NEW YEAR'S EVENT STAFF
$150.00 + TIPS
Top 10 Reasons to work on New Year's Eve:
10. Instead of wasting money, get large sums of cash for having a great time.
9. Won't be forced to enjoy the sunrise from IV Foot Patrol headquarters.
8. Don't have to get desperate to find someone to kiss at midnight.
7. You're not obligated to chug cheap champagne.
6. Definitely won't yak on your friend's patio.
5. Get to watch a day of bowl games without a rippin' hangover.
4. Meet and greet celebrities and famous athletes and drive their cool cars.
3. Avoid waiting in long lines and paying ridiculous cover charges on State Street.
2. $150 cash and a bunch of tips and you don't have to strip.
1. Don't have to worry about being woken up in your car by the Las Vegas PD.

Uniting In The Fight
For Human Rights

United
Steelworkers of America

December 8, 1999

George Becker
International President

The Honorable Paul Schell
600 Fourth Avenue, 12th Floor
Seattle, WA 98104

Dear Mayor Schell:

I write as President of the United Steelworkers of America, but more importantly as an American citizen who twice enlisted in the armed services of the United States to defend our freedoms and liberties. Last week I came to Seattle to exercise my constitutional right to peacefully speak out against what I believe are the grave injustices being perpetrated against working families and their communities by the World Trade Organization. I was joined in Seattle by over 1,000 activists from my union, tens of thousands of other trade unionists as well as thousands of students, environmentalists, religious leaders, human rights activists and others. As an American citizen, I am outraged that you chose to effectively impose martial law against those of us who came to Seattle to speak out for justice and clear, fair trade.

As President of the Steelworkers, I am the democratically elected leader of a union with over 700,000 members in the United States and Canada. Currently, I am also serving as a member of the U.S. Trade Deficit Review Commission as well as being a member of the President's Export Council. Like all of the Steelworkers who came to Seattle, my union service has been devoted to improving conditions for workers in the United States, Canada and around the world.

Over the last 55 years, I have personally participated in literally thousands of marches, sit-ins, rallies and other protests as my union spoke out for workers, human and civil rights and the environment. I have traveled extensively throughout the world on behalf of my union's effort to help workers everywhere achieve dignity. But never have I ever seen anything quite like what I witnessed in your city last week. The treatment by your police force towards peaceful, non-violent demonstrators embarrassed me as an American. The treatment of steelworkers, students, and others was absolutely inexcusable — young protestors being gassed without provocation, beaten while backing away from police in a gesture of peace, kicked and beaten while laying face down on the street, and "pepper sprayed" while kneeling on the ground with their hands behind their heads. Members of my union were tear gassed while walking back to their hotel after a peaceful labor march on Tuesday and a peaceful rally at the Seattle docks on Wednesday. In the latter case they were nowhere near your "no-protest" zone. It appears that the only people left alone were the small group of hooligans who took advantage of the protest to damage property and loot stores.

The scene in Seattle bore an unsettling resemblance to the one in Tiananmen Square ten years ago. SWAT Teams, police in riot gear, armored vehicles following peaceful citizens, national guardsmen on the streets, and arbitrary arrests all being used to intimidate and silence citizens speaking out for justice. The only things missing were the real bullets and the tanks. The American people expect this to happen in China where workers and students have no rights, but we are appalled that you would allow it to happen in America.

Our members came to Seattle to learn about the WTO and the very real impact that the global economy is having on ordinary Americans. We were there for more than just the labor march on Tuesday. Steelworkers spent four full days learning that we are not alone in this struggle. For quite some time we have been speaking out about how the rules of the WTO are driving a "race to the bottom" for workers. In Seattle we learned firsthand that in the area of basic human rights, the race has already begun as well.

Sincerely,

George Becker
International President

Fighting Worker Exploitation
Gauchos Denied Final Four Appearance by #2 Stanford

By Marvin Galipulos
Staff Writer

When it comes to the NCAA Championship Playoffs, things of the unexpected nature are to be well, expected.

The #7 UCSB women’s volleyball team had its share of pleasant and not so pleasant surprises this past week in its matches against #10 Nebraska in the Sweet 16 and then #2 Stanford in the Elite 8 of the NCAA Championships in Stanford.

Last Thursday, the Gauchos matched up against an imposing, taller Nebraska team—a team that was expected to dominate the net against the smaller UCSB players. However, this was not the case as Santa Barbara took the match in four games 15-7,15-13,15-8,15-13.

"I knew we could win that match, but I never imagined we could go out and dominate," UCSB Head Coach Kathy Gregory said. "Nebraska is a very well coached team, but I think that was one of the best defensive matches we’ve played all season."

The Santa Barbara defense was definitely deserving of Gregory’s praise as five Gauchos had double-digit dig performances. UCSB was led by sophomore defensive specialist Desiree Rook, who had a career-high 20 digs.

Senior outside hitter Roberta Gehlke posted 16 digs, while freshmen outside hitter Brooke Niles and sophomore setter Brooke Rundle had 13 digs each. Sophomore middle blocker Jutta Weissenborn added 10 digs. Although UCSB out-dug the Huskers 87-80, the Gauchos’ digs were not the only defensive plays keeping the Huskers from getting any hits to fall. Santa Barbara, being the smaller team, showed that it could defend as well as the bigger Huskers could, racking up 10 blocks to Nebraska’s 14. Weissenborn led the Gauchos with six blocks.

"Santa Barbara’s defense was not the only thing that kept the Cornhuskers out of sync, as the Gauchos put together a well balanced attack as well. Senior outside hitter Charlene Conley led the Gauchos with 13 kills. Senior middle blocker Michelle Christ had 14 put-aways, while Gehlke and Weissenborn finished with 12 and 11 digs, respectively. Rundle finished with 42 assists."

With the disposal of Nebraska, the Gauchos advanced to their second Elite 8 appearance in three years on Friday.

"I thought Derrick Allen had his best effort of the season," Williams said. "Adama Ndiaye had his best effort, and we got another really good performance out of Mark Hull. The pieces are starting to come together."

Santa Barbara showed that it was a team coming together throughout the game. In the first half of play, the Gauchos jumped to an early 10-4 lead. However the Waves surged and went on a run of its own behind Hull, who scored the last six points of the half for the Gauchos on two layups and four free throws. Santa Barbara was down by only three at the intermission, 28-25.

"We had a week to prepare for us, and they did some good things against our press and converted there," Pepperdine Head Coach Jan van Breda Kolff said. "They also hit the boards well."

The UCSB men’s basketball team nearly rode the Waves of Pepperdine to a victory Saturday evening but were instead washed ashore to another defeat.

The Gauchos (1-5 overall) stayed close in the 68-64 loss throughout the contest, out-rebounding the Waves 42-39 and even handling Pepperdine’s full-court pressure, giving up 17 turnovers to the Waves 14. However, the shooting woes of UCSB continued, as the team shot just 34.5 percent from the floor and was unable to hit the big shots it needed to pull ahead of Pepperdine (6-2) late in the game.

"I thought we had a great shot at this game tonight," UCSB Head Coach Bob Williams said. "They do a great job of trapping, but when we did break the trap and rotate the ball, we got some open looks. We need to knock those down."

The Gauchos shooting guards combined for an ugly 2-20 from the field as juniors Brandon Payne and LaRon Bryant finished 0-7 and 0-1, respectively. Senior Erick Ashe ended the night with six points on 2-12 shooting. In contrast, senior point guard Derrick Allen turned in another solid performance with nine points, three rebounds, and dished out five assists to only one turnover. Junior forward Adama Ndiaye put up 11 points and pulled down seven boards, while freshman forward Mark Hull led the Gauchos with 19 points and pulled down seven boards as well.

Pepperdine Waves Able to Roll Over UCSB Hoopsters in 68-64 Victory playoffs two years ago on the same Maple Pavilion floor — the Stanford Cardinal. This time around, the Cardinal used an unexpected weapon in its three-game 15-12, 15-6, 15-10 sweep of the Gauchos, and that weapon came in the form of tough serving. Stanford's Kerri Walsh crushed Santa Barbara's passing game with a jump serve that earned her four service aces.

"[Walsh's serve] was a complete surprise," Gehlke said. "We haven't seen a whole lot of good jump serves this season, so we weren't really ready for it."

However, the Cardinal's serving was not the only problem for the Gauchos, who lacked the same balanced attack that they showed the previous night against Nebraska. Gehlke was the only Gaucho with either double-digit kills or double-digit digs, as she finished the match with 22 put-aways and 12 digs. Gehlke was also selected to the Pacific Regional All-Tournament Team along with teammate Rundle. While both squads finished with 44 digs each, Stanford tipped the scales as it out-blocked UCSB 14-4.

"Our defense definitely wasn't as good as it was against Nebraska," Gehlke said. "We let a lot of tips drop because we were on our heels waiting for the big kill." The Gauchos ended their season with an impressive 29-6 mark. The Cardinal now advance to the Final Four of the NCAA Championship in Honolulu, Hawai'i this weekend and will face #6 Long Beach State on Dec. 16.

an assist by Hull and Jordani hit a jumper for Santa Barbara's biggest lead 42-36 with 13:06 left to play. The Waves took the lead back though, behind senior forward Tommie Prince, who heated up and kept the Gauchos at bay as he scored six points in the next three minutes on two consecutive dunks and a jumper from outside. Prince, who finished with 12 points, had help from sophomore guard Brandon Armstrong down the stretch. Armstrong scored 12 points in the second half and ended the night with 20.

"Losses are not very good for me," Allen said. "I come in the locker room, my head is down, but I'm still positive. I liked the toughness that our team played with today. This is probably the best time we've ever played mentally or physically."

A Quick Look at 1999

This isn't a column about the 1990s. Nor is it a column about the past century listing the best athletes to ever step on a playing surface. It could be, but I really don't have that much room. This is just a column highlighting the good, bad and ugly of the sports year 1999. It started off with the Tennessee Volunteers winning the National Championship, the year after Peyton Manning left. Now, he's in the NFL tearing apart defenses with the help of his good buddy Marvin Harrison. Who would have thought the Colts are 11-2? Hell, who would have thought the Rams would be 11-2? The UCSB men's and women's basketball teams each won the Big West Western Division and headed to Reno as number one seeds. Gaucho fever caught and the Gauchoholics were formed. But Chancellor Yang thought the name was a reference to alcohol and made the athletic department change it. A reference to alcohol at our school? No way. Anyhow, the Gauchos came about and haven't let the administration take them down yet.

John Elway won the Super Bowl again. Then, he rode his Bronco into the sunset, leaving near the top of his game. The San Antonio Spurs took the NBA crown, only after the owners almost ruined the season. But, Tim Duncan and David Robinson proved too much for the NBA and are the best one-two combo since Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. Elway, Michael Jordan, Wayne Gretzky, Charles Barkley — thanks for all the memories.

We lost a lot of greats. Rest in Peace Payne, Wilt, Walter to name a few, and the many others that had touched our hearts on their respective fields of play.

Mark McGwire and Sammy Sosa kept fans intrigued with their home run hunts. McGwire hit 70, Sosa 66. At these prices, it's too bad we don't sell cars.

again, but this time there was a pitcher that did it too. Pedro Martinez is the real MVP of the American League. How fitting is it that the New York Yankees won the World Series? The turn of the century winning the last World Series before the millennium. Not too shabby.

Our UCSB football team went undefeated. Again. But, the other teams to take the pitch at Harder Stadium sure did turn it around and their coaches were rewarded with Coach of the Year honors.

Tiger Woods is at the top of his game again, and David Duval has vanished. Pete Sampras and Andre Agassi continue to make me watch tennis. Anna Kournikova is the most commercialized #2 player I have ever seen.

Evander Holyfield lost twice to Lennox Lewis. Only once did it count against him. Lawrence Phillips really is a bust. It took three teams to figure that out. He's the best European star though. Great. Ryus Leaf should do us all a favor and die.

Scott Boras is ruining the game of baseball. Ken Griffey Jr. will make any team he goes to an instant contender.

Phil Jackson couldn't stay in Montana that long. He had to ride his Harley to L.A. and take on a team of misfits and is making them good, like they should be. Besides, he knew Bill Bradley didn't have a chance in the Presidential race and couldn't be affiliated with a loser. Scottie Pippen is a baby. The Lakers should keep Glen Rice and get rid of Kobe, the best playground star to be in the NBA.

Jeff Gordon and Laffit Pincay went to the top of their respective racing playgrounds.

Peter Warrick and J.R. Redmond proved to the world that college sports is still being corrupted. The BCS sucks and the NCAA should let fans vote. Ron Dayne deserved the Heisman.

I know I couldn't fit everything into this space, but this is what you get. Deal with it. Have a Happy New Year.
