SCHEDULE MARCH SPECIAL ELECTION

BERKELEY REVUE SATURDAY NITE

Mask and Dagger to Present "Take a Ride", Musical Tour Of "Roaring '20s" as Exchange

The sparkling revue "Take a Ride" will open at the Riviera Auditorium on Saturday, February 25, at 8:30 pm to take Gauchos students on a musical tour of the "Roaring '20s." Presented by the Mask and Dagger Society of the University of California, Berkeley campus, it is another of the UC inter-campus exchange shows.

Theme of the show is a mythical audience-participation excursion through such places as the "Ziegfeld Follies," the "Winter Garden," vaudeville, and speakeasies of the pre-flapper era of World War I. The skits and blackouts will be introduced between scenes by the "Take a Ride" Quartet.

Original Music

The cast, which is directed by dramatic art student George Hatch, includes more than 30 students, a trained seal, and a gorilla. Original melodies and lyrics are written by Al Stern and Gordon Duffy, talented young UC students.

This 17th annual collegiate revue is entirely student produced—from the writing to the staging—by the Mask and Dagger Society of the University of California, an honorary drama group which was founded in 1905. It marks their first presentation in Santa Barbara, although many Mask and Dagger alumni appeared in the "Straw Hat Revue." This show was presented in Santa Barbara recently and received wide acclaim.

"Take a Ride" opened last week on the Berkeley campus and will travel to UCLA Friday night, followed by the Saturday night staging here. The tour to Santa Barbara will be made under the auspices of the recently created Arts Exchange Committee of the University, designed to acquaint students with activities on all the campuses of the University. The business and ticket arrangements are handled by the statewide facilities of the University Extension.

As part of their program of promoting inter-campus unity, the local Cal Club is arranging housing for the cast in the fraternity and sorority houses during their stay here.

Traveling with the group are Dr. Fred O. Harris, Associate Professor of Dramatic Art and Chairman of the Department, Mrs. Harris, and Leslie J. Mahoney, Lecturer in Dramatic Art.

Tickets for the event are on sale at the Graduate Manager's Office. They are being sold in reserved section seating and are priced at .60, .90, and $1.20.

TEMPORARY DELIVERY JOBS OPEN NEXT WEEK TO VETERANS

Veterans seeking temporary employment delivering telephone books next week are urged to contact Elaine Strobel, Coordinator of Student Affairs, in the Associated Students office immediately.

The California State Office of Employment, 22 E. Victoria, has issued a call for veterans who have a car, a Social Security card, and are over eighteen, to deliver the phone books starting February 28.

Missman Tells Rules Governing Services Of Associated Student Publicity Committee

A complete list of services offered by the Associated Students Publicity Committee and the rules governing use of these services by recognized campus organizations was issued this week by Chuck Missman, newly appointed chairman of the committee.

For the first time on the Santa Barbara campus regular weekly public address system program will be activated for the purpose of making up to the minute student and organizational announcements. Time on the Wednesday program will be available to all organizations needing publicity upon application by means of the special forms obtainable in the Student Body Office. Such application must be made by 5 pm of the Tuesday afternoon before the day on which the announcement is to be made.

Publicity Conference

Missman will be personally available during his office hours, Student Body Office MWF 12-3, at which time publicity and social chairmen of groups sponsoring events may meet with him to confer on the best way to get the most publicity under the existing rules governing such activities.

In addition, Missman pointed out, it is desirable that all organizational publicity chairmen attend the first Publicity Committee meeting of the spring semester to be held on Wednesday, February 22, at 7:30 pm at the Sigma Pi house, 1809 Chapala. All persons interested in serving on the committee or in doing poster painting, which is included in the services offered by the committee, should also attend the meeting or, if this is impossible, contact Missman in the Student Body office.

Poster Orders

Publicity posters may be ordered through the committee upon application through the Associated Students Office. The Publicity rules allow one large, three medium and five small posters for advertising any one event. Payment is to be made from the group's student budget or directly from its treasury. Order forms should be filled out in duplicate by organizations with student budget accounts and in triplicate by all other organizations.

The two soloists chosen at auditions by the symphony's conductor, Peter Meremblum, and Dr. Maurice Faulkner, Chairman of the Music Department, are Judy Ayer, violinist, of Los Angeles, and Patrice Kelly, flutist, of Bakersfield. Both girls are seventeen years old. Miss Ayer will solo in Lalo's Symphonie Espagnole, and Miss Kelly will present a Chamade flute solo.

Dr. Faulkner announced that tickets for the concert will go on sale February 20, here. Reservations may be made by calling 3116 and picking up the tickets at the Lobero box office. The concert is sponsored by the Associated Students and the Committee on Drama, Lectures and Music.

Hartzell Appoints Temporary Representative-at-Large, Freshman, Senior Presidents

Due to the ineligibility of some members, AS president Robert L.

Hartzell appointed temporary officers to fill the vacancies at the February 14 meeting of the Legislative Council.

Three of the new appointees are Gloria Steers, representative-at-large; Norman Celse, senior class president; and Jere Barlow, freshman class president. The responsibility of appointing a temporary AMS president was delegated to the AMS executive board.

Permanent officers to fill the vacancies will be elected at a special election to be held Wednesday and Thursday, March 8 and 9. The run-off election will be held on Monday, March 13. The situation which made the temporary appointments necessary was caused by the Legislative Council being reduced in size by ineligibilities to only seven members, while full strength is eleven members.

Vacancies

The vacancies are: freshman class president and secretary, sophomore vice-president, senior class president and vice-president, and one representative-at-large. Nominations to fill these vacant positions were made at the recent class meetings.

All names of candidates, excepting those nominated at class meetings, must be filed in the Graduate Manager's office by noon, February 24. Eligibility will be checked and candidates will be notified by phone of the time and place of the constitutional exam which will be given on Monday, February 27.

Petitions

Petitions will be given out at the Graduate Manager's office on Tuesday, February 28, and will be due Friday noon, March 3. Those candidates nominated at class meetings need not take out petitions.

Election campaigning will precede the opening of the polls on March 8 and 9. Publicity regulations as set down by Chuck Missman, chairman of the publicity committee, and Shirlee Casier, chairman of the election committee, include the following:

1. Three standard posters (22" by 28").
2. One banner (1 1/2' by 6').
3. No handbills.

All publicity material must be submitted to the A.S.B. office in West Hall, (not the Graduate Manager's office,) for OK and placement by the Publicity Committee. The A.S.B. can take publicity material on Monday, Wednesday and Friday between noon and 3 pm.

Name Change Issue

On the ballot for representative-at-large will be an item for change of name. Students can vote for Cubs, Grizzlies, or Pandas, or can vote to keep the name of Gauchos.

Members of the election committee, headed by Shirlee Casier, are Don Golstein, Frank Goodall, Al Hardy, Bob Christofferson, Gloria Steers, and Gerry Wheldon.

EDITORIAL CAFETERIA COMMITTEE FORMED

Following appearance in El Gaucho of several letters indicating definite student dissatisfaction with the existing situation in the college Cafeteria, Student Council has created a special committee for the purpose of discussing causes for complaint with administrative personnel in charge of cafeteria management.

This committee, headed by Doris Spotts, will meet with D. A. D. Muncy, College Business Manager, to consider student and administrative views on the subject. The purpose of these conferences will be to discover what, if anything, can be done to improve service in this vital department. It will also be the duty of the committee to report to the student body the various reasons which may be given by administrative officers for not making requested improvements.

This committee originated from student action. Its activities should be continued from the same source. Students are needed to complete the membership of the panel. Student opinion is needed to provide the basis for discussion. It is up to you to do your part. If you have the time to serve, apply to Doris Spotts for committee membership. If you don't have the time but have a valid complaint to make, send that complaint to the committee in charge of the GauchO Office.

This is our opportunity to do something about the cafeteria. We must take advantage of that opportunity by the wise presentation and careful consideration of existing problems.—H.K.H.

One University--Watkins

The annual convention of the California club was held February 5 and 6, on the Berkeley campus of the university, at which time members of the five councils of the club sat down to consider solutions to some of the problems which stand in the way of a more unified feeling amongst the eight campuses, which combined, represent the University of California.

Awareness of being a part of but one of the campuses of a much larger university is not too apparent to the average student, possibly because he is not informed of the many ways in which this association of campuses works towards his ultimate benefit. It was the desire to acquaint students with a sense of belonging in a state-wide university which prompted President Robert Gordon Sproul to organize the California club, which he founded in 1934, and of which he is still the active head.

Membership in this group is limited to twenty students on each of the five campuses of Los Angeles, Berkeley, Davis, Santa Barbara, and San Francisco, and is extended to those who are felt to be outstanding in their work for the university.

The purpose of the California club as included in the constitution of the organization is to "... maintain harmonious relations and unity among the student groups of the several campuses of the University of California through the development and maintenance of the highest possible standards of sportsmanship, friendship, and cooperation."

As one university we all share from one pot, instead of facing the state legislature with eight separate requests for budgets. As long as each campus prospers more from the one university idea than it could by itself such an arrangement is to be fostered and protected.—Taken from an editorial by Hal Watkins appearing in the Daily Bruin.

Grin and Beret

I was leafing through the worn ads which dropped and curled from the book list bulletin board. I turned away discouraged; I just couldn't find an ad for "The Intricacies of Hookah Smoking," fifth edition, for reading in Ancient Arabian Culture 171A. As I scuffed away, a friendly hand grasped my shoulder.

I righted myself and turned around. A friendly hand shoved a cigarette in my mouth a friendly voice asked, "Lookin' for a good used book, cheap?"

Does He Ever!
I gulped. "As a matter of fact, I was. Look," I said, faintly hopeful, "do you happen to have 'The Intricacies of Hookah Smoking?'" The friendly one frowned quizzically, then brightened. "As a matter of fact, I do," he said, putting another cigarette in my mouth. "Now if you'll just come with me..."

As we entered a darkened building, my companion was explaining how he had taken the book trade underground and established a campus-wide syndicate. He explained how he bought at par from students editions which were no longer used and sold them to the Government as balast for balloon ascensions and ocean voyages. I was remarking on his ingenuity when we passed a picture of a serious young man with horn-rimmed glasses. Beneath the picture burned a small dish of incense. My host explained that this was a picture of the martyred J. Mortimer Birdbath who sacrificed himself on a pyre of burning books rather than sell them at the bookstore price. We bowed our heads a full minute in silent commemoration.

Like Boston

to successfully ban books written by profs for their own courses." He guffawed gleefully in reminiscence. "Cut the royalties in half," he cried, slapping his thigh.

We passed into a room whose walls were lined with musty books. My host pulled out a mouldering edition of the book I was seeking. A price tag on its ancient cover showed that it was selling at a 75-cent reduction from its former price. Gladly, I paid the price and escaped, the precious book grasped tightly in my hot little hand. As I went by the bookstore, I expectorated neatly on the doorstep and passed on, humming merrily.

Much Ado by Jerry Noble

Well, it's a spanking new semester and the weather is turning nice and everyone should feel that they're off to a fresh start. But they don't.

Everything is new at the beginning of a semester but the professors. The subjects change but the profs remain... with different lectures but the same delivery.

Dr. Adams, that nervously energetic soul, still presents a creditable display of the art of ballet while lecturing.

The emphatic Dr. Goodspeed, Cal Club sponsor, still concludes most of his positive statements with the phrase, "very definitely."

Dr. Nettler is still starting all his sociology courses the same way and is still using the same examples to prove his point. "Did I ever tell you about the young man at Rede who studied Yoga?" he will ask. "No," the class will respond, even though they heard about the specimen in Soc. 1, Soc. 2, and at least one upper division course.

"Well," Dr. Nettler will continue, "he used to go barefoot and he'd sit out on the lawn in front of the dorms and etc., etc."

I notice also that Dr. Conrad continues to deliver his pat lectures through his Mona Lisa smile. Willie Wilton is still urging his classes to "Get this!"

And there are so many, many more little traits of our instructors that could be mentioned. And maybe later they will be.

There is one change on campus this semester. Professor Stuurman has finally gone off on his sabbatical to make that study of a poet who is thought to have been an important influence on the late and unlamented Adolph. The papers have made Mr. Stuurman's leave seem imminent for over a year so that now when he does leave it seems an anti-climax.

BENCH WARMING

with Phil Jacks, Jr.

Willie Wilton's Santa Barbara College cagemen encounter the first of four obstacles to a CCAA conference championship tonight at San Luis Obispo. In their own gym, the Mustangs of Cal Poly are never easily defeated, no matter how weak a squad they have. Make no mistake men, the Mustang's low standing in the conference is not a true indication of their potential strength. Rather, I believe that you will agree that it is an indication that the CCAA this season has some darn good basketball teams.

Whenever an athletic team has a good season, which the Santa Barbara College basketball squad has had, regardless of the outcome of the four remaining games, there is always a lot of argument about who deserves the bulk of the credit—the team or the coach. It seems fairly obvious to me that a coach's fame is built up by the teams that he has coached, and on the other hand, a team's fame is equally brought about by the coaching it has received.

Team and coach—neither can survive without the other. Poor coaching has ruined many a good team, and there have been mediocre squads that have reached the heights solely through the ability of its coach.

Therefore, when this basketball season has reached its completion, let us give our applause both to the fifteen men who comprise our varsity squad, and to their coach.

GAUCHO-MUSTANG TICKETS HERE

One hundred student tickets for tonight's UCSBC-CAL POLY basketball game in San Luis Obispo are available in the Graduate Manager's office for 25c.

Tomorrow is a holiday, so let's all follow the Gauchos to Cal Poly tonight.

Open Letter

Dear Gals,
Wendel's has some fine specials in for you all. They are pert, sweet, and oh so practical.

There are some cute batiste, eyelet trimmed blouses for 2.98 and 3.98. These are fine for both school, afternoon and evening wear.

Another fine bargain is a wool flannel, accordion pleated, plaid skirt. The colors are baked in so they can not run when cleaned as so often happens.

Run down and grab these up before they are gone and while you are there why not look at a jersey blouse to match the skirt you choose.

See you all next week,

Intra-Squad Game Shows Baseballers Getting Into Shape

Coach Spud Harder is bringing the Gaucho baseball squad into shape through a program of activities highlighted last week by an intra-squad game. In this game the "Cravens" defeated the "Baslers" 6-5 in a contest which saw most of the squad in action. Coach Harder was impressed by the throwing of Thad Picketts, young left hander. Picketts did his pitching last fall as a quarterback on the J. V. football team. Other stand-out performers were Bill Davis and Danny Kutch.

Another type of activity at the new Mesa practice field includes the erection of a new backstop and removal of the power poles which were giving the outfielders a good many bad moments. The infield is still a long way from the smooth Yankee Stadium variety but work is in progress to better the diamond.

Some schedule changes have been made which include double headers with Pepperdine and San Diego on a home and home basis. The dates for these games remain the same as in games already scheduled. Dates for the U.S.C. game have been changed to March 23 and 24.

Santa Barbara has been approached by the Medford, Oregon, professional baseball team, which holds spring practice in Santa Maria concerning a game to be held tentatively in Santa Maria. Player-Manager Tommy Nelson of the Medford team has been working out with the Gauchos. Tommy is a local business man during the off season months and is well known to many of the college students.

Gauchos Travel North To Meet Cal Poly In Basketball Game

The Golden Gauchos travel north tonight to meet the Cal Poly basketball team at San Luis Obispo. Game time is 8:30, and the game will be played in the Cal Poly gymnasium which is located on the campus.

For the Gauchos, this will be the first of four road conference games to wind up their season, and it past records mean anything, tonight's contest should be a thriller. Last year the Hilltoppers withstood a late game challenge by the Mustangs to take a 47-45 victory. Next weekend the Gauchos journey to San Diego on Friday night to meet the San Diego State Aztecs, and the following night tangle with Pepperdine College in Los Angeles. San Jose State furnishes the final competition the next week at San Jose.

Starting Five

Santa Barbara Coach Willie Wilton will probably open with Jack Moore and Hudson Scott at guards, Gene Snyder at center, and Otey Scruggs and Bob McCutcheon at forwards. All of these starters with the exception of Scruggs are seniors. Santa Barbara will be seriously hampered by the loss of center Tom Moss by injuries, and forward Don Bradshaw who was forced to withdraw from the squad because of scholastic difficulties. Both of these players had improved rapidly since the beginning of the season, and they will be sorely missed. The sharpshooting of forward Bernie Fox may help to offset this double loss.

As usual, the Mustangs will be banking on the abilities of their three-time All 2C2A Conference guard, Hank Moroski to lead them to victory. The little scrapper is equally dangerous in two-handed set shots, and in his driving under the basket tactics.

Recent Net Losses In Round Robin Promise Good Season

Some startling court upsets, incurred during recent competition in a round robin tourney, have lifted anew Coach Lyle Reynolds' hopes for a successful tennis season.

Three junior college transfers have set a blazing pace in registering startling upsets over returning Gaucho lettermen. Tops among the past week's upsets was Bill Swain's victory over senior Dick Lessler in two sets, 9-7, 7-5. Swain, a J. C. transfer from Santa Ana, won himself high praise among the Gaucho netmen by his victory, for Lessler had just previously upset highly touted freshman Stan Greer in a hard fought three set match, 6-4, 2-6, 7-5. Greer was Santa Barbara High's number one tennis boy last spring and will be ineligible for varsity competition this year.

Other Upsets

Another pair of upsets were registered by Glen Vaughn, from Compton J. C., and Cal Corry from Salinas. Corry took two sets from Don Tully, last year's number three man on Reynolds' squad, 6-4, 6-4. Vaughn ran into much spoiled the Santa Barbara College season as Beloit won over a hard fighting Gaucho quintet 57-45 at the National Guard Armory Saturday night.

The Gauchos held the Buccaneers to even terms through the second half but a Beloit 14 point halftime lead proved too much for the Gauchos to overcome.

Cal Poly Wins

On Friday, Coach Willie Wilton's crew had a bad break as the Cal Poly Mustangs downed the Gauchos 36-35 in a 2C2A thriller which Cal Poly won on a free throw after time had run out.

Saturday's contest was one of the hardest fought games of the year and saw the Gauchos move into a 5-1 lead in the early minutes. For the next few minutes a see-saw battle developed with the Buccaneers finally breaking through a very tight Gaucho defense to dominate the remaining minutes with Gene Baptist proving himself deadly on the long shots which gave the Buccaneers a 31-17 halftime lead.

Bontempts Gives Trouble

The second half saw the Gauchos clamp on a defense which held Beloit to three points in the first five minutes but Beloit then came back and Ron Bontempts made four points to give the Buccaneers a 15 point margin. Bontempts gave the Gauchos trouble in the second half as he broke loose in inopportune times.

The Gauchos then got going with Jack Moore scoring four points followed by McCutcheon with two to close the count to 49-41. Moore, who has been recovering from the flu, played a fine game for the Gauchos as he tallied 11 points and was a mainstay on defense. Beloit managed to keep their margin through the last minutes and won 57-45.

The Cal Poly game was a heart-breaker as the Gauchos battled the Mustangs to a 35-35 tie and would have gone into overtime, but a foul was called on Bill Kelso as the gun sounded and forward Paul Simpson sank his free throw to give the Mustangs their victory. The game was tight all the way through with the score being knotted seven times. The loss dropped the Gauchos out of second place in the 2C2A.

Frosh Win

The Gaucho Frosh also played two weekend tilts and won over the San Luis Obispo JC Vikings 52-51 in an overtime tilt. On Friday the Frosh lost to the Hawthorne Boys Club, 40-35.

more trouble in upsetting letterman Arnold Funai as he outdid the veteran in two of three sets, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3.

These upset scores indicate a hard fight for top positions and should please Coach Reynolds, who has been worrying over the loss of his 1949 one-two punch, Robert Wright and Alan Cobb.

Reynolds has announced a tentative match with Loyola University on the 25th of February, and, pending eligibility, he should get a real look at these boys who have shown such pre-season promise.

Track and Field Season Promises Fall Of Records; Javelin Mark Sure to be Topped

By Mike Noonan

Gaucha track and field followers should see some records fall in the course of the oncoming campaign. There is a good chance that seven marks may be surpassed before June, and three of these records are almost sure to be topped.

The mark most likely to fall is the short lived record javelin toss of 221 feet 10 1/2 inches by Del Pickarts last Spring. Pickarts should better his own distance, for he since has tossed the javelin 228 feet, and has established himself as one of the world's best javelin men. This he did over the past summer vacation when he toured Europe with an American track and field team. Though traveling with men who had outdone him in the past, Del was the first American to better the Scandinavians in the javelin event.

Otey Scruggs

The 440 mark is another record that should fall before long. This time to Otey Scruggs, coholder of the school record of 50.1 seconds. Scruggs made his mark at his first outing and has bettered it unofficially in last year's conference meet.

Willie Dancer is another man who seems destined to set a new mark, as Coach Carter predicts an inch improvement over his last record leap of 6 feet 6 1/4 inches. Willie seems to improve steadily, and Carter's hopes for a new high jump mark may readily be realized.

The long standing distance records are threatened by fast stepping Don Crie and Walter Houtz. These two are the finest distance runners to show on the Gaucha campus in some time, and both the mile and two mile times may be shortened. Carter believes Houtz capable of doing under ten minutes for the two mile to better the old mark of 10 min., 9.5 sec., and he has hopes that Don Crie can better Virgil Hooper's record mile run of 4 min., 35.2 sec.

Field Events

The hurdles and pole vault events may also have new marks by June if Carter's boys show much improvement over last year's performances. Dick Barr

McKee States ROTC Still Has Vacancies In Advanced Courses

Several vacancies in the advanced ROTC course at Santa Barbara College still remain and can offer the qualified student uniforms, textbooks and $27 a month pay, according to Col. Richard G. McKee, Professor of Military Science and Tactics.

Upon completing this advanced course the candidate will receive a reserve commission in the Army and possibly be eligible for a regular commission.

Veterans with one year of service and with two years work remaining in college may apply for the advanced course. A maximum of 60 students are allowed in this class, Col. McKee said.

Further information may be secured from the ROTC office in Elm Hall.

Speech Tournament Entry Deadline Set as February 23

Plans for an Intramural Speech Tournament open to any UCSBS cording to Dr. Evelyn Kenesson of student are being formulated, at the Speech Department. Contest date is March 27 to 31, but the entry deadline is Thursday, February 23.

Discussion of various current topics features the contest. After dinner speaking will be on "Campus Life;" extemporaneous speaking on "Current Events;" impromptu speaking on "Local Affairs;" oratory on a "Topic of Significance;" discussion on "Aid to the Orient;" and debate on "Nationalization of Basic Industry."

MUNCY REVEALS INFORMATION ON CAF

Another service is being put into operation by the College Cafeteria, it was announced by J. A. D. Muncy, Business Manager.

For groups wanting coffee, he explained, the cafeteria will now furnish it in two gallon jugs which may be borrowed from the cafeteria for short periods of time. This accommodation is offered because of the number of larger groups requesting coffee orders.

It was also stated that in order to keep prices at their present level, the students must assist the cafeteria management in the following ways:

1. Take trays and dishes to the dishwashing counter when finished eating.
2. Put all paper containers and trash in containers provided. 3. Keep trash off the floor. 4. Clean off tables when finished eating.

When the students cooperate in this manner the saving of labor enables holding the line on prices, Mr. Muncy said.

Students are reminded that they can get every 11th Gaucha Lunch free through the purchase of the Meal Ticket—giving $5.25 worth of meals for $4.75. These tickets are available at the cashier's office or in the cafeteria line.
