With the exception of the previous postseason games of New Year's Day, the Orange Bowl is possibly the only football game of the entire season which cannot be described as exciting. No teams played well; not one turned in a good game, and, more likely than not, next year's game will turn out to be the same.

1937 Champions

Players who rose to new heights this year were: Ed Neely, the "Whizzer" White, Colorado's high- scoring half-back; Richard "Spud" Goldberg, Pitt's powerful back; "Clint" Frank, versatile quarterback from Yale; and Bob Ulrich, Santa Barbara's star center.

Clara. Orange Bowl—Auburn to defeat a favored Michigan State team. Sun Bowl—Texas Tech over West Virginia by two touchdowns. Rice Bowl—The Chinese eleven over the favored team from California.

It has been rumored that the President of Willamette was not concerned when negotiations were in order for the game, and counciling with their officials it was disclosed that they have permanently closed their football season.

Thursday, December 16, the chorus group will sing those Christmas numbers which will make up the main portion of the entertainment to be held by the City Theater's club at El Paso. Mrs. Margaret Smith is in charge of the arrangements.

The active and alumnae members who will take part in the musicale include Dorothy Korn, Margaret Barnett, Betty Beny, Jeannine McArthur, Charlotte Updegraff, Dorothy Haasen, Robie Eise, Marjorie Keating, Margaret Shea, Ruth Angell, Dorothy Cameron, Thelma Portnoy, Beryl McArthur, Frances Hoelscher, Jeanne Leister, Anita Priest, Jeanette McPheeter, Katie Crebs, Blanche Hillman, Anne Sear, Alice Hoelscher, Margaret George, and Mrs. Helen M. Barnett, sponsor.

Delta Zetes Hold Christmas Dinner

One of the best loved parties given to members of Delta Zetes Delta this year, was the Christmas dinner held last Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Robert Meyer, on Los Pinos drive. The dining room was decorated with pine branches and red candles while favors and caps were handed out to the guests. A punch bowl served by the hostesses followed the distribution of Christmas gifts.

Betty Pasman and Peter Forer are arranging for the Christmas basket which the alumnae and active members will give each year to a needy family.

Inquiries were sent out on the New Year. Dr. Helen Gregory will entertain her guests at her home, Mr. and Mrs. Porter will entertain following the Pan-Hellenic dance, the spring fashion show featuring new members will also be given. Programs for dancing will be distributed at the door. Decorations and evening dress will be appropriate for the affair.

Delta Sigma Honor Campus Groups With Tea

Phi chapter of Delta Sigma Epiloon held their annual Christmas inter-sorority tea at the sorority house 1711 Prospect avenue Tuesday afternoon, December 14.

All members of campus sororities, together with their respective sponsors and guests were invited. The Christmas tea was served throughout the decorations and refreshments. Mrs. Westcott, president of the Mortar board, and Margaret Ehrlich, chaperone, were in charge.

At the regular meeting, Monday evening, Mrs. Westcott and Mrs. Rayther, presented a beautiful lace cloth to the sorority as a Christmas present in behalf of the Mortar board.

The sorority also chose the patroness for a silver service, which is to be auctioned for the group. It was decided that the service would be the first Christmas present of the new year. Davison also held an on the Pan-Hellenic formal and rousing events.

Members present included Helen Buckman, Helen Williams, Norine Monson, Maggie Barnes, Virginia Rodger, Nells Rathjen, Joan Angala, Marjorie, Alice Duff, and Joan Crebs. Helen Clarke, Marguerite Sullivan and Marjorie Hartwell, alumnae, were also present. Guests will seat as hosts and hostesses for the Pan-Hellenic dance.

The Christmas dinner will be the final social function of the fraternity for the year. Programs for dancing will be distributed at the door. Decorations and evening dress will be appropriate for the affair.
