Ben Romer was elected president of the sophomore class at its class election last Thursday. He will function in that capacity next year for the junior class. Romer is well known on State college campus, having been active this year in school dramatics.

The junior class of 1931-32 chose John Eckhardt as its vice president, Sally Leonard as secretary, and Bernard O'Reilly as treasurer. Katharyn Myers will head next year's junior class in its social work.

Besides electing next year's class officers, the sophomore class at its meeting last Thursday, arranged plans for sophomore class day which has been set for Tuesday, April 21. Phyllis Cole, social chairman for the sophomore class, has charge of the affair and is assisted by Al Bevis. Black and white were chosen as class colors.

The freshman class elected Bob Winters to the office of president at its class election conducted at a meeting held in the auditorium last Thursday. Besides being class treasurer during his senior year in high school, Winters was business manager for The Forge, the school paper for Santa Barbara High school.

EICHHEIM DIRECTS

High School Auditorium Will Be Setting For Initial Concert

Nearly 100 musicians from the twenty colleges and universities of Southern California are in Santa Barbara rehearsing under Director Henry Eichheim for the first All-Southern California Symphony orchestra concert to be given tonight at 8:30 o'clock in Santa Barbara High school auditorium.

Through efforts of Cliff Leedy, head of the Santa Barbara State college orchestra, and Wesley Dickenson, chairman of the student activities committee, to encourage musical art in colleges and universities this orchestra has been assembled in Santa Barbara. They hope it will be a success and will become an annual affair in colleges of Southern California.

Jimmy Kent and Betty Proctor in charge of the housing accommodations for visiting musicians, found cooperation among residents of Santa Barbara for entertaining them.

Visiting musicians were entertained in Santa Barbara for three days beginning Sunday. Practically the only expense to the individual or school will be transportation to and from Santa Barbara. Rehearsals for the concert began on Sunday.

There will be sixteen first violins, fourteen second violins, twelve violas, twelve cellos, eight bass violas, four flutes, four oboes, four bassoons, four trumpets, four trombones, three French horns, three clarinets, one tuba, one harp, and three tympani.

Two prizes, a cup and five dollars are being offered to the organization selling the most tickets. Three hundred notices have been sent to music teachers encouraging music students to attend the concert. James Nicklin is in charge of ticket selling on the college campus.

CANDIDATES MADE KNOWN FOR OFFICES OF STUDENT BODY

Dickenson, Kent, Major Contenders; Proctor and Bishop For Vice-Pres.

Campus politics are again in season. The presidential race between Wesley Dickenson and James Kent promises to be a close one. Students may expect the best campaigning of the college history this year, due to the fact that both men are popular and have many supporters.

There are two candidates for the office of secretary, Rose Greenwell and Irene O'Leary.

The other office which will feature competition is that of treasurer. Those running for this office are Archy Way, Victor Colton, and Lorenz Greeson.

Betty Proctor and Kay Bishop are contestants for vice-president, and Ben Romer is the only one running for the office of oratory manager.

The presidential petitions are down and the others will be taken off the board Friday. Before those running for the offices can be qualified they must have signatures of ten percent of the active Student Body members which is approximately sixty names.

Campaign speeches will be delivered this morning in assembly. At this time each candidate will announce his platform, and past activities will be reviewed.

Installation of officers will be held on May 19.

The council will act as the election board.

All appointments will be in order at the time of installation.

Lewellyn Goodfield, a past Student Body president, may install the new officers.—L. C.

MUSICIANS CHOSEN BY INTERESTING METHOD

After visiting some twenty colleges, and after the Symphony was decided upon, the following method of selection for those who were to participate was used.

A letter telling what was to be done, who had been chosen to conduct the orchestra, and the accommodations made, was sent to each college. This letter was accompanied by applications on which questions such as: "In what orchestras have you played? Would you prefer first or second parts? Give a list of symphonic works you have played," appeared. On these applications the orchestra leader wrote remarks concerning the work of the applicant.

In a few weeks a follow-up letter was sent which gave the date set for the Symphony. After the applications had been considered, those who were chosen were notified. On this notification a list of the pieces to be played was given and the student was instructed just how and where he was to register, where the concert was to be held, and what type of clothes to be worn at the concert.—R. PHELPS CHANGES MUSIC GROUP SUMMER PLANS SHOWS INCREASE

President C. L. Phelps has cancelled his European trip planned for this summer due to the fact that many important questions concerning Santa Barbara State which are impending in the state legislature will not be settled until sometime during the next four months.

The president would have left June 9 for Austria where the Rotary club convention will be held, and would have returned about August 1. George MacLellan, manager for Santa Barbarans, Inc., will travel in Mr. Phelps' place.

STATE COLLEGE MEN MEET IN ANNUAL HOBO BRAWL AT Y

Frosh-Soph Tie-up, Music and Wrestling Add to Evening's Fun

The Hobo Brawl, sponsored by the Men's club, was staged last Friday night in the Y. M. C. A., under the managership of Oscar Trautz.

A stock market was the first event of the evening. Blocks of stocks were passed out, each block being composed of twenty stocks, all different. The game was to get a block of twenty stocks all the same by trading. The prize winners of this event were Paul Hylton, first; Francis Bacon, second, and John Davis, third.

Lawrence ("Red") Connell won the prize for the longest beard; Roy Davis for the rattiest, and Howard Bradbury, for being the louisiest hobo.

Roy Davis was chosen King of the Hoboes from among six candidates.

After giving a brief history of his musical career, Merle Waterman entertained the men with some classical selections. He also gave a good imitation of a steam caliope.

The Freshman-Sophomore tie-up was won by the freshmen for the second consecutive year thru a default by the sophomores. The second year men failed to produce a team. The freshmen then took on an all-star team which resulted in a draw.

An interesting fencing exhibition was given by Dr. Dezart and Mr. J. C. Lewis who used three types of weapons.

12 MOST POPULAR MEN AND WOMEN ON CAMPUS ARE CHOSEN

A small number of students visited the poles on Friday to cast their votes in the nomination of the most popular man and woman on the campus. From a student body of 568 members, 167 votes were cast, 64 by men and 103 by women.

Betty Proctor, president of the Associated Women students, and Wesley Dickenson, chairman of the students' activity committee, received the highest number of votes cast. They were followed by Ella Cornwall, Virginia Weber, Dorothea E. Peterson, Ethel Davis and Helen Furby; Martin Bredsteen, James Kent, Ted Niedermuller, Lester Blount, and Llewellyn Goodfield.

The final vote is being taken today at the window of the office of the controller. Results of the election will not be made known until June when La Cumbre is issued. Pictures of the most popular man and woman chosen from this group will appear in the book.

they make goes to buy equipment for the department.

This year, the music department has inaugurated a new policy. The organizations plan to sponsor worthwhile musical entertainment for the college and townspeople. The Southern California College Symphony Concert is the biggest thing that has been attempted but it is the sort of thing that the department is trying to do.

The growth, within ten years, from nine students meeting in a little frame building on a corner of the campus to an active, growing organization, including more than two hundred students is an accomplishment that makes Santa Barbara State proud of her music department.

Artists To Have Gallery Display

Mrs. M. E. T. Crosswell, head of the art department, announces that there will be an exhibit of art work done by the students of the college in the Faulkner Art Gallery on May 7. The space is limited to about twenty mounts and there will not be room for all the best work to be shown. Work that is to be exhibited will consist of design and color problems, posters, portraits, water color studies, and craft work.—J. H.

SOPHS STAGE ANNUAL CLASS DAY PROGRAM

"Ladies and Gentlemen! We are now about to offer the greatest show ever staged on the campus of Santa Barbara State college. Step right this way and get your seats, all for free!"

You may expect to hear this from Had Denno, master of ceremonies, during the annual Sophomore Class Day program Tuesday morning. Instead, he probably will be reclining on the sand in his bathing suit, surrounded by an ample supply of sirens clad in beach pajamas and Deauvilles, for the whole show is centered around a beach theme.

Kay Myers has decided to turn musical and will do a little directing. I don't know if she will follow the style of Sousa or Ernst Lubitsch, anyway she's going to direct something. Everybody ought to come just to see what direction she takes.

It is being rumored about that there will be professional entertainers, in the capacity of tap dancers.

Next on the program will be a few numbers by Had's orchestra and then one of these good old waltz numbers. Sid Grauman's prologue will positively look ill when the following go into their song and dance: Sally Leonard, Kay Myers, "Mooney" Goodfield, Betty Awl, "Deac" Goodfield, "Pinky" Greeson, "Hoppy" Hopkins and "Benny" Romer.

The end of the hour will be announced when Had's orchestra will again "strike up the band."

KEBELY WRITES SYLLABUS ABOUT STAGE CRAFT

A syllabus on stage craft, designed for the use of college or community theaters and students of stage craft, by Ferdinand T. Kebely of the art department, will be ready for distribution to college students within ten days, according to Kebely.

The syllabus will contain about fifty pages and will trace the evolution of the theater to modern times. It will cover the essential facts now given in lectures and its use by students will eliminate the taking of notes during class time.

The author is planning to enlarge the scope of the work, with the idea of having it published.

The cost of the syllabus will be seventy-five cents.—A. D.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS SHOW NEED OF DEVELOPMENT IN U. S.—ERICSON

Emphasizing the lack of development in industrial arts in the United States, E. E. Ericson, head of the industrial educational department of Santa Barbara State college, delivered a talk on "Occupational Opportunities and Requirements in Industrial Arts," in the city library in Los Angeles last Wednesday evening.

Ericson's address was given as one of a series of monthly lectures on educational problems being conducted in Los Angeles by the Vocational Guidance association of Southern California. The lectures are featured by the association to acquaint the public with the problems confronting the educational systems of this country.

Herbert H. Clark, director of occupational study and research work in Los Angeles schools, is president of the association.

Ericson stated in his talk that through a survey of 27 types of industries, made by the Federal Board for Vocational Education and the State Department of Education for the state of New York, that it was proven that school systems in this country are neglecting to develop in men and women their talents in the field of industrial arts.

It was found by the survey that American manufacturers depend almost entirely upon foreign talent

The varsity tennis ranking tournament ended last week with men ranking as follows: Dickenson first; Barnett second; Kiler third; McDavid fourth; E. Smith fifth; Thompson sixth; F. Greenough seventh; Bredsteen eighth; Kessler ninth; Towle tenth; and Larsen eleventh.

Coach "Hal" Davis chose Dickenson and Barnett for first doubles and McDavid and Smith for second doubles.

Freshmen, according to Coach Davis, are not showing the spirit that the varsity men are. Only a few games have been played in their ranking tournament. Walker defeated Fish, 6-2, 6-2; Meigs defeated Hall, 7-5, 7-5; Holsteen defeated Coombs, 6-3, 6-0.

Last Thursday evening the varsity squad played Deane School. The games scored as follows: Dickenson of Santa Barbara State defeated Ranson, 6-1, 8-10, 6-2. McDavid of State defeated Wilcox, 6-4, 6-10. Martin of the Deane School defeated Barnett, 6-3, 6-4. E. Smith of Santa Barbara State defeated E. Martin 6-3, 6-2. In the doubles Dickenson and Barnett of S. B. S. C. played Ranson and Martin, the score being 10-8, 2-6, 7-7. Darkness interfered with other matches which had been planned, and playing was stopped at 7 o'clock.

Dickenson and Barnett are playing in the State tournament at Ojai next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Santa Barbara State tennis squad has scheduled no conference meets, but Coach "Hal" Davis hopes to match his crew with conference colleges soon.

Freshmen out are: Donnan, Nakamura, Fish, Walker, Meigs, Hall, Holsteen, Coombs, White, and Shultz.—B. P.

50 GIRLS WILL TAKE PART IN MAY FESTIVAL

Anne Furtado and Helen Furby Write Theme of "Friendship"

MOSHER IS QUEEN

Joy's Triumph, Downfall of Jealousy, Shown Allegorically

More than 50 girls will take part in the eight annual May Day program to be presented by the Physical Education department Thursday, April 30. As has been customary in the past, this festival will be held in the quad, and all students of the college and their friends are invited.

The theme, "Friendship," which has been chosen for this year, is different from any other used in the past. Other years the festivals have been representative of countries or peoples and allegorical themes have not been used. Helen Furby and Anna Furtado, who have written the theme, have done a very fine piece of work in weaving the idea of friendship into an imaginative and beautiful story, according to Miss Helen Dozier.

The theme deals with two friends, one of whom is stolen away by Jealousy. The endurance of true friendship drives the other friend to seek her lost companion. She is told that the Rose of Unselfish Joy is fatal to envy and find it she must. In her search she goes to the Kingdom of the Sea, the Land of Flame, the Kingdom of Youth, the Land of Wisdom, and finally to the Garden of the Three Graces, where Faith, Hope, and Charity preside. Upon her arrival to this last place Jealousy falls dead, and Rose of Unselfish Joy is crowned Queen of the May.

Margaret Wilson is general manager; Helen Furby and Anna Furtado, authors of the theme; Ella Cornwall is in charge of dancing; Ethel Hudson, properties; Helen Furby, costumes; Pearl Rieger, publicity and programs; and Marjorie Juleff, ushers.

The cast in order of appearance includes the following:

Two Friends, Ella Cornwall, Helen Furby; Jealousy, Anna Furtado; Hope, Betty Lindsay; Neptune, Elizabeth Peacock; Waves, Whole group;

Sea Urchins, Virginia Sliction (leader), Marion Ek, Marjorie Juleff, Gertrude Beck, Romaine Mitchell, Dorothy May, Catherine Lambert, Audrey Moore, Elizabeth Thomas;

Kessler Places In L. A. Meet

Santa Barbara State won seventh place in the Southern California Conference track meet last Saturday in the Los Angeles Coliseum when "Army" Kessler tied for third place in the high jump. Kessler won the one-half point for Santa Barbara when he went out at five feet, ten inches. Pomona college took first place in the meet and Occidental second.

HEALTH OFFICE TO GIVE SR. EXAMS

The health office is ready to begin the examination of senior students for the health certificate which they will need in filing application for a teaching credential. It is not required that students have this examination here, and they may go to their family physician if they prefer. The college offers this service free through Dr. Markthaler to all seniors who desire to use it. Seniors will be called in alphabetical order to the health office, but any senior who may need the certificate immediately in applying for a teaching position may make arrangements with Dr. Bishop to be examined out of turn.

Many superintendents are asking for a health certificate with the application for a position. One of the purposes of the health office in this college is to help the students build up their health and strength during their residence here, so that they may be eligible for teaching positions when the time comes to teach.—J. ROADRUNNER BALL PLAYERS WIN TWO GAMES LAST WEEK

Mail Carriers and Japanese Clubmen Succumb To Hilltoppers

4-3, 2-0 ARE SCORES

Staters Rounding Into Shape for Caltech This Saturday

Two lively ball games, with the Post Office workers and the Santa Barbara Japanese Clubmen, kept the Roadrunner nine up to form and gave Coach Lucifer Trimble a good line on what to expect from his charges this Saturday when they take on the Engineers from Caltech.

In the Wednesday night game with the Mail Carriers, the Statesmen crossed the plate nine times during the four innings, and held the Federals to three runs. "Tuffy" Treloar managed to connect with one of the Postmen's offerings and lifted the horsehide out to the wide open spaces for a home run with the bases empty. In his second trip to the plate he kept his record clean with a single. Other men who made hits were Brown, Main, Dornan, Killian and McTavish. "Shiek" Maglio, who plugs mailboxes in the College district, took one of Fred Imes' pitches for a long trip that carried him for a full circuit without any men on base.

Thursday night's five inning match with the Japanese ended with State's presenting the boys from Tokio with a 2-0 goose egg. Tom Dornan took Fred Imes' place in the box while Fred shifted to first base. The runs were brought in by McTavish and Dornan.

The lineups for the two games were as follows: Wednesday: Imes, P; Treloar, C; Dornan, 1B; Killian, 2B; Hickman, 3B; McTavish, STEAM STUDENTS' BLOWOFF!

This feature offers a medium for the expression of student opinion, constructive criticism, and helpful comment. All communications (for the protection of the editor and the Roadrunner) must bear the signature of the writer, although, if requested, the initials only will be published with the letter. In general, all communications will be published, reserving to the editor the right to suppress any comment which, in her opinions, is detrimental to the best interests of Santa Barbara State College and the Associated Students of that institution.

To the Editor:

If the editors of "Liberty" would get their heads together they would have a class "A" board walk. But as far as grey matter goes they certainly can't get to first base on their combined intelligence. In their editorial printed in the "Roadrunner" last week they asked why so many authorities discriminate against student drinkers. They make special reference to western, state-supported colleges.

Perhaps I'm all wet, but it seems to me that the answer is rather obvious. The purpose of our universities and colleges is to train those people who have shown capacity for mental achievement and leadership that they may fill the many responsible positions in our social order both as citizens and leaders. Naturally the breaking of the Eighteenth Amendment is diametrically opposed to the purpose of an educational system which boasts as its first purpose the development of character.

Just as the college weeds out those students who show themselves mentally unable to achieve the scholastic standards required for graduation, so it must weed out the "moral flunks" who have shown themselves unable to get a passing grade in "citizenship."

I take the seeming discrimination against college students on the part of college administrators as evidence that college authorities are on the job; that they sincerely desire to protect the good name of their institution, and the integrity of their product — the graduating student; even if other authorities are pusillanimous and lax in their enforcement of the prohibition laws. Would you want to receive a diploma on which there was the annotation—"Morally-Incompetent?"

And what could be more paradoxical than that a state should spend thousands of dollars annually to educate a group of anti-social lawbreakers?—C. V. W.

THE EDITOR SPEAKS

SUPPORT THE SYMPHONY

AN IMPORTANT step in the development of Santa Barbara State is marked in the culmination of the plans of Clifford Leedy and Wesley Dickenson for the organization of an intercollegiate symphony orchestra. We are fortunate in having such leaders, men of foresight, in our midst, also the services of the noted composer, Henry Eichheim.

The importance of the presentation to be made tonight rests not so much in the musical program to be rendered, but in the great amount of publicity and advertising which Santa Barbara State and the community itself will receive. The interest of a new class of people will be focused upon us.

The program planned by Leedy has offered unusual opportunities to many men and women of Southern California. A new incentive for college musicians has been established.

Members of this orchestra, institutors of college symphonies, deserve all the cooperation and good will which students and members of the faculty can extend them.

STUDENT BODY ELECTIONS

WHERE is the spirit of students of State which was so prominent during the fall semester? Gigantic strides were made in all directions through the interest and activity of the students. But with the coming of spring, spirit has gone.

Attendance at athletic contests has been poor, few students have attended the valuable moving pictures offered them by the department of visual education, songs are no longer sung, yells have been forgotten, the money made during football season which was expected to carry through the other seasons has been used, and students have neglected their privileges as citizens.

At the polls Friday, 28.5 per cent of the student body members cast their votes for nominees in the popularity contest. 62.1 per cent of these votes were cast by women and 37.9 per cent by men. Were you one of those who voted?

The final election today will determine the two outstanding individuals on this campus. Go to the polls and help elect that man and that woman.

A SACRIFICE

SACRIFICING pleasure for the future of Santa Barbara, President Clarence L. Phelps has given up one of the greatest pleasures of his life, a trip to Europe with the Rotary club.

This generous action, which is characteristic of our president in all matters concerning State, has been the force behind the growth of our school, the most rapidly developing State college in California.

Feeling that the welfare and future of this college might rest in the actions of the state legislature which will meet this summer, President Phelps has made this great personal sacrifice.

We are indebted to our leader and may we show our appreciation by so helping to develop this institution that he may feel repaid.

We've given up this idea of getting an education until after our degree work is off.

What we still call "sin" is largely the result of lack of opportunity.

IT'S WORTH KNOWING

By EDYTHA BARHAM

That Clifford E. Leedy, assistant instructor in the music department, was accompanist for the Trojan Glee club while attending the University of Southern California; that he was born in Santa Barbara and has lived here most of his life; that he attended State college for three years and University of Southern California for two and one half years; that he obtained his B.A. Musical Ed. degree at University of Southern California; that he majored in chemistry, and music was a sideline; that he has had several jazz orchestras in which he played the piano; that he helped himself through State by doing janitor work for the college in the Music building and played a pipe organ on Sundays; that he was interested in basketball and baseball and won his letter in basketball; that he is a member of ZAK and QMA, national music fraternity; that he has charge of the Elks' chanters in Santa Barbara and is the Elks' organist; that he is director of Baptist church music; that he is returning to University of Southern California this summer to work on his M.A. degree.

EXCHANGES

Junior Colleges want to grow up. At a conference held at San Bernardino recently a petition was framed to be presented to the State Board of Education, asking that the junior college be taken out of the present secondary school system and placed in a distinct unit entirely separate from the high schools.

After investigating thoroughly, the federal educational survey commission has deemed it advisable that the University of Oregon and Oregon State college combine, as there is a duplication in the curricula of the institutions. The commission says that this duplication is an economic waste, and to correct it would convert the university into a school of the arts alone and the state college into a stronghold of sciences. No steps have yet been taken for the combination.

Yale, Harvard and Princeton have adopted Rugby football for the spring sport. Teams from these colleges will play the U. S. Marine corps and Canadian teams.

Corey Ford in "Variety Fair" for April solves the greatest American problem: How to get rich.

He advises one to learn and commercialize on one of the following trades:
 Several ways of destroying ants.
 The manufacture of a liquid for forcing the beard.
 A cure for stammering (by reading aloud with the teeth closed).
 How to knit Roman blankets.
 Stop nose bleeding.
 Grow smilax.
 Drive fleas from domestic animals.

How to make a horse stand by his feed, without eating it (by greasing the front teeth and roof of mouth with tallow).

We suggest that Dr. Ellison get in touch with Ford. The world would profit if the two would unite in thinking up some way to make money.—R. R.

THEATRES

ROSE

"Once a Sinner" playing tonight and tomorrow night at the Rose theater.
 Directed by Guthrie McClintic and featuring Dorothy Mackall, the story deals with a girl, orphaned at an early age, striving and struggling to make a living as a model, craving the luxuries that every girl craves and finding the only way to get them was via the easiest way.

Then she encounters her first real love with a young inventor who marries her, but before so doing, she insists on telling him of her past and of the other man.

Whether that was the right thing to do has been debated for centuries, but in this picture the subject is handled with logic, with daring and with artistry.

Joel McCrea, John Halliday and C. Henry Gordon head a brilliant supporting cast, which includes Sally Blane, Ilka Chase, Clara Blandick, and Ninette Faro.
 "Girls Demand Excitement," which is opening at the Rose Thursday tells a story of what happens to a small college when the boys play a little politics to rid the school of co-eds and how the co-eds play a little politics too when it comes to line up supporters with their platform "No Necktie—No Vote."

Likewise proving that a real college picture may be and was made without the aid of a football game and a touchdown in the last minute of play.

CALIFORNIA

Playing all week at the California is Will Rogers in "Connecticut Yankee." This picture is based on the story by Mark Twain, but it is colored by Hollywoodisms and Will Rogerisms. The story had been furnished elaborate settings, and costumes. Here we see William Farnum as King Arthur, Brandon Hurst as Merlin, Myrna Loy as Queen Morgan le Fay, and Will Rogers as Sir Boss.

MISSION

Tuesday—Repeat performance of Parlor, Bedroom and Bath with Buster Keaton and Charlotte Greenwood. Good entertainment.
 Thursday—"Single Sin". The story of hate which sought to wreck the lives of two people, Kay Johnson and Bert Lytell.
 Saturday—"Ridin' Fool"—a picture of action. Vaudeville.

An eight-story general office building, belonging to the Bell Telephone company at Indianapolis, was recently moved from the front of the lot on which it was located to the rear of the same property, a distance of approximately 100 feet. The structure, larger than either the Central building or the Granada theater building in Santa Barbara, was placed upon rollers and moved to its new location in the same manner as an ordinary building. More than 600 employees remained on duty while the work was going on. Gas, heat, water, electricity and all the facilities of the building were kept in constant operation by means of heavy flexible cables.
