

COUNCIL: 'PAPER MAY EDITORIALIZE FREELY'

by Jerry Bradley

Legislative Council reaffirmed El Gaucho's right to editorialize freely on any subject in its regular session this Tuesday.

In modifying a resolution proposed by the Press Control Board, UCSB's student council said the paper should maintain a free editorial policy on all subjects. Council also chose to delete the section of the original document commending the campus paper for general high quality. In place of this, the group said the quality was satisfactory.

Commenting on the Council's action, El Gaucho Editor Bruce Loeb stated: "It was a wise decision. By reaffirming the paper's right to criticize freely the Council clearly showed that it supports a University newspaper in preference to the high school type sheet some students apparently desire."

Controversy

The complete resolution, the result of controversy over the past weeks and the subject of lengthy debate on the Council floor, reads as follows:

Legislative Council makes the following statement concerning El Gaucho:

1) It is realized that errors of El Gaucho which are common to the newspaper trade (misspelling, etc.) will always exist.

2) El Gaucho does have the responsibility of publicizing and reporting upon events sponsored by the Associated Students and recognized organizations.

Free Policy

3) A free editorial policy concerning all subjects should be maintained by El Gaucho.

4) The quality of El Gaucho is satisfactory.

5) Formulation of a specific written policy concerning the types of articles that shall be deemed news and those that shall be deemed editorial shall be forthcoming from PCB.

Poll

Council requested El Gaucho to conduct a poll of student opinion concerning the paper. Editor Bruce Loeb stated that such a poll has already been projected and will probably be conducted at the start of the second semester.

In other business, Finance Committee announced it has cut a $200 Spectrum request to $10. The balance, intended for engravings and publicity, was refused.

Council also directed that the Press Control Board study the proportion of student and non-student contributors to the literary magazine and asked Finance Committee to investigate the proportion and rate-difference of student and non-student subscriptions.

AWS Christmas Assembly Features Music, Recitals

Featuring a program of music and recitations, the annual Associated Women Students' Christmas Assembly is Tuesday, Dec. 16, at 11 a.m. in the Campus Auditorium. Classes are excused and the library and Student Union will close during the event.

At the top of the program is "Fanfare for the Common Man" by Creston, to be presented by the Brass Choir under the direction of Dr. Maurice Faulkner. A welcome by AWS President Sheila Higbee follows this instrumental selection. The Brass Choir will then play "Sleepers, Wake" and "Minuet," both by Bach. Audience singing is next with the execution of two popular Christmas carols.

Father Lester from the San Roque Catholic church will deliver an invocation and a message on the real meaning of Christmas.

The Modern Chorale, directed by Dr. Van A. Christy, is next

DIRECTORY SALE BEGINS TODAY

The Student Directory goes on sale today at the Graduate Manager's office, outside the Student Union, the Library and the Dining Commons.

Sales will continue in these places Monday and Tuesday and thereafter it will be available at the Graduate Manager's office.

The directory includes addresses and phone numbers of the Associated Student Body officers, campus phone numbers and the addresses and phone numbers of students and faculty.

Humorous Stories For Oral Reading

Three humorous short stories are the program for the oral reading Monday, Dec. 15, in the UCSB classroom auditorium at 4 p.m.

This oral reading, one of a series, includes presentations by Nick Scott, Barbara Frailey and John Fox. Scott will read "The Macbeth Murder Mystery" by James Thurber. This story is concerned with an interview of a person who believes that Macbeth really didn't commit the murder.

The south will be the setting for Barbara Frailey's contribution, "Why I Live at the P O" by Eudora Welty. William Saroyan's "Harry," a story set in the San Joaquin Valley, will be read by Fox.

"This program has been chosen especially for its entertainment value," said Dr. Quimby, Associate Professor of Speech. "It ought to prove very interesting for all."

Phrateres Initiates Three Coeds Sat.

Gaucho coeds Leslie Porter, Mary Jane Breniman and Edith Rutter will be formally initiated to the Phrateres Club in the home of Mrs. B. A. Abraham, Saturday at 6 p.m.

The word phrateres is Greek and means sisterhood. The pledges base their work on this idea and receive pledge points for service work done during the eight week pledge period.

At the end of the pledge period the girl who has received the most pledge points is given a special pin. The girl to receive the special pin this year will be named at the initiation.

After the ceremony, hors d'oeuvres will be served.

"MISTRESS INTO MAID" TONIGHT

World Premier For Vernon Duke Opera, Shirley Easley, Carl Zytowski Sing Leads

by Bruce Batchelder

"Mistress Into Maid", a light comic opera in two acts by Vernon Duke, has its world premier at the UCSB campus auditorium tonight and tomorrow. Student body card holders can obtain tickets in advance for $.75 at the Graduate Manager's office. General admission is $1.25. Curtain time is 8:30 for both performances.

COMPOSER

VERNON DUKE

The opera concerns the humorous love affair of Alexi Berestov and Liza Muromsky. Shirley Easley and Carl Zytowski star in the leading roles as the two Russian lovers, Liza and Alexi, striving against their feuding families to continue their romance.

Ivan Berestov, Alexi's father, is sung by Archie Drake and Grigory Muromsky, father of Liza, is portrayed by Charles Buffum.

Nastya, Liza's close friend is performed by the wife of the composer, Mrs. Vernon Duke.

Duke Authored Hits

Duke who has also authored such hits as "April in Paris," "Autumn in New York" and "I Can't Get Started With You," first conceived the idea for the opera in 1928 and finished the first version in London.

It has since been revised and translated into English, with several new scenes added. Its setting is Russia in 1830. The unusual sets and descriptive costumes serve to further exemplify this period.

Stage Props

Dr. Kurt Baer of the UCSB art department has created a combination of realism and non-realism in his stage properties through the use of drab colors and a proscenium arch. The final effect is a subconscious change of attention from the sets and stage furniture to the singers.

Costuming is supervised by Miss Jane Purcell of the art department. Miss Purcell also designed several of the costumes.

20-Piece Orchestra

There is a special 20-piece orchestra for the production under the direction of Stefan Krayk which will provide accompaniment for the soloists.

Several students appear in the opera in various supporting roles. They include Dennis Lees, Gerald Rogers, George Backman, Nancy Adams and Gregg Graeme.

Yuletide Decor Exhibit Today

Students of home economics at UCSB under the direction of Assistant Professor Marie R. Wilson, instructor of the "House Interiors and Furnishing" class are presenting an exhibit of "Christmas Decorations for the Home" today from noon to 4 p.m. in the Home Economics Building, room 106. The public is invited to attend.

According to Jan Bartlett, one of the exhibit chairmen, featured displays will include a Christmas tree made out of pampas grass and unique mobiles and mantel decorations. Each decoration is planned with a specific room or family occasion in mind. After the exhibit, students will be allowed to take their decorations home to use in their own homes or college rooms. The creating of Christmas decorations is part of the study of accessories for the home.

CASTING FOR PLAY TO BEGIN TUESDAY

Casting for the whimsical comedy, "The Beautiful People," by William Saroyan will be held in the Little Theatre, Tuesday Dec. 16, 3 to 5:30 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 17, 3 to 5:30 and Thursday, Dec. 18, 2 to 5. Call backs will be held Thursday, Dec. 18, 7 p.m.

The play concerns the fortunes of a very-unusual family consisting of a saint, a poet, a philosophic father and a young man who plays the cornet. Their intimate friends are equally as unusual. There are parts for seven men and two women.

Saroyan wrote, produced and directed the play. It ran for 120 performances at the Lyceum Theatre in New York and received very favorable reviews.

"The Beautiful People" will be the third production of the Speech and Drama Department's season of four plays. Mr. Robert Crumb will be the director. Crumb stressed that acting experience is helpful but not necessary and urged that all interested students try out.

'Humor in French' Discussion Tuesday

Three foreign language professors of UCSB discuss "Humor in French" in the Santa Rosa Hall lounge Tuesday, Dec. 16 at 8 p.m.

The discussion will embrace national tastes in humor with examples drawn from many periods in the literary history of the particular countries. Students and the public are invited to the free discussion.

Taking part in the discussion are Drs. Linn, Bary and Murray of the Department of Foreign Languages.

The panel discussion is sponsored by Alpha Mu Gamma, the National Foreign Language Honorary Society. Refreshments will be served.

Application Blanks Now Available For 100 Scholarships

Currently enrolled students who would like to apply for one of the 100 scholarships to be given on this campus for the 1959-60 academic year are urged to submit applications before the Christmas holidays, according to Dr. Stephen S. Goodspeed, chairman of the committee on honors and scholarships.

For this current year $38,000 in cash scholarships were awarded by the committee, about half to currently enrolled students and half to new students. The amount of each scholarship is between $300 and $800. These funds can be used for the student's general expenses and incidental fees.

Application blanks and other information are available in the Scholarship Office, building 404, room 116.

CHRISTMAS DRIVE FOR NEEDY ENDS

Today and tomorrow are the last days of the drive for donations of food, money and toys for the needy families of Santa Barbara, it was announced by Margo Bechtel, drive chairman.

The Charities Committee of UCSB is supporting this drive in conjunction with the Council of Christmas Cheer for Santa Barbara. Each living group has received a grocery sack for food. Boxes for the canned foods can also be found at the Student Union and the library.

John Lauritzen of Lambda Chi Alpha was named "Fraternity Man of the Year" last weekend by the Delta Zeta sorority at their Christmas formal held at the Oaks Hotel in Ojai.

The competition is annually sponsored by the sorority in which nominees from the eight fraternities compete for the title. The selection is based on participation in campus activities, service to the individual fraternity and scholarship.

Three finalists were selected from among the candidates and invited to the formal. The two other finalists were Jim Bartilero from Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Mike Vale of Kappa Sigma.

by Pat Gower
The recent "survey" on our campus did compliment at least one segment of El Gaucho . . . to all of our readers, thanks.

Contradictory to current trends, all news is good news—at least in our department. From now 'til Christmas and on to New Year's Eve, if they live through some of their prof's "little Christmas presents," Gauchos will be spreading Christmas cheer in every form of holiday revelry. From caroling to formals, from TGIV's (translated—the usual plus Vacation) to trimming the tree.

Greek formals are under way! The Delta Zeta's held their annual Christmas formal at the Oaks in Ojai last weekend . . . The SAE's had a party at Hidden Valley. Jim Bardalero and DZ Lynn Boswell chose the event to announce their pinning and another "pinned" twosome, Lee Smelzer and Joanie Weyand, announced to all their engagement . . .

CHI O's join their SC sisters for a Christmas formal tomorrow night in L.A. at the Alexandria Hotel . . . The Delta Gamma's holiday social is planned for this evening at Hidden Valley — a cocktail party . . . Tomorrow night the ADPI's take over there for their Christmas formal . . . Both the Alpha Phi's and Sigma Kappa's are holding house parties and it's a party-at-the-house also for the Phi Psi's, tomorrow evening . . . The Pi Phi's enjoy their formal at the Biltmore Hotel Saturday . . . The Sig Ep's are there tonight . . .

If you're not convinced that EVERYTHING is happening this weekend, read on. Parties on Sunday, even! The Sig Pi Christmas Party is at the house Sunday . . . the Kappa Sigs will be singing all the seasonal songs at the American Legion Hall Sunday night . . . Mustn't forget the Deltas—Tonight is their night at the Carrillo Hotel . . .

That about winds up coverage of the formal scene, but if any energy remains after the first two days of the weekend, drop by the Sigma Kappa house for their annual Christmas Tea, on Sunday or visit upper State Street for the Alpha Phi Open House.

Tonight "togetherness" will prevail at an exclusive El Gaucho shindig at Covell Brown's Mar Monte Beach abode. This is one party the Copy Cat is bound to get the inside dope on!! (Bad sentence from an English major, but as one Philosophy prof on campus says, what the heck, it communicates.)

"World Affairs Are Your Affairs" . . .

by Sam McPhetres
President of IRC

Using Paul G. Hoffman's statement as a title of this first of a series of articles is particularly apt since 25% of the student body heard his remark, made last Wednesday Dec. 3 and the reasons behind it. Incidentally Mr. Hoffman has just been appointed as Director of the United Nations Fund for Underdeveloped Nations by the Secretary General Dag Hammerskjold.

In the next few weeks the International Relations Club will try to bring international affairs to the student body and to show you how you, the student, can have a voice in world affairs.

The International Relations Club exists for certain primary purposes. 1. To improve relations between peoples of the world, some of which can be done on this campus by the students.

2. To increase the understanding of the students of UCSB about other nations. This is one of the most deficient qualities of the students of this school. There are close to 40 students here from other nations.

Too many American students here cannot even locate on a map the home countries of these fellow students. The standards of living and the ways of life are poorly understood. For proof of this, compare your concepts with those of your friends and then talk to one of the foreign students and ask him what he thinks of the American concept of his country.

3. The most direct activity of the IRC is to bring to this campus men like Mr. Hoffman and others who are capable of increasing our understanding of international affairs.

Where there is a conflict of opinion, an attempt will be made to show the other side of the story wherever possible.

Next week we will show how the IRC's affiliation with the College Council for the United Nations is advantageous to the student body and how your voice can be heard in the General Assembly and by American policy makers.

Letters to the Editor . . .

NAIMAN ON POLL . . .

After reading the papers of December 5th and December 9th, I feel that it is time to explain my views concerning the reasons why a survey was made of the student body concerning the El Gaucho.

I feel that the information presented to the PCB represented a cross-section of the student body. The students were polled so that the El Gaucho staff would be made aware of what the student body feels are the shortcomings of the paper.

This is the students right: to express their views of the newspaper, since part of their $15 student body fee goes into supporting campus publications and the editor also receives his token fee from the student body.

The survey that was taken covered views from the residence halls, sororities, and fraternities; the purpose being that the suggestions could be studied objectively with the hopes that action would be taken after due consideration.

One of the major complaints in the survey was the obvious lack of enthusiasm or even, coverage of student body activities.

I know, for example, that many of you were interested in the results of the Ugly-Man Contest. 14 organizations entered the contest representing the interest of approximately 1000-1500 students. From the contest over $100 was given to the construction of our new S.U.

When a request was made for coverage of the "ugliest man," the person making the request was humiliated by members of the El Gaucho staff. (PCB meeting)

What does this mean? The issue is whether the student body as publisher of the newspaper has the right to make constructive suggestions to their newspaper! Many students, 369 to be exact, have expressed their opinions through the survey of the good and bad qualities of the paper.

Isn't it now the obligation of the El Gaucho staff to do some careful scrutinizing of their journalistic policies? Their present practice of publicly degrading individuals in recent editions does not seem to be a mature or dignified solution to the problems. These degradations refute the editor's statement "welcoming any constructive suggestions." (Dec. 9)

"The editorial columns like the doors to the Gaucho office, are always open to students." It is my sincere hope that eventually the minds of the El Gaucho staff will be as open as the doors to the El Gaucho office!

Dennis Naiman

Editor's Note:

The findings of the survey, mentioned above, already have been carefully scrutinized by the Press Control Board point by point, in a meeting held Friday, Dec. 5. It was the conclusion of the PCB (composed of some of the most experienced journalists on campus) that the survey was not valid in any of its criticisms. The PCB expressed the regret that no one was present for most of the meeting to explain the survey.

PRAISES NAIMAN

Dear Editor,

As an interested student and as a member of Legislative Council, I have watched carefully the controversy concerning the El Gaucho. I am tempted to refer the issue as THE FAMOUS BATTLE OF THE PRESS vs. MR. NAIMAN. In the final analysis, what has been the nature of many of the El Gaucho comments on the events of the past few weeks?

The Dec. 9 issue speaks for itself: Mr. Aspitte's fine spy system detecting Dennis in the barber chair, other references to "immature and outspoken students," the obvious absurdity of a poll taken by Men's-Rep-at-Large Dennis Naiman," etc. etc. ad nauseam.

At no time has the "feeble opposition" stopped to making personal cracks at Mr. Loeb, whom all of us consider a man of intelligence, or at some of his editorial staff about whom our opinions are quite different. Dennis has sincerely done his best to represent student body opinion, he has politely declined at PCB from commenting on opinions he believes to be those of intelligent, not "immature" students, but is certainly unafraid to speak for himself if this is demanded.

Is this so terrible? Whether his criticisms are valid or invalid is certainly not the point of this letter, however, instead of commending the El Gaucho for its "general high quality," Mr. Naiman should be commended for the high quality of his conduct.

Sincerely,
Kitty Joyce

Past, present, future—Gen Tel has an exciting story to relate! The past? In just 24 years, Gen Tel has grown from a new company into the nation's second largest telephone system—a corporation that ranks among America's top 35 in gross income. The present? Gen Tel operates over 3 1/2 million telephones in 30 states—and is installing 3,750 new phones each week. The future? Gen Tel is "at home" in those suburban and rural areas where America is expanding at a record clip. To meet this ever-increasing need for more and better telephone communication, Gen Tel is investing in new facilities at the rate of almost $200 million a year. It took a lot of hard work and imaginative planning to put Gen Tel where it is today. And there is no stopping now!

From here on out, as America grows and prospers, so will Gen Tel.

FROSH BASKETBALL TEAM HOSTS COALINGA TONITE; SEEK 2ND WIN

by Tom Morgan
Sports Writer

Coach Frank Rohter and his UCSB freshmen basketballers attempt to climb a notch above the .500 level tonight.

The Gaucho yearlings, fresh from a narrow three-point decision over Westmont's Frosh last week after losing to Hancock JC will play host to a highly-touted Coalinga Junior College quintet in an 8 p.m. contest tonight in the campus gymnasium. Admission is free.

Santa Barbara has unveiled a well-balanced offensive attack, a strong bench and tight defensive play to go with an effective full-court zone press, which indicates that UCSB's first season of freshman basketball may be a successful one.

The Gaucho front line will average 6'4" for tonight's tussle, which will be the third of the young season for the local cagers. Center Joel Verner, the squad's biggest man at 6'10", will be holding down the pivot chores, while flanking him at the forward positions will be two of the team's top scoring threats, Pete Sachse 6'1" and Gary Erickson 6'3".

Taking care of the ball handling and play making responsibilities for the Rohtermen will be guards Bruce Jones and Dick Clark, while Dick Palmer and Gary Johnson are also expected to see quite a bit of action.

Rohter has been pleased with the showing of his squad to date, with the exception of rebounding where he indicates that his team has "not been performing up to expectations."

The Frosh five is scheduled to play Santa Barbara Junior College next Wednesday evening in its final game prior to a two-week layoff for Christmas vacation.

Five Pigskin Players Receive Awards At Booster Club Dinner

Five football players were honored for their fine efforts during the football season Monday night in a dinner held at the Valley House Restaurant by the Santa Barbara Boosters Club.

Recipient of the Most Outstanding Player trophy was Halfback Duke Ellington, a junior who placed second in the conference in pass receiving with 24 receptions for 372 yards and four TD's. On the ground Ellington carried the ball 72 times for a 4.5 average.

The most valuable Back award went to quarterback Jim St. Clair, another junior, who took top passing honors in the conference. St. Clair completed 67 of 136 passes for 925 yards and five tallies during the pigskin season.

Most Inspirational Player award was garnered by senior Ned Permenter, a fullback, who missed the latter part of the season because of a knee injury. His scoring of 36 points earned him third-place, a tie in loop scoring even while missing three games.

Center Leon Schumaker received the Most Valuable Linemen award and freshman Charlie Coven was honored as the Most Promising Player award.

Selections for the awards were arrived at by a vote of the football players with the awards presented by the Boosters Club.

Football Coach Ed Cody announced at the dinner that next year's pigskin squad will be led by co-captains St. Clair and guard Walt Townsend who were elected in a balloting by the team members.
