty have this top-ranking degree. In addition another 63 or 35 per cent have master's degrees and an additional 13 or 7.2 per cent have Bachelor's degrees.

These percentages are considered exceptionally high for a faculty and represent the steady advance in achievement toward a high standard, officials of the College pointed out. Several members of the faculty are now working on their doctorates.

NO PAPER FRIDAY
Due to the fifty-three issue publication schedule approved for budgeting of El Gaucho, there will be no papers issued on Friday or the following Tuesday. Four issues will be published in December, on the 1st, 5th, 8th and 12th. Two issues will be published in January before finals.

Warwhoops to Greet Aztecs Saturday

"Plans are all set for the gigantic rally to be held at the Southern Pacific Depot this Saturday at 2:45," announced Reno Chackel, chairman of the Rally Committee.

The purpose of the big rally at the depot is to greet the San Diego rooters as they arrive on their rooster's train at 3:00 pm. The band and cheer leaders will be present to aid in raising spirit to an all-time high.

Following the rally the Gaucho Band will march in the annual Christmas Parade. The rooters from both San Diego and Santa Barbara will march at the end of the parade.

It is hoped that everyone will turn out for our last big rally and will see the final championship game between the Aztecs and Gauchos on Saturday night at La Playa Stadium.

IFC-Panhel Discuss Elections, Housing

A new political idea on the election of the Homecoming Queen was the main feature of a joint Panhellenic and Inter-Fraternity Council meeting recently, according to Jim Stanley, secretary of the IFC.

Concerning Homecoming Queen elections, it was proposed that any person turning in a petition for a candidate, having the required qualifications as authorized by the IFC, will be eligible to run for queen. Instead of the men students electing the Homecoming Queen, business men of Santa Barbara would act as judges in naming the queen.

No final decision was reached, although the majority of the fraternities were in favor of the proposed plan. The May Queen election would be held in the usual manner.

Goleta housing was an additional matter discussed at the meeting. All the fraternities are in favor of sponsoring a fraternity row. Tomorrow night this question will be discussed further at the joint IFC-Panhellenic meeting.

Jim Stanley, who recently returned from a regional IFC meeting in Arizona, explained to the Council that the other Inter-Fraternity Councils have the same problems coherent to those on this campus.

A Review . . . 'Antigone,' An Actor's Play

For twenty-five hundred years, Sophocles' "Antigone" has been known as an "actor's play," and the Speech Department production of Anouilh's modern version presented on the Riviera stage Friday and Saturday nights once again proved this truth.

It is the performances of the two principals, Marie Willett and Fred Goerner, which make "Antigone" a play to see and which make many of the minor flaws in the production seem unimportant.

As the tragic victim of fate, Marie Willett gives her characterization of Antigone all the superficial skill and stage grace of an accomplished actress plus an added spark of feeling for the universal nature of the character which she portrays.

Powerful Presence

Goerner, in the difficult role of the humanly inhuman Creon, exhibits a powerful stage presence and skill in reading lines. Both stars are at their best in the emotion-racked obligatory scene in which they hold the spectator spellbound for thirty minutes.

Directed by Dr. Ted Hatlen, the unusual choice of play conforms to his expressed theories about ex-

MODERN DANCE CLUB GIVES FALL CONCERT

The Dance Club members, under the direction of Miss Jean Bellinger, are presenting a Fall Concert on Thursday, December 7. perimentation in the college drama program.

The utilization of an extraneous prologue starts the play out on the left foot and the players are not able to get back in step until the excellent scene between Antigone and her old nurse, well-acted by Beverly Benedict. It is not the clever dance which ruins the prologue, but the falsetto reading of an unintelligible ode behind the

Presentation Dance Will Honor Pledges

Honoring the pledges of eight sororities, the Presents Dance will be held December 2. Sponsored by the Panhellenic Council, the dance will take place at the Recreation Center from 9 pm to 1 am, and will feature Chuck Copeland's band, according to Peggy Ward, Panhellenic president.

Bids for the closed dance will be $1.00 and are available to members and alumni from their sorority presidents.

At approximately 10:15, the presentation of pledges will take place. The girls, wearing white formals, will be given corsages by their respective sororities, and will be honored at parties preceding the dance.

Dean of Women Ellen Bowers, assistant, Mrs. Jane Wentz, Panhel President Peggy Ward, and one alum from each sorority will be in the receiving line.

This presentation dance has become a semi-annual affair and is the highlight of the year for each pledge class.

Pledge Classes to be 'Neophyte Naughties' in Gaucho Roundup

"Neophyte Naughties," provocative title given to the second Gaucho Roundup, will be presented by the Assembly Committee on November 30 at 7:30 pm in the Riviera Auditorium. Fred Goerner will emcee the brief skits, which will be presented by the pledge classes of many of the sororities and fraternities.

Gauchos Enter Float In Christmas Parade

A large Santa Claus tossing a ball will be the Gaucho float entered in the local Santa Claus parade Saturday afternoon, November 25, the theme of the entry being "Play Ball With the Gauchos."

Pete Burgher, president of the Freshman Class, is in charge of the float, assisted by the three Women Reps-at-Large, Nancy Chmilkowski, Eleanor Conte and Barbara York. Paul Kluth, an art major, has made the design.

Funds of $40 are being sought from the Associated Students for materials since the purpose of the entry is to create better relations with the Santa Barbara townspeople.

All students who are in town on Friday night and Saturday morning may help build the float at the County Warehouse on lower Garden Street. The parade begins at 4 pm on State Street Saturday afternoon.

ORGS DECLARED ACTIVE BY ACB

The Activities Control Board at its last meeting released a list of all approved campus organizations.

To be approved, an organization should submit the form sent out by the board. Approval entitles an organization to use of campus facilities and provides for its constitution to be on file with the board, according to Pat Johnson, chairman.

The following organizations were declared active and have been passed by the eligibility committee: Sigma Tau Gamma, Music Control Board, Sigma Pi, Xi Omicron Pi, Election Committee, Epsilon Pi Tau, Artists' Series Board, Assembly Committee, Chimes, Stray Greeks, Alpha Phi, Delta Sigma Epsilon, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Finance Committee, Sigma Kappa, Alpha Delta Pi, Kappa Sigma, Social Committee, I. A. Club, Chi Omega, Cal Club, Press Control Board, La Cumbre, AMS, Spurs, Board of Athletic Control, Junior Class, and AWS.

FROSH-SOPH PROM SLATED IN JANUARY

Preliminary plans for a Frosh-Soph Prom to be held January 12, at Rockwood, were made by the Sophomore Class Social Committee at a meeting last week.

Dress will be suits and ties for men and dressy dresses for girls, according to Marilyn Ringel, chairman. Anyone may come, as long as one member of the couple is either a freshman or sophomore.

Price per couple has been set at 75c with class card and $1.00 without class card. Charles Copeland and his orchestra will provide music for the evening.

Skits must be limited to five minutes, and outlines must be in by 12:00 noon, Wednesday, November 22, according to Pat Welsh, Assembly Committee Chairman.

No Admission

There will be no admission charge for the Roundup, and no awards will be made for the skits. Class meetings will follow, presided over by the class presidents: Bill Norton, Seniors; Jim Stanley, Juniors; and Sophomore and Freshman classes will meet jointly, with Ted Troy and Pete Burgher presiding.

Rehearsals will be held Monday and Tuesday evenings, November 27 and 28 at 7:00 in PH 100.

Entries

Tentative entries for the Roundup are Alpha Phi, with Nita Mitchell as supervisor; Margaret Feliz, Delta Sigma Epsilon; Jane Engle, Delta Gamma; Benny Droste, Kappa Alpha Theta; Dottie Davis, Pi Beta Phi; Kenny Kesson, Sigma Pi; John Cook, Kappa Sigma; Spud Morrow, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Joe Ferguson, Sigma Tau Gamma; Al Cox, Delta Tau Delta; Ralph Brice, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Ronnie Lechleiter, Chi Omega, and Corky Strandburg, Romans.

The Assembly Committee, headed by Pat Welsh, consists of Suzi Smith, John Cooke, Nita Mitchell, Elaine Strobel.

THOMAS READINGS PRESENTED AT 4 PM

Dylan Thomas' recorded readings of his own and other contemporary poetry will be presented this afternoon at 4 in the AWS room.

The recordings were made of Thomas' reading at the Art Museum last spring by Dr. Joseph Foladare, Chairman of the English Department.

"Dylan Thomas' interpretations add something even to those familiar with the poetry," stated Dr. Foladare.

Next week Mr. Warren E. Schutt will read from the lyrics of Shakespeare.

VETERAN GRADUATES

If you expect to continue your educational training after graduation, it will be necessary for you to procure a supplemental letter of eligibility. This applies even though you do not change training institutions. Make application no later than eight weeks before letter must be presented. If you plan to graduate in February 1951, and expect to continue your educational program in the spring, be sure to make application soon. If you have any questions, check with the Office of Veterans Affairs.

On Awarding Freshman Scholarships . . .

Registration figures indicate that Santa Barbara College is close to becoming a "JC Transfer College." The Associated Students must take steps to encourage high school seniors to seriously consider entering Santa Barbara College as freshmen.

A vigorous publicity campaign citing the bright future of the College and the new Goleta campus, plus all the advantages of belonging to the University of California will help, but an even more concrete program is needed.

A plan for awarding promising high school seniors freshman scholarships to the College is deserving of attention by the Legislative Council. Such a plan would serve a double purpose, first publicizing the College as an educational institution and secondly providing a financial inducement to enter here.

Not Only Money Counts

With scholarships, it is not always the amount of money granted that is important, it is the fact that they are granted in competition and for high scholastic and personal attributes. A competition would affect many more promising students than the number of scholarships granted.

Funds for the scholarships would not have to exceed fifty dollars per semester for the freshman year, and would not have to be continued beyond that time since there are many other scholarships which are awarded to students.

There are many possible sources of money for these scholarships. Associated Students activities such as the Roadrunner Revue and the Santa Barbary Coast Carnival could be for the benefit of a scholarship fund. Interfraternity Council and Panhellenic could raise money for one or more scholarships.

All Orgs Could Help

Organizations such as AWS could sponsor social benefits, AMS could sponsor workdays, Honoraries such as Delta Phi Delta, Phi Beta and the Industrial Arts Club could sponsor sales, art galleries, concerts.

Usually, a proposal such as this is greeted with a spontaneous "It can't be done!" or "You can't get kids to do it." Last year offers an example which proves that it can be done.

The "Bonfire Bounce" held at Goleta raised several hundred dollars for the sorority whose Homecoming float burned. That affair tapped only a small percentage of the Associated Students' resources. What would happen if the whole campus went to work on bringing more freshmen to Santa Barbara College?

NEW SAE ADVISOR

Due to the absense on sabbatical leave of Dr. Russell Buchanan next semester, Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity will have Mr. J. A. D. Muncy, Business Manager of the College, as fraternity sponsor for the spring semester.

SANTA BARBARA

by The Third Man

Friday night Gauchos began to perk up again after that deadly lull following the big weekend up in Berkeley. "What's the name of that song?" asked the Pi Phis of their dates for a closed party that eve, while the poor dates asked "What's the name of my girl?" for three long dances before they finally found out who . . .

The golden arrow gals weren't the only ones singing Friday night . . . The harried proprietor of one Goleta booze barn was singing the blues to two cops who happened in on a sedate little double exchange involving two fraternities and a couple of the better known sororities . . .

Interrupting a fascinating can-can exhibition to dive for the nearest exits were Roxie Marble, Pat McKenzie, and a bunch of Sig Pis from the "Under 21 Set" . . .

Muriel Day, an Alpha Phi pledge recently engaged to Delta Sig Stan Green, was having a good time . . . So were bartenders Bill Neal, Bert Getke, Johnny Popovich et al . . .

Starting Friday night early in the afternoon was DeeGee dancer Nancy Chmilowski who delighted habitués of the Samarkand with her interpretations . . .

Sig Taus and Chi Omegas took off in mid-week for a "cheap-skate" at the local roller rink . . . Chi O Ronnie Leichter is quite the athlete — she turned a flip-flop over the railing and came out without a bruise . . . So did Ray Hanawalt and Marcia Chandler who had something in common — an ignorance of the art of skating.

Fifty-seven varieties of wailing are being heard from several sorority actives who've been beaten out of dates for the coming "Presents" by their pledges . . . A few couples already set for the affair are Sig Ep Art Hendricks — Kay Ryan, Sig Pi Jim Beacom — Joy Peterson, plus all the old regulars.

Among the scattered few who dragged up to the Riviera to see that stark-raving drama, "Antigone," were Nikki Ueyehara-Bob Hemmig, Bill Tiernay-Gracie Pope, and plenty of does . . .

Question of the Week: Who'll be around to help Burgher with his Santa Claus float the day after Thanksgiving? Our bet is not very many . . . Who feels like working after turkey?

And speaking of turkey, we advise Bev Purdum, Dolly Spotts and Bobbie Toal to eat hearty, good food will build you up . . .

All captains of intramural basketball teams are requested to turn in their team roster along with dates most favorable to them for playing their games, according to Richard Kaywood, Director of Intramural Sports.

This information, which will help to avoid much difficulty, should be turned in as soon as possible to either Dick Kaywood or Joe Phillips, Intramural Manager.

Early Snows Rush Ski Club Plans for Trips

Recently falling snow in the mountains of Southern California has caused the Ski Club to begin coordinating holiday plans, according to Hugh Smart, publicity chairman for the club.

Plans for a Christmas Holidays trip will be made at the next club meeting which is scheduled for November 30. Smart stressed that membership will remain open to both novice and professional skiers.

Coach Williamson to Leave for Service

When the Gaucho line trots out on the field for Saturday's crucial fray against the Aztecs, it will be playing its last game under Coach Stan Williamson. Williamson will leave early next month for an indefinite tour of active duty in the Navy.

Every member of the line will be making every tackle and throwing every block in an effort to haul in the Gauchos' first 2C2A crown and to make Williamson's last coaching effort a big success.

Genial Stan Williamson, the Great White Father of Gaucho football, is well liked and respected by all the players. Under his coaching this year's forward wall has been one of the best in the school's history. The line has been a major factor in compiling the impressive record of allowing opponents less than one touchdown per game.

Williamson's return to the Navy will at least temporarily end a long association with Santa Barbara College and it is hoped that when Uncle Sam releases him we will once again see the Great White Father guiding the destinies of Gaucho football.

Poets Sock Gauchos 18-6

THE GORRIES, Dick, Dave and Doug harmonize in their famous trio which sounds as sharp in the locker room as it functions on the gridiron. —News-Press Photo

ENGLEMEN BEATEN IN MUDDY TUSSLE

A fired up Whittier Poet eleven made the most of their passing attack and downed the mud-hampered Gauchos 18-6 on rain soaked Hadley Field in Whittier.

Coach Roy Engle's crew just couldn't get going as Dick Gorrie's passes failed to click and the Gaucho's T formation running attack was seriously slowed down by the very soggy turf.

The non-conference fray was a hard fought affair, but the Gauchos couldn't get up steam as the team appeared to be suffering from the effects of a too easy victory over the Cal Aggies.

Gauchos Score

After trailing Whittier 12-0 at halftime, the Gauchos broke into the scoring column early in the fourth period on a pass from Dick Gorrie to Clyde Francisco.

The score was set up by a 52 yard run by fullback Dave Gorrie, who played an inspired game for the Gauchos. Dave broke through tackle and raced to the Whittier 30 before he was pulled down. A bad pass from center cost the extra point attempt.

Drive Stopped

The Gauchos had one other drive stopped in the third quarter when they lost the ball on the Poet 15. They had marched from their own 27, largely on the hard plunging efforts of Dave Gorrie, for the Gauchos' longest sustained drive of the evening.

Whittier scored their first TD early in the second period on a pass from halfback Ray Dezember to end Jerry Porter.

The Poets followed this with another touchdown, this time on a 55 yard pass play from Tony Siciliano to quarterback Jack Pickering.

The clincher was put on the ball game late in the final period when Dezember cut over tackle, eluded the Gaucho secondary and went 70 yards for the score.

Dick, Dave, Doug — Newscaster's Nightmare

Much to the consternation of rival football powers, and doubly confusing to the sports authorities and enthusiasts following Santa Barbara's pigskin progress, the Gauchos have probably the nation's only three brother act in college football, namely, Dick, Dave and Doug Gorrie.

Not only does confusion develop from the obvious alliteration of the Dick, Dave and Doug, but also there is an amazing similarity in their ability to produce on the gridiron. This latter fact is one the more influential factors dis-tating the recent rise in the successes of the league-leading Gauchos.

Coach Engle simplifies matters by dubbing Dick "The Quarterback," Dave "The Fullback," and Doug "The Halfback" to distinguish the members of the clan.

The Oldest

Dick, a 23-year-old senior, has the best passing percentage in the league with a sharp-shooting .532, and is well up the list in total yardage, besides being an outstanding field general.

Dave, at nineteen and a sophomore, is second in the ranks of the league's rushers with a 4.8 yards per carry average from his fullback slot.

The other Gorrie of voting age is 21-year-old Doug; a junior and a capable man at both offense and defense.

From Pasadena

Biographically, the clan is Pasadena in origin, where all three learned their pigskin ABC's at that city's high school and City College. But they had to wait to become Gauchos to fulfill their major ambition to play football together. The recently-won Cal Poly game witnessed an unusual play in which all three brothers handled the ball for the usual gain.

Another major goal of the trio is to finish college with a degree apiece in P.E. and coaching. This leads to the conclusion that someday a triumvirate of mentors may influence the football fortunes of some institution as coaches in the same accomplished manner as they have as players here.

curtain and the further fact that all the players are revealed onstage and this ruins the introduction by the Chorus.

Theatrical Device

Furthermore, such a theatrical device as the spectacle of a red light and drum beats to denote slaughter was effective in Shakespeare's "Hamlet" but is off-key in the classic "Antigone."

Worthy of mention in the supporting cast, besides Miss Benedict, are Wally Jonason as the Chorus and the three Guards who performed their parts as "lumps of clay" admirably.

"Antigone" will again be presented next Friday evening at 8:30 pm on the Riviera stage.—KT

GOLETA CAMPUS CONVERSION WORK, DISMANTLING NOW IN FULL SWING

Three buildings have been dismantled and eight others are in the process of demolition as conversion work gets into full swing on the new Goleta campus.

Materials from the structures being dismantled are to be saved, some in stockpiles and others under cover, for use in remodeling some 50 buildings in the former Marine Corps barracks area.

Robert Floyd, planning engineer in charge of charting details for the new campus, reported that work will start next month on relocating electric lines in the athletic field area, as well as relocating water lines.

"We hope to complete grading of the athletic field area by Spring, when plantings will be made," explained Floyd. "This will give the grass a full year of growth before possible use."

Progress is also being made on plans for permanent structures, some of which must be completed before the college moves to its new location.

Five sets of preliminary plans have been made for the library building, with the floor plan virtually crystallized. A meeting of the architect and the College

DR. OAKESON TELLS OF ALASKAN TRIP

Traveling over 120 miles of frozen tundra in Alaska last summer, Dr. Barbara Blanchard Oakeson of the zoology faculty traced the migration of sparrows, recording the physiological changes which the small birds experience during their long trek.

The three months of research were made possible by the American Association of University Women.

As a result of this Alaskan summer expedition, Dr. Oakeson will leave today for Washington, D.C., where she will give an account of her observations.

COMPARE CHESTERFIELD WITH ANY OTHER CIGARETTE!

BEFORE YOU SMOKE THEM

...you can tell Chesterfields will smoke milder, because tobaccos that smell milder smoke milder.

AFTER YOU SMOKE THEM

...you have no unpleasant after-taste.

WHILE YOU SMOKE THEM you get more pleasure than any other cigarette can give you — that's why millions of smokers say: THEY SATISFY.
