WOMEN INITIATION TO BE HELD TONIGHT

The annual A. W. S. back woods party for the college women will be held tonight in the college Refer­ cteria from fifteen to thirty-nine.

The program consists of dancing to the music of the Sanborn Orch­ estra. All students are invited to be present.

The officers for this year are: President, Mrs. Olive Johnston; first vice-president, Esther Jan­ son; second vice-president, Esther Ten­ sen; treasurer, S. O. Werner; com­ munication manager, Estelle Kenney.

The largest crowd in attendance was on the floor at the Eagle Office, 11.5%; women's athletics, 14%; La Cumbre, 10%; Forum, 47.5%, a decrease from 48% last year, the national convention of the Eagle. The Social committee's budget was placed behind the office of treasurer and sec­ retary respectively.

Social Committee, La Cumbre, Eagle Requests for More Money Is Denied

Over an objection of five votes, the social committee, meeting Tues­ day night on the campus, ac­ cepted the budget made by the Budget committee, Miss Bradley, Mr. Peters, and Miss Severy.

One-half per cent was taken from both the Women's Athletics and the national convention of the La Cumbre were all denied because of the Board of student managers of the Men's athletics.

As seen in the reports of these three organizations, The Eagle, the La Cumbre, and the Social committee, more money is needed to allow the Forum club its original one per cent of the budget. A request for a bog roll was made by the Social committee, a one­ half per cent on the Social committee. The Social committee will have charge of the stage, costume and decorations; and Beth Teal, Blanche Henninger and Clara Parretti on the place card committee.

The annual A. W. S. backwards change was announced yesterday. Mr. Harris requests that all students present be present.

Those who have signified their interest for the dance will be given admission tickets for the dance will be given admission tickets. Admission tickets will be available for $1. The Social committee will have charge of the gate.

EDITOR TO EXPRESS A PERSONAL GRIEVANCE

This is going to be a special kind of editorial, a personal one, expressing a grievance, and one the editor who hates to write editorials that aren't read. For that matter, anything that has happened which might lower the prestige of the school.

In the beginning is the end. In order to worry and get your way over trying to think of something to write for someone who is really realizing there was anything written for him.

Yes, there is something, however, that wants mention. And that is, it's going to get it, whether anybody realizes it or not.

The author of the column "Yep!" is allowed the privilege of expressing himself in a sugar-coated pill or in quinine. Harry Carr, who forcefully expresses himself in the column, "The Lancer," in the Los Angeles Times, is never called upon to retract and recant. "Yep!" might be entirely read, but to its author is given the same immunity from apologies as Harry Carr, Arthur Brisbane, O. O. McIntyre, and others.

The author of this column is one of those who would not think of being criticized as the same statements. It is meant to be.

If you are not the one you are trying to interview an old man and you are the one read.

If your name should appear in the paper, don't tell us how you are doing. Ask us if you are doing. If you are doing, and mine do not coincide — do not feel bad.

Two people seldom have the same thoughts. "Yep!"

If you are not the one you are trying to interview an old man and you are the one read.

This is the result of numerous comments and criticisms. I felt that I should write a special column apologizing to all those who were defamed or deflected in this column last week.

First of all — I would like to let you know that the platform and standards of this column:

1 — It aims to amuse.
2 — It tries to criticize unhappily.
3 — It tries to give good publicity.
4 — It strives to promote thinking and stands back of what is written.

Now, if anyone has the good faculty or ability of finding two interpretations for one of mine, remember this — I am the one writing and you are the one reading. If your opinion and mine do not coincide — do not feel bad.

Two people seldom have the same thoughts.

If in any column the truth is expressed and hits the core a trifle unexpectedly, try to get unprepared for it. You may get hurt.

If your conscience bothers you — keep it to yourself; we do not want it.

If you are not the one you are trying to interview an old man and you are the one read.

Your mind is yours. A Student.

You should try to get down to something beneficial and of interest to the Student Body. I'd like to put a little proposition before the students as to how to raise a little money for an extra dance.

For little or nothing, the gondola used by the Freshman Class last year might be rented and a fee of five cents a ride could be charged for paddling said gondola around the pond on the campus.

Or even the Sophomore's bridge could be used as a little whisky or fishing stand. As far as that goes, we could have our own fish club. All American football team dive for wooden pennies in the pond.

W. A. A. ENTERTAIN WOMEN OF COLLEGE

The W. A. A. entertainment for the A. W. S. was reported a great success although only about seventy-five women attended. Louise Lowery was at the head of the program committee.

After the box supper on the lawn, Norma Perry, president of the W. A. A., spoke a few words of welcome to the guests. There followed a short program of skits and selections by the women of the W. A. A.

The managers of the various sports were introduced: Mildred Wright, hockey; Mildred Mincher, basketball; Elizabeth Nute, volleyball; Anna Nygren, archery; Louise Lowery, ice skating; and Doris Woods, hiking.

A skit, by seven members of the biking club, told clearly and expressively what it is to do on a bike. Dancing and games completed the program.

Are Beauty Winners Permanent or Not?

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7. — Are winners of America's beauty contests permanent or failing stars? The controversy has been brought to the foreground by the National Council of Public Women in conference here, in a movement continuing the beauty pageant as detrimental to the nation's morals and of no real value to the winners themselves.

In a survey to ascertain what becomes of the Miss Americas after winning the highest beauty honors, the United Press discovered that the permanent value of the victory is unquestionably negligible.

Not a single winner in the famous Atlantic City pageant has been accepted as a star in either stage or screen, where one might expect their beauty to have the greatest value. All have flitted across the front pages of America's newspapers, comic-joke, and, occasionally, as a film star.

Only since the contests started in 1921 has achieved any sort of success, and that one Miss Margaret Gorman, Miss America in 1921 — by marriage a prominent personality.

Mild "Anna" Writes Fervently to Robert

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 7.— Burning love letters from "Red Haired Anna," which "Dr. Homer Thompson, alleged love cult leader of Cleveland swindled with equal force and treasured as the prime of his mass of epistles from young women, were composed by a group of chuckling fraternity boys at the University of Michigan.

How Thompson was duped was revealed recently by U. S. postal inspectors.

The letters of "Red Haired Anna" were so fervent that Thompson kept them in a separate packet from the bushel of his other "love and federal narcotic agents raided

 Milwaukee State Has Music on Grid

A new system has been inaugurated on the football field of the Milwaukee State college in Wisconsin. It is the co-relating of the music and athletic departments in the teaching of team play rhythm on the part of the men.

According to Coach Clapp, this will enable a light team, striking as one, to smash through a much heavier opposition with an ease that would be impossible if the attack were not properly timed.

Oregon U. Season For Swim Excellent

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 7. — The prospect for a successful season in swimming at the University of Oregon this year has been justified by judging from the records set by last year's Freshman team, accorded as the finest in the Northwest.

Coach John Anderson, Freshman flash of last winter, is very good material, and the Northwest Coast championship in the 100-yard freestyle, and the Northwest record in the 150-yard backstroke.

The team took an overwhelming victory over the O. A. C. Rooks taking the sting out of the defeat the varsity team suffered. Charles Silverman also will be de- pounded upon to uphold the record set last year in the 230-yard freestyle, and judging from the records set by last year's Freshman team, accord-

Outing Club Makes Drive for Members

The Outing club will have one last drive for membership and all members are urged to bring their friends; then the membership will close. Anyone wishing to join after that will be placed on the waiting list," stated Dora Wood, secretary-treasurer of the club.

The officers are now making plans for improvements on the club’s cabin on the Santa Ynez river with Mr. Mendenhall, chief ranger in Santa Barbara.

Mr. Mendenhall stated that the club has the best cabin site in that vicinity. Only upon the payment of a certain fee by the Outing club will the Student Body be able to retain possession of the cabin. It was learned last Tuesday that arrangements for the selling of a Liberty Bond held by the Student Body are under way. It is improbable that the cabin revert to the government.

ROADERUNNER LEADER

Captain Foss is earning a reputation as one of California’s best punters.

S. B. S. C. WINS FROM PASADENA PIRATES: 14-0

Playing good football at times and taking advantage of breaks in the game, the Roadrunners snatched the Pasadena Junior college Pirates for a 14-0 win. The highly touted Pasadena squad failed to show anything like real football throughout the game.

The first half was slow and uninteresting with Santa Barbara in possession of the ball most of the time, but unable to score. The team seems to lack confidence and punch.

The second half found a spirited and hard-pressed Roadrunners team in the field. Lyman Curtis carried the ball five successive plays and kicked off tackle for thirteen yards for the first score. Captain Foss converted. The other score came when the Pirate safety fumbled a punt and Capt. Foss fell on the ball over the goal line and converted. This ended the scoring for the day, although the locals kept the ball in Pasadena territory the remainder of the game.

Outstanding men for Pasadena were Brownlee, end; Cannavina, half; and Arnold, quarterback. Outstanding men for Santa Barbara were Brownlee, end; Cannavina, half; and Arnold, quarterback. These three men bore the brunt of the Pirate offensive.

Lyman Curtis was easily the star of the Santa Barbara eleven, pushing the ball off tackle and through the line for several nice gains. Thurmond, playing his first year, showed up in a capable line backer, as did Clemore. Imes and Hickman did some fancy stuff, the latter turning in a thirty-five-yard run as his contribution.

Coach DeGroot used almost the entire squad, running in the full string in the last period.
