Seven BSU Leaders Taken; Second Time in Two Weeks

Seven members of the Black Student Union (BSU), including chairman Maurice Rainey, were arrested yesterday morning after Sheriff's deputies entered one apartment with an eviction notice and another with a felony warrant.

Rainey, Rashidi Ali, Deborah Poole, Robert Allen, Mike Harris, and Vallejo Ryan Kennedy were all arrested at 6765 Del Playa about 8:30 a.m. on the strength of a "writ of possession," which legally allows the police to remove the residents of an apartment and inventory all property in the building in order to differentiate between the property of the landlord and that of the tenant.

These were the second and third incidents in the last two weeks involving BSU members and charges of stolen property.

Income Property Management, which handles the apartment, denied knowledge of the eviction notice. The writ was sworn out

BSU Letter Asks Support; Cites Harassment

Fellow Students, It has become obvious that police harassment is not some abstract concept in a sociology text book; it is a reality which is happening at the University of California Santa Barbara. The predictions of massive police suppression are being fulfilled before our eyes. It is time that the student body begin to see the shame and forces which permeate this academic community.

In the last week, nine members of the Black Student Union have been arrested.

apartment was charged with suspicion of burglary, receiving stolen goods, possession of dangerous narcotics, possession of marijuana for sale, and possession of narcotics paraphernalia.

As of late yesterday afternoon, Sheriff's officials were still checking with Sacramento to ascertain whether the confiscated goods, allegedly stolen from Richard Finear last fall, were in fact

Arraignment At 1:15 Today

Arraignment for the six black students will be held at 1:15 this afternoon at the Municipal Court, 118 East Figueroa in Santa Barbara. U.F. leaders are urging those who have transportation to go to the courthouse as early as 10:30 a.m. in case the authorities try, in the words of one leader, "to ram it through early."

BSU leaders have also called a rally for noon today on the UCen lawn, from which they expect large numbers of students to leave for the courthouse.

by Channel Properties, the local owners of the building. Robert C. Olshausen, of Channel Properties, was not available for comment yesterday, but it was learned that the notice was based on an alleged failure to pay rent.

Noon BSU Rally-- 'Trumped-Up Charges'

By BECCA WILSON and GARY HANAUER EG Staff Writers

Members of the United Front (U.F.) yesterday charged that the arrest of seven members of the Black Student Union (BSU) was part of a large-scale police "conspiracy" and based on "trumped-up charges."

"Nine pigs fell into my crib this morning and confiscated everything of value," Robert Mason, a member of the BSU, told a noon-time on-campus rally.

The BSU also charged that one of their members, Rashidi, was served with an "eviction notice at 6 a.m. by 20 armed policemen...some with sawed-off shotguns."

Another spokesman hinted that the "conspiracy against rabble-rousers" extended onto campus. "The Sociology Department has refused to fund teaching assistants for Sociology 137 (Black Nationalism), the most popular class in the Sociology Department...persons we feel are qualified."

Complaints about the "private negotiations" currently going on with the administration were also revealed. United Front termed the "meetings definitely

BSU STATEMENT CLAIMS

Arrests 'Politically' Motivated

(Editor's note: The following statement was released to EL GAUCHO late yesterday afternoon by the Black Student Union.)

Seven members of the Black Student Union, including one sister, were arrested by the Sheriff's department early yesterday morning on the alleged charges of possession of stolen goods and narcotics paraphernalia.

These arrests are an undeniably blatant form of political harassment. Two of the Black students arrested were Rashidi and Maurice Rainey. Maurice and Rashidi, besides being on the BSU's guiding central committee, are the BSU's two chief negotiators in the talks that are taking place with the UCSB administration concerning the demands of the United Front.

When these arrests are coupled with the earlier arrests of Andrew Jackson, a member of the BSU's central committee and a vocal spokesman for the BSU, and the recent attempted arrest of Rashidi, the political harassment of the BSU's leadership can't be denied.

This arresting and incarcerating of the BSU's leadership--particularly its negotiators--is an attempt to discredit the BSU and its demands. The powers that be hope that their attempts to damage the reputation of the BSU will result in the disintegration of the campus community that has rallied behind the BSU's demands.

This attempt to damage the image of the BSU is supported by the policeman who said it is irrelevant whether the BSU members are innocent or guilty. The fact is they have been arrested and charges will be brought against them.

All students and members of the community must be made aware of the nature of these arrests. Although these arrests are political harassment in its most obvious form, they also constitute attempts on the part of the powers that be to buy time in order to forestall its inevitable confrontation with the Black students and their supporters.

The role of the UCSB administration in these acts of political harassment must not be overlooked. In the non-public negotiations that were taking place between the United Front and the administration, it was agreed that all business between the Sheriff's department and members of the campus community would be conducted through the UCSB campus police. Those individuals of the campus community who are wasted by the Sheriff's department would be informed of such by the campus police.

The agreement also stipulated that within a reasonable amount of time after being informed of the warrant for his arrest, the individual involved would be expected to answer to the Sheriff's department.

This morning, not one of the seven Black students arrested was informed by the administration through the campus police that the Sheriff's department had a warrant for his arrest. Clearly the administration has breached its agreement with the United Front. One wonders if this is indicative of future breaches on the part of the administration.

There doesn't seem to be a limit to the extent that the powers that be will go to stifle change and maintain the status quo. The escalation of their regressive acts on those who dare to make change is imminent.

Our only salvation is for the United Front and its supporters to continue its relentless struggle for the implementation of the just demands. Efforts to discredit the BSU and hence negate its demands will prove fruitless.

The commitment of the BSU, UMAS, SDS, and their supporters is firm and final and by no means, the discrediting of the BSU and political harassment notwithstanding, will we allow ourselves to be swayed from our goal of implementing our just demands.

New Dean of Grad School Announced

The appointment of Dr. Norman J. Boyan as Dean of the Graduate School of Education at the University of California, Santa Barbara, was announced today by UC President Charles J. Hitch and UCSB Chancellor Vernon I. Cheadle.

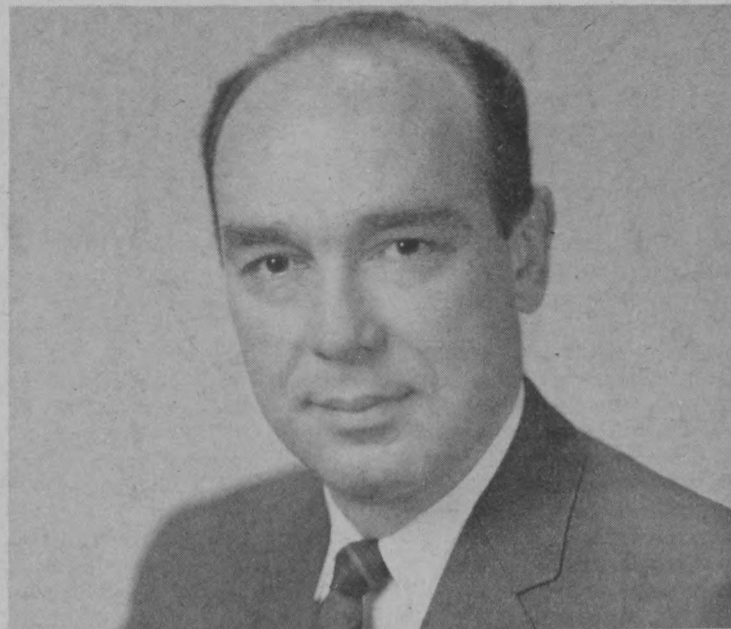

Boyan will succeed Dean R. Murray Thomas who has resigned to return to teaching and research.

On leave from his faculty position at Stanford University, Boyan is Associate Commissioner of the Bureau of Research of the U.S. Office of Education. He previously was Director of the Division of Educational Laboratories for the same office.

In making the appointment public, Cheadle said, "We look forward to Boyan's joining the UCSB academic community. He will bring to our Graduate School of Education a broad understanding of the entire American educational scene and an awareness of significant advances in current educational research. His expertise in educational administration can contribute greatly to our rapidly growing programs in education at all levels."

Boyan will be in Los Angeles next Wednesday and Thursday, February 5 and 6, to deliver a major address to the national conference of the American Educational Research Association.

The bureau which Boyan directs is responsible for a $90 million program that includes training and dissemination activities as well as research and development programs, which are aimed at improving the quality of education at all levels.

Prior to joining the Stanford staff in the field of school administration, Boyan was a consultant on secondary education, teacher education, and school organization and administration to some 25 school districts and educational organizations in eight states.

Boyan earned his Master's degree in history and doctorate in education from Harvard University. There he held the Shankland Award of the American Association of School Administrators for advanced graduate study in educational administration. He is a graduate of Bates College where he won admission to Phi Beta Kappa.

Boyan's appointment is effective July 1.

Views of Coptic Music Discussed

John Gillespie, UCSB professor of music, will lecture on "Coptic Music: Its History and Aesthetic" in Lotte Lehmann Concert Hall at 4 p.m. Tuesday, February 4 as part of the winter-spring lecture series sponsored by the UCSB department of music.

According to Gillespie, coptic music is traditionally handed down from generation to generation in oral, rather than written, form. He went on to say, "coptic music serves a very long tradition in the Middle East beginning in the fourth century, and therefore it represents the oldest surviving tradition of church music."

Gillespie's lecture is the culmination of four years of work, both in the Middle East and the United States, under a grant by the American Council of Learned Societies. His soon to be released publication titled "The Coptic Mass of St. Basil" will comprise seven long playing records with an accompanying essay.

Since joining the UCSB faculty in 1952, Gillespie has concertized widely as a pianist and harpsichordist in Europe and the United States. More recently, his book dealing with the history and appreciation of music, "The Musical Experience," was published last year by the Wadsworth Publishing Company.

French Drama Here Sunday

A Moliere farce "Les Fourberies de Scapin," will be presented in French by a noted company of players at UCSB's Campbell Hall on Sunday, February 9, at 8 p.m.

Actors of Le Treteau de Paris, on a 30-city North American tour sponsored by the Government of France, have delighted Continental audiences with "Scapin," one of Moliere's most raucous and controversial comedic romps.

Le Treteau de Paris (literally translated, "the portable boards of Paris") was formed 11 years ago by Jean de Rigault. It became the first French company to tour the world since 1891 and tours the United States annually. New York City appearances draw sell-out crowds and rave reviews from theater critics.

"Scapin," directed by Jacques Fornier, is being presented here by the UCSB Committee on Arts and Lectures. Reserved seat tickets are on sale at $3 (students $2) at the Arts and Lectures ticket office, Building 402 at UCSB, phone 961-3535, at La Cumbre Discount Record Center, and at the Lobero Theater.

Student Unrest

"Student Unrest in Germany" will be the subject of a lecture by Dr. Walther Killy, Rektor of the University of Gottingen, Germany, when he lectures in Campbell Hall at UCSB Tuesday, February 4, at 4 p.m.

The public is invited to hear Killy who is currently a visiting professor at the Santa Cruz campus of the University of California.

Born in Bonn, Killy received his doctorate from the University of Tubeingen, Germany. He has been a visiting professor at Harvard University and the University of Copenhagen. He was a Rockefeller Fellow in 1957 and 1958 and held the Kunofrancke Chair of German Literature at Harvard in 1966.

Author of a number of books, Killy also is the editor of several large series of books.

Discriminatory Law Enforcement Must Stop

ISSUE: Do you believe in discriminatory political harassment and law enforcement yet?

One has to wonder about the motives behind the recent actions of the Santa Barbara County Sheriff's office, the latest being the arrests of seven members of the Black Student Union in Isla Vista yesterday morning.

We look at these arrests as definite cases of discriminatory political harassment and law enforcement, as a serious escalation in an already tense, local political-educational situation.

To those arrested, the case is merely another in a long series of reminders that politically aware blacks and chicanos (formerly read as niggers, slaves and beaners) are in for all the reprisals and punitive measures found in a society that is seeing the motives and rationales behind its pretensions and bigotry being stripped barer day by day.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal."

The above postulate is really an axiom that some refuse to believe.

The seven people evicted were evicted, in large part, because they are black. There were as many as 20 arresting officers involved because the suspects are black.

Doors and windows were smashed in a routine eviction case because the inhabitants were black.

In large part, Eldridge Cleaver is running because he is black, Bobby Hutton is dead because he was black, Bobby Seale is in jail because he is black.

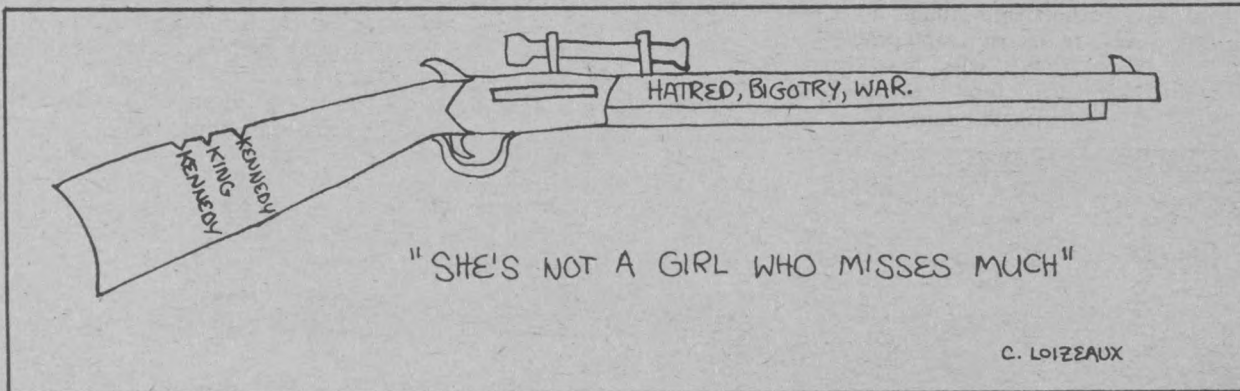

Hundreds of people are searched unreasonably, seized and degraded every day because they are black.

From its inception, the concept of civil rights was a hypocritical sham that never mentioned the more thoroughgoing concept of human rights.

The rhetoric of the United Front and other self-styled revolutionaries is derived from these hard realities.

Our current higher education system is geared for the well-tailored production of human cogs made to fit into those jobs which society most needs to be filled. Never a thought of moral sense or a tinge of moral judgment, just go on your way, cheat a little, lie a little, have your fun, make your buck.

We're getting tired of this smug, insulated selfishness. These people are being harassed because, like the Black Panthers in Oakland, they are confronting white America with truths which have been suppressed for so long, for so long.

LETTERS

Truly Wonderful

One of the world's favorite indoor and outdoor sports, especially popular on campuses, is apologizing for Ho Chi Minh and his Communist SS-men. Truly wondrous to behold are the prodigies of intellectual and moral contortion accomplished by those "humanitarian" sages who make excuse after slimy excuse for the monstrous crimes committed by Ho and his goons, not the least of which are his massive pogroms in North Vietnam and his aggressions against the rest of Southeast Asia, while piously ranting about "U.S. imperialism" and "American atrocities."

We are told that Ho's regime is only interested in building an enlightened, modern society in Vietnam (even if at gunpoint) and that "this is just a civil war." I would refer Ho's apologists to the following passage in the Dec. 17, 1968 National Review:

"Shortly after the start of the Paris talks, Truong Chinh, number three man in the North Vietnamese politburo, gave a 23,000 word lecture to the Communist cadres in Hanoi. He said that North Vietnam's objective was to conquer South Vietnam and transform it into a "socialist society" using whatever "revolutionary violence" was necessary--purges, executions, torture, that sort of thing.

"Once that was accomplished the other states of Indochina-Laos and Cambodia--would have to be brought into the socialist sphere and then Hanoi would 'bring liberation to the oppressed peoples' of the rest of Southeast Asia. Truong Chinh said military force and negotiation would be used alternately or simultaneously in this battle. He credited the 'contradictions between the doves and the hawks in the American ruling class' with helping Hanoi in its objectives.

"it's all down there on paper, just as "Mein Kampf" was a generation or more ago. What it outlines is the domino theory."

Why, Why, Why?

Why do black students use obscene language? Frankly it does not bother me and it should not bother anyone else. As a psychiatrist would say: it is their problem, not mine or ours.

The black students, who use this language, no doubt are suffering from an inferiority complex and it gives them certain self-recognition by attracting attention.

A few weeks ago one of the "leaders" was addressing a group of students in front of the University Library. The use of the filthy language gave him courage and the attention of others.

"Why do you have to use these filthy words?" I asked.

"Because I come from the ghetto and this is the language of my people," he answered. I suggested that he had no right to accuse nice and decent colored people of using such vocabulary, and called his attention to such great Americans with black skin like Dr. Martin Luther King, Dr. Ralph Bunch, a recipient of the Nobel prize, Mr. Weaver, a member of Johnson's cabinet, U.S. Senator Brooke from Massachusetts, etc.

These men did not and do not use the obscene language.

As long as the young girls and boys will continue to enjoy the spectacle as performed by the few Panthers and BSU members as they did on the campus of UCSB Friday, January 17, some blacks will use this language.

But I have noticed that the novelty of it has been on the decrease and so has the interest of the students. The blacks with their four-letter words are no longer the heroes.

HANGIN' IT OUT

Still No Air

By JOHN MAYBURY

Three weeks have passed since I gave the UCen notice that I would no longer support its airless inhumanity. According to my threat, I withheld the $6 of my incidental fees earmarked "UCen."

Now they say I'll lose my student status if I don't pay; what do you think of that? I offered to give the $6 to whoever is planning the new UCen, Unit II, but was told that my money would have to go to the Regents to pay off the present UCen.

I also found out that the new UCens (one facility next to the present one, the other out in I.V.) will probably not have much more appeal than the present one.

All I really want is natural "cross ventilation." I don't happen to like an air blower puking out all this fetid so-called "air." I am allergic to artificial air. I want fresh air. Now why should I have to pay for something that I don't want?

Fellow students, the UCen is run by a non-student who has imposed his tastes on us. But it is not his fault, because you have not protested. You are letting him do this to us.

Bob Lorden thinks shiny floors are the most important thing; if you know better, you have to tell him. You have to tell him what you want, and you'll get it. Or else, Bob will be out of a job.

And in all fairness to Bob, he knows that. He just does what he thinks is right, in a vacuum created by your apathy toward your own environment. Where is this great student vitality? The alternative culture? The hipness of our generation?

Some of the good folks have been doing a Diggers Free Food thing; others went to Lorden demanding that he pipe in rock music and throw away those sickening Muzak tapes.

But this is only a drop in the bucket. There is so much to be done. The place looks terrible. Let's paint it, put up posters, burn incense, have some T.V.'s set up, a jukebox, some pinball machines, late night hours, more student personnel with real names and real functions, some big bulletin/announcement boards, fresh air, music, better food, lower prices, etc. etc.

If you have good ideas on how to improve the UCen, send them to me in care of EL GAUCHO, then talk to Bob Lorden and make sure he follows up on it.

SECRET NOTICE TO BOB LORDEN AND STAFF: Please show me one improvement that's been made in the UCen since my original criticism appeared, and I swear I'll pay my $6 to the cashier immediately.

P.S. Did you know that the law says a State building, like the University, within 50 miles of the coast should not have "forced air?" Modern architects are ignoring this and cramming their preconceived notions down our throats.

I urge you to contact Dr. Gary Hess, of the Campus Planning subcommittee on miscellaneous facilities and insist on natural ventilation in the new UCens.

"You've made the Deans' List and you've got 24 hours before he comes looking for you."

37th Roadrunner Revue Opens Wednesday Night

CAST MEMBERS of the 1969 Roadrunner Review take time off from their world travels. Representing talent from the Music, Drama, and Dance Departments, the 60-member cast was chosen from more than 120 individuals who tried out. Roadrunner opens Wednesday night in Campbell Hall. Tickets are available at the UCen Information Booth.

Roadrunner Enjoys Long Tradition

By LARRY BOGGS
EG Staff Writer

Roadrunner Revue, UCSB's only extant tradition, began in 1932 when a group of students and faculty members presented an all-campus talent show dubbed after the school mascot.

In the early years of Roadrunner, students entered scripts for the production into competition for a cash prize. The winner also became the director of the show. Basically a musical with a theme, Roadrunner included in its cast students as well as members of the faculty and staff.

After the close of World War II, the production assumed more of its present day format, that of a campus musical variety program.

Many of the early Roadrunners were performed at what is now the Riviera Theater, at one time the main auditorium of Santa Barbara State College. In 1944, the college became a branch of the University of California, and was termed the Riviera Campus.

Roadrunner continued production through 1954 when the University moved to its present site, and it was the only University activity not to assume the new name "Gauchos."

From 1955 until 1960 the Roadrunner Revue was discontinued because of the dominance of Barbary Coast, an annual entertainment event that attracted students from all over California. Gradually, Barbary Coast became too rowdy to handle, and the Associated Students discontinued it.

The revival of Roadrunner in 1960 came about mainly through the efforts of Hal Brendle, UCSB Band Director. As a student at UCSB in the 1950's, Brendle participated in several of the Roadrunner productions, and still serves as composer, arranger, and musical director for the annual program.

Uniting students mainly from the drama, dance, and music departments, the Roadrunner Revue has contributed money to scholarship funds in the past. In recent years, proceeds from ticket sales have been channeled into the UCSB Marching Band budget.

OVER THE YEARS the Roadrunner Revue has presented a wide variety of musical-comedy material. Appearing in the 1935 production, the Oriental Chorus specialized in the seduction of unsuspecting sailors.

The 1969 Roadrunner Revue will open Wednesday night and run through February 8 in Campbell Hall with a musical-comedy whirl-wind tour of the world.

Following two little old lady tourists from Lower Sandusky, Ohio, played by Joan Corey and Sharon Rasmussen, the chorus will float out of an airport to faraway places and destinations. During its odyssey it will encounter four Frenchmen in search of a long lost girlfriend, and will have the opportunity to observe the precision clockwork of the Swiss.

At one point an archaeologist will discuss her academic problems of finding a tribe on which to write a diatribe for her thesis. At another, the finesse of the Great American Lover will be demonstrated in a Japanese teahouse.

Showing that airplane pilots are a breed all their own, some typical ones fly the revue around the world. A harem dance keeps them flying even though the plane has already landed.

The music and dance highlights of the revue will include native folksongs and dances from a myriad of countries including Japan, Germany and Russia.

As in the past, cast members for the 1969 Roadrunner Revue were selected by auditions open to all UCSB students. This year 130 students auditioned, and 60 were chosen for parts. The full company, including performers, musicians, and technicians, totals 90 people.

The director for the 1969 Roadrunner Revue is John Walker; assistant director, Dick Radosh. Susan Hughs, Bill Wenger, and Diane Shillman are in charge of choreography. Lighting and set designs are by Tamara Compton and Tim Hayes; costumes are by Lynn Donaldson-Butler.

If you want to know what color tennis shoes the Abominable Snowman wears, see the 1969 Roadrunner Revue.

TBA Trounces Pass/Fail And SAE Slugs Phi Sigs

By CLAY KALLAM
EG Sports Staff

Intramurals' Top Ten poll will receive quite a shakeup this week as upsets were the rule rather than the exception in "A" Division play. However, the unexpected did not happen in badminton doubles as SAE's Dave Freeman and Howard Howard grabbed off first place in a breeze.

In perhaps the most stunning upset this year, TBA coolly closed the door on Pass/Fail and dropped the number two team by a 53-39 score. Rich Emard pumped in 23 and Mike Whiteside (who missed TBA's only loss to the Sig Eps) tallied 14. Steve Rhoda hit for 15 for the losers and musical John Fa-so-la got 12.

Phi Sigma Kappa caught their first defeat from the good shooting of SAE guards Mike Berger and Jim Pope as the E's emerged victorious 42-35. Berger contributed 14 and Pope 10 for the third SAE win against one setback.

Sigma Phi Epsilon raised their record to 2-1 with a 44-35 win over the Delts as Rick LaBare tallied 14 points. Nigel's knocked off the Alpha Delts with Tim O'Brien of the losers getting 17 points.

Theta Delta Chi dropped their fourth straight to the GBTB's 61-33 as Roy Hames poured in 23 points for the "A" Division high last week. The Phi Psis continued their winning ways with a 45-38 triumph over the Phi Delts despite Harry Matsinger's 16.

The Basketballs took a bad bounce against Lambda Chi and lost 57 to 31. Sigma Chi remained one of the four undefeated IM teams with a 53-20 win over ZBT. Tim Travers tallied 15 for the triumphant team. Canadian Club upset the Crabdarts 32-20 behind Steve Colley's 16 points to round out "A" Division action.

Paced by a pair of piercing performances by senior Gary Breschini, Zoltan Von Somogyi's UCSB fencing team made a representative showing at the annual All-Cal Fencing Meet, Friday and Saturday at UC Riverside.

Out of the eight campuses, San Francisco being the only one in abstensia, and the 35 to 40 entrants in each of the three weapons, Breschini nabbed a first place in the sabre event and a sixth in the foil competition. His performance in the sabre event, combined with the eighth place finish of Bob Shingai gave UCSB a third place in the team competition.

Lanky John Walker chalked up a second overall in his specialty, the epee, leading the Gauchos to a fourth place team finish in that event. Walker will also compete in the upcoming Epee Invitational at Riverside February 10.

no trouble in capturing the first spot, defeating John Kilgore and John Gunther 15-7, 15-1 in the finals. The Phi Sigs were consoled with second however, with Mike Dillon and Tom Cox of the GBTB's coming in third and Bob Oehlman and John Cross of Sigma Chi fourth.

In "B" Division, Lumbard's No-Name triumphed in a thriller, 103-26 over Francisco Torres No. 7. Lumbard hit for 27, John Karp carted off 26 and Jim Cox canned 20 for the winners. The 69ers continued their winning ways with an 83-14 victory over the Striders as big John Steckel stuck in 31 points, lowering his average to 32.5. The Innmates incinerated Cleon's Clowns 76-29 as Dave Hollingsworth hunched in 20 points.

Media Men Meet Sweets-- Pride, Revenge at Stake

In a contest with as much spectator appeal as watching Paul Sweet sleep, the mighty men of this media meet the minimites from the money-minded miserables at student government in the first annual Beer Bowl basketball battle.

The titanic match is scheduled for this Friday night in Robertson Gym, immediately following the gymnastics meet.

Heading the cast for the newsmen is coach emeritus "Layup Lee" Margulies, who was named to the position by a unanimous vote of the sports editorial board, L. Margulies presiding.

When asked to comment on the game, Margulies responded, "We'll just have to play them one at a time."

Leg Council, however, will employ a different strategy. Head song leader for the senators, Sally "Sweller" Weller remarked, "Our boys are going to play them two at a time, and we're going to go, fight and win."

Sweet, elected head coach of the solons by the same democratic method, named his starters for the grudge match: Dan "Wimpy" Winton, Jim "Hotdog" Hayden, Mike "the Mind" McAlpine, George "Killer" Kieffer, Jim "Pot it"

Piridy, and that reknowned hoop talent, P. "Swisher" Sweet.

This unquestionably qualified six will take on an equally skilled EG five consisting of "Clever Clay" Kallam, Dave "Boom-Boom" Court, "Jungle Gym" Bettinger, "Bullet Bill" Graham, and backcourt whiz "Layup Lee."

Gaucha Netmen Rope Mustangs, Sunk by Waves

This may be a rebuilding year for Santa Barbara tennis, but coach Ed Doty is confident that with a little experience his team will be going great guns.

Doty expressed this sentiment after the Gauchos split a pair of matches over the weekend, dropping their debut to Pepperdine, 5-5-3-5, but knocking off Cal Poly (SLO), 6-3.

Freshman Dave Grokenberger paced the way for the netters, capturing victories in both singles matches and a win and a tie in doubles competition.

Against Pepperdine he whipped Doug Masten, 6-2, 7-5, and then teamed up with Wayne Bryan to split a two set affair with Larry Riggs and Hal Hamblen, 16-14, 3-6.

Grokenberger won his Cal Poly match, 6-2, 6-3, and then he and Bryan beat Lee Morez and Bob Easley, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Bryan, the Gauchos' top player, split in singles action, getting a 6-4, 1-6, 8-6 win against Pepperdine but suffering a 6-2, 4-6, 4-6 loss against San Luis.

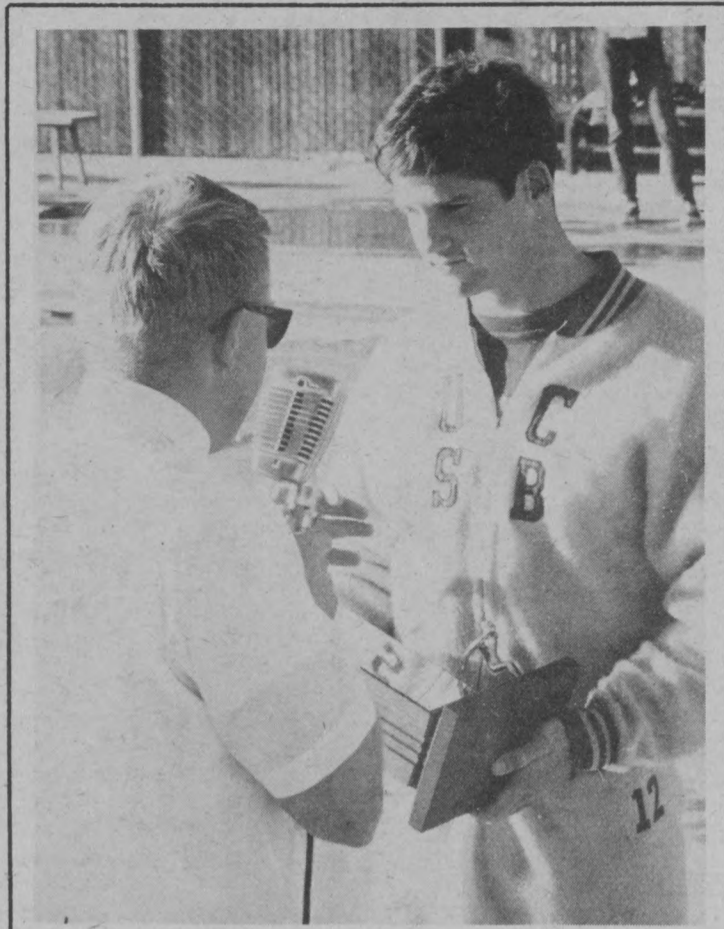

Santa Barbara's only other win against the Waves was a 6-1, 7-5 singles triumph earned by sophomore Eric Lewis.

Winners against Cal Poly included Jamie Miller, and Bill Eddy in singles, Lewis and Phil Bartlett, and Miller and Dave Snyder in doubles.

This weekend the netmen will be at UC Davis for the All-Cal tourney.

Fencing Future...

competition of the season is yet to come for the Gauchos, the annual UCLA Invitational in Los Angeles February 17 and 18. On the basis of this weekend's performance, coach Von Somogyi has high hopes for another sterling performance by his swordsmen.

TEAM TROPHY—Gaucha diving coach Bob Gary was more than pleased to present the first place trophy in the Golden Coast Swimming Championships to UCSB's captain Chuck Spink. The Gauchos scored a resounding victory in capturing their third consecutive title in this invitational, beating San Diego State and UC Irvine in the process. Gaucha Grapplers Host Cal Lutheran in Rematch Coach Bill Hammer's wrestlers will try to regain their winning form this afternoon when Cal Lutheran comes to campus for a 4 p.m. match in the Old Gym.

Cal's Kingsmen will be looking for revenge, as they suffered an 18-11 loss to the Gaucha grapplers earlier this season.

An unusual match took place Friday night when the wrestlers from UC Berkeley visited the cool confines of the Old Gym, eventually leaving it with an overwhelming victory by a score of 32-2.

Cal sophomore Steve Welsh, who has been blind since birth, wrestled in the 167 pound category against team captain Mike Spensko. In a case such as this, the wrestlers must always remain in bodily contact throughout the match, therefore eliminating any offensive moves that would resemble a dive (which is a take-down maneuver). By using this to somewhat relieve his wrestling handicap, Welsh remained dominant throughout the match to win by a 7-0 margin.

The Gauchos donated 10 points to begin the match by having to forfeit in two weight classes, one because of an injury, and the other due to emergency circumstances.

In the other categories, there was only one match that put UCSB on the scoreboard. Gaucha Bruce McCampbell and Cal's Rich Dees fought it out closely for the first two periods of the 160 pound bout, with McCampbell dominating by one point in the third. Due to riding time advantage for Cal, one point was awarded to tie the match at 7-7.

unfruitful because the problems still exist."

They also charged that the "administration is not committed to minority problems on this campus." Vice Chancellor Stephen Goodspeed would not comment on the U.F. statement.

"It is no accident with the increasing rallies," U.F. said, "that police harassment continues against the people most vocal and most sincerely committed."

Dr. Boughey of Sociology termed the arrests an "attack on all of this." "They (the arrested) have become the leaders of this campus," Boughey exclaimed.

Meanwhile, a United Mexican-American Students' (UMAS) spokesman called current talks with the administration "a b.s.

Cheadle

(Chancellor Vernon Cheadle released the following statement at 5:30 last night.)

Owing to the arrests Monday morning, representatives of the United Front have asked that their discussions with the administration on United Front "demands" be postponed. These discussions, which have occurred almost daily this past week, have been both cordial and productive, although we have not yet been able to discuss all the matters of common concern.

I have agreed to the United Front's request for a postponement with the hope that our discussions can be resumed at the earliest possible time.

The arrests have stimulated further student apprehension about alleged "political harassment" which has received much attention in our discussions this past week. Thus I have asked Vice Chancellor Varley to see those arrested as soon as possible and to gather other information.

commitment." "We must go out together with a fist," he urged.

Mason asked the crowd, "How are we going to negotiate (with the administration) with two of our negotiators in jail?"

Hundreds of listeners joined the "motorcade to the courthouse" at the brief rally's termination. Members were asked to show their "concern" by attending the arraignment of those arrested, "a Mickey Mouse show," according to Mason.

Later in the afternoon, A.S.

President Paul Sweet announced that an emergency bail fund has been established. When bail is returned, he explained, it will be put into an A.S. "custodial account," to be used for future student bail funds.

Sweet also announced a press conference to be held this afternoon at 3 in UCen 2284 to make a statement from the A.S. executive officers.

BSU Letter...

These members are among the most vocal students on this campus. There is no doubt that the behavior demonstrated by the police department is a political conspiracy against student activism on this campus.

As a result of negotiations held with the Chancellor, it was agreed that before any arrest could be made the police department would first contact the campus police, and then the campus police would in turn contact the accused person, so that he could surrender himself.

This agreement was violated by the police. At 7 in the morning, they invaded the students' premises with shot guns and revolvers; the students were arrested and a van lines confiscated their property without any contact with the officials on campus.

Maybe some of the students are moved to sympathy, fear, and disgust, but the issue has matured beyond those three stages — you must be moved to action. Above groans such as, "The police shouldn't do those Black Students like that," can ring out the cry for justice. We must demand a redress of grievances and justice.

The BSU sincerely hopes that those members of the student body who pledged their allegiance (Leg Council, UMAS, SDS) will come to our aid. This has gotten to be a serious matter. Until justice is declared in the name of the concerned students, BSU and the United Front will have rallies on this campus so that the student body can remain abreast of the injustices which are plaguing the academic community.

Arrests from Evictions...

In a separate incident, Earl McMillan, also of the BSU, was arrested at about 6 a.m. on charges of receiving stolen property. Approximately nine deputies, armed with shotguns, arrived to serve a warrant for his arrest and confiscate all property to determine if it were stolen.

Maurice Rainey, who was in the apartment, was not arrested at that time. He went over to the Del Playa apartment and was subsequently arrested with the others.

Witnesses reported that approximately 10 to 15 deputies continued from McMillan's residence to Rashidi's Del Playa apartment, where they demanded immediate entrance to serve the writ of possession. After yelling "Sheriffs! Open up!" the officers forced their way in through the door and a window, breaking both in the process.

Allen, who was in the bedroom, grabbed a gun at the sound of the breaking window, but dropped it when confronted by the deputies. The deputies then rounded up the occupants, some of whom had been asleep, and lined them against the wall.

They then began an inventory of the apartment, in the process discovering the drugs and stolen property which are under investigation.

By 9:30 a.m. a number of curious onlookers had gathered outside the apartment. The crowd exchanged verbal taunts with the officers, and were told to leave the scene. One eye-witness reported that when he asked an officer what was going on, he was told that "these damn niggers...should go to Alabama and get a real education from George Wallace."

Another told a reporter that the Sheriff's office "knew this stuff was in there. This (the eviction notice) was just the easiest way to get in."

Many officers, including policewomen, then began arriving on the confused scene. Shortly afterward, the six suspects were handcuffed and led to waiting squad cars. The contents of the apartment were later removed by Lyons moving vans.

Members of the BSU called an emergency noon rally (see story on page 1) after which approximately 300 students drove to the Santa Barbara courthouse to attend the arraignments of the seven students.

McMillan was the only suspect arraigned, however, on a charge of receiving stolen property. His bail was set at $1,230 with the stipulation that he may be released on his own recognizance sometime today.

Professors Otey Scruggs and

William Chambliss appeared as character references on behalf of McMillan. Judge Joseph Lodge, who normally would have heard the arraignment proceedings, stepped down from the bench after acknowledging acquaintance with several professors.

However, because of McMillan's previous probation record, the chances of his release on his own recognizance appear doubtful.

The large group of students who gathered outside of the courthouse after the conclusion of the arraignment, then proceeded to Sheriff James Webster's office.

After much commotion, students made it known that they refused to leave until Webster offered an explanation of the morning's events.

Speaking through a hand speaker, Webster addressed the crowd and answered some questions before retiring to his office.

Asked why 20 Sheriffs were sent with shotguns to issue an eviction notice, Webster replied that there were not that many officers present.
