TOMORROW 'DEATH TAKES A HOLIDAY'

Trip to Islands Planned

Excursion Sponsored By Outing Club Annually

'Tiny' Leads Party

Boat Leaves Friday, May 10, From Wharf

"Skipper" McCullough, who made the expression "Tiny Rings the Bell" famous, will board a boat with his band of sportsmen and sightseers on Friday, May 10 to enjoy a three day vacation on the romantic isle of Santa Cruz.

"The biggest and best trip in years" promised the leader when asked how the trip was going to be. For the first time a boat will be available to take the members of the party on excursion cruises about the island, whose subterranean gardens and mysterious caves have no rival for beauty and enchantment, and are untouched by modern commercialization.

Painted Cave

The famous painted cave is included on the list of points of interest which are to be visited. This cave is the largest on the island, extending for over a thousand feet back into a cliff from the ocean. Entrance to this novel phenomena can only be accomplished by the use of a small boat which permits a close inspection of this interesting freak of nature.

Other attractions which may be enjoyed on this island are fishing, swimming and hiking. The waters around the island abound with game fish and offer a world of sport for all fishermen.

Through careful organization and planning the costs of this outing have been cut down so that everyone may enjoy the cruise for only four dollars. This includes both transportation and meals. Those who make the trip are requested to furnish their own eating utensils and bedding.

A.W.S. Elects New Officers

Eleven women are seeking positions in the A.W.S. in the annual election being conducted today by Lucille Bolton, president of the organization. Voting is taking place in the corridor outside Dean Lois Bennink's office.

Candidates are Lois Jo McPheeters, president; Ruth Carter and Ellen Roe, first vice-president; Betty Roulston and Rea McPeak, second vice-president; Dorothea Prescott and Dorothy Clark, secretary; Genevieve Jones and Catherine Caldwell, treasurer; and Isabel Ferguson and Wilma Kiesner, counselor.

"Students may write in names in the blank spaces on the ballot," said Dean Lois Bennink.

New Yorkers Sponsor Novel Essay Contest

From among the eminent writers of the day, judges have been chosen for the essay contest being conducted by the Pan-Hellenic House association and the Courier Service of New York.

Judges will be Alice Duer Miller, novelist; Helen Worden, feature writer; Ed Sullivan, feature writer; Lyman Beecher Stowe, literature; and Hans B. Kaltenborn, writer and journalist.

The contest is open to both boys and girls, and to both fraternity and non-fraternity members.

The essay must be a commentary on an imagined itinerary of New York city, selected from suggestions furnished in a pamphlet. The subject of the essay is "What I Would Like to See When I Visit New York," and should be approximately 500-1000 words in length. Informative pamphlets may be secured upon request to the Essay Contest committee, Beekman Tower, 3 Mitchell place, New York city.

First prize is $50 and a week's stay at Beekman Tower; the second prize, $35 and a week's stay.

Program for Annual Revue Has New Ideas

Featuring a 15-piece band on a movable platform, exceptionally fine scenery, and six new and novel blackouts, the student body will present the annual Roadrunner Revue at the Fox Arlington theater on the evening of May 10.

The production will star the "Anacapa Ballet" with its prima donna, Miss Johanna Twaddle, assisted by the talented Anacapa ballerina. Musical talent will be displayed in the revue, according to Moore and Gumpertz, co-directors.

Carnival

Lending a festive air to the occasion will be the carnival, which will be held in the theater lobby preceding the show. Sororities and fraternities will be in charge of the various booths. Before the opening of the revue, there will be a parade to the theater.

Ticket Sales

Many prizes for selling tickets will be given, according to Herman Gumpertz. Besides having prizes for student ticket-selling, there will be a special faculty prize for the teacher selling the most tickets. Fraternities and sororities will also take part in the ticket-selling campaign.

Favorable Comment

"We have had favorable comment from Santa Barbara business people for our move in taking our show down town and in this manner cooperating with the townspeople," states "Gump" Gumpertz. "Therefore let's make it the biggest and best show possible with everybody supporting the revue."

A prize will also be given for the best poster containing the details of the show. This contest ends Friday afternoon and students interested are urged to enter their posters in the contest.

Miss Koehly Changes Date of May Fete

"Little Pagan Beggars," a fairy tale of old California, will be dramatized for the annual May program to be given on May 15. The program will be given in the quad under the sponsorship of the physical education department.

Pantomimes and dances representing pirates, sailors and fairies will be given by members of the physical education department. The fairy queen will be played by the May Queen. The May Queen, a representative of the P. E. classes, has already been selected by votes of the associated women students but will not be known until the affair is given.

Members of the women's glee club will sing for the program. Lorraine Koehly is general chairman of the May program and is being assisted by several committees. Miss Gladys Van Fossen and Mrs. Winifred Hodgins are supervising all the dances.

Committees who are arranging the program consist of music, Geraldine Slayton, chairman, Margaret Beddome and Edna Brown; properties, Helen Rogers, chairman, Nancy Clapp, Elinore Whitson, Clara Ross, Doris Martin and Wylis Anderson; costumes, Dorothy Taylor, chairman, Olive DeMott, Harriet Cooper, Helen Harper and Evelyn Maitland; publicity, Bertha Richards, chairman and LaRue Steelsmith; programs, Lucille Gaudin, chairman, Kay Boynton and Birdena Walters; ushers, Blanche Stewart and Violet Barnett.

Mr. Rust Presents Sound Effect Movie

A sound-effect movie was presented Monday morning by Mr. William Rust for the benefit of the freehand drawing class, taught by Mrs. Florence Lyons.

The subject of the films was the technique of blackboard drawing as an aid for illustrating lectures and talks.

"Since 85% of learning comes through the eyes," said Mrs. Lyons, "it is very important that all teachers should be instructed in the art of illustrating the subject of which they are speaking."

It is for this reason that these classes are given experience in the use of illustrations.

TROJAN BAND PLAYS AT GRANADA THEATRE

Seventy-five musicians, composing the Trojan band, will give two concerts Saturday evening at the Granada theatre, under the direction of Harold William Roberts. The program includes classical, modern and comedy numbers.

Journalists Go South to Attend Press Meeting

Four members of El Gaucho staff, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Burke Bennett, will attend a meeting of the Southern California Press association to be held at the University of Redlands on April 26, where the problems concerning college publications will be discussed.

A program of varied journalistic interests has been arranged by the southern university. After registration fees are paid, there will be a general assembly. Immediately following there will be three round table discussions, open to anyone who wishes to take part.

Illustrated Lecture

John Allan Smith, instructor of printing and journalism at Lafayette Junior high school in Los Angeles, will give an illustrated lecture on typography, after which a business meeting will be held to elect the officers for next year. A dinner at Grossmont hall, with Arthur J. Brown, editor of the San Bernardino Telegram and widely known journalist, as the speaker, will conclude the conference.

The topics for discussion at the round tables will be: "How much space should be devoted to advanced stories, follow-up stories, sports, editorials, features, faculty and administrative offices?" "Should student activities be given preference over equally important faculty affairs?" "Should there be a distinct division between advance and follow-up stories; that is, should the first page of a newspaper be devoted to advanced material, and the second to events which have already happened?"

Miriam Firkins, editor of El Gaucho, Mary Frances McKinney, Jeanne Wood and Barney Jameson are the students who are to represent this college at the meeting.

Former Stater Calls on Mrs. Laura Price

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Misemer visited Mrs. Laura S. Price, elementary education head this week.

Mr. Misemer is a graduate of the Industrial Education department and is returning to State to complete his elementary work. At present he is teaching in the Standard school at Oildale.

College Doctors Evolve Formula for Modern Girls

ALBANY, N. Y.—College boys who think the charming coeds they take out are sweet are about to have a rude awakening from a false illusion. For doctors at Albany Medical College of Union university have evolved the following chemical formula for the young ladies of today.

One girl is made of enough glycerine to furnish the bursting charge for one naval shell, she has enough lime to white-wash a chicken coop and she has sufficient gluten to make five pounds of glue. In addition she has enough sulphur to rid an ordinary dog of fleas and enough chlorine to sanitize three good size swimming pools.

In addition, she carries around every day 30 teaspoons of salt, 31 pounds of carbon and 10 gallons of water. Who said "sweet young thing"?

Trojan Band Gives Concert at Local Show

Harold Roberts and his famous Trojan band of 75 musicians will make both afternoon and evening appearances at the Granada theatre, Saturday, April 27. The band is on its annual tour throughout the major part of California.

Their program is arranged to give a realistic picture of college life, featuring various groups, each thoroughly representative of the type of music for which it was selected. Classics, school songs, "old time" songs and light operas familiar to music lovers are presented along with comic skits, vocal and instrumental group arrangements. The entire program is said to be united in much the same fashion as the high class radio programs.

Harold William Roberts, versatile band leader, has personally supervised the presentation of the band for its current tour.

Construction on Classroom Nears Finish

Construction on the new $7,000 building on this campus will be completed within a short time. Plans to erect a structure on Phelps field for showers, dressing rooms and storage are also being made.

The work has been carried on as a SERA project, giving employment to four carpenters and 12 other workmen. The same crew will work on the building to be erected on Phelps field. The cost of this new project will be approximately $1,000.

According to President Clarence L. Phelps all this work is of temporary character, to meet pressing needs until the large college plan is completed on the Dibblee-Leadbetter site on the eastern end of the Mesa.

Juniors Elect G. Basham

At a recent meeting of the junior class, Garlyn Basham was elected president to carry on the class activities for the remainder of the school year. Al Scott, who has been president, left school, making a special election necessary.

The juniors are rapidly completing plans for a semi-formal prom for next month and from all reports it is going to be a radical departure from the usual college dance. It is being looked to with a great deal of interest and anticipation, especially by the seniors, in whose honor it is to be given.

El Gaucho Gets Dividend From Supplement

El Gaucho received a cheque for $183.00 from the Collegiate Digest as one half of the share of the surplus income from this weekly publication. The other half will be received in July.

The college paper was one of the first to subscribe to this organization and is a charter member.

Dixon MacQuiddy signed the contract in the spring of 1933. The Digest was distributed on this campus for the first time last year, under the editorship of Ralph Porter. The dividend for last year was approximately $45.00, received in October of this school year.

The growth of Collegiate Digest membership has almost doubled since last year. There are now 233 college newspapers subscribing as against 142 the last year. The weekly circulation has increased from 165,700 copies to 247,875 copies.

There has also been an increase in advertising lineage from 31,500 lines to 48,006 lines. This is accounted for by the addition of the Prince Albert and Parker pen copy.

The Collegiate Digest is a non-profit organization operating for the benefit of the college newspaper field.

"The dividend check was not expected," said the editor, "as no report from the organization office of the Digest has been received since last year's check was received. As the amount will vary from year to year, according to the volume of business transacted, the income from this source cannot be budgeted."

Mrs. Price Visits Santa Maria Students

Mrs. Laura Sprecht Price, head of the elementary department, will leave for Santa Maria this Friday to visit student teachers in the city school system up there.

Mrs. Price will interview the students on the work they have been doing and also on the type of program they have planned for the remainder of the semester. At present there are four Santa Barbara student teachers in the Santa Maria elementary schools. Eileen Esselman, Margaret Kindred, Velma Silva and Alice Waring are the students.

Play Features Novel Idea of Suspension of Death's Function

Cast Rehearses for Production of Phantasy; 'Goldy' Goldsmith, Peggy Pope Have Leading Roles

"An exotic tale—travels an unfamiliar land and touches the imagination royally," New York Times referred in this way to "Death Takes a Holiday," the Players club play to be presented Thursday evening, April 27, at 8 o'clock, in the State college auditorium.

The play deals with the world beyond to the extent that "Death" appears as Prince Sirki, Grand Duke of Russia, and spends a three day vacation with a wealthy duke and his family. Death tests people for their sincerity, and finds that only in the lovely Grazia, daughter of the duke, is there the real sincerity that he cares to take back with him to his kingdom. The struggle that goes on within his soul is pictured as the clock peals the final notes of twelve, when he must take his form as the shadow of death.

Miss Peggy Pope will play the leading feminine role of Grazia, the lovely daughter of the wealthy duke. Grazia is a lovely girl of eighteen who is attractive to Prince Sirki because of her remote ways and her sincere attitude toward all that goes on about her.

Goldsmith as Death The part of Death will be played by Lyman Goldsmith, who appears in his second form as Prince Sirki, Grand Duke of Russia. Mr. Goldsmith had the lead in last semester's play, "The Royal Family."

Alfredo Chavez, who also had a lead in "The Royal Family," will play the part of the duke, a man of about 45, and owner of the large and beautiful home in which the action of the play takes place. Winifred Jones takes the part of Alda, a restless, young woman of 28. The dutchess, a rather mysterious-looking woman of 40, will be played by Carolyn Hoefler.

Verlayne Ryder portrays the part of the princess of San Lucca, a sweet, woman, maternal and solicitous.

Don Follett The part of Baron Cesaria, a gruff gentleman of seventy years, will be played by Don Follette.

Rhoda Fenton, a striking girl of twentyfour will be played by Constance Briscoe, Connie has played leads in several Lobero plays, and

Students Ask for Remedies

Changes in the present student body constitution, suggested in an effort to create greater student interest in student body activities, were proposed by Don Follett in the regular monthly student body meeting yesterday morning in the auditorium.

Follett advocated the setting aside of a fund of approximately $300.00 for speakers of note; changes in the athletic board of control so that it would be made up of two regular faculty members, one ex-officio faculty member from the athletic department, one elected faculty member and three elected student members, all with equal vote; reorganization of the executive council to give direct student representation; publication of all minutes of the council in El Gaucho; posting of advance notice of council meetings so that any student body member interested may attend and have the privilege of discussion at the discretion of the chairman; the appointment of a welfare board to look after matters of policy; and the formation of a student body awards committee.

After discussion the motion was made, seconded and carried that President Allan Lambourne appoint a committee to investigate the possibility of making these changes as suggested.

Garlyn Basham, assisted by a Stater swathed in flour sacks and carrying a scythe, gave a pep talk for "Death Takes a Holiday." Herman Gumpertz urged greater student participation in the Roadrunner Revue.

In conjunction with their study of the far east, members of Dr. Fredrick Ganzert's international relations class are planning a regular Chinese dinner served in true oriental style, to be held sometime in the near future.

A committee consisting of Marie Van Boven, Robert Moore and Jack Murray was selected to choose a suitable restaurant or home for the dinner. A charge of fifty cents will be paid by members and their guests to cover the cost of the dinner.

Any student wishing to attend the dinner should get in touch with any of the committee members or Dr. Ganzert.

Birth of a New Spirit

For a long time there has been intermittent agitation on the part of a few students to stir up some school spirit on this campus, which is practically dormant, as nearly all of us will admit. There is a peculiar attitude in the air around here, not only a "let George do it" but a "why should George be bothered" attitude. Various remedies have been suggested, from blowing off another bomb in the library to firing the faculty.

But it was left to one of our energetic sophomores, Don Follett, to really get in and do something about it. For several months he has been working on the problem, asking questions, talk to students, checking details of procedure. He has thought enough about the subject and done enough work on the problem to be able to present some concrete ideas for the consideration of the student body members.

His plan is to increase student participation in governmental activities and to broaden the scope of school activities so that all students may have a larger benefit from their student body dues.

Specifically his plan includes these points: There should be set aside in the student body budget a fund of approximately $300.00 to be used in obtaining noted speakers for the student body meetings. In this way those students not vitally interested in athletics or social activities may also have their money's worth from the payment of student body dues. There has been a noticeable dearth of good speakers in our assemblies, and the resulting lack of student attendance is a discouraging thing to those arranging the programs.

A change in the athletic board of control was also suggested, in order that representation should be more equally distributed between faculty and students. It was suggested that the board be composed of two regular faculty members, one elected faculty member, one ex-officio faculty member from the athletic department and three elected student members, all to have an equal vote.

In order that all students may know the action taken by the council, the minutes of all council and student body meetings should be published in El Gaucho. Notice of council meetings should be posted in advance, so that those interested may attend and have the privilege of discussion at the discretion of the chairman.

A welfare board should be appointed by the council to look after all matters of policy.

A student body awards committee should be appointed to take charge of issuing all student body awards, for athletics or for service.

After Follett had presented his suggestions, a short discussion was held and the motion was passed authorizing the student president to appoint a committee to investigate the feasibility of these suggestions and to get as many more as they could.

In the coming weeks, members of this committee will be stopping the students in the halls, asking them questions, trying to get their reactions, asking for suggestions. They are trying to stir up criticism and comment, suggestions and recommendations. The columns of El Gaucho will welcome expression of student opinion.

If the students as a whole, most of whom realize that some desperate remedy is necessary if a collegiate spirit is to be kept alive, will enter into the controversy, surely some constructive steps may be taken.

Students who have been clamoring for a part in school affairs, who have grievances stored up about the way things are being done, who have new ideas that should be aired, who have been hankering for a chance to express yourselves, now's your chance!

Student Election

In a short time petitions of candidates for student body offices will be out and students on the campus will be asked to put their signatures on the dotted line as being in favor of some particular candidate.

As in every political campaign, ambitious managers and so-called pals of the person running for office will orate on the why and wherefore of electing their man to office. Each supporter will try to convince his prospects that his candidate is the best man in the race and he will give numerous reasons why his listener should vote in his favor.

Maybe his points are well taken and again they may be only glittering generalities thought up for the candidates benefit.

It is up to student body members on the campus to investigate the record and character of the persons seeking to govern their activities. Are they capable? Will they keep their promises? Will they see that justice is meted out fairly or will they let personal prejudices enter into their dealings? Are they go-getters? Are they ruled by any organization? Will they work diligently for the advancement of the college?

Students, ask yourself some of the above questions and if they can be answered to your satisfaction, then put your signature on the dotted line and when it comes times to vote, cast your vote for the man who measures up to your standards.

—R.M.

Appreciation

One of the features that always characterizes a production of the College Players is the stage setting. No matter how difficult the set, nor what type of furnishings are needed, when the curtain rises there is always a satisfactory feeling about the background of the play.

And it is always Peterson's Studio that makes this effect possible.

In "Death Takes a Holiday" the set called for was one typifying an old Italian mansion. Peterson's were kind enough to provide a genuine Fortuni panel, a pair of wrought iron torchiers, four high backed medieval Italian chairs, and beautiful drapes. In this production also the Laura Figg shop furnished the costumes. KDB cooperated with several radio announcements.

The thanks of the audience, as well as that of the production managers, is sincerely extended to these magnanimous townspeople.

Good News

A bombshell exploded in El Gaucho office Monday. When the shouting was over, it was discovered by onlookers the El Gaucho was richer by $183.00.

And this is only half the story. On July 20, 1935, there will be forthcoming another check for $183.00 to be deposited to the credit of El Gaucho.

This startling procedure, (which startled no one as much as it did the editor, the adviser and the student controller) is the result of a bit of sagacious business transacted by Dixon MacQuiddy in the last months of his editorship in 1933.

MacQuiddy signed a contract, by which S.B.S.C. became a yearly subscriber to the Collegiate Digest for the modest sum of $3.60 per year. By getting in on the ground floor, so to speak, the school paper, then the Roadrunner, became a charter member of a non-profit organization, whose business it is to publish a rotogravure section to be financed by advertising. The surplus income above that which is necessary for running expenses of the concern is annually paid back to charter members and other member papers in the form of a dividend.

Artist Talks on Silhouettes

Gene Ross, internationally known silhouette artist, entertained members of the art and English departments, interested members of the faculty and townspeople at a literary tea, sponsored by the English department Thursday afternoon, April 11.

Beginning with a history of silhouette making, Miss Ross said that the art derived its name from its originator, H. M. de Silhouette, a premier of France during the 18th century. He was not an artist, but simply created the new type of portraiture. August Edwols was considered the greatest exponent of the art, and his collection was sold for an enormous sum.

"I have evolved a theory," continued Miss Ross, "about the origin of silhouettes, which no one has yet been able to blast. I believe that the crude drawings found in the abodes of the cavemen were in reality shadows of the inhabitants traced with a knife into the walls, thus making them the true forerunners of the modern silhouette."

Silhouettes which she exhibited included likenesses of Presidents Taft, "Teddy" Roosevelt, Coolidge and Franklin Roosevelt; movie celebrities, Will Rogers, Micky Pickett, Will Hayes, Gloria Swanson and the villain of "The Drunkard"; and Einstein and Lindbergh. Following her talk, she cut silhouettes of Miss Eda Ramelli and Dean William Ashworth.

"Silhouettes have a lasting beauty that doesn't get out of date as do some other types of art," Miss Ross said in conclusion. "Those made 200 years ago are not termed old fashioned, as are some other old masterpieces. The most successful silhouette is one that does not look exactly like the subject but rather means him and symbolizes him. Some of my work portraying famous people is not at all like they are usually pictured, and yet the silhouettes are placed immediately, so much do they belong to the subject."

Mrs. Barnett Attends Meet

Mrs. Helen M. Barnett, head of the music department, spent the first four days of Easter vacation in Pasadena attending a convention of the California Western School Music Federation.

Among the speakers at the convention were James Mursell, author of many music reference and text books; Herman Smith, president of the National School Music Federation; John Maddy, also an author; and Dr. Raymond Mosher, music instructor at San Jose State, who at one time was an instructor at this college.

During the convention, outstanding bands and choral groups performed. Among them were representatives from University of Arizona, Modesto Union high school, Lodi high school, the San Diego all-city orchestra and the Pasadena boys' choir.

Mrs. Barnett was on the committee for arranging part of the program for the conference. On this same committee was Dr. Anderson, director of music and harmony at the University of Arizona, who spoke at the convention.

Maybe and maybe not! Maybe our baseball nine will come through and maybe they won't, it's all up to them and their ability to play ball and to pull together. Any way they'll get their chance one way or the other this Friday down at Oxy. Last time we build them up, told them how good they were and then "Sping Block," they fumbled away a chance to win the conference championship. This time Los Gauchos have a chance to tie for the first place when they meet the Bengals on their home field. It's a toss-up. As a team, physically and ability to play ball, State has a better than even chance, but it takes more than that, there's got to be the "Olde Pepper."

"Murt" Miller, State's stellar hurler, added to his string of victories this season two more wins in as many days just before vacation. Against Redlands "Murt" chucked nine innings of ball allowing only five hits; and on the next day he entered the Whittier game with the score 5-2 against him in the sixth inning. Miller in those last three sessions with the super backing of Lebeck, Kahn, Morris, and "Swede" Keith pulled the game out of the fire and tucked it away for a conference victory.

Down at the Southern California All-conference meet just before vacation, the hilltop spiksters made the best showing that any State team has ever made in the annual event. Los Gauchos scored more than two and a half times as many points this year as any previous year. Nearly every athlete wearing the green and white outperformed himself. Nightengale surprised southern officials by taking third in both of the sprints; Ewing with a tremendous heave took a third in the javelin; Bowlius was the star of the team by winning the 440 yard run;

Gauchos Battle For Conference Title

Stars in Assault on World Marks; State to Compete

Staters Try to Win Lead from Tigers

"Just One More Chance." For the title of Southern California Conference champions is what Coach "Spud" Harder's fighting Gauchos baseball team will have when they tangle with the strong Occidental Tigers on their home diamond this coming Friday.

This game will mark the final appearance of Santa Barbara in conference competition this year and it will also be last time the Staters will get a crack at the league title this year. For this reason both teams will be out to put up their best showing and an airtight game for both teams is expected.

At the present time the Occidental boys are leading the conference with .833 point, having won five games and lost one, which was taken by Whittier. The Poets now hold fourth place in the league with .250 points.

Santa Barbara is in second place with .667 points and the green and white men have won four games and lost two, one to Oxy and one to Redlands. The Bulldogs are third place with .333 points. If State wins they will be tied with Oxy and will play them for the championship but if they lose, Oxy will keep the title.

According to "Spud" the Gauchos have a good chance to go in and take the title if they keep their eye on the pill and play heads up ball, but Oxy has a plenty tough team and the odds so far are slightly in their favor.

The Gauchos will devote most of this week to batting practice although a little time will be spent on fielding. As the diamond at

FRESHMEN ANNEX SECOND SPOT IN ALL-CONFERENCE

Lead by Gene Campbell and Howard Yeager the Gauchos Babes grabbed second place in the All-Conference Freshman meet held at Occidental college two weeks ago. San Diego swept the frosh meet with a total of 7 1/2 points, Santa Barbara gained 4 1/2 points for second and was followed by Whittier with 1 1/2, Occidental with 1 1/2, La Verne with 6 1/2 and Redlands with 3 points.

Breaking the existing Freshman meet record by nearly 10 feet, Gene Campbell's throw of 134 feet 3/4 inches of the discus stood out, while Yeager was the outstanding man of the meet. Yeager won the high jump, 100 yard dash and the 220 to win the high point honors for freshmen with 15 points to his credit.

The frosh squad reached its peak in this meet and most of the times and distances made by the Staters were their best marks of the year.

Bulldogs, Poets Squads Beaten by Gauchos Nine

The Gauchos have at last broken the jinx! They were paid a long visit by Old Lady Luck in the pair of baseball games played Friday and Saturday, April 12 and 13, against Redlands and Whittier respectively.

The local lads came from behind in both games, with late rallies to take the final decisions.

Redlands University Bulldogs were limited to five scattered hits and three runs by Pitcher Mert Miller. The Gauchos went scoreless until the fifth inning, where they put across a four run rally. Lebeck singled to open the inning. Don Fisher also hit safely, and then Catcher Rezzonico parked the ball high and wide for a two base blow, to drive in two runs. Joe Robinson drove in the other two with a nice hit to right field. After this inning, Miller bore down and blanked Redlands for the remainder of the game.

Rowland, Bulldog catcher, nicked Miller for two solid hits to lead the day's batting. Jimmy Lebeck was first for the Gauchos with one hit and two walks in four trips to the plate.

Saturday's game with Whittier started at one o'clock. Before the day was much older the Southerners, who were licked 11-2 by the Gauchos in their first meeting, were ahead 5 to 2. Bortolazzo was chucking with Rezzonico on the receiving end. Miller went into the game again as pitcher. Here Dame Fortune took a hand, and in the seventh inning the Gauchos bunched most of their total of seven hits and four runs to go out in front 6-5.

They scored one more in the eighth inning to make it 7-5. Murt then proceeded to blank the Whittier team for the rest of the game and get credit for his second conference win in two days.

STATE TRACKMEN TIE FOR FOURTH IN LEAGUE MEET

Scoring more points than ever before, Coach Nick Carter's varsity cinderpath warriors returned from Eagle Rock two weeks ago with one conference championship and twelve medals safely tucked away in their belts. The Gauchos tied for fourth with Whittier by scoring 22 points, while San Diego swept into first place with a grand total of 57 2-3 points. Occidental was second with 35 1-3 points while La Verne occupied the cellar position with 2 1-3 points.

The outstanding run of Larry Bowlius in the 440 yard dash and the performances of many of the Gauchos who exceeded their best marks of the year featured the meet for Santa Barbara.

Bowlius nosed out Lange of Redlands, Tuttle of Occidental and Crawford of San Diego to win the one lap race, while Joe Nightingale, Roland McDonald, Bill Crow, Allan Garber and Bud Ewing came through to place in their respective events.

The varsity relay race was muddled up by the use of the N.C.A.A. ruling by which the teams alternated lanes. The Gauchos relay team composed of Bowen, Bowlius, Nightingale and Crow lost to Redlands by inches after many collisions and much general disorder.

The summary:
100—Issett (O), Case (R), Nightingale (SB), Hutchison (W), Time, 9.9s.

220—Case (R), Issett (O), Nightingale (SB), Tebbis (W), Time, 22.2s.

Campus Coffee Cup Capers

The other night at rehearsal of "Death Takes a Holiday," "Goldy" Goldsmith was negotiating a difficult love scene when Peggy Pope reminded him that she KNEW he could do better than that!

What is this power Jane White holds over Sid DeRosa which makes him drive to Bakersfield after three days of vacation.

What was this noble experiment of Bill Ogle's? It seems, anyhow, that it was a failure. Warren Rose, we understand, is a poet at heart. The recipient of these gentle spring pleasantries is a blonde, blue of eye, whose name is Alice. Cute, eh? Doris "Super-loud" Coker, it seems, has forsaken our local boys and remains true to her San Diego heart-throb. Don't feel let down fellows, he drove her to it.

Don Follett modestly admits that he is taking a course from Gracie Fritch. We are willing to bet that the "Stooge" gets a cinch notice in his final.

Yearling Nine Meets Soldier Team in South

Coach Bud Cummings' Gauchos will again engage the Black Foxe military academy in a baseball game this Friday on the soldier's home grounds.

In their last encounter the baby Staters tied 10 to 10 in 10 innings and this time they are going out with the intention of taking off the Foxe's tail even if they have to pull a few fast ones to do it.

During the past few weeks the Frosh have been brushing up both on fielding and on batting, two factors which have lost more than one game for them, and if they show up as well in the game as they have in practice, the Black Foxe nine will have to step some to keep up with them.

Shires Earhart will in all probability assume the hurling duties with "Wild Man" Pollack behind the plate. In the infield Nibers is slated to hold first base, with "Fuzzy" Fosdick and "Juicy" Langlo on second and third respectively. Murray will play short and Lindquist, Smith and Luce will take care of the outfield.

TENNIS CHAMP TO BE DECIDED

With interest rising and competition proving keen, intra-mural activities are advancing toward the end of a successful year. The tennis tournament, which holds the limelight at present, has been narrowed down to three contestants, and a champion is to be decided this week. "Buppy" Moore, the Tau Omega Terror, has already battled his way into the finals, and will meet the winner of the match between Julio Bortolazzo, Sigma Alpha Kappa's defending champion, and Hi Manly, a phenomenal frosh, in the finals.

Coach Carter will enter a squad of Gauchos in the competition. Larry Bowlius will run in the 440, while Roland McDonald is entered in the two mile. Captain "Tiny" McCollough will toss the shot, Bill Crow will run the high hurdles, Bud Ewing and Elwood Gorman are to throw the javelin, and Allan Garber is slated to compete in the high jump. Bowlius, Crow, Johnny Bowen, and possibly McDonald will form the Gauchos relay team.

Some of the greatest track and field performers in the nation will gather at Peabody stadium this Saturday, April 27, as the fifth annual Santa Barbara Open meet, sponsored under the auspices of Santa Barbara State, and headed by Nick Carter, Gauchos coach, is run off.

One of the most famous names on the entry list is that of Cornelius Johnson, colored high-jumping ace, who was a member of Uncle Sam's last Olympic team, and who this year has leaped to the astounding height of 6 feet 8 5/8 inches. Johnson will put on an exhibition of the art of bar-clearing that has never before been witnessed in these parts. Another star high-jumper, who may give Johnson a run for his money will be Delos Thurber, State high school champion in his event last year, and present member of the U.S.C. frosh squad. Thurber has cleared in the neighborhood of 6 feet 6 inches on many an occasion. There is a possibility that Bill Graber, world record holder in the pole-vault, and Bob Jones, former national collegiate champion in the discus, will compete also, according to Coach Carter.

Most Southern Conference schools will enter full teams in the affair, while the University of Southern California and the University of California at Los Angeles will both enter strong varsity and freshmen outfits. These squads will furnish such stars as Al Fitch, U.S.C. sprinter, "T" Milner, Trojan frosh, who has heaved the javelin 215 feet, Bill Reitz, U.C.L.A. spear tosser, Don Skinner, another U.S.C. yearling, who took the State broad jumping title for Manuel Arts high school last year, and many others. Professor Says Love's the Thing

Right after we send out a column repeating the insistence of Prof. Estey, of Purdue university (Lafayette, Ind.), that good hard cash is the most important element in the modern marriage, along come three professors at the University of Wisconsin (Madison) who maintain it's love that counts. And the four rules they lay down for happy marriage are these:

1. The couple should have positive ideas about the future of their wedlock. The "drift into bliss" idea is nonsense.
2. They should assume their marriage is going to last, and forget about statistics on divorce percentages.
3. The man should dispense with all feelings of sex superiority. That's poison to happy wedlock.
4. Marriage is a moral issue, a matter of the adjustment of personalities.

Gamma Deltas Dance At Strollers Club

Gamma Delta Chis will dance informally at the Strollers club on Friday evening from 9 to 12 o'clock. Stella Smead, Edna Forbes and Edna Brown are in charge of arrangements.

"Bup" earned the honor through his consistent playing in the intramural tennis elimination contest which has been in progress of the month. He has played his way into the finals which will take place when Julio Bortolozzo and he meet some time during the coming week.

For thrills and unusual happenings, all eyes should be centered on the battling Frosh. Tau Omegas Start Hell Week

"Hell Week," which began last Monday night and continues until Saturday night will be observed by pledges to Tau Omega fraternity.

Pledges began their first duties Monday by spending the evening looking for the famous "T.O." eggs which have been distributed at different points around the city. These eggs can be found only by following clues and each pledge was required to bring back the egg with his name on it. The eggs are to be carried by the pledges during the entire week and must be shown to any member wishing to see them.

The annual Tau Omega picnic which is held every year during "Hell Week" is to be staged at Paradise camp this coming Sunday. Pledges, members and their guests will spend the day playing baseball, cards and swimming. Refreshments will be furnished by the fraternity.

Eagle Rock is completely turfed over and as there are no grass fields available here there is not much use in practicing on a dirt field.

A few changes have been made in the Gauchos line-up. Morris will occupy first sack and Bortolozzo will come in from the outfield to act as relief pitcher.

Don Fisher or Murt Miller will in all probability handle the chucking with Rezy Rezonica on the receiving end. James Lebeck will hold down second and Robinson third. Kahn will occupy his usual position at short and in the outfield will be Keith, Fisher and Christensen.

place medals, 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash and the high jump. Then for the unusual thing in a preliminary race Bill Gray, the Frosh hurdler, fell down after his last hurdle and crawled the remainder of the distance to the finish line on his hands and knees to take a first as the runner ahead of him was disqualified.

Beta Sigs Gather at Biltmore for Easter Service

Beta Sigma Chi members from all of Southern California gathered at the Hotel Biltmore for the fraternity's annual Easter morning breakfast. Over 85 members, alumni, pledges and guests enjoyed the Easter breakfast and Easter egg hunt.

Following the breakfast the group attended various churches and later in the day again gathered at the homes of Bill Hoyt, president of the organization, and Robert Stuart, alumni, for afternoon refreshments and entertainment before attending the theater in the evening.

The egg hunt on the Biltmore lawn and the breakfast was the sixth of its kind to be held by the fraternity.

College Chaplain Helps Fix Tire

The pious chaplain of a small, reverent college stopped his car beside a sweating, anxious gentleman who was trying to get a recently repaired tire back on the rim. The chaplain sat in the shade, on his running board and offered kindly, profuse advice. Nothing worked. Finally he suggested the sufferer pray a minute. Willing to try anything, the man did so. On his next attempt to put the tire on the rim, it went on easily. The chaplain scratched his head. "Well, I'll be d—d!" he said.

Sig Alphas Postpone Hell Week

"Hell Week," the big event for the pledges, has been postponed for one week by members of Sigma Alpha Kappa fraternity in order to allow a picnic to be held this coming Sunday.

While definite plans as yet have not been made, "Bun" O'Reilly says that this will be a major event in the social life of the fraternity.

It is a tradition of the fraternity to have "hell week," close to the formal dance of the year, at which time pledges and members unite in one big celebration.

"Sure, enjoy yourself," said Jim. "It's a ding good cigarette."

I was working way late at the office one night and ran out of cigarettes. When Jim the watchman came through I tackled him for a smoke.

"Sure," says Jim, and he handed over a pack of Chesterfields. "Go ahead, Mr. Kent, take three or four."

Jim said he'd smoked a lot of cigarettes in his time, but he'd put Chesterfield up in front of any of 'em when it came to taste.

... "and they ain't a bit strong either," is the way Jim put it.

That was the first Chesterfield I ever smoked. And I'm right there with him, too, when he says it's a ding good cigarette.
