ELECTION DUE ON $2.50 HIKE IN A.S.B. MEMBERSHIP FEE

Another Santa Barbara College student body election was scheduled by the Student Council in regular meeting last Tuesday night when that group approved an amendment to the constitution that will raise the fee for Associated Students membership from $7.50 to $10.00, plus tax. The election will be held on Tuesday, December 2, on both campuses.

Recommended to Gaucho students by a unanimous Council vote, the measure is designed to offset the greatly increased cost of equipment and services paid for with Associated Students funds. Al Rasmussen, Student Council vice-president who put the amendment before Council, pointed out that while membership fee has been $7.50 since 1938, prices have doubled since then.

The proposed amendment would change Article II, section (a) of the constitution to read, "All registered students of the University of California, Santa Barbara College, carrying seven units or more, shall pay the Associated Students membership fee of $10.00 plus tax and receive the benefits of active membership in this organization."

Insert Fixed Fee

As first introduced to Council, the measure did not stipulate the amount of the AS fee, but provided that it should be determined by the Student Council with the approval of the Board of Regents. Rasmussen explained that if the fixed amount were removed from the constitution, the fee could in future be adjusted to meet current inflationary or deflationary trends without resorting to a student body election.

At the suggestion of Dr. Russell Buchanan, faculty adviser to Council, who pointed out that there might develop strong student opposition to giving Council "a blank check," the amendment was altered to include the fixed $10.00 fee.

The constitutional change must receive a two-thirds majority vote to be adopted. If carried, it will be effective next September. The election has been scheduled for the earliest possible date so that, if the amendment carries, the new fee may be noted in next year's catalog.

Colleges Waste Time In Overspecialization, Chicago Prexy Says

"Most American colleges do as much harm as good, waste as much time as they use well, and turn out as many failures as successes." That's the opinion of Robert M. Hutchins, chancellor of the University of Chicago.

In an exclusive interview in Varsity magazine Chancellor Hutchins provides several answers to the question: "What's wrong with America's colleges and high schools?" Foremost, he says, is the trend towards specialization that begins in even the earliest schooling years. "Students learn to raise poultry, file library books, and predict the weather—but they don't get a sound cultural background."

Overlapping Courses

"Most schools," the young and militant educator told Varsity, "have overlapping courses that teach the same thing again and again. Or, at the other extreme, they hammer away at so small a segment of the subject that they teach nothing at all. Students learn one poem down to the last comma—but learn little about poetry in general."

In his own school, Hutchins declared, students can be graduated at eighteen or nineteen years of age—giving them time to specialize and receive doubly-complete educations by the time their counterparts in other colleges have received their bachelor's degrees.

3 Here Win Prizes In Debate Contest

Three prizes were won by Santa Barbara college students at the recent debating contest held at George Pepperdine College. All major Southern California schools participated.

Winifred Wood took first place in women's impromptu speaking and third place in women's oratory. Maggie Wheeler and Paul Kliss placed third in dramatic team acting.

Sweepstakes at this preparatory contest were taken by Pepperdine college.

Soviet-American Relations Topic of College Congress

Stanford University, Nov. 20.—"Soviet-American Relations" will be the topic to be considered by 80 student delegates attending the Western College Congress to be held at Stanford, November 24, 25 and 26.

Delegates from Santa Barbara College are Jan Fitts and Richard Battelle, who will leave for Stanford early next week.

Choose Moderators

Cliff Forster, chairman of the Stanford Associated Students International Conference committee in charge of the congress, announced today that members of the Stanford faculty have been selected as moderators for all but one of the seven working sections of the congress program.

The working section topics and the moderators who will open the proceedings and preside over the election of student chairmen who will direct the delegates' discussions were announced by Forster as:

1. Basic Causes of Soviet-American Differences; moderator, Dr. Harold H. Fisher, director of the Hoover Library and Institute.

2. European Economic Reconstruction: the Marshall Plan; moderator, Dean Carl B. Spaeth of the Stanford Law School, who joined the Stanford faculty last year after five years' service with the State Department.

3. Soviet-American Differences in the United Nations; moderator, Charles Allen, special assistant in the Hoover Library now doing graduate work on the use of the veto in the United Nations.

4. Atomic Energy; moderator, Dr. Russel V. Lee, Palo Alto physician, member of the Stanford

Cathcart, Crilley Boosted For Little All-American

By Jack Nedell

This year Santa Barbara is blessed not only with a fine team, but also with at least two candidates for "Little All-American" honors. Throughout the season the Gauchos have had a smooth-running team with everyone playing his position well. Nevertheless, there have been two players that have stood out and have shown themselves to be exceptionally great. These two men are fast and deceptive Sam Cathcart at half, and George Crilley, a sensational hard-hitting guard.

Sam Cathcart certainly needs no introduction, for he has been plunging through the line, skirting the ends, and making it tough for the opposition in general all season. Sam, who is in his second year at UCSBC, comes from Long Beach as does his brother Royal, also a good half-back. Besides his natural ability as a football player, Sam is a track man; and last year was selected as all CCAA lightweight boxing champion.

HITS STRIDE

Sammy is six feet tall, tips the scales at 165, and is 23 years old. Although he played football last year and was one of the shiftiest men on the team, he really hit his stride this year as shown by his brilliant broken field running and line smashing drives.

Sam started out this season by scoring the first TD of the year in the Pomona game. Since then he has tallied in all but two games. In the San Jose game Sammy was fairly well bottled up except for one beautiful 62 yard run that was called back. Also in last week's game he was unable to cross the Fresno goal line, but he broke away for several good gains. Mr. Cathcart has an exceptional all around record with no less than 10 touchdowns to his credit, and the season not yet over. He has carried the ball 66 times for a total of 366 yards, which makes

Cercle Gaulois Meet To Feature Skit On French History

Le Cercle Gaulois, college French club, will hold its next meeting on Tuesday, November 25, in the north wing of Neighborhood House at 8 p.m.

At this meeting, the first in a series of skits based on French history will be presented. Admission will be by membership card. Those who do not as yet have cards may obtain them before the meeting from the treasurer by paying their dues.

an average of 5.6 yards per try. KICK RETURNS

Sam has returned five kick-offs for a total of 154 yards to make an average of 30.8 yards, one return being a touchdown run. In this division, however, he must share honors with speedy Mel Patton, who has an excellent average of 32 yards per return, two of which ended up in tallies. In punt returns, Sam again heads the list, returning six punts 159 yards for an average of 26.5 yards per return. One of these also ended with Sam going the distance for six.

To further show Sam Cathcart's right to "Little All-American" honors, it was he who scored twice against the leading CCAA team, the College of Pacific. This strong COP team, undefeated in the con-

SORORITY PLEDGE LIST CORRECTED

Townfolk Extend Turkey 'Invite' To Gaucho Co-Eds

Thoughtful Santa Barbara residents will open their homes to Gaucho women students unable to make the trek to the family larder on Thanksgiving Day.

Several local families have placed requests with Miss Bower, Dean of Womens office, for the assistance of co-eds interested in helping serve the turkey. Students accepting the offers will be included in the holiday atmosphere, and will also be paid for their services.

Those interested may secure the places by talking with Miss Bower.

ROOTERS' TRAIN

Tickets for the San Diego Gaucho Rooters' Train are still on sale at the Santa Fe ticket office in the Carrillo Hotel, from 9 to 5 every weekday. Round trip price is $3.75.

UCSCB to Contribute To Friendship Train

"Catch a plane for the Friendship Train."

That's the slogan sparking a Gaucho fund-raising drive scheduled for next Wednesday, November 26, to send a student body and faculty contribution to the Friendship Train now unloading food for hungry Europe onto freight vessels in New York City. Campus quota has been set at $500—75 cents a person.

Due to a lack of publicity and an organized campaign, Gaucho students were unable to contribute to the Train when it went through Santa Barbara early in the month. Wide-spread feeling that the college should "climb aboard" has instituted a drive to send a sizeable check by airmail to the Mayor of New York for delivery to Train officials.

Volunteer Services

Members of Las Espuelas and Key and Scroll, campus service groups, have volunteered to contact each Gaucho on the Riviera campus. Tables will be set up in the Quad, and contribution boxes will be placed at the end of the cafeteria line. On the Mesa campus, funds will be collected by Alpha Phi Omega.

Strictly a non-partisan, non-organizational project, the Friendship Train has snowballed across the United States, meeting instant and spirited public response at every stop. Leaving Los Angeles on November 7 with 12 carloads of provisions, including one from Santa Barbara, the Train had mushroomed to 120 carloads at Chicago and had to be split into two sections. It pulled into New York last Tuesday with over 270 carloads of wheat, rice, canned goods and other foods donated by the American people. The train equipment, services of train personnel, and the ships which will take the Friendship cargo to Europe have been given free of charge.

J.V. MEETS AMVETS IN FINAL GAME AT LA PLAYA TONIGHT

The Santa Barbara Junior Varsity football team makes its 1947 farewell appearance tonight at 8:15 p.m. against the Santa Barbara Amvets, in La Playa Stadium.

Early ratings give the Amvets a slight edge over the younger and inexperienced Junior Varsity, but the JV's have been coming along with every game, and are at their peak as far as condition goes.

Flying Pigskin

The Amvets, with George Batzianis and Chuck Vasquez spearheading the attack, will fill the air with pigskin in an effort to open the defense so that their none too potent running attack will be able to function.

The Junior Gauchos have been working on their passing game, a weakness that has been too apparent thus far this season. Quarterback Otey Scruggs, and half-back Val Hellikson will do the chucking for the Jay Vees, and if either of them have a good night they could make it very uncomfortable for the Vets.

Glen Conradi, operating at full-back, is the power in the JV backfield, with Giles Godfrey and "Mac" McAdams providing the speed.

JV Non-Winners

Four wins and four losses tells the story on the Amvets this season, while the Junior Varsity has yet to dent the victory column. Two of the Amvets losses were to the powerful San Pedro Athletic Club, a team which has racked up 32 straight wins. The only common foe of the two rivals in tonight's game is the Santa Maria Athletic Club, which was defeated twice by the Amvets, and in turn defeated the Junior Varsity in the closing seconds of the game.

As this is the first All-Santa Barbara football game of the season, and will feature so many players on both sides who are known by the fans, a great local interest has been aroused. All in all, a great evening of football entertainment is promised, so it is hoped that a large turnout of college students will materialize for the kickoff.

Take Photos

A photographer will be present at the November 25 meeting of the Rally Committee for the purpose of obtaining pictures for La Cumbre.

It is requested that all members of the committee be present, as no further photographs will be taken.

Mumbles, Kappa Sigs Readying for Mardi Gras Dance Tonight

"Donfor getodi gup thac os tume forthe Mar digra sdance."

You want to know what Mumbles said?

Well, this is it: "Don't forget to dig up that costume for the Mardi Gras Dance." It seems that even Mumbles has got the word and plans to attend, Dick Tracy permitting.

For those who crave more information concerning the affair, here are the details.

Refreshments to Taste

The dance is being held tonight at the Veteran's Memorial Building, from 10 p.m. to 1 a.m. There will be refreshments to suit each individual's taste served on tables in the upstairs lounge. Music will be furnished by the "Stardusters."

There will be two prizes awarded, one for the best individual costume, and another for the couple in the most unique costumes, best typifying the New Orleans Mardi Gras spirit.

Heading the decorations committee for the dance will be Sam Dimas, assisted by pledges Hugh Edsel, George Stevenson, Bob Smith and Jack Schreckengost. Chuck Kneeland is handling the ticket sale with the assistance of all the actives and pledges. In charge of publicity is Tom Purtell.

Admission will be $1.60 a couple.

UNITE

FELLOW STUDENTS (via the Editor):

As we all know, the Student Council passed a measure charging twenty-five cents admission to all football games to cover the necessary expenses not cared for in the budget. That was supposedly a grand gesture on the part of the Council.

But do you know the details: the student council GETS IN FREE. Yes, it is easy to charge others, but it is much easier to omit yourself from the general rule. STUDENTS OF THE COLLEGE, UNITE!!!

Grand Gesture

We have read much of the necessity for the 25 cent charge, but not one line has appeared about the council's grand gesture in voting to let themselves into all games free. If the council can so vote, cannot the students also vote themselves out of paying? Yes!!! Stand for your rights. Write your councilman. Let him know that he will not be re-elected if such practices continue. The next thing we know, council will be voting itself free tuition and books. UNITE!

Phrateres Units To Compete For Service Cup

A general meeting of all members of the Phrateres, held in the Riviera Auditorium on Monday, November 17, the group adopted a system by which the outstanding 1947-48 sub-chapter of Phrateres will receive a service cup at the end of the school year.

The system by which the award will be made is to be based on points for membership, participation in activities, individual club activities and achievement.

The cup will be engraved each year with the winning sub-chapter's name and the year. An honorary certificate will be presented for the sub-chapter's scrap book.

"AH, WILDERNESS DUE DECEMBER 5-6 CITES HUMAN FOLLY

The term comedy is applied to plays designed primarily to arouse laughter through the presentation of major and minor calamities which arise from the folly and irrationality of human beings. Such a play is "Ah, Wilderness!" which will be given by the speech department December 5th and 6th.

The cast includes Walter Beaver, as newspaper publisher Nat Miller; Wesley Tackett as his sympathetic and understanding wife, Essie; Dean Arnold as his bewildered son, Richard; Del Jeanne Palmer as his adolescent daughter; John Erickson as the eldest

Council Notes

At a regular meeting last Tuesday night, the Student Council: Heard a report from the Judiciary Committee, Betty Moore, chairman, that action on card games in the cafeteria has been shelved, at least until "rainy weather"; and that the committee is investigating "spontaneous and premeditated" cheating in examinations. Findings and recommendations will be submitted at the next council meeting.

PLATTAH' CHATTAH'

A recent release worth the listening time is Johnny Mercer's "Sugar Blues." This is Mercer at his gravel-throated best, and his lyrics give the song a jump that really revitalizes this old tune.

Kenton's latest musical monstrosity is "Curiosity." June Christy does the singing very ably, and the addition of a "bongo drum" to the rhythm section puts this record across. The other side, "Theme To The West," however, is positively the worst disc Kenton has ever conceived.

Other new records bound to hit the hit parade are:

"The Gentleman is a Dope"—Jo Stafford.

"A Fellow Needs A Girl"—Gordon MacRae.

PICTURE PATTAH'

Ginger Rogers leaves four millionaires standing at the altar because she has a hidden yen for Cornel Wilde. In fact, there are two Wildes. One is a real fireman who puts out fires, and the other is a figment of Miss Rogers' imagination who runs around in an Indian suit kindling a fire in her heart for an old flame, who is really the fireman. Anyway, the picture is "It Had To Be You." "You" is Mr. Wilde, and the picture is one of the cleverest and wackiest to come out of Hollywood in a long time. It's comedy with a capital "OK."

READIN' MATTAH'

Maybe he never wrote for "El Gauchito," nevertheless Ernie Pyle is one of the best American writers of the decade. Pyle's last book, "Home Country" shows no literary embellishments, or the striving for style of many of the present day books. Instead it is just plain honest writing about the American people. Written in down-to-earth style it is a book to be enjoyed by any lover of America and its people.

RADIO STATAH'

In the past, the Gauchito-KIST hour was a pretty sad show. Last Thursday, however, a couple of collegians, Bob Wheeler, and Bob Eskew, wrote and produced "The Cyclotron Factory," a show that compared favorably with many of the professional network shows.

The program started with a visit to an imaginary cyclotron factory, with Wheeler acting as the comic guide, and Eskew as the straight-faced narrator. The comedy and satire developing from this were really top-notch radio entertainment. More power (wattage that is) to Gauchos like Wheeler and Eskew.

Model-Airs Club Building Gas-Powered Planes

Santa Barbara College students who have creative instincts along air-borne lines are invited to join the newly organized College Model-Airs which meets each Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Mesa room 105.

The College Model-Airs are presently engaged in construction of several gasoline-powered model airplanes. Various Mesa power tools and equipment are available to club members.

Recently elected officers of the Model-Airs are Morris Kopp, president; Bob Killough, vice-president; and Miriam Low, secretary-treasurer.

Lip Reading Classes Offered to Hard of Hearing

Lip reading classes are being held at the Community Institute on Monday and Wednesday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30 for persons having slight defects in hearing.

These classes, sponsored by the Community Institute, are open to anyone desiring such training and are given free of charge.

Many veterans were discharged from the service with defective hearing, and it is the purpose of these classes to help them converse their hearing through the aid of lip reading, said Mr. Selmer O. Wake, principal of the adult day and evening school.

Students are given the opportunity to practice training the eye and mind in the movement of speech, and to develop visual memory and alertness in comprehension of thought of speech.

Current events, stories, and activities to aid in developing each movement are carried out by Mrs. Burkett Bergl, instructor and specialist in lip reading work.

Fifteen students are enrolled in these classes and it is hoped that many more will take advantage of this program.

NEW ATOM-SMASHER OPERATES AT U.C.

Berkeley, Nov. 20.—The first modern linear accelerator, a new type of atom smasher, has gone into operation at the University of California, firing a beam of protons, the nuclei of hydrogen atoms, of 32 million electron volts. The new atom gun was built under the auspices of the Atomic Energy Commission, under the direction of Professor Luis W. Alvarez, young nuclear physicist in the University's Radiation Laboratory.

The atom-smasher is the most powerful instrument ever constructed for the purpose of accelerating protons. The giant 4000-ton cyclotron accelerates more energetic protons as by products of routine bombardments, though not as primary particles.

THE CAMPUS CORNER

Dear Potti Parslups—

I saw you on campus today in your costume for the dance tonight. Real clever masquerade costume! But won't the boss be mad? We're supposed to wear store clothes on Fridays. Oh! Pardon me! I didn't mean to be insulting—lost my head!

Oh well, let's begin again.

I hate to face the bold fact but Christmas is only 30 shopping days away! Here's a real inexpensive gift for your roomie or Housemother or anyone you would like to remember during the holidays. A dram of Helena Rubinstein's "Heaven Scent" perfume. It's packaged in an acetate star for only $1.25—the perfect gift.

Here's a real scoop! After all these months of doing without Nubby Knit sweaters, they're finally back in existence. J. R. got a terrific shipment with lush colors—blue, red, beige, and mint. Long and short sleeved cardigans—$9.95. Long-sleeved slipovers—$7.95. You'd better hurry.

Now, something real special for those extra-special dates—beautiful suede bags—small pouchy style. Four shades: brown, black, wine, and balenciaga (tan to you!) Their own special price is only $7.95.

I have a clever idea for your costume for the Mardi Gras tonight. Why don't you come as a cadaver and drop dead!

Ouch ! !

Gerry.

P. S.—How could you miss Dolores Dahl last Monday in that gorgeous cardigan jacket—a lush shade of watermelon red? Her skirt was a multi-colored plaid wool. Wow!

Leon Litwack, Hugh Denton, Jack Hossack, Bob Thompson, Leland Crawford, Ray Lloyd-Lois Vedder, Bill Burke - Carolyn Fintzelberg were among the Gauchos in the rooting section. Taking in the Parisienne dance afterwards were Lloyd McKinney and Margie Rogers, Doug Rush with Lorraine Arturo, and Polly and Don Truett.

Polka-ing

The little Swiss Chalet was quite the popular gathering place after the game too. Hank Winters, Doris Pickett, Patty Powell and Craig Hess, Nelda and Stan Darrow, Joan Anderson and Clay Orahood thoroughly enjoyed themselves doing the polka, Varsouviana, and other folk dances. They report it's loads of fun.

Chocolates appeared in Compton Monday night announcing the engagement of Myrna Biswell to Sig Pi prexy Mel Powell. The two Gauchos plan to be married come summer. And Nancy Ware from Oxy has captured the heart of Ray Kubly, member of the new Delta Sig fraternity on campus; no definite wedding date has been set for the two. Best wishes Ray and Nancy, Myrna and Mel.

Hitting the bright spots in town of late have been Don Craig and Harriet Heart, Bob Wheeler with Audrey Scott. And hero of last week was Stanford Bingham—he pulled Donna Hill out from a canoe which had pinned her under the water in the boating class.

Betty Skavdahl's face was certainly red the other day. Everyone was admiring her new suit so she stood up to show it off to better advantage, and out popped a price tag from her sleeve. You say you'd never worn the suit before, Betty?

See you at the Jay Vee-Amvet football game tonight and the Mardi Gras afterward. Prizes for best costumes, says Kappa Sig prexy George Graves, so we expect to see every sort of weird garment.

BENCH WARMING

With Phil Jacks
The selection of Sam Cathcart and George Crilley as Santa Barbara College's nominations for Little All-American should meet with everyone's approval. There are certainly no more conscientious or harder workers on the team, and I don't think that anyone will doubt their ability.

Whether or not the publicity that we intend to send out on these men will do any good or not remains to be seen, but all we can do is our best, and hope for an affirmative result.

HOME FINALE

Tonight at La Playa Stadium, the Santa Barbara College Junior Varsity football team tangles with the SB Amvets in the JV's last home game of the season. The JV's have yet to taste victory, but have been improving with each game, so an action packed game should be on tap. Win or lose, you can be sure that the Junior Gauchos will be out fighting every minute, so why not plan to attend?

ROSE FEVER

USC 26, UCLA 13

I might be wrong on this one, boys, so don't bet your beer money on it. Whenever a very good team meets a good team, anything is liable to happen. When a bid to the Rose Bowl is an added incentive, something usually does happen.

I think that the Trojans are the better team. You can throw out their poor showing against Stanford, because it is next to impossible to get a team worked up about a game that they figure to win by three or more touchdowns. Even Notre Dame, ranked first nationally, could do no better than a three touchdown victory over Army, and this was the game that the Irish had awaited for four years. I am not trying to compare Stanford with Army, but I am trying to point out that spirit is an important part of every big game.

The Bruins have the spirit. Cal Rossi, Joe's brother, stated in no uncertain terms that the Uclans would take the Trojans. The newspapers have bolstered the Westwood boys' hopes by giving them a better than good chance of winning. Granted, but the Troys are tremendously fired up over this game. This is more than a chance to clinch a bowl bid; this is a chance to meet the Notre Dame Fighting Irish with an undefeated record. Don't think that this isn't important to the Trojans. They want to clash with the Irish on even footing, no holds barred, and no excuses.

All of this dribble may mean exactly nothing, but I think that it will be the deciding factor in this, the coast's biggie of the week.

BOWL MIXUP

While on the subject of the Rose Bowl, etc., it is interesting to note that a very unusual situation will ference, was unable to stop Sammy as he went 82 yards on the opening kickoff of the second half, and then came right back to score again on a sensational 24 yard run.

UNSUNG HERO

Whereas Sam Cathcart can stand on his record, George Crilley is one of those unsung heroes who never seem to receive all the credit they deserve. But those of us who have watched the squad closely have seen him consistently breaking up opponents' plays and paving the way for many of the Gaucho TD's. George has already had an interesting football career previous to his coming to Santa Barbara. He comes from Fullerton where he was all-league for two years at high school and also all-league at Fullerton J. C. George is 5 ft. 9 in., weighs 195, is 24 years old, and a member of the junior class.

It is unfortunate that there can be no accurate record for the position of guard, because if there was, George Crilley would have as good a record on paper as any member of the squad. He is oftentimes noted for being the fifth man in the opposition's backfield, and on several occasions has recovered fumbles setting up Santa Barbara scores. He is equally good on defense and offense, as many would-be runners have discovered after trying to break through his position.

George is soft-spoken both on and off the football field, but he has carried out the adage that "actions speak louder than words", arise if the Bruins dump the Trojans tomorrow. This would throw the conference into a four-way tie; SC, UCLA, California, and Oregon. In case of a tie, there is no set procedure to be followed to select the West Coast representative. The Northern block could very well vote Oregon in. The Southern block would more than likely vote the Trojans in anyway, unless the Bruins knock off the SC boys by a goodly margin, in which case they would probably select . . . Howinell did I get mixed up in this in the first place? Maybe they will send Montana.

and has done it very well indeed. STAFF AGREE

The Athletic Staff here at Santa Barbara College, notably Head Coach Stan Williamson, and Assistant Coach "Doc" Kelliher, heartily agree that these two men are definitely "Little All-American" material. Director of Athletics Spud Harder seconded the motion, and has already recommended Sam Cathcart to a national board.

To these two, who are fine men as well as great football players, Santa Barbara gives a salute as its nomination for the ranks of "Little All-American."

FOOTBALL KICKING CONTEST DUE DECEMBER 3

A gigantic football kicking contest will be sponsored by A. J. Watkins, a local business man, at Santa Barbara college, December 3, 1947, from one o'clock p.m. to five o'clock. The contestants will be rated by points and the person with the highest point score will receive an award to be presented by the sponsor.

The contest will consist of punting for distance, punting for accuracy, place kicking and dropkicking. In punting for distance the number of points will be awarded according to the average yardage of five punts. In the accuracy department points will be graded on the total number of points earned for nearness to the goal line. Points on place kicking will be five for each placement or dropkick made.

This contest is open to all who are interested. Those who wish to compete should report to La Playa Stadium on Wednesday, December 3. Every one has an equal chance and anyone interested will find additional information in future issues of El Gaucho.

Joe Mooney

MAYBE you've heard other good disks of this tune—but that was before Joe Mooney waxed it. His record is a standout. Another record that stands out is the record of Camel cigarettes. More men and women are smoking Camels than ever before!

You'll find the answer in your "T-Zone" (T for Taste and T for Throat). Try Camels. Discover why, with smokers who have tried and compared, Camels are the "choice of experience."
