Women Gather Tonight From 8 to 10 in Costume Dance and Social Event

By MARIE COCHRAN Once more the A.W.S. will enter-in. This time it is a women's Haltain. lowe'en Masque, to be given to-night from 8 to 10 in the gym-nasium. The costumes are not to be of any special kind, but everyone is requested to come with their countenance hidden behind an enveloping mask.

There are the usual chairmen of committees, but since they are new ones, things will be lively in that they will be original. Gertrude Warne has charge of the decorations. Eleanor Hicks will not disappoint us along the refreshment line, nor will there be one dull moment during the evening, since Beryl Dunning is the entertainment chairman. Ruth Tetz-laff, by the mere mention of her name, conjures up a scene in which gaiety will hold no small place.

Dancing, an always popular pastime, will have its place on the pro-gram. Whether there will be feature dancing has not been divulged, nor will it be until tonight. But dancing in which women will of a necessity take the part hitherto tak-en by a man is going to be had.

Connected with Hallowe'en is the word "surprise," nor will it be conspicuous for its absence Friday night. No one dislikes a surprise; therefore they will leave the party Fri-day night disgruntled.

Former Student Accounts Trip Through Japan at Meeting Wednesday

An account of her trip through Japan was given by Yone Yamada, former student here, in the art room Wednesday night.

The opening number on the pro-gram consisted of several Japanese pieces played on a Japanese harp and flute. Then Miss Yamada was introduced, garbed in a costume of that country, and added to the Oriental atmosphere of burning lanterns and Japanese decorations. She gave a full account of her trip and the many new and interesting experiences which she enjoyed. The main point brought out was the comparison of old and new Japan.

After the lecture, rice cakes and tea were served by members of the

Cal Christian Outfit Provide Competition at Peabody Stadium

The Roadrunners will meet Cal Christian's fighting Parsons in Pea-body stadium this afternoon at 3 o'clock in a game that promises to be full of thrills.

Little is known of the strength of the southern school. They have a heavy eleven captained by Bigby, a veteran, who plays a heady game at quarter. North at full is a hardhit-ting gentleman who may give the Santa Barbara line a large amount of grief. Brooks, at half, is also a veteran from last year who is expected to carry much of the Parsons' attack.

So far this year Cal Christian has not shown any marked ability at run-ning up winning scores. Cal Tech took home a 37-0 victory over them. A series of breaks gave them a 14-0 victory over the Sherman Indians. San Diego administered a 21-16 de-feat to them. However, the winning touchdown was slipped over only in the final moments of the last half, Parsons holding San Diego Clemore the Comparative scores would put the Roadrunners 15 points over the Parsons. Last year a scoreless tie was played.

This will be the locals' last home game, as they journey south next week to tackle the San Diego Azetcs. Classes are being adjourned at 2:30 to enable everyone to get to the game, which is called at 3 p.m.

At the initial meeting of the Forum fourth period Thursday plans for the organization of future work were discussed. Two plays have been selected to be presented at the first assembly in December. On is a Russian semi-tragedy that gives ample opportunity for character acting, the other is, according to Dean Ashworth, "a frothy little farce," concerning the love affair of two young men and a beautiful young lady. The need of the Forum at present is more men. Out of thirty present there were seven men which will create a difficult situation in filling male parts in future productions.

Plans are being made for a Lenten play, probably a play at Commencement, and several shorter plays in the course of the year. There is still room for more members says Kenney, so don't be bashful about turning out.

Bonfire Reaches Height Greater Than Predicted

soon rose to a much greater height than was predicted. According to those who built the pyre, the fire was over thirty feet high and the base about twenty feet in diameter. With all materials gathered by Friday morning, the pyre was not built until that day. It soon mount-ed up to great heights, however, and was the source of much attraction to passing motorists.

Big Attendance Expected at Barbecue Sunday; Games and Hiking on Program

The Outing Club will stage its first social of the year next Sunday when it meets at its cabin on the Santa Ynez River to entertain the student body and faculty with a barbecue preceded by games and hiking. Ticket circulation for the event has totaled 125, the entire sale of which is anticipated of which is anticipated.

Automobiles with their assigned occupants will leave the campus at 10:30 Sunday morning, according to Clayton Sheesely, president of the club, who is making arrangements for the affair. Sheesely added that all those who intend to go should buy tickets as soon as possible, that the barbecue committee may determine the number it is to serve, and also that those wishing transporta-tion and those offering the same sign their names on the bulletin notice to that effect.

The barbecue dinner, which will consist in part of the well known Ted Marshall steaks and salad, will be served at 1:00 o'click. Tickets for the meal will be 65 cents. Is is said that those who have partaken of one of Ted Marshall's dinners will not allow this sum to stand in the way of another banquet by that famous chef.

Invitation has been extended to the entire student body, faculty, and the numerous friends of both these groups. 'It is hoped that Sunday's event will greatly aid the club's ultimate membership ideal of 100% student body.

Arrow signs have been placed along the road leading to the club cabin. Situated about three miles above Paradise Camp along the Santa Ynez River, it will not be hard to find according to those familiar with the territory. At the camp, such games as horseshoe, volley ball, indoor baseball, and others will be planned to insure a good time. Plans for Year Formed An effort is being made to have a 'arge club organized, as success-ful outings can only be realized by mean taking near the many taking part. Last year the club had paid no membership, al-though there were several successful trips made. The year before, the club was strong.

A new office of the A.W.S. will be created soon, according to recent announcement. This office will take charge of religious matters on the campus and will enable the college to have more services of the Christmas type.

It was decided to create this office rather than to organize a Y.W.C. A., whose duties would overlap those of the A.W.S.

ART COLLECTOR VISITS

Madame E. E. Scheyer, collector of modern art visited the art department recently to confer with the head of that department, Mrs. Cros-well, on the possibility of a lecutre by the collector on modern artists some time in the near future. A particular exhibit by Madame Scheyer is that of the so-called Blue Four artists, Feininger, Jawlensky, Kan-dinsky and Paul Klee. This group will soon be on display at the Los Angeles Museum.

Overhanging moss, standing cornstalks, black glaring-eyed cats lurking in hidden places, and leering jack-o-lanterns decorated the gym. Oddly contrasting with these fea-tures of Hallowe'en were the smart, up-to-date dresses of the men and women who attended the sport Hallowe'en dance last Saturday night.

Because they were the guests of honor, the Bakersfield men were according tagged. This gave them the privilege of "cutting-in" and obtaining dances that otherwise they could not have. This elimniated what might have been a dull time for In the elimination dance Bakthem. ersfield was represented as one of the winning team, the athletic man-ager and Katherine Bennick being the couple who won the prize.

As a special feature of the evening there was a Mexican dance given by Margaret Patrick and Marjorie Sawyer.

o Pep ember A new member of the Pep Committee, Helen Campbell, has been added. She was appointed this week.

Miss Campbell is a graduate of the local high school and figured there in various scholastic activities, having been secretary of the student body, member of the welfare committtee, participant in Senior class activities, and delegate to the Girls' League convention at Pomona.

Helen Campbell makes the sixth member of the committee, the others being Warren Atwood, chairman, Pearl Crawford, Ester Janssens, Floyd Kenney, and Keith Gunn.

The members of Alpha Theta Chi sorority were entertained on Monday evening by Pearl Crawford, Viola Barr and Elinor Gifford at the home of Marcia Goodwin. The group of three dramatized an original play. Following the play refreshments were enjoyed.

Crowd at Bakersfield Game Estimated at Over 1000

Estimates place the crowd at the game last Saturday with Bakersfield at approximately 1000, this crowd consisting of 400 college rooters and 600 townspeople. The gate receipts amounted to $235, but many were admitted free due to lack of gate assistance.

It has been stated that the comparatively large turnout of the town has influenced the spirit of the college.

An official upperclass blazer of alternate blue and orange stripes has been adopted by both senior and ju-nir men at Syracuse University.

Dues for new members are one dollar, fifty cents being initiation fees, to be placed in a sinking fund, and the remaining fifty cents goes to the payment of the annual dues. Old members of the club pay only fifty cents. Marlyn Jameson is collecting the money.

Construction of new cabins will be financed by the sinking fund estab-lished if sufficient membership can be obtained, as it is a club policy that cabins be located throughout the back mountains. These cabins are to be located at a reasonable hiking distance in order to provide comfort for back mountain hiking trips. President Sheesley traveled to the Santa Ynez cabin last Sunday and reports that the structure is in good shape. He also reports that the river valley is in fine shape for an outing.

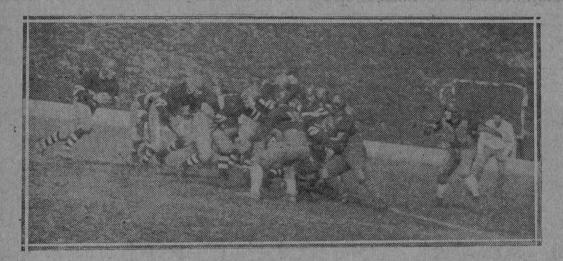

University of California track enthusiasts are looking forward to a great season in the cinder sport. Coach Christie has practically a vet-eran squad returning this year. His only loss of first place calibre is Barber, who was the star and cap-tain of the team last year.

HOW THAT 14-0 SCORE WAS OBTAINED

The above picture illustrates why the Roadrunners won the game with Bakersfield Saturday. The top pictures shows Hasse of the Renegades trying to find a hole in the Roadrunner forward wall, but without success. At almost every line buck the Renegades were repulsed. Bakersfield Outfit Sent Home Minus Victory; Score Is 14-0

Outplaying the Renegades in every department of the game, the Santa Barbara State Roadrunners walloped Bakersfield to the tune of 14-0 last Saturday afternoon at Peabody stadium. Ed O'Reilly, Irish quarter, is credited with both scores, breaking away for a 35-yard run to a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Later in the same quarter the fiery Celt galloped 30 yards to Bakersfield's 2-yard line in two successive plays. Walt Swanson bucked the ball across for the second and final score of the day.

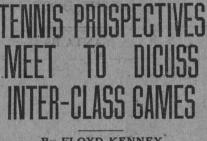

The Renegades were outplayed from the first whistle, Santa Bar-bara starting the parade with three first downs in a row, depositing the first downs in a row, depositing the ball on Bakersfield's 10-yard line. The Renegades gained the ball on an incomplete pass over the line, and kicked on the third down to their own 40-yard line. A series of line plays carried the ball down to the Renegade 10-yard line once more.

Tad Foss intercepted a pass from Courtney on the latter's second at-tempt and downed the ball on Bak-ersfield's 35-yard line. O'Reilly and Swanson alternated in carrying the ball to Bakersfield's 2-yard line, where Swanson bucked it across for the second and final score. Foss converted.

Bakersfield's final threat occurred on the kickoff when Jordan ran back on the kickoff when Jordan ran back 50 yards with a one-man interfer-ence. Courtney, Renegade full, Mit the line for no gain, and grounded one pass. He attempted another one of 35 yards to Hasse. Last week-end was history. It will go down in the records of It is their first activity of the year It is their first activity of the year Santa Barbara State as the first successful big rally and general pep display in the history of the college.

From last week-end onward will be a new era at the college. It showed what potential pep has been smouldering all these years, and once started would be difficult to stop. Student support will be much easier to get.

The bonfire rally and parade, together with the big game, "went over big" down town. The Eagle has heard many compliments from townspeople for the way the college put the affair over, and in Coach DeGroot's words at the rally: "I believe this is the first time the town ever knew there was a college in the vicinity."

Then, too, a tradition has been formed. It will be the custom. each year to have a rally bonfire. In the past the college has attempted to start such a tradition, but with little success until this year.

To the Pep Committee, the Frosh class, and the students who assisted in the work of preparing the rally, together with the merchants of the town, goes the credit for the success of the occasion. They deserve a hearty hand.

They deserve a great deal of credit for the spirit they have shown this season in carrying on under such handicaps as they have had. The conference, which is held annually, will take place November 12 and 13. Last year Ester Janssens was chosen corresponding secretary for the conference.

The women's glee club rehearsals will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays the ninth period instead of meeting last week by Mrs. Helen Barnett, head of the music department. More than twice as much work can be accomplished by doing this, and the women are enthusiastic over the idea.
