'Hit and Run' Taps Outstanding Talent, Delights Audiences

"Hit and Run," volume seven of a series of revues, which is in rehearsal for production March 20, 21 and 22, taps the outstanding entertainment talent on the campus as well as importing a group of performers. A series of skits, dances, songs and specialty numbers, "Hit and Run" in its six previous performances has delighted local audiences with its satirical attacks on local characters and foibles. The current "Hit and Run" is designed this year especially for a campus audience.

Cast of Thirty

Appearing in the skits are Yvonne Bonsall, Diana Lillie, Dale Pennington, Mike Seely, Bill Bryson, Steve Roland, Buzz Knight and Bob Rogers with a supporting cast of thirty. Galen Denning will add his original touch to the proceedings and Sylvia House will make her debut as a song stylist. Bob Raleigh heads up a combo which will back up the singers and take off on their own. Several alumni who have appeared in previous versions of "Hit and Run" are returning to the campus for this production. Among them are Ken Kellogg, Betty Groebli, Jack Ford, Woody Sherlock and Mary Jane Mistretta.

Featured in "Hit and Run" is a group of dancers from the Pasadena Playhouse who are presenting six numbers. Bob Crumb, technical director of the college theater, has designed a dazzling array of sets and effects for the show.

In addition to these numbers there are several surprises in the revue calculated to make this the outstanding "Hit and Run" of all.

Proceeds from the production will go toward a scholarship and loan fund of Mask and Scroll.

QUEEN WANTED

Easter Relays Queen Candidates Must File for Applications Before March 19

The 20th annual Easter Relays will be held on Saturday, April 5th, at La Playa Stadium in Santa Barbara. The meet is jointly sponsored by Santa Barbara College and the Santa Barbara Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Rules for Queens

Each women's organization may sponsor one candidate for Queen of the Relays. The following rules must be observed:

1. Forms must be submitted by 4 p.m., March 19.
2. Only women's organizations will sponsor candidates.
3. Each organization is limited to one candidate.
4. Former Homecoming and Easter Relays Queens are ineligible.
5. Candidates should have available two photographs of themselves. This is not mandatory but it will be to the advantage of finalists to have pictures for publicity purposes at the election booths.

6. Entry blanks will be deposited in the Graduate Manager's Office.

ASB COUNCIL VOICES APPROVAL OF CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT PLAN

by Ray Ward

Tuesday evening's Legislative Council meeting began like a chapter out of the court files concerning a cross examination, and then settled down to some very valid and perceiving comments.

Remaining on the visitation theme, much discussed last week, the several members of council stated their views. The idea behind the proposed change, according to Stan McGinley, Constitution Committee chairman, is that the most feasible method of representation is by living groups.

McGinley felt that under the present system an individual could not represent the groups he is theoretically supposed to because of the wide diversification within the group. He cited his own position as AMS president. The AMS embraces the entire male segment of the student body. As such, every interest is involved; how then can one man represent all the interests of that group.

On the other hand, if a voting member of council represented a particular segment of the student body, such as an RHA representative, he would not only have the same interest as his constituents but would also be more readily available to them by virtue of living in that group and being "the" person to contact concerning student government affairs.

Under the present system, voting members of council visit the campus living groups to gain their opinions. The drawback is that they have no connection with the group they visit.

The first time the amendment was put to vote, it was defeated by a margin of 10-5 (a three-fourths majority was needed). Bill Tice, Senior Class president, who voted nay, moved for a reconsideration. Following a five-minute recess, Freshman Class President Bruce Patterson moved to amend the proposal to add the class presidents, AMS and AWS presidents to the voting members of council.

ASB President Jerry Combs was called upon to cast the deciding vote in the matter as the house deadlocked at 7-7. He voted negatively, defeating Patterson's motion.

Combs relinquished the chair to ASB Vice President Don Cottle, to state a point during the following discussion. At the second roll-call vote the proposal passed by a 13-2 margin.

The amendment now goes before the student body in a special election within a two-week period.

Charities Committee Embarks on Book Campaign Monday

Embarking on another drive, the ASB Charities Committee begins the "Used Book Drive" Monday. Its goal is to gather books to send to the students studying in Korea under the handicap of lacking these commodities.

Sheila Higby, publicity chairman, states that nearly every variety of book is needed, from art to language to history.

"There is not only a need from the actual physical lack of these books in Korea but also from the intellectual aspect as well. These students have the desire to learn, to absorb all they can. They lack only the necessary tools to do this," she added.

The drive is scheduled for March 17 to 31. Boxes will be located at several locations on campus, as well as in downtown stores. Mary Stewart, Rallies Committee chairman, commented that any textbooks copyrighted after 1947, as well as paperbound volumes, are desired. In addition, any of the books in the realm of the "classics" are needed.

"COAST" CAMPUS LOCALE ACHIEVES 'OLD' EFFECT

by Chuck McFadden

With flags flying, barkers barking and chorus girls kicking, UCSB's Barbary Coast gets under way tonight at 6:30.

The section of the campus on the seaward side of the Science Building becomes a street on the old Barbary Coast, thanks to weeks of feverish activity on the part of organizations participating. Booths and shows have been instructed to work in harmony with one another to achieve the "townish" atmosphere desired this year.

In order to facilitate the festivities tonight, the following list of "dos and don'ts" for participating organizations has been decreed:

1. A number corresponding to the position on the overall layout of the booth or show is to be placed on the outside of the booth to facilitate judging.

2. Deadline for cleanup is 3 p.m. Sunday. Organizations are responsible for cleaning up the debris from their booths. There is a $10 fine for those not having their areas cleaned up by the deadline. Anything left on the booth site after 5 p.m. Sunday will be cleaned up by hired help, the bill going to the organization.

No Smoking

3. There is to be no smoking inside the booths, and "No Smoking" signs must be posted outside. An inspection of the booths will be conducted by the Fire Marshal at 4 p.m. today.

4. Booths must be constructed sturdily enough to resist the ravages of the weather, i.e., wind and dew.

Vying for honors in the show division are: "Barbary Coast After Dark" (Pi Beta Phi), "Barbary Coast SAE-loon" (Sigma Alpha Epsilon) and "Barbary Coast Pirates Go to School" (Sigma Phi Epsilon). Delta Gamma has entered with an "Opera" while the Alpha Phis have entered a show with a "Cinderella" theme.

Competition in the booths will be among the following entries:

A tattoo booth, a sail to a port of fortune, mock marriages, a freak show, old-time movies, a pie-throwing booth, a seance parlor, a hidden-treasure search, a tower of strength, a sling-shot booth and a jello-throwing booth. There is a separate division for each type of entry—booths and shows. The two groups are competing only for the "Best Entry" award.

Les Brown

Announcement of the winning entries will come at the intermission of the Les Brown dance in the auditorium Saturday night. Tickets for the dance, which begins at 10 p.m. and lasts until 1 a.m., are still on sale at the Graduate Manager's office at $1 each with student body card and $1.50 for non-cardholders. Bob Lorden, graduate manager, declared that there is only a limited amount of tickets available.

In a meeting late yesterday afternoon the Barbary Coast Committee voted to hold the event outside as originally scheduled.

Judges for the booths and shows will be on the job both tonight and tomorrow night, instead of just the first night as in the past. Specialists in the entertainment business have been selected as judges, according to Barbary Coast Chairman Duke Mitchell.

Debate Teams Awarded Top Rating in Redlands Contest

Three University debate teams were awarded "excellent" ratings at the Southern California Championship debate tournament, held on the University of Redlands campus last weekend. The local debaters were in competition with some 20 colleges and universities from throughout the state, plus the University of Arizona.

Winning Record

The upper-division men's teams of David Peterson and George Hart, and Bruce Loeb and Bob Richards, compiled identical four wins and two losses. A 5-1 record was needed for a "superior" rating.

Of 23 teams in upper-division men's debate, USC, Stanford, USF and Los Angeles State were given superior awards.

In women's competition, Joyce Mackenzie and Janice Asper won one debate and lost five. However, their ratings were excellent. They competed with nine other women's teams.

The next competition for the local team will be the West Point Elimination Tournament on this campus March 21 and 22. This is the top debate tournament of the year in this area.

The best team from each school competes for the right to represent the Western Region of California, Nevada, Arizona and Utah at the National Finals at West Point, N.Y.

As yet, the Santa Barbara team has not been named.

ART DISPLAYS ANNOUNCE NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK

"Wake Up and Read." This motto heralds the advent of National Library Week. Organized in 1946 as Library Week, the event has taken an increased significance this year in being co-sponsored by the National Book Committee and the American Library Association. This year also marks the first National Library Week.

The goal, following the theme, is a "better read, better informed America." The campus library observes the affair with displays and an exhibit of fine bindings from the Student Printer's Collection. In addition, there is featured information on librarianship as a career.

An added highlight of the week is the noon showing, Monday through Friday, of the "Orientation Slides," acquainting students with the various activities in the library and how to use them, as well as information on locating materials.

Of particular interest to Santa Barbara students is the recent publication in the University Bulletin regarding national rankings of university libraries according to size. The UC library at Berkeley is currently ranked fifth in size while the UCLA library

UCSB New-Student Enrollment Shows Wide Distribution

A study recently completed by the Registrar's Office at UCSB shows the widespread distribution of the 996 new students enrolling last fall on the local campus.

Freshmen from 211 high schools through the state of California, 24 high schools outside the state and six high schools in foreign countries entered the college. Transfer students came from 63 California junior colleges, colleges and universities, 40 out-of-state colleges and universities and one student from the University of Edinburgh.

California Natives

The 918 new collegians who are Californians came from 175 different cities and towns. The 71 newcomers from out of state came from 24 states, Washington, D.C., and Hawaii. Seven new students came from five foreign countries.

The largest number of freshmen came from Santa Barbara High School, with 62. Next is University High in Los Angeles, with 15, and North Hollywood High, with 13. Several large high schools have more than 10 graduates at UCSB.

The largest number of new transfer students come from Ventura Junior College, with 35. Santa Barbara Junior College has the second largest number, with 27, and Pasadena City College follows with 25.

Seven new out-of-state students come from Oregon and five each are from Colorado, Illinois and Washington.

PART-TIME WORKERS WAGE SCALE RAISED ON CAL BERKELEY CAMPUS

Ed. Note: At the recent California Club convention, a resolution was passed suggesting an exchange column between the newspapers on the University campuses. It was felt this would help to draw the various student bodies together through knowledge of what their counterparts elsewhere are doing. Following is the first of such news items in this series.

By EMIL PORTALE, Assistant Editor
The DAILY CALIFORNIAN

Students of the University of California have long been fighting for a decent wage for part-time work, and have had little success in acquiring it. The Berkeley campus of the University took its first positive step in as long as we can remember to increase student wages last week.

Haggling about a new student wage was spread throughout all of last year, but finally the ASUC Finance Committee and then the Executive Committee upped the minimum pay scale from $1.15 to $1.35 an hour.

This pay minimum is called the Fair Bear Wage. And in its name rests its purpose. It is relatively easy to raise the pay scale within an organization like the ASUC, but the Fair Bear Wage aims at more than that.

The merchants who have establishments circling the Berkeley campus proper, and who hire part-time student employees, will now be faced with competing with ASUC standard wages.

Respectable Wage

The student will now have a respectable wage for which to ask, and have a potent right to receive when he seeks employment at these non-ASUC-maintained enterprises.

In the past, Berkeley merchants have been quite cooperative in satisfying the standard wage requirements for students. As it is now, most merchants off-campus usually pay more than the old minimum of $1.15, but few pay $1.35. The ASUC itself, in most cases, pays its part-time student employees more than the old $1.15 minimum.

AS I . . . SEE IT

by Ray Ward

Memo to Legislative Council: Request the answer to a few questions, i.e., why are voting members of Legislative Council banned from sitting in on the meetings of the Activities Control Board? Won't this, or these, same members be called upon to approve the actions of this same board at a later date when the minutes are presented to the Council?

Why isn't it a good idea for the voting members of this august body to know what they are voting on or is this in keeping with the sort of thing that occurred at the recent council meeting involving the censure?

Perhaps I shouldn't have laid the blame on the council for acting as they did; they may be afraid to attend the committee and board meetings for fear of being unacceptable visitors.

Jim Warner, intramurals chairman, requested the following information be relayed by El Gaucho: "Any complaints (regarding intramurals) must be presented in person at the Intramural Council meeting every other (1st and 3rd) Thursday at 12:30, Room 420, Bldg. 110."

This is an invitation for the many people who have approached me concerning the intramural situation. Take the material direct to the committee in charge and it will do all it can to clear up the matter.

UCSB is scheduled to have mascots next sports season in the form of song and cheerleaders. The new additions will be from the kiddies ranks. The Council recently approved this suggestion by the Rallies Committee. The junior song and cheer leaders will be coordinated with the formation of the "Knothole Club."

This is the type of thing that builds good public relations with the community. Our hooper rating needs a boost.

UC REGENTS AWARD TWO SUMMER FELLOWSHIPS

University of California Regents have awarded summer fellowships to two Santa Barbara College faculty members, it was announced by Dr. Elmer R. Noble, acting provost.

The recipients are Dr. Robert M. DeWolfe, assistant professor of chemistry, and Dr. Frances M. Colville, assistant professor of physical education.

The scholarships are given annually to a limited number of University junior members of the faculty in order to free them from the need of summer teaching, to devote themselves exclusively to independent study and creative work. A total of 10 applications from this group was made for fellowships but only two were available to this campus because of lack of funds.

'Duo-Piano' Team On Faculty Recital

A duo-piano team "in collusion" for some years will be the featured artists in the next Faculty Recital at UCSB next Wednesday, 8:30 p.m., Campus Auditorium.

Wendell Nelson, acting assistant professor of music, and his wife, Marjorie, perform duo-piano works by Bach-Maier, Mozart, Brahms, Debussy and Milhaud.

This concert, sponsored by the Committee on Drama, Lectures and Music, in conjunction with the Department of Music, is free, and the public is invited.

The young couple has concertized together in several mid-western states, as well as in Southern California. Nelson holds the B.A. degree in music from Pomona College and M.Music from University of Michigan. He is currently performing a series of recitals at Northwestern for his doctorate. Marjorie Nelson holds the B.A. in music at Pomona College and the M.A. in piano at Claremont Graduate School. She studied at the latter school with Daryl Dayton, well-known Southern California teacher and performer.

Both the awards will be used to further basic research, an activity which constitutes a continuing search for new knowledge and is quite incidentally the source of all technological progress.

SEMINAR SERIES

The re-inaugurated "Hillel Seminars Series" announced its theme for the spring semester talks: "Religion in Our Daily Lives."

The next event on the calendar is scheduled for March 25, 4-5 p.m., URC Building. Dr. Charles Spauling speaks on the subject: "Value of Religious Training in Marriage and the Family."

The seminars are open to the public and transportation will be furnished from Santa Rosa Hall, according to Rosealie Watler, seminar chairman.

RIFLE TEAM COPS SHOOTING HONORS

The UCSB rifle team fired its first two shoulder-to-shoulder matches last week during several postal matches with other Western colleges. Both matches were against the Winchester Canyon Rifle Club. A small-bore four-position gallery match was won by UCSB, 893 to 868.

Norm Kuribara took first place with a 191 out of 200 for a gold cup. Each of the top five men on the UCSB team received a plaque. They were: Bill Ridenour, who has been a member of the team for four seasons; John Murray, Larry Miller and George Flynn.

Sunday the team traveled to Sen. Hollister's ranch to fire a high-power rifle match on the big-bore range. It lost, 471 to 440, but Miller fired a 94 out of 100 at the 200-yard range to place one point behind the winning score. Guy Shipp and Flynn won first and second place in the "B" classification.

The team is getting ready to shoot its last live match of the season against the Santa Barbara Rifle Club soon. This is an annual event and the UCSB team has remained undefeated. The course of fire is called mid-range and is the same course fired at the national matches.

JOB-PLACEMENT SERVICE AVAILABLE TO GRADS

Too few students on this campus take advantage of the service offered by the Bureau of Occupations, located in Bldg. 423. Registration with the Placement Service is essential before graduation to obtain on-campus interviews with representatives of government and industry, according to E. L. Chalberg, placement executive.

It is desirable to have complete recommendations on file while faculty members familiar with the students' qualifications are available. The file must be complete to obtain the free services of this department.

Interviews Scheduled

Many interviewers visit the campus each month, speaking with students in search of occupations relevant to their company or departments. Invaluable to the students and businessmen, these interviews save many hours of job-hunting after graduation.

Representatives from the following groups will visit the campus in the forthcoming months: American Airlines, March 17; Coro Foundation, March 17; California Bank, March 21; Pacific Telephone & Telegraph, March 25; Western Electric Co., March 25; J. C. Penney Co., March 27; General Petroleum Corp., April 7; Pacific Telephone & Telegraph, April 8; Standard Oil Co. of California, April 14; Shell Oil Co. and Shell Chemical Co., April 15; California Packing Corp., April 17.

MILLER CREDITED WITH REVIVAL OF 'BIG BAND'

by Clark Reynolds

Glenn Miller, although dead 10 years before the actual revival, can be given credit for beginning the reappearance of big-band swing in which he was so influential between 1937 and 1944. For it was in 1954 that the "Glenn Miller Story" was released by Universal-International Studios to the American public.

In late 1955 the same company produced the "Benny Goodman Story" and, ever since, the record companies have flourished in sales of swing records.

Along with the swing greats that reappeared, albums in "Hi-Fi" by various of earlier lesser-known bands have been steadily made and sold: the Larry Clinton and Jimmie Lunceford bands, and Glen Gray and His Casa Loma Band.

Rebirth of Old Tunes

With this gigantic rebirth of big dance-band styles, the only natural thing to follow was the creation of new bands with reminiscent melodies.

Gus Bivona, Keith Williams, Ray Anthony, Georgie Auld, Les Elgart and Billy May, to name a few, have been on the rise in popularity since the '54 beginning of this revival.

Although the trend is not quite as wild as the original Swing Era stuff, it is getting there, so to speak. The nostalgic rhythms set off the trend, but the "Bugle Call Rag" style is swiftly returning. Reorganization of Old Bands

After his biography came out in film, Benny Goodman reorganized his band and according to Downbeat magazine his group is No. 10 in the land today.

Ray McKinley has reorganized the old Glenn Miller orchestra, and trumpeter Lee Castle is at the helm of the old Jimmy Dorsey Band.

With the great sales in these records, the swing revival is continuing today, and dance halls are "in the swing" again.

Next Week: The Jazz Singer.

New TONG Officers Elected at Meeting

The TONG organization is in full swing with its new officers already planning future activities, according to Pat Brinker, president.

New officers elected as the last meeting include: Susan Wong, vice president; Vicki Matthew, secretary, and Helen Oxley, treasurer.

Future Activities

The organization is looking toward a joint with one of the men's halls at the college cabin. Plans for Spring Sing also are being made.

Secretary Wanted

Applications for the position of Student Body Secretary are open now according to Don Cottle, ASB Vice President.

The forms can be picked up in the ASB office behind the Student Union.

Inter-Campus Arts Committee Sponsors UC Touring Dancers

The UCLA dance laboratory presents a concert March 23, 8:30 p.m., in the Campus Auditorium.

The event is sponsored by the Inter-Campus Arts Exchange Committee through which talented student groups on each campus make public appearances on other University of California campuses.

The modern dance program on the Los Angeles campus has received nation-wide notice for its high standard of performance and training.

Cooperating agencies in the presentation of the concert are University of California Extension and the Committee on Drama, Lectures and Music.

Tickets will be on sale at the Extension office, 129 E. Carrillo St., at the Graduate Manager's office on campus, or at the auditorium box office on the evening of the performance. Reduced prices are offered for students.

UCSB SPIKESTERS MEET DIABLOS

Gauchos, Los Angeles Vie In Track Meet Tomorrow

Those who come over to the campus track tomorrow afternoon will be assured of plenty of action as the UCSB Gauchos meet the Los Angeles State Diablos in a dual (or rather, duel) track meet. With their brilliant victory over the Angelenos last year, Nick Carter's spike aces set themselves up as defending champions. According to Carter, they mean to hold the honor. If they do, they will have done a good day's work, for LASC has been noted for its keen reaction to competition on the oval.

Diablos Strong

In cross-country last semester they made a strong showing against the efforts of San Diego State, Fresno State and Santa Barbara. Not only in the distances but also in the sprints and field events do the Diablos look to be tough opponents.

Sprinters Sparkle

Ernie Rochholt and Dave Broaker in the sprints should provide Santa Barbara with the necessary talent, along with Bernie Weiner and Ned Wilson in the 440 and Jim Law in the 880. Bill Collins is slated to run the mile, with Rosendo Castillo in the two-mile event. The Hurdles will be handled by Bill Warren, Bruce Knipe and Coyt Davis, while the mile relay team of Weiner, Law, Wilson and Davis should set the team ahead many points.

Field Events Featured

The field events should be treated quite competently by Don Kelliher and Co., which includes Gates Foss (pole vault), Kelly Hoover (discus), Duke Ellington (broad jump), Ron Drake (high jump), among others. Carter cited the performances of many of the aforementioned after their early-season endeavors last weekend.

UCSB Horsehidors Drop First Three; Meet Westmont Next

Winless after three games, the Santa Barbara baseball brigade will meet the Westmont College nine next Tuesday at Laguna Park. Despite the fact that the Gauchos came away from their first three games on the wrong side of the score, they have shown much potential, and Coach Rene Rochelle has high hopes for the CCAA race.

The first opponent of the UCSB nine was the strong alumni, and last weekend's opponents, the San Diego Marines, are packed with pro players; so losses to these teams are not disgraceful by any means.

The Westmont Warriors are paced by returning lettermen Ed Holt, Bill Taylor and Tom Furze with .429, .408 and .364 batting averages, respectively. Jim Gilbert (6-6 last season) and Ron Smith (4-0) will do most of the hurling. Smith, 4-4 last season, is slated to do the chucking against the Gauchos.

SANTA BARBARA DROPS OPENING TENNIS MATCH

Santa Barbara opened the 1958 intercollegiate tennis campaign last Friday with a 6-3 loss to a powerful Los Angeles State College club. In losing, the Gauchos suffered their first dual loss in four years of CCAA competition.

The Diablos won the first four singles and first two doubles matches while Santa Barbara could gain victories in only the fifth and sixth singles and the third doubles.

In the featured match of the day, L.A. State star Larry Smith defeated Gene Hughes in straight sets, 6-0, 6-3. The Gauchos were without the services of their third singles man, Barry Bass, who elected to play only doubles because of a severe fallen arch.

The Gaucho defeat can be attributed to three factors: 1) Gene Hughes has had only four days of practice since reporting after the conclusion of the basketball season; 2) Bass's injury prevented him from taking part in singles competition, and 3) the Diablos played very fine early-season tennis.

Hughes and Bernie Teitelbaum are currently participating in the annual Southern California Intercollegiate at the Valley Hunt Club in Pasadena.

Last Friday's Results:
Singles — Larry Smith (LA)

def. Gene Hughes, 6-0, 6-3; Dave Capello (LA) def. Bernie Teitelbaum, 6-3, 10-8; Roger Ward (LA) def. John Zellhoefer, 6-4, 6-1; Jack Knudsen (UCSB) def. Tom Hoover, 6-0, 6-3; Phil McMullin (UCSB) def. John Beggosh, 6-2, 4-6, 6-0.

Doubles — Smith and Capello (LA) def. Hughes and Teitelbaum, 6-0, 6-3; Ward and Loera (LA) def. Cover and McMullin, 2-6, 6-3, 6-1; Zellhoefer and Bass (UCSB) def. Hoover and Beggosh, 6-3, 6-4.

BEACHRATS DEFEAT TOYON, JUNIPER; MOVE INTO FIRST-PLACE MURAL TIE

The Beachrats moved into a first-place tie with Toyon and Cypress in the independent division of the intramural volleyball leagues by virtue of their recent victories over Acacia and Juniper. In other independent action, Juniper beat Sequoia, 8-15, 15-4 and 15-12, and Sig Eps beat Acacia, 16-14, 15-10.

The Delts continued their lead in the fraternity division by thumping the Kappa Sigs, 15-10, 9-15 and 15-11. The Kappa Sigs gave the Delts a good battle but bowed after they had beaten Lambda Chi Alpha the preceding day by a 15-13, 11-15, 15-2 score. In the other frat game the Delta Sigs edged past the Lambda Chis, 15-9, 16-14.

ACE DISTANCE MAN BILL COLLINS warms up on the infield prior to another assault on the track standards. Collins, the Gauchos' No. 1 miler, is a returnee from last year's squad.

Sticklers!

Don't just stand there...
STICKLE! MAKE $25

Sticklers are simple riddles with two-word rhyming answers. Both words must have the same number of syllables. (No drawings, please!) We'll shell out $25 for all we use—and for hundreds that never see print. So send stacks of 'em with your name, address, college and class to Happy-Joe-Lucky, Box 67A, Mount Vernon, New York.

NEAT FEAT? No! Slick Trick? A thousand times no! When a magician makes a pack of Luckies vanish, it's a plain case of Tragic Magic! Connoisseurs claim there's one approved way to make Luckies disappear. That's to smoke (Yum!) every last one of 'em! That way, you get the wonderful taste of Luckies' fine tobacco... light, good-tasting tobacco that's toasted to taste even better. So, Ladeez-ann-Gennlemen, observe a pack of Luckies closely. Then carefully remove one (1) cigarette and light up. Presto! You're puffing on the best-tasting cigarette you ever smoked!
